(I) "Incapacitated person" means a person who is impaired for any reason to the extent that the person lacks sufficient understanding or capacity to make and carry out reasonable decisions concerning the person's self or resources, with or without the assistance of a caretaker. Refusal to consent to the provision of services shall not be the sole determinative that the person is incapacitated. "Reasonable decisions" are decisions made in daily living which facilitate the provision of food, shelter, clothing, and health care necessary for life support.

(J) "Mental illness" means a substantial disorder of thought, mood, perception, orientation, or memory that grossly impairs judgment, behavior, capacity to recognize reality, or ability to meet the ordinary demands of life.

(K) "Neglect" means the failure of an adult to provide for self the goods or services necessary to avoid physical harm, mental anguish, or mental illness or the failure of a caretaker to provide such goods or services.

(L) "Peace officer" means a peace officer as defined in section 2935.01 of the Revised Code.

(M) "Physical harm" means bodily pain, injury, impairment, or disease suffered by an adult.

(N) "Protective services" means services provided by the county department of job and family services or its designated agency to an adult who has been determined by evaluation to require such services for the prevention, correction, or discontinuance of an act of as well as conditions resulting from abuse, neglect, or exploitation. Protective services may include, but are not limited to, case work services, medical care, mental health services, legal services, fiscal management, home health care, homemaker services, housing-related services, guardianship services, and placement services as well as the provision of such commodities as food, clothing, and shelter.

(O) "Working day" means Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, except when such day is a holiday as defined in section 1.14 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5101.61. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Senior service provider" means any person who provides care or services to a person who is an adult as defined in division (B) of section 5101.60 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Ambulatory health facility" means a nonprofit, public or proprietary freestanding organization or a unit of such an agency or organization that:

(a) Provides preventive, diagnostic, therapeutic, rehabilitative, or palliative items or services furnished to an outpatient or ambulatory patient, by or under the direction of a physician or dentist in a facility which is not a part of a hospital, but which is organized and operated to provide medical care to outpatients;

(b) Has health and medical care policies which are developed with the advice of, and with the provision of review of such policies, an advisory committee of professional personnel, including one or more physicians, one or more dentists, if dental care is provided, and one or more registered nurses;

(c) Has a medical director, a dental director, if dental care is provided, and a nursing director responsible for the execution of such policies, and has physicians, dentists, nursing, and ancillary staff appropriate to the scope of services provided;

(d) Requires that the health care and medical care of every patient be under the supervision of a physician, provides for medical care in a case of emergency, has in effect a written agreement with one or more hospitals and other centers or clinics, and has an established patient referral system to other resources, and a utilization review plan and program;

(e) Maintains clinical records on all patients;

(f) Provides nursing services and other therapeutic services in accordance with programs and policies, with such services supervised by a registered professional nurse, and has a registered professional nurse on duty at all times of clinical operations;

(g) Provides approved methods and procedures for the dispensing and administration of drugs and biologicals;

(h) Has established an accounting and record keeping system to determine reasonable and allowable costs;

(i) "Ambulatory health facilities" also includes an alcoholism treatment facility approved by the joint commission on accreditation of healthcare organizations as an alcoholism treatment facility or certified by the department of alcohol and drug addiction services, and such facility shall comply with other provisions of this division not inconsistent with such accreditation or certification.

(3) "Community mental health facility" means a facility which provides community mental health services and is included in the comprehensive mental health plan for the alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district in which it is located.

(4) "Community mental health service" means services, other than inpatient services, provided by a community mental health facility.

(5) "Home health agency" means an institution or a distinct part of an institution operated in this state which:
(a) Is primarily engaged in providing home health services;
(b) Has home health policies which are established by a group of professional personnel, including one or more duly licensed doctors of medicine or osteopathy and one or more registered professional nurses, to govern the home health services it provides and which includes a requirement that every patient must be under the care of a duly licensed doctor of medicine or osteopathy;
(c) Is under the supervision of a duly licensed doctor of medicine or doctor of osteopathy or a registered professional nurse who is responsible for the execution of such home health policies;
(d) Maintains comprehensive records on all patients;
(e) Is operated by the state, a political subdivision, or an agency of either, or is operated not for profit in this state and is licensed or registered, if required, pursuant to law by the appropriate department of the state, county, or municipality in which it furnishes services; or is operated for profit in this state, meets all the requirements specified in divisions (A)(5)(a) to (d) of this section, and is certified under Title XVIII of the "Social (6) "Home health service" means the following items and services, provided, except as provided in division (A)(6)(g) of this section, on a visiting basis in a place of residence used as the patient's home:
(a) Nursing care provided by or under the supervision of a registered professional nurse;
(b) Physical, occupational, or speech therapy ordered by the patient's attending physician;
(c) Medical social services performed by or under the supervision of a qualified medical or psychiatric social worker and under the direction of the patient's attending physician;
(d) Personal health care of the patient performed by aides in accordance with the orders of a doctor of medicine or osteopathy and under the supervision of a registered professional nurse;
(e) Medical supplies and the use of medical appliances;
(f) Medical services of interns and residents-in-training under an approved teaching program of a nonprofit hospital and under the direction and supervision of the patient's attending physician;
(g) Any of the foregoing items and services which:
(i) Are provided on an outpatient basis under arrangements made by the home health agency at a hospital or skilled nursing facility;
(ii) Involve the use of equipment of such a nature that the items and services cannot readily be made available to the patient in the patient's place of residence, or which are furnished at the hospital or skilled nursing facility while the patient is there to receive any item or service involving the use of such equipment.

Any attorney, physician, osteopath, podiatrist, chiropractor, dentist, psychologist, any employee of a hospital as defined in section 3701.01 of the Revised Code, any nurse licensed under Chapter 4723. of the Revised Code, any employee of an ambulatory health facility, any employee of a home health agency, any employee of an adult care facility as defined in section 3722.01 of the Revised Code, any employee of a community alternative home as defined in section 3724.01 of the Revised Code, any employee of a nursing home, residential care facility, or home for the aging, as defined in section 3721.01 of the Revised Code, any senior service provider, any peace officer, coroner, clergyman, any employee of a community mental health facility, and any person engaged in social work or counseling having reasonable cause to believe that an adult is being abused, neglected, or exploited, or is in a condition which is the result of abuse, neglect, or exploitation shall immediately report such belief to the county department of job and family services. This section does not apply to employees of any hospital or public hospital as defined in section 5122.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) Any person having reasonable cause to believe that an adult has suffered abuse, neglect, or exploitation may report, or cause reports to be made of such belief to the department.

(C) The reports made under this section shall be made orally or in writing except that oral reports shall be followed by a written report if a written report is requested by the department. Written reports shall include:

(1) The name, address, and approximate age of the adult who is the subject of the report;
(2) The name and address of the individual responsible for the adult's care, if any individual is, and if the individual is known;
(3) The nature and extent of the alleged abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the adult;
(4) The basis of the reporter's belief that the adult has been abused, neglected, or exploited.

(D) Any person with reasonable cause to believe that an adult is suffering abuse, neglect, or exploitation who makes a report pursuant to this section or who testifies in any administrative or judicial proceeding arising from such a report, or any employee of the state or any of its subdivisions who is discharging responsibilities under section 5101.62 of the Revised Code shall be immune from civil or criminal liability on account of such investigation, report, or testimony, except liability for perjury, unless the person has acted in bad faith or with malicious purpose.

(E) No employer or any other person with the authority to do so shall discharge, demote, transfer, prepare a negative work performance evaluation, or reduce benefits, pay, or work privileges, or take any other action detrimental to an employee or in any way retaliate against an employee as a result of the employee's having filed a report under this section.

(F) Neither the written or oral report provided for in this section nor the investigatory report provided for in section 5101.62 of the Revised Code shall be considered a public record as defined in section 149.43 of the Revised Code. Information contained in the report shall upon request be made available to the adult who is the subject of the report, to agencies authorized by the department to receive information contained in the report, and to legal counsel for the adult.

Sec. 5101.84. An individual otherwise ineligible for aid under Chapter 5107. or 5108. of the Revised Code or food stamps supplemental nutrition assistance program benefits under the "Food Stamp and Nutrition Act of 1977," 78 Stat. 703, 2008 (7 U.S.C. 2011, as amended, et seq.) because of paragraph (a) of section 115 of the "Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996," 110 Stat. 2105, 21 U.S.C. 862a, is eligible for the aid or benefits if the individual meets all other eligibility requirements for the aid or benefits.

Sec. 5103.02. As used in sections 5103.03 to 5103.17 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Association" (1) Except as provided in division (A)(2) of this section, "association" or "institution" includes any all of the following:

(a) Any incorporated or unincorporated organization, society, association, or agency, public or private, that receives or cares for children for two or more consecutive weeks; any

(b) Any individual, including the operator of a foster home, who, for hire, gain, or reward, receives or cares for children for two or more consecutive weeks, unless the individual is related to them by blood or marriage; and any

(c) Any individual not in the regular employ of a court, or of an institution or association certified in accordance with section 5103.03 of the Revised Code, who in any manner becomes a party to the placing of children in foster homes, unless the individual is related to such children by blood or marriage, or is the appointed guardian of such children; provided, that any, or is authorized pursuant to Chapter 3107. of the Revised Code.
(2) The following are exempt from the requirements of sections 5103.03 to 5103.17 of the Revised Code:

(a) Any organization, society, association, school, agency, child guidance center, detention or rehabilitation facility, or children's clinic licensed, regulated, approved, operated under the direction of, or otherwise certified by the department of education, a local board of education, the department of youth services, the department of mental health, or the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, or any. This exemption includes any facility under the control of the department of youth services and any place of detention for children established and maintained pursuant to sections 2152.41 to 2152.44 of the Revised Code.

(b) Any individual who provides care for only a single-family group, placed there by their parents or other relative having custody, shall not be considered as being within the purview of these sections;

(c) A child day-care center subject to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code.

(B) "Family foster home" means a foster home that is not a specialized foster home.

(C) "Foster caregiver" means a person holding a valid foster home certificate issued under section 5103.03 of the Revised Code.

(D) "Foster home" means a private residence in which children are received apart from their parents, guardian, or legal custodian, by an individual reimbursed for providing the children nonsecure care, supervision, or training twenty-four hours a day. "Foster home" does not include care provided for a child in the home of a person other than the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian while the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is temporarily away. Family foster homes and specialized foster homes are types of foster homes.

(E) "Medically fragile foster home" means a foster home that provides specialized medical services designed to meet the needs of children with intensive health care needs who meet all of the following criteria:

1. Under rules adopted by the department of job and family services governing payment under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code for long-term care services, the children require a skilled level of care.

2. The children require the services of a doctor of medicine or osteopathic medicine at least once a week due to the instability of their medical conditions.

3. The children require the services of a registered nurse on a daily basis.

4. The children are at risk of institutionalization in a hospital, skilled nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(F) "Recommending agency" means a public children services agency, private child placing agency, or private noncustodial agency that recommends that the department of job and family services take any of the following actions under section 5103.03 of the Revised Code regarding a foster home:

1. Issue a certificate;
2. Deny a certificate;
3. Renew a certificate;
4. Deny renewal of a certificate;
5. Revoke a certificate.

(G) "Specialized foster home" means a medically fragile foster home or a treatment foster home.

(H) "Treatment foster home" means a foster home that incorporates special rehabilitative services designed to treat the specific needs of the children received in the foster home and that receives and cares for children who are emotionally or behaviorally disturbed, chemically dependent, mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or who otherwise have exceptional needs.

Sec. 5103.03. (A) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules as necessary for the adequate and competent management of institutions or associations. The director shall ensure that foster care home study rules adopted under this section align any home study content, time period, and process with any home study content, time period, and process required by rules adopted under section 3107.033 of the Revised Code.

(B)(1) (a) Except for facilities under the control of the department of youth services, places of detention for children established and maintained pursuant to sections 2152.41 to 2152.44 of the Revised Code, and child day-care centers subject to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code as provided in division (B)(1)(b) of this section, the department of job and family services every two years shall pass upon the fitness of every institution and association that receives, or desires to receive and care for children, or places children in private homes.

(b) The department of job and family services every two years shall pass upon the fitness of any individual, including the operator of a foster home, who, for hire, gain, or reward, receives or cares for children for two or more consecutive weeks, unless the individual is related to them by blood or marriage.

(2) When the department of job and family services is satisfied as to the care given such children, and that the requirements of the statutes and rules covering the management of such institutions and associations are being complied with, it shall issue to the institution or association a certificate to that effect. A certificate issued pursuant to division (B)(1)(a) of this section is valid for four years, unless sooner revoked by the department. A certificate issued pursuant to division (B)(1)(b) of this section is valid for two years, unless sooner revoked by the department. When determining whether an institution or association meets a particular requirement for certification, the department may consider the institution or association to have met the requirement if the institution or association shows to the department's satisfaction that it has met a comparable requirement to be accredited by a nationally recognized accreditation organization.

(3) The department may issue a temporary certificate valid for less than one year authorizing an institution or association to operate until minimum requirements have been met.

(4) An institution or association that knowingly makes a false statement that is included as a part of certification under this section is guilty of the offense of falsification under section 2921.13 of the Revised Code and the department shall not certify that institution or association.

(5) The department shall not issue a certificate to a prospective foster home or prospective specialized foster home pursuant to this section if the prospective foster home or prospective specialized foster home operates as a type A family day-care home pursuant to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code. The department shall not issue a certificate to a prospective specialized foster home if the prospective specialized foster home operates a type B family day-care home pursuant to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code.

(C) The department may revoke a certificate if it finds that the institution or association is in violation of law or rule. No juvenile court shall commit a child to an association or institution that is required to be certified under this section if its certificate has been revoked or, if after revocation, the date of reissue is less than fifteen months prior to the proposed commitment.

(D) Every two years, on a date specified by the department in accordance with division (D)(1) or (2) of this section, each institution or association desiring certification or recertification shall submit to the department a report showing its condition, management, competency to care adequately for the children who have been or may be committed to it or to whom it provides care or services, the system of visitation it employs for children placed in private homes, and other information the department requires.
(1) Every four years, for an institution or association that receives a certificate pursuant to division (B)(1)(a) of this section;

(2) Every two years, for an individual who receives a certificate pursuant to division (B)(1)(b) of this section.

(E) The department shall, not less than once each year, send a list of certified institutions and associations to each juvenile court and certified association or institution.

(F) No person shall receive children or receive or solicit money on behalf of such an institution or association not so certified or whose certificate has been revoked.

(G)(1) The director may delegate by rule any duties imposed on it by this section to inspect and approve family foster homes and specialized foster homes to public children services agencies, private child placing agencies, or private noncustodial agencies.

(2) The director shall adopt rules that require a foster caregiver or other individual certified to operate a foster home under this section to notify the recommending agency that the foster caregiver or other individual is certified to operate a type B family day-care home under Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code.

(H) If the director of job and family services determines that an institution or association that cares for children is operating without a certificate, the director may petition the court of common pleas in the county in which the institution or association is located for an order enjoining its operation. The court shall grant injunctive relief upon a showing that the institution or association is operating without a certificate.

(I) If both of the following are the case, the director of job and family services may petition the court of common pleas of any county in which an institution or association that holds a certificate under this section operates for an order, and the court may issue an order, preventing the institution or association from receiving additional children into its care or an order removing children from its care:

(1) The department has evidence that the life, health, or safety of one or more children in the care of the institution or association is at imminent risk.

(2) The department has issued a proposed adjudication order pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to deny renewal of or revoke the certificate of the institution or association.

Sec. 5104.04. (A) The department of job and family services shall establish procedures to be followed in investigating, inspecting, and licensing child day-care centers and type A family day-care homes.

(B)(1)(a) The department shall, at least twice once during every twelve-month period of operation of a center or type A home, inspect the center or type A home. The department shall inspect a part-time center or part-time type A home at least once during every twelve-month period of operation. The department shall provide a written inspection report to the licensee within a reasonable time after each inspection. The licensee shall display all written reports of inspections conducted during the current licensing period in a conspicuous place in the center or type A home.

At least one inspection shall be unannounced and all inspections Inspections may be unannounced. No person, firm, organization, institution, or agency shall interfere with the inspection of a center or type A home by any state or local official engaged in performing duties required of the state or local official by Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code or rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code, including inspecting the center or type A home, reviewing records, or interviewing licensees, employees, children, or parents.

(b) Upon receipt of any complaint that a center or type A home is out of compliance with the requirements of Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code or rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code, the department shall investigate the center or home, and both of the following apply:

(i) If the complaint alleges that a child suffered physical harm while receiving child care at the center or home or that the noncompliance alleged in the complaint involved, resulted in, or poses a substantial risk of physical harm to a child receiving child care at the center or home, the department shall inspect the center or home.

(ii) If division (B)(1)(b)(i) of this section does not apply regarding the complaint, the department may inspect the center or home.

(c) Division (B)(1)(b) of this section does not limit, restrict, or negate any duty of the department to inspect a center or type A home that otherwise is imposed under this section, or any authority of the department to inspect a center or type A home that otherwise is granted under this section when the department believes the inspection is necessary and it is permitted under the grant.

(2) If the department implements an instrument-based program monitoring information system, it may use an indicator checklist to comply with division (B)(1) of this section.

(3) The department shall contract with a third party by the first day of October in each even-numbered year to collect information concerning the amounts charged by the center or home for providing child care services for use in establishing reimbursement ceilings and payment pursuant to section 5104.30 of the Revised Code. The third party shall compile the information and report the results of the survey to the department not later than the first day of December in each even-numbered year.

(D) The department may deny or revoke a license, or refuse to renew a license of a center or type A home, if the applicant knowingly makes a false statement on the application, does not comply with the requirements of Chapter 5104. or rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code, or has pleaded guilty to or been convicted of an offense described in section 5104.09 of the Revised Code.

(E) If the department finds, after notice and hearing pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, that any person, firm, organization, institution, or agency licensed under section 5104.03 of the Revised Code is in violation of any provision of Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code or rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code, the department may issue an order of revocation to the center or type A home revoking the license previously issued by the department. Upon the issuance of any order of revocation, the person whose license is revoked may appeal in accordance with section 119.12 of the Revised Code.

(F) The surrender of a center or type A home license to the department or the withdrawal of an application for licensure by the owner or administrator of the center or type A home shall not prohibit the department from instituting any of the actions set forth in this section.

(G) Whenever the department receives a complaint, is advised, or otherwise has any reason to believe that a center or type A home is providing child care without a license issued or renewed pursuant to section 5104.03 and is not exempt from licensing pursuant to section 5104.02 of the Revised Code, the department shall investigate the center or type A home and may inspect the areas children have access to or areas necessary for the care of children in the center or type A home during suspected hours of operation to determine whether the center or type A home is subject to the requirements of Chapter 5104. or rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code.

(H) The department, upon determining that the center or type A home is operating without a license, shall notify the attorney general, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the center or type A home is located, or the city attorney, village solicitor, or other chief legal officer of the municipal corporation in which the center or type A home is located, that the center or type A home is operating without a license. Upon receipt of the notification, the attorney general, prosecuting attorney, city attorney, village solicitor, or other chief legal officer of a municipal corporation shall file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the center or type A home is located requesting that the court grant an order enjoining the owner from operating the center or type A home in violation of section 5104.02 of the Revised Code. The court shall grant such injunctive relief upon a showing that the respondent named in the complaint is operating a center or type A home and is doing so without a license.

(I) The department shall prepare an annual report on inspections conducted under this section. The report shall include the number of inspections conducted, the number and types of violations found, and the steps taken to address the violations. The department shall file the report with the governor, the president and minority leader of the senate, and the speaker and minority leader of the house of representatives on or before the first day of January of each year, beginning in 1999.

Sec. 5104.041. (A) All type A and type B family day-care homes shall procure and maintain one of the following:

(1) Liability insurance issued by an insurer authorized to do business in this state under Chapter 3905. of the Revised Code insuring the type A or type B family day-care home against liability arising out of, or in connection with, the operation of the family day-care home. Liability insurance procured under this division shall cover any cause for which the type A or type B family day-care home would be liable, in the amount of at least one hundred thousand dollars per occurrence and three hundred thousand dollars in the aggregate.

(2) An affidavit signed by the parent, guardian, or custodian of each child receiving child care from the type A or type B family day-care home that states all of the following:

(a) The family day-care home does not carry liability insurance described in division (A)(1) of this section;

(b) If the licensee of a type A family day-care home or the provider of a type B family day-care home is not the owner of the real property where the family day-care home is located, the liability insurance, if any, of the owner of the real property may not provide for coverage of any liability arising out of, or in connection with, the operation of the family day-care home.

(B) If the licensee of a type A family day-care home or the provider of a type B family day-care home is not the owner of the real property where the family day-care home is located and the family day-care home procures liability insurance described in division (A)(1) of this section, that licensee or provider shall name the owner of the real property as an additional insured party on the liability insurance policy if all of the following apply:

1. The owner of the real property requests the licensee or provider, in writing, to add the owner of the real property to the liability insurance policy as an additional insured party.

2. The addition of the owner of the real property does not result in cancellation or nonrenewal of the insurance policy procured by the type A or type B family day-care home.

3. The owner of the real property pays any additional premium assessed for coverage of the owner of the real property.

(C) Proof of insurance or affidavit written statement required under division (A) of this section shall be maintained at the type A or type B family day-care home and made available for review during inspection or investigation as required under this chapter.

(D) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules for the enforcement of this section.

Sec. 5104.051. (A)(1) The department of commerce is responsible for the inspections of child day-care centers as required by division (A)(1) of section 5104.05 of the Revised Code. Where there is a municipal, township, or county building department certified under section 3781.10 of the Revised Code to exercise enforcement authority with respect to the category of building occupancy which includes day-care centers, all inspections required under division (A)(1) of section 5104.05 of the Revised Code shall be made by that department according to the standards established by the board of building standards. Inspections in areas of the state where there is no municipal, township, or county building department certified under section 3781.10 of the Revised Code to exercise enforcement authority with respect to the category of building occupancy which includes day-care centers shall be made by personnel of the department of commerce. Inspections of centers shall be contingent upon payment of a fee by the applicant to the department having jurisdiction to inspect.

(2) The department of commerce is responsible for the inspections of type A family day-care homes as required by division (B)(3) of section 5104.05 of the Revised Code. Where there is a municipal, township, or county building department certified under section 3781.10 of the Revised Code to exercise enforcement authority with respect to the category of building occupancy which includes type A homes, all inspections required under division (B)(3) of section 5104.05 of the Revised Code shall be made by that department according to the standards established by the board of building standards. Inspections in areas of the state where there is no municipal, township, or county building department certified under section 3781.10 of the Revised Code to exercise enforcement authority with respect to the category of building occupancy which includes type A homes shall be made by personnel of the department of commerce. Inspections of type A homes shall be contingent upon payment of a fee by the applicant to the department having jurisdiction to inspect.

(B) The state fire marshal is responsible for the inspections required by divisions (A)(2) and (B)(1) of section 5104.05 of the Revised Code. In municipal corporations and in townships outside municipal corporations where there is a fire prevention official, the inspections shall be made by the fire chief or the fire prevention official under the supervision of and according to the standards established by the state fire marshal. In townships outside municipal corporations where there is no fire prevention official, inspections shall be made by the employees of the state fire marshal.

(C) The state fire marshal shall enforce all statutes and rules pertaining to fire safety and fire prevention in child day-care centers and type A family day-care homes. In the event of a dispute between the state fire marshal and any other responsible officer under sections 5104.05 and 5104.051 of the Revised Code with respect to the interpretation or application of a specific fire safety statute or rule, the interpretation of the state fire marshal shall prevail.

(D) As used in this division, "licensor" has the same meaning as in section 3717.01 of the Revised Code.

The licensor for food service operations in the city or general health district in which the center is located is responsible for the inspections required under Chapter 3717. of the Revised Code.

(E) Any moneys collected by the department of commerce under this section shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the industrial compliance labor operating fund created in section 121.084 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5104.30. (A) The department of job and family services is hereby designated as the state agency responsible for administration and coordination of federal and state funding for publicly funded child care in this state. Publicly funded child care shall be provided to the following:

1. Recipients of transitional child care as provided under section 5104.34 of the Revised Code;
2. Participants in the Ohio works first program established under Chapter 5107. of the Revised Code;
3. Individuals who would be participating in the Ohio works first program if not for a sanction under section 5107.16 of the Revised Code and who continue to participate in a work activity, developmental activity, or alternative work activity pursuant to an assignment under section 5107.42 of the Revised Code;
4. A family receiving publicly funded child care on October 1, 1997, until the family's income reaches one hundred fifty per cent of the federal poverty line;
5. Subject to available funds, other individuals determined eligible in accordance with rules adopted under section 5104.38 of the Revised Code.

The department shall apply to the United States department of health and human services for authority to operate a coordinated program for publicly funded child care, if the director of job and family services determines that the application is necessary. For purposes of this section, the department of job and family services may enter into agreements with other state agencies that are involved in regulation or funding of child care. The department shall consider the special needs of migrant workers when it administers and coordinates publicly funded child care and shall develop appropriate procedures for accommodating the needs of migrant workers for publicly funded child care.

B. The department of job and family services shall distribute state and federal funds for publicly funded child care, including appropriations of state funds for publicly funded child care and appropriations of federal funds available under the child care block grant act, Title IV-A, and Title XX. The department may use any state funds appropriated for publicly funded child care as the state share required to match any federal funds appropriated for publicly funded child care.

C. In the use of federal funds available under the child care block grant act, all of the following apply:

1. The department may use the federal funds to hire staff to prepare any rules required under this chapter and to administer and coordinate federal and state funding for publicly funded child care.
2. Not more than five per cent of the aggregate amount of the federal funds received for a fiscal year may be expended for administrative costs.
(3) The department shall allocate and use at least four per cent of the federal funds for the following:
   (a) Activities designed to provide comprehensive consumer education to parents and the public;
   (b) Activities that increase parental choice;
   (c) Activities, including child care resource and referral services, designed to improve the quality, and increase the supply, of child care;
   (d) Establishing a voluntary child day-care center quality-rating program in which participation in the program may allow a child day-care center to be eligible for grants, technical assistance, training, or other assistance and become eligible for unrestricted monetary awards for maintaining a quality rating.

(4) The department shall ensure that the federal funds will be used only to supplement, and will not be used to supplant, federal, state, and local funds available on the effective date of the child care block grant act for publicly funded child care and related programs. If authorized by rules adopted by the department pursuant to section 5104.42 of the Revised Code, county department departments of job and family services may purchase child care from funds obtained through any other means.

(D) The department shall encourage the development of suitable child care throughout the state, especially in areas with high concentrations of recipients of public assistance and families with low incomes. The department shall encourage the development of suitable child care designed to accommodate the special needs of migrant workers. On request, the department, through its employees or contracts with state or community child care resource and referral service organizations, shall provide consultation to groups and individuals interested in developing child care. The department of job and family services may enter into interagency agreements with the department of education, the board of regents, the department of development, and other state agencies and entities whenever the cooperative efforts of the other state agencies and entities are necessary for the department of job and family services to fulfill its duties and responsibilities under this chapter.

The department shall develop and maintain a registry of persons providing child care. The director shall adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing procedures and requirements for the registry’s administration.

   (a) Reimbursement ceilings for providers of publicly funded child care not later than the first day of July in each odd-numbered year;

(b) A procedure for reimbursing and paying providers of publicly funded child care.

(2) In establishing reimbursement ceilings under division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the director shall do all of the following:

(a) Use the information obtained under division (B)(3) of section 5104.04 of the Revised Code;

(b) Establish an enhanced reimbursement ceiling for providers who provide child care for caretaker parents who work nontraditional hours;

(c) For a type B family day-care home provider that has received limited certification pursuant to rules adopted under division (G)(1) of section 5104.011 of the Revised Code, establish a reimbursement ceiling that is the following:

(i) If the provider is a person described in division (G)(1)(a)(i) of section 5104.011 of the Revised Code, seventy-five per cent of the reimbursement ceiling that applies to a type B family day-care home certified by the same county department of job and family services pursuant to section 5104.11 of the Revised Code;

(ii) If the provider is a person described in division (G)(1)(a)(ii) of section 5104.011 of the Revised Code, sixty per cent of the reimbursement ceiling that applies to a type B family day-care home certified by the same county department pursuant to section 5104.11 of the Revised Code.

(3) In establishing reimbursement ceilings under division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the director may establish different reimbursement ceilings based on any of the following:

(a) Geographic location of the provider;

(b) Type of care provided;

(c) Age of the child served;

(d) Special needs of the child served;

(e) Whether the expanded hours of service are provided;

(f) Whether weekend service is provided;

(g) Whether the provider has exceeded the minimum requirements of state statutes and rules governing child care;

(h) Any other factors the director considers appropriate.

(F) The director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement the voluntary child day-care center quality-rating program described in division (C)(3)(d) of this section.

Sec. 5104.32. (A) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, all purchases of publicly funded child care shall be made under a contract entered into by a licensed child day-care center, licensed type A family day-care home, certified type B family day-care home, certified in-home aide, approved child day camp, licensed preschool program, licensed school child program, or border state child care provider and the county department of job and family services. A county department of job and family services may enter into a contract with a provider for publicly funded child care for a specified period of time or upon a continuous basis for an unspecified period of time. All contracts for publicly funded child care shall be contingent upon the availability of state and federal funds. The department of job and family services shall prescribe a standard form to be used for all contracts for the purchase of publicly funded child care, regardless of the source of public funds used to purchase the child care. To the extent permitted by federal law and notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code that regulates state or county contracts or contracts involving the expenditure of state, county, or federal funds, all contracts for publicly funded child care shall be entered into in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and are exempt from any other provision of the Revised Code that regulates state or county contracts or contracts involving the expenditure of state, county, or federal funds.

(B) Each contract for publicly funded child care shall specify at least the following:

1. That the provider of publicly funded child care agrees to be paid for rendering services at the lowest of the rate customarily charged by the provider for children enrolled for child care, the reimbursement ceiling or rate of payment established pursuant to section 5104.30 of the Revised Code, or a rate the county department negotiates with the provider;

2. That, if a provider provides child care to an individual potentially eligible for publicly funded child care who is subsequently determined to be eligible, the county department agrees to pay for all child care provided between the date the county department receives the individual's completed application and the date the individual's eligibility is determined;

3. Whether the county department of job and family services, the provider, or a child care resource and referral service organization will make eligibility determinations, whether the provider or a child care resource and referral service organization will be required to collect information to be used by the county department to make eligibility determinations, and the time period within which the provider or child care resource and referral service organization is required to complete required eligibility determinations or to transmit to the county department any information collected for the purpose of making eligibility determinations;

4. That the provider, other than a border state child care provider, shall continue to be licensed, approved, or certified pursuant to this chapter and shall comply with all standards and other requirements in this chapter and in rules adopted pursuant to this chapter for maintaining the provider's license, approval, or certification;

(5) That, in the case of a border state child care provider, the provider shall continue to be licensed, certified, or otherwise approved by the state in which the provider is located and shall comply with all standards and other requirements established by that state for maintaining the provider's license, certificate, or other approval;

(6) Whether the provider will be paid by the county department of job and family services or the state department of job and family services, or in some other manner as prescribed by rules adopted under section 5104.42 of the Revised Code;

(7) That the contract is subject to the availability of state and federal funds.

