child for violating section 2909.05, 2909.06, or 2909.07 of the 17
Revised Code and if restitution is appropriate under the 18 circumstances of the case, the court shall require the child to 19 make restitution for the property damage caused by the child's 20 violation as a condition of the child's probation. If the child is 21 adjudicated a delinquent child because the child violated any 22 other section of the Revised Code, the court may require the child 23 as a condition of the child's probation to make restitution for 24 the property damage caused by the child's violation and for the 25 value of the property that was the subject of the violation the 26 child committed if it would be a theft offense, as defined in 27 division (K) of section 2913.01 of the Revised Code, if committed 28 by an adult. The restitution may be in the form of a cash 29

original condition, the performance of a reasonable amount of 32 labor for the victim approximately equal to the value of the 33

the property that is the subject of the violation if it would be a 35 theft offense if committed by an adult, the performance of 36 community service or community work, any other form of restitution 37

all other required or permissive conditions of probation that the court imposes upon the delinquent child pursuant to division (A)(2) of this section, shall require the child as a condition of the child's probation to abide by the law during the period of probation, including, but not limited to, complying with the provisions of Chapter 2923. of the Revised Code relating to the possession, sale, furnishing, transfer, disposition, purchase, acquisition, carrying, conveying, or use of, or other conduct involving, a firearm or dangerous ordnance, as defined in section 2923.11 of the Revised Code.

(3) Commit the child to the temporary custody of any school, camp, institution, or other facility operated for the care of delinquent children by the county, by a district organized under section 2151.34 or 2151.65 of the Revised Code, or by a private agency or organization, within or without the state, that is authorized and qualified to provide the care, treatment, or placement required;

(4) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that would be a felony of the third, fourth, or fifth degree if committed by an adult or for violating division (A) of section 2923.211 of the Revised Code, commit the child to the legal custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization for an indefinite term consisting of a minimum period of six months and a maximum period not to exceed the child's attainment of twenty-one years of age;

child, or was less than three years younger than the delinquent child, commit the child to the legal custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization in a secure facility for an indefinite term consisting of a minimum period of one to three years, as prescribed by the court, and a maximum period not to exceed the child's attainment of twenty-one years of age;

(b) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for violating section 2923.02 of the Revised Code and if the violation involves an attempt to commit a violation of section 2903.01 or 2903.02 of the Revised Code, commit the child to the legal custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization in a secure facility for an indefinite term consisting of a minimum period of six to seven years, as prescribed by the court, and a maximum period not to exceed the child's attainment of twenty-one years of age;

(c) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for institutionalization in a secure facility for an indefinite term consisting of a minimum period of one year and a maximum period

(6) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing a violation of section 2903.01 or 2903.02 of the

the Revised Code, that would be a felony if committed by an adult

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

and is committed to the legal custody of the department of youth services pursuant to division (A)(4), (5), or (6) of this section and if the court determines that the child, if the child was an adult, would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.141, 2941.144, 2941.145, ~~or 2941.146,~~ or 2941.1412 of the Revised Code in relation to the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, commit the child to the legal custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization in a secure facility for the following period of time, subject to division (A)(7)(d) of this section:

(i) If the child would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.141 of the Revised Code, a period of one year;

(ii) If the child would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.144, 2941.145, ~~or 2941.146,~~ or 2941.1412 of the Revised Code, a period of three years.

(b) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing a category one offense or a category two offense and is committed to the legal custody of the department of youth services pursuant to division (A)(5) or (6) of this section and if the court determines that the child, if the child was an adult, would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.142 of the Revised Code in relation to the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, the court shall commit the child to the legal custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization in a secure facility for a period of not less than one year or more than three years, subject to division (A)(7)(d) of this section.

(c) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that would be an offense of violence that is a felony if committed by an adult and is committed to the legal custody of the department of youth services pursuant to division

(A)(4), (5), or (6) of this section and if the court determines that the child, if the child was an adult, would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.1411 of the Revised Code in relation to the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, the court may commit the child to the custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization in a secure facility for two years, subject to division (A)(7)(d) of this section.

(d) A court that imposes a period of commitment under division (A)(7)(a) of this section is not precluded from imposing an additional period of commitment under division (A)(7)(b) or (c) of this section, a court that imposes a period of commitment under division (A)(7)(b) of this section is not precluded from imposing an additional period of commitment under division (A)(7)(a) or (c) of this section, and a court that imposes a period of commitment under division (A)(7)(c) of this section is not precluded from imposing an additional period of commitment under division (A)(7)(a) or (b) of this section. The court shall not commit a child to the legal custody of the department of youth services pursuant to division (A)(7)(a), (b), or (c) of this section for a period of time that exceeds three years. The period of commitment imposed pursuant to division (A)(7)(a), (b), or (c) of this section shall be in addition to, and shall be served consecutively with and prior to, a period of commitment ordered pursuant to division (A)(4), (5), or (6) of this section, provided that the total of all the periods of commitment shall not exceed the child's attainment of twenty-one years of age.

(8) Impose a fine and costs in accordance with the schedule set forth in section 2151.3512 of the Revised Code;

(9) Require the child to make restitution for all or part of the property damage caused by the child's delinquent act and for all or part of the value of the property that was the subject of

any delinquent act the child committed that would be a theft offense, as defined in division (K) of section 2913.01 of the Revised Code, if committed by an adult. If the court determines that the victim of the child's delinquent act was sixty-five years of age or older or permanently and totally disabled at the time of the commission of the act, the court, regardless of whether or not the child knew the age of the victim, shall consider that fact in favor of imposing restitution, but that fact shall not control the decision of the court. The restitution may be in the form of a cash reimbursement paid in a lump sum or in installments, the performance of repair work to restore any damaged property to its original condition, the performance of a reasonable amount of labor for the victim, the performance of community service or community work, any other form of restitution devised by the revoke the driver's license, probationary driver's license, or temporary instruction permit issued to the child or suspend or revoke the registration of all motor vehicles registered in the name of the child. A child whose license or permit is so suspended or revoked is ineligible for issuance of a license or permit during the period of suspension or revocation. At the end of the period of suspension or revocation, the child shall not be reissued a license or permit until the child has paid any applicable reinstatement fee and complied with all requirements governing license reinstatement.

