Code, to any person serving on a permanent basis on June 19, 1978, 326 as a state university law enforcement officer pursuant to section 327 3345.04 of the Revised Code and who, immediately prior to June 19, 328 1978, was serving as a special police officer designated under 329 authority of that section, or to any person serving on a permanent 330 basis on September 20, 1984, as a liquor control investigator, 331 known after June 30, 1999, as an enforcement agent of the 332 department of public safety, engaged in the enforcement of 333 Chapters 4301. and 4303. of the Revised Code. 334

(5) Division (B) of this section does not apply to any person 335 who is appointed as a regional transit authority police officer 336 pursuant to division (Y) of section 306.35 of the Revised Code if, 337 on or before July 1, 1996, the person has completed satisfactorily 338 an approved state, county, municipal, or department of natural 339 resources peace officer basic training program and has been 340 awarded a certificate by the executive director of the Ohio peace 341 officer training commission attesting to the person's satisfactory 342 completion of such an approved program and if, on July 1, 1996, 343 the person is performing peace officer functions for a regional 344 transit authority. 345

(C) No person, after September 20, 1984, shall receive an 346 original appointment on a permanent basis as an Ohio veterans' 347 home police officer designated under section 5907.02 of the 348 Revised Code unless the person previously has been awarded a 349 certificate by the executive director of the Ohio peace officer 350 training commission attesting to the person's satisfactory 351 completion of an approved police officer basic training program. 352 Every person who is appointed on a temporary basis or for a 353 probationary term or on other than a permanent basis as an Ohio 354 veterans' home police officer designated under section 5907.02 of 355 the Revised Code shall forfeit that position unless the person 356 previously has completed satisfactorily or, within one year from 357

the time of appointment, satisfactorily completes an approved police officer basic training program.

(D) No bailiff or deputy bailiff of a court of record of this state and no criminal investigator who is employed by the state public defender shall carry a firearm, as defined in section 2923.11 of the Revised Code, while on duty unless the bailiff, deputy bailiff, or criminal investigator has done or received one of the following:

(1) Has been awarded a certificate by the executive director of the Ohio peace officer training commission, which certificate attests to satisfactory completion of an approved state, county, or municipal basic training program for bailiffs and deputy bailiffs of courts of record and for criminal investigators employed by the state public defender that has been recommended by the Ohio peace officer training commission;

(2) Has successfully completed a firearms training program approved by the Ohio peace officer training commission prior to employment as a bailiff, deputy bailiff, or criminal investigator;

(3) Prior to June 6, 1986, was authorized to carry a firearm by the court that employed the bailiff or deputy bailiff or, in the case of a criminal investigator, by the state public defender and has received training in the use of firearms that the Ohio peace officer training commission determines is equivalent to the training that otherwise is required by division (D) of this section.

(E)(1) ~~Prior to awarding any~~ Before a person seeking a certificate prescribed in this section completes an approved peace

(D)(1)(f) of section 101.311 of the Revised Code, a law of this state, an ordinance of a municipal corporation, or a resolution of a township.

(B)(1) When there is reasonable ground to believe that an offense of violence, the offense of criminal child enticement as defined in section 2905.05 of the Revised Code, the offense of public indecency as defined in section 2907.09 of the Revised Code, the offense of domestic violence as defined in section 2919.25 of the Revised Code, the offense of violating a protection order as defined in section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, the offense of menacing by stalking as defined in section 2903.211 of the Revised Code, the offense of aggravated trespass as defined in section 2911.211 of the Revised Code, a theft offense as defined in section 2913.01 of the Revised Code, or a felony drug abuse offense as defined in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code, has been committed within the limits of the political subdivision, metropolitan housing authority housing project, regional transit authority facilities or those areas of a municipal corporation that have been agreed to by a regional transit authority and a municipal corporation located within its territorial jurisdiction, college, university, Ohio veterans' home, ~~or~~ port authority, or municipal airport or other municipal air navigation facility, in which the peace officer is appointed, employed, or elected or within the limits of the territorial jurisdiction of the peace officer, a peace officer described in division (A) of this section may arrest and detain until a warrant can be obtained any person who the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe is guilty of the violation.

