BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 5120.034 and 5139.14 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows:

Sec. 5120.034. (A)(1) The department of rehabilitation and correction shall permit representatives of all nonprofit faith-based, business, professional, civic, educational, and community organizations that are registered with the department to enter institutions under the control of the department for the purpose of providing reentry services to inmates. Reentry services 14 may include, but are not limited to, counseling, housing, 15 job-placement, and money-management assistance. 16

(2) The department shall adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. 17
of the Revised Code for the screening and registration of 18
nonprofit faith-based, business, professional, civic, educational, 19
and community organizations that apply to provide reentry services 20 in institutions under the department's control. 21

(B)(1) The department shall post a department telephone 22
number on the department's official internet web site that 23
nonprofit faith-based, business, professional, civic, educational, 24
and community organizations that wish to provide reentry services 25 to inmates may call to obtain information. The internet web site 26 also shall list all of the nonprofit faith-based, business, 27 professional, civic, educational, and community organizations that 28 are registered with the department under this section. 29

(2) The department shall actively recruit nonprofit 30
faith-based, business, professional, civic, educational, and 31
community organizations to provide reentry services in 32 institutions under the department's control. The department shall 33 recruit nonprofit organizations from all faiths and beliefs. 34

(C) Annually, the department shall issue a written report on 35
the department's progress in implementing the recommendations of 36
the correctional faith-based initiatives task force. The 37 department shall provide a copy of the written report to each 38
member of the correctional institution inspection committee 39 created under section 103.71 of the Revised Code. 40

(D) The department shall not endorse or sponsor any 41
faith-based reentry program or endorse any specific religious 42 message. The department may not require an inmate to participate 43 in a faith-based program. 44

Sec. 5139.14. (A)(1) The department of youth services shall 45 permit representatives of all nonprofit faith-based, business, 46
professional, civic, educational, and community organizations that 47
are registered with the department to enter institutions that are 48 under the department's control and management for the purpose of 49 providing reentry services to delinquent children in the 50 department's custody. Reentry services may include, but are not 51 limited to, counseling, housing, job-placement, and 52 money-management assistance. 53

(2) The department shall adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. 54
of the Revised Code for the screening and registration of 55
and community organizations that apply to provide reentry services 57
to delinquent children in institutions under the department's 58 control and management. 59

(B)(1) The department shall post a department telephone 60
number on the department's official internet web site that 61
nonprofit faith-based, business, professional, civic, educational, 62
and community organizations that wish to provide reentry services 63 to delinquent children may call to obtain information. The 64 internet web site also shall list all of the faith-based, 65 business, professional, civic, educational, and community 66 organizations that are registered with the department under this 67 section. 68

(2) The department shall actively recruit nonprofit 69
faith-based, business, professional, civic, educational, and 70
community organizations to provide reentry services in 71 institutions under the department's control and management. The 72 department shall recruit nonprofit organizations from all faiths 73 and beliefs. 74

(C) Annually, the department shall issue a written report on 75

the correctional faith-based initiatives task force. The 77
department shall provide a copy of the written report to each 78
member of the correctional institution inspection committee 79
created under section 103.71 of the Revised Code. 80

(D) The department shall not endorse or sponsor any 81
faith-based reentry program or endorse any specific religious 82 message. The department may not require any child in its custody 83 to participate in a faith-based program. 84
