To amend section 2923.01 and to enact section	1
2913.421 of the Revised Code to prohibit a person	2
from transmitting multiple commercial electronic	3
mail messages, falsifying routing information in	4
those messages, falsifying registration	5
information for multiple electronic mail accounts,	6 or falsifying the right to use five or more	7 internet protocol addresses, and to prohibit	8 unauthorized access to a computer to transmit	9 multiple commercial electronic mail messages.	10

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 2923.01 be amended and section	11
2913.421 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows:	12

Sec. 2913.421. (A) As used in this section:	13
---	----

(1) "Computer," "computer network," and "computer system" 14 have the same meanings as in section 2913.01 of the Revised Code. 15

(2) "Commercial electronic mail message" means any electronic 16 mail message the primary purpose of which is the commercial 17 advertisement or promotion of a commercial product or service, 18 including content on an internet web site operated for a 19 commercial purpose, but does not include a transactional or 20 relationship message. The inclusion of a reference to a commercial 21 entity or a link to the web site of a commercial entity does not, 22 by itself, cause that message to be treated as a commercial 23 electronic mail message for the purpose of this section, if the 24 contents or circumstances of the message indicate a primary 25 purpose other than commercial advertisement or promotion of a 26 commercial product or service. 27

(3) "Domain name" means any alphanumeric designation that is 28 registered with or assigned by any domain name registrar, domain 29 name registry, or other domain name registration authority as part 30 of an electronic address on the internet. 31

(4) "Electronic mail," "originating address," and "receiving 32 address" have the same meanings as in section 2307.64 of the 33
Revised Code. 34

(5) "Electronic mail message" means each electronic mail 35 addressed to a discrete addressee. 36

(6) "Electronic mail service provider" means any person, 37 including an internet service provider, that is an intermediary in 38 sending and receiving electronic mail and that provides to the 39 public electronic mail accounts or online user accounts from which 40 electronic mail may be sent. 41

(7) "Header information" means the source, destination, and 42 routing information attached to an electronic mail message, 43 including the originating domain name, the originating address, 44 and technical information that authenticates the sender of an electronic mail message for computer network security or computer network management purposes.

45
46
47

(8) "Initiate the transmission" or "initiated" means to originate or transmit a commercial electronic mail message or to procure the origination or transmission of that message, regardless of whether the message reaches its intended recipients, but does not include actions that constitute routine conveyance of such message.

48
49
50
51
52
53

(9) "Internet" has the same meaning as in section 341.42 of the Revised Code.

54
55

(10) "Internet protocol address" means the string of numbers by which locations on the internet are identified by routers or other computers connected to the internet.

56
57
58

(11) "Materially falsify" means to alter or conceal in a manner that would impair the ability of a recipient of an electronic mail message, an electronic mail service provider processing an electronic mail message on behalf of a recipient, a person alleging a violation of this section, or a law enforcement agency to identify, locate, or respond to the person that initiated the electronic mail message or to investigate an alleged violation of this section.

59
60
61
62
63
64
65
66

(12) "Multiple" means more than ten commercial electronic mail messages during a twenty-four-hour period, more than one hundred commercial electronic mail messages during a thirty-day period, or more than one thousand commercial electronic mail messages during a one-year period.

67
68
69
70
71

(13) "Recipient" means a person who receives a commercial electronic mail message at any one of the following receiving addresses:

72
73
74

(a) A receiving address furnished by an electronic mail 75 service provider that bills for furnishing and maintaining that 76 receiving address to a mailing address within this state; 77

(b) A receiving address ordinarily accessed from a computer 78 located within this state or by a person domiciled within this 79 state; 80

(c) Any other receiving address with respect to which this 81 section can be imposed consistent with the United States 82 Constitution. 83

(14) "Routine conveyance" means the transmission, routing, 84 relaying, handling, or storing, through an automated technical 85 process, of an electronic mail message for which another person 86 has identified the recipients or provided the recipient addresses. 87