(2) For purposes of division (B)(1) of this section, the execution of any of the following constitutes reasonable ground to believe that the offense alleged in the statement was committed and reasonable cause to believe that the person alleged in the statement to have committed the offense is guilty of the 980 violation: 981

(a) A written statement by a person alleging that an alleged 982 offender has committed the offense of menacing by stalking or 983 aggravated trespass; 984

(b) A written statement by the administrator of the 985 interstate compact on mental health appointed under section 986 5119.51 of the Revised Code alleging that a person who had been 987 hospitalized, institutionalized, or confined in any facility under 988 an order made pursuant to or under authority of section 2945.37, 989 2945.371, 2945.38, 2945.39, 2945.40, 2945.401, or 2945.402 of the 990 Revised Code has escaped from the facility, from confinement in a 991 vehicle for transportation to or from the facility, or from 992 supervision by an employee of the facility that is incidental to 993 hospitalization, institutionalization, or confinement in the 994 facility and that occurs outside of the facility, in violation of 995 section 2921.34 of the Revised Code; 996

(c) A written statement by the administrator of any facility 997 in which a person has been hospitalized, institutionalized, or 998 confined under an order made pursuant to or under authority of 999 section 2945.37, 2945.371, 2945.38, 2945.39, 2945.40, 2945.401, or 1000 2945.402 of the Revised Code alleging that the person has escaped 1001 from the facility, from confinement in a vehicle for 1002 transportation to or from the facility, or from supervision by an 1003 employee of the facility that is incidental to hospitalization, 1004 institutionalization, or confinement in the facility and that 1005 occurs outside of the facility, in violation of section 2921.34 of 1006 the Revised Code. 1007

(3)(a) For purposes of division (B)(1) of this section, a 1008 peace officer described in division (A) of this section has 1009 reasonable grounds to believe that the offense of domestic 1010 violence or the offense of violating a protection order has been 1011

As Reported by the Senate State and Local Government and Veterans Affairs committed and reasonable cause to believe that a particular person 1012 is guilty of committing the offense if any of the following 1013 occurs: 1014

(i) A person executes a written statement alleging that the 1015 person in question has committed the offense of domestic violence 1016 or the offense of violating a protection order against the person 1017 who executes the statement or against a child of the person who 1018 executes the statement. 1019

(ii) No written statement of the type described in division 1020
(B)(3)(a)(i) of this section is executed, but the peace officer, 1021 based upon the peace officer's own knowledge and observation of 1022 the facts and circumstances of the alleged incident of the offense 1023 of domestic violence or the alleged incident of the offense of 1024 violating a protection order or based upon any other information, 1025 including, but not limited to, any reasonably trustworthy 1026 information given to the peace officer by the alleged victim of 1027 the alleged incident of the offense or any witness of the alleged 1028 incident of the offense, concludes that there are reasonable 1029 grounds to believe that the offense of domestic violence or the 1030 offense of violating a protection order has been committed and 1031 reasonable cause to believe that the person in question is guilty 1032 of committing the offense. 1033

(iii) No written statement of the type described in division 1034
(B)(3)(a)(i) of this section is executed, but the peace officer 1035 witnessed the person in question commit the offense of domestic 1036 violence or the offense of violating a protection order. 1037

(b) If pursuant to division (B)(3)(a) of this section a peace 1038 officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the offense of 1039 domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection order 1040 has been committed and reasonable cause to believe that a 1041 particular person is guilty of committing the offense, it is the 1042 preferred course of action in this state that the officer arrest 1043

As Reported by the Senate State and Local Government and Veterans Affairs

and detain that person pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section 1044 until a warrant can be obtained. 1045

