As Reported by the House State Government and Elections Committee

127th General Assembly Regular Session 2007-2008

H. B. No. 420

Representative Brinkman

Cosponsors: Representatives Evans, McGregor, J., Bubp, Raussen, Blessing, Uecker, Batchelder, Adams, Hughes, Collier, Combs, Patton, Yuko, Stebelton, Hite, Gibbs, Stewart, J., Jones, Webster, Bacon, Schindel, Huffman, Daniels, Dolan, Hagan, J., McGregor, R., Wachtmann, Wagner, Skindell, Fessler, Book, Peterson, Stewart, D., Coley, Goodwin, Domenick

A BILL

To enact sections 126.45, 126.46, 126.51, 126.52,	1
126.53, 126.55, and 126.57 of the Revised Code to	2 promote transparency with respect to state	3 spending by requiring that certain information on	4
state awards and earmarks, state real property	5 management, state agency management, and state	6 program effectiveness be collected and made	7 available on-line.	8

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 126.45, 126.46, 126.51, 126.52,	9
126.53, 126.55, and 126.57 of the Revised Code be enacted to read	10
as follows:	11
Sec. 126.45. (A) As used in this section:	12
(1) "Entity" means, whether for profit or nonprofit, a	13

(1) "Entity" means, whether for profit or nonprofit, a13corporation, association, partnership, limited liability company,14

sole proprietorship, or other business entity. "Entity" does not	15 include an individual who receives state assistance that is not	16 related to the individual's business.	17
(2)(a) "State award" means state financial assistance and	18 expenditures in any of the following forms:	19
(i) Grants, subgrants, loans, awards, cooperative agreements,	20 or other similar form of financial assistance;	20
(ii) Contracts, subcontracts, purchase orders, task orders,	22 delivery orders, or other similar type of transaction.	23
(b) "State award" does not include compensation received as	24
an employee of the state.	25
(B) The office of budget and management shall establish and	26
maintain a single searchable web site, accessible by the public at	27
no cost, that includes all of the following information for each	28
	-
state award:	29
(1) The name of the entity receiving the award;	30
(2) The amount of the award;	31
(3) Information on the award, including the type of	32 transaction being funded, the purpose of the award, and the agency	33 or other instrumentality of the state that is providing the award;	34
(4) The location of the entity receiving the award and the	35 primary location of performance under the award, which information	36 shall include both the political subdivision of the state and the	37 state house of representatives and senate districts;	38
state nouse of representatives and senate districts/	50
(5) The parent entity of the entity receiving the award, if	39
the recipient is owned by another entity;	40
(6) Any other relevant information determined by the office	41
of budget and management.	42
(C) The office of budget and management may consult with	43

H. B. No. 420 As Reported by the House State Government and Elections Committee

other state agencies in the development, establishment, operation,	44 and support of the web site. State awards shall be posted on the	45 web site within thirty days after being made. The office of budget	46 and management shall provide an opportunity for public comment as	47 to the utility of the web site and any suggested improvements.	48
(D) The web site required by this section shall be fully	49
operational not later than January 1, 2009, and shall include	50
information on state awards made in fiscal year 2008 and	51 thereafter. It shall also provide an electronic link to the daily	52 journals of the senate and house of representatives.	53
(E) The director of budget and management shall submit to the	54
general assembly an annual report regarding the implementation of	55 the web site. The report shall include data regarding the usage of	56
the web site and any public comments on the utility of the site,	57 including recommendations for improving data quality and	58 collection. The director shall post each report on the web site.	59
(F) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring	60
the disclosure of confidential information.	61
Sec. 126.46. (A) As used in this section, "earmark" means	62 funds appropriated by the general assembly for projects or	63 programs, if any of the following applies:	64
(1) The appropriation is made outside a merit-based or	65 competitive allocation process.	66
(2) The recipient of the funds is specified.	67
(3) The use or purpose of the funds is specified.	68
(B) The office of budget and management shall establish and	69
maintain a searchable web site, accessible by the public at no	70 cost, that includes aggregate data on the number and cost of	71 earmarks and displays that information by agency. The web site	72 shall also provide detailed information on individual earmarks.	73

93

94

95

96

(C) The web site required by this section shall be fully	74
operational not later than January 1, 2009, and shall include	75
information on earmarks designated by the general assembly in	76
fiscal year 2008 and thereafter.	77

Sec. 126.51. (A) The director of each state agency or, in the78case of a state agency without a director, the equivalent officer79of that agency, shall, within thirty days after the effective date80of this section, designate a senior real property officer for that81agency. The officer shall have the education, training, and82experience required to administer the necessary functions of the83position, as set forth in this section.84

(B) The senior real property officer shall develop and85implement an agency asset management plan that meets the form,86content, and other requirements established by the Ohio real87property council under section 126.52 of the Revised Code. In88developing this plan, the senior real property officer shall do89all of the following:90

(1) Identify and categorize all real property owned, leased,91or otherwise managed by the agency;92