(15) "Transactional or relationship message" means an 88 electronic mail message the primary purpose of which is to do any 89 of the following: 90

(a) Facilitate, complete, or confirm a commercial transaction 91 that the recipient has previously agreed to enter into with the 92 sender; 93

(b) Provide warranty information, product recall information, 94 or safety or security information with respect to a commercial 95 product or service used or purchased by the recipient; 96

(c) Provide notification concerning a change in the terms or 97 features of; a change in the recipient's standing or status with 98 respect to; or, at regular periodic intervals, account balance 99 information or other type of account statement with respect to, a 100 subscription, membership, account, loan, or comparable ongoing 101 commercial relationship involving the ongoing purchase or use by 102 the recipient of products or services offered by the sender; 103

(d) Provide information directly related to an employment 104 relationship or related benefit plan in which the recipient is 105 currently involved, participating, or enrolled; 106

(e) Deliver goods or services, including product updates or 107 upgrades, that the recipient is entitled to receive under the 108 terms of a transaction that the recipient has previously agreed to 109 enter into with the sender. 110

(B) No person, with regard to commercial electronic mail 111 messages sent from or to a computer in this state, shall do any of 112 the following: 113

(1) Knowingly use a computer to relay or retransmit multiple 114 commercial electronic mail messages, with the intent to deceive or 115 mislead recipients or any electronic mail service provider, as to 116 the origin of those messages; 117

(2) Knowingly and materially falsify header information in 118 multiple commercial electronic mail messages and purposely 119 initiate the transmission of those messages; 120

(3) Knowingly register, using information that materially 121 falsifies the identity of the actual registrant, for five or more 122 electronic mail accounts or online user accounts or two or more 123 domain names and purposely initiate the transmission of multiple 124 commercial electronic mail messages from one, or any combination, 125 of those accounts or domain names; 126

(4) Knowingly falsely represent the right to use five or more 127 internet protocol addresses, and purposely initiate the 128 transmission of multiple commercial electronic mail messages from 129 those addresses. 130

(C)(1) Whoever violates division (B) of this section is 131 guilty of illegally transmitting multiple commercial electronic 132 mail messages. Except as otherwise provided in division (C)(2) or 133
(E) of this section, illegally transmitting multiple commercial 134 electronic mail messages is a felony of the fifth degree. 135

(2) Illegally transmitting multiple commercial electronic 136 mail messages is a felony of the fourth degree if any of the 137 following apply: 138

(a) Regarding a violation of division (B)(3) of this section, 139
the offender, using information that materially falsifies the 140 identity of the actual registrant, knowingly registers for twenty 141 or more electronic mail accounts or online user accounts or ten or 142 more domain names, and purposely initiates, or conspires to 143 initiate, the transmission of multiple commercial electronic mail 144 messages from the accounts or domain names. 145

(b) Regarding any violation of division (B) of this section, 146 the volume of commercial electronic mail messages the offender 147 transmitted in committing the violation exceeds two hundred and 148 fifty during any twenty-four-hour period, two thousand five 149 hundred during any thirty-day period, or twenty-five thousand 150 during any one-year period. 151

(c) Regarding any violation of division (B) of this section, 152 five hundred dollars or more. 157

(d) Regarding any violation of division (B) of this section, 158 persons with respect to whom the offender was the organizer or 160 leader of the activity that resulted in the violation. 161

(e) Regarding any violation of division (B) of this section, 162
the offender knowingly assisted in the violation through the 163 provision or selection of electronic mail addresses to which the 164 commercial electronic mail message was transmitted, if that 165 offender knew that the electronic mail addresses of the recipients 166 were obtained using an automated means from an internet web site 167 or proprietary online service operated by another person, and that 168 web site or online service included, at the time the electronic 169 mail addresses were obtained, a notice stating that the operator 170 of that web site or online service will not transfer addresses 171 maintained by that web site or online service to any other party 172 for the purposes of initiating the transmission of, or enabling 173 others to initiate the transmission of, electronic mail messages. 174

