investigation. 331

(c) As used in division (C)(2) of this section and for no 332 other purpose, subject to division (C)(2)(d) of this section, 333
"disinterested director" means a director of a corporation other 334 than any of the following: 335

(i) A director who has a direct or indirect financial or 336 other interest in the person acquiring or seeking to acquire 337 control of the corporation or who is an affiliate or associate of, 338 as defined in section 1704.01 of the Revised Code, or was 339 nominated or designated as a director by, a person acquiring or 340 seeking to acquire control of the corporation; 341

(ii) Depending upon the specific facts surrounding the 342 director and the act under consideration, an officer or employee 343 or a former officer or employee of the corporation. 344

(d) For purposes of division (C)(2)(c) of this section, a 345 person shall not be considered as other than a disinterested 346 director solely by reason of any or all of the following: 347

(i) The ownership by the director of shares of the 348 corporation; 349

(ii) The receipt by the director as a holder of any shares of 350 a class or series of any distribution made to all owners of shares 351 of that class or series; 352

(iii) The receipt by the director of director's fees or other 353 consideration as a director; 354

(iv) Any interest that the director may have in retaining the 355 status or position of director; 356

(v) The former business or employment relationship of the 357 director with the corporation; 358

(vi) The receipt of, or the right to receive, retirement or 359 deferred compensation from the corporation due to service as 360 director, officer, or employee of the corporation. 361

(3) A director shall not be considered to be acting in good 362 faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in 363 question that would cause reliance on information, opinions, 364 reports, or statements that are prepared or presented by the 365 persons described in divisions (B)(1) to (3) of this section to be 366 unwarranted. 367

~~(3)~~(4) Nothing contained in ~~this~~ division (C) of this section 368 limits relief available under section 1701.60 of the Revised Code. 369 370

(D) A director shall be liable in damages for any action that 371 the director takes or fails to take as a director only if it is 372 proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent 373 jurisdiction that the director's action or failure to act involved 374 an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause 375 injury to the corporation or undertaken with reckless disregard 376 for the best interests of the corporation. Nothing contained in 377 this division affects the liability of directors under section 378 1701.95 of the Revised Code or limits relief available under 379 section 1701.60 of the Revised Code. This division does not apply 380 if, and only to the extent that, at the time of a director's act 381 or omission that is the subject of complaint, the articles or the 382 regulations of the corporation state by specific reference to this 383 division that the provisions of this division do not apply to the 384
corporation. 385

(E) For purposes of this section, a director, in determining 386 what the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests 387 of the corporation, shall consider the interests of the 388 corporation's shareholders and, in the director's discretion, may 389 consider any of the following: 390

(1) The ~~interests of~~ effects of any action upon any or all 391

As Reported by the Senate Judiciary-Civil Justice Committee

groups affected by that action, including the corporation's	392
employees, suppliers, creditors, and customers;	393
(2) The economy of the state and nation;	394
(3) Community and societal considerations;	395
(4) The long-term as well as short-term interests of the	396
corporation and its shareholders, including the benefits that may	397
accrue to the corporation from its long-term plans and the	398
possibility that these interests may be best served by the	399
continued independence of the corporation;	400
(5) The past, stated, and potential resources, intent, and	401
conduct of any person seeking to acquire control of the	402
corporation;	403
(6) All other pertinent factors.	404
(F) In determining the best interests of a corporation or the	405
effects of any action, a director shall not be required to regard	406
any corporate interest or the interests of any particular group	407
affected by that action as a dominant or controlling interest or	408
factor. The consideration of interests and factors in the manner	409
described in this division and division (E) of this section does	410
not constitute a violation of the duties of a director under	411
division (B) of this section.	412
(G)(1) The duties of a director under division (B) of this	413
section are solely to the corporation and may be enforced directly	414
by the corporation or may be enforced by a shareholder, as such,	415
by an action in the right of the corporation. Those duties may not	416
be enforced directly by a shareholder or by any other person or	417
group.	418
(2) Notwithstanding division (G)(1) of this section,	419
divisions (E) and (F) of this section do not impose upon a	420
director any legal or equitable duties, obligations, or	421
liabilities or create any right or cause of action against, or	422 basis for standing to sue, a director. 423

(H) Nothing contained in division (C) or (D) of this section 424 affects the duties of either of the following: 425

(1) A director who acts in any capacity other than the 426 director's capacity as a director; 427

(2) A director of a corporation that does not have issued and 428 outstanding shares that are listed on a national securities 429 exchange or are regularly quoted in an over-the-counter market by 430 one or more members of a national or affiliated securities 431 association, who votes for or assents to any action taken by the 432 directors of the corporation that, in connection with a change in 433 control of the corporation, directly results in the holder or 434 holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation 435 receiving a greater consideration for their shares than other 436 shareholders. 437

(I) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section, 438 the articles and regulations may not contain any provision that 439 relaxes, restricts, is inconsistent with, or supersedes any 440 provision of this section. 441

Sec. 1701.70. (A) If initial directors are not named in the 442 articles, before subscriptions to shares have been received and 443 before the incorporators have elected directors, the incorporators 444 may adopt an amendment to the articles by a writing signed by 445 them. If initial directors are named in the articles, or if the 446 incorporators have elected directors and have not received 447 subscriptions, then before subscriptions to shares have been 448 received, the directors may adopt an amendment to the articles. 449

(B) The directors may adopt an amendment to the articles in 450
the following cases: 451

(1) When and to the extent authorized by the articles, the 452

directors may adopt an amendment determining, in whole or in part, the express terms, within the limits set forth in this chapter, of any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class, or of one or more series within a class before the issuance of shares of that series.

(2) When the corporation has issued shares or obligations convertible into shares of the corporation or has ~~granted options~~ issued option rights or securities having conversion or option rights with respect to the purchase or acquisition of any shares, and the conversion or option rights are set forth in the articles or have been approved by the same vote of shareholders as, at the time of the approval, would have been required to amend the articles to authorize the shares required for that purpose, and the corporation does not have sufficient authorized but unissued shares to satisfy those conversion or option rights, the directors may adopt an amendment to authorize the shares.

(3) Whenever shares of any class have been redeemed, or have been surrendered to or acquired by the corporation upon conversion, exchange, purchase, or otherwise, the directors may adopt an amendment to reduce the authorized number of shares of the class by the number so redeemed, surrendered, or acquired; and when all of the authorized shares of a class have been redeemed or surrendered to or acquired by the corporation, the directors may adopt an amendment to eliminate from the articles all references to the shares of the class and to make other appropriate changes that are required by the elimination.

(4) When articles have been amended and any change of issued or unissued shares provided for in the amendment or amended articles has become effective, the directors may adopt an amendment to eliminate from the articles all references to the change of shares and to make any other appropriate changes that are required by the elimination; however, an amendment to the articles that is so adopted by the directors shall contain a 485 statement with respect to the authorized number and the par value, 486 if any, of the shares of each class. 487

(5) After a merger or consolidation, in which the surviving 488 or new corporation is a domestic corporation, becomes effective, 489 the directors may adopt an amendment: 490

(a) To eliminate from the articles any statement or provision 491 pertaining exclusively to the merger or consolidation, or that was 492 required to be set forth in the agreement of merger or 493