(C) Unless specifically prohibited by federal law or by rules adopted under section 5104.42 of the Revised Code, the county department of job and family services shall give individuals eligible for publicly funded child care the option of obtaining certificates for payment that the individual may use to purchase services from any provider qualified to provide publicly funded child care under section 5104.31 of the Revised Code. Providers of publicly funded child care may present these certificates for payment for reimbursement in accordance with rules that the director of job and family services shall adopt. Only providers may receive reimbursement for certificates for payment. The value of the certificate for payment shall be based on the lowest of the rate customarily charged by the provider, the reimbursement ceiling or rate of payment established pursuant to section 5104.30 of the Revised Code, or a rate the county department negotiates with the provider. The county department may provide the certificates for payment to the individuals or may contract with child care providers or child care resource and referral service organizations that make determinations of eligibility for publicly funded child care pursuant to contracts entered into under section 5104.34 of the Revised Code for the providers or resource and referral service organizations to provide the certificates for payment to individuals whom they determine are eligible for publicly funded child care.

For each six-month period a provider of publicly funded child care provides publicly funded child day-care to the child of an individual given certificates for payment, the individual shall provide the provider certificates for days the provider would have provided publicly funded child care to the child had the child been present. County departments shall specify the... maximum number of days providers will be provided certificates of payment for days the provider would have provided publicly funded child care had the child been present. The maximum number of days providers shall be provided certificates shall not exceed ten days in a six-month period during which publicly funded child care is provided to the child regardless of the number of providers that provide publicly funded child care to the child during that period.

Sec. 5104.341. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, both of the following apply:

1. An eligibility determination made under section 5104.34 of the Revised Code for publicly funded child care is valid for one year;
2. The county department of job and family services shall redetermine adjust the appropriate level of a fee charged under division (B) of section 5104.34 of the Revised Code every six months during the one-year period, unless if a caretaker parent requests that the fee be reduced due to reports changes in income, family size, or both and the county department of job and family services approves the reduction.

(B) Division (A) of this section does not apply in either of the following circumstances:

1. The publicly funded child care is provided under division (B)(4) of section 5104.35 of the Revised Code;
2. The recipient of the publicly funded child care ceases to be eligible for publicly funded child care.

Sec. 5104.35. (A) The county department of job and family services shall do all of the following:

1. Accept any gift, grant, or other funds from either public or private sources offered unconditionally or under conditions which are, in the judgment of the department, proper and consistent with this chapter and deposit the funds in the county public assistance fund established by section 5101.161 of the Revised Code;
2. Recruit individuals and groups interested in certification as in-home aides or in developing and operating suitable licensed child day-care centers, type A family day-care homes, or certified type B family day-care homes, especially in areas with high concentrations of recipients of public assistance, and for that purpose provide consultation to interested individuals and groups on request;
3. Inform clients of the availability of child care services;
4. Pay to a child day-care center, type A family day-care home, certified type B family day-care home, in-home aide, approved child day camp, licensed preschool program, licensed school child program, or border state child care provider for child care services, the amount provided for in division (B) of section 5104.32 of the Revised Code. If part of the cost of care of a child is paid by the child's parent or any other person, the amount paid shall be subtracted from the amount the county department pays provider is paid.

(5) In accordance with rules adopted pursuant to section 5104.39 of the Revised Code, provide monthly reports to the director of job and family services and the director of budget and management regarding expenditures for the purchase of publicly funded child care.

(B) The county department of job and family services may do any of the following:

(1) To the extent permitted by federal law, use public child care funds to extend the hours of operation of the county department to accommodate the needs of working caretaker parents and enable those parents to apply for publicly funded child care;

(2) In accordance with rules adopted by the director of job and family services, request a waiver of the reimbursement ceiling established pursuant to section 5104.30 of the Revised Code for the purpose of paying a higher rate for publicly funded child care based upon the special needs of a child;

(3) To the extent permitted by federal law, use state and federal funds to pay deposits and other advance payments that a provider of child care customarily charges all children who receive child care from that provider;

(4) To the extent permitted by federal law, pay for up to thirty days of child care for a child whose caretaker parent is seeking employment, taking part in employment orientation activities, or taking part in activities in anticipation of enrollment or attendance in an education or training program or activity, if the employment or education or training program or activity is expected to begin within the thirty-day period.

Sec. 5104.39. (A) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing a procedure for monitoring the expenditures of county departments of job and family services to ensure that expenditures do not exceed the available federal and state funds for publicly funded child care. The department, with the assistance of the office of budget and management and the child care advisory council created pursuant to section 5104.08 of the Revised Code, shall monitor the anticipated future expenditures of county departments for publicly funded child care and shall compare those anticipated future expenditures to available federal and state funds for publicly funded child care. Whenever the department determines that the anticipated future expenditures of the county departments will exceed the available federal and state funds for publicly funded child care; it and the department reimburses the county departments in accordance with rules adopted under section 5104.42 of the Revised Code, the department shall promptly notify the county departments and, before the available state and federal funds are used, the director shall issue and implement an administrative order that shall specify both of the following:

(1) Priorities for expending the remaining available federal and state funds for publicly funded child care;

(2) Instructions and procedures to be used by the county departments.

(B) The order may do any or all of the following:

(1) Suspend enrollment of all new participants in any program of publicly funded child care;

(2) Limit enrollment of new participants to those with incomes at or below a specified percentage of the federal poverty line;

(C) Each county department shall comply with the order no later than thirty days after it is issued. If the department fails to notify the county departments and to implement the reallocation priorities specified in the order before the available federal and state funds for publicly funded child care are used, the state department shall provide sufficient funds to the county departments for publicly funded child care to enable each county department to pay for all publicly funded child care that was provided by providers pursuant to contract prior to the date that the county department received notice under this section and the state department implemented in that county the priorities.

(D) If after issuing an order under this section to suspend or limit enrollment of new participants or disenroll existing participants the department determines that available state and federal funds for publicly funded child care exceed the anticipated future expenditures of the county departments, the director may issue and implement another administrative order increasing income eligibility levels to a specified percentage of the federal poverty line. The order shall include instructions and procedures to be used by the county departments. Each county department shall comply with the order not later than thirty days after it is issued.

(E) The department of job and family services shall do all of the following:

(1) Conduct a quarterly evaluation of the program of publicly funded child care that is operated pursuant to sections 5104.30 to 5104.39 of the Revised Code;
(2) Prepare reports based upon the evaluations that specify for each county the number of participants and amount of expenditures;

(3) Provide copies of the reports to both houses of the general assembly and, on request, to interested parties.

Sec. 5104.42. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules pursuant to section 111.15 of the Revised Code establishing a payment procedure for publicly funded child care. The rules may provide that the department of job and family services will either reimburse county departments of job and family services for payments made to providers of publicly funded child care or make direct payments to providers pursuant to an agreement entered into with a county board of commissioners pursuant to section 5101.21 of the Revised Code, or establish another system for the payment of publicly funded child care.

Alternately, the director, by rule adopted in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code, may establish a methodology for allocating among the county departments the state and federal funds appropriated for all publicly funded child care services. If the department chooses to allocate funds for publicly funded child care, it may provide the funds to each county department, up to the limit of the county's allocation, by advancing the funds or reimbursing county care expenditures. The rules adopted under this section may prescribe procedures for making the advances or reimbursements. The rules may establish a method under which the department may determine which county expenditures for child care services are allowable for use of and federal funds.

The rules may establish procedures that a county department shall follow when the county department determines that its anticipated future expenditures for publicly funded child care services will exceed the amount of state and federal funds allocated by the state department. The procedures may include suspending or limiting enrollment of new participants.

Sec. 5107.05. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules to implement this chapter. The rules shall be consistent with Title IV-A, Title IV-D, federal regulations, state law, the Title IV-A state plan submitted to the United States secretary of health and human services under section 5101.80 of the Revised Code, amendments to the plan, and waivers granted by the United States secretary. Rules governing eligibility, program participation, and other applicant and participant requirements shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. Rules governing financial and other administrative requirements applicable to the department of job and family services and county departments of job and family services shall be adopted in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code.

(A) The rules shall specify, establish, or govern all of the following:

(1) A payment standard for Ohio works first based on federal and state appropriations that is increased in accordance with section 5107.04 of the Revised Code;

(2) For the purpose of section 5107.04 of the Revised Code, the method of determining the amount of cash assistance an assistance group receives under Ohio works first;

(3) Requirements for initial and continued eligibility for Ohio works first, including requirements regarding income, citizenship, age, residence, and assistance group composition;

(4) For the purpose of section 5107.12 of the Revised Code, application and verification procedures, including the minimum information an application must contain;

(5) The extent to which a participant of Ohio works first must notify, pursuant to section 5107.12 of the Revised Code, a county department of job and family services of additional income not previously reported to the county department;

(6) For the purpose of section 5107.16 of the Revised Code, standards all of the following:

(a) Standards for the determination of good cause for failure or refusal to comply in full with a provision of a self-sufficiency contract;

(b) The compliance form a member of an assistance group may complete to indicate willingness to come into full compliance with a provision of a self-sufficiency contract;

(c) The manner by which the compliance form is to be completed and provided to a county department of job and family services;

(7) The department of job and family services providing written notice of a sanction under section 5107.161 of the Revised Code;

(8) For the purpose of division (A)(2) of section 5107.17 of the Revised Code, the period of time by which a county department of job and family services is to receive a compliance form established in rules adopted under division (A)(6)(b) of this section;

(9) Requirements for the collection and distribution of support payments owed participants of Ohio works first pursuant to section 5107.20 of the Revised Code;

(10) For the purpose of section 5107.22 of the Revised Code, what constitutes cooperating in establishing a minor child's paternity or establishing, modifying, or enforcing a child support order and good cause for failure or refusal to cooperate;
The requirements governing the LEAP program, including the definitions of "equivalent of a high school diploma" and "good cause," and the incentives provided under the LEAP program;

If the director implements section 5107.301 of the Revised Code, the requirements governing the award provided under that section, including the form that the award is to take and requirements an individual must satisfy to receive the award;

Circumstances under which a county department of job and family services may exempt a minor head of household or adult from participating in a work activity or developmental activity for all or some of the weekly hours otherwise required by section 5107.43 of the Revised Code.

The maximum amount of time the department will subsidize positions created by state agencies and political subdivisions under division (C) of section 5107.52 of the Revised Code;

The implementation of sections 5107.71 to 5107.717 of the Revised Code by county departments of job and family services;

A domestic violence screening process to be used for the purpose of division (A) of section 5107.71 of the Revised Code;

The minimum frequency with which county departments of job and family services must redetermine a member of an assistance group's need for a waiver issued under section 5107.714 of the Revised Code.

The rules adopted under division (A)(3) of this section regarding income shall specify what is countable income, gross earned income, and gross unearned income for the purpose of section 5107.10 of the Revised Code.

The rules adopted under division (A)(9)(10) of this section shall be consistent with 42 U.S.C. 654(29).

The rules adopted under division (A)(13) of this section shall specify that the circumstances include that a school or place of work is closed due to a holiday or weather or other emergency and that an employer grants the minor head of household or adult leave for illness or earned vacation.

The rules may provide that a county department of job and family services is not required to take action under section 5107.76 of the Revised Code to recover an erroneous payment that is below an amount the department specifies.

Sec. 5107.16. (A) If a member of an assistance group fails or refuses, without good cause, to comply in full with a provision of a self-sufficiency contract entered into under section 5107.14 of the Revised Code, a county department of job and family services shall sanction the assistance group as follows:

(1) For a first failure or refusal, the county department shall deny or terminate the assistance group's eligibility to participate in Ohio works first for one payment month or until the failure or refusal ceases, whichever is longer;

(2) For a second failure or refusal, the county department shall deny or terminate the assistance group's eligibility to participate in Ohio works first for three payment months or until the failure or refusal ceases, whichever is longer;

(3) For a third or subsequent failure or refusal, the county department shall deny or terminate the assistance group's eligibility to participate in Ohio works first for six payment months or until the failure or refusal ceases, whichever is longer.

(B) The director of job and family services shall establish standards for the determination of good cause for failure or refusal to comply in full with a provision of a self-sufficiency contract in rules adopted under section 5107.05 of the Revised Code.

(C) The director of job and family services shall provide a compliance form established in rules adopted under section 5107.05 of the Revised Code to an assistance group member who fails or refuses, without good cause, to comply in full with a provision of a self-sufficiency contract. The member's failure or refusal to comply in full with the provision shall be deemed to have ceased on the date a county department of job and family services receives the compliance form from the member if the compliance form is completed and provided to the county department in the manner specified in rules adopted under section 5107.05 of the Revised Code.

(D) After sanctioning an assistance group under division (A) of this section, a county department of job and family services shall continue to work with the assistance group.

(E) An adult eligible for medicaid pursuant to division (A)(1)(a) of section 5111.01 of the Revised Code who is sanctioned under division (A)(3) of this section for a failure or refusal, without good cause, to comply in full with a provision of a self-sufficiency contract related to work responsibilities under sections 5107.40 to 5107.69 of the Revised Code loses eligibility for medicaid unless the adult is otherwise eligible for medicaid pursuant to another division of section 5111.01 of the Revised Code.

An assistance group that would be participating in Ohio works first if not for a sanction under this section shall continue to be eligible for all of the following:
(1) Publicly funded child care in accordance with division (A)(3) of section 5104.30 of the Revised Code;
(2) Support services in accordance with section 5107.66 of the Revised Code;
(3) To the extent permitted by the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 52 Stat. 1060, 29 U.S.C. 201, as amended, to participate in work activities, developmental activities, and alternative work activities in accordance with sections 5107.40 to 5107.69 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5107.17. An assistance group that resumes participation in Ohio works first following a sanction under section 5107.16 of the Revised Code is not required to do either of the following:
(A) Reapply under section 5107.12 of the Revised Code, unless it either of the following applies:
(1) It is the assistance group's regularly scheduled time for an eligibility redetermination;
(2) The county department of job and family services does not receive the completed compliance form established in rules adopted under section 5107.05 of the Revised Code within the period of time specified in rules adopted under that section.
(B) Enter into a new self-sufficiency contract under section 5107.14 of the Revised Code, unless the county department of job and family services determines it is time for a new appraisal under section 5107.41 of the Revised Code or the assistance group's circumstances have changed in a manner necessitating an amendment to the self-sufficiency contract as determined using procedures included in the contract under division (B)(9) of section 5107.14 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5107.78. The department of job and family services shall include a notice with the following information with each cash assistance payment provided under Ohio works first to an assistance group residing in a county in which the computer system known as support enforcement tracking system is in operation:
(A) The number of months the assistance group has participated in Ohio works first and the remaining number of months the assistance group may participate in the program as limited by section 5107.18 of the Revised Code;
(B) The department of job and family services shall include a notice of the amount of support payments due a member of the assistance group that a child support enforcement agency collected and paid to the department pursuant to section 5107.20 of the Revised Code during the most recent month for which the department has this information.
Sec. 5108.04. Each county department of job and family services shall adopt a written statement of policies governing the prevention, retention, and contingency program for the county. The statement of policies shall be adopted not later than October 1, 2003, and shall be updated at least every two years thereafter. A county department may amend its statement of policies to modify, terminate, and establish new policies. A county department also may amend its statement of policies to suspend operation of its prevention, retention, and contingency program temporarily. The county director of job and family services shall sign and date the statement of policies and any amendment to it. Neither the statement of policies nor any amendment to it may have an effective date that is earlier than the date of the county director's signature.

Each county department of job and family services shall provide the department of job and family services a written copy of the statement of policies and any amendments it adopts to the statement not later than ten calendar days after the statement or amendment's effective date.

Sec. 5108.07. (A) Each statement of policies adopted under section 5108.04 of the Revised Code shall include the board of county commissioners' certification that the county department of job and family services complied with this chapter in adopting the statement of policies.

(B) The board of county commissioners shall revise its certification under division (A) of this section if the county department adopts an amendment under section 5108.04 of the Revised Code to suspend operation of its prevention, retention, and contingency program temporarily or any other amendment under that section the board considers to be significant.

Sec. 5111.01. As used in this chapter, "medical assistance program" or "medicaid" means the program that is authorized by this chapter and provided by the department of job and family services under this chapter, Title XIX of the "Social Security Act," 79 Stat. 286 (1965), 42 U.S.C.A. 1396, as amended, and the waivers of Title XIX requirements granted to the department by the centers for medicare and medicaid services of the United States department of health and human services.

The department of job and family services shall act as the single state agency to supervise the administration of the medicaid program. As the single state agency, the department shall comply with 42 C.F.R. 431.10(e). The department's rules governing medicaid are binding on other agencies that administer components of the medicaid program. No agency may establish, by rule or otherwise, a policy governing medicaid that is inconsistent with a medicaid policy established, in rule or otherwise, by the director of job and family services.

(A) The department of job and family services may provide medical assistance under the medicaid program as long as federal funds are provided for such assistance, to the following:

(1) Families with children that meet either of the following conditions:

(a) The family meets the income, resource, and family composition requirements in effect on July 16, 1996, for the former aid to dependent children program as those requirements were established by Chapter 5107.
of the Revised Code, federal waivers granted pursuant to requests made under former section 5101.09 of the Revised Code, and rules adopted by the department or any changes the department makes to those requirements in accordance with paragraph (a)(2) of section 114 of the "Personal 2177, 42 U.S.C.A. 1396u-1, for the purpose of implementing section 5107.16 of the Revised Code. An adult loses eligibility for medicaid under division (A)(1)(a) of this section pursuant to division (D)(E) of section 5107.16 of the Revised Code.

(b) The family does not meet the requirements specified in division
(A)(1)(a) of this section but is eligible for medicaid pursuant to section 5101.18 of the Revised Code.

(2) Aged, blind, and disabled persons who meet the following conditions:

(a) Receive federal aid under Title XVI of the "Social Security Act," or are eligible for but are not receiving such aid, provided that the income from all other sources for individuals with independent living arrangements shall not exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars per month. The income standards hereby established shall be adjusted annually at the rate that is used by the United States department of health and human services to adjust the amounts payable under Title XVI.

(b) Do not receive aid under Title XVI, but meet any of the following criteria:

(i) Would be eligible to receive such aid, except that their income, other than that excluded from consideration as income under Title XVI, exceeds the maximum under division (A)(2)(a) of this section, and incurred expenses for medical care, as determined under federal regulations applicable to section 209(b) of the "Social Security Amendments of 1972," 86 Stat. 1381, 42 U.S.C.A. 1396a(f), as amended, equal or exceed the amount by which their income exceeds the maximum under division (A)(2)(a) of this section;

(ii) Received aid for the aged, aid to the blind, or aid for the permanently and totally disabled prior to January 1, 1974, and continue to meet all the same eligibility requirements;

  (iii) Are eligible for medicaid pursuant to section 5101.18 of the Revised Code.

(3) Persons to whom federal law requires, as a condition of state participation in the medicaid program, that medicaid be provided;

(4) Persons under age twenty-one who meet the income requirements for the Ohio works first program established under Chapter 5107. of the Revised Code but do not meet other eligibility requirements for the program. The director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code specifying which Ohio works first requirements shall be waived for the purpose of providing medicaid eligibility under division (A)(4) of this section.

(B) If sufficient funds are appropriated for the medicaid program, the department may provide medical assistance under the medicaid program to persons in groups designated by federal law as groups to which a state, at its option, may provide medical assistance under the medicaid program.

(C) The department may expand eligibility for the medicaid program to include individuals under age nineteen with family incomes at or below one hundred fifty per cent of the federal poverty guidelines, except that the eligibility expansion shall not occur unless the department receives the approval of the federal government. The department may implement the eligibility expansion authorized under this division on any date selected by the department, but not sooner than January 1, 1998.

(D) In addition to any other authority or requirement to adopt rules under this chapter, the director may adopt rules in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code as the director considers necessary to establish standards, procedures, and other requirements regarding the provision of medical assistance under the medicaid program. The rules may establish requirements to be followed in applying for medicaid, making determinations of eligibility for medicaid, and verifying eligibility for medicaid. The rules may include special conditions as the department determines appropriate for making applications, determining eligibility, and verifying eligibility for any medical assistance that the department may provide under the medicaid program pursuant to division (C) of this section and section 5111.014 or 5111.019 or 5111.0120 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.019. The director of job and family services shall submit to the United States secretary of health and human services an amendment to the state medicaid plan to make an individual eligible for medicaid who meets all of the following requirements:
(A) The individual is the parent of a child under nineteen years of age and resides with the child;
(B) The individual's family income does not exceed ninety per cent of the federal poverty guidelines;
(C) The individual is not otherwise eligible for medicaid;
(D) The individual satisfies all relevant requirements established by rules adopted under division (D) of section 5111.01 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.0121. A parent eligible for the medicaid program pursuant to section 5111.0120 of the Revised Code shall not be required to undergo a redetermination of eligibility for the medicaid program more often than once every twelve months unless there are reasonable grounds to believe that circumstances have changed that may affect the parent's eligibility.

Sec. 5111.028. (A) Pursuant to section 5111.02 of the Revised Code, the director of job and family services shall adopt rules establishing procedures for the use of time-limited provider agreements under the medicaid program. Except as provided in division (E) of this section, all provider agreements shall be time-limited in accordance with the procedures established in the rules.

The department of job and family services shall phase-in the use of time-limited provider agreements pursuant to this section during a period commencing not later than January 1, 2008, and ending January 1, 2015.

(B) In the use of time-limited provider agreements pursuant to this section, all of the following apply:

1. Each provider agreement shall expire not later than three seven years from the effective date of the agreement.

2. During the phase-in period specified in division (A) of this section, the department may provide for the conversion of a provider agreement without a time limit to a provider agreement with a time limit. The department may take an action to convert the provider agreement by sending a notice by regular mail to the address of the provider on record with the department advising the provider of the conversion.

3. The department may make the effective date of a provider agreement retroactive for a period not to exceed one year from the date of the provider's application for the agreement, as long as the provider met all medicaid program requirements during that period.

(C) The rules for use of time-limited provider agreements pursuant to this section shall include a process for re-enrollment of providers. All of the following apply to the re-enrollment process:

1. The department of job and family services may terminate a time-limited provider agreement or deny re-enrollment when a provider fails to file an application for re-enrollment within the time and in the manner required under the re-enrollment process.

(2) If a provider files an application for re-enrollment within the time and in the manner required under the re-enrollment process, but the provider agreement expires before the department acts on the application or before the effective date of the department's decision on the application, the provider may continue operating under the terms of the expired provider agreement until the effective date of the department's decision.

(3) A decision by the department to approve an application for re-enrollment becomes effective on the date of the department's decision. A decision by the department to deny re-enrollment shall take effect not sooner than thirty days after the date the department mails written notice of the decision to the provider. The department shall specify in the notice the date on which the provider is required to cease operating under the provider agreement.

(D) Pursuant to section 5111.06 of the Revised Code, the department is not required to take the actions specified in division (C)(1) of this section by issuing an order pursuant to an adjudication conducted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

(E) The use of time-limited provider agreements pursuant to this section does not apply to provider agreements issued to the following, including any provider agreements issued to the following that are otherwise time-limited under the medicaid program:

(1) A managed care organization under contract with the department pursuant to section 5111.17 of the Revised Code;

(2) A nursing facility, as defined in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code;

(3) An intermediate care facility for the retarded, as defined in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code;

(4) A hospital.

Sec. 5111.0210. As used in this section, "advanced diagnostic imaging services" means magnetic resonance imaging services, computed tomography services, positron emission tomography services, cardiac nuclear medicine services, and similar imaging services.

Not later than January 1, 2010, the department of job and family services shall implement evidence-based, best practice guidelines or protocols and decision support tools for advanced diagnostic imaging services available under the fee-for-service component of the medicaid program.
Sec. 5111.032. (A) As used in this section:
(1) "Criminal records check" has the same meaning as in section 109.572 of the Revised Code.
(2) "Department" includes a designee of the department of job and family services.
(3) "Owner" means a person who has an ownership interest in a provider in an amount designated by the department of job and family services in rules adopted under this section.
(4) "Provider" means a person, institution, or entity that has a provider agreement with the department of job and family services pursuant to Title XIX of the "Social Security Act," 49 State. 620 (1965), 42 U.S.C. 1396, as amended.

(B)(1) Except as provided in division (B)(2) of this section, the department of job and family services may require that any provider, applicant to be a provider, employee or prospective employee of a provider, owner or prospective owner of a provider, officer or prospective officer of a provider, or board member or prospective board member of a provider submit to a criminal records check as a condition of obtaining a provider agreement, continuing to hold a provider agreement, being employed by a provider, having an ownership interest in a provider, or being an officer or board member of a provider. The department may designate the categories of persons who are subject to the criminal records check requirement. The department shall designate the times at which the criminal records checks must be conducted.

(2) The section does not apply to providers, applicants to be providers, employees of a provider, or prospective employees of a provider who are subject to criminal records checks under section 5111.033 or 5111.034 of the Revised Code.

(C)(1) The department shall inform each provider or applicant to be a provider whether the provider or applicant is subject to a criminal records check requirement under division (B) of this section. For providers, the information shall be given at times designated in rules adopted under this section. For applicants to be providers, the information shall be given at the time of initial application. When the information is given, the department shall specify which of the provider's or applicant's employees or prospective employees, owners or prospective owners, officers or prospective officers, or board members or prospective board members are subject to the criminal records check requirement.

(2) At times designated in rules adopted under this section, a provider that is subject to the criminal records check requirement shall inform each person specified by the department under division (C)(1) of this section that the person is required, as applicable, to submit to a criminal records check for final consideration for employment in a full-time, part-time, or temporary position; as a condition of continued employment; or as a condition of becoming or continuing to be an officer, board member or owner of a provider.

(D)(1) If a provider or applicant to be a provider is subject to a criminal records check under this section, the department shall require the conduct of a criminal records check by the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation. If a provider or applicant to be a provider for whom a criminal records check is required does not present proof of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period immediately prior to the date the criminal records check is requested or provide evidence that within that five-year period the superintendent has requested information about the individual from the federal bureau of investigation in a criminal records check, the department shall require the provider or applicant to request that the superintendent obtain information from the federal bureau of investigation as part of the criminal records check of the provider or applicant. Even if a provider or applicant for whom a criminal records check request is required presents proof of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period, the department may require that the provider or applicant request that the superintendent obtain information from the federal bureau of investigation and include it in the criminal records check of the provider or applicant.

(2) A provider shall require the conduct of a criminal records check by the superintendent with respect to each of the persons specified by the department under division (C)(1) of this section. If the person for whom a criminal records check is required does not present proof of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period immediately prior to the date the criminal records check is requested or provide evidence that within that five-year period the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation has requested information about the individual from the federal bureau of investigation in a criminal records check, the individual shall request that the superintendent obtain information from the federal bureau of investigation as part of the criminal records check of the individual. Even if an individual for whom a criminal records check request is required presents proof of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period, the department may require the provider to request that the superintendent obtain information from the federal bureau of investigation and include it in the criminal records check of the person.
(E)(1) Criminal records checks required under this section for providers or applicants to be providers shall be obtained as follows:

(a) The department shall provide each provider or applicant information about accessing and completing the form prescribed pursuant to division (C)(1) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code and the standard fingerprint impression sheet prescribed pursuant to division (C)(2) of that section.

(b) The provider or applicant shall submit the required form and one complete set of fingerprint impressions directly to the superintendent for purposes of conducting the criminal records check using the applicable methods prescribed by division (C) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code. The applicant or provider shall pay all fees associated with obtaining the criminal records check.

(c) The superintendent shall conduct the criminal records check in accordance with section 109.572 of the Revised Code. The provider or applicant shall instruct the superintendent to submit the report of the criminal records check directly to the director of job and family services.

(2) Criminal records checks required under this section for persons specified by the department under division (C)(1) of this section shall be obtained as follows:

(a) The provider shall give to each person subject to criminal records check requirement information about accessing and completing the form prescribed pursuant to division (C)(1) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code and the standard fingerprint impression sheet prescribed pursuant to division (C)(2) of that section.

(b) The person shall submit the required form and one complete set of fingerprint impressions directly to the superintendent for purposes of conducting the criminal records check using the applicable methods prescribed by division (C) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code. The person shall pay all fees associated with obtaining the criminal records check.

(c) The superintendent shall conduct the criminal records check in accordance with section 109.572 of the Revised Code. The person subject to the criminal records check shall instruct the superintendent to submit the report of the criminal records check directly to the provider. The department may require the provider to submit the report to the department.

(F) If a provider or applicant to be a provider is given the information specified in division (E)(1)(a) of this section but fails to obtain a criminal records check, the department shall, as applicable, terminate the provider agreement or deny the application to be a provider.

If a person is given the information specified in division (E)(2)(a) of this section but fails to obtain a criminal records check, the provider shall not, as applicable, permit the person to be an employee, owner, officer, or board member of the provider.

(G) Except as provided in rules adopted under division (J) of this section, the department shall terminate the provider agreement of a provider or the department shall not issue a provider agreement to an applicant if the provider or applicant is subject to a criminal records check under this section and the provider or applicant has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for any of the following, regardless of the date of the conviction, the date of entry of the guilty plea, or the date the applicant or provider was found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction:

1. A violation of section 959.13, 2903.01, 2903.02, 2903.03, 2903.04, 2903.041, 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.15, 2903.16, 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, 2903.34, 2905.01, 2905.02, 2905.05, 2905.11, 2905.12, 2907.02, 2907.03, 2907.04, 2907.05, 2907.06, 2907.07, 2907.08, 2907.09, 2907.21, 2907.22, 2907.23, 2907.24, 2907.25, 2907.31, 2907.32, 2907.321, 2907.322, 2907.323, 2909.02, 2909.03, 2909.04, 2909.05, 2909.22, 2909.23, 2909.24, 2911.01, 2911.02, 2911.11, 2911.12, 2911.13, 2913.02, 2913.03, 2913.04, 2913.05, 2913.11, 2913.21, 2913.31, 2913.32, 2913.40, 2913.41, 2913.42, 2913.43, 2913.44, 2913.441, 2913.45, 2913.46, 2913.47, 2913.48, 2913.49, 2913.51, 2917.01, 2917.02, 2917.03, 2917.11, 2917.31, 2919.12, 2919.22, 2919.23, 2919.24, 2919.25, 2921.03, 2921.11, 2921.13, 2921.34, 2921.35, 2921.36, 2923.01, 2923.02, 2923.03, 2923.12, 2923.13, 2923.161, 2923.32, 2925.02, 2925.03, 2925.04, 2925.05, 2925.06, 2925.11, 2925.13, 2925.14, 2925.22, 2925.23, 2927.12, or 3716.11 of the Revised Code, felonious sexual penetration in violation of former section 2907.12 of the Revised Code, a violation of section 2905.04 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to July 1, 1996, a violation of section 2919.23 of the Revised Code that would have been a violation of section 2905.04 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to July 1, 1996, had the violation been committed prior to that date;

2. A violation of an existing or former municipal ordinance or law of this state, any other state, or the United States that is substantially equivalent to any of the offenses listed in division (G)(1) of this section.

