the department who refuses to accept physical custody of a 197 delinquent child who is committed to the legal custody of the 198 department shall be subject to prosecution or contempt of court 199

(D)(1)(a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section that was alleged to have been committed in the manner described in division (D)(1)(a), receipt of the notice described in this division, the school shall provide the department with the child's school transcript.

However, the department shall not refuse to accept a child committed to it, and a child committed to it shall not be held in a county or district detention facility, because of a school's addition to any order of disposition it makes under this section, 520 the court shall warn the parent, guardian, or other person having 521 probation officers who are engaged within the scope of their 544 supervisory duties or responsibilities may conduct those types of 545 searches during the period of community control if they have 546 reasonable grounds to believe that the delinquent child is not 547 abiding by the law or otherwise is not complying with the 548 conditions of the delinquent child's community control. The court 549

Section 3. Section 2152.18 of the Revised Code, as presented 799 in this act, includes matter that was amended into former section 800 2151.355 of the Revised Code by Am. Sub. S.B. 181 of the 123rd 801
General Assembly. Paragraphs of former section 2151.355 of the 802 Revised Code containing S.B. 181 amendments were transferred to 803 section 2152.18 of the Revised Code by S.B. 179 of the 123rd 804 General Assembly as part of its general revision of the juvenile 805 sentencing laws. The General Assembly, applying the principle 806 stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that 807 amendments are to be harmonized if reasonably capable of 808 simultaneous operation, finds that the version of section 2152.18 809 of the Revised Code presented in this act is the resulting version 810 of the section in effect prior to the effective date of the 811 section as presented in this act. 812