(f) Regarding any violation of division (B) of this section, 175
the offender knowingly assisted in the violation through the 176 provision or selection of electronic mail addresses of the 177 recipients obtained using an automated means that generates 178 possible electronic mail addresses by combining names, letters, or 179 numbers into numerous permutations. 180

(D)(1) No person, with regard to commercial electronic mail 181 messages sent from or to a computer in this state, shall knowingly 182 access a computer without authorization and purposely initiate the 183 transmission of multiple commercial electronic mail messages from 184 or through the computer. 185

(2) Except as otherwise provided in division (E) of this 186 section, whoever violates division (D)(1) of this section is 187 guilty of unauthorized access of a computer, a felony of the 188 fourth degree. 189

(E) Illegally transmitting multiple commercial electronic 190 mail messages and unauthorized access of a computer in violation 191 of this section are felonies of the third degree if the offender 192 previously has been convicted of a violation of this section, or a 193 violation of a law of another state or the United States regarding 194 the transmission of electronic mail messages or unauthorized 195 access to a computer, or if the offender committed the violation 196 of this section in the furtherance of a felony.

197

(F)(1) The attorney general or an electronic mail service provider that is injured by a violation of this section may bring a civil action in an appropriate court of common pleas of this state seeking relief from any person whose conduct violated this section. The court also may impose a civil penalty against the offender, as the court considers just, in an amount that is the lesser of: (a) twenty-five thousand dollars for each day a violation occurs, or (b) not less than two dollars but not more than eight dollars for each commercial electronic mail message initiated in violation of this section.

(3) In a civil action brought by an electronic mail service provider pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section for a violation of this section, the court may award temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief, and also may award damages in an amount equal to the greater of the following:

216

217

218

(a) The sum of the actual damages incurred by the electronic mail service provider as a result of a violation of this section, plus any receipts of the offender that are attributable to a violation of this section and that were not taken into account in computing actual damages;

223

message initiated in violation of this section. 228

(4) In assessing damages awarded under division (F)(3) of 229 this section, the court may consider whether the offender has 230 established and implemented, with due care, commercially 231 reasonable practices and procedures designed to effectively 232 prevent the violation, or the violation occurred despite 233 commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the practices and 234 procedures established. 235

(G) Any equipment, software, or other technology of a person 236 who violates this section that is used or intended to be used in 237 personal property that constitutes or is traceable to the gross 239 proceeds obtained from the commission of a violation of this 240 section, is contraband and is subject to seizure and forfeiture 241 pursuant to sections 2933.42 and 2933.43 of the Revised Code. 242

(H) The attorney general may bring a civil action, pursuant 243 to the "CAN-SPAM Act of 2003," Pub. L. No. 108-187, 117 Stat. 244 2699, 15 U.S.C. 7701 et seq., on behalf of the residents of the 245 state in a district court of the United States that has 246 jurisdiction for a violation of the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003, but the 247 attorney general shall not bring a civil action under both this 248 division and division (F) of this section. If a federal court 249 dismisses a civil action brought under this division for reasons 250 other than upon the merits, a civil action may be brought under 251 division (F) of this section in the appropriate court of common 252 pleas of this state. 253

(I) Nothing in this section shall be construed: 254

(1) To require an electronic mail service provider to block, 255 transmit, route, relay, handle, or store certain types of 256 electronic mail messages; 257

(2) To prevent or limit, in any way, an electronic mail 258 service provider from adopting a policy regarding electronic mail, 259 including a policy of declining to transmit certain types of 260 electronic mail messages, or from enforcing such policy through 261 technical means, through contract, or pursuant to any remedy 262 available under any other federal, state, or local criminal or 263 civil law; 264

(3) To render lawful any policy adopted under division (I)(2) 265 of this section that is unlawful under any other law. 266