(2) Prioritize actions to be taken to improve the operational and financial management of the agency's real property inventory;

(3) Make life-cycle cost estimations associated with the prioritized actions;

(4) Identify governmental authorities that are required to97address these priorities;98

(5) Identify and pursue goals, with appropriate deadlines,99that are consistent with and supportive of the agency asset100management plan and measure progress against such goals;101

(6) Incorporate planning and management requirements for 102 historic property and for environmental management; 103 action necessary to the appropriate development and implementation105of the agency asset management plan.106(C) The senior real property officer shall, on an ongoing107basis, monitor the real property assets of the agency to ensure108the assets are managed in a manner that is consistent with the109real property asset management principles developed by the Ohio110real property council and with the agency asset management plan.111(D) Each agency's initial asset management plan shall be112submitted to the office of budget and management not later than113january 1, 2009.114Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio realproperty council, within the office of budget and management, to116develop quidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state117agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the kevised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128<	(7) Identify any other information and pursue any other	104

(C) The senior real property officer shall, on an ongoing107basis, monitor the real property assets of the agency to ensure108the assets are managed in a manner that is consistent with the109real property asset management principles developed by the Ohio110real property council and with the agency asset management plan.111(D) Each agency's initial asset management plan shall be112submitted to the office of budget and management not later than113January 1, 2009.114Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio realproperty council, within the office of budget and management, todevelop guidance for, and facilitate the success of, each stateagency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency assetmanagement plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property anagement and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other covernmental entities.129 <tr< td=""><td>action necessary to the appropriate development and implementation</td><td>105</td></tr<>	action necessary to the appropriate development and implementation	105 here108the assets are managed in a manner that is consistent with the109real property asset management principles developed by the Ohio110real property council and with the agency asset management plan.111(D) Each agency's initial asset management plan shall be112submitted to the office of budget and management not later than113January 1, 2009.114Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio real116property council, within the office of budget and management, to116develop guidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state117agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and122management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	of the agency asset management plan.	106
the assets are managed in a manner that is consistent with the109real property asset management principles developed by the Ohio110real property council and with the agency asset management plan.111(D) Each agency's initial asset management plan shall be112submitted to the office of budget and management not later than113january 1, 2009.114Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio realproperty council, within the office of budget and management, todevelop quidance for, and facilitate the success of, each stateagency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed ofthe senior real property officers designated under section 126.51of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, andthe director of administrative services. The director of budgetand management shall chair the council. The office of budget and(B) The council shall assist the senior real propertyofficers in the development and implementation of the agency assetmanagement plans. The council shall establish appropriateperformance measures to determine the effectiveness of state realproperty management and to allow for comparing the performance ofstate agencies against industry and other governmental entities.The performance measures shall include the following, asappropriate:	(C) The senior real property officer shall, on an ongoing	107
real property asset management principles developed by the Ohio110real property council and with the agency asset management plan.111(D) Each agency's initial asset management plan shall be112submitted to the office of budget and management not later than113January 1, 2009.114Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio real115property council, within the office of budget and management, to116develop quidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state117agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	basis, monitor the real property assets of the agency to ensure	108
real property council and with the agency asset management plan.111(D) Each agency's initial asset management plan shall be112submitted to the office of budget and management not later than113January 1, 2009.114Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio real115property council, within the office of budget and management, to116develop quidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state117agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriatei130	the assets are managed in a manner that is consistent with the	109
(D) Each agency's initial asset management plan shall be112submitted to the office of budget and management not later than113January 1, 2009.114Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio realproperty council, within the office of budget and management, todevelop guidance for, and facilitate the success of, each stateagency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed ofthe senior real property officers designated under section 126.51of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, andthe director of administrative services. The director of budgetand management shall chair the council. The office of budget andmanagement shall provide administrative support for the council.(B) The council shall assist the senior real propertyofficers in the development and implementation of the agency assetmanagement plans. The council shall establish appropriateperformance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.The performance measures shall include the following, asappropriate:	real property asset management principles developed by the Ohio	110
submitted to the office of budget and management not later than January 1, 2009.113Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio real property council, within the office of budget and management, to develop quidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state acency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51 of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and the director of administrative services. The director of budget and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset management plans. The council shall establish appropriate performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real property management and to allow for comparing the performance of state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as appropriate:130	real property council and with the agency asset management plan.	111
January 1, 2009.114Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio real property council, within the office of budget and management, to develop guidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51 of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and the director of administrative services. The director of budget and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real performance measures shall include the following, as appropriate:129The performance measures shall include the following, as appropriate:130	(D) Each agency's initial asset management plan shall be	112
Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio real115property council, within the office of budget and management, to116develop guidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state117agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	submitted to the office of budget and management not later than	113
property council, within the office of budget and management, to116develop guidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state117agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	January 1, 2009.	114
property council, within the office of budget and management, to116develop guidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state117agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131
develop quidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state117agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	Sec. 126.52. (A) There is hereby established the Ohio real	115 agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of118the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	property council, within the office of budget and management, to	116
the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51119of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	develop guidance for, and facilitate the success of, each state	117 of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and120the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	agency's asset management plan. The council shall be composed of	118
the director of administrative services. The director of budget121and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	the senior real property officers designated under section 126.51	119 and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and122management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	of the Revised Code, the director of budget and management, and	120
management shall provide administrative support for the council.123(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	the director of administrative services. The director of budget	121
(B) The council shall assist the senior real property124officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	and management shall chair the council. The office of budget and	122 officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset125management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	management shall provide administrative support for the council.	123 management plans. The council shall establish appropriate126performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	(B) The council shall assist the senior real property	124 performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real127property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	officers in the development and implementation of the agency asset	125 property management and to allow for comparing the performance of128state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	management plans. The council shall establish appropriate	126
state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.129The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	performance measures to determine the effectiveness of state real	127
The performance measures shall include the following, as130appropriate:131	property management and to allow for comparing the performance of	128 appropriate: 131	state agencies against industry and other governmental entities.	129
	The performance measures shall include the following, as	130
(1) Life-cycle cost estimations associated with the agency's 132	appropriate:	131
	(1) Life-cycle cost estimations associated with the agency's	132
prioritized actions; 133	prioritized actions;	133