(H)(1)(a) Except as provided in rules adopted under division (J) of this section and subject to division (H)(2) of this section, no provider shall permit a person to be an employee, owner, officer, or board member of the provider if the person is subject to a criminal records check under this section and the person has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for any of the offenses specified in division (G)(1) or (2) of this section.

(b) No provider shall employ a person who has been excluded from participating in the medicaid program, the medicare program operated pursuant to Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," or any other federal health care program.

(2)(a) A provider may employ conditionally a person for whom a criminal records check is required under this section prior to obtaining the results of a criminal records check regarding the person, but only if the person submits a request for a criminal records check not later than five business days after the individual begins conditional employment.

(b) A provider that employs a person conditionally under authority of division (H)(2)(a) of this section shall terminate the person's employment if the results of the criminal records check request are not obtained within the period ending sixty days after the date the request is made. Regardless of when the results of the criminal records check are obtained, if the results indicate that the individual has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for any of the offenses specified in division (G)(1) or (2) of this section, the provider shall terminate the person's employment unless the provider chooses to employ the individual pursuant to division (J) of this section.

(I) The report of a criminal records check conducted pursuant to this section is not a public record for the purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall not be made available to any person other than the following:

(1) The person who is the subject of the criminal records check or the person's representative;

(2) The director of job and family services and the staff of the department in the administration of the medicaid program;

(3) A court, hearing officer, or other necessary individual involved in a case dealing with the denial or termination of a provider agreement;

(4) A court, hearing officer, or other necessary individual involved in a case dealing with a person's denial of employment, termination of employment, or employment or unemployment benefits.

(J) The department may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement this section. The rules may specify circumstances under which the department may continue a provider agreement or issue a provider agreement to an applicant when the provider or applicant has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for any of the offenses.
specified in division (G)(1) or (2) of this section. The rules may also specify circumstances under which a provider may permit a person to be an employee, owner, officer, or board member of the provider, when the person has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for any of the offenses specified in division (G)(1) or (2) of this section.

Sec. 5111.033. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Applicant" means a person who is under final consideration for employment or, after September 26, 2003, an existing employee with a waiver agency in a full-time, part-time, or temporary position that involves providing home and community-based waiver services to a person with disabilities. "Applicant" also means an existing employee with a waiver agency in a full-time, part-time, or temporary position that involves providing home and community-based waiver services to a person with disabilities after September 26, 2003.

(2) "Criminal records check" has the same meaning as in section 109.572 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Waiver agency" means a person or government entity that is not certified under the medicare program and is accredited by the community health accreditation program or the joint commission on accreditation of health care organizations or a company that provides home and community-based waiver services to persons with disabilities through department of job and family services administered home and community-based waiver programs.

(4) "Home and community-based waiver services" means services furnished under the provision of 42 C.F.R. 441, subpart G, that permit individuals to live in a home setting rather than a nursing facility or hospital. Home and community-based waiver services are approved by the centers for medicare and medicaid for specific populations and are not otherwise available under the medicaid state plan.

(B)(1) The chief administrator of a waiver agency shall require each applicant to request that the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation conduct a criminal records check with respect to the applicant. If an applicant for whom a criminal records check request is required under this division does not present proof of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period immediately prior to the date the criminal records check is requested or provide evidence that within that five-year period the superintendent has requested information about the applicant from the federal bureau of investigation in a criminal records check, the chief administrator shall require the applicant to request that the superintendent obtain information from the federal bureau of investigation as part of the criminal records check of the applicant. Even if an applicant for whom a criminal records check request is required under this division presents proof of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period, the chief administrator may require the applicant to request that the superintendent include information from the federal bureau of investigation in the criminal records check.

(2) The chief administrator shall provide the following to each applicant for whom a criminal records check request is required under division (B)(1) of this section:

(a) Information about accessing, completing, and forwarding to the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation the form prescribed pursuant to division (C)(1) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code and the standard fingerprint impression sheet prescribed pursuant to division (C)(2) of that section;

(b) Written notification that the applicant is to instruct the superintendent to submit the completed report of the criminal records check directly to the chief administrator.

(3) An applicant given information and notification under divisions (B)(2)(a) and (b) of this section who fails to access, complete, and forward to the superintendent the form or the standard fingerprint impression sheet, or who fails to instruct the superintendent to submit the completed report of the criminal records check directly to the chief administrator, shall not be employed in any position in a waiver agency for which a criminal records check is required by this section.

(C)(1) Except as provided in rules adopted by the department of job and family services in accordance with division (F) of this section and subject to division (C)(2) of this section, no waiver agency shall employ a person in a position that involves providing home and community-based waiver services to persons with disabilities if the person has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for any of the following, regardless of the date of the conviction, the date of entry of the guilty plea, or the date the person was found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction:

(a) A violation of section 959.13, 2903.01, 2903.02, 2903.03, 2903.04, 2903.041, 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.15, 2903.16, 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, 2903.34, 2905.01, 2905.02, 2905.05, 2905.11, 2905.12, 2907.02, 2907.03, 2907.04, 2907.05, 2907.06, 2907.07, 2907.08, 2907.09, 2907.21, 2907.22, 2907.23, 2907.24, 2907.25, 2907.31, 2907.32, 2907.321, 2907.322, 2907.323, 2909.02, 2909.03, 2909.04, 2909.05, 2909.22, 2909.23, 2909.24,
An A violation of an existing or former municipal ordinance or law of this state, any other state, or the United States that is substantially equivalent to any of the offenses listed in division (C)(1)(a) of this section.

(2)(a) A waiver agency may employ conditionally an applicant for whom a criminal records check request is required under division (B) of this section prior to obtaining the results of a criminal records check regarding the individual, provided that the agency shall require the individual to request a criminal records check regarding the individual in accordance with division (B)(1) of this section not later than five business days after the individual begins conditional employment.

(b) A waiver agency that employs an individual conditionally under authority of division (C)(2)(a) of this section shall terminate the individual's employment if the results of the criminal records check request under division (B) of this section, other than the results of any request for information from the federal bureau of investigation, are not obtained within the period ending sixty days after the date the request is made. Regardless of when the results of the criminal records check are obtained, if the results indicate that the individual has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for any of the offenses listed or described in division (C)(1) of this section, the agency shall terminate the individual's employment unless the agency chooses to employ the individual pursuant to division (F) of this section.

(D)(1) The fee prescribed pursuant to division (C)(3) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code for each criminal records check conducted pursuant to a request made under division (B) of this section shall be paid to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation by the applicant or the waiver agency.

(2) If a waiver agency pays the fee, it may charge the applicant a fee not exceeding the amount the agency pays under division (D)(1) of this section. An agency may collect a fee only if the agency notifies the person at the time of initial application for employment of the amount of the fee and that, unless the fee is paid, the person will not be considered for employment.

(E) The report of any criminal records check conducted pursuant to a request made under this section is not a public record for the purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall not be made available to any person other than the following:

(1) The individual who is the subject of the criminal records check or the individual's representative;

(2) The chief administrator of the agency requesting the criminal records check or the administrator's representative;

(3) An administrator at the department;

(4) A court, hearing officer, or other necessary individual involved in a case dealing with a denial of employment of the applicant or dealing with employment or unemployment benefits of the applicant.

(F) The department shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement this section. The rules shall specify circumstances under which a waiver agency may employ a person who has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense listed or described in division (C)(1) of this section.

(G) The chief administrator of a waiver agency shall inform each person, at the time of initial application for a position that involves providing home and community-based waiver services to a person with a disability, that the person is required to provide a set of fingerprint impressions and that a criminal records check is required to be conducted if the person comes under final consideration for employment.

(H)(1) A person who, on September 26, 2003, is an employee of a waiver agency in a full-time, part-time, or temporary position that involves providing home and community-based waiver services to a person with disabilities shall comply with this section within sixty days after September 26, 2003, unless division (H)(2) of this section applies.

(2) This section shall not apply to a person to whom all of the following apply:

(a) On September 26, 2003, the person is an employee of a waiver agency in a full-time, part-time, or temporary position that involves providing home and community-based waiver services to a person with disabilities.
   (b) The person previously had been the subject of a criminal background check relating to that position;
   (c) The person has been continuously employed in that position since that criminal background check had been conducted.

Sec. 5111.034. (A) As used in this section:
   (1) "Anniversary date" means the later of the effective date of the provider agreement relating to the independent provider or sixty days after September 26, 2003.
   (2) "Criminal records check" has the same meaning as in section 109.572 of the Revised Code.
   (3) "Department" includes a designee of the department of job and family services.
   (4) "Independent provider" means a person who is submitting an application for a provider agreement or who has a provider agreement as an independent provider in a department of job and family services administered home and community-based services program providing home and community-based waiver services to consumers with disabilities.
   (5) "Home and community-based waiver services" has the same meaning as in section 5111.033 of the Revised Code.

(B)(1) The department of job and family services shall inform each independent provider, at the time of initial application for a provider agreement that involves providing home and community-based waiver services to consumers with disabilities, that the independent provider is required to provide a set of fingerprint impressions and that a criminal records check is required to be conducted if the person is to become an independent provider in a department administered home and community-based waiver program.

(2) Beginning on September 26, 2003, the department shall inform each enrolled medicaid independent provider on or before time of the anniversary date of the provider agreement that involves providing home and community-based waiver services to consumers with disabilities that the independent provider is required to provide a set of fingerprint impressions and that a criminal records check is required to be conducted if the person is to become an independent provider in a department administered home and community-based waiver program.

(C)(1) The department shall require the independent provider to complete a criminal records check prior to entering into a provider agreement with the independent provider and at least annually thereafter. If an independent provider for whom a criminal records check is required under this division does not present proof of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period immediately prior to the date the criminal records check is requested or provide evidence that within that five-year period the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation has requested information about the independent provider from the federal bureau of investigation in a criminal records check, the department shall request that the independent provider obtain through the superintendent a criminal records request from the federal bureau of investigation as part of the criminal records check of the independent provider. Even if an independent provider for whom a criminal records check request is required under this division presents proof of having been a resident of this state for the five-year period, the department may request that the independent provider obtain information through the superintendent from the federal bureau of investigation in the criminal records check.

(2) The department shall provide the following to each independent provider for whom a criminal records check request is required under division (C)(1) of this section:

(a) Information about accessing, completing, and forwarding to the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation the form prescribed pursuant to division (C)(1) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code and the standard fingerprint impression sheet prescribed pursuant to division (C)(2) of that section;

(b) Written notification that the independent provider is to instruct the superintendent to submit the completed report of the criminal records check directly to the department.

(3) An independent provider given information and notification under divisions (C)(2)(a) and (b) of this section who fails to access, complete, and forward to the superintendent the form or the standard fingerprint impression sheet, or who fails to instruct the superintendent to submit the completed report of the criminal records check directly to the department, shall not be approved as an independent provider.

(D) Except as provided in rules adopted by the department in accordance with division (G) of this section, the department shall not issue a new provider agreement to, and shall terminate an existing provider agreement of, an independent provider if the person has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for any of the following, regardless of the date of the conviction, the date of entry of the guilty plea, or the date the person was found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction:

(1) A violation of section 959.13, 2903.01, 2903.02, 2903.03, 2903.04, 2903.041, 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.15, 2903.16, 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, 2903.34, 2905.01, 2905.02, 2905.05, 2905.11, 2905.12, 2907.02,
An A violation of an existing or former municipal ordinance or law of this state, any other state, or the United States that is substantially equivalent to any of the offenses listed in division (D)(1) of this section.

(E) Each independent provider shall pay to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation the fee prescribed pursuant to division (C)(3) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code for each criminal records check conducted pursuant to a request made under division (C) of this section.

(F) The report of any criminal records check conducted by the bureau of criminal identification and investigation in accordance with section 109.572 of the Revised Code and pursuant to a request made under division (C) of this section is not a public record for the purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall not be made available to any person other than the following:

1. The person who is the subject of the criminal records check or the person's representative;

2. An administrator at the department or the administrator's representative;

3. A court, hearing officer, or other necessary individual involved in a case dealing with a denial or termination of a provider agreement related to the criminal records check.

(G) The department shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement this section. The rules shall specify circumstances under which the department may either issue a provider agreement to an independent provider or allow an independent provider to maintain an existing provider agreement when the independent provider has been convicted of, has pleaded guilty to, or has been found eligible for intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense listed or described in division (C)(1)(D)(1) or (2) of this section.

Sec. 5111.06. (A)(1) As used in this section and in sections 5111.061 and 5111.062 of the Revised Code:

(a) "Provider" means any person, institution, or entity that furnishes medicaid services under a provider agreement with the department of job and family services pursuant to Title XIX of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended.

(b) "Party" has the same meaning as in division (G) of section 119.01 of the Revised Code.

(c) "Adjudication" has the same meaning as in division (D) of section 119.01 of the Revised Code.

(2) This section does not apply to any action taken by the department of job and family services under sections 5111.35 to 5111.62 of the Revised Code.

(B) Except as provided in division (D) of this section and section 5111.914 of the Revised Code, the department shall do either of the following by issuing an order pursuant to an adjudication conducted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code:

(1) Enter into or refuse to enter into a provider agreement with a provider, or suspend, terminate, renew, or refuse to renew an existing provider agreement with a provider;

(2) Take any action based upon a final fiscal audit of a provider.

(C) Any party who is adversely affected by the issuance of an adjudication order under division (B) of this section may appeal to the court of common pleas of Franklin county in accordance with section 119.12 of the Revised Code.

(D) The department is not required to comply with division (B)(1) of this section whenever any of the following occur:

(1) The terms of a provider agreement require the provider to hold a license, permit, or certificate or maintain a certification issued by an official, board, commission, department, division, bureau, or other agency of state or federal government other than the department of job and family services, and the license, permit, certificate, or certification has been denied, revoked, not renewed, suspended, or otherwise limited.

(2) The terms of a provider agreement require the provider to hold a license, permit, or certificate or maintain certification issued by an official, board, commission, department, division, bureau, or other agency of state or federal government other than the department of job and family services, and the provider has not obtained the license, permit, certificate, or certification.

(3) The provider agreement is denied, terminated, or not renewed due to the termination, refusal to renew, or denial of a license, permit, certificate, or certification by an official, board, commission, department, division, bureau, or other agency of this state other than the department of job and family services, notwithstanding the fact that the provider may hold a license, permit, certificate, or certification from an official, board, commission, department, division, bureau, or other agency of another state.

(4) The provider agreement is denied, terminated, or not renewed pursuant to division (C) or (F) of section 5111.03 of the Revised Code.

(5) The provider agreement is denied, terminated, or not renewed due to the provider's termination, suspension, or exclusion from the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," and the termination, suspension, or exclusion is binding on the provider's participation in the medicaid program.

(6) The provider agreement is denied, terminated, or not renewed due to the provider's pleading guilty to or being convicted of a criminal activity materially related to either the medicare or medicaid program.

(7) The provider agreement is denied, terminated, or suspended as a result of action by the United States department of health and human services and that action is binding on the provider's participation in the medicaid program.

(8) The provider agreement is suspended pursuant to section 5111.031 of the Revised Code pending indictment of the provider.

(9) The provider agreement is denied, terminated, or not renewed because the provider or its owner, officer, authorized agent, associate, manager, or employee has been convicted of one of the offenses that caused the provider agreement to be suspended pursuant to section 5111.031 of the Revised Code.

(10) The provider agreement is converted under section 5111.028 of the Revised Code from a provider agreement that is not time-limited to a provider agreement that is time-limited.

(11) The provider agreement is terminated or an application for re-enrollment is denied because the provider has failed to apply for re-enrollment within the time or in the manner specified for re-enrollment pursuant to section 5111.028 of the Revised Code.

(12) The provider agreement is terminated or not renewed because the provider has not billed or otherwise submitted a medicaid claim to the department for two years or longer, and the department has determined that the provider has moved from the address on record with the department without leaving an active forwarding address with the department.

(13) The provider agreement is denied, terminated, or not renewed because the provider fails to provide to the department the national provider identifier assigned the provider by the national provider system pursuant to 45 C.F.R. 162.408.

In the case of a provider described in division (D)(12) or (13) of this section, the department may terminate or not renew the provider agreement by sending a notice explaining the department's proposed action to the provider. The notice shall be sent to the provider's address on record with the department. The notice may be sent by regular mail. In the case of a provider described in division (D)(13) of this section, the notice shall be sent by certified mail.

(E) The department may withhold payments for services rendered by a medicaid provider under the medical assistance medicaid program during the pendency of proceedings initiated under division (B)(1) of this section.
If the proceedings are initiated under division (B)(2) of this section, the department may withhold payments only to the extent that they equal amounts determined in a final fiscal audit as being due the state. This division does not apply if the department fails to comply with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, requests a continuance of the hearing, or does not issue decision within thirty days after the hearing is completed. This division does not apply to nursing facilities and intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded as defined in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.084. (A) There is hereby established the pharmacy and therapeutics committee of the department of job and family services. The committee shall assist the department with developing and maintaining a preferred drug list.

The committee shall review and recommend to the director of job and family services the drugs that should be included on the preferred drug list.
The recommendations shall be made based on the evaluation of competent evidence regarding the relative safety, efficacy, and effectiveness of prescription drugs within a class or classes of prescription drugs.

(B) The committee shall consist of ten members and shall be appointed by the director of job and family services. The director shall seek recommendations for membership from relevant professional organizations.
A candidate for membership recommended by a professional organization shall have professional experience working with medicaid recipients. The director shall not appoint a member who is employed by the department.

The membership of the committee shall include:

(A)(1) Three pharmacists licensed under Chapter 4729. of the Revised Code;

(B)(2) Two doctors of medicine and two doctors of osteopathy who hold certificates to practice issued under Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, one of whom is a family practice physician:

(C)(3) A registered nurse licensed under Chapter 4723. of the Revised Code;

(D)(4) A pharmacologist who has a doctoral degree;

(E)(5) A psychiatrist who holds a certificate to practice issued under Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code and specializes in psychiatry.

(C) The committee shall elect one of from among its members as a chairperson. Five committee members constitute a quorum.

The committee shall establish guidelines necessary for the committee's operation.

The committee may establish one or more subcommittees to investigate and analyze issues consistent with the duties of the committee under this section. The subcommittees may submit proposals regarding the issues to the committee and the committee may adopt, reject, or modify the proposals.

A vote by a majority of a quorum is necessary to make recommendations to the director. In the case of a tie, the chairperson shall decide the outcome.

(D) The director shall act on the committee's recommendations not later than thirty days after the recommendation is posted on the department's web site under division (F) of this section. If the director does not accept a recommendation of the committee, the director shall present the basis for this determination not later than fourteen days after making the determination or at the next scheduled meeting of the committee, whichever is sooner.

(E) An interested party may request, and shall be permitted, to make a presentation or submit written materials to the committee during a committee meeting. The presentation or other materials shall be relevant to an issue under consideration by the committee and any written material, including a transcript of testimony to be given on the day of the meeting, may be submitted to the committee in advance of the meeting.

(F) The department shall post the following on the department's web site:
Sec. 5111.092. (A) Not later than January 1, 2010, and each year thereafter, the department of job and family services shall prepare a report on the department's efforts to minimize fraud, waste, and abuse in the medicaid program.

(B) Each report shall include at least both of the following with regard to minimizing fraud, waste, and abuse in the medicaid program:

(1) Goals and objectives;

(2) Performance measures for monitoring all state and local activities.

(C) Each report shall be made available on the department's web site. The department shall submit a copy of each report to the governor and, in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, the general assembly. Copies of the report also shall be made available to the public on request.

Sec. 5111.16. (A) As part of the medicaid program, the department of job and family services shall establish a care management system. The department shall submit, if necessary, applications to the United States department of health and human services for waivers of federal medicaid requirements that would otherwise be violated in the implementation of the system.

(B) The department shall implement the care management system in some or all counties and shall designate the medicaid recipients who are required or permitted to participate in the system. In the department's implementation of the system and designation of participants, all of the following apply:

(1) In the case of individuals who receive medicaid on the basis of being included in the category identified by the department as covered families and children, the department shall implement the care management system in all counties. All individuals included in the category shall be designated for participation, except for individuals included in one or more of the medicaid recipient groups specified in 42 C.F.R. 438.50(d). The department shall designate the participants not later than January 1, 2006. Beginning not later than December 31, 2006, that all participants are enrolled in health insuring corporations under contract with the department pursuant to section 5111.17 of the Revised Code.

(2) In the case of individuals who receive medicaid on the basis of being aged, blind, or disabled, as specified in division (A)(2) of section 5111.01 of the Revised Code, the department shall implement the care management system in all counties. All individuals included in the category shall be designated for participation, except for the individuals specified in divisions (B)(2)(a) to (e) of this section. Beginning not later than December 31, 2006, the department shall ensure that all participants are enrolled in health insuring corporations under contract with the department pursuant to section 5111.17 of the Revised Code.

In designating participants who receive medicaid on the basis of being aged, blind, or disabled, the department shall not include any of the following:

(a) Individuals who are under twenty-one years of age;
(b) Individuals who are institutionalized;
(c) Individuals who become eligible for medicaid by spending down their income or resources to a level that meets the medicaid program's financial eligibility requirements;
(d) Individuals who are dually eligible under the medicaid program and the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 79 Stat. 286 (1965), 42 U.S.C. 1395, as amended;
(e) Individuals to the extent that they are receiving medicaid services through a medicaid waiver component, as defined in section 5111.85 of the Revised Code.

(3) Alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services covered by medicaid shall not be included in any component of the care management system when the nonfederal share of the cost of those services is provided by a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services or a state agency other than the department of job and family services, but the recipients of those services may otherwise be designated for participation in the system.

(C) Subject to division (B) of this section, the department may do both of the following under the care management system:

(1) Require or permit participants in the system to obtain health care services from providers designated by the department;
(2) Require or permit participants in the system to obtain health care services through managed care organizations under contract with the department pursuant to section 5111.17 of the Revised Code.
The department shall prepare an annual report on the care management system. The report shall address the department's ability to implement the system, including all of the following components:

(a) The required designation of participants included in the category identified by the department as covered families and children;

(b) The required designation of participants included in the aged, blind, or disabled category of medicaid recipients;

(c) The conduct of the pilot program for chronically ill children established under section 5111.163 of the Revised Code;

(d) The use of any programs for enhanced care management.

(2) The department shall submit each annual report to the general assembly. The first report shall be submitted not later than October 1, 2007.

(E) The director of job and family services may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement this section.

Sec. 5111.176. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Medicaid health insuring corporation" means a health insuring corporation that holds a certificate of authority under Chapter 1751. of the Revised Code and has entered into a contract with the department of job and family services pursuant to section 5111.17 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Managed care premium" means any premium payment, capitation payment, or other payment a medicaid health insuring corporation receives for providing, or arranging for the provision of, health care services to its members or enrollees residing in this state.

(B) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, all of the following apply:

(1) Each medicaid health insuring corporation shall pay to the department of job and family services a franchise permit fee for the period December 1, 2005, through December 31, 2005, and each calendar quarter occurring thereafter between January 1, 2006, and September 30, 2009.

(2) The fee to be paid is an amount that is equal to a percentage of the managed care premiums the medicaid health insuring corporation received in the period December 1, 2005, through December 31, 2005, and in the subsequent quarter to which the fee applies, excluding the amount of any managed care premiums the corporation returned or refunded to enrollees, members, or premium payers during the period December 1, 2005, through December 31, 2005, or the subsequent quarter to which the fee applies.

(3) The percentage to be used in calculating the fee shall be four and one-half per cent, unless the department adopts rules under division (L) of this section decreasing the percentage below four and one-half per cent or increasing the percentage to not more than six per cent.

(C) The department shall reduce the franchise permit fee imposed under this section or terminate its collection of the fee if the department determines either of the following:

1. That the reduction or termination is required to comply with federal statutes or regulations;

2. That the fee does not qualify as a state share of medicaid expenditures eligible for federal financial participation.

(D) The franchise permit fee shall be paid on or before the thirtieth day following the end of the period December 1, 2005, through December 31, 2005, or the calendar quarter to which the fee applies. At the time the fee is submitted, the medicaid health insuring corporation shall file with the department a report on a form prescribed by the department. The corporation shall provide on the form all information required by the department and shall include with the form any necessary supporting documentation.

(E) The department may audit the records of any medicaid health insuring corporation to determine whether the corporation is in compliance with this section. The department may audit the records that pertain to the period December 1, 2005, through December 31, 2005, or a particular calendar quarter, at any time during the five years following the date the franchise permit fee payment for that period or quarter was due.

(F)(1) A medicaid health insuring corporation that does not pay the franchise permit fee in full by the date the payment is due is subject to any or all of the following:

(a) A monetary penalty in the amount of five hundred dollars for each day any part of the fee remains unpaid, except that the penalty shall not exceed an amount equal to five per cent of the total fee that was due;

(b) Withholdings from future managed care premiums pursuant to division (G) of this section;

(c) Termination of the corporation's medicaid provider agreement pursuant to division (H) of this section.

2. Penalties imposed under division (F)(1)(a) of this section are in addition to and not in lieu of the franchise permit fee.

(G) If a medicaid health insuring corporation fails to pay the full amount of its franchise permit fee when due, or the full amount of a penalty imposed under division (F)(1)(a) of this section, the department may withhold an amount equal to the remaining amount due from any future managed care premiums to be paid to the corporation under the medicaid program. The department may withhold amounts under this division without providing notice to the corporation. The amounts may be withheld until the amount due has been paid.

(H) The department may commence actions to terminate a medicaid health insuring corporation's medicaid provider agreement, and may terminate the agreement subject to division (I) of this section, if the corporation does any of the following:

1) Fails to pay its franchise permit fee or fails to pay the fee promptly;
2) Fails to pay a penalty imposed under division (F)(1)(a) of this section or fails to pay the penalty promptly;
3) Fails to cooperate with an audit conducted under division (E) of this section.

(I) At the request of a medicaid health insuring corporation, the department shall grant the corporation a hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, if either of the following is the case:

1) The department has determined that the corporation owes an additional franchise permit fee or penalty as the result of an audit conducted under division (E) of this section.
2) The department is proposing to terminate the corporation's medicaid provider agreement and the provisions of section 5111.06 of the Revised Code requiring an adjudication in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code are applicable.

(J)(1) At the request of a medicaid corporation, the department shall grant the corporation a reconsideration of any issue that arises out of the provisions of this section and is not subject to division (I) of this section. The department's decision at the conclusion of the reconsideration is not subject to appeal under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code or any other provision of the Revised Code.

2) In conducting a reconsideration, the department shall do at least the following:

(a) Specify the time frames within which a corporation must act in order to exercise its opportunity for a reconsideration;
(b) Permit the corporation to present written arguments or other materials that support the corporation's position.

(K) There is hereby created in the state treasury the managed care assessment fund. Money collected from the franchise permit fees and penalties imposed under this section shall be credited to the fund. The department shall use the money in the fund to pay for medicaid services, the department's administrative costs, and contracts with medicaid health insuring corporations.

(L) The director of job and family services may adopt rules to implement and administer this section. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.20. As used in sections 5111.20 to 5111.34 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Allowable costs" are those costs determined by the department of job and family services to be reasonable and do not include fines paid under sections 5111.35 to 5111.61 and section 5111.99 of the Revised Code.

(B) "Ancillary and support costs" means all reasonable costs incurred by a nursing facility other than direct care costs or capital costs. "Ancillary and support costs" includes, but is not limited to, costs of activities, social services, pharmacy consultants, habilitation supervisors, qualified mental retardation professionals, program directors, medical and habilitation records, program supplies, incontinence supplies, food, enterals, dietary supplies and personnel, laundry, housekeeping, security, administration, medical equipment, utilities, liability insurance, bookkeeping, purchasing department, human resources, communications, travel, dues, license fees, subscriptions, home office costs not otherwise allocated, legal services, accounting services, minor equipment, wheelchairs, resident transportation, maintenance and repairs, help-wanted advertising, informational advertising, start-up costs, organizational expenses, other interest, property insurance, employee training and staff development, employee benefits, payroll taxes, and workers' compensation premiums or costs for self-insurance claims and related costs as specified in rules adopted by the director of job and family services under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code, for personnel listed in this division. "Ancillary and support costs" also means the cost of equipment, including vehicles, acquired by operating lease executed before December 1, 1992, if the costs are reported as administrative and general costs on the facility's cost report for the cost reporting period ending December 31, 1992.

(C) "Capital costs" means costs of ownership and, in the case of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, costs of nonextensive renovation.

(1) "Cost of ownership" means the actual expense incurred for all of the following:

(a) Depreciation and interest on any capital assets that cost five hundred dollars or more per item, including the following:

(i) Buildings;

(ii) Building improvements that are not approved as nonextensive renovations under section 5111.251 of the Revised Code;

(iii) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, equipment;
In the case of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, extensive renovations;

Transportation equipment.

(b) Amortization and interest on land improvements and leasehold improvements;

c) Amortization of financing costs;

d) Except as provided in division (K) of this section, lease and rent of land, building, and equipment.

The costs of capital assets of less than five hundred dollars per item may be considered capital costs in accordance with a provider's practice.

(2) "Costs of nonextensive renovation" means the actual expense incurred by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded for depreciation or amortization and interest on renovations that are not extensive renovations.

(D) "Capital lease" and "operating lease" shall be construed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(E) "Case-mix score" means the measure determined under section 5111.232 of the Revised Code of the relative direct-care resources needed to provide care and habilitation to a resident of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(F)(1) "Date of licensure," for a facility originally licensed as a nursing home under Chapter 3721. of the Revised Code, means the date specific beds were originally licensed as nursing home beds under that chapter, regardless of whether they were subsequently licensed as residential facility beds under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code. For a facility originally licensed as a residential facility under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code, "date of licensure" means the date specific beds were originally licensed as residential facility beds under that section.

If nursing home beds licensed under Chapter 3721. of the Revised Code or residential facility beds licensed under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code were not required by law to be licensed when they were originally used to provide nursing home or residential facility services, "date of licensure" means the date the beds first were used to provide nursing home or residential facility services, regardless of the date the present provider obtained licensure.

If a facility adds nursing home beds or residential facility beds or extensively renovates all or part of the facility after its original date of licensure, it will have a different date of licensure for the additional beds or extensively renovated portion of the facility, unless the beds are added in a space that was constructed at the same time as the previously licensed beds but was not licensed under Chapter 3721. or section 5123.19 of the Revised Code at that time.

(2) The definition of "date of licensure" in this section applies in determinations of the medicaid reimbursement rate for a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded but does not apply in determinations of the franchise permit fee for a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(G) "Desk-reviewed" means that costs as reported on a cost report submitted under section 5111.26 of the Revised Code have been subjected to a desk review under division (A) of section 5111.27 of the Revised Code and preliminarily determined to be allowable costs.