If pursuant to division (B)(3)(a) of this section a peace 1046 officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the offense of 1047
domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection order 1048 has been committed and reasonable cause to believe that family or 1049 household members have committed the offense against each other, 1050 it is the preferred course of action in this state that the 1051 officer, pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section, arrest and 1052 detain until a warrant can be obtained the family or household 1053 member who committed the offense and whom the officer has 1054 reasonable cause to believe is the primary physical aggressor. 1055
There is no preferred course of action in this state regarding any 1056 other family or household member who committed the offense and 1057 whom the officer does not have reasonable cause to believe is the 1058 primary physical aggressor, but, pursuant to division (B)(1) of 1059 this section, the peace officer may arrest and detain until a 1060 warrant can be obtained any other family or household member who 1061 committed the offense and whom the officer does not have 1062
reasonable cause to believe is the primary physical aggressor. 1063

(c) If a peace officer described in division (A) of this 1064 section does not arrest and detain a person whom the officer has 1065 reasonable cause to believe committed the offense of domestic 1066 violence or the offense of violating a protection order when it is 1067 the preferred course of action in this state pursuant to division 1068 (B)(3)(b) of this section that the officer arrest that person, the 1069 officer shall articulate in the written report of the incident 1070 required by section 2935.032 of the Revised Code a clear statement 1071 of the officer's reasons for not arresting and detaining that 1072 person until a warrant can be obtained. 1073

(d) In determining for purposes of division (B)(3)(b) of this 1074 section which family or household member is the primary physical 1075

As Reported by the Senate State and Local Government and Veterans Affairs

aggressor in a situation in which family or household members have committed the offense of domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection order against each other, a peace officer described in division (A) of this section, in addition to any other relevant circumstances, should consider all of the following:

(i) Any history of domestic violence or of any other violent acts by either person involved in the alleged offense that the officer reasonably can ascertain;

(ii) If violence is alleged, whether the alleged violence was caused by a person acting in self-defense;

(iii) Each person's fear of physical harm, if any, resulting from the other person's threatened use of force against any person or resulting from the other person's use or history of the use of force against any person, and the reasonableness of that fear;

(iv) The comparative severity of any injuries suffered by the persons involved in the alleged offense.

(e)(i) A peace officer described in division (A) of this section shall not require, as a prerequisite to arresting or charging a person who has committed the offense of domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection order, that the victim of the offense specifically consent to the filing of charges against the person who has committed the offense or sign a complaint against the person who has committed the offense.

(ii) If a person is arrested for or charged with committing the offense of domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection order and if the victim of the offense does not cooperate with the involved law enforcement or prosecuting authorities in the prosecution of the offense or, subsequent to the arrest or the filing of the charges, informs the involved law enforcement or prosecuting authorities that the victim does not

As Reported by the Senate State and Local Government and Veterans Affairs wish the prosecution of the offense to continue or wishes to drop 1107 charges against the alleged offender relative to the offense, the 1108 involved prosecuting authorities, in determining whether to 1109 continue with the prosecution of the offense or whether to dismiss 1110 charges against the alleged offender relative to the offense and 1111 notwithstanding the victim's failure to cooperate or the victim's 1112 wishes, shall consider all facts and circumstances that are 1113 relevant to the offense, including, but not limited to, the 1114 statements and observations of the peace officers who responded to 1115 the incident that resulted in the arrest or filing of the charges 1116 and of all witnesses to that incident. 1117

(f) In determining pursuant to divisions (B)(3)(a) to (g) of 1118 this section whether to arrest a person pursuant to division 1119 (B)(1) of this section, a peace officer described in division (A) 1120 of this section shall not consider as a factor any possible 1121 shortage of cell space at the detention facility to which the 1122 person will be taken subsequent to the person's arrest or any 1123 possibility that the person's arrest might cause, contribute to, 1124 or exacerbate overcrowding at that detention facility or at any 1125 other detention facility. 1126