(11) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that, if committed by an adult, would be a criminal offense that would qualify the adult as an eligible offender pursuant to division (A)(3) of section 2929.23 of the Revised Code, impose a period of electronically monitored house detention in accordance with division (J) of this section that	205 does not exceed the maximum sentence of imprisonment that could be	206 imposed upon an adult who commits the same act;	207

(12) Impose a period of day reporting in which the child is	208 required each day to report to and leave a center or other	209
approved reporting location at specified times in order to	210
participate in work, education or training, treatment, and other	211
approved programs at the center or outside the center;	212
(13) Impose a period of electronically monitored house arrest	213
in accordance with division (J) of this section;	214
(14) Impose a period of community service of up to five	215 hundred hours;	216
(15) Impose a period in an alcohol or drug treatment program	217
with a level of security for the child as determined necessary by	218
the court;	219
(16) Impose a period of intensive supervision, in which the	220 child is required to maintain frequent contact with a person	221 appointed by the court to supervise the child while the child is	222 seeking or maintaining employment and participating in training,	223
education, and treatment programs as the order of disposition;	224
(17) Impose a period of basic supervision, in which the child	225 is required to maintain contact with a person appointed to	226 supervise the child in accordance with sanctions imposed by the	227
court;	228
(18) Impose a period of drug and alcohol use monitoring;	229
(19) Impose a period in which the court orders the child to	230 observe a curfew that may involve daytime or evening hours;	231
(20) Require the child to obtain a high school diploma, a	232 certificate of high school equivalence, or employment;	233
(21) If the court obtains the assent of the victim of the	234

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

criminal act committed by the child, require the child to participate in a reconciliation or mediation program that includes a meeting in which the child and the victim may discuss the criminal act, discuss restitution, and consider other sanctions for the criminal act;

(22) Commit the child to the temporary or permanent custody of the court;

(23) Require the child to not be absent without legitimate excuse from the public school the child is supposed to attend for five or more consecutive days, seven or more school days in one school month, or twelve or more school days in a school year;

(24)(a) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for being a chronic truant or an habitual truant who previously has been adjudicated an unruly child for being an habitual truant, do either or both of the following:

(i) Require the child to participate in a truancy prevention mediation program;

(ii) Make any order of disposition as authorized by this section, except that the court shall not commit the child to a facility described in division (A)(3) of this section unless the court determines that the child violated a lawful court order made pursuant to division (C)(1)(e) of section 2151.354 of the Revised Code or division (A)(23) of this section.

(b) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for being a chronic truant or an habitual truant who previously has been adjudicated an unruly child for being an habitual truant and the court determines that the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child has failed to cause the child's attendance at school in violation of section 3321.38 of the Revised Code, do either or both of the following:

(i) Require the parent, guardian, or other person having care

of the child to participate in a truancy prevention mediation program;

(ii) Require the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child to participate in any community service program, preferably a community service program that requires the involvement of the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child in the school attended by the child.

(25) Make any further disposition that the court finds proper, except that the child shall not be placed in any state correctional institution, county, multicounty, or municipal jail or workhouse, or other place in which an adult convicted of a crime, under arrest, or charged with a crime is held.

(B)(1) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for violating section 2923.32 of the Revised Code, the court, in addition to any order of disposition it makes for the child under division (A) of this section, shall enter an order of criminal forfeiture against the child in accordance with divisions (B)(3), (4), (5), and (6) and (C) to (F) of section 2923.32 of the Revised Code.

(2) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for being a chronic truant or an habitual truant who previously has been adjudicated an unruly child for being an habitual truant and the
court determines that the parent, guardian, or other person having
care of the child has failed to cause the child's attendance at school in violation of section 3321.38 of the Revised Code, in addition to any order of disposition it makes under this section, the court shall warn the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child that any subsequent adjudication of the child as an unruly or delinquent child for being an habitual or chronic truant may result in a criminal charge against the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child for a violation of division (C) of section 2919.21 or section 2919.24 of the

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

Revised Code.

(3) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing two or more acts that would be felonies if committed by an adult and if the court entering the delinquent child adjudication orders the commitment of the child, for two or more of those acts, to the legal custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization or institutionalization in a secure facility pursuant to division (A)(4), (5), or (6) of this section, the court may order that all of the periods of commitment imposed under those divisions for those acts be served consecutively in the legal custody of the department of youth services and, if applicable, be in addition to and commence immediately following the expiration of all periods of commitment that the court imposes pursuant to division (A)(7)(a), (b), or (c) of this section. A court shall not commit a delinquent child to the legal custody of the department of youth services under division (B)(2) of this section for a period that exceeds the child's attainment of twenty-one years of age.

(C) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that, if committed by an adult, would be a drug abuse offense, as defined in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code, or for violating division (B) of section 2917.11 of the Revised Code, in addition to imposing in its discretion any other order of disposition authorized by this section, the court shall do both of the following:

(1) Require the child to participate in a drug abuse or alcohol abuse counseling program;

(2) Suspend or revoke the temporary instruction permit, probationary driver's license, or driver's license issued to the child for a period of time prescribed by the court or, at the discretion of the court, until the child attends and satisfactorily completes, a drug abuse or alcohol abuse education,

intervention, or treatment program specified by the court. During the time the child is attending the program, the court shall retain any temporary instruction permit, probationary driver's license, or driver's license issued to the child, and the court shall return the permit or license when the child satisfactorily completes the program.

(D) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for violating section 2923.122 of the Revised Code, the court, in addition to any order of disposition it makes for the child under division (A), (B), or (C) of this section, shall revoke the temporary instruction permit and deny the child the issuance of another temporary instruction permit in accordance with division (F)(1)(b) of section 2923.122 of the Revised Code or shall suspend the probationary driver's license, restricted license, or nonresident operating privilege of the child or deny the child the issuance of a probationary driver's license, restricted license, or temporary instruction permit in accordance with division (F)(1)(a), (c), (d), or (e) of section 2923.122 of the Revised Code.

(E)(1) At the dispositional hearing and prior to making any disposition pursuant to division (A) of this section, the court shall determine whether a victim of the delinquent act committed by the child was five years of age or younger at the time the delinquent act was committed, whether a victim of the delinquent act sustained physical harm to the victim's person during the commission of or otherwise as a result of the delinquent act, whether a victim of the delinquent act was sixty-five years of age or older or permanently and totally disabled at the time the delinquent act was committed, and whether the delinquent act would have been an offense of violence if committed by an adult. If the victim was five years of age or younger at the time the delinquent act was committed, sustained physical harm to the victim's person during the commission of or otherwise as a result of the delinquent act, or was sixty-five years of age or older or permanently and totally disabled at the time the act was committed, regardless of whether the child knew the age of the victim, and if the act would have been an offense of violence if committed by an adult, the court shall consider those facts in favor of imposing commitment under division (A)(3), (4), (5), or

(6) of this section, but those facts shall not control the court's decision.