(H) "Direct care costs" means all of the following:

(1)(a) Costs for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, and nurse aides employed by the facility;
(b) Costs for direct care staff, administrative nursing staff, medical directors, respiratory therapists, and except as provided in division (H)(2) of this section, other persons holding degrees qualifying them to provide therapy;
(c) Costs of purchased nursing services;
(d) Costs of quality assurance;
(e) Costs of training and staff development, employee benefits, payroll taxes, and workers' compensation premiums or costs for self-insurance claims and related costs as specified in rules adopted by the director of job and family services in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, for personnel listed in divisions (H)(1)(a), (b), and (d) of this section;
(f) Costs of consulting and management fees related to direct care;
(g) Allocated direct care home office costs.

(2) In addition to the costs specified in division (H)(1) of this section, for nursing facilities only, direct care costs include costs of habilitation staff (other than habilitation supervisors), medical supplies, emergency oxygen, over-the-counter pharmacy products, physical therapists, physical therapy assistants, occupational therapists, occupational therapy assistants, speech therapists, audiologists, habilitation supplies, and universal precautions supplies.

(3) In addition to the costs specified in division (H)(1) of this section, for intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded only, direct care costs include both of the following:

(a) Costs for physical therapists and physical therapy assistants, occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants, speech therapists, audiologists, habilitation staff (including habilitation... supervisors), qualified mental retardation professionals, program directors, social services staff, activities staff, off-site day programming, psychologists and psychology assistants, and social workers and counselors;

(b) Costs of training and staff development, employee benefits, payroll taxes, and workers' compensation premiums or costs for self-insurance claims and related costs as specified in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code, for personnel listed in division (H)(3)(a) of this section.

(4) Costs of other direct-care resources that are specified as direct care costs in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code.

(I) "Fiscal year" means the fiscal year of this state, as specified in section 9.34 of the Revised Code.

(J) "Franchise permit fee" means the following:

(1) In the context of nursing facilities, the fee imposed by sections 3721.50 to 3721.58 of the Revised Code;

(2) In the context of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, the fee imposed by sections 5112.30 to 5112.39 of the Revised Code.

(K) "Indirect care costs" means all reasonable costs incurred by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded other than direct care costs, other protected costs, or capital costs. "Indirect care costs" includes but is not limited to costs of habilitation supplies, pharmacy consultants, medical and habilitation records, program supplies, incontinence supplies, food, enterals, dietary supplies and personnel, laundry, housekeeping, security, administration, liability insurance, bookkeeping, purchasing department, human resources, communications, travel, dues, license fees, subscriptions, home office costs not otherwise allocated, legal services, accounting services, minor equipment, maintenance and repairs, help-wanted advertising, informational advertising, start-up costs, organizational expenses, other interest, property insurance, employee training and staff development, employee benefits, payroll taxes, and workers' compensation premiums or costs for self-insurance claims and related costs as specified in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code, for personnel listed in this division. Notwithstanding division (C)(1) of this section, "indirect care costs" also means the cost of equipment, including vehicles, acquired by operating lease executed before December 1, 1992, if the costs are reported as administrative and general costs on the facility's cost report for the cost reporting period ending December 31, 1992.

(L) "Inpatient days" means all days during which a resident, regardless of payment source, occupies a bed in a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded that is included in the facility's certified capacity under Title XIX. Therapeutic or hospital leave days for which payment is made under section 5111.33 of the Revised Code are considered inpatient days proportionate to the percentage of the facility's per resident per day rate paid for those days.

(M) "Intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" means an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded certified as in compliance with applicable standards for the medicaid program by the director of health in accordance with Title XIX.

(N) "Maintenance and repair expenses" means, except as provided in division (BB)(2) of this section, expenditures that are necessary and proper to maintain an asset in a normally efficient working condition and that do not extend the useful life of the asset two years or more. "Maintenance and repair expenses" includes but is not limited to the cost of ordinary repairs such as painting and wallpapering.

(O) "Medicaid days" means all days during which a resident who is a Medicaid recipient eligible for nursing facility services occupies a bed in a nursing facility that is included in the nursing facility's certified capacity under Title XIX. Therapeutic or hospital leave days for which payment is made under section 5111.33 of the Revised Code are considered Medicaid days proportionate to the percentage of the nursing facility's per resident per day rate paid for those days.

(P) "Nursing facility" means a facility, or a distinct part of a facility, that is certified as a nursing facility by the director of health in accordance with Title XIX and is not an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. "Nursing facility" includes a facility, or a distinct part of a facility, that is certified as a nursing facility by the director of health in accordance with Title XIX and is certified as a skilled nursing facility by the director in accordance with Title XVIII.

(Q) "Operator" means the person or government entity responsible for the daily operating and management decisions for a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(R) "Other protected costs" means costs incurred by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded for medical supplies; real estate, franchise, and property taxes; natural gas, fuel oil, water, electricity, sewage, and refuse and hazardous medical waste collection; allocated other protected home office costs; and any additional costs defined as other protected costs in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code.

(S)(1) "Owner" means any person or government entity that has at least five per cent ownership or interest, either directly, indirectly, or in any combination, in any of the following regarding a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded:
(a) The land on which the facility is located;
(b) The structure in which the facility is located;
(c) Any mortgage, contract for deed, or other obligation secured in whole or in part by the land or structure on or in which the facility is located;
(d) Any lease or sublease of the land or structure on or in which the facility is located.
(2) "Owner" does not mean a holder of a debenture or bond related to the nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded and purchased at public issue or a regulated lender that has made a loan related to the facility unless the holder or lender operates the facility directly or through a subsidiary.
(U) Except as provided in divisions (U)(1) and (2) of this section, "per diem" means a nursing facility's or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded's actual, allowable costs in a given cost center in a cost reporting period, divided by the facility's inpatient days for that cost reporting period.
(1) When calculating indirect care costs for the purpose of establishing rates under section 5111.241 of the Revised Code, "per diem" means an intermediate care facility's actual, allowable indirect care costs in a cost reporting period divided by the greater of the facility's inpatient days for that period or the number of inpatient days the facility would have had during that period if its occupancy rate had been eighty-five per cent.
(2) When calculating capital costs for the purpose of establishing rates under section 5111.251 of the Revised Code, "per diem" means a facility's actual, allowable capital costs in a cost reporting period divided by the greater of the facility's inpatient days for that period or the number of inpatient days the facility would have had during that period if its occupancy rate had been ninety-five per cent.
(V) "Provider" means an operator with a provider agreement.
(W) "Provider agreement" means a contract between the department of job and family services and the operator of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded for the provision of nursing facility services or intermediate care facility services for the mentally retarded under the medicaid program.
(X) "Purchased nursing services" means services that are provided in a nursing facility by registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, or nurse aides who are not employees of the facility.

(Y) "Reasonable" means that a cost is an actual cost that is appropriate and helpful to develop and maintain the operation of patient care facilities and activities, including normal standby costs, and that does not exceed what a prudent buyer pays for a given item or services. Reasonable costs may vary from provider to provider and from time to time for the same provider.

(Z) "Related party" means an individual or organization that, to a significant extent, has common ownership with, is associated or affiliated with, has control of, or is controlled by, the provider.

1. An individual who is a relative of an owner is a related party.

2. Common ownership exists when an individual or individuals possess significant ownership or equity in both the provider and the other organization. Significant ownership or equity exists when an individual or individuals possess five per cent ownership or equity in both the provider and a supplier. Significant ownership or equity is presumed to exist when an individual or individuals possess ten per cent ownership or equity in both the provider and another organization from which the provider purchases or leases real property.

3. Control exists when an individual or organization has the power, directly or indirectly, to significantly influence or direct the actions or policies of an organization.

4. An individual or organization that supplies goods or services to a provider shall not be considered a related party if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The supplier is a separate bona fide organization.

(b) A substantial part of the supplier's business activity of the type carried on with the provider is transacted with others than the provider and there is an open, competitive market for the types of goods or services the supplier furnishes.

(c) The types of goods or services are commonly obtained by other nursing facilities or intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded from outside organizations and are not a basic element of patient care ordinarily furnished directly to patients by the facilities.

(d) The charge to the provider is in line with the charge for the goods or services in the open market and no more than the charge made under comparable circumstances to others by the supplier.

(AA) "Relative of owner" means an individual who is related to an owner of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded by one of the following relationships:
(1) Spouse;
(2) Natural parent, child, or sibling;
(3) Adopted parent, child, or sibling;
(4) Stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, or stepsister;
(5) Father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law;
(6) Grandparent or grandchild;
(7) Foster caregiver, foster child, foster brother, or foster sister.

(BB) "Renovation" and "extensive renovation" mean:

(1) Any betterment, improvement, or restoration of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded started before July 1, 1993, that meets the definition of a renovation or extensive renovation established in rules adopted by the director of job and family services in effect on December 22,

(2) In the case of betterments, improvements, and restorations of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded started on or after July 1, 1993:

(a) "Renovation" means the betterment, improvement, or restoration of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded beyond its current functional capacity through a structural change that costs at least five hundred dollars per bed. A renovation may include betterment, improvement, restoration, or replacement of assets that are affixed to the building and have a useful life of at least five years. A renovation may include costs that otherwise would be considered maintenance and repair expenses if they are an integral part of the structural change that makes up the renovation project. "Renovation" does not mean construction of additional space for beds that will be added to a facility's licensed or certified capacity.

(b) "Extensive renovation" means a renovation that costs more than sixty-five per cent and no more than eighty-five per cent of the cost of constructing a new bed and that extends the useful life of the assets for at least ten years.

For the purposes of division (BB)(2) of this section, the cost of constructing a new bed shall be considered to be forty thousand dollars, adjusted for the estimated rate of inflation from January 1, 1993, to the end of the calendar year during which the renovation is completed, using the consumer price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the north central region, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics.

The department of job and family services may treat a renovation that costs more than eighty-five per cent of the cost of constructing new beds as an extensive renovation if the department determines that the renovation is more prudent than construction of new beds.

Sec. 5111.21. (A) In order to be eligible for medicaid payments, the operator of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded shall do all of the following:

1. Enter into a provider agreement with the department as provided in section 5111.22, 5111.671, or 5111.672 of the Revised Code;
2. Apply for and maintain a valid license to operate if so required by law;
3. Comply with all applicable state and federal laws and rules.

(B) A state rule that requires the operator of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded to have received approval of a plan for the proposed facility pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code as a condition of the operator being eligible for medicaid payments for the facility does not apply if, under section 5123.193 or 5123.197 of the Revised Code, a residential facility license was obtained or modified for the facility without obtaining approval of such a plan.

(C)(1) Except as provided in division (B)(2) of this section, the operator of a nursing facility that elects to obtain and maintain eligibility for payments under the medicaid program shall qualify all of the facility's medicaid-certified beds in the medicare program established by Title XVIII. The director of job and family services may adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code to establish the time frame in which a nursing facility must comply with this requirement.

(2) The Ohio veteran's home agency is not required to qualify all of the medicaid-certified beds in a nursing facility the agency maintains and operates under section 5907.01 of the Revised Code in the medicare program.

Sec. 5111.211. (A) The department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities is responsible for the nonfederal share of claims submitted for services that are covered by the medicaid program and provided to an eligible medicaid recipient by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded if all of the following are the case:
(1) The services are provided on or after July 1, 2003;
(2) The facility receives initial certification by the director of health as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded on or after June 1, 2003;
(3) The facility, or a portion of the facility, is licensed by the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities as a residential facility under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code;
(4) There is a valid provider agreement for the facility.

(B) Each month, the department of job and family services shall invoice the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities by interagency transfer voucher for the claims for which the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities is responsible pursuant to this section.

(C) Division (A) of this section does not apply to claims submitted for an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded if, under section 5123.193 or 5123.197 of the Revised Code, a residential facility license was obtained or modified for the facility without obtaining approval of a plan for the proposed residential facility pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.231. (A) As used in this section, "applicable calendar year" means the following:
(1) For the purpose of the department of job and family services' initial determination under division (D) of this section of each peer group's cost per case-mix unit, calendar year 2003;
(2) For the purpose of the department's subsequent determinations under division (D) of this section of each peer group's cost per case-mix unit, the calendar year the department selects.

(B) The department of job and family services shall pay a provider for each of the provider's eligible nursing facilities a per resident per day rate for direct care costs determined semiannually by multiplying the cost per case-mix unit determined under division (D) of this section for the facility's peer group by the facility's semiannual case-mix score determined under section 5111.232 of the Revised Code.

(C) For the purpose of determining nursing facilities' rate for direct care costs, the department shall establish three peer groups.

Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group one: Brown, Butler, Clermont, Clinton, Hamilton, and Warren.

Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group two: Ashtabula, Champaign, Clark, Cuyahoga, Darke, Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Geauga, Greene, Hancock, Knox, Lake, Licking, Lorain, Lucas, Madison, Marion, Medina, Miami, Montgomery, Morrow, Ottawa, Pickaway, Portage, Preble, Ross, Sandusky, Seneca, Summit, Union, and Wood.

Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group three: Adams, Allen, Ashland, Athens, Auglaize, Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana, Coshocton, Crawford, Defiance, Erie, Gallia, Guernsey, Hardin, Harrison, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Holmes, Huron, Jackson, Jefferson, Lawrence, Logan, Mahoning, Meigs, Mercer, Monroe, Morgan, Muskingum, Noble, Paulding, Perry, Pike, Putnam, Richland, Scioto, Shelby, Stark, Trumbull, Tuscarawas, Van Wert, Vinton, Washington, Wayne, Williams, and Wyandot.

(D)(1) At least once every ten years, the department shall determine a cost per case-mix unit for each peer group established under division (C) of this section. A cost per case-mix unit determined under this division for a peer group shall be used for subsequent years until the department redetermines it. To determine a peer group's cost per case-mix unit, the department shall do all of the following:

(a) Determine the cost per case-mix unit for each nursing facility in the peer group for the applicable calendar year by dividing each facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem direct care costs for the applicable calendar year by the facility's annual average case-mix score determined under section 5111.232 of the Revised Code for the applicable calendar year.

(b) Subject to division (D)(2) of this section, identify which nursing facility in the peer group is at the twenty-fifth percentile of the cost per case-mix units determined under division (D)(1)(a) of this section.

(c) Calculate the amount that is seven per cent above the cost per case-mix unit determined under division (D)(1)(a) of this section for the nursing facility identified under division (D)(1)(b) of this section.

(d) Multiply the amount calculated under division (D)(1)(c) of this section by the rate of inflation for the eighteen-month period beginning on the first day of July of the applicable calendar year and ending the last day of December of the calendar year immediately following the applicable calendar year using the following:

(i) In the case of the initial calculation made under division (D)(1)(d) of this section, the employment cost index for total compensation, health services component, published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, as the index existed on July 1, 2005;

(ii) In the case of subsequent calculations made under division (D)(1)(d) of this section and except as provided in division (D)(1)(d)(iii) of this section, the employment cost index for total compensation, nursing and residential care facilities occupational group, published by the United States bureau of labor statistics;

(iii) If the United States bureau of labor statistics ceases to publish the index specified in division (D)(1)(d)(ii) of this section, the index the bureau subsequently publishes that covers nursing facilities' staff costs.

(2) In making the identification under division (D)(1)(b) of this section, the department shall exclude both of the following:

(a) Nursing facilities that participated in the medicaid program under the same provider for less than twelve months in the applicable calendar year;

(b) Nursing facilities whose cost per case-mix unit is more than one standard deviation from the mean cost per case-mix unit for all nursing facilities in the nursing facility's peer group for the applicable calendar year.

(3) The department shall not redetermine a peer group's cost per case-mix unit under this division based on additional information that it receives after the peer group's per case-mix unit is determined. The department shall redetermine a peer group's cost per case-mix unit only if it made an error in determining the peer group's cost per case-mix unit based on information available to the department at the time of the original determination.

Sec. 5111.232. (A)(1) The department of job and family services shall determine semiannual and annual average case-mix scores for nursing facilities by using all of the following:

(a) Data from a resident assessment instrument specified in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code pursuant to section 1919(e)(5) of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 1396r(e)(5), as amended, for the following residents:

(i) When determining semiannual case-mix scores, each resident who is a medicaid recipient;

(ii) When determining annual average case-mix scores, each resident regardless of payment source.

(b) Except as provided in rules authorized by division divisions (A)(2)(a) and (b) of this section, the case-mix values established by the United States department of health and human services;

(c) Except as modified in rules authorized by division (A)(2)(c) of this section, the grouper methodology used on June 30, 1999, by the United States department of health and human services for prospective payment of skilled nursing facilities under the medicare program established by Title XVIII.
(2) The director of job and family services may adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code that do any of the following:

   (a) Adjust the case-mix values specified in division (A)(1)(b) of this section to reflect changes in relative wage differentials that are specific to this state;

   (b) Express all of those case-mix values in numeric terms that are different from the terms specified by the United States department of health and human services but that do not alter the relationship of the case-mix values to one another;

   (c) Modify the grouper methodology specified in division (A)(1)(c) of this section as follows:

   (i) Establish a different hierarchy for assigning residents to case-mix categories under the methodology;

   (ii) Prohibit the use of the index maximizer element of the methodology;

   (iii) Incorporate changes to the methodology the United States department of health and human services makes after June 30, 1999;

   (iv) Make other changes the department determines are necessary.

   (B) The department shall determine case-mix scores for intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded using data for each resident, regardless of payment source, from a resident assessment instrument and grouper methodology prescribed in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code and expressed in case-mix values established by the department in those rules.

   (C) Each calendar quarter, each provider shall compile complete assessment data, from the resident assessment instrument specified in rules authorized by division (A) or (B) of this section, for each resident of each of the provider's facilities, regardless of payment source, who was in the facility or on hospital or therapeutic leave from the facility on the last day of the quarter. Providers of a nursing facility shall submit the data to the department of health and, if required by rules, the department of job and family services. Providers of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded shall submit the data to the department of job and family services. The data shall be submitted not later than fifteen days after the end of the calendar quarter for which the data is compiled.

   Except as provided in division (D) of this section, the department, every six months and after the end of each calendar year, shall calculate a semiannual and annual average case-mix score for each nursing facility using the facility's quarterly case-mix scores for that six-month period or calendar year. Also except as provided in division (D) of this section, the department, after the end of each calendar year, shall calculate an annual average case-mix score for each intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded using the facility's quarterly case-mix scores for that calendar year. The department shall make the calculations pursuant to procedures specified in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code.

(D)(1) If a provider does not timely submit information for a calendar quarter necessary to calculate a facility's case-mix score, or submits incomplete or inaccurate information for a calendar quarter, the department may assign the facility a quarterly average case-mix score that is five per cent less than the facility's quarterly average case-mix score for the preceding calendar quarter. If the facility was subject to an exception review under division (C) of section 5111.27 of the Revised Code for the preceding calendar quarter, the department may assign a quarterly average case-mix score that is five per cent less than the score determined by the exception review. If the facility was assigned a quarterly average case-mix score for the preceding quarter, the department may assign a quarterly average case-mix score that is five per cent less than that score assigned for the preceding quarter.

The department may use a quarterly average case-mix score assigned under division (D)(1) of this section, instead of a quarterly average case-mix score calculated based on the provider's submitted information, to calculate the facility's rate for direct care costs being established under section 5111.23 or 5111.231 of the Revised Code for one or more months, as specified in rules authorized by division (E) of this section, of the quarter for which the rate established under section 5111.23 or 5111.231 of the Revised Code will be paid.

Before taking action under division (D)(1) of this section, the department shall permit the provider a reasonable period of time, specified in rules authorized by division (E) of this section, to correct the information. In the case of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, the department shall not assign a quarterly average case-mix score due to late submission of corrections to assessment information unless the provider fails to submit corrected information prior to the eighty-first day after the end of the calendar quarter to which the information pertains. In the case of a nursing facility, the department shall not assign a quarterly average case-mix score due to late submission of corrections to assessment information unless the provider fails to submit corrected information prior to the earlier of the eighty-first or forty-sixth day after the end of the calendar quarter to which the information pertains or the deadline for submission of such corrections established by regulations adopted by the United States department of health and human services under Titles XVIII and XIX.
(2) If a provider is paid a rate for a facility calculated using a quarterly average case-mix score assigned under division (D)(1) of this section for more than six months in a calendar year, the department may assign the facility a cost per case-mix unit that is five per cent less than the facility's actual or assigned cost per case-mix unit for the preceding calendar year. The department may use the assigned cost per case-mix unit, instead of calculating the facility's actual cost per case-mix unit in accordance with section 5111.23 or 5111.231 of the Revised Code, to establish the facility's rate for direct care costs for the following fiscal year.

(3) The department shall take action under division (D)(1) or (2) of this section only in accordance with rules authorized by division (E) of this section. The department shall not take an action that affects rates for prior payment periods except in accordance with sections 5111.27 and 5111.28 of the Revised Code.

(E) The director shall adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code that do all of the following:

(1) Specify whether providers of a nursing facility must submit the assessment data to the department of job and family services;

(2) Specify the medium or media through which the completed assessment data shall be submitted;

(3) Establish procedures under which the assessment data shall be reviewed for accuracy and providers shall be notified of any data that requires correction;

(4) Establish procedures for providers to correct assessment data and specify a reasonable period of time by which providers shall submit the corrections. The procedures may limit the content of corrections by providers of nursing facilities in the manner required by regulations adopted by the United States department of health and human services under Titles XVIII and XIX.

(5) Specify when and how the department will assign case-mix scores or costs per case-mix unit under division (D) of this section if information necessary to calculate the facility's case-mix score is not provided or corrected in accordance with the procedures established by the rules. Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code, the rules also may provide for the following:

(a) Exclusion of case-mix scores assigned under division (D) of this section from calculation of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded's annual average case-mix score and the maximum cost per case-mix unit for the facility's peer group;

(b) Exclusion of case-mix scores assigned under division (D) of this section from calculation of a nursing facility's semiannual or annual average case-mix score and the cost per case-mix unit for the facility's peer group.

Sec. 5111.233. The costs of day programming shall be part of the direct care costs of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded as off-site day programming if the area in which the day programming is provided is not certified by the director of health as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded under Title XIX and regardless of either of the following:

(A) Whether or not the area in which the day programming is provided is less than two hundred feet away from the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded;

(B) Whether or not the day programming is provided by an individual who, or organization that, is a related party to the provider of the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

Sec. 5111.236. (A) As used in this section, "medically fragile child" means an individual under eighteen years of age who requires both of the following:

(1) The services of a doctor of medicine or osteopathic medicine at least once a week due to the instability of the individual's medical condition;

(2) The services of a registered nurse on a daily basis.

(B) The medicaid program shall cover oxygen services that a medical supplier with a valid medicaid provider agreement provides to a medicaid recipient who is a medically fragile child and resides in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. The medicaid program shall cover such oxygen services regardless of any of the following:

(1) The percentage of the medicaid recipient's arterial oxygen saturation at rest, exercise, or sleep;

(2) The type of system used in delivering the oxygen to the medicaid recipient;

(3) Whether the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded in which the medicaid recipient resides purchases or rents the equipment used in the delivery of the oxygen to the recipient.

(C) A medical supplier of an oxygen service shall bill the department of job and family services directly for oxygen services the medicaid program covers under this section. The provider of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded may not include the cost of an oxygen service covered by the medicaid program under this section in the facility's cost report unless the facility is the medical supplier of the oxygen service.

Sec. 5111.24. (A) As used in this section, "applicable calendar year" means the following:
(1) For the purpose of the department of job and family services' initial determination under division (D) of this section of each peer group's rate for ancillary and support costs, calendar year 2003;

(2) For the purpose of the department's subsequent determinations under division (D) of this section of each peer group's rate for ancillary and support costs, the calendar year the department selects.

(B) The department of job and family services shall pay a provider for each of the provider's eligible nursing facilities a per resident per day rate for ancillary and support costs determined for the nursing facility's peer group under division (D) of this section.

(C) For the purpose of determining nursing facilities' rate for ancillary and support costs, the department shall establish six peer groups.

Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group one or two: Brown, Butler, Clermont, Clinton, Hamilton, and Warren. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has fewer than one hundred beds shall be placed in peer group one. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has one hundred or more beds shall be placed in peer group two.

Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group three or four: Ashtabula, Champaign, Clark, Cuyahoga, Darke, Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Geauga, Greene, Hancock, Knox, Lake, Licking, Lorain, Lucas, Madison, Marion, Medina, Miami, Montgomery, Morrow, Ottawa, Pickaway, Portage, Preble, Ross, Sandusky, Seneca, Summit, Union, and Wood. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has fewer than one hundred beds shall be placed in peer group three. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has one hundred or more beds shall be placed in peer group four.

Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group five or six: Adams, Allen, Ashland, Athens, Auglaize, Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana, Coshocton, Crawford, Defiance, Erie, Gallia, Guernsey, Hardin, Harrison, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Holmes, Huron, Jackson, Jefferson, Lawrence, Logan, Mahoning, Meigs, Mercer, Monroe, Morgan, Muskingum, Noble, Paulding, Perry, Pike, Putnam, Richland, Scioto, Shelby, Stark, Trumbull, Tuscarawas, Van Wert, Vinton, Washington, Wayne, Williams, and Wyandot. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has fewer than one hundred beds shall be placed in peer group five. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has one hundred or more beds shall be placed in peer group six.
(D)(1) At least once every ten years, the department shall determine the rate for ancillary and support costs for each peer group established under division (C) of this section. The rate for ancillary and support costs determined under this division for a peer group shall be used for subsequent years until the department redetermines it. To determine a peer group's rate for ancillary and support costs, the department shall do all of the following:

(a) Determine the rate for ancillary and support costs for each nursing facility in the peer group for the applicable calendar year by using the greater of the nursing facility's actual inpatient days for the applicable calendar year or the inpatient days the nursing facility would have had for the applicable calendar year if its occupancy rate had been ninety per cent. For the purpose of determining a nursing facility's occupancy rate under division (D)(1)(a) of this section, the department shall include any beds that the nursing facility removes from its medicaid-certified capacity unless the nursing facility also removes the beds from its licensed bed capacity.

(b) Subject to division (D)(2) of this section, identify which nursing facility in the peer group is at the twenty-fifth percentile of the rate for ancillary and support costs for the applicable calendar year determined under division (D)(1)(a) of this section.

(c) Calculate the amount that is three per cent above the rate for ancillary and support costs determined under division (D)(1)(a) of this section for the nursing facility identified under division (D)(1)(b) of this section.

(d) Multiply the amount calculated under division (D)(1)(c) of this section by the rate of inflation for the eighteen-month period beginning on the first day of July of the applicable calendar year and ending the last day of December of the calendar year immediately following the applicable calendar year using the following:

(i) In the case of the initial calculation made under division (D)(1)(d) of this section, the consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers for the north central region, published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, as that index existed on July 1, 2005;

(ii) In the case of subsequent calculations made under division (D)(1)(d) of this section and except as provided in division (D)(1)(d)(iii) of this section, the consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers for the midwest region, published by the United States bureau of labor statistics;

(iii) If the United States bureau of labor statistics ceases to publish the index specified in division (D)(1)(d)(ii) of this section, the index the bureau subsequently publishes that covers urban consumers' prices for items for the region that includes this state.
(2) In making the identification under division (D)(1)(b) of this section, the department shall exclude both of the following:

(a) Nursing facilities that participated in the medicaid program under the same provider for less than twelve months in the applicable calendar year;

(b) Nursing facilities whose ancillary and support costs are more than one standard deviation from the mean desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem ancillary and support cost for all nursing facilities in the nursing facility's peer group for the applicable calendar year.

(3) The department shall not redetermine a peer group's rate for ancillary and support costs under this division based on additional information that it receives after the rate is determined. The department shall redetermine a peer group's rate for ancillary and support costs only if it made an error in determining the rate based on information available to the department at the time of the original determination.

Sec. 5111.243. The department of job and family services shall pay a provider for each of the provider's eligible nursing facilities a per resident per day rate for the franchise permit fees paid for the nursing facility. The rate shall be equal to the franchise permit fee for the fiscal year for which the rate is paid, six dollars and twenty-five cents.

Sec. 5111.25. (A) As used in this section, "applicable calendar year" means the following:

(1) For the purpose of the department of job and family services' initial determination under division (D) of this section of each peer group's median rate for capital costs, calendar year 2003;

(2) For the purpose of the department's subsequent determinations under division (D) of this section of each peer group's median rate for capital costs, the calendar year the department selects.

(B) The department of job and family services shall pay a provider for each of the provider's eligible nursing facilities a per resident per day rate for capital costs. A nursing facility's rate for capital costs shall be the median rate for capital costs for the nursing facilities in the nursing facility's peer group as determined under division (D) of this section.

(C) For the purpose of determining nursing facilities' rate for capital costs, the department shall establish six peer groups.

Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group one or two: Brown, Butler, Clermont, Clinton, Hamilton, and Warren. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has fewer than one hundred beds shall be placed in peer group one. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has one hundred or more beds shall be placed in peer group two.
Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group three or four: Ashtabula, Champaign, Clark, Cuyahoga, Darke, Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Geauga, Greene, Hancock, Knox, Lake, Licking, Lorain, Lucas, Madison, Marion, Medina, Miami, Montgomery, Morrow, Ottawa, Pickaway, Portage, Preble, Ross, Sandusky, Seneca, Summit, Union, and Wood. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has fewer than one hundred beds shall be placed in peer group three. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has one hundred or more beds shall be placed in peer group four.

Each nursing facility located in any of the following counties shall be placed in peer group five or six: Adams, Allen, Ashland, Athens, Auglaize, Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana, Coshocton, Crawford, Defiance, Erie, Gallia, Guernsey, Hardin, Harrison, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Holmes, Huron, Jackson, Jefferson, Lawrence, Logan, Mahoning, Meigs, Mercer, Monroe, Morgan, Muskingum, Noble, Paulding, Perry, Pike, Putnam, Richland, Scioto, Shelby, Stark, Trumbull, Tuscarawas, Van Wert, Vinton, Washington, Wayne, Williams, and Wyandot. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has fewer than one hundred beds shall be placed in peer group five. Each nursing facility located in any of those counties that has one hundred or more beds shall be placed in peer group six.

(D)(1) At least once every ten years, the department shall determine the median rate for capital costs for each peer group established under division (C) of this section. The median rate for capital costs determined under this division for a peer group shall be used for subsequent years until the department redetermines it. To determine a peer group's median rate for capital costs, the department shall do both of the following:

(a) Subject to division (D)(2) of this section, use the greater of each nursing facility's actual inpatient days for the applicable calendar year or the inpatient days the nursing facility would have had for the applicable calendar year if its occupancy rate had been one hundred per cent.

(b) Exclude both of the following:

(i) Nursing facilities that participated in the medicaid program under the same provider for less than twelve months in the applicable calendar year;

(ii) Nursing facilities whose capital costs are more than one standard deviation from the mean desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem capital cost for all nursing facilities in the nursing facility's peer group for the applicable calendar year.