(g) If a peace officer described in division (A) of this 1127 section intends pursuant to divisions (B)(3)(a) to (g) of this 1128 section to arrest a person pursuant to division (B)(1) of this 1129 section and if the officer is unable to do so because the person 1130 is not present, the officer promptly shall seek a warrant for the 1131 arrest of the person. 1132

(h) If a peace officer described in division (A) of this 1133 section responds to a report of an alleged incident of the offense 1134 of domestic violence or an alleged incident of the offense of 1135 violating a protection order and if the circumstances of the 1136 incident involved the use or threatened use of a deadly weapon or 1137 any person involved in the incident brandished a deadly weapon 1138

during or in relation to the incident, the deadly weapon that was used, threatened to be used, or brandished constitutes contraband, and, to the extent possible, the officer shall seize the deadly weapon as contraband pursuant to section 2933.43 of the Revised Code. Upon the seizure of a deadly weapon pursuant to division (B)(3)(h) of this section, section 2933.43 of the Revised Code shall apply regarding the treatment and disposition of the deadly weapon. For purposes of that section, the "underlying criminal offense" that was the basis of the seizure of a deadly weapon under division (B)(3)(h) of this section and to which the deadly weapon had a relationship is any of the following that is applicable:

(i) The alleged incident of the offense of domestic violence or the alleged incident of the offense of violating a protection order to which the officer who seized the deadly weapon responded;

(ii) Any offense that arose out of the same facts and circumstances as the report of the alleged incident of the offense of domestic violence or the alleged incident of the offense of violating a protection order to which the officer who seized the deadly weapon responded.

(4) If, in the circumstances described in divisions (B)(3)(a) to (g) of this section, a peace officer described in division (A) of this section arrests and detains a person pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section, or if, pursuant to division (B)(3)(h) of this section, a peace officer described in division (A) of this section seizes a deadly weapon, the officer, to the extent described in and in accordance with section 9.86 or 2744.03 of the Revised Code, is immune in any civil action for damages for injury, death, or loss to person or property that arises from or is related to the arrest and detention or the seizure.

(C) When there is reasonable ground to believe that a violation of division (A), (B), or (C) of section 4506.15 or a violation of section 4511.19 of the Revised Code has been 1171 committed by a person operating a motor vehicle subject to 1172 regulation by the public utilities commission of Ohio under Title 1173 XLIX of the Revised Code, a peace officer with authority to 1174 enforce that provision of law may stop or detain the person whom 1175 the officer has reasonable cause to believe was operating the 1176 motor vehicle in violation of the division or section and, after 1177 investigating the circumstances surrounding the operation of the 1178 vehicle, may arrest and detain the person. 1179

(D) If a sheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, 1180 municipal police officer, member of a police force employed by a 1181 metropolitan housing authority under division (D) of section 1182 3735.31 of the Revised Code, member of a police force employed by 1183 a regional transit authority under division (Y) of section 306.35 1184 of the Revised Code, special police officer employed by a port 1185 authority under section 4582.04 or 4582.28 of the Revised Code, 1186 special police officer employed by a municipal corporation at a 1187 municipal airport or other municipal air navigation facility 1188 described in division (A) of this section, township constable, 1189 police officer of a township or joint township police district, 1190 state university law enforcement officer appointed under section 1191 3345.04 of the Revised Code, peace officer of the department of 1192 natural resources, individual designated to perform law 1193 enforcement duties under section 511.232, 1545.13, or 6101.75 of 1194 the Revised Code, the house sergeant at arms if the house sergeant 1195 at arms has arrest authority pursuant to division (E)(1) of 1196 section 101.311 of the Revised Code, or an assistant house 1197 sergeant at arms is authorized by division (A) or (B) of this 1198 section to arrest and detain, within the limits of the political 1199 subdivision, metropolitan housing authority housing project, 1200 regional transit authority facilities or those areas of a 1201 municipal corporation that have been agreed to by a regional 1202 transit authority and a municipal corporation located within its territorial jurisdiction, port authority, municipal airport or other municipal air navigation facility, college, or university in which the officer is appointed, employed, or elected or within the limits of the territorial jurisdiction of the peace officer, a person until a warrant can be obtained, the peace officer, outside the limits of that territory, may pursue, arrest, and detain that person until a warrant can be obtained if all of the following apply:

(1) The pursuit takes place without unreasonable delay after the offense is committed;

(2) The pursuit is initiated within the limits of the political subdivision, metropolitan housing authority housing project, regional transit authority facilities or those areas of a municipal corporation that have been agreed to by a regional transit authority and a municipal corporation located within its territorial jurisdiction, port authority, municipal airport or other municipal air navigation facility, college, or university in which the peace officer is appointed, employed, or elected or within the limits of the territorial jurisdiction of the peace officer;

(3) The offense involved is a felony, a misdemeanor of the first degree or a substantially equivalent municipal ordinance, a misdemeanor of the second degree or a substantially equivalent municipal ordinance, or any offense for which points are chargeable pursuant to division (G) of section 4507.021 of the Revised Code.

(E) In addition to the authority granted under division (A) or (B) of this section:

(1) A sheriff or deputy sheriff may arrest and detain, until a warrant can be obtained, any person found violating section 4503.11, 4503.21, or 4549.01, sections 4549.08 to 4549.12, section

As Reported by the Senate State and Local Government and Veterans Affairs

4549.62, or Chapter 4511. or 4513. of the Revised Code on the portion of any street or highway that is located immediately adjacent to the boundaries of the county in which the sheriff or deputy sheriff is elected or appointed.

(2) A member of the police force of a township police district created under section 505.48 of the Revised Code, a member of the police force of a joint township police district created under section 505.481 of the Revised Code, or a township constable appointed in accordance with section 509.01 of the Revised Code, who has received a certificate from the Ohio peace officer training commission under section 109.75 of the Revised Code, may arrest and detain, until a warrant can be obtained, any person found violating any section or chapter of the Revised Code listed in division (E)(1) of this section, other than sections 4513.33 and 4513.34 of the Revised Code, on the portion of any street or highway that is located immediately adjacent to the boundaries of the township police district or joint township police district, in the case of a member of a township police district or joint township police district police force, or the unincorporated territory of the township, in the case of a township constable. However, if the population of the township that created the township police district served by the member's police force, or the townships that created the joint township police district served by the member's police force, or the township that is served by the township constable, is sixty thousand or less, the member of the township police district or joint police district police force or the township constable may not make an arrest under division (E)(2) of this section on a state highway that is included as part of the interstate system.

(3) A police officer or village marshal appointed, elected, or employed by a municipal corporation may arrest and detain, until a warrant can be obtained, any person found violating any section or chapter of the Revised Code listed in division (E)(1) 1267 of this section on the portion of any street or highway that is 1268 located immediately adjacent to the boundaries of the municipal 1269 corporation in which the police officer or village marshal is 1270 appointed, elected, or employed. 1271

(4) A peace officer of the department of natural resources or 1272 an individual designated to perform law enforcement duties under 1273 section 511.232, 1545.13, or 6101.75 of the Revised Code may 1274 arrest and detain, until a warrant can be obtained, any person 1275 found violating any section or chapter of the Revised Code listed 1276 in division (E)(1) of this section, other than sections 4513.33 1277 and 4513.34 of the Revised Code, on the portion of any street or 1278 highway that is located immediately adjacent to the boundaries of 1279 the lands and waters that constitute the territorial jurisdiction 1280 of the peace officer. 1281

