that Ohio was the seventeenth state admitted to the union. The "O" 20 represents the "O" in "Ohio" and suggests the state's nickname, 21 the buckeye state. The proportional dimensions of the flag and of 22 its various parts shall be according to the official design on 23 file in the office of the secretary of state. One state flag of 24 uniform dimensions shall be furnished to each company of the 25 organized militia. 26

Sec. 5.012. (A) Display of the state flag at all state 27 buildings and public institutions, such as public school buildings 28 and state parks, is encouraged. If the state flag is displayed, it 29 may be flown every day when weather permits and shall be flown 30 from sunrise until sunset on all national and state holidays and 31 on any other days that the governor proclaims. The state flag may 32 be flown at night when properly lighted. When the state flag is 33 displayed outdoors, it shall be flown either from a flagpole or a 34 staff. Any staff from which the state flag is flown shall be at 35 least two and one-half times as long as the state flag. 36

(B) When the state flag and the United States flag are 37 displayed at the same time, the state flag shall not be larger 38 than the United States flag. When the state flag and the United 39 States flag are displayed together against a wall from crossed 40 staves, the state flag shall be on the left of the United States 41 flag, and the staff supporting the state flag shall be behind the 42 staff supporting the United States flag. When the state flag is 43 flown from the same halyard as the United States flag, the state 44 flag shall be displayed beneath the United States flag. When the 45 state flag is carried in a procession in which the United States 46 flag is unfurled, the state flag shall be displayed on the 47 marching left of the United States flag. 48

(C) The state flag shall be washed or dry cleaned when soiled 49 and may be repaired. When the state flag is damaged beyond repair, 50

it shall be destroyed privately either by cutting it into small