(2) For the purpose of determining a nursing facility's occupancy rate under division (D)(1)(a) of this section, the department shall include any beds that the nursing facility removes from its medicaid-certified capacity after June 30, 2005, unless the nursing facility also removes the beds from its licensed bed capacity.

(E) Buildings shall be depreciated using the straight line method over forty years or over a different period approved by the department. Components and equipment shall be depreciated using the straight-line method over a period designated in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code, consistent with the guidelines of the American hospital association, or over a different period approved by the department. Any rules authorized by this division that specify useful lives of buildings, components, or equipment apply only to assets acquired on or after July 1, 1993. Depreciation for costs paid or reimbursed by any government agency shall not be included in capital costs unless that part of the payment under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code is used to reimburse the government agency.

(F) The capital cost basis of nursing facility assets shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) Except as provided in division (F)(3) of this section, for purposes of calculating the rates to be paid for facilities with dates of licensure on or before June 30, 1993, the capital cost basis of each asset shall be equal to the desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, capital cost basis that is listed on the facility's cost report for the calendar year preceding the fiscal year during which the rate will be paid.

(2) For facilities with dates of licensure after June 30, 1993, the capital cost basis shall be determined in accordance with the principles of the medicare program established under Title XVIII, except as otherwise provided in sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

(3) Except as provided in division (F)(4) of this section, if a provider transfers an interest in a facility to another provider after June 30, 1993, there shall be no increase in the capital cost basis of the asset if the providers are related parties or the provider to which the interest is transferred authorizes the provider that transferred the interest to continue to operate the facility under a lease, management agreement, or other arrangement. If the previous sentence does not prohibit the adjustment of the capital cost basis under this division, the basis of the asset shall be adjusted by the lesser of the following:

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs during the time that the transferor held the asset, as calculated by the department of job and family services using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift;

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, during the time that the transferor held the asset.

(4) If a provider transfers an interest in a facility to another provider who is a related party, the capital cost basis of the asset shall be adjusted as specified in division (F)(3) of this section if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The related party is a relative of owner;

(b) Except as provided in division (F)(4)(c)(ii) of this section, the provider making the transfer retains no ownership interest in the facility;

(c) The department of job and family services determines that the transfer is an arm's length transaction pursuant to rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code. The rules shall provide that a transfer is an arm's length transaction if all of the following apply:

(i) Once the transfer goes into effect, the provider that made the transfer has no direct or indirect interest in the provider that acquires the facility or the facility itself, including interest as an owner, officer, director, employee, independent contractor, or consultant, but excluding interest as a creditor.

(ii) The provider that made the transfer does not reacquire an interest in the facility except through the exercise of a creditor's rights in the event of a default. If the provider reacquires an interest in the facility in this manner, the department shall treat the facility as if the transfer never occurred when the department calculates its reimbursement rates for capital costs.

(iii) The transfer satisfies any other criteria specified in the rules.

(d) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic event, as determined by the department, or in the case of a provider making the transfer who is at least sixty-five years of age, not less than twenty years have elapsed since, for the same facility, the capital cost basis was adjusted most recently under division (F)(4) of this section or actual, allowable cost of ownership was determined most recently under division (G)(9) of this section.

(G) As used in this division:

"Imputed interest" means the lesser of the prime rate plus two per cent or ten per cent.

"Lease expense" means lease payments in the case of an operating lease and depreciation expense and interest expense in the case of a capital lease.

"New lease" means a lease, to a different lessee, of a nursing facility that previously was operated under a lease.

(1) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a lease of a facility that was effective on May 27, 1992, the entire lease expense is an actual, allowable capital cost during the term of the existing lease. The entire lease expense also is an actual, allowable capital cost if a lease in existence on May 27, 1992, is renewed under either of the following circumstances:

(a) The renewal is pursuant to a renewal option that was in existence on May 27, 1992;

(b) The renewal is for the same lease payment amount and between the same parties as the lease in existence on May 27, 1992.

(2) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a lease of a facility that was in existence but not operated under a lease on May 27, 1992, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the lesser of the annual lease expense or the annual depreciation expense and imputed interest expense that would be calculated at the inception of the lease using the lessor's entire historical capital asset cost basis, adjusted by the lesser of the following amounts:

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs during the time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease, as calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift;

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, during the time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease.

(3) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a lease of a facility with a date of licensure on or after May 27, 1992, that is initially operated under a lease, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the annual lease expense if there was a substantial commitment of money for construction of the facility after December 22, 1992, and before July 1, 1993. If there was not a substantial commitment of money after December 22, 1992, and before July 1, 1993, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the lesser of the annual lease expense or the sum of the following:

(a) The annual depreciation expense that would be calculated at the inception of the lease using the lessor's entire historical capital asset cost basis;

(b) The greater of the lessor's actual annual amortization of financing costs and interest expense at the inception of the lease or the imputed interest expense calculated at the inception of the lease using seventy per cent of the lessor's historical capital asset cost basis.

(4) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a lease of a facility with a date of licensure on or after May 27, 1992, that was not initially operated under a lease and has been in existence for ten years, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the lesser of the annual lease expense or the annual depreciation expense and imputed interest expense that would be calculated at the inception of the lease using the entire historical capital asset cost basis of the lessor, adjusted by the lesser of the following:

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs during the time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease, as calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift;

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, during the time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease.

(5) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a new lease of a facility that was operated under a lease on May 27, 1992, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the lesser of the annual new lease expense or the annual old lease payment. If the old lease was in effect for ten years or longer, the old lease payment from the beginning of the old lease shall be adjusted by the lesser of the following:

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs from the beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease, as calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift;

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, from the beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease.

(6) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a new lease of a facility that was not in existence or that was in existence but not operated under a lease on May 27, 1992, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the lesser of annual new lease expense or the annual amount calculated for the old lease under division (G)(2), (3), (4), or (6) of this section, as applicable. If the old lease was in effect for ten years or longer, the lessor's historical capital asset cost basis shall be adjusted by the lesser of the following for purposes of calculating the annual amount under division (G)(2), (3), (4), or (6) of this section:

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs from the beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease, as calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift;

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, from the beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease.

In the case of a lease under division (G)(3) of this section of a facility for which a substantial commitment of money was made after December 22, 1992, and before July 1, 1993, the old lease payment shall be adjusted for the purpose of determining the annual amount.

(7) For any revision of a lease described in division (G)(1), (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of this section, or for any subsequent lease of a facility operated under such a lease, other than execution of a new lease, the portion of actual, allowable capital costs attributable to the lease shall be the same as before the revision or subsequent lease.

(8) Except as provided in division (G)(9) of this section, if a provider leases an interest in a facility to another provider who is a related party or previously operated the facility, the related party's or previous operator's actual, allowable capital costs shall include the lesser of the annual lease expense or the reasonable cost to the lessor.

(9) If a provider leases an interest in a facility to another provider who is a related party, regardless of the date of the lease, the related party's actual, allowable capital costs shall include the annual lease expense, subject to the limitations specified in divisions (G)(1) to (7) of this section, if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The related party is a relative of owner;

(b) If the lessor retains an ownership interest, it is, except as provided in division (G)(9)(c)(i) of this section, in only the real property and any improvements on the real property;

(c) The department of job and family services determines that the lease is an arm's length transaction pursuant to rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code. The rules shall provide that a lease is an arm's length transaction if all of the following apply:

(i) Once the lease goes into effect, the lessor has no direct or indirect interest in the lessee or, except as provided in division (G)(9)(b) of this section, the facility itself, including interest as an owner, officer, director, employee, independent contractor, or consultant, but excluding interest as a lessor.

(ii) The lessor does not reacquire an interest in the facility except through the exercise of a lessor's rights in the event of a default. If the lessor reacquires an interest in the facility in this manner, the department shall treat the facility as if the lease never occurred when the department calculates its reimbursement rates for capital costs.
(iii) The lease satisfies any other criteria specified in the rules.

(d) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic event, as determined by the department, or in the case of a lessor who is at least sixty-five years of age, not less than twenty years have elapsed since, for the same facility, the capital cost basis was adjusted most recently under division (F)(4) of this section or actual, allowable capital costs were determined most recently under division (G)(9) of this section.

(10) This division does not apply to leases of specific items of equipment.

(H) After the date on which a transaction of sale is closed, the provider shall refund to the department the amount of excess depreciation paid to the provider for the facility by the department for each year the provider has operated the facility under a provider agreement and prorated according to the number of Medicaid patient days for which the provider has received payment for the facility. The provider of a facility that is sold or that voluntarily terminates participation in the Medicaid program also shall refund any other amount that the department properly finds to be due after the audit conducted under this division. For the purposes of this division, "depreciation paid to the provider for the facility" means the amount paid to the provider for the nursing facility for capital costs pursuant to this section less any amount paid for interest costs, amortization of financing costs, and lease expenses. For the purposes of this division, "excess depreciation" is the nursing facility's depreciated basis, which is the provider's cost less accumulated depreciation, subtracted from the purchase price net of selling costs but not exceeding the amount of depreciation paid to the provider for the facility.

Sec. 5111.261. Except as otherwise provided in section 5111.264 of the Revised Code, the department of job and family services, in determining whether an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded's direct care costs and indirect care costs are allowable, shall place no limit on specific categories of reasonable costs other than compensation of owners, compensation of relatives of owners, and compensation of administrators and costs for resident meals that are prepared and consumed outside the facility.

Compensation cost limits for owners and relatives of owners shall be based on compensation costs for individuals who hold comparable positions but who are not owners or relatives of owners, as reported on facility cost reports. As used in this section, "comparable position" means the position that is held by the owner or the owner's relative, if that position is listed separately on the cost report form, or if the position is not listed separately, the group of positions that is listed on the cost report form and that includes the position held by the owner or the owner's relative. In the case of an owner or owner's relative who serves the facility in a capacity such as corporate officer, proprietor, or partner for which no comparable position or group of positions is listed on the cost report form, the compensation cost limit shall be based on civil service equivalents and shall be specified in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code.

Compensation cost limits for administrators shall be based on compensation costs for administrators who are not owners or relatives of owners, as reported on facility cost reports. Compensation cost limits for administrators of four or more intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded shall be the same as the limits for administrators of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded with one hundred fifty or more beds.

Sec. 5111.262. No person, other than the provider of a nursing facility, shall submit a claim for medicaid reimbursement for a service provided to a nursing facility resident if the service is included in a medicaid payment made to the provider of a nursing facility under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code or in the reimbursable expenses reported on a provider's cost report for a nursing facility. No provider of a nursing facility shall submit a separate claim for medicaid reimbursement for a service provided to a resident of the nursing facility if the service is included in a medicaid payment made to the provider under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code or in the reimbursable expenses on the provider's cost report for the nursing facility.

Sec. 5111.65. As used in sections 5111.65 to 5111.689 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Change of operator" means an entering operator becoming the operator of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded in the place of the exiting operator.

1) Actions that constitute a change of operator include the following:

(a) A change in an exiting operator's form of legal organization, including the formation of a partnership or corporation from a sole proprietorship;

(b) A transfer of all the exiting operator's ownership interest in the operation of the facility to the entering operator, regardless of whether ownership of any or all of the real property or personal property associated with the facility is also transferred;

(c) A lease of the facility to the entering operator or the exiting operator's termination of the exiting operator's lease;

(d) If the exiting operator is a partnership, dissolution of the partnership;
(e) If the exiting operator is a partnership, a change in composition of the partnership unless both of the following apply:
   (i) The change in composition does not cause the partnership's dissolution under state law.
   (ii) The partners agree that the change in composition does not constitute a change in operator.

(f) If the operator is a corporation, dissolution of the corporation, a merger of the corporation into another corporation that is the survivor of the merger, or a consolidation of one or more other corporations to form a new corporation.

(2) The following, alone, do not constitute a change of operator:
   (a) A contract for an entity to manage a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded as the operator's agent, subject to the operator's approval of daily operating and management decisions;
   (b) A change of ownership, lease, or termination of a lease of real property or personal property associated with a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded if an entering operator does not become the operator in place of an exiting operator;
   (c) If the operator is a corporation, a change of one or more members of the corporation's governing body or transfer of ownership of one or more shares of the corporation's stock, if the same corporation continues to be the operator.

(B) "Effective date of a change of operator" means the day the entering operator becomes the operator of the nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(C) "Effective date of a facility closure" means the last day that the last of the residents of the nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded resides in the facility.

(D) "Effective date of a voluntary termination" means the day the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded ceases to accept medicaid patients.

(E) "Effective date of a voluntary withdrawal of participation" means the day the nursing facility ceases to accept new medicaid patients other than the individuals who reside in the nursing facility on the day before the effective date of the voluntary withdrawal of participation.

(F) "Entering operator" means the person or government entity that will become the operator of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded when a change of operator occurs.

(G) "Exiting operator" means any of the following:
   (1) An operator that will cease to be the operator of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded on the effective date of a change of operator;
(2) An operator that will cease to be the operator of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded on the effective date of a facility closure;
(3) An operator of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded that is undergoing or has undergone a voluntary termination;
(4) An operator of a nursing facility that is undergoing or has undergone a voluntary withdrawal of participation.

(H)(1) "Facility closure" means discontinuance of the use of the building, or part of the building, that houses the facility as a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded that results in the relocation of all of the facility's residents. A facility closure occurs regardless of any of the following:
   (a) The operator completely or partially replacing the facility by constructing a new facility or transferring the facility's license to another facility;
   (b) The facility's residents relocating to another of the operator's facilities;
   (c) Any action the department of health takes regarding the facility's certification under Title XIX of the "Social Security Act," 79 Stat. 286 (1965), 42 U.S.C. 1396, as amended, that may result in the transfer of part of the facility's survey findings to another of the operator's facilities;
   (d) Any action the department of health takes regarding the facility's license under Chapter 3721. of the Revised Code;
   (e) Any action the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities takes regarding the facility's license under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code.

(2) A facility closure does not occur if all of the facility's residents are relocated due to an emergency evacuation and one or more of the residents return to a medicaid-certified bed in the facility not later than thirty days after the evacuation occurs.

(I) "Fiscal year," "franchise permit fee," "intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded," "nursing facility," "operator," "owner," and "provider agreement" have the same meanings as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

(J) "Qualified affiliated operator" means an operator to whom all of the following apply:
   (1) The operator is affiliated with either of the following:
      (a) The exiting operator for whom the affiliated operator is to assume liability for the entire amount of the exiting operator's debt under the medicaid program or the portion of the debt that represents the franchise permit fee the exiting operator owes;

(b) The entering operator involved in the change of operator with the exiting operator specified in division (J)(1)(a) of this section.

(2) The operator has one or more valid provider agreements.

(3) During the twelve-month period preceding the month in which the department of job and family services receives the notice of the facility closure, voluntary termination, or voluntary withdrawal of participation under section 5111.66 of the Revised Code or the notice of the change of operator under section 5111.67 of the Revised Code, the average monthly medicaid payment made to the operator pursuant to the operator's one or more provider agreements equals at least ninety per cent of the average monthly medicaid payment made to the exiting operator pursuant to the exiting operator's provider agreement.

(K) "Voluntary termination" means an operator's voluntary election to terminate the participation of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded in the medicaid program but to continue to provide service of the type provided by a residential facility as defined in section 5123.19 of the Revised Code.

(K)(L) "Voluntary withdrawal of participation" means an operator's voluntary election to terminate the participation of a nursing facility in the medicaid program but to continue to provide service of the type provided by a nursing facility.

Sec. 5111.651. Sections 5111.65 to 5111.68 of the Revised Code do not apply to a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded that undergoes a facility closure, voluntary termination, voluntary withdrawal of participation, or change of operator on or before September 30, 2005, if the exiting operator provided written notice of the facility closure, voluntary termination, voluntary withdrawal of participation, or change of operator to the department of job and family services on or before June 30, 2005.

Sec. 5111.68. (A) On receipt of a written notice under section 5111.66 of the Revised Code of a facility closure, voluntary termination, or voluntary withdrawal of participation or a written notice under section 5111.67 of the Revised Code of a change of operator, the department of job and family services shall determine the amount of any overpayments made under the medicaid program to the exiting operator, including overpayments the exiting operator disputes, and other actual and potential debts the exiting operator owes or may owe to the department and United States centers for medicare and medicaid services under the medicaid program, including a franchise permit fee. In determining

(B) In estimating the exiting operator's other actual and potential debts to the department and the United States centers for medicare and medicaid services under the medicaid program, the department shall include use a debt estimation methodology the director of job and family services shall establish in rules adopted under section 5111.689 of the Revised Code. The methodology shall provide for estimating all of the following that the department determines are applicable:

1. Refunds due the department under section 5111.27 of the Revised Code;
2. Interest owed to the department and United States centers for medicare and medicaid services;
3. Final civil monetary and other penalties for which all right of appeal has been exhausted;
4. Money owed the department and United States centers for medicare and medicaid services from any outstanding final fiscal audit, including a final fiscal audit for the last fiscal year or portion thereof in which the exiting operator participated in the medicaid program;
5. Other amounts the department determines are applicable.

(B) If the department is unable to determine the amount of the overpayments and other debts for any period before the effective date of the entering operator's provider agreement or the effective date of the facility closure, voluntary termination, or voluntary withdrawal of participation, the department shall make a reasonable estimate of the overpayments and other debts for the period. The department shall make the estimate using information available to the department, including prior determinations of overpayments and other debts.

(C) The department shall provide the exiting operator written notice of the department's estimate under division (A) of this section not later than thirty days after the department receives the notice under section 5111.66 of the Revised Code of the facility closure, voluntary termination, or voluntary withdrawal of participation or the notice under section 5111.67 of the Revised Code of the change of operator. The department's written notice shall include the basis for the estimate.

Sec. 5111.681. (A) Except as provided in division divisions (B) and (C) of this section, the department of job and family services shall may withhold the greater of the following from payment due an exiting operator under the medicaid program:

1. The total amount of any overpayments made under the medicaid program to the exiting operator, including overpayments the exiting operator disputes, and other actual and potential debts, including any unpaid penalties, specified in the notice provided under division (C) of section 5111.68 of the Revised Code that the exiting operator owes or may owe to the department and United States centers for medicare and medicaid services under the medicaid program:

(2) An amount equal to the average amount of monthly payments to the exiting operator under the medicaid program for the twelve month period immediately preceding the month that includes the last day the exiting operator's provider agreement is in effect or, in the case of a voluntary withdrawal of participation, the effective date of the voluntary withdrawal of participation.

(B) The In the case of a change of operator, the following shall apply regarding a withholding under division (A) of this section if the entering operator or a qualified affiliated operator executes a successor liability agreement in a manner prescribed by the department to assume liability for the entire amount specified in the notice provided under division (C) of section 5111.68 of the Revised Code or the portion of that amount that represents the franchise permit fee the exiting operator owes:

(1) If the entering operator or a qualified affiliated operator assumes liability for the entire amount specified in the notice, the department may choose shall not to make the withholding under division (A) of this section if an entering operator does both of the following:

(1) Enters into a nontransferable, unconditional, written agreement with the department to pay the department any debt the exiting operator owes the department under the medicaid program;

(2) Provides the department a copy of the entering operator's balance sheet that assists the department in determining whether to make the withholding under division (A) of this section.

(2) If the entering operator or qualified affiliated operator assumes liability for only the portion of the amount specified in the notice that represents the franchise permit fee the exiting operator owes, the department shall exclude from the withholding the amount for which the entering operator or qualified affiliated operator assumes liability.

(C) In the case of a voluntary termination, voluntary withdrawal of participation, or facility closure, the following shall apply regarding a withholding under division (A) of this section if the exiting operator or a qualified affiliated operator executes a successor liability agreement in a manner prescribed by the department to assume liability for the entire amount specified in the notice provided under division (C) of section 5111.68 of the Revised Code or the portion of that amount that represents the franchise permit fee the exiting operator owes:

(1) If the exiting operator or qualified affiliated operator assumes liability for the entire amount specified in the notice, the department shall not make the withholding.

(2) If the exiting operator or qualified affiliated operator assumes liability for only the portion of the amount specified in the notice that represents the franchise permit fee the exiting operator owes, the department shall exclude from the withholding the amount for which the exiting operator or qualified affiliated operator assumes liability.

Sec. 5111.685. The department of job and family services shall determine the actual amount of debt an exiting operator owes the department and the United States centers for medicare and medicaid services under the medicaid program by completing all final fiscal audits not already completed and performing all other appropriate actions the department determines to be necessary. The department shall issue an initial debt summary report on this matter not later than sixty days after the date the exiting operator files the properly completed cost report required by section 5111.682 of the Revised Code with the department or, if the department waives the cost report requirement for the exiting operator, sixty days after the date the department waives the cost report requirement. The report shall include the department's findings and the amount of debt the department determines the exiting operator owes the department and United States centers for medicare and medicaid services under the medicaid program. Only the parts

The exiting operator and a qualified affiliated operator who executes a successor liability agreement under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, if any, may request an informal settlement conference to contest any of the department's findings included in the initial debt summary report. The request for the conference must be submitted to the department not later than thirty days after the date the department issues the initial debt summary report. If the department has withheld money from payment due the exiting operator under division (A) of section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, the department shall conclude the conference not later than sixty days after the date the department receives the timely request for the conference unless the department and exiting operator or qualified affiliated operator agree to a later conclusion date. The exiting operator or qualified affiliated operator may submit information to the department explaining what the operator contests before and during the conference, including documentation of the amount of any debt the department owes the operator. The department shall issue a revised debt summary report after the conference's conclusion. If the department has withheld money from payment due the exiting operator under division (A) of section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, the department shall issue the revised debt summary report not later than sixty days after the conference's conclusion. The revised debt summary report shall include the department's findings and the amount of debt the department determines the exiting operator owes the department and United States centers for medicare and medicaid services under the medicaid program. The department shall explain its findings and determination in the revised debt summary report.

The exiting operator and a qualified affiliated operator who executes a successor liability agreement under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, if any, may request an adjudication regarding any part of the report that are subject to an adjudication as specified in section 5111.30 of the Revised Code are subject to an adjudication conducted initial and revised debt summary reports in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. However, an initial debt summary report is not subject to the adjudication if a revised debt summary report is issued following an informal conference settlement conducted regarding it; the revised debt summary report is subject to the adjudication instead. The adjudication shall be consolidated with any other uncompleted adjudication that concerns a matter addressed in the initial or revised debt summary report. If the department has withheld money from payment due the exiting operator under division (A) of section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, the department shall complete the adjudication not later than sixty days after the department receives a request for the adjudication.

Sec. 5111.686. The department of job and family services shall release the actual amount withheld under division (A) of section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, less any amount the exiting operator owes the department and United States centers for medicare and medicaid services under the medicaid program, as follows:

(A) Ninety one days after the date the exiting operator files a properly completed cost report required by section 5111.682 of the Revised Code unless the department issues the initial debt summary report required by section 5111.685 of the Revised Code not later than ninety sixty days after the date the exiting operator files the properly completed cost report required by section 5111.682 of the Revised Code, sixty-one days after the date the exiting operator files the properly completed cost report;

(B) Not later than thirty days after the exiting operator agrees to a final fiscal audit resulting from the report required by section 5111.685 of the Revised Code if the department issues the initial debt summary report required by section 5111.685 of the Revised Code not later than ninety sixty days after the date the exiting operator files a properly completed cost report required by section 5111.682 of the Revised Code, not later than the following:

(1) Thirty days after the later of the deadline for requesting an informal settlement conference under section 5111.685 of the Revised Code and the deadline for requesting an adjudication under that section regarding the initial debt summary report if the exiting operator and a qualified affiliated operator who executes a successor liability agreement under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, if any, fail to request both the conference and the adjudication on or before the deadline;

(2) Thirty days after the deadline for requesting an adjudication under section 5111.685 of the Revised Code regarding a revised debt summary report issued under that section if the exiting operator or a qualified affiliated operator who executes a successor liability agreement under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, if any, requests an informal settlement conference under that section on or before the deadline for requesting the conference but fails to request an adjudication regarding the revised debt summary report on or before the deadline for requesting the adjudication;

(3) Thirty days after the completion of an adjudication of the initial or revised debt summary report if the exiting operator or a qualified affiliated operator who executes a successor liability agreement under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, if any, requests the adjudication on or before the deadline for requesting the adjudication.

(C) Ninety one days after the date the department waives the cost report requirement of section 5111.682 of the Revised Code unless the department issues the initial debt summary report required by section 5111.685 of the Revised Code not later than ninety sixty days after the date the department waives the cost report requirement of section 5111.682 of the Revised Code, sixty-one days after the date the department waives the cost report requirement;

(D) Not later than thirty days after the exiting operator agrees to a final fiscal audit resulting from the report required by section 5111.685 of the Revised Code if the department issues the initial debt summary report required by section 5111.685 of the Revised Code not later than ninety sixty days after the date the department waives the cost report requirement of section 5111.682 of the Revised Code, not later than the following:

(1) Thirty days after the later of the deadline for requesting an informal settlement conference under section 5111.685 of the Revised Code and the deadline for requesting an adjudication under that section regarding the initial debt summary report if the exiting operator and a qualified affiliated operator who executes a successor liability agreement under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, if any, fail to request both the conference and the adjudication on or before the deadline;

(2) Thirty days after the deadline for requesting an adjudication under section 5111.685 of the Revised Code regarding a revised debt summary report issued under that section if the exiting operator or a qualified affiliated operator who executes a successor liability agreement under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, if any, requests an informal settlement conference under that section on or before the deadline for requesting the conference but fails to request an adjudication regarding the revised debt summary report on or before the deadline for requesting the adjudication;

(3) Thirty days after the completion of an adjudication of the initial or revised debt summary report if the exiting operator or a qualified affiliated operator who executes a successor liability agreement under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code, if any, requests the adjudication on or before the deadline for requesting the adjudication.

Sec. 5111.688. (A) All amounts withheld under section 5111.681 of the Revised Code from payment due an exiting operator under the medicaid program shall be deposited into the medicaid payment withholding fund created by the controlling board pursuant to section 131.35 of the Revised Code. Money in the fund shall be used as follows:

(1) To pay an exiting operator when a withholding is released to the exiting operator under section 5111.686 or 5111.687 of the Revised Code;

(2) To pay the department of job and family services and United States centers for medicare and medicaid services the amount an exiting operator owes the department and United States centers under the medicaid program.

(B) Amounts paid from the medicaid payment withholding fund pursuant to division (A)(2) of this section shall be deposited into the appropriate department fund.

Sec. 5111.688 5111.689. The director of job and family services may adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code to implement sections 5111.65 to 5111.688 5111.689 of the Revised Code, including rules applicable to an exiting operator that provides written notification under section 5111.66 of the Revised Code of a voluntary withdrawal of participation. Rules adopted under this section shall comply with section 1919(c)(2)(F) of the "Social Security Act," 79 Stat. 286 (1965), 42 U.S.C. 1396r(c)(2)(F), regarding restrictions on transfers or discharges of nursing facility residents in the case of a voluntary withdrawal of participation. The rules may prescribe a medicaid reimbursement methodology and other procedures that are applicable after the effective date of a voluntary withdrawal of participation that differ from the reimbursement methodology and other procedures that would otherwise apply.

Sec. 5111.705. No individual shall be denied eligibility for the medicaid buy-in for workers with disabilities program on the basis that the individual receives services under a home and community-based services medicaid waiver component as defined in section 5111.851 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.85. (A) As used in this section and sections 5111.851 to 5111.856 of the Revised Code, "medicaid:

"Home and community-based services medicaid waiver component" means a medicaid waiver component under which home and community-based services are provided as an alternative to hospital, nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded services.

"Hospital" has the same meaning as in section 3727.01 of the Revised Code.

"Intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

"Medicaid waiver component" means a component of the medicaid program authorized by a waiver granted by the United States department of health and human services under section 1115 or 1915 of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 1315 or 1396n. "Medicaid waiver component" does not include a care management system established under section 5111.16 of the Revised Code.

"Nursing facility" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

(B) The director of job and family services may adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing medicaid waiver components that establish all of the following:

(1) Eligibility requirements for the medicaid waiver components;
(2) The type, amount, duration, and scope of services the medicaid waiver components provide;
(3) The conditions under which the medicaid waiver components cover services;
(4) The amount the medicaid waiver components pay for services or the method by which the amount is determined;

(5) The manner in which the medicaid waiver components pay for services;

(6) Safeguards for the health and welfare of medicaid recipients receiving services under a medicaid waiver component;

(7) Procedures for both of the following:
   (a) Identifying individuals who meet all of the following requirements:
      (i) Are eligible for a home and community-based services medicaid waiver component and on a waiting list for the component;
      (ii) Are receiving inpatient hospital services or residing in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded or nursing facility (as appropriate for the component);
      (iii) Choose to be enrolled in the component.
   (b) Approving the enrollment of individuals identified under the procedures established under division (B)(7)(a) of this section into the home and community-based services medicaid waiver component.

(8) Procedures for enforcing the rules, including establishing corrective action plans for, and imposing financial and administrative sanctions on, persons and government entities that violate the rules. Sanctions shall include terminating medicaid provider agreements. The procedures shall include due process protections.

(8)(9) Other policies necessary for the efficient administration of the medicaid waiver components.

(C) The director of job and family services may adopt different rules for the different medicaid waiver components. The rules shall be consistent with the terms of the waiver authorizing the medicaid waiver component.

(D) Any procedures established under division (B)(7) of this section for the PASSPORT program shall be consistent with section 173.401 of the Revised Code. Any procedures established under division (B)(7) of this section for the assisted living program shall be consistent with section 5111.894 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.851. (A) As used in sections 5111.851 to 5111.855 of the Revised Code:

"Administrative agency" means, with respect to a home and community-based services medicaid waiver component, the department of job and family services or, if a state agency or political subdivision contracts with the department under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code to administer the component, that state agency or political subdivision.

"Home and community-based services medicaid waiver component" means a medicaid waiver component under which home and community-based services are provided as an alternative to hospital, nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded services.

"Hospital" has the same meaning as in section 3727.01 of the Revised Code.

"Intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

"Level of care determination" means a determination of whether an individual needs the level of care provided by a hospital, nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded and whether the individual, if determined to need that level of care, would receive hospital, nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded services if not for a home and community-based services medicaid waiver component.

"Medicaid buy-in for workers with disabilities program" means the component of the medicaid program established under sections 5111.70 to 5111.7011 of the Revised Code.

"Nursing facility" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

(B) The following requirements apply to each home and community-based services medicaid waiver component:

(1) Only an individual who qualifies for a component shall receive that component's services.

(2) A level of care determination shall be made as part of the process of determining whether an individual qualifies for a component and shall be made each year after the initial determination if, during such a subsequent year, the administrative agency determines there is a reasonable indication that the individual's needs have changed.

(3) A written plan of care or individual service plan based on an individual assessment of the services that an individual needs to avoid needing admission to a hospital, nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded shall be created for each individual determined eligible for a component.