Sec. 2923.01. (A) No person, with purpose to commit or to 267 promote or facilitate the commission of aggravated murder, murder, 268 kidnapping, compelling prostitution, promoting prostitution, 269 aggravated arson, arson, aggravated robbery, robbery, aggravated 270 burglary, burglary, engaging in a pattern of corrupt activity, 271 corrupting another with drugs, a felony drug trafficking, 272 manufacturing, processing, or possession offense, theft of drugs, 273 or illegal processing of drug documents, the commission of a 274 felony offense of unauthorized use of a vehicle, illegally 275 transmitting multiple commercial electronic mail messages or 276 unauthorized access of a computer in violation of section 2923.421 277 of the Revised Code, or the commission of a violation of any 278 provision of Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code, other than section 279 3734.18 of the Revised Code, that relates to hazardous wastes, 280 shall do either of the following: 281

(1) With another person or persons, plan or aid in planning 282 the commission of any of the specified offenses; 283

(2) Agree with another person or persons that one or more of 284 them will engage in conduct that facilitates the commission of any 285 of the specified offenses. 286

(B) No person shall be convicted of conspiracy unless a 287 substantial overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy is alleged 288 and proved to have been done by the accused or a person with whom the accused conspired, subsequent to the accused's entrance into the conspiracy. For purposes of this section, an overt act is substantial when it is of a character that manifests a purpose on the part of the actor that the object of the conspiracy should be completed.

(C) When the offender knows or has reasonable cause to believe that a person with whom the offender conspires also has conspired or is conspiring with another to commit the same offense, the offender is guilty of conspiring with that other person, even though the other person's identity may be unknown to the offender.

(D) It is no defense to a charge under this section that, in retrospect, commission of the offense that was the object of the conspiracy was impossible under the circumstances.

(E) A conspiracy terminates when the offense or offenses that are its objects are committed or when it is abandoned by all conspirators. In the absence of abandonment, it is no defense to a charge under this section that no offense that was the object of the conspiracy was committed.

(F) A person who conspires to commit more than one offense is guilty of only one conspiracy, when the offenses are the object of the same agreement or continuous conspiratorial relationship.

(G) When a person is convicted of committing or attempting to commit a specific offense or of complicity in the commission of or attempt to commit the specific offense, the person shall not be convicted of conspiracy involving the same offense.

(H)(1) No person shall be convicted of conspiracy upon the testimony of a person with whom the defendant conspired, unsupported by other evidence.

(2) If a person with whom the defendant allegedly has 319 conspired testifies against the defendant in a case in which the 320 defendant is charged with conspiracy and if the testimony is 321 supported by other evidence, the court, when it charges the jury, 322 shall state substantially the following: 323

"The testimony of an accomplice that is supported by other 324 evidence does not become inadmissible because of the accomplice's 325 complicity, moral turpitude, or self-interest, but the admitted or 326 claimed complicity of a witness may affect the witness' 327 credibility and make the witness' testimony subject to grave 328 suspicion, and require that it be weighed with great caution. 329

It is for you, as jurors, in the light of all the facts 330 presented to you from the witness stand, to evaluate such 331 testimony and to determine its quality and worth or its lack of 332 quality and worth." 333

(3) "Conspiracy," as used in division (H)(1) of this section, 334 does not include any conspiracy that results in an attempt to 335 commit an offense or in the commission of an offense. 336

(I) The following are affirmative defenses to a charge of 337 conspiracy: 338

(1) After conspiring to commit an offense, the actor thwarted 339 the success of the conspiracy under circumstances manifesting a 340 complete and voluntary renunciation of the actor's criminal 341 purpose. 342

(2) After conspiring to commit an offense, the actor 343 abandoned the conspiracy prior to the commission of or attempt to 344 commit any offense that was the object of the conspiracy, either 345 by advising all other conspirators of the actor's abandonment, or 346 by informing any law enforcement authority of the existence of the 347 conspiracy and of the actor's participation in the conspiracy. 348

