To enact section 5502.41 of the Revised Code to 1 establish an intrastate mutual aid program for 2 emergency preparedness and disaster response and 3 recovery to be known as the Intrastate Mutual Aid 4 Compact and to declare an emergency. 5

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 5502.41 of the Revised Code be 6 enacted to read as follows: 7

Sec. 5502.41. (A) As used in this section: 8

(1) "Countywide emergency management agency" means a 9 countywide emergency management agency established under section 10 5502.26 of the Revised Code. 11

(2) "Participating political subdivision" means each 12 political subdivision in this state except a political subdivision 13 that enacts, by appropriate legislation signed by its chief 14 executive, a declaration not to participate in the intrastate 15 mutual aid program created by this section and that provides a 16 copy of the legislation to the emergency management agency and to 17 the countywide emergency management agency, regional authority for 18 emergency management, or program for emergency management within 19 the political subdivision, which is responsible for emergency 20 management in the political subdivision. 21

(3) "Program for emergency management within a political subdivision" means a program for emergency management created by a political subdivision under section 5502.271 of the Revised Code. 22
24

(4) "Regional authority for emergency management" means a regional authority for emergency management established under section 5502.27 of the Revised Code. 25
26
27

(B) There is hereby created the intrastate mutual aid program to be known as "the intrastate mutual aid compact" to complement existing mutual aid agreements in the event of a disaster that results in a formal declaration of emergency by a participating political subdivision. The program shall provide for mutual assistance among the participating political subdivisions in response to and recovery from any disaster that results in a formal declaration of emergency by a participating political subdivision; shall provide for mutual cooperation among the participating political subdivisions in conducting disaster-related exercises, testing, or other training activities using the services, equipment, supplies, materials, personnel, and other resources of the participating political subdivisions to simulate the provision of mutual aid; and shall embody a method by which a participating political subdivision may seek assistance in the event of a formally declared emergency, which resolves many of the common issues facing political subdivisions at the time of a formally declared emergency and will ensure, to the extent possible, eligibility for available state and federal disaster funding. 28 sections 5502.22, 5502.26, 5502.27, and 5502.271 of the Revised Code, as applicable, and in coordination with all departments, divisions, boards, commissions, agencies, and other instrumentalities of, and having emergency response functions within, each participating political subdivision served by that agency, authority, or program, establish procedures or plans that, to the extent possible, accomplish both of the following:

(1) Identify hazards that potentially could affect the participating political subdivisions served by that agency, authority, or program;

(2) Identify and inventory the current services, equipment, supplies, personnel, and other resources related to response and recovery activities of the participating political subdivisions served by that agency, authority, or program.

(D)(1) Within one year after the effective date of this section, the executive director of the emergency management agency shall coordinate with the countywide emergency management agencies, regional authorities for emergency management, and programs for emergency management within a political subdivision, which are responsible for emergency management in participating political subdivisions, in identifying and formulating appropriate procedures or plans to resolve resource shortfalls, as part of their respective programs for emergency management under sections 5502.22, 5502.26, 5502.27, and 5502.271 of the Revised Code, as applicable.

(2) During and after the formulation of the procedures or plans to resolve resource shortfalls, there shall be ongoing consultation and coordination among the executive director of the emergency management agency; the countywide emergency management agencies, regional authorities for emergency management, and programs for emergency management within a political subdivision, which are responsible for emergency management in participating

(E) Participating political subdivisions may request assistance of other participating political subdivisions in response to and recovery from a disaster during formally declared emergencies or in disaster-related exercises, testing, or other training activities. Requests for assistance shall be made through the emergency management agency or an official designated by the chief executive of the participating political subdivision from which the assistance is requested. Requests may be verbal or in writing. If verbal, the request shall be confirmed in writing within seventy-two hours after the verbal request is made. Requests shall provide the following information:

104

(4) The specific place and time for staging of the assistance and a point of contact at that location.

105
106

(F) A participating political subdivision's obligation to provide assistance in response to and recovery from a disaster or in disaster-related exercises, testing, or other training activities under this section is subject to the following conditions:

107
109
110

(3)(a) A responding participating political subdivision and the personnel of that political subdivision, while rendering assistance, or while in route to or from rendering assistance, in another participating political subdivision under this section, shall be deemed to be exercising governmental functions as defined in section 2744.01 of the Revised Code, shall have the defenses to and immunities from civil liability provided in sections 2744.02 and 2744.03 of the Revised Code, and shall be entitled to all applicable limitations on recoverable damages under section 2744.05 of the Revised Code.

(b) A participating political subdivision requesting assistance and the personnel of that political subdivision, while requesting or receiving assistance from any other participating political subdivisions under this section, shall be deemed to be exercising governmental functions as defined in section 2744.01 of the Revised Code, shall have the defenses to and immunities from civil liability provided in sections 2744.02 and 2744.03 of the Revised Code, and shall be entitled to all applicable limitations on recoverable damages under section 2744.05 of the Revised Code.

(I) If a person holds a license, certificate, or other permit issued by a participating political subdivision evidencing qualification in a professional, mechanical, or other skill, and if the assistance of that person is asked for by a participating political subdivision receiving assistance under this section, the person shall be deemed to be licensed or certified in or permitted by the participating political subdivision receiving the assistance to render the assistance, subject to any limitations and conditions the chief executive of the participating political 179 subdivision receiving the assistance may prescribe by executive 180 order or otherwise. 181

(J) Except as otherwise provided in this division, any 182 participating political subdivision rendering assistance in 183
another participating political subdivision under this section 184 shall be reimbursed by the participating political subdivision 185 receiving the assistance for any loss or damage to, or expense 186 incurred in the operation of, any equipment used in rendering the 187 assistance, for any expense incurred in the provision of any 188 service used in rendering the assistance, and for all other costs 189 incurred in responding to the request for assistance. However, a 190 participating political subdivision rendering assistance may 191 assume in whole or in part the loss, damage, expense, or costs, or 192 may loan the equipment or donate the service to the participating 193 political subdivision receiving the assistance without charge or 194 cost; any two or more participating political subdivisions may 195 enter into agreements establishing a different allocation of loss, 196 damage, expense, or costs among themselves; and expenses incurred 197 under division (H)(1) of this section are not reimbursable under 198 this division. To avoid duplication of payments, insurance 199 proceeds available to cover any loss or damage to equipment of a 200 participating political subdivision rendering assistance shall be 201 considered in the reimbursement by the participating political 202 subdivision receiving the assistance. 203

Section 2. This act is hereby declared to be an emergency 204 measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public 205 peace, health, and safety. The reason for this necessity lies in 206 the fact that the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks in New 207 York City and on the Pentagon in Arlington, Virginia, the 208
September 11, 2001, terrorist activity resulting in the crash of 209 United Airlines flight 93 in Pennsylvania, and the anthrax 210 incidents following in the wake of those terrorist events indicate 211 that emergency fire, medical, law enforcement, and other personnel 212 are often needed to respond quickly and in a coordinated manner to 213 disasters outside of political subdivision boundaries, and, thus, 214 it is fitting that Ohio, as soon as possible, have in place an 215 intrastate mutual aid compact for disaster response and recovery 216 that contains procedures for the use of response and recovery 217 resources outside of individual political subdivision boundaries. 218 Therefore, this act shall go into immediate effect. 219