(4) Each individual determined eligible for a component shall receive that component's services in accordance with the individual's level of care determination and written plan of care or individual service plan.

(5) No individual may receive services under a component while the individual is a hospital inpatient or resident of a skilled nursing facility, nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(6) No individual may receive prevocational, educational, or supported employment services under a component if the individual is eligible for such services that are funded with federal funds provided under 29 U.S.C. 730 or the "Individuals with Disabilities Education Act," 111 Stat. 37 (1997), 20 U.S.C. 1400, as amended.

(7) Safeguards shall be taken to protect the health and welfare of individuals receiving services under a component, including safeguards established in rules adopted under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code and safeguards established by licensing and certification requirements that are applicable to the providers of that component's services.

(8) No services may be provided under a component by a provider that is subject to standards that 42 U.S.C. 1382e(e)(1) requires be established if the provider fails to comply with the standards applicable to the provider.

(9) Individuals determined to be eligible for a component, or such individuals' representatives, shall be informed of that component's services, including any choices that the individual or representative may make regarding the component's services, and given the choice of either receiving services under that component or, as appropriate, hospital, nursing facility, or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded services.

(10) No individual shall lose eligibility for services under a component, or have the services reduced or otherwise disrupted, on the basis that the individual also receives services under the medicaid buy-in for workers with disabilities program.

(11) No individual shall lose eligibility for services under a component, or have the services reduced or otherwise disrupted, on the basis that the individual's income or resources increase to an amount above the eligibility limit for the component if the individual is participating in the medicaid buy-in for workers with disabilities program and the amount of the individual's income or resources does not exceed the eligibility limit for the medicaid buy-in for workers with disabilities program.

(12) No individual receiving services under a component shall be required to pay any cost sharing expenses for the services for any period during which the individual also participates in the medicaid buy-in for workers with disabilities program.

Sec. 5111.861. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Assisted living program" means the medicaid waiver component created under section 5111.89 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Choices program" means the medicaid waiver component created under section 173.403 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Medicaid waiver component" has the same meaning as in section 5111.85 of the Revised Code.

(4) "PASSPORT program" means the medicaid waiver component created under section 173.40 of the Revised Code.

(B) The director of job and family services shall submit a request to the United States secretary of health and human services pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1396n to obtain a federal medicaid waiver that consolidates the following medicaid waiver components into one medicaid waiver component:

(1) The assisted living program;
(2) The choices program;
(3) The PASSPORT program.

(C) In seeking a consolidated federal medicaid waiver under this section, the director of job and family services shall work with the director of aging and provide for the waiver to do all of the following:

(1) For the part of the waiver that concerns the assisted living program, include the provisions that sections 5111.89 to 5111.894 of the Revised Code establish for the assisted living program;
(2) For the part of the waiver that concerns the choices program, include the provisions that section 173.403 of the Revised Code establish for the choices program;
(3) For the part of the waiver that concerns the PASSPORT program, include the provisions that sections 173.40 to 173.402 of the Revised Code establish for the PASSPORT program;
(4) For each part of the waiver, including the part that concerns the choices program, be available statewide.

(D) If the United States secretary approves the consolidated federal medicaid waiver sought under this section, all of the following shall apply:

(1) The department of job and family services shall enter into a contract with the department of aging under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code for the department of aging to administer the consolidated federal medicaid waiver, except that the department of job and family services, rather than the department of aging, shall administer the part of the waiver that concerns the assisted living program if the director of budget and management does not approve the contract;
(2) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code to authorize the director of aging to adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are needed to implement the consolidated federal medicaid waiver, except that the director of job and family services shall adopt rules under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code that are needed to implement the part of the waiver that concerns the assisted living program if the director of budget and management does not approve the contract the departments of job and family services and aging enter into under division (D)(1) of this section;
(3) Any statutory reference to the assisted living program shall mean the part of the consolidated federal medicaid waiver that concerns the assisted living program;
(4) Any statutory reference to the choices program shall mean the part of the consolidated federal medicaid waiver that concerns the choices program;
(5) Any statutory references to the PASSPORT program shall mean the part of the consolidated federal medicaid waiver that concerns the PASSPORT program.
Sec. 5111.874. (A) As used in sections 5111.874 to 5111.8710 of the Revised Code:
"Home and community-based services" has the same meaning as in section 5123.01 of the Revised Code.
"ICF/MR services" means intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded services covered by the medicaid program that an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded provides to a resident of the facility who is a medicaid recipient eligible for medicaid-covered intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded services.
"Intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" means an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded that is certified as in compliance with applicable standards for the medicaid program by the director of health in accordance with Title XIX of the "Social Security Act," 79 Stat. 286 (1965), 42 U.S.C. 1396, as amended, and licensed as a residential facility under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code.
"Residential facility" has the same meaning as in section 5123.19 of the Revised Code.
(B) For the purpose of increasing the number of slots available for home and community-based services and subject to sections 5111.877 and 5111.878 of the Revised Code, the operator of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded may convert all of the beds in the facility from providing ICF/MR services to providing home and community-based services if all of the following requirements are met:
(1) The operator provides the directors of health, job and family services, and mental retardation and developmental disabilities at least ninety days' notice of the operator's intent to relinquish the facility's certification as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded and to begin providing home and community-based services.

(2) The operator complies with the requirements of sections 5111.65 to 5111.688 5111.689 of the Revised Code regarding a voluntary termination as defined in section 5111.65 of the Revised Code if those requirements are applicable.

(3) The operator notifies each of the facility's residents that the facility is to cease providing ICF/MR services and inform each resident that the resident may do either of the following:

(a) Continue to receive ICF/MR services by transferring to another facility that is an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded willing and able to accept the resident if the resident continues to qualify for ICF/MR services;

(b) Begin to receive home and community-based services instead of ICF/MR services from any provider of home and community-based services that is willing and able to provide the services to the resident if the resident is eligible for the services and a slot for the services is available to the resident.

(4) The operator meets the requirements for providing home and community-based services, including the following:

(a) Such requirements applicable to a residential facility if the operator maintains the facility's license as a residential facility;

(b) Such requirements applicable to a facility that is not licensed as a residential facility if the operator surrenders the facility's residential facility license under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code.

(5) The director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities approves the conversion.

(C) The notice to the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities under division (B)(1) of this section shall specify whether the operator wishes to surrender the facility's license as a residential facility under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code.

(D) If the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities approves a conversion under division (B) of this section, the director of health shall terminate the certification of the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded to be converted. The director of health shall notify the director of job and family services of the termination. On receipt of the director of health's notice, the director of job and family services shall terminate the operator's medicaid provider agreement that authorizes the operator to provide ICF/MR services at the facility. The operator is not entitled to notice or a hearing under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code before the director of job and family services terminates the medicaid provider agreement.

Sec. 5111.875. (A) For the purpose of increasing the number of slots available for home and community-based services and subject to sections 5111.877 and 5111.878 of the Revised Code, a person who acquires, through a request for proposals issued by the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, a residential facility that is an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded and for which the license as a residential facility was previously surrendered or revoked may convert some or all of the facility's beds from providing ICF/MR services to providing home and community-based services if all of the following requirements are met:

1. The person provides the directors of health, job and family services, and mental retardation and developmental disabilities at least ninety days' notice of the person's intent to make the conversion.

2. The person complies with the requirements of sections 5111.65 to 5111.689 of the Revised Code regarding a voluntary termination as defined in section 5111.65 of the Revised Code if those requirements are applicable.

3. If the person intends to convert all of the facility's beds, the person notifies each of the facility's residents that the facility is to cease providing ICF/MR services and informs each resident that the resident may do either of the following:
   a. Continue to receive ICF/MR services by transferring to another facility that is an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded willing and able to accept the resident if the resident continues to qualify for ICF/MR services;
   b. Begin to receive home and community-based services instead of ICF/MR services from any provider of home and community-based services that is willing and able to provide the services to the resident if the resident is eligible for the services and a slot for the services is available to the resident.

4. If the person intends to convert some but not all of the facility's beds, the person notifies each of the facility's residents that the facility is to convert some of its beds from providing ICF/MR services to providing home and community-based services and inform each resident that the resident may do either of the following:
   a. Continue to receive ICF/MR services from any provider of ICF/MR services that is willing and able to provide the services to the resident if the resident continues to qualify for ICF/MR services;
   b. Begin to receive home and community-based services instead of ICF/MR services from any provider of home and community-based services that is willing and able to provide the services to the resident if the resident is eligible for the services and a slot for the services is available to the resident.

(5) The person meets the requirements for providing home and community-based services at a residential facility.

(B) The notice provided to the directors under division (A)(1) of this section shall specify whether some or all of the facility's beds are to be converted. If some but not all of the beds are to be converted, the notice shall specify how many of the facility's beds are to be converted and how many of the beds are to continue to provide ICF/MR services.

(C) On receipt of a notice under division (A)(1) of this section, the director of health shall do the following:

(1) Terminate the certification of the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded if the notice specifies that all of the facility's beds are to be converted;

(2) Reduce the facility's certified capacity by the number of beds being converted if the notice specifies that some but not all of the beds are to be converted.

(D) The director of health shall notify the director of job and family services of the termination or reduction under division (C) of this section. On receipt of the director of health's notice, the director of job and family services shall do the following:

(1) Terminate the person's medicaid provider agreement that authorizes the person to provide ICF/MR services at the facility if the facility's certification was terminated;

(2) Amend the person's medicaid provider agreement to reflect the facility's reduced certified capacity if the facility's certified capacity is reduced.

The person is not entitled to notice or a hearing under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code before the director of job and family services terminates or amends the medicaid provider agreement.

Sec. 5111.88. (A) As used in sections 5111.88 to 5111.8811 of the Revised Code:

(1) "Adult" means an individual at least eighteen years of age.

(2) "Authorized representative" means the following:

(a) In the case of a consumer who is a minor, the consumer's parent, custodian, or guardian;

(b) In the case of a consumer who is an adult, an individual selected by the consumer pursuant to section 5111.8810 of the Revised Code to act on the consumer's behalf for purposes regarding home care attendant services.

(3) "Authorizing health care professional" means a health care professional who, pursuant to section 5111.887 of the Revised Code, authorizes a home care attendant to assist a consumer with self-administration of medication, nursing tasks, or both.

(4) "Consumer" means an individual to whom all of the following apply:
   (a) The individual is enrolled in a participating medicaid waiver component.
   (b) The individual has a medically determinable physical impairment to which both of the following apply:
      (i) It is expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve months.

      (c) It requires the individual to demonstrate successfully that the individual has learned the first aid taught in the course.

(3) That the individual meets any other requirements for the medicaid provider agreement specified in rules adopted under section 5111.8811 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.882. A home care attendant shall complete not less than twelve hours of in-service continuing education regarding home care attendant services each year and provide the director of job and family services evidence satisfactory to the director that the attendant satisfied this requirement. The evidence shall be submitted to the director not later than the annual anniversary of the issuance of the home care attendant's initial medicaid provider agreement.

Sec. 5111.883. A home care attendant shall do all of the following:

(A) Maintain a clinical record for each consumer to whom the attendant provides home care attendant services in a manner that protects the consumer's privacy;
(B) Participate in a face-to-face visit every ninety days with all of the following to monitor the health and welfare of each of the consumers to whom the attendant provides home care attendant services:

1. The consumer;
2. The consumer's authorized representative, if any;
3. A registered nurse who agrees to answer any questions that the attendant, consumer, or authorized representative has about consumer care needs, medications, and other issues.

(C) Document the activities of each visit required by division (B) of this section in the consumer's clinical record with the assistance of the registered nurse.

Sec. 5111.884. (A) A home care attendant may assist a consumer with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication only after the attendant does both of the following:

1. Subject to division (B) of this section, completes consumer-specific training in how to provide the assistance that the authorizing health care professional authorizes the attendant to provide to the consumer;
2. At the request of the consumer, consumer's authorized representative, or authorizing health care professional, successfully demonstrates that the attendant has learned how to provide the authorized assistance to the consumer.

(B) The training required by division (A)(1) of this section shall be provided by either of the following:

1. The authorizing health care professional;
2. The consumer or consumer's authorized representative in cooperation with the authorizing health care professional.

Sec. 5111.885. A home care attendant shall comply with both of the following when assisting a consumer with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication:

(A) The written consent of the consumer or consumer's authorized representative provided to the director of job and family services under section 5111.886 of the Revised Code;

(B) The authorizing health care professional's written authorization provided to the director under section 5111.887 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.886. To consent to a home care attendant assisting a consumer with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication, the consumer or consumer's authorized representative shall provide the director of job and family services a written statement signed by the consumer or authorized representative under which the consumer or authorized representative consents to both of the following:
(A) Having the attendant assist the consumer with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication;

(B) Assuming responsibility for directing the attendant when the attendant assists the consumer with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication.

Sec. 5111.887. To authorize a home care attendant to assist a consumer with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication, a health care professional shall provide the director of job and family services a written statement signed by the health care professional that includes all of the following:

(A) The consumer's name and address;

(B) A description of the nursing tasks or self-administration of medication with which the attendant is to assist the consumer, including, in the case of assistance with self-administration of medication, the name and dosage of the medication;

(C) The times or intervals when the attendant is to assist the consumer with the self-administration of each dosage of the medication or nursing tasks;

(D) The dates the attendant is to begin and cease providing the assistance;

(E) A list of severe adverse reactions the attendant must report to the health care professional should the consumer experience one or more of the reactions;

(F) At least one telephone number at which the attendant can reach the health care professional in an emergency;

(G) Instructions the attendant is to follow when assisting the consumer with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication, including instructions for maintaining sterile conditions and for storage of task-related equipment and supplies;

(H) The health care professional's attestation of both of the following:

(1) That the consumer or consumer's authorized representative has demonstrated to the health care professional the ability to direct the attendant;

(2) That the attendant has demonstrated to the health care professional the ability to provide the consumer assistance with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication that the health care professional has specifically authorized the attendant to provide and that the consumer or consumer's authorized representative has indicated to the health care professional that the consumer or authorized representative is satisfied with the attendant's demonstration.
Sec. 5111.888. When authorizing a home care attendant to assist a consumer with nursing tasks or self-administration of medication a health care professional may not authorize a home care attendant to do any of the following:

(A) Perform a task that is outside of the health care professional's scope of practice;

(B) Assist the consumer with the self-administration of a medication, including a schedule II, schedule III, schedule IV, or schedule V drug unless both of the following apply:

(1) The medication is administered orally, topically, or via a gastrostomy tube or jejunostomy tube, including through any of the following:

(a) In the case of an oral medication, a metered dose inhaler;

(b) In the case of a topical medication, including a transdermal medication, either of the following:

(i) An eye, ear, or nose drop or spray;

(ii) A vaginal or rectal suppository.

(c) In the case of a gastrostomy tube or jejunostomy tube, only through a pre-programmed pump.

(2) The medication is in its original container and the label attached to the container displays all of the following:

(a) The consumer's full name in print;

(b) The medication's dispensing date, which must not be more than twelve months before the date the attendant assists the consumer with self-administration of the medication;

(c) The exact dosage and means of administration that match the health care professional's authorization to the attendant.

(C) Assist the consumer with the self-administration of a schedule II, schedule III, schedule IV, or schedule V medication unless, in addition to meeting the requirements of division (B) of this section, all of the following apply:

(1) The medication has a warning label on its container.

(2) The attendant counts the medication in the consumer's or authorized representative's presence when the medication is administered to the consumer and records the count on a form used for the count as specified in rules adopted under section 5111.8811 of the Revised Code.

(3) The attendant recounts the medication in the consumer's or authorized representative's presence at least monthly and reconciles the recount on a log located in the consumer's clinical record.

(4) The medication is stored separately from all other medications and is secured and locked at all times when not being administered to the consumer to prevent unauthorized access.

(D) Perform an intramuscular injection;

(E) Perform a subcutaneous injection unless it is for a routine dose of insulin;

(F) Program a pump used to deliver a medication unless the pump is used to deliver a routine dose of insulin;

(G) Insert, remove, or discontinue an intravenous access device;

(H) Engage in intravenous medication administration;

(I) Insert or initiate an infusion therapy;

(J) Perform a central line dressing change.

Sec. 5111.889. A home care attendant who provides home care attendant services to a consumer in accordance with the authorizing health care professional's authorization does not engage in the practice of nursing as a registered nurse or in the practice of nursing as a licensed practical nurse in violation of section 4723.03 of the Revised Code.

A consumer or the consumer's authorized representative shall report to the director of job and family services if a home care attendant engages in the practice of nursing as a registered nurse or the practice of nursing as a licensed practical nurse beyond the authorizing health care professional's authorization. The director shall forward a copy of each report to the board of nursing.

Sec. 5111.8810. A consumer who is an adult may select an individual to act on the consumer's behalf for purposes regarding home care attendant services by submitting a written notice of the consumer's selection of an authorized representative to the director of job and family services. The notice shall specifically identify the individual the consumer selects as authorized representative and may limit what the authorized representative may do on the consumer's behalf regarding home care attendant services. A consumer may not select the consumer's home care attendant to be the consumer's authorized representative.

Sec. 5111.8811. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code as necessary for the implementation of sections 5111.88 to 5111.8810 of the Revised Code. The rules shall be consistent with federal and state law.

Sec. 5111.89. (A) As used in sections 5111.89 to 5111.894 of the Revised Code:

"Area agency on aging" has the same meaning as in section 173.14 of the Revised Code.

"Medicaid waiver component" has the same meaning as in section 5111.85 of the Revised Code.

"Nursing facility" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

"Residential care facility" has the same meaning as in section 3721.01 of the Revised Code.

"State administrative agency" means the department of job and family services if the department of job and family services administers the assisted living program or the department of aging if the department of aging administers the assisted living program.

(B) The director of job and family services may submit a request to the United States secretary of health and human services under 42 U.S.C. 1396n to obtain a waiver of federal medicaid requirements that would otherwise be violated in the creation and implementation of a program under which there is hereby created the assisted living program. The program shall provide assisted living services are provided to not more than one thousand eight hundred individuals who meet the program's eligibility requirements established under section 5111.891 of the Revised Code. The program may not serve more individuals than the number that is set by the United States secretary of health and human services when the medicaid waiver authorizing the program is approved. The program shall be operated as a separate medicaid waiver component until the United States secretary approves the consolidated federal medicaid waiver sought under section 5111.861 of the Revised Code. The program shall be part of the consolidated federal medicaid waiver sought under that section if the United

If the secretary approves the medicaid waiver requested under this section and the director of budget and management approves the contract, the department of job and family services shall enter into a contract with the department of aging under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code that provides for the department of aging to administer the assisted living program. The contract shall include an estimate of the program's costs.

The director of job and family services may adopt rules under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code regarding the assisted living program. The director of aging may adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code regarding the program that the rules adopted by the director of job and family services authorize the director of aging to adopt.

Sec. 5111.891. To be eligible for the assisted living program, an individual must meet all of the following requirements:

(A) Need an intermediate level of care as determined under rule 5101:3-3-06 of the Administrative Code;

(B) At the time the individual applies for the assisted living program, be one of the following:

(1) A nursing facility resident who is seeking to move to a residential care facility and would remain in a nursing facility for long term care if not for the assisted living program;

(2) A participant of any of the following medicaid waiver components who would move to a nursing facility if not for the assisted living program:

(a) The PASSPORT program created under section 173.40 of the Revised Code;

(b) The medicaid waiver component called the choices program that the department of aging administers created under section 173.403 of the Revised Code;

(c) A medicaid waiver component that the department of job and family services administers.

(3) A resident of a residential care facility who has resided in a residential care facility for at least six months immediately before the date the individual applies for the assisted living program.

(C) At the time the individual receives assisted living services under the assisted living program, reside in a residential care facility that is authorized by a valid medicaid provider agreement to participate in the assisted living program, including both of the following:

(1) A residential care facility that is owned or operated by a metropolitan housing authority that has a contract with the United States department of housing and urban development to receive an operating subsidy or rental assistance for the residents of the facility;

(2) A county or district home licensed as a residential care facility.

(D) Meet all other eligibility requirements for the assisted living program established in rules adopted under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5111.894. The state administrative agency may establish one or more waiting lists for the assisted living program. Only individuals eligible for the medicaid program may be placed on a waiting list.

Each month, each area agency on aging shall determine whether any individual who resides in the area that the area agency on aging serves and is on a waiting list for the assisted living program has been admitted to a nursing facility. If an area agency on aging determines that such an individual has been admitted to a nursing facility and that there is a vacancy in a residential care facility participating in the assisted living program that is acceptable to the individual, the agency shall notify the long-term care consultation program administrator serving the area in which the individual resides about the determination. The administrator shall determine whether the assisted living program is appropriate for the individual and whether the individual would rather participate in the assisted living program than continue residing in the nursing facility. If the administrator determines that the assisted living program is appropriate for the individual and the individual would rather participate in the assisted living program than continue residing in the nursing facility, the administrator shall so notify the state administrative agency.

On receipt of the notice from the administrator, the state administrative agency shall approve the individual's enrollment in the assisted living program regardless of any waiting list for the assisted living program, unless the enrollment would cause the assisted living program to exceed the any limit on the number of individuals who may participate in the program as set by section 5111.89 of the Revised Code the United States secretary of health and human services when the medicaid waiver authorizing the program is approved. Each quarter, the state administrative agency shall certify to the director of budget and management the estimated increase in costs of the assisted living program resulting from enrollment of individuals in the assisted living program pursuant to this section.

Not later than the last day of each calendar year, the director of job and family services shall submit to the general assembly a report regarding the number of individuals enrolled in the assisted living program pursuant to this section and the costs incurred and savings achieved as a result of the enrollments.
Sec. 5111.971. (A) As used in this section, "long-term care medicaid waiver component" means any of the following:

(1) The PASSPORT program created under section 173.40 of the Revised Code;

(2) The medicaid waiver component called the choices program that the department of aging administers created under section 173.403 of the Revised Code;

(3) A medicaid waiver component that the department of job and family services administers.

(B) The director of job and family services shall submit a request to the United States secretary of health and human services for a waiver of federal medicaid requirements that would be otherwise violated in the creation of a pilot program under which not more than two hundred individuals who meet the pilot program's eligibility requirements specified in division (D) of this section receive a spending authorization to pay for the cost of medically necessary home and community-based services that the pilot program covers. The spending authorization shall be in an amount not exceeding seventy per cent of the average cost under the medicaid program for providing nursing facility services to an individual. An individual participating in the pilot program shall also receive necessary support services, including fiscal intermediary and other case management services, that the pilot program covers.

(C) If the United States secretary of health and human services approves the waiver submitted under division (B) of this section, the department of job and family services shall enter into a contract with the department of aging under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code that provides for the department of aging to administer the pilot program that the waiver authorizes.

(D) To be eligible to participate in the pilot program created under division (B) of this section, an individual must meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Need an intermediate level of care as determined under rule 5101:3-3-06 of the Administrative Code or a skilled level of care as determined under rule 5101:3-3-05 of the Administrative Code;

(2) At the time the individual applies to participate in the pilot program, be one of the following:
   (a) A nursing facility resident who would remain in a nursing facility if not for the pilot program;
   (b) A participant of any long-term care medicaid waiver component who would move to a nursing facility if not for the pilot program.
(3) Meet all other eligibility requirements for the pilot program established in rules adopted under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code.

(E) The director of job and family services may adopt rules under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code as the director considers necessary to implement the pilot program created under division (B) of this section. The director of aging may adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code as the director considers necessary for the pilot program's implementation. The rules may establish a list of medicaid-covered services not covered by the pilot program that an individual participating in the pilot program may not receive if the individual also receives medicaid-covered services outside of the pilot program.

Sec. 5112.03. (A) The director of job and family services shall adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for the purpose of administering sections 5112.01 to 5112.21 of the Revised Code, including rules that do all of the following:

(1) Define as a "disproportionate share hospital" any hospital included under subsection (b) of section 1923 of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 1396r-4(b), as amended, and any other hospital the director determines appropriate;

(2) Prescribe the form for submission of cost reports under section 5112.04 of the Revised Code;

(3) Establish, in accordance with division (A) of section 5112.06 of the Revised Code, the assessment rate or rates to be applied to hospitals under that section;

(4) Establish schedules for hospitals to pay installments on their assessments under section 5112.06 of the Revised Code and for governmental hospitals to pay installments on their intergovernmental transfers under section 5112.07 of the Revised Code;

(5) Establish procedures to notify hospitals of adjustments made under division (B)(2)(b) of section 5112.06 of the Revised Code in the amount of installments on their assessment;

(6) Establish procedures to notify hospitals of adjustments made under division (D) of section 5112.09 of the Revised Code in the total amount of their assessment and to adjust for the remainder of the program year the amount of the installments on the assessments;

(7) Establish, in accordance with section 5112.08 of the Revised Code, the methodology for paying hospitals under that section.

The director shall consult with hospitals when adopting the rules required by divisions (A)(4) and (5) of this section in order to minimize hospitals' cash flow difficulties.
(B) Rules adopted under this section may provide that "total facility costs" excludes costs associated with any of the following:

1. Recipients of the medical assistance program;
2. Recipients of financial assistance provided under Chapter 5115. of the Revised Code;
3. Recipients of medical assistance provided under Chapter 5115. of the Revised Code;
4. Recipients of the program for medically handicapped children established under section 3701.023 of the Revised Code;
6. Recipients of Title V of the "Social Security Act";
7. Any other category of costs deemed appropriate by the director in accordance with Title XIX of the "Social Security Act" and the rules adopted under that title.

Sec. 5112.08. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules under section 5112.03 of the Revised Code establishing a methodology to pay hospitals that is sufficient to expend all money in the indigent care pool. Under the rules:

(A) The department of job and family services may classify similar hospitals into groups and allocate funds for distribution within each group.

(B) The department shall establish a method of allocating funds to hospitals, taking into consideration the relative amount of indigent care provided by each hospital or group of hospitals. The amount to be allocated shall be based on any combination of the following indicators of indigent care that the director considers appropriate:

1. Total costs, volume, or proportion of services to recipients of the medical assistance program, including recipients enrolled in health insuring corporations;
2. Total costs, volume, or proportion of services to low-income patients in addition to recipients of the medical assistance program, which may include recipients of Title V of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, and recipients of financial or medical assistance provided under Chapter 5115. of the Revised Code;
3. The amount of uncompensated care provided by the hospital or group of hospitals;
4. Other factors that the director considers to be appropriate indicators of indigent care.

(C) The department shall distribute funds to each hospital or group of hospitals in a manner that first may provide for an additional distribution to individual hospitals that provide a high proportion of indigent care in relation to the total care provided by the hospital or in relation to other hospitals. The department shall establish a formula to distribute the remainder of the funds. The formula shall be consistent with section 1923 of the "Social Security Act," 42 U.S.C.A. 1396r-4, as amended, shall be based on any combination of the indicators of indigent care listed in division (B) of this section that the director considers appropriate.

(D) The department shall distribute funds to each hospital in installments not later than ten working days after the deadline established in rules for each hospital to pay an installment on its assessment under section 5112.06 of the Revised Code. In the case of a governmental hospital that makes intergovernmental transfers, the department shall pay an installment under this section not later than ten working days after the earlier of that deadline or the deadline established in rules for the governmental hospital to pay an installment on its intergovernmental transfer. If the amount in the hospital care assurance program fund created under section 5112.18 of the Revised Code and the portion of the health care - federal fund created under section 5111.943 of the Revised Code that is credited to that fund pursuant to division (B) of section 5112.18 of the Revised Code are insufficient to make the total distributions for which hospitals are eligible to receive in any period, the department shall reduce the amount of each distribution by the percentage by which the amount and portion are insufficient. The department shall distribute to hospitals any amounts not distributed in the period in which they are due as soon as moneys are available in the funds.

Sec. 5112.17. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Federal poverty guideline" means the official poverty guideline as revised annually by the United States secretary of health and human services in accordance with section 673 of the "Community Service Block Grant Act," 95 Stat. 511 (1981), 42 U.S.C.A. 9902, as amended, for a family size equal to the size of the family of the person whose income is being determined.

(2) "Third-party payer" means any private or public entity or program that may be liable by law or contract to make payment to or on behalf of an individual for health care services. "Third-party payer" does not include a hospital.

(B) Each hospital that receives funds distributed under sections 5112.01 to 5112.21 of the Revised Code shall provide, without charge to the individual, basic, medically necessary hospital-level services to individuals who are residents of this state, are not recipients of the medical assistance program, and whose income is at or below the federal poverty guideline. Recipients of disability financial assistance and recipients of disability medical assistance provided under Chapter 5115. of the Revised Code qualify for services under this section. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules under section 5112.03 of the Revised Code specifying the hospital services to be provided under this section.

(C) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a hospital from requiring an individual to apply for eligibility under the medical assistance program before the hospital processes an application under this section. Hospitals may bill any third-party payer for services rendered under this section. Hospitals may bill the medical assistance program, in accordance with Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code and the rules adopted under that chapter, for services rendered under this section if the individual becomes a recipient of the program. Hospitals may bill individuals for services under this section if all of the following apply:

1. The hospital has an established post-billing procedure for determining the individual's income and canceling the charges if the individual is found to qualify for services under this section.
2. The initial bill, and at least the first follow-up bill, is accompanied by a written statement that does all of the following:
   a. Explains that individuals with income at or below the federal poverty guideline are eligible for services without charge;
   b. Specifies the federal poverty guideline for individuals and families of various sizes at the time the bill is sent;
   c. Describes the procedure required by division (C)(1) of this section.
3. The hospital complies with any additional rules the department adopts under section 5112.03 of the Revised Code.

Notwithstanding division (B) of this section, a hospital providing care to an individual under this section is subrogated to the rights of any individual to receive compensation or benefits from any person or governmental entity for the hospital goods and services rendered.

(D) Each hospital shall collect and report to the department, in the form and manner prescribed by the department, information on the number and identity of patients served pursuant to this section.

(E) This section applies beginning May 22, 1992, regardless of whether the department has adopted rules specifying the services to be provided. Nothing in this section alters the scope or limits the obligation of any governmental entity or program, including the program awarding reparations to victims of crime under sections 2743.51 to 2743.72 of the Revised Code and the program for medically handicapped children.
established under section 3701.023 of the Revised Code, to pay for hospital services in accordance with state or local law.

Sec. 5112.30. As used in sections 5112.30 to 5112.39 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Franchise permit fee rate" means the following:

1) Until August 1, 2009, eleven dollars and ninety-eight cents;

2) For the period beginning August 1, 2009, and ending June 30, 2010, fourteen dollars and seventy-five cents;

3) For fiscal year 2011, thirteen dollars and fifty-five cents;

4) For fiscal year 2012 and each fiscal year thereafter, the rate used for the immediately preceding fiscal year as adjusted in accordance with the composite inflation factor established in rules adopted under section 5112.39 of the Revised Code.

(B) "Intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code, except that, until August 1, 2009, it does not include any such facility operated by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities.