H. B. No. 420 As Reported by the House State Government and Elections Committee

(2) The costs relating to the acquisition of real property	134 assets by purchase, condemnation, exchange, lease, or otherwise;	135
(3) The cost and time required to dispose of state real	136 property assets and the financial recovery of the state investment	137 resulting from the disposal;	138
(4) The operating, maintenance, and security costs of state	139 properties, including the cost of utility services at unoccupied	140 properties;	141
(5) The environmental costs associated with ownership of	142 property, including the cost of environmental restoration and	143
compliance activities;	144
(6) Changes in the amount of vacant state space;	145
(7) The realization of equity value in state real property	146
assets;	147
(8) Opportunities for cooperative arrangements with the	148
commercial real estate community;	149
(9) The enhancement of agency productivity through an	150 improved working environment.	151
(C) The council shall hold its first meeting not later than	152
sixty days after the effective date of this section. Thereafter,	153 meetings shall be held at least once each quarter of the fiscal	154 year.	155
Sec. 126.53. (A) The director of budget and management, in	156
consultation with the Ohio real property council established in	157 section 126.52 of the Revised Code, shall develop and maintain a	158 comprehensive and descriptive database of all real property under	159
the custody and control of the state, except when otherwise	160 required for reasons of homeland security. For purposes of the	161 database, each state agency shall provide information that	162 adequately describes the nature, use, and extent of the agency's	163

H. B. No. 420 As Reported by the House State Government and Elections Committee	Page 7
real property assets.	164
(B) The director shall make the real property database	165 available on the office of budget and management's web site not	166
later than January 1, 2009.	167
Sec. 126.55. (A) The director of budget and management, in	168
consultation with the governor, shall, not later than twelve	169 months after the effective date of this section, develop	170 management standards that are to be considered the best practices	171 to which state agencies must adhere. In developing these	172 standards, consideration shall be given to similar efforts in the	173 public and private sectors. These standards shall, at a minimum,	174 address all of the following areas:	175
(1) Budget and performance integration;	176
(2) Competitive sourcing;	177
(3) E-government;	178
(4) Human capital;	179
(5) Financial performance improvement.	180
(B) The director shall also establish performance measures to	181 increase transparency and to ensure citizens and agencies have a	182 better understanding of what is being accomplished. The office of	183 budget and management shall apply these measures to periodically	184 assess agency progress on a case-by-case basis.	185
(C) An agency's successful implementation of the best	186 practices in each of the areas described in division (A) of this	187 section shall be tracked using the following grading system:	188
(1) Green: Implementation is proceeding according to plans	189 agreed upon with the agency.	190
(2) Yellow: Issues have arisen requiring adjustment by the	191 agency in order to achieve the objectives in a timely manner.	192

(3) Red: Agency is unlikely to realize objectives absent	193 significant management intervention.	194
(D) The office of budget and management shall post on its web	195
site each assessment made pursuant to this section.	196
Sec. 126.57. (A) The office of budget and management shall,	197
at least once every twenty-four-month cycle, assess each state	198 program with respect to its purpose, design, planning, management,	199 results, and accountability, to determine the overall	200 effectiveness of the program and, based on that assessment, make	201 recommendations on ways to improve program results.	202
(B) To implement division (A) of this section, the office of	203 budget and management shall design a questionnaire and rating	204 system that indicates a program's overall performance. The	205 0.0.5

questionnaire shall focus on a program's purpose and management,206strategic planning with respect to the program, and program207results. It shall be customized depending on the type of program208to be assessed. The results of each assessment shall be posted on209the office of budget and management's web site.210

(C) The office of budget and management shall begin211conducting the assessments required by this section not later than212twelve months after the effective date of this section.213