(2) At the dispositional hearing and prior to making any disposition pursuant to division (A)(4), (5), or (6) of this section, the court shall determine whether the delinquent child previously has been adjudicated a delinquent child for a violation of a law or ordinance. If the delinquent child previously has been adjudicated a delinquent child for a violation of a law or ordinance, the court, for purposes of entering an order of disposition for the delinquent child under this section, shall consider the previous delinquent child adjudication as a conviction of a violation of the law or ordinance in determining the degree of offense the current delinquent act would be had it been committed by an adult.

(F)(1) When a juvenile court commits a delinquent child to the custody of the department of youth services pursuant to this section, the court shall not designate the specific institution in which the department is to place the child but instead shall specify that the child is to be institutionalized or that the institutionalization is to be in a secure facility if that is required by division (A) of this section.

(2) When a juvenile court commits a delinquent child to the custody of the department of youth services, the court shall provide the department with the child's medical records, a copy of the report of any mental examination of the child ordered by the court, the section or sections of the Revised Code violated by the child and the degree of the violation, the warrant to convey the child to the department, a copy of the court's journal entry ordering the commitment of the child to the legal custody of the department, a copy of the arrest record pertaining to the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, a copy of any victim impact statement pertaining to the act, and any other information concerning the child that the department reasonably requests. The court also shall complete the form for the standard disposition investigation report that is developed and furnished by the department of youth services pursuant to section 5139.04 of the Revised Code and provide the department with the completed form. The department may refuse to accept physical custody of a delinquent child who is committed to the legal custody of the department until the court provides to the department the documents specified in division (F)(2) of this section. No officer or employee of the department who refuses to accept physical custody of a delinquent child who is committed to the legal custody of the department shall be subject to prosecution or contempt of court for the refusal if the court fails to provide the documents specified in division (F)(2) of this section at the time the court transfers the physical custody of the child to the department.

(3) Within twenty working days after the department of youth services receives physical custody of a delinquent child from a juvenile court, the court shall provide the department with a certified copy of the child's birth certificate or the child's social security number, or, if the court made all reasonable efforts to obtain the information but was unsuccessful, the court shall provide the department with documentation of the efforts it made to obtain the information.

(4) When a juvenile court commits a delinquent child to the

custody of the department of youth services, the court shall give notice to the school attended by the child of the child's commitment by sending to that school a copy of the court's journal entry ordering the commitment. As soon as possible after receipt of the notice described in this division, the school shall provide the department with the child's school transcript. However, the department shall not refuse to accept a child committed to it, and a child committed to it shall not be held in a county or district detention home, because of a school's failure to provide the school transcript that it is required to provide under division (F)(4) of this section.

(5) The department of youth services shall provide the court and the school with an updated copy of the child's school transcript and shall provide the court with a summary of the institutional record of the child when it releases the child from institutional care. The department also shall provide the court with a copy of any portion of the child's institutional record that the court specifically requests within five working days of the request.

(6) When a juvenile court commits a delinquent child to the custody of the department of youth services pursuant to division (A)(4) or (5) of this section, the court shall state in the order of commitment the total number of days that the child has been held, as of the date of the issuance of the order, in detention in connection with the delinquent child complaint upon which the order of commitment is based. The department shall reduce the minimum period of institutionalization or minimum period of institutionalization in a secure facility specified in division (A)(4) or (5) of this section by both the total number of days that the child has been so held in detention as stated by the court in the order of commitment and the total number of any additional days that the child has been held in detention

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

subsequent to the order of commitment but prior to the transfer of physical custody of the child to the department.

(G)(1) At any hearing at which a child is adjudicated a delinquent child or as soon as possible after the hearing, the court shall notify all victims of the delinquent act, who may be entitled to a recovery under any of the following sections, of the right of the victims to recover, pursuant to section 3109.09 of the Revised Code, compensatory damages from the child's parents; of the right of the victims to recover, pursuant to section 3109.10 of the Revised Code, compensatory damages from the child's parents for willful and malicious assaults committed by the child; and of the right of the victims to recover an award of reparations pursuant to sections 2743.51 to 2743.72 of the Revised Code.

(2) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that, if committed by an adult, would be aggravated murder, murder, rape, felonious sexual penetration in violation of former section 2907.12 of the Revised Code, involuntary manslaughter, a felony of the first or second degree resulting in the death of or physical harm to a person, complicity in or an attempt to commit any of those offenses, or an offense under an existing or former law of this state that is or was substantially equivalent to any of those offenses and if the court in its order of disposition for that act commits the child to the custody of the department of youth services, the court may make a specific finding that the adjudication should be considered a conviction for purposes of a determination in the future, pursuant to Chapter 2929. of the Revised Code, as to whether the child is a repeat violent offender as defined in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code. If the court makes a specific finding as described in this division, it shall include the specific finding in its order of disposition and in the record in the case.

(H)(1) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that would be a felony or offense of violence if committed by an adult, the court, prior to issuing an order of disposition under this section, shall order the preparation of a victim impact statement by the probation department of the county in which the victim of the act resides, by the court's own probation department, or by a victim assistance program that is operated by the state, a county, a municipal corporation, or another governmental entity. The court shall consider the victim impact statement in determining the order of disposition to issue for the child.

(2) Each victim impact statement shall identify the victim of the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, itemize any economic loss suffered by the victim as a result of the act, identify any physical injury suffered by the victim as a result of the act and the seriousness and permanence of the injury, identify any change in the victim's personal welfare or familial relationships as a result of the act and any psychological impact experienced by the victim or the victim's family as a result of the act, and contain any other information related to the impact of the act upon the victim that the court requires.

(3) A victim impact statement shall be kept confidential and is not a public record, as defined in section 149.43 of the Revised Code. However, the court may furnish copies of the statement to the department of youth services pursuant to division (F)(3) of this section or to both the adjudicated delinquent child or the adjudicated delinquent child's counsel and the prosecuting attorney. The copy of a victim impact statement furnished by the court to the department pursuant to division (F)(3) of this section shall be kept confidential and is not a public record, as defined in section 149.43 of the Revised Code. The copies of a victim impact statement that are made available to the adjudicated delinquent child or the adjudicated delinquent child's counsel and the prosecuting attorney pursuant to division (H)(3) of this section shall be returned to the court by the person to whom they were made available immediately following the imposition of an order of disposition for the child under this section.

(I)(1) Sections 2925.41 to 2925.45 of the Revised Code apply to children who are adjudicated or could be adjudicated by a juvenile court to be delinquent children for an act that, if committed by an adult, would be a felony drug abuse offense.
Subject to division (B) of section 2925.42 and division (E) of section 2925.43 of the Revised Code, a delinquent child of that nature loses any right to the possession of, and forfeits to the state any right, title, and interest that the delinquent child may have in, property as defined in section 2925.41 and further described in section 2925.42 or 2925.43 of the Revised Code.