(C) "Medicaid" has the same meaning as in section 5111.01 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5112.31. The department of job and family services shall do all of the following:

(A) Subject to division (B) of this section and for the purposes specified in sections 5112.37 and 5112.371 of the Revised Code, annually assess for each fiscal year each intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded a franchise permit fee equal to eleven dollars and ninety-eight cents multiplied by the product of the following:

1) The number of beds certified under Title XIX of the "Social Security Act" on the first day of May of the calendar year in which the assessment is determined pursuant to division (A) of section 5112.33 of the Revised Code;

2) The following number of days:

(a) For fiscal year 2010, the following:

(i) For the part of fiscal year 2010 during which the franchise permit fee rate is eleven dollars and ninety-eight cents, the number of days during fiscal year 2010 during which the franchise permit fee rate is that amount;

(ii) For the part of fiscal year 2010 during which the franchise permit fee rate is fourteen dollars and seventy-five cents, the number of days during fiscal year 2010 during which the franchise permit fee is that amount;

(iii) For fiscal year 2011 and each fiscal year thereafter, the number of days in the fiscal year beginning on the first day of July of the same calendar year.
(B) Beginning July 1, 2009, and the first day of each July thereafter, adjust fees determined under division (A) of this section in accordance with the composite inflation factor established in rules adopted under section 5112.39 of the Revised Code. If the total amount of the franchise permit fee assessed under division (A) of this section for a fiscal year exceeds five and one-half per cent of the actual net patient revenue for all intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded for that fiscal year, do both of the following:

(1) Recalculate the assessments under division (A) of this section using a per bed per day rate equal to five and one-half per cent of actual net patient revenue for all intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded for that fiscal year;

(2) Refund the difference between the amount of the franchise permit fee assessed for that fiscal year under division (A) of this section and the amount recalculated under division (B)(1) of this section as a credit against the assessments imposed under division (A) of this section for the subsequent fiscal year.

(C) If the United States secretary of health and human services determines that the franchise permit fee established by sections 5112.30 to 5112.39 of the Revised Code would be an impermissible health care-related tax under section 1903(w) of the "Social Security Act," 42 U.S.C.A. 1396b(w), as amended, take all necessary actions to cease implementation of those sections in accordance with rules adopted under section 5112.39 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5112.37. There is hereby created in the state treasury the home and community-based services for the mentally retarded and developmentally disabled fund. Ninety-four Eighty-four and twenty-eight hundredths two tenths per cent of all installment payments and penalties paid by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded under sections 5112.33 and 5112.34 of the Revised Code for state fiscal year 2010 shall be deposited into the fund. Seventy-nine and twelve hundredths per cent of all installment payments and penalties paid by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded under sections 5112.33 and 5112.34 of the Revised Code for state fiscal year 2011 and thereafter shall be deposited into the fund. The department of job and family services shall distribute the money in the fund in accordance with rules adopted under section 5112.39 of the Revised Code. The departments of job and family services and mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall use the money for the medicaid program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code and home and community-based services to mentally retarded and developmentally disabled persons.

Sec. 5112.371. There is hereby created in the state treasury the department of developmental disabilities operating and services fund. Fifteen and eight tenths per cent of all installment payments and penalties paid by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded under sections 5112.33 and 5112.34 of the Revised Code for state fiscal year 2010 shall be deposited into the fund. Twenty and eighty-eight hundredths per cent of all installment payments and penalties paid by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded under sections 5112.33 and 5112.34 of the Revised Code for state fiscal year 2011 and thereafter shall be deposited into the fund. The money in the fund shall be used for the expenses of the programs that the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities administers and the department's administrative expenses.

Sec. 5112.39. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to do all of the following:

(A) Establish a composite inflation factor with which to adjust franchise permit fees under for the purpose of division (A)(4) of section 5112.30 of the Revised Code;

(B) Prescribe the actions the department will take to cease implementation of sections 5112.30 to 5112.39 of the Revised Code if the United States secretary of health and human services determines that the franchise permit fee imposed under section 5112.31 of the Revised Code is an impermissible health care-related tax under section 1903(w) of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 1396b(w), as amended;

(C) Establish the method of distributing the money in the home and community-based services for the mentally retarded and developmentally disabled fund created by section 5112.37 of the Revised Code;

(D) Establish any other requirements or procedures the director considers necessary to implement sections 5112.30 to 5112.39 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5112.40. As used in sections 5112.40 to 5112.48 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Assessment program year" means the twelve-month period beginning the first day of October of a calendar year and ending the last day of September of the following calendar year.

(B) "Cost reporting period" means the period of time used by a hospital in reporting costs for purposes of the medicare program.

(C) "Federal fiscal year" means the twelve-month period beginning the first day of October of a calendar year and ending the last day of September of the following calendar year.

(D)(1) Except as provided in division (D)(2) of this section, "hospital" means a hospital to which any of the following applies:

(a) The hospital is registered under section 3701.07 of the Revised Code as a general medical and surgical hospital or a pediatric general hospital and provides inpatient hospital services, as defined in 42 C.F.R. 440.10.

(b) The hospital is recognized under the medicare program as a cancer hospital and is exempt from the medicare prospective payment system.

(c) The hospital is a psychiatric hospital licensed under section 5119.20 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Hospital" does not include either of the following:

(a) A federal hospital;

(b) A hospital that does not charge any of its patients for its services.

(E) "Hospital care assurance program" means the program established under sections 5112.01 to 5112.21 of the Revised Code.

(F) "Medicaid" has the same meaning as in section 5111.01 of the Revised Code.

(G) "Medicare" means the program established under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(H) "State fiscal year" means the twelve-month period beginning the first day of July of a calendar year and ending the last day of June of the following calendar year.

(I)(1) Except as provided in divisions (I)(2) and (3) of this section, "total facility costs" means the total costs to a hospital for all care provided to all patients, including the direct, indirect, and overhead costs to the hospital of all services, supplies, equipment, and capital related to the care of patients, regardless of whether patients are enrolled in a health insuring corporation.

(2) "Total facility costs" excludes all of the following of a hospital's costs as shown on the cost-reporting data used for purposes of determining the hospital's assessment under section 5112.41 of the Revised Code:

(a) Skilled nursing services provided in distinct-part nursing facility units;

(b) Home health services;

(c) Hospice services;

(d) Ambulance services;

(e) Renting durable medical equipment;

(f) Selling durable medical equipment.

(3) "Total facility costs" excludes any costs excluded from a hospital's total facility costs pursuant to rules, if any, adopted under division (B) of section 5112.46 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5112.41. (A) For the purposes specified in section 5112.45 of the Revised Code and subject to section 5112.48 of the Revised Code, there is hereby imposed an assessment on all hospitals each assessment program year. The amount of a hospital's assessment for an assessment program year shall equal, except as provided in division (D) of this section, the percentage specified in division (B) of this section of the hospital's total facility costs for the period of time specified in division (C) of this section. The amount of a hospital's total facility costs shall be derived from cost-reporting data for the hospital submitted to the department of job and family services for purposes of the hospital care assurance program. The cost-reporting data used to determine a hospital's assessment is subject to the same type of adjustments made to the data under the hospital care assurance program.

(1) For the first assessment program year beginning after the effective date of this section, one and fifty-two hundredths per cent;

(2) Subject to division (D) of this section, for the second assessment program year after the effective date of this section and each successive assessment program year, one and sixty-one hundredths per cent.

(C) The period of time specified in this division is the hospital's cost reporting period that ends in the state fiscal year that ends in the federal fiscal year that precedes the federal fiscal year that precedes the assessment program year for which the assessment is imposed.

(D) The department of job and family services shall apply to the United States secretary of health and human services for a waiver under 42 U.S.C. 1396b(w)(3)(E) to establish, for the second assessment program year after the effective date of this section and each successive assessment program year, a tiered assessment on hospitals' total facility costs instead of applying the percentage specified in division (B)(2) of this section. If the United States secretary denies the waiver, the department shall apply the percentage specified in division (B)(2) of this section for the second assessment program year after the effective date of this section and each successive assessment program year.

(E) The assessment imposed by this section on a hospital is in addition to the assessment imposed by section 5112.06 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5112.42. (A) Before or during each assessment program year, the department of job and family services shall mail to each hospital by certified mail, return receipt requested, the preliminary determination of the amount that the hospital is assessed under section 5112.41 of the Revised Code for the assessment program year. Except as provided in division (B) of this section, the preliminary determination becomes the final determination for the assessment program year fifteen days after the preliminary determination is mailed to the hospital.

(B) A hospital may request that the department reconsider the preliminary determination mailed to the hospital under division (A) of this section by submitting to the department a written request for a reconsideration not later than fourteen days after the hospital's preliminary determination is mailed to the hospital. The request must be accompanied by written materials setting forth the basis for the reconsideration. On receipt of the timely request, the department shall reconsider the preliminary determination and may adjust the preliminary determination on the basis of the written materials accompanying the request. The result of the reconsideration is the final determination of the hospital's assessment under section 5112.41 of the Revised Code for the assessment program year.

(C) The department shall mail to each hospital a written notice of the final determination of its assessment for the assessment program year. A hospital may appeal the final determination to the court of common pleas of Franklin county. While a judicial appeal is pending, the hospital shall pay, in accordance with section 5112.43 of the Revised Code, any amount of its assessment that is not in dispute.

Sec. 5112.43. Unless rules adopted under section 5112.46 of the Revised Code establish a different payment schedule, each hospital shall pay the amount it is assessed under section 5112.41 of the Revised Code in accordance with the following payment schedule:

(A) Twenty-eight per cent of a hospital's assessment is due on the last business day of October of each assessment program year.

(B) Thirty-one per cent of a hospital's assessment is due on the last business day of February of each assessment program year.

(C) Forty-one per cent of a hospital's assessment is due on the last business day of May of each assessment program year.

Sec. 5112.44. The department of job and family services may audit a hospital to ensure that the hospital properly pays the amount it is assessed under section 5112.41 of the Revised Code. The department shall take action to recover from a hospital any amount the audit reveals that the hospital should have paid but did not pay.

Sec. 5112.45. There is hereby created in the state treasury the hospital assessment fund. All installment payments made by hospitals under section 5112.43 of the Revised Code and all recoveries the department of job and family services makes under section 5112.44 of the Revised Code shall be deposited into the fund. All investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the fund. The department shall use money in the fund to pay for the costs of the medicaid program, including the program's administrative costs.

Sec. 5112.46. (A) The director of job and family services may adopt, amend, and rescind rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code as necessary to implement sections 5112.40 to 5112.48 of the Revised Code.

(B) The rules adopted under this section may provide that a hospital's total facility costs for the purpose of the assessment under section 5112.41 of the Revised Code exclude any of the following:

(1) A hospital's costs associated with providing care to recipients of any of the following:

(a) The medicaid program;
(b) The medicare program;
(c) The disability financial assistance program established under Chapter 5115. of the Revised Code;
(d) The program for medically handicapped children established under section 3701.023 of the Revised Code;
(e) Services provided under the maternal and child health services block grant established under Title V of the Social Security Act.

(2) Any other category of hospital costs the director deems appropriate under federal law and regulations governing the medicaid program.

Sec. 5112.47. The director of job and family services shall implement the assessment imposed by section 5112.41 of the Revised Code in a manner that does not cause a reduction in federal financial participation for the medicaid program under 42 U.S.C. 1396b(w).

Sec. 5112.48. If the United States secretary of health and human services determines that the assessment imposed by section 5112.41 of the Revised Code is an impermissible health care-related tax under 42 U.S.C. 1396b(w), the director of job and family services shall take all necessary actions to cease implementation of sections 5112.40 to 5112.47 of the Revised Code and shall promptly refund to each hospital the amount of money in the hospital assessment fund at the time the refund is to be made that the hospital paid under section 5112.43 of the Revised Code, plus any corresponding investment earnings on that amount.

Sec. 5115.20. (A) The department of job and family services shall establish a disability advocacy program and each county department of job and family services shall establish a disability advocacy program unit or join with other county departments of job and family services to establish a joint county disability advocacy program unit. Through the program the department and county departments shall cooperate in efforts to assist applicants for and recipients of assistance under the disability financial assistance program and the disability medical assistance program, who might be eligible for supplemental security income benefits under Title XVI of the "Social Security Act," 86 Stat. 1475 (1972), 42 U.S.C.A. 1383, as amended, in applying for those benefits.

As part of their disability advocacy programs, the state department and county departments may enter into contracts for the services of persons and government entities that in the judgment of the department or county department have demonstrated expertise in representing persons seeking supplemental security income benefits. Each contract shall require the person or entity with which a department contracts to assess each person referred to it by the department to determine whether the person appears to be eligible for supplemental security income benefits, and, if the person appears to be eligible, assist the person in applying and represent the person in any proceeding of the social security administration, including any appeal or reconsideration of a denial of benefits. The department or county department shall provide to the person or entity with which it contracts all records in its possession relevant to the application for supplemental security income benefits. The department shall require a county department with relevant records to submit them to the person or entity.

(B) Each applicant for or recipient of disability financial assistance or disability medical assistance who, in the judgment of the department or a county department might be eligible for supplemental security benefits, shall, as a condition of eligibility for assistance, apply for such benefits if directed to do so by the department or county department.

(C) With regard to applicants for and recipients of disability financial assistance or disability medical assistance, each county department of job and family services shall do all of the following:

1. Identify applicants and recipients who might be eligible for supplemental security income benefits;

2. Assist applicants and recipients in securing documentation of disabling conditions or refer them for such assistance to a person or government entity with which the department or county department has contracted under division (A) of this section;

3. Inform applicants and recipients of available sources of representation, which may include a person or government entity with which the department or county department has contracted under division (A) of this section, and of their right to represent themselves in reconsiderations and appeals of social security administration decisions that deny them supplemental security income benefits. The county department may require the applicants and recipients, as a condition of eligibility for assistance, to pursue reconsiderations and appeals of social security administration decisions that deny them supplemental security income benefits, and shall assist applicants and recipients as necessary to obtain such benefits or refer them to a person or government entity with which the department or county department has contracted under division (A) of this section.

(4) Require applicants and recipients who, in the judgment of the county department, are or may be aged, blind, or disabled, to apply for medical assistance under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code, make determinations when appropriate as to eligibility for medical assistance, and refer their applications when necessary to the disability determination unit established in accordance with division (F) of this section for expedited review;

(5) Require each applicant and recipient who in the judgment of the department or the county department might be eligible for supplemental security income benefits, as a condition of eligibility for disability financial assistance or disability medical assistance, to execute a written authorization for the secretary of health and human services to withhold benefits due that individual and pay to the director of job and family services or the director's designee an amount sufficient to reimburse the state and county shares of interim assistance furnished to the individual. For the purposes of division (C)(5) of this section, "benefits" and "interim assistance" have the meanings given in Title XVI of the "Social Security Act."

(D) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code for the effective administration of the disability advocacy program. The rules shall include all of the following:

(1) Methods to be used in collecting information from and disseminating it to county departments, including the following:
   (a) The number of individuals in the county who are disabled recipients of disability financial assistance or disability medical assistance;
   (b) The final decision made either by the social security administration or by a court for each application or reconsideration in which an individual was assisted pursuant to this section.

(2) The type and process of training to be provided by the department of job and family services to the employees of the county department of job and family services who perform duties under this section;

(3) Requirements for the written authorization required by division (C)(5) of this section.

(E) The department shall provide basic and continuing training to employees of the county department of job and family services who perform duties under this section. Training shall include but not be limited to all processes necessary to obtain federal disability benefits, and methods of advocacy.

(F) The department shall establish a disability determination unit and develop guidelines for expediting reviews of applications for medical assistance under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code for persons who have been referred to the unit under division (C)(4) of this section. The department shall make determinations of eligibility for medical assistance for any such person within the time prescribed by federal regulations.

(G) The department may, under rules the director of job and family services adopts in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code, pay a portion of the federal reimbursement described in division (C)(5) of this section to persons or government entities that assist or represent assistance recipients in reconsiderations and appeals of social security administration decisions denying them supplemental security income benefits.

(H) The director shall conduct investigations to determine whether disability advocacy programs are being administered in compliance with the Revised Code and the rules adopted by the director pursuant to this section.

Sec. 5115.22. (A) If a recipient of disability financial assistance or disability medical assistance, or an individual whose income and resources are included in determining the recipient's eligibility for the assistance, becomes possessed of resources or income in excess of the amount allowed to retain eligibility, or if other changes occur that affect the recipient's eligibility or need for assistance, the recipient shall notify the state or county department of job and family services within the time limits specified in rules adopted by the director of job and family services in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code. Failure of a recipient to report possession of excess resources or income or a change affecting eligibility or need within those time limits shall be considered prima-facie evidence of intent to defraud under section 5115.23 of the Revised Code.

(B) As a condition of eligibility for disability financial assistance or disability medical assistance, and as a means of preventing or reducing the provision of assistance at public expense, each applicant for or recipient of the assistance shall make reasonable efforts to secure support from persons responsible for the applicant's or recipient's support, and from other sources, including any federal program designed to provide assistance to individuals with disabilities. The state or county department of job and family services may provide assistance to the applicant or recipient in securing other forms of financial assistance.

Sec. 5115.23. As used in this section, "erroneous payments" means disability financial assistance payments or disability medical assistance payments made to persons who are not entitled to receive them, including payments made as a result of misrepresentation or fraud, and payments made due to an error by the recipient or by the county department of job and family services that made the payment.

The department of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code specifying the circumstances under which action is to be taken under this section to recover erroneous payments. The department, or a county department of job and family services at the request of the department, shall take action to recover erroneous payments in the circumstances specified in the rules. The department or county department may institute a civil action to recover erroneous payments.

Whenever disability financial assistance or disability medical assistance has been furnished to a recipient for whose support another person is responsible, the other person shall, in addition to the liability otherwise imposed, as a consequence of failure to support the recipient, be liable for all assistance furnished the recipient. The value of the assistance so furnished may be recovered in a civil action brought by the county department of job and family services.

Each county department of job and family services shall retain fifty per cent of the erroneous payments it recovers under this section. The department of job and family services shall receive the remaining fifty per cent.

Sec. 5119.16. As used in this section, "free clinic" has the same meaning as in section 2305.2341 of the Revised Code.

(A) The department of mental health is hereby designated to may provide certain goods and services for the department of mental health, the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the department of rehabilitation and correction, the department of youth services, and other state, county, or municipal agencies requesting such goods and services when the department of mental health determines that it is in the public interest, and considers it advisable, to provide these goods and services. The department of mental health also may provide goods and services to agencies operated by the United States government and to public or private nonprofit agencies, other than free clinics, that are funded in whole or in part by the state if the public or private nonprofit agencies are designated for participation in this program by the director of mental health for community mental health agencies, the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities for community mental retardation and developmental disabilities agencies, the director of rehabilitation and correction for community rehabilitation and correction agencies, or the director of youth services for community youth services agencies.

Designated community agencies shall receive goods and services through the department of mental health only in those cases where the designating state agency certifies that providing such goods and services to the agency will conserve public resources to the benefit of the public and where the provision of such goods and services is considered feasible by the department of mental health.

(B) The department of mental health may permit free clinics to purchase certain goods and services to the extent the purchases fall within the exemption to the Robinson-Patman Act, 15 U.S.C. 13 et seq., applicable to non-profit nonprofit institutions, in 15 U.S.C. 13c, as amended.

(C) The goods and services that may be provided by the department of mental health under divisions (A) and (B) of this section may include:

1. Procurement, storage, processing, and distribution of food and professional consultation on food operations;
2. Procurement, storage, and distribution of medical and laboratory supplies, dental supplies, medical records, forms, optical supplies, and sundries, subject to section 5120.135 of the Revised Code;
3. Procurement, storage, repackaging, distribution, and dispensing of drugs, the provision of professional pharmacy consultation, and drug information services;
4. Other goods and services as may be agreed to.

(D) The department of mental health shall may provide the goods and services designated in division (C) of this section to its institutions and to state-operated community-based mental health services.

(E) After consultation with and advice from the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the director of rehabilitation and correction, and the director of youth services, the department of mental health shall may provide the goods and services designated in division (C) of this section to the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the department of rehabilitation and correction, and the department of youth services.

(F) The cost of administration of this section shall be determined by the department of mental health and paid by the agencies or free clinics receiving the goods and services to the department for deposit in the state treasury to the credit of the mental health fund, which is hereby created. The fund shall be used to pay the cost of administration of this section to the department.
(G) If the goods or services designated in division (C) of this section are not provided in a satisfactory manner by the department of mental health to the agencies described in division (A) of this section, the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the director of rehabilitation and correction, the director of youth services, or the managing officer of a department of mental health institution shall attempt to resolve unsatisfactory service with the director of mental health. If, after such attempt, the provision of goods or services continues to be unsatisfactory, the director or officer shall notify the director of mental health. If within thirty days of such notice the department of mental health does not provide the specified goods and services in a satisfactory manner, the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the director of rehabilitation and correction, the director of youth services, or the managing officer of the department of mental health institution shall notify the director of mental health of the director's or managing officer's intent to cease purchasing goods and services from the department. Following a sixty-day cancellation period from the date of such notice, the department of mental retardation, department of rehabilitation and correction, department of youth services, or the department of mental health institution may obtain the goods and services from a source other than the department of mental health, if the department certifies to the department of administrative services that the requirements of this division have been met.

(H) Whenever a state agency fails to make a payment for goods and services provided under this section within thirty-one days after the date the payment was due, the office of budget and management may transfer moneys from the state agency to the department of mental health. The amount transferred shall not exceed the amount of overdue payments. Prior to making a transfer under this division, the office of budget and management shall apply any credits the state agency has accumulated in payments for goods and services provided under this section.

(I) Purchases of goods and services under this section are not subject to section 307.86 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5119.61. Any provision in this chapter that refers to a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services also refers to the community mental health board in an alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district that has a community mental health board.

The director of mental health with respect to all facilities and programs established and operated under Chapter 340. of the Revised Code for mentally ill and emotionally disturbed persons, shall do all of the following:

(A) Adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that may be necessary to carry out the purposes of Chapter 340. and sections 5119.61 to 5119.63 of the Revised Code.

(1) The rules shall include all of the following:
   (a) Rules governing a community mental health agency's services under section 340.091 of the Revised Code to an individual referred to the agency under division (C)(2) of section 173.35 of the Revised Code;
   (b) For the purpose of division (A)(16) of section 340.03 of the Revised Code, rules governing the duties of mental health agencies and boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services under section 3722.18 of the Revised Code regarding referrals of individuals with mental illness or severe mental disability to adult care facilities and effective arrangements for ongoing mental health services for the individuals. The rules shall do at least the following:
      (i) Provide for agencies and boards to participate fully in the procedures owners and managers of adult care facilities must follow under division (A)(2) of section 3722.18 of the Revised Code;
      (ii) Specify the manner in which boards are accountable for ensuring that ongoing mental health services are effectively arranged for individuals with mental illness or severe mental disability who are referred by the board or mental health agency under contract with the board to an adult care facility.
   (c) Rules governing a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services when making a report to the director of health under section 3722.17 of the Revised Code regarding the quality of care and services provided by an adult care facility to a person with mental illness or a severe mental disability.

(2) Rules may be adopted to govern the method of paying a community mental health facility, as defined in section 5111.023 of the Revised Code, for providing services listed in division (B) of that section. Such rules must be consistent with the contract entered into between the departments of job and family services and mental health under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code and include requirements ensuring appropriate service utilization.

(B) Review and evaluate, and, taking into account the findings and recommendations of the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services of the district served by the program and the requirements and priorities of the state mental health plan, including the needs of residents of the district now residing in state mental institutions, approve and allocate funds to support community programs, and make recommendations for needed improvements to boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services;
(C) Withhold state and federal funds for any program, in whole or in part, from a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services in the event of failure of that program to comply with Chapter 340. or section 5119.61, 5119.611, 5119.612, or 5119.62 of the Revised Code or rules of the department of mental health. The director shall identify the areas of noncompliance and the action necessary to achieve compliance. The director shall offer technical assistance to the board to achieve compliance. The director shall give the board a reasonable time within which to comply or to present its position that it is in compliance. Before withholding funds, a hearing shall be conducted to determine if there are continuing violations and that either assistance is rejected or the board is unable to achieve compliance. Subsequent to the hearing process, if it is determined that compliance has not been achieved, the director may allocate all or part of the withheld funds to a public or private agency to provide the services not in compliance until the time that there is compliance. The director shall establish rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement this division.

(D) Withhold state or federal funds from a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services that denies available service on the basis of religion, race, color, creed, sex, national origin, age, disability as defined in section 4112.01 of the Revised Code, developmental disability, or the inability to pay;

(E) Provide consultative services to community mental health agencies with the knowledge and cooperation of the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services;

(F) Provide to boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services state or federal funds, in addition to those allocated under section 5119.62 of the Revised Code, for special programs or projects the director considers necessary but for which local funds are not available;

(G) Establish criteria by which a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services reviews and evaluates the quality, effectiveness, and efficiency of services provided through its community mental health plan. The criteria shall include requirements ensuring appropriate service utilization. The department shall assess a board's evaluation of services and the compliance of each board with this section, Chapter 340. or section 5119.62 of the Revised Code, and other state or federal law and regulations. The department, in cooperation with the board, periodically shall review and evaluate the quality, effectiveness, and efficiency of services provided through each board. The department shall collect information that is necessary to perform these functions.
(H) Develop and operate a community mental health information system or systems.

Boards of alcohol, drug abuse, and mental health services shall submit information requested by the department in the form and manner prescribed by the department. Information collected by the department shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

1. Information regarding units of services provided in whole or in part under contract with a board, including diagnosis and special needs, demographic information, the number of units of service provided, past treatment, financial status, and service dates in accordance with rules adopted by the department in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code;

2. Financial information other than price or price-related data regarding expenditures of boards and community mental health agencies, including units of service provided, budgeted and actual expenses by type, and sources of funds.

Boards shall submit the information specified in division (H)(1) of this section no less frequently than annually for each client, and each time the client's case is opened or closed. The department shall not collect any personal information for the purpose of identifying by name any person who receives a service through a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, from the boards except as required or permitted by state or federal law to validate appropriate reimbursement. For the purposes of division (H)(1) of this section, the department shall use an identification system that is consistent with applicable nationally recognized standards for purposes related to payment, health care operations, program and service evaluation, reporting activities, research, system administration, and oversight.

1. Review each board's community mental health plan submitted pursuant to section 340.03 of the Revised Code and approve or disapprove it in whole or in part. Periodically, in consultation with representatives of boards and after considering the recommendations of the medical director, the director shall issue criteria for determining when a plan is complete, criteria for plan approval or disapproval, and provisions for conditional approval. The factors that the director considers may include, but are not limited to, the following:

   1. The mental health needs of all persons residing within the board's service district, especially severely mentally disabled children, adolescents, and adults;

   2. The demonstrated quality, effectiveness, efficiency, and cultural relevance of the services provided in each service district, the extent to which any services are duplicative of other available services, and whether the services meet the needs identified above;

(3) The adequacy of the board's accounting for the expenditure of funds.

If the director disapproves all or part of any plan, the director shall provide the board an opportunity to present its position. The director shall inform the board of the reasons for the disapproval and of the criteria that must be met before the plan may be approved. The director shall give the board a reasonable time within which to meet the criteria, and shall offer technical assistance to the board to help it meet the criteria.

If the approval of a plan remains in dispute thirty days prior to the conclusion of the fiscal year in which the board's current plan is scheduled to expire, the board or the director may request that the dispute be submitted to a mutually agreed upon third-party mediator with the cost to be shared by the board and the department. The mediator shall issue to the board and the department recommendations for resolution of the dispute. Prior to the conclusion of the fiscal year in which the current plan is scheduled to expire, the director, taking into consideration the recommendations of the mediator, shall make a final determination and approve or disapprove the plan, in whole or in part.

Sec. 5119.613. For purposes of Chapter 3722. of the Revised Code, the director of mental health shall approve a standardized form to be used in all areas of this state by adult care facilities and boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services when entering into mental health resident program participation agreements. As part of approving the form, the director shall specify the requirements that adult care facilities must meet in order to be authorized to admit residents who are receiving or are eligible for publicly funded mental health services.

Sec. 5119.621. (A) As used in this section, "administrative function" means a function related to one or more of the following:

(1) Continuous quality improvement;
(2) Utilization review;
(3) Resource development;
(4) Fiscal administration;
(5) General administration;
(6) Any other function related to administration that is required by Chapter 340. of the Revised Code.

(B) Each board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services shall submit an annual report to the department of mental health specifying how the board used state and federal funds allocated to the board, according to the formula the director of mental health establishes under section 5119.62 of the Revised Code, for administrative functions in the year preceding the report's submission. The director of mental health shall establish the date by which the report must be submitted each year.

Sec. 5120.032. (A) No later than January 1, 1998, the department of rehabilitation and correction shall may develop and implement intensive program prisons for male and female prisoners other than prisoners described in division (B)(2) of this section. The intensive program prisons, if developed and implemented, shall include institutions at which imprisonment of the type described in division (B)(2)(a) of section 5120.031 of the Revised Code is provided and prisons that focus on educational achievement, vocational training, alcohol and other drug abuse treatment, community service and conservation work, and other intensive regimens or combinations of intensive regimens.

(B)(1)(a) Except as provided in division (B)(2) of this section, if one or more intensive program prisons are established under this section, if an offender is sentenced to a term of imprisonment under the custody of the department, if the sentencing court either recommends the prisoner for placement in an intensive program prison under this section or makes no recommendation on placement of the prisoner, and if the department determines that the prisoner is eligible for placement in an intensive program prison under this section, the department may place the prisoner in an intensive program prison established pursuant to division (A) of this section. If the sentencing court disapproves placement of the prisoner in an intensive program prison, the department shall not place the prisoner in any intensive program prison.

If the sentencing court recommends a prisoner for placement in an intensive program prison and if the department subsequently places the prisoner in the recommended prison, the department shall notify the court of the prisoner's placement in the recommended intensive program prison and shall include with the notice a brief description of the placement.

If the sentencing court recommends placement of a prisoner in an intensive program prison and the department for any reason does not subsequently place the prisoner in the recommended prison, the department shall send a notice to the court indicating why the prisoner was not placed in the recommended prison.

If the sentencing court does not make a recommendation on the placement of a prisoner in an intensive program prison and if the department determines that the prisoner is eligible for placement in a prison of that nature, the department shall screen the prisoner and determine if the prisoner is suited for the prison. If the prisoner is suited for an intensive program prison, at least three weeks prior to placing the prisoner in the prison, the department shall notify the sentencing court of the proposed placement of the prisoner in the intensive program prison and shall include with the notice a brief description of the placement. The court shall have ten days from receipt of the notice to disapprove the placement. If the sentencing court disapproves the placement, the department shall not proceed with it. If the sentencing court does not timely disapprove of the placement, the department may proceed with plans for it.

If the department determines that a prisoner is not eligible for placement in an intensive program prison, the department shall not place the prisoner in any intensive program prison.

