To enact section 109.87 of the Revised Code to 1 prohibit any seller or telemarketer from engaging 2 in any act or practice in violation of the federal 3 laws dealing with telemarketing acts or practices 4 and to authorize the Attorney General to enforce 5 the state and federal laws dealing with 6 telemarketing acts and practices and to conduct 7 investigations of violations of those laws. 8

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 109.87 of the Revised Code be enacted 9 to read as follows:

10

Sec. 109.87. (A)(1) As used in this section, "federal act or rule" means the "Telemarketing and Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act," 108 Stat. 1545 to 1551, 15 U.S.C. 6101 to 6108, the "Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991," 105 Stat. 2395, 47 U.S.C. 227, any amendment or reenactment of either of those acts, any rule adopted or issued pursuant to either of those acts, or any amendment of that rule.

11

13

14

15

16

17

(2) The terms that are used in this section have the same meanings as in the applicable federal act or rule.

18

(B)(1) No seller or telemarketer shall engage in any act or practice in violation of any provision of a federal act or rule.

(2) The attorney general, in any proceedings under this section, shall recognize any exemptions recognized by the federal communications commission under the "Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991," 105 Stat. 2395, 47 U.S.C. 227, any amendment or reenactment of that act, any rule adopted or issued pursuant to that act, or any amendment of that rule.

22

24

25

26

27

(C)(1) If the attorney general, as a result of complaints or the attorney general's own inquiries, has reason to believe that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is preparing to engage in a violation of any provision of a federal act or rule, the attorney general may investigate the alleged violation. For purposes of an investigation under division (C)(1) of this section, the attorney general may administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, adduce evidence, and require the production of any relevant matter.

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

(2) If the matter to be produced under division (C)(1) of this section is located outside this state, the attorney general may designate any representative, including any official of the state in which the matter is located, to inspect the matter on the

36

38

39 behalf of the attorney general. The person subpoenaed may make the matter available to the attorney general at a convenient location within the state or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the attorney general or the attorney general's representative to examine the matter at the place where it is located, provided that those expenses shall not be charged to a party that subsequently is not found to have engaged in a violation of any provision of a federal act or rule.

(3) A person subpoenaed under division (C)(1) of this section may file a motion to extend the day on which the subpoena is to be returned or to modify or quash the subpoena, for good cause shown, in the court of common pleas of Franklin county or of the county in this state in which the person resides or in which the person's principal place of business is located. The person may file the motion not later than twenty days after the service of the subpoena.

(4) A person subpoenaed under division (C)(1) of this section shall comply with the terms of the subpoena unless the parties agree to modify the terms of the subpoena or unless the court has modified or quashed the subpoena, extended the day on which the subpoena is to be returned, or issued any other order with respect to the subpoena prior to the day on which the subpoena is to be returned. If a person fails without lawful excuse to testify or to produce relevant matter pursuant to a subpoena, the attorney general may apply to the court of common pleas of the county in which the person subpoenaed resides or in which the person's principal place of business is located for an order that compels compliance with the subpoena.

(5) If an individual subpoenaed under division (C)(1) of this section refuses to testify or to produce relevant matter pursuant to the subpoena on the ground that the testimony or matter may incriminate the individual, the attorney general may request the 68

69
70
71

court to order the individual to provide the testimony or matter. 72
With the exception of a prosecution for perjury or a civil action 73 for damages under division (D)(1) of this section, an individual 74 who complies with a court order to provide testimony or matter, 75 after asserting a privilege against self-incrimination to which 76 the individual is entitled by law, shall not be subjected to a 77 criminal proceeding or a civil penalty or forfeiture on the basis 78 of the testimony or matter required to be disclosed or testimony 79 or matter discovered through that testimony or matter required to 80 be disclosed. 81

(6) The attorney general may do either of the following: 82

(a) During an investigation under division (C) of this 83 section, afford the person who is the subject of the 84 investigation, in a manner considered appropriate to that person, 85 an opportunity to cease and desist from any suspected violation of 86 any provision of a federal act or rule. The attorney general may 87 suspend the investigation during the period that the attorney 88 general permits the person to cease and desist from that suspected 89 violation. The suspension of the investigation or the affording of 90 an opportunity to cease and desist shall not prejudice or prohibit 91 any further investigation by the attorney general under division 92
(C) of this section. 93

(b) Terminate an investigation under division (C) of this 94 section upon acceptance of a written assurance of voluntary 95 compliance from a person who is suspected of a violation of any 96 provision of a federal act or rule. The acceptance of an assurance 97 under division (C)(6)(b) of this section may be conditioned upon 98 an undertaking to reimburse or to take other appropriate 99 corrective action with respect to identifiable telephone service 100 subscribers who are damaged by an alleged violation of any 101 provision of a federal act or rule. An assurance of compliance 102 given by a person under division (C)(6)(b) of this section is not 103 evidence of a violation of any provision of a federal act or rule. 104

The attorney general, at any time, may reopen an investigation 105 terminated by the acceptance of an assurance of voluntary 106 compliance, if the attorney general believes that further 107 proceedings are in the public interest. Evidence of a violation of 108 an assurance of voluntary compliance is prima-facie evidence of an 109 act or practice in violation of the applicable provision of a 110 federal act or rule if the evidence is presented after the 111 violation in a civil action brought under division (D)(1) of this 112 section. An assurance of voluntary compliance may be filed with 113 the court and if approved by the court, entered as a consent 114 judgment in the action. 115

(7) The procedures that are available to the attorney general 116 under division (C) of this section are cumulative and concurrent, 117 and the exercise of one procedure by the attorney general does not 118 preclude or require the exercise of any other procedure. 119

(D)(1) If, by the attorney general's own inquiries or as a 120 result of complaints or an investigation conducted under division 121
(C) of this section, the attorney general has reasonable cause to 122 believe that a person has engaged or is engaging in a violation of 123 any provision of this section or of a federal act or rule, the 124 attorney general, subject to division (D)(2) or (3) of this 125 section, may bring in the appropriate court of common pleas of 126 this state or in the appropriate district court of the United 127 States, but not in both courts, a civil action against the alleged 128 violator for injunctive relief or a civil action against the 129 alleged violator for damages, or both, pursuant to the federal act 130 or rule, on behalf of the residents of this state who have been 131 subjected to telemarketing acts or practices in violation of this 132 section. The attorney general may bring the action under this 133 section or under the applicable federal act or rule, but the 134 attorney general shall not plead a violation of both this section 135 and the applicable federal act or rule in the action. On the motion of the attorney general or on its own motion, a court may impose a civil penalty for a violation of the provision of this section or of the federal act or rule that is the subject of the action. The amount of any award of damages made or civil penalty imposed under division (D)(1) of this section shall not exceed any maximum allowable amount of damages or civil penalty that is specified in the applicable federal act or rule. An award of damages or civil penalties may be recovered under this section or under the applicable federal act or rule, but an award of damages or civil penalties shall not be recovered under both this section and the applicable federal act or rule.

(D)(3) of this section and in which the federal trade commission 169 or federal communications commission has recovered the damages or 170 civil penalties or obtained the relief. 171

(E) Any civil action that the attorney general brings in a 172 federal court under division (D)(1) of this section shall comply 173 with the applicable provisions of the federal act or rule the 174 violation of which is the subject of the action. 175

(F) The attorney general shall deposit any civil penalties 176 that are imposed under division (D)(1) of this section to the 177 credit of the telephone solicitation protection fund, which is 178 hereby created in the state treasury, to be used to pay the costs 179 of the office of the attorney general in investigating any 180 violation of, and in enforcing, any federal act or rule or this 181 section. 182