(2) Sections 2923.44 to 2923.47 of the Revised Code apply to children who are adjudicated or could be adjudicated by a juvenile court to be delinquent children for an act in violation of section 2923.42 of the Revised Code. Subject to division (B) of section 2923.44 and division (E) of section 2923.45 of the Revised Code, a delinquent child of that nature loses any right to the possession of, and forfeits to the state any right, title, and interest that the delinquent child may have in, property as defined in section 2923.41 of the Revised Code and further described in section 2923.44 or 2923.45 of the Revised Code.

(J)(1) A juvenile court, pursuant to division (A)(11) of this section, may impose a period of electronically monitored house detention upon a child who is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that, if committed by an adult, would be a criminal offense that would qualify the adult as an eligible offender pursuant to division (A)(3) of section 2929.23 of the Revised Code. The court may impose a period of electronically

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

monitored house detention in addition to or in lieu of any other dispositional order imposed upon the child, except that any period of electronically monitored house detention shall not extend beyond the child's eighteenth birthday. If a court imposes a period of electronically monitored house detention upon a child, it shall require the child to wear, otherwise have attached to the child's person, or otherwise be subject to monitoring by a certified electronic monitoring device or to participate in the operation of and monitoring by a certified electronic monitoring system; to remain in the child's home or other specified premises for the entire period of electronically monitored house detention except when the court permits the child to leave those premises to go to school or to other specified premises; to be monitored by a central system that monitors the certified electronic monitoring device that is attached to the child's person or that otherwise is being used to monitor the child and that can monitor and determine the child's location at any time or at a designated point in time or to be monitored by the certified electronic monitoring system;
to report periodically to a person designated by the court; and,
in return for receiving a dispositional order of electronically monitored house detention, to enter into a written contract with the court agreeing to comply with all restrictions and requirements imposed by the court, agreeing to pay any fee imposed by the court for the costs of the electronically monitored house detention imposed by the court pursuant to division (E) of section 2929.23 of the Revised Code, and agreeing to waive the right to receive credit for any time served on electronically monitored house detention toward the period of any other dispositional order imposed upon the child for the act for which the dispositional order of electronically monitored house detention was imposed if the child violates any of the restrictions or requirements of the dispositional order of electronically monitored house detention.
The court also may impose other reasonable restrictions and

requirements upon the child.

(2) If a child violates any of the restrictions or requirements imposed upon the child as part of the child's dispositional order of electronically monitored house detention, the child shall not receive credit for any time served on electronically monitored house detention toward any other dispositional order imposed upon the child for the act for which the dispositional order of electronically monitored house detention was imposed.

(K)(1) Within ten days after completion of the adjudication, the court shall give written notice of an adjudication that a child is a delinquent child to the superintendent of a city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational school district, and to the principal of the school the child attends, if the basis of the adjudication was the commission of an act that would be a criminal offense if committed by an adult, if the act was committed by the delinquent child when the child was fourteen years of age or older, and if the act is any of the following:

(a) An act that would be a felony or an offense of violence if committed by an adult, an act in the commission of which the child used or brandished a firearm, or an act that is a violation of section 2907.04, 2907.06, 2907.07, 2907.08, 2907.09, 2907.24, or 2907.241 of the Revised Code and that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult;

(b) A violation of section 2923.12 of the Revised Code or of a substantially similar municipal ordinance that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult and that was committed on property owned or controlled by, or at an activity held under the auspices of, the board of education of that school district;

(c) A violation of division (A) of section 2925.03 or 2925.11 of the Revised Code that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult, that was committed on property owned or controlled by, or at an activity held under the auspices of, the board of education of that school district, and that is not a minor drug possession offense;

(d) Complicity in any violation described in division (K)(1)(a) of this section, or complicity in any violation described in division (K)(1)(b) or (c) of this section that was alleged to have been committed in the manner described in division (K)(1)(b) or (c) of this section, and regardless of whether the act of complicity was committed on property owned or controlled by, or at an activity held under the auspices of, the board of education of that school district.

(2) The notice given pursuant to division (K)(1) of this section shall include the name of the child who was adjudicated to be a delinquent child, the child's age at the time the child committed the act that was the basis of the adjudication, and identification of the violation of the law or ordinance that was the basis of the adjudication.

(L) During the period of a delinquent child's probation granted under division (A)(2) of this section, authorized probation officers who are engaged within the scope of their supervisory duties or responsibilities may search, with or without a warrant, the person of the delinquent child, the place of residence of the delinquent child, and a motor vehicle, another item of tangible or intangible personal property, or other real property in which the delinquent child has a right, title, or interest or for which the delinquent child has the express or implied permission of a person with a right, title, or interest to use, occupy, or possess if the probation officers have reasonable grounds to believe that the delinquent child is not abiding by the law or otherwise is not complying with the conditions of the delinquent child's probation. The court that places a delinquent child on probation under division (A)(2) of this section shall provide the delinquent child with a written notice that informs the delinquent child that authorized probation officers who are engaged within the scope of their supervisory duties or responsibilities may conduct those types of searches during the period of probation if they have reasonable grounds to believe that the delinquent child is not abiding by the law or otherwise is not complying with the conditions of the delinquent child's probation. The court also shall provide the written notice described in division (C)(2)(b) of section 2151.411 of the Revised Code to each parent, guardian, or custodian of the delinquent child who is described in division (C)(2)(a) of that section.

(M) As used in this section:

(1) "Certified electronic monitoring device," "certified electronic monitoring system," "electronic monitoring device," and "electronic monitoring system" have the same meanings as in section 2929.23 of the Revised Code.

electronic monitoring device or is subject to monitoring by a certified electronic monitoring system.

that monitors the certified electronic monitoring device that is monitor the child and that can monitor and determine the child's location at any time or at a designated point in time, or the child is required to participate in monitoring by a certified electronic monitoring system.

(d) The child is required by the court to report periodically to a person designated by the court.

(e) The child is subject to any other restrictions and requirements that may be imposed by the court.

(3) "Felony drug abuse offense" and "minor drug possession offense" have the same meanings as in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code.

(4) "Firearm" has the same meaning as in section 2923.11 of the Revised Code.