(b) The department may reduce the stated prison term of a prisoner upon the prisoner's successful completion of a ninety-day period in an intensive program prison. A prisoner whose term has been so reduced shall be required to serve an intermediate, transitional type of detention followed by a release under post-release control sanctions or, in the alternative, shall be placed under post-release control sanctions, as described in division (B)(2)(b)(ii) of section 5120.031 of the Revised Code. In either case, the placement under post-release control sanctions shall be under terms set by the parole board in accordance with section 2967.28 of the Revised Code and shall be subject to the provisions of that section and section 2929.141 of the Revised Code with respect to a violation of any post-release control sanction.

(2) A prisoner who is in any of the following categories is not eligible to participate in an intensive program prison established pursuant to division (A) of this section:

(a) The prisoner is serving a prison term for aggravated murder, murder, or a felony of the first or second degree or a comparable offense under the law in effect prior to July 1, 1996, or the prisoner previously has been imprisoned for aggravated murder, murder, or a felony of the first or second degree or a comparable offense under the law in effect prior to July 1, 1996.

(b) The prisoner is serving a mandatory prison term, as defined in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.

(c) The prisoner is serving a prison term for a felony of the third, fourth, or fifth degree that either is a sex offense, an offense betraying public trust, or an offense in which the prisoner caused or attempted to cause actual physical harm to a person, the prisoner is serving a prison term for a comparable offense under the law in effect prior to July 1, 1996, or the prisoner previously has been imprisoned for an offense of that type or a comparable offense under the law in effect prior to July 1, 1996.

(d) The prisoner is serving a mandatory prison term in prison for a third or fourth degree felony OVI offense, as defined in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code, that was imposed pursuant to division (G)(2) of section 2929.13 of the Revised Code.

(C) Upon the implementation of intensive program prisons pursuant to division (A) of this section, the department at all times shall maintain intensive program prisons sufficient in number to reduce the prison terms of at least three hundred fifty prisoners who are eligible for reduction of their stated prison terms as a result of their completion of a regimen in an intensive program prison under this section.

Sec. 5120.033. (A) As used in this section, "third degree felony OVI offense" and "fourth degree felony OVI offense" have the same meanings as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) Within eighteen months after October 17, 1996, the department of rehabilitation and correction shall may develop and implement intensive program prisons for male and female prisoners who are sentenced pursuant to division (G)(2) of section 2929.13 of the Revised Code to a mandatory prison term for a third or fourth degree felony OVI offense. The If one or more intensive program prisons are established under this section, the department shall may contract pursuant to section 9.06 of the Revised Code for the private operation and management of the initial intensive program prison established under this section and may contract pursuant to that section for the private operation and management of any other intensive program prison established under this section. The intensive program prisons, if established under this section, shall include prisons that focus on educational achievement, vocational training, alcohol and other drug abuse treatment, community service and conservation work, and other intensive regimens or combinations of intensive regimens.

(C) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, the department may place a prisoner who is sentenced to a mandatory prison term for a third or fourth degree felony OVI offense in an intensive program prison established pursuant to division (B) of this section if the sentencing judge, upon notification by the department of its intent to place the prisoner in an intensive program prison, does not notify the department that the judge disapproves the placement. If the stated prison term imposed on a prisoner who is so placed is longer than the mandatory prison term that is required to be imposed on the prisoner, the department may reduce the stated prison term upon the prisoner's successful completion of the prisoner's mandatory prison term in an intensive program prison. A prisoner whose term has been so reduced shall be required to serve an intermediate, transitional type of detention followed by a release under post-release control sanctions or, in the alternative, shall be placed under post-release control sanctions, as described in division (B)(2)(b)(ii) of section 5120.031 of the Revised Code.
In either case, the placement under post-release control sanctions shall be under terms set by the parole board in accordance with section 2967.28 of the Revised Code and shall be subject to the provisions of that section and section 2929.141 of the Revised Code with respect to a violation of any post-release control sanction. Upon the establishment of the initial intensive program prison prisons are established pursuant to division (B) of this section that is and if as described in that division the initial intensive program prison is to be privately operated and managed by a contractor pursuant to a contract the department entered into under section 9.06 of the Revised Code, upon the establishment of that initial intensive program prison the department shall comply with divisions (G)(2)(a) and (b) of section 2929.13 of the Revised Code in placing prisoners in intensive program prisons under this section.

(D) A prisoner who is sentenced to a mandatory prison term for a third or fourth degree felony OVI offense is not eligible to participate in an intensive program prison established under division (B) of this section if any of the following applies regarding the prisoner:

(1) In addition to the mandatory prison term for the third or fourth degree felony OVI offense, the prisoner also is serving a prison term of a type described in division (B)(2)(a), (b), or (c) of section 5120.032 of the Revised Code.

(2) The prisoner previously has been imprisoned for an offense of a type described in division (B)(2)(a) or (c) of section 5120.032 of the Revised Code or a comparable offense under the law in effect prior to July 1, 1996.

(E) Intensive program prisons established under division (B) of this section are not subject to section 5120.032 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5120.09. Under the supervision and control of the director of rehabilitation and correction, the division of business administration shall do all of the following:

(A) Submit the budgets for the several divisions of the department of rehabilitation and correction, as prepared by the respective chiefs of those divisions, to the director. The director, with the assistance of the chief of the division of business administration, shall compile a departmental budget that contains all proposals submitted by the chiefs of the divisions and shall forward the departmental budget to the governor with comments and recommendations that the director considers necessary.
(B) Maintain accounts and records and compile statistics that the director prescribes;

(C) Under the control of the director, coordinate and make the necessary purchases and requisitions for the department and its divisions, except as provided under when goods and services are provided to the department as described in section 5119.16 of the Revised Code;

(D) Administer within this state federal criminal justice acts that the governor requires the department to administer. In order to improve the criminal justice system of this state, the division of business administration shall apply for, allocate, disburse, and account for grants that are made available pursuant to those federal criminal justice acts and grants that are made available from other federal government sources, state government sources, or private sources. As used in this division, "criminal justice system" and "federal criminal justice acts" have the same meanings as in section 5502.61 of the Revised Code.

(E) Audit the activities of governmental entities, persons as defined in section 1.59 of the Revised Code, and other types of nongovernmental entities that are financed in whole or in part by funds that the department allocates or disburses and that are derived from grants described in division (D) of this section;

(F) Enter into contracts, including contracts with federal, state, or local governmental entities, persons as defined in section 1.59 of the Revised Code, foundations, and other types of nongovernmental entities, that are necessary for the department to carry out its duties and that neither the director nor another section of the Revised Code authorizes another division of the department to enter;

(G) Exercise other powers and perform other duties that the director may assign to the division of business administration.

Sec. 5122.31. (A) All certificates, applications, records, and reports made for the purpose of this chapter and sections 2945.38, 2945.39, 2945.40, 2945.401, and 2945.402 of the Revised Code, other than court journal entries or court docket entries, and directly or indirectly identifying a patient or former patient or person whose hospitalization has been sought under this chapter, shall be kept confidential and shall not be disclosed by any person except:

1. If the person identified, or the person's legal guardian, if any, or if the person is a minor, the person's parent or legal guardian, consents, and if the disclosure is in the best interests of the person, as may be determined by the court for judicial records and by the chief clinical officer for medical records;
(2) When disclosure is provided for in this chapter or section 5123.60 of the Revised Code;

(3) That hospitals, boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, and community mental health agencies may release necessary medical information to insurers and other third-party payers, including government entities responsible for processing and authorizing payment, to obtain payment for goods and services furnished to the patient;

(4) Pursuant to a court order signed by a judge;

(5) That a patient shall be granted access to the patient's own psychiatric and medical records, unless access specifically is restricted in a patient's treatment plan for clear treatment reasons;

(6) That hospitals and other institutions and facilities within the department of mental health may exchange psychiatric records and other pertinent information with other hospitals, institutions, and facilities of the department, and with community mental health agencies and boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services with which the department has a current agreement for patient care or services. Records and information that may be released pursuant to this division shall be limited to medication history, physical health status and history, financial status, summary of course of treatment in the hospital, summary of treatment needs, and a discharge summary, if any.

(7) That hospitals within the department, other institutions and facilities within the department, and community mental health agencies may exchange psychiatric records and other pertinent information with other providers of treatment and health services if the purpose of the exchange is to facilitate continuity of care for a patient;

(8) That a patient's family member who is involved in the provision, planning, and monitoring of services to the patient may receive medication information, a summary of the patient's diagnosis and prognosis, and a list of the services and personnel available to assist the patient and the patient's family, if the patient's treating physician determines that the disclosure would be in the best interests of the patient. No such disclosure shall be made unless the patient is notified first and receives the information and does not object to the disclosure.

(9) That community mental health agencies may exchange psychiatric records and certain other information with the board of alcohol, drug addition, and mental health services and other agencies in order to provide services to a person involuntarily committed to a board. Release of records under this division shall be limited to medication history, physical health status and history, financial status, summary of course of treatment,
That information may be disclosed to the executor or the administrator of an estate of a deceased patient when the information is necessary to administer the estate;

That records in the possession of the Ohio historical society may be released to the closest living relative of a deceased patient upon request of that relative;

That information may be disclosed to staff members of the appropriate board or to staff members designated by the director of mental health for the purpose of evaluating the quality, effectiveness, and efficiency of services and determining if the services meet minimum standards. Information obtained during such evaluations shall not be retained with the name of any patient.

That records pertaining to the patient's diagnosis, course of treatment, treatment needs, and prognosis shall be disclosed and released to the appropriate prosecuting attorney if the patient was committed pursuant to section 2945.38, 2945.39, 2945.40, 2945.401, or 2945.402 of the Revised Code, or to the attorney designated by the board for proceedings pursuant to involuntary commitment under this chapter.

That the department of mental health may exchange psychiatric hospitalization records, other mental health treatment records, and other pertinent information with the department of rehabilitation and correction to ensure continuity of care for inmates who are receiving mental health services in an institution of the department of rehabilitation and correction. The department shall not disclose those records unless the inmate is notified, receives the information, and does not object to the disclosure. The release of records under this division is limited to records regarding an inmate's medication history, physical health status and history, summary of course of treatment, summary of treatment needs, and a discharge summary, if any.

That a community mental health agency that ceases to operate may transfer to either a community mental health agency that assumes its caseload or to the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services of the service district in which the patient resided at the time services were most recently provided any treatment records that have not been transferred elsewhere at the patient's request.

Before records are disclosed pursuant to divisions (A)(3), (6), (7), and (8) of this section, the custodian of the records shall attempt to obtain the patient's consent for the disclosure. No person shall reveal the contents of a medical record of a patient except as authorized by law.

The managing officer of a hospital who releases necessary medical information under division (A)(3) of this section to allow an insurance carrier or other third party payor to comply with section 5121.43 of the Revised Code shall neither be subject to criminal nor civil liability.

Sec. 5123.049. The director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the authorization and payment of home and community-based services and medicaid case management services. The rules shall provide for private providers of the services to receive one hundred per cent of the medicaid allowable payment amount and for government providers of the services to receive the federal share of the medicaid allowable payment, less the amount withheld as a fee under section 5123.0412 of the Revised Code and any amount that may be required by rules adopted under section 5123.0413 of the Revised Code to be deposited into the state MR/DD risk fund. The rules shall establish the process by which county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall certify and provide the nonfederal share of medicaid expenditures that the county board is required by sections 5126.059 and 5126.0510 of the Revised Code to pay. The process shall require a county board to certify that the county board has funding available at one time for two months costs for those expenditures. The process may permit a county board to certify that the county board has funding available at one time for more than two months costs for those expenditures.

Sec. 5123.0412. (A) The department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall charge each county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities an annual fee equal to one and one-half per cent of the total value of all medicaid paid claims for home and community-based services provided during the year to an individual eligible for services from the county board. No county board shall pass the cost of a fee charged to the county board under this section on to another provider of these services.

(B) The fees collected under this section shall be deposited into the ODMR/DD administration and oversight fund and the ODJFS administration and oversight fund, both of which are hereby created in the state treasury. The portion of the fees to be deposited into the ODMR/DD administration and oversight fund and the portion of the fees to be deposited into the ODJFS administration and oversight fund shall be the portion specified in an interagency agreement entered into under division (C) of this section. The department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall use the money in the ODMR/DD administration and oversight fund and the department of job and family services shall use the money in the ODJFS administration and oversight fund for both of the following purposes:

1. The Medicaid administrative costs, including administrative and oversight costs of Medicaid case management services and home and community-based services. The administrative and oversight costs of Medicaid case management services and home and community-based services shall include costs for staff, systems, and other resources the departments need and dedicate solely to the following duties associated with the services:
   (a) Eligibility determinations;
   (b) Training;
   (c) Fiscal management;
   (d) Claims processing;
   (e) Quality assurance oversight;
   (f) Other duties the departments identify.

2. Providing technical support to county boards' local administrative authority under section 5126.055 of the Revised Code for the services.

(C) The departments of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and job and family services shall enter into an interagency agreement to do both of the following:

1. Specify which portion of the fees collected under this section is to be deposited into the ODMR/DD administration and oversight fund and which portion is to be deposited into the ODJFS administration and oversight fund;

2. Provide for the departments to coordinate the staff whose costs are paid for with money in the ODMR/DD administration and oversight fund and the ODJFS administration and oversight fund.

(D) The departments shall submit an annual report to the director of budget and management certifying how the departments spent the money in the ODMR/DD administration and oversight fund and the ODJFS administration and oversight fund for the purposes specified in division (B) of this section.

Sec. 5123.0413. (A) The department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, in consultation with the department of job and family services, office of budget and management, and county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code no later than January 1, 2002, establishing a method of paying for extraordinary costs, including extraordinary costs for services to individuals with mental retardation or other developmental disability, and ensure the availability of adequate funds to establish both of the following in the event a county property tax levy for services for individuals with mental retardation or other developmental disability fails. The rules may provide for using and managing either or both of the following:

1. A state MR/DD risk fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury;

2. A state insurance against MR/DD risk fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury.

(B) Beginning January 1, 2002, the department of job and family services may not request approval from the United States secretary of health and human services to increase the number of slots for home and community-based services until the rules required by division (A) of this section are in effect:

(A) A method of paying for home and community-based services;

(B) A method of reducing the number of individuals a county board would otherwise be required by section 5126.0512 of the Revised Code to ensure are enrolled in a medicaid waiver component under which home and community-based services are provided.

Sec. 5123.0417. (A) Using funds available under section 5112.371 of the Revised Code, the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall establish one or more programs for individuals under twenty-one years of age who have intensive behavioral needs, including such individuals with a primary diagnosis of autism spectrum disorder. The programs may include one or more medicaid waiver components that the director administers pursuant to section 5111.871 of the Revised Code. The programs may do one or more of the following:

1. Establish models that incorporate elements common to effective intervention programs and evidence-based practices in services for children with intensive behavioral needs;

2. Design a template for individualized education plans and individual service plans that provide consistent intervention programs and evidence-based practices for the care and treatment of children with intensive behavioral needs;

3. Disseminate best practice guidelines for use by families of children with intensive behavioral needs and professionals working with such families;

4. Develop a transition planning model for effectively mainstreaming school-age children with intensive behavioral needs to their public school district;

5. Contribute to the field of early and effective identification and intervention programs for children with intensive behavioral needs by providing financial support for scholarly research and publication of clinical findings.

(B) The director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall collaborate with the director of job and family services and consult with the executive director of the Ohio center for autism and low incidence and university-based programs that specialize in services for individuals with developmental disabilities when establishing programs under this section.

Sec. 5123.19. (A) As used in this section and in sections 5123.191, 5123.193, 5123.194, 5123.196, 5123.197, 5123.198, and 5123.20 of the Revised Code:

(1)(a) "Residential facility" means a home or facility in which a mentally retarded or developmentally disabled person resides, except the home of a relative or legal guardian in which a mentally retarded or developmentally disabled person resides, a respite care home certified under section 5126.05 of the Revised Code, a county home or district home operated pursuant to Chapter 5155. of the Revised Code, or a dwelling in which the only mentally retarded or developmentally disabled residents are in an independent living arrangement or are being provided supported living.

(b) "Intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" means a residential facility that is considered an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded for the purposes of Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code.

(2) "Political subdivision" means a municipal corporation, county, or township.

(3) "Independent living arrangement" means an arrangement in which a mentally retarded or developmentally disabled person resides in an individualized setting chosen by the person or the person's guardian, which is not dedicated principally to the provision of residential services for mentally retarded or developmentally disabled persons, and for which no financial support is received for rendering such service from any governmental agency by a provider of residential services.

(4) "Licensee" means the person or government agency that has applied for a license to operate a residential facility and to which the license was issued under this section.

(5) "Related party" has the same meaning as in section 5123.16 of the Revised Code except that "provider" as used in the definition of "related party" means a person or government entity that held or applied for a license to operate a residential facility, rather than a person or government entity certified to provide supported living.
(B) Every person or government agency desiring to operate a residential facility shall apply for licensure of the facility to the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities unless the residential facility is subject to section 3721.02, 3722.04, 5103.03, or 5119.20 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding Chapter 3721 of the Revised Code, a nursing home that is certified as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded under Title XIX of the "Social Security Act," 79 Stat. 286 (1965), 42 U.S.C.A. 1396, as amended, shall apply for licensure of the portion of the home that is certified as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(C) Subject to section 5123.196 of the Revised Code, the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall license the operation of residential facilities. An initial license shall be issued for a period that does not exceed one year, unless the director denies the license under division (D) of this section. A license shall be renewed for a period that does not exceed three years, unless the director refuses to renew the license under division (D) of this section. The director, when issuing or renewing a license, shall specify the period for which the license is being issued or renewed. A license remains valid for the length of the licensing period specified by the director, unless the license is terminated, revoked, or voluntarily surrendered.

(D) If it is determined that an applicant or licensee is not in compliance with a provision of this chapter that applies to residential facilities or the rules adopted under such a provision, the director may deny issuance of a license, refuse to renew a license, terminate a license, revoke a license, issue an order for the suspension of admissions to a facility, issue an order for the placement of a monitor at a facility, issue an order for the immediate removal of residents, or take any other action the director considers necessary consistent with the director's authority under this chapter regarding residential facilities. In the director's selection and administration of the sanction to be imposed, all of the following apply:

1. The director may deny, refuse to renew, or revoke a license, if the director determines that the applicant or licensee has demonstrated a pattern of serious noncompliance or that a violation creates a substantial risk to the health and safety of residents of a residential facility.

2. The director may terminate a license if more than twelve consecutive months have elapsed since the residential facility was last occupied by a resident or a notice required by division (K) of this section is not given.

3. The director may issue an order for the suspension of admissions to a facility for any violation that may result in sanctions under division (D)(1) of this section and for any other violation specified in rules adopted under division (H)(2) of this section. If the suspension of admissions is imposed for a violation that may result in sanctions under division (D)(1) of this section, the director may impose the suspension before providing an opportunity for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The director shall lift an order for the suspension of admissions when the director determines that the violation that formed the basis for the order has been corrected.

(4) The director may order the placement of a monitor at a residential facility for any violation specified in rules adopted under division (H)(2) of this section. The director shall lift the order when the director determines that the violation that formed the basis for the order has been corrected.

(5) If the director determines that two or more residential facilities owned or operated by the same person or government entity are not being operated in compliance with a provision of this chapter that applies to residential facilities or the rules adopted under such a provision, and the director's findings are based on the same or a substantially similar action, practice, circumstance, or incident that creates a substantial risk to the health and safety of the residents, the director shall conduct a survey as soon as practicable at each residential facility owned or operated by that person or government entity. The director may take any action authorized by this section with respect to any facility found to be operating in violation of a provision of this chapter that applies to residential facilities or the rules adopted under such a provision.

(6) When the director initiates license revocation proceedings, no opportunity for submitting a plan of correction shall be given. The director shall notify the licensee by letter of the initiation of the proceedings. The letter shall list the deficiencies of the residential facility and inform the licensee that no plan of correction will be accepted. The director shall also send a copy of the letter to the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities. The county board shall send a copy of the letter to each of the following:

(a) Each resident who receives services from the licensee;
(b) The guardian of each resident who receives services from the licensee if the resident has a guardian;
(c) The parent or guardian of each resident who receives services from the licensee if the resident is a minor.

(7) Pursuant to rules which shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director may order the immediate removal of residents from a residential facility whenever conditions at the facility present an immediate danger of physical or psychological harm to the residents.

(8) In determining whether a residential facility is being operated in compliance with a provision of this chapter that applies to residential facilities or the rules adopted under such a provision, or whether conditions at a residential facility present an immediate danger of physical or psychological harm to the residents, the director may rely on information obtained by a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities or other governmental agencies.

(9) In proceedings initiated to deny, refuse to renew, or revoke licenses, the director may deny, refuse to renew, or revoke a license regardless of whether some or all of the deficiencies that prompted the proceedings have been corrected at the time of the hearing.

(E) The director shall establish a program under which public notification may be made when the director has initiated license revocation proceedings or has issued an order for the suspension of admissions, placement of a monitor, or removal of residents. The director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement this division. The rules shall establish the procedures by which the public notification will be made and specify the circumstances for which the notification must be made. The rules shall require that public notification be made if the director has taken action against the facility in the eighteen-month period immediately preceding the director's latest action against the facility and the latest action is being taken for the same or a substantially similar violation of a provision of this chapter that applies to residential facilities or the rules adopted under such a provision. The rules shall specify a method for removing or amending the public notification if the director's action is found to have been unjustified or the violation at the residential facility has been corrected.

(F)(1) Except as provided in division (F)(2) of this section, appeals from proceedings initiated to impose a sanction under division (D) of this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

(2) Appeals from proceedings initiated to order the suspension of admissions to a facility shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, unless the order was issued before providing an opportunity for an adjudication, in which case all of the following apply:

(a) The licensee may request a hearing not later than ten days after receiving the notice specified in section 119.07 of the Revised Code.

(b) If a timely request for a hearing that includes the licensee's current address is made, the hearing shall commence not later than thirty days after the department receives the request.

(c) After commencing, the hearing shall continue uninterrupted, except for Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, unless other interruptions are agreed to by the licensee and the director.

(d) If the hearing is conducted by a hearing examiner, the hearing examiner shall file a report and recommendations not later than ten days after the last of the following:
   (i) The close of the hearing;
   (ii) If a transcript of the proceedings is ordered, the hearing examiner receives the transcript;
   (iii) If post-hearing briefs are timely filed, the hearing examiner receives the briefs.

(e) A copy of the written report and recommendation of the hearing examiner shall be sent, by certified mail, to the licensee and the licensee's attorney, if applicable, not later than five days after the report is filed.

(f) Not later than five days after the hearing examiner files the report and recommendations, the licensee may file objections to the report and recommendations.

(g) Not later than fifteen days after the hearing examiner files the report and recommendations, the director shall issue an order approving, modifying, or disapproving the report and recommendations.

(h) Notwithstanding the pendency of the hearing, the director shall lift the order for the suspension of admissions when the director determines that the violation that formed the basis for the order has been corrected.

(G) Neither a person or government agency whose application for a license to operate a residential facility is denied nor a related party of the person or government agency may apply for a license to operate a residential facility before the date that is one year after the date of the denial. Neither a licensee whose residential facility license is revoked nor a related party of the licensee may apply for a residential facility license before the date that is five years after the date of the revocation.

(H) In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director shall adopt and may amend and rescind rules for licensing and regulating the operation of residential facilities, including intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. The rules for intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded may differ from those for other residential facilities. The rules shall establish and specify the following:

   (1) Procedures and criteria for issuing and renewing licenses, including procedures and criteria for determining the length of the licensing period that the director must specify for each license when it is issued or renewed;
(2) Procedures and criteria for denying, refusing to renew, terminating, and revoking licenses and for ordering the suspension of admissions to a facility, placement of a monitor at a facility, and the immediate removal of residents from a facility;

(3) Fees for issuing and renewing licenses, which shall be deposited into the program fee fund created under section 5123.033 of the Revised Code;

(4) Procedures for surveying residential facilities;

(5) Requirements for the training of residential facility personnel;

(6) Classifications for the various types of residential facilities;

(7) Certification procedures for licensees and management contractors that the director determines are necessary to ensure that they have the skills and qualifications to properly operate or manage residential facilities;

(8) The maximum number of persons who may be served in a particular type of residential facility;

(9) Uniform procedures for admission of persons to and transfers and discharges of persons from residential facilities;

(10) Other standards for the operation of residential facilities and the services provided at residential facilities;

(11) Procedures for waiving any provision of any rule adopted under this section.

(I) Before issuing a license, the director of the department or the director's designee shall conduct a survey of the residential facility for which application is made. The director or the director's designee shall conduct a survey of each licensed residential facility at least once during the period the license is valid and may conduct additional inspections as needed. A survey includes but is not limited to an on-site examination and evaluation of the residential facility, its personnel, and the services provided there.

In conducting surveys, the director or the director's designee shall be given access to the residential facility; all records, accounts, and any other documents related to the operation of the facility; the licensee; the residents of the facility; and all persons acting on behalf of, under the control of, or in connection with the licensee. The licensee and all persons on behalf of, under the control of, or in connection with the licensee shall cooperate with the director or the director's designee in conducting the survey.

Following each survey, unless the director initiates a license revocation proceeding, the director or the director's designee shall provide the licensee with a report listing any deficiencies, specifying a timetable within which the licensee shall submit a plan of correction describing how the deficiencies will be corrected, and, when appropriate, specifying a timetable within which the licensee must correct the deficiencies. After a plan of correction is submitted, the director or the director's designee shall approve or disapprove the plan. A copy of the report and any approved plan of correction shall be provided to any person who requests it.

The director shall initiate disciplinary action against any department employee who notifies or causes the notification to any unauthorized person of an unannounced survey of a residential facility by an authorized representative of the department.

(J) In addition to any other information which may be required of applicants for a license pursuant to this section, the director shall require each applicant to provide a copy of an approved plan for a proposed residential facility pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code. This division does not apply to renewal of a license or to an applicant for an initial or modified license who meets the requirements of section 5123.193 or 5123.197 of the Revised Code.

(K) A licensee shall notify the owner of the building in which the licensee's residential facility is located of any significant change in the identity of the licensee or management contractor before the effective date of the change if the licensee is not the owner of the building.

Pursuant to rules which shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director may require notification to the department of any significant change in the ownership of a residential facility or in the identity of the licensee or management contractor. If the director determines that a significant change of ownership is proposed, the director shall consider the proposed change to be an application for development by a new operator pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code and shall advise the applicant within sixty days of the notification that the current license shall continue in effect or a new license will be required pursuant to this section. If the director requires a new license, the director shall permit the facility to continue to operate under the current license until the new license is issued, unless the current license is revoked, refused to be renewed, or terminated in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

(L) A county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the legal rights service, and any interested person may file complaints alleging violations of statute or department rule relating to residential facilities with the department. All complaints shall be in writing and shall state the facts constituting the basis of the allegation. The department shall not reveal the source of any complaint unless the complainant agrees in writing to waive the right to confidentiality or until so ordered by a court of The department shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing procedures for the receipt, referral, investigation, and disposition of complaints filed with the department under this division.

(M) The department shall establish procedures for the notification of interested parties of the transfer or interim care of residents from residential facilities that are closing or are losing their license.

(N) Before issuing a license under this section to a residential facility that will accommodate at any time more than one mentally retarded or developmentally disabled individual, the director shall, by first class mail, notify the following:

1. If the facility will be located in a municipal corporation, the clerk of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation;
2. If the facility will be located in unincorporated territory, the clerk of the appropriate board of county commissioners and the fiscal officer of the appropriate board of township trustees.

The director shall not issue the license for ten days after mailing the notice, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, in order to give the notified local officials time in which to comment on the proposed issuance.

Any legislative authority of a municipal corporation, board of county commissioners, or board of township trustees that receives notice under this division of the proposed issuance of a license for a residential facility may comment on it in writing to the director within ten days after the director mailed the notice, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. If the director receives written comments from any notified officials within the specified time, the director shall make written findings concerning the comments and the director's decision on the issuance of the license. If the director does not receive written comments from any notified local officials within the specified time, the director shall continue the process for issuance of the license.

(O) Any person may operate a licensed residential facility that provides room and board, personal care, habilitation services, and supervision in a family setting for at least six but not more than eight persons with mental retardation or a developmental disability as a permitted use in any residential district or zone, including any single-family residential district or zone, of any political subdivision. These residential facilities may be required to comply with area, height, yard, and architectural compatibility requirements that are uniformly imposed upon all single-family residences within the district or zone.
(P) Any person may operate a licensed residential facility that provides room and board, personal care, habilitation services, and supervision in a family setting for at least nine but not more than sixteen persons with mental retardation or a developmental disability as a permitted use in any multiple-family residential district or zone of any political subdivision, except that a political subdivision that has enacted a zoning ordinance or resolution establishing planned unit development districts may exclude these residential facilities from those districts, and a political subdivision that has enacted a zoning ordinance or resolution may regulate these residential facilities in multiple-family residential districts or zones as a conditionally permitted use or special exception, in either case, under reasonable and specific standards and conditions set out in the zoning ordinance or resolution to:

(1) Require the architectural design and site layout of the residential facility and the location, nature, and height of any walls, screens, and fences to be compatible with adjoining land uses and the residential character of the neighborhood;

(2) Require compliance with yard, parking, and sign regulation;

(3) Limit excessive concentration of these residential facilities.

(Q) This section does not prohibit a political subdivision from applying to residential facilities nondiscriminatory regulations requiring compliance with health, fire, and safety regulations and building standards and regulations.

(R) Divisions (O) and (P) of this section are not applicable to municipal corporations that had in effect on June 15, 1977, an ordinance specifically permitting in residential zones licensed residential facilities by means of permitted uses, conditional uses, or special exception, so long as such ordinance remains in effect without any substantive modification.

(S)(1) The director may issue an interim license to operate a residential facility to an applicant for a license under this section if either of the following is the case:

(a) The director determines that an emergency exists requiring immediate placement of persons in a residential facility, that insufficient licensed beds are available, and that the residential facility is likely to receive a permanent license under this section within thirty days after issuance of the interim license.

(b) The director determines that the issuance of an interim license is necessary to meet a temporary need for a residential facility.

(2) To be eligible to receive an interim license, an applicant must meet the same criteria that must be met to receive a permanent license under this section, except for any differing procedures and time frames that may apply to issuance of a permanent license.

(3) An interim license shall be valid for thirty days and may be renewed by the director for a period not to exceed one hundred fifty days.

(4) The director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code as the director considers necessary to administer the issuance of interim licenses.

(T) Notwithstanding rules adopted pursuant to this section establishing the maximum number of persons who may be served in a particular type of residential facility, a residential facility shall be permitted to serve the same number of persons being served by the facility on the effective date of the rules or the number of persons for which the facility is authorized pursuant to a current application for a certificate of need with a letter of support from the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and which is in the review process prior to April 4, 1986.

(U) The director or the director's designee may enter at any time, for purposes of investigation, any home, facility, or other structure