the application a copy of each pleading and order in the 290

The receipt shall state the item that was sold or consigned, the 295 price of the item, the estimated value of the item, and the names 296 of the consignee and purchaser of the item.

Sec. 4707.27. A person who applies to a court of common pleas for an order directing payment from the auction recovery fund shall file notice of the application with the director of agriculture. The director may defend any such action on behalf of the fund and shall have recourse to all appropriate means of defense and review, including examination of witnesses, verification of actual and direct losses, and challenges to the underlying judgment obtained from a court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether the underlying judgment is based on activity that only a person holding a valid license issued under this chapter is authorized to perform. The director may move the court of common pleas at any time to dismiss the application when it appears that there are no triable issues and the application is without merit, provided that the director shall give written notice to the applicant not fewer than ten days before the motion is made. The motion may be supported by affidavit of any person having knowledge of the facts and may be made on the basis that the application, including the underlying judgment referred to in it, does not form the basis for a meritorious recovery claim. Subject to court approval, the director may compromise a claim based on the application of the aggrieved party. The director shall not be bound by any prior compromise or stipulation of the licensee who is the judgment debtor.

If a final judgment that could be the basis for an application filed under section 4707.26 of the Revised Code 328 involves a violation of Chapter 4735. of the Revised Code, the 329 person who obtained the judgment shall file notice with the 330 superintendent of real estate and apply for an order directing 331 payment from the real estate recovery fund in accordance with 332 section 4735.12 of the Revised Code. Before the person files an 333 application under this section, the person first shall exhaust all 334 that remains unpaid and that represents the actual and direct loss 339 sustained by the person and is subject to the dollar limitations 340 established in section 4707.29 of the Revised Code. 341

Sec. 4707.28. (A) After receipt of an application that is 342

the requirements established under that section, a court of common 344 pleas shall issue an order directing the director of agriculture 345 satisfies the criteria established under this section. The payment 347 shall consist of an amount that is equal to the portion of the 348 final judgment that was obtained by the applicant against a person 349 licensed under this chapter and that remains unpaid. The amount of 350 the payment is subject to the dollar limitations established in 351 section 4707.29 of the Revised Code. 352

The court shall issue an order directing payment to the 353 applicant from the fund when the applicant has shown all of the 354 following: 355

(1) The applicant has obtained a judgment in a court of 356 competent jurisdiction against a person licensed under this 357 chapter on the grounds of conduct that is described in section 358

4707.15 of the Revised Code or that otherwise violates this 359 chapter or rules adopted under it and that is associated with an 360 act or transaction that only a licensee lawfully may perform. 361

(2) All appeals from the judgment have been exhausted, and 362 the applicant has filed notice with the director in accordance 363 with section 4707.27 of the Revised Code and has otherwise 364 complied with that section. 365

(3) The applicant is not either the spouse of the licensee 366 who is the judgment debtor or the personal representative of the 367 spouse. 368

(4) The applicant has diligently pursued the applicant's 369 remedies against all judgment debtors and all other persons who 370 are liable to the applicant in the underlying auction transaction 371 for which the applicant seeks recovery from the fund. 372

(5) The applicant filed the application not later than six 373 months following the termination of all proceedings, including 374 appeals, in connection with the judgment. 375

(6) If the judgment debtor either provided an irrevocable 376 letter of credit or gave bond in accordance with section 4707.11 377 of the Revised Code, the applicant first sought recovery under the 378 irrevocable letter of credit or the bond before applying for 379 payment from the fund. 380

(B) All of the following are prohibited from receiving 381 payment from the auction recovery fund: 382

(1) A bonding company that was not a party in the underlying 383 auction transaction; 384

(2) A person holding a valid license issued under either this 385 chapter or Chapter 4735. of the Revised Code; 386

(3) A person who, under division (B)(5) of section 4735.12 of 387 the Revised Code, would be ineligible to receive payment from the 388 real estate recovery fund; 389

(4) A person who obtained a final judgment that arose from an 390 act or transaction that only a licensed real estate broker or real 391 estate salesperson is authorized to perform under Chapter 4735. of 392 the Revised Code and that did not involve a violation of this 393 chapter or rules adopted under it. 394

(C) Punitive damages, attorney's fees, court costs, and 395 interest on a judgment are not recoverable from the auction 396 recovery fund. 397

Sec. 4707.29. The liability of the auction recovery fund 398 shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars for losses involving 399 violations committed by any one licensee, except that with respect 400 to any one licensee who provides either an irrevocable letter of 401 credit or a bond in order to maintain proof of financial 402

4707.30 of the Revised Code, the liability of the fund for the 407 licensee shall again be fifty thousand dollars, or twenty-five 408 thousand dollars if applicable, but only for transactions that 409 occur subsequent to the time of reactivation. 410

If fifty thousand dollars, or twenty-five thousand dollars if 411 applicable, are insufficient to pay the valid claims of all 412 persons who have applied for payment from the fund with respect to 413 losses involving violations committed by the same licensee, the 414 money shall be distributed among the persons in the ratio that 415 their respective claims bear to the aggregate of valid claims or 416 in another manner that the court determines to be equitable. 417 Distribution of the money shall be among the persons entitled to 418 share in it without regard to the order of priority in which their 419 respective judgments may have been decided or their applications for payment from the fund may have been filed.

434

(B) If the director of agriculture makes a payment from the auction recovery fund to an aggrieved party and the license of the administrative hearing on the suspension in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The director shall not reactivate the suspended license until the judgment debtor licensee has repaid in full, plus interest per annum at the rate specified in division (A) of section 1343.01 of the Revised Code,