(5) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in

Sec. 2152.17. (A) Subject to division (D) of this section, if a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act, other than a violation of section 2923.12 of the Revised Code, that would be a felony if committed by an adult and if the court determines that, if the child was an adult, the child would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.141, 2941.144, 2941.145, ~~or~~ 2941.146, or 2941.1412 of the Revised Code, in addition to any commitment or other disposition the court imposes for the underlying delinquent act, all of the following apply:

(1) If the court determines that the child would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.141 of the

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

Revised Code, the court may commit the child to the department of youth services for the specification for a definite period of up to one year.

(2) If the court determines that the child would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.145 of the Revised Code, the court shall commit the child to the department of youth services for the specification for a definite period of not less than one and not more than three years, and the court also shall commit the child to the department for the underlying delinquent act under sections 2152.11 to 2152.16 of the Revised Code.

(3) If the court determines that the child would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.144 ~~or~~, 2941.146, or 2941.1412 of the Revised Code, the court shall commit the child to the department of youth services for the specification for a definite period of not less than one and not more than five years, and the court also shall commit the child to the department for the underlying delinquent act under sections 2152.11 to 2152.16 of the Revised Code.

(B) Division (A) of this section also applies to a child who is an accomplice to the same extent the firearm specifications would apply to an adult accomplice in a criminal proceeding.

(C) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that would be aggravated murder, murder, or a first, second, or third degree felony offense of violence if committed by an adult and if the court determines that, if the child was an adult, the child would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.142 of the Revised Code in relation to the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, the court shall commit the child for the specification to the legal custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization in a secure facility for a

definite period of not less than one and not more than three years, subject to division (D)(2) of this section, and the court also shall commit the child to the department for the underlying delinquent act.

(D)(1) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that would be an offense of violence that is a felony if committed by an adult and is committed to the legal custody of the department of youth services pursuant to division (A)(4), (5), or (6)(1) of this section 2152.16 of the Revised Code and if the court determines that the child, if the child was an adult, would be guilty of a specification of the type set forth in section 2941.1411 of the Revised Code in relation to the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, the court may commit the child to the custody of the department of youth services for institutionalization in a secure facility for two years, subject to division (A)(7)(d)(D)(2) of this section.

(d)(2) A court that imposes a period of commitment under division (A)(7)(a) of this section is not precluded from imposing an additional period of commitment under division (A)(7)(b)(C) or (c)(D)(1) of this section, a court that imposes a period of commitment under division (A)(7)(b)(C) of this section is not precluded from imposing an additional period of commitment under division (A)(7)(a) or (c)(D)(1) of this section, and a court that imposes a period of commitment under division (A)(7)(c)(D)(1) of this section is not precluded from imposing an additional period of commitment under division (A)(7)(a) or (b)(C) of this section.

(E) The court shall not commit a child to the legal custody of the department of youth services for a specification pursuant to this section for a period that exceeds five years for any one delinquent act. Any commitment imposed pursuant to division (A), (B), or (C), or (D)(1) of this section shall be in addition to,
and shall be served consecutively with and prior to, a period of

commitment ordered under this chapter for the underlying 775 delinquent act, and each commitment imposed pursuant to division 776 (A), (B), ~~or~~ (C), or (D)(1) of this section shall be in addition 777 to, and shall be served consecutively with, any other period of 778 commitment imposed under those divisions. If a commitment is 779 imposed under division (A) or (B) of this section and a commitment 780 also is imposed under division (C) of this section, the period 781 imposed under division (A) or (B) of this section shall be served 782 prior to the period imposed under division (C) of this section. 783

The total of all the periods of commitment imposed for any 784 specification under this section and for the underlying offense 785 shall not exceed the child's attainment of twenty-one years of 786
age. 787

~~(E)~~(F) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for 788 committing two or more acts that would be felonies if committed by 789 an adult and if the court entering the delinquent child 790 adjudication orders the commitment of the child for two or more of 791 those acts to the legal custody of the department of youth 792 services for institutionalization in a secure facility pursuant to 793 section 2152.13 or 2152.16 ~~or~~ of the Revised Code, the court may 794 order that all of the periods of commitment imposed under those 795 sections for those acts be served consecutively in the legal 796 custody of the department of youth services, provided that those 797 periods of commitment shall be in addition to and commence 798 immediately following the expiration of a period of commitment 799 that the court imposes pursuant to division (A), (B), ~~or~~ (C), or 800 (D)(1) of this section. A court shall not commit a delinquent 801 child to the legal custody of the department of youth services 802 under this division for a period that exceeds the child's 803 attainment of twenty-one years of age. 804

~~(F)~~(G) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for 805 committing an act that if committed by an adult would be 806

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

aggravated murder, murder, rape, felonious sexual penetration in 807
violation of former section 2907.12 of the Revised Code, 808
involuntary manslaughter, a felony of the first or second degree 809
resulting in the death of or physical harm to a person, complicity 810
in or an attempt to commit any of those offenses, or an offense 811
under an existing or former law of this state that is or was 812
substantially equivalent to any of those offenses and if the court 813
in its order of disposition for that act commits the child to the 814 custody of the department of youth services, the adjudication 815 shall be considered a conviction for purposes of a future 816 determination pursuant to Chapter 2929. of the Revised Code as to 817 whether the child, as an adult, is a repeat violent offender. 818

Sec. 2929.14. (A) Except as provided in division (C), (D)(1), 819 (D)(2), (D)(3), (D)(4), or (G) of this section and except in 820 relation to an offense for which a sentence of death or life 821 imprisonment is to be imposed, if the court imposing a sentence 822 upon an offender for a felony elects or is required to impose a 823 prison term on the offender pursuant to this chapter and is not 824 prohibited by division (G)(1) of section 2929.13 of the Revised 825 Code from imposing a prison term on the offender, the court shall 826 impose a definite prison term that shall be one of the following: 827

(1) For a felony of the first degree, the prison term shall 828 be three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, or ten years. 829

(2) For a felony of the second degree, the prison term shall 830 be two, three, four, five, six, seven, or eight years. 831

(3) For a felony of the third degree, the prison term shall 832 be one, two, three, four, or five years. 833

(4) For a felony of the fourth degree, the prison term shall 834 be six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, 835 fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, or eighteen months. 836

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

(5) For a felony of the fifth degree, the prison term shall 837 be six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, or twelve months. 838

(B) Except as provided in division (C), (D)(1), (D)(2), 839
(D)(3), or (G) of this section, in section 2907.02 of the Revised 840 Code, or in Chapter 2925. of the Revised Code, if the court 841 imposing a sentence upon an offender for a felony elects or is 842 required to impose a prison term on the offender and if the 843 offender previously has not served a prison term, the court shall 844 impose the shortest prison term authorized for the offense 845 pursuant to division (A) of this section, unless the court finds 846 on the record that the shortest prison term will demean the 847 seriousness of the offender's conduct or will not adequately 848 protect the public from future crime by the offender or others. 849

