To enact section 1531.133 of the Revised Code to 1 direct the Chief of the Division of Wildlife in 2 the Department of Natural Resources to enter into 3 the Wildlife Violators Compact and to authorize 4 the Chief to enter into agreements with law 5 enforcement agencies outside of this state for 6 joint law enforcement operations. 7

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 1531.133 of the Revised Code be 8 enacted to read as follows: 9

Sec. 1531.133. (A)(1) The chief of the division of wildlife, 10 with the approval of the director of natural resources, may enter 11 into a memorandum of understanding, agreement, or mutual aid 12 compact with the head of any entity of another state, federal 13 entity, or foreign entity that employs or appoints a law 14 enforcement officer who has substantially the same duties as a 15 peace officer, as "peace officer" is defined in section 2935.01 of 16

the Revised Code, to enable wildlife officers and the specified 17 law enforcement officers to assist each other in the provision of 18 law enforcement services within the jurisdictions that are subject 19 to the memorandum of understanding, agreement, or mutual aid 20 compact. 21

(2) Employees of the division of wildlife who are serving 22
under the terms of a memorandum of understanding, agreement, or 23 mutual aid compact entered into under division (A)(1) of this 24 section shall be considered as performing services within their 25 regular employment for purposes of compensation, pension or 26 indemnity fund rights, workers' compensation, and other rights or 27 benefits to which they may be entitled as incidents of their 28 regular employment. 29

(3) Employees of the division of wildlife who are serving 30
under the terms of a memorandum of understanding, agreement, or 31 mutual aid compact entered into under division (A)(1) of this 32 section retain personal immunity from civil liability under 33 section 9.86 of the Revised Code and all rights of indemnification 34 and representation incident to regular employment. 35

(B) The chief shall adopt rules to enter into a reciprocal 36 agreement with participating states for the enhancement of 37 compliance with hunting, fishing, and other wildlife laws. The 38 agreement is named the wildlife violators compact. The agreement 39 and the rules shall provide for the fair and impartial treatment 40 of wildlife violators operating within participating states in 41 recognition of the violators' due process rights. 42