(J) Whoever violates this section is guilty of conspiracy, 349 which is one of the following: 350

(1) A felony of the first degree, when one of the objects of 351 the conspiracy is aggravated murder, murder, or an offense for 352 which the maximum penalty is imprisonment for life; 353

(2) A felony of the next lesser degree than the most serious 354 offense that is the object of the conspiracy, when the most 355 serious offense that is the object of the conspiracy is a felony 356 of the first, second, third, or fourth degree; 357

(3) A felony punishable by a fine of not more than 358 twenty-five thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than 359 eighteen months, or both, when the offense that is the object of 360 the conspiracy is a violation of any provision of Chapter 3734. of 361 the Revised Code, other than section 3734.18 of the Revised Code, 362 that relates to hazardous wastes; 363

(4) A misdemeanor of the first degree, when the most serious 364 offense that is the object of the conspiracy is a felony of the 365 fifth degree. 366

(K) This section does not define a separate conspiracy 367 offense or penalty where conspiracy is defined as an offense by 368 one or more sections of the Revised Code, other than this section. 369
In such a case, however: 370

(1) With respect to the offense specified as the object of 371 the conspiracy in the other section or sections, division (A) of 372 this section defines the voluntary act or acts and culpable mental 373 state necessary to constitute the conspiracy; 374

(2) Divisions (B) to (I) of this section are incorporated by 375 reference in the conspiracy offense defined by the other section 376 or sections of the Revised Code. 377

(L)(1) In addition to the penalties that otherwise are 378 imposed for conspiracy, a person who is found guilty of conspiracy 379 to engage in a pattern of corrupt activity is subject to divisions 380 (B)(2), (3), (4), and (5) of section 2923.32 of the Revised Code. 381

(2) If a person is convicted of or pleads guilty to 382 conspiracy and if the most serious offense that is the object of 383 the conspiracy is a felony drug trafficking, manufacturing, 384 processing, or possession offense, in addition to the penalties or 385 sanctions that may be imposed for the conspiracy under division 386 (J)(2) or (4) of this section and Chapter 2929. of the Revised 387
Code, both of the following apply: 388

(a) The provisions of divisions (D), (F), and (G) of section 389
2925.03, division (D) of section 2925.04, division (D) of section 390 2925.05, division (D) of section 2925.06, and division (E) of 391 section 2925.11 of the Revised Code that pertain to mandatory and 392 additional fines, driver's or commercial driver's license or 393 permit suspensions, and professionally licensed persons and that 394 would apply under the appropriate provisions of those divisions to 395 a person who is convicted of or pleads guilty to the felony drug 396 trafficking, manufacturing, processing, or possession offense that 397 is the most serious offense that is the basis of the conspiracy 398 shall apply to the person who is convicted of or pleads guilty to 399 the conspiracy as if the person had been convicted of or pleaded 400 guilty to the felony drug trafficking, manufacturing, processing, 401 or possession offense that is the most serious offense that is the 402 basis of the conspiracy. 403

(b) The court that imposes sentence upon the person who is 404 convicted of or pleads guilty to the conspiracy shall comply with 405 the provisions identified as being applicable under division 406 (L)(2) of this section, in addition to any other penalty or 407 sanction that it imposes for the conspiracy under division (J)(2) 408 or (4) of this section and Chapter 2929. of the Revised Code. 409

(M) As used in this section:	410
(1) "Felony drug trafficking, manufacturing, processing, or possession offense" means any of the following that is a felony:	411
	412
(a) A violation of section 2925.03, 2925.04, 2925.05, or 2925.06 of the Revised Code;	413
	414
(b) A violation of section 2925.11 of the Revised Code that is not a minor drug possession offense.	415
	416
(2) "Minor drug possession offense" has the same meaning as in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code.	417
	418
Section 2. That existing section 2923.01 of the Revised Code is hereby repealed.	419
	420