(C) Except as provided in division (G) of this section or in 850 Chapter 2925. of the Revised Code, the court imposing a sentence 851 upon an offender for a felony may impose the longest prison term 852 authorized for the offense pursuant to division (A) of this 853 section only upon offenders who committed the worst forms of the 854 offense, upon offenders who pose the greatest likelihood of 855 committing future crimes, upon certain major drug offenders under 856 division (D)(3) of this section, and upon certain repeat violent 857 offenders in accordance with division (D)(2) of this section. 858

(D)(1)(a) Except as provided in division (D)(1)(e) of this 859 section, if an offender who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a 860 felony also is convicted of or pleads guilty to a specification of 861 the type described in section 2941.141, 2941.144, or 2941.145 of 862 the Revised Code, the court shall impose on the offender one of 863 the following prison terms: 864

(i) A prison term of six years if the specification is of the 865 type described in section 2941.144 of the Revised Code that 866 charges the offender with having a firearm that is an automatic 867 firearm or that was equipped with a firearm muffler or silencer on 868

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

or about the offender's person or under the offender's control while committing the felony;

(ii) A prison term of three years if the specification is of the type described in section 2941.145 of the Revised Code that charges the offender with having a firearm on or about the offender's person or under the offender's control while committing the offense and displaying the firearm, brandishing the firearm, indicating that the offender possessed the firearm, or using it to facilitate the offense;

(iii) A prison term of one year if the specification is of the type described in section 2941.141 of the Revised Code that charges the offender with having a firearm on or about the offender's person or under the offender's control while committing the felony.

(b) If a court imposes a prison term on an offender under division (D)(1)(a) of this section, the prison term shall not be reduced pursuant to section 2929.20, section 2967.193, or any other provision of Chapter 2967. or Chapter 5120. of the Revised Code. A court shall not impose more than one prison term on an offender under division (D)(1)(a) of this section for felonies committed as part of the same act or transaction.

(c) Except as provided in division (D)(1)(e) of this section, if an offender who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a violation of section 2923.161 of the Revised Code or to a felony that includes, as an essential element, purposely or knowingly causing or attempting to cause the death of or physical harm to another, also is convicted of or pleads guilty to a specification of the type described in section 2941.146 of the Revised Code that charges the offender with committing the offense by discharging a firearm from a motor vehicle other than a manufactured home, the court, after imposing a prison term on the offender for the violation of section 2923.161 of the Revised Code or for the other

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

felony offense under division (A), (D)(2), or (D)(3) of this section, shall impose an additional prison term of five years upon the offender that shall not be reduced pursuant to section 2929.20, section 2967.193, or any other provision of Chapter 2967. or Chapter 5120. of the Revised Code. A court shall not impose more than one additional prison term on an offender under division (D)(1)(c) of this section for felonies committed as part of the same act or transaction. If a court imposes an additional prison term on an offender under division (D)(1)(c) of this section relative to an offense, the court also shall impose a prison term under division (D)(1)(a) of this section relative to the same offense, provided the criteria specified in that division for imposing an additional prison term are satisfied relative to the offender and the offense.

(d) If an offender who is convicted of or pleads guilty to an offense of violence that is a felony also is convicted of or pleads guilty to a specification of the type described in section 2941.1411 of the Revised Code that charges the offender with wearing or carrying body armor while committing the felony offense of violence, the court shall impose on the offender a prison term of two years. The prison term so imposed shall not be reduced pursuant to section 2929.20, section 2967.193, or any other provision of ~~chapter~~ Chapter 2967. or ~~chapter~~ Chapter 5120. of the Revised Code. A court shall not impose more than one prison term on an offender under division (D)(1)(d) of this section for felonies committed as part of the same act or transaction. If a court imposes an additional prison term under division (D)(1)(a) or (c) of this section, the court is not precluded from imposing an additional prison term under division (D)(1)(d) of this section.

(e) The court shall not impose any of the prison terms

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

described in division (D)(1)(a) of this section or any of the additional prison terms described in division (D)(1)(c) of this section upon an offender for a violation of section 2923.12 or 2923.123 of the Revised Code. The court shall not impose any of the prison terms described in division (D)(1)(a) of this section or any of the additional prison terms described in division (D)(1)(c) of this section upon an offender for a violation of section 2923.13 of the Revised Code unless all of the following apply:

(i) The offender previously has been convicted of aggravated murder, murder, or any felony of the first or second degree.

(ii) Less than five years have passed since the offender was released from prison or post-release control, whichever is later, for the prior offense.

(f) If an offender is convicted of or pleads guilty to a felony that includes, as an essential element, causing or attempting to cause the death of or physical harm to another and also is convicted of or pleads guilty to a specification of the type described in section 2941.1412 of the Revised Code that
charges the offender with committing the offense by discharging a firearm at a peace officer as defined in section 2935.01 of the Revised Code or a corrections officer as defined in section 2941.1412 of the Revised Code, the court, after imposing a prison term on the offender for the felony offense under division (A), (D)(2), or (D)(3) of this section, shall impose an additional prison term of seven years upon the offender that shall not be reduced pursuant to section 2929.20, section 2967.193, or any other provision of Chapter 2967. or Chapter 5120. of the Revised Code. A court shall not impose more than one additional prison term on an offender under division (D)(1)(f) of this section for felonies committed as part of the same act or transaction. If a

court imposes an additional prison term on an offender under 965 division (D)(1)(f) of this section relative to an offense, the 966 court shall not impose a prison term under division (D)(1)(a) or 967
(c) of this section relative to the same offense. 968

(2)(a) If an offender who is convicted of or pleads guilty to 969 a felony also is convicted of or pleads guilty to a specification 970 of the type described in section 2941.149 of the Revised Code that 971 the offender is a repeat violent offender, the court shall impose 972 a prison term from the range of terms authorized for the offense 973 under division (A) of this section that may be the longest term in 974 the range and that shall not be reduced pursuant to section 975 2929.20, section 2967.193, or any other provision of Chapter 2967. 976 or Chapter 5120. of the Revised Code. If the court finds that the 977 repeat violent offender, in committing the offense, caused any 978 physical harm that carried a substantial risk of death to a person 979 or that involved substantial permanent incapacity or substantial 980 permanent disfigurement of a person, the court shall impose the 981 longest prison term from the range of terms authorized for the 982 offense under division (A) of this section. 983

