more than one establishment or place may transfer or receive 113 dangerous drugs from one establishment or place for which a 114 license has been issued to the terminal distributor to another 115 establishment or place for which a license has been issued to the 116 terminal distributor if the license issued for each establishment 117 or place is in effect at the time of the transfer or receipt. 118

(E) No licensed terminal distributor of dangerous drugs shall 119 engage in the sale or other distribution of dangerous drugs at 120 retail or maintain possession, custody, or control of dangerous 121 drugs for any purpose other than the distributor's personal use or 122 consumption, at any establishment or place other than that or 123 those described in the license issued by the board of pharmacy to 124 such terminal distributor. 125

(F) Nothing in this section shall be construed to interfere 126 with the performance of official duties by any law enforcement 127 official authorized by municipal, county, state, or federal law to 128 collect samples of any drug, regardless of its nature or in whose 129 possession it may be. 130

Section 2. That existing section 4729.51 of the Revised Code 131 is hereby repealed. 132