(F)(1) A department of mental health special police officer 1282 or a department of mental retardation and developmental 1283 disabilities special police officer may arrest without a warrant 1284 and detain until a warrant can be obtained any person found 1285 committing on the premises of any institution under the 1286 jurisdiction of the particular department a misdemeanor under a 1287 law of the state. 1288

A department of mental health special police officer or a 1289 department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities 1290 special police officer may arrest without a warrant and detain 1291 until a warrant can be obtained any person who has been 1292 hospitalized, institutionalized, or confined in an institution 1293 under the jurisdiction of the particular department pursuant to or 1294 under authority of section 2945.37, 2945.371, 2945.38, 2945.39, 1295 2945.40, 2945.401, or 2945.402 of the Revised Code and who is 1296 found committing on the premises of any institution under the 1297 jurisdiction of the particular department a violation of section 1298

(b) For purposes of division (F)(2)(a) of this section, the execution of a written statement by the administrator of the institution in which a person had been hospitalized, institutionalized, or confined pursuant to or under authority of section 2945.37, 2945.371, 2945.38, 2945.39, 2945.40, 2945.401, or 2945.402 of the Revised Code alleging that the person has escaped from the premises of the institution in violation of section 2921.34 of the Revised Code constitutes reasonable ground to believe that the violation was committed and reasonable cause to believe that the person alleged in the statement to have committed the offense is guilty of the violation.

(G) As used in this section:

(1) A "department of mental health special police officer" means a special police officer of the department of mental health designated under section 5119.14 of the Revised Code who is certified by the Ohio peace officer training commission under section 109.77 of the Revised Code as having successfully completed an approved peace officer basic training program.

(2) A "department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities special police officer" means a special police officer of the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities designated under section 5123.13 of the Revised Code who is certified by the Ohio peace officer training council under section 109.77 of the Revised Code as having successfully completed an approved peace officer basic training program.

(3) "Deadly weapon" has the same meaning as in section 2923.11 of the Revised Code.

(4) "Family or household member" has the same meaning as in section 2919.25 of the Revised Code.

(5) "Street" or "highway" has the same meaning as in section 4511.01 of the Revised Code.

(6) "Interstate system" has the same meaning as in section 1362
5516.01 of the Revised Code. 1363

(7) "Peace officer of the department of natural resources" 1364 means an employee of the department of natural resources who is a 1365 natural resources law enforcement staff officer designated 1366 pursuant to section 1501.013, a forest officer designated pursuant 1367 to section 1503.29, a preserve officer designated pursuant to 1368 section 1517.10, a wildlife officer designated pursuant to section 1369 1531.13, a park officer designated pursuant to section 1541.10, or 1370 a state watercraft officer designated pursuant to section 1547.521 1371
of the Revised Code. 1372

Section 2. That existing sections 109.71, 109.75, 109.77, 1373 109.801, 2901.01, 2935.01, and 2935.03 of the Revised Code are 1374 hereby repealed. 1375

Section 3. Section 109.71 of the Revised Code is presented in 1376 this act as a composite of the section as amended by both Am. Sub. 1377
H.B. 163 and Am. S.B. 137 of the 123rd General Assembly. Section 1378 109.75 of the Revised Code is presented in this act as a composite 1379 of the section as amended by both Am. Sub. H.B. 566 and Sub. H.B. 1380
670 of the 121st General Assembly. Section 109.77 of the Revised 1381 Code is presented in this act as a composite of the section as 1382 amended by Sub. H.B. 148, Am. Sub. H.B. 163, and Am. S.B. 137 of 1383 the 123rd General Assembly. Section 2935.01 of the Revised Code is 1384 presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended by 1385 both Sub. H.B. 427 and Sub. S.B. 200 of the 124th General 1386 Assembly. The General Assembly, applying the principle stated in 1387 division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments 1388 are to be harmonized if reasonably capable of simultaneous 1389 operation, finds that the composites of these sections are the 1390 resulting versions of the sections in effect prior to the 1391 effective date of the sections as presented in this act. 1392