(b) If the court imposing a prison term on a repeat violent 985 offender imposes the longest prison term from the range of terms 986 authorized for the offense under division (A) of this section, the 987 court may impose on the offender an additional definite prison 988 term of one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, or 989 ten years if the court finds that both of the following apply with 990 respect to the prison terms imposed on the offender pursuant to 991 division (D)(2)(a) of this section and, if applicable, divisions 992 (D)(1) and (3) of this section: 993

(i) The terms so imposed are inadequate to punish the 994 offender and protect the public from future crime, because the 995 applicable factors under section 2929.12 of the Revised Code 996

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

indicating a greater likelihood of recidivism outweigh the 997 applicable factors under that section indicating a lesser 998 likelihood of recidivism. 999

(ii) The terms so imposed are demeaning to the seriousness of 1000 the offense, because one or more of the factors under section 1001 2929.12 of the Revised Code indicating that the offender's conduct 1002 is more serious than conduct normally constituting the offense are 1003 present, and they outweigh the applicable factors under that 1004 section indicating that the offender's conduct is less serious 1005 than conduct normally constituting the offense. 1006

(3)(a) Except when an offender commits a violation of section 1007 2903.01 or 2907.02 of the Revised Code and the penalty imposed for 1008 the violation is life imprisonment or commits a violation of 1009 section 2903.02 of the Revised Code, if the offender commits a 1010 violation of section 2925.03 or 2925.11 of the Revised Code and 1011 that section classifies the offender as a major drug offender and 1012 requires the imposition of a ten-year prison term on the offender, 1013 if the offender commits a felony violation of section 2925.02, 1014 2925.04, 2925.05, 2925.36, 3719.07, 3719.08, 3719.16, 3719.161, 1015 4729.37, or 4729.61, division (C) or (D) of section 3719.172, 1016 division (C) of section 4729.51, or division (J) of section 1017 4729.54 of the Revised Code that includes the sale, offer to sell, 1018 or possession of a schedule I or II controlled substance, with the 1019 exception of marihuana, and the court imposing sentence upon the 1020 offender finds that the offender is guilty of a specification of 1021 the type described in section 2941.1410 of the Revised Code 1022 charging that the offender is a major drug offender, or if the 1023 court imposing sentence upon an offender for a felony finds that 1024 the offender is guilty of corrupt activity with the most serious 1025 offense in the pattern of corrupt activity being a felony of the 1026 first degree or is guilty of an attempted forcible violation of 1027 section 2907.02 of the Revised Code with the victim being under 1028

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

thirteen years of age and that attempted violation is the felony for which sentence is being imposed, the court shall impose upon the offender for the felony violation a ten-year prison term that cannot be reduced pursuant to section 2929.20 or Chapter 2967. or 5120. of the Revised Code.

(b) The court imposing a prison term on an offender under division (D)(3)(a) of this section may impose an additional prison term of one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, or ten years, if the court, with respect to the term imposed under division (D)(3)(a) of this section and, if applicable, divisions (D)(1) and (2) of this section, makes both of the findings set forth in divisions (D)(2)(b)(i) and (ii) of this section.

(4) If the offender is being sentenced for a third or fourth degree felony OMVI offense under division (G)(2) of section 2929.13 of the Revised Code, the sentencing court shall impose upon the offender a mandatory prison term in accordance with that division. In addition to the mandatory prison term, the sentencing court may sentence the offender to an additional prison term of any duration specified in division (A)(3) of this section minus the sixty or one hundred twenty days imposed upon the offender as the mandatory prison term. The total of the additional prison term imposed under division (D)(4) of this section plus the sixty or one hundred twenty days imposed as the mandatory prison term shall equal one of the authorized prison terms specified in division (A)(3) of this section. If the court imposes an additional prison term under division (D)(4) of this section, the offender shall serve the additional prison term after the offender has served the mandatory prison term required for the offense. The court shall not sentence the offender to a community control sanction under section 2929.16 or 2929.17 of the Revised Code.

(E)(1)(a) Subject to division (E)(1)(b) of this section, if a mandatory prison term is imposed upon an offender pursuant to division (D)(1)(a) of this section for having a firearm on or about the offender's person or under the offender's control while committing a felony, if a mandatory prison term is imposed upon an offender pursuant to division (D)(1)(c) of this section for committing a felony specified in that division by discharging a firearm from a motor vehicle, or if both types of mandatory prison terms are imposed, the offender shall serve any mandatory prison term imposed under either division consecutively to any other mandatory prison term imposed under either division or under division (D)(1)(d) of this section, consecutively to and prior to any prison term imposed for the underlying felony pursuant to division (A), (D)(2), or (D)(3) of this section or any other section of the Revised Code, and consecutively to any other prison term or mandatory prison term previously or subsequently imposed upon the offender.

section of the Revised Code, and consecutively to any other prison 1095
term or mandatory prison term previously or subsequently imposed 1096
upon the offender. 1097

(2) If an offender who is an inmate in a jail, prison, or 1098 other residential detention facility violates section 2917.02, 1099 2917.03, 2921.34, or 2921.35 of the Revised Code, if an offender 1100 who is under detention at a detention facility commits a felony 1101 violation of section 2923.131 of the Revised Code, or if an 1102 offender who is an inmate in a jail, prison, or other residential 1103 detention facility or is under detention at a detention facility 1104 commits another felony while the offender is an escapee in 1105 violation of section 2921.34 of the Revised Code, any prison term 1106 imposed upon the offender for one of those violations shall be 1107 served by the offender consecutively to the prison term or term of 1108 imprisonment the offender was serving when the offender committed 1109 that offense and to any other prison term previously or 1110 subsequently imposed upon the offender. 1111

(3) If a prison term is imposed for a violation of division 1112
(B) of section 2911.01 of the Revised Code or if a prison term is 1113 imposed for a felony violation of division (B) of section 2921.331 1114 of the Revised Code, the offender shall serve that prison term 1115 consecutively to any other prison term or mandatory prison term 1116 previously or subsequently imposed upon the offender. 1117

1118
(4) If multiple prison terms are imposed on an offender for 1119 convictions of multiple offenses, the court may require the 1120 offender to serve the prison terms consecutively if the court 1121 finds that the consecutive service is necessary to protect the 1122 public from future crime or to punish the offender and that 1123 consecutive sentences are not disproportionate to the seriousness 1124

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

of the offender's conduct and to the danger the offender poses to the public, and if the court also finds any of the following:

(a) The offender committed the multiple offenses while the offender was awaiting trial or sentencing, was under a sanction imposed pursuant to section 2929.16, 2929.17, or 2929.18 of the Revised Code, or was under post-release control for a prior offense.

(b) The harm caused by the multiple offenses was so great or unusual that no single prison term for any of the offenses committed as part of a single course of conduct adequately reflects the seriousness of the offender's conduct.

(c) The offender's history of criminal conduct demonstrates that consecutive sentences are necessary to protect the public from future crime by the offender.

(5) When consecutive prison terms are imposed pursuant to division (E)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section, the term to be served is the aggregate of all of the terms so imposed.

(F) If a court imposes a prison term of a type described in division (B) of section 2967.28 of the Revised Code, it shall include in the sentence a requirement that the offender be subject to a period of post-release control after the offender's release from imprisonment, in accordance with that division. If a court imposes a prison term of a type described in division (C) of that section, it shall include in the sentence a requirement that the offender be subject to a period of post-release control after the offender's release from imprisonment, in accordance with that division, if the parole board determines that a period of post-release control is necessary.

(G) If a person is convicted of or pleads guilty to a sexually violent offense and also is convicted of or pleads guilty to a sexually violent predator specification that was included in 1156 the indictment, count in the indictment, or information charging 1157 that offense, the court shall impose sentence upon the offender in 1158 accordance with section 2971.03 of the Revised Code, and Chapter 1159 2971. of the Revised Code applies regarding the prison term or 1160 term of life imprisonment without parole imposed upon the offender 1161 and the service of that term of imprisonment. 1162 1163

(H) If a person who has been convicted of or pleaded guilty 1164 to a felony is sentenced to a prison term or term of imprisonment 1165 under this section, sections 2929.02 to 2929.06 of the Revised 1166 Code, section 2971.03 of the Revised Code, or any other provision 1167 of law, section 5120.163 of the Revised Code applies regarding the 1168 person while the person is confined in a state correctional 1169 institution. 1170

(I) If an offender who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a 1171 felony that is an offense of violence also is convicted of or 1172 pleads guilty to a specification of the type described in section 1173 2941.142 of the Revised Code that charges the offender with having 1174 committed the felony while participating in a criminal gang, the 1175 court shall impose upon the offender an additional prison term of 1176 one, two, or three years. 1177

(J) If an offender who is convicted of or pleads guilty to 1178 aggravated murder, murder, or a felony of the first, second, or 1179 third degree that is an offense of violence also is convicted of 1180 or pleads guilty to a specification of the type described in 1181 section 2941.143 of the Revised Code that charges the offender 1182 with having committed the offense in a school safety zone or 1183 towards a person in a school safety zone, the court shall impose 1184 upon the offender an additional prison term of two years. The 1185 offender shall serve the additional two years consecutively to and 1186 prior to the prison term imposed for the underlying offense. 1187

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary--Criminal Justice Committee

(K) At the time of sentencing, the court shall determine if an offender is eligible for placement in a program of shock incarceration under section 5120.031 of the Revised Code or is eligible for placement in an intensive program prison under section 5120.032 of the Revised Code. The court may recommend the offender for placement in a program of shock incarceration, if eligible, or for placement in an intensive program prison, if eligible, disapprove placement of the offender in a program of shock incarceration or in an intensive program prison, regardless of eligibility, or make no recommendation on placement of the offender.

If the court disapproves placement of the offender in a program or prison of that nature, the department of rehabilitation and correction shall not place the offender in any program of shock incarceration or intensive program prison.

If the court approves placement of the offender in a program of shock incarceration or in an intensive program prison, the department shall notify the court if the offender is subsequently placed in the recommended program or prison and shall include with the notice a brief description of the placement.

If the court approves placement of the offender in a program of shock incarceration or in an intensive program prison and the department does not subsequently place the offender in the recommended program or prison, the department shall send a notice to the court indicating why the offender was not placed in the recommended program or prison.

If the court does not make a recommendation under this division with respect to an eligible offender, the department shall screen the offender and determine if there is an available program of shock incarceration or an intensive program prison for which the offender is suited. If there is an available program of shock incarceration or an intensive program prison for which the offender is suited, the department shall notify the court of the proposed placement of the offender and shall include with the notice a brief description of the placement. The court shall have ten days from receipt of the notice to disapprove the placement.

Sec. 2941.1412. (A) Imposition of a seven-year mandatory prison term upon an offender under division (D)(1)(f) of section 2929.14 of the Revised Code is precluded unless the indictment, count in the indictment, or information charging the offense specifies that the offender discharged a firearm at a peace officer or a corrections officer while committing the offense. The specification shall be stated at the end of the body of the indictment, count, or information and shall be in substantially the following form:

"SPECIFICATION (or, SPECIFICATION TO THE FIRST COUNT).

The Grand Jurors (or insert the person's or the prosecuting attorney's name when appropriate) further find and specify that (set forth that the offender discharged a firearm at a peace officer or a corrections officer while committing the offense)."

(B) As used in this section:

(1) "Firearm" has the same meaning as in section 2923.11 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Peace officer" has the same meaning as in section 2935.01 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Corrections officer" means a person employed by a detention facility as a corrections officer.

(4) "Detention facility" has the same meaning as in section 2921.01 of the Revised Code.

Section 2. That existing sections 2151.355, 2152.17, and

2929.14 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 1249

Section 3. Section 2152.17 of the Revised Code, as amended by 1251 this act, shall take effect January 1, 2002. 1252

Section 4. The amendment of section 2151.355 of the Revised 1253 Code is not intended to supersede the earlier repeal, with delayed 1254 effective date, of that section. 1255

Section 5. (A) Section 2151.355 of the Revised Code is 1256 presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended by 1257 both Am. Sub. S.B. 181 and Am. Sub. S.B. 222 of the 123rd General 1258 Assembly. The General Assembly, applying the principle stated in 1259 division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments 1260 are to be harmonized if reasonably capable of simultaneous 1261 operation, finds that the composite is the resulting version of 1262
the section in effect prior to the effective date of the section 1263
as presented in this act. 1264

(B) Section 2152.17 of the Revised Code, as presented in this 1265 act, includes matter that was amended into former section 2151.355 1266 of the Revised Code by Am. Sub. S.B. 222 of the 123rd General 1267
Assembly. Paragraphs of former section 2151.355 of the Revised 1268 Code containing Am. Sub. S.B. 222 amendments were transferred to 1269 section 2152.17 of the Revised Code by Am. Sub. S.B. 179 of the 1270 123rd General Assembly as part of its general revision of the 1271 juvenile sentencing laws. The General Assembly, applying the 1272 principle stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised 1273 Code that amendments are to be harmonized if reasonably capable of 1274 simultaneous operation, finds that the version of section 2152.17 1275 of the Revised Code presented in this act is the resulting version 1276 of the section in effect prior to the effective date of the 1277 section as presented in this act. 1278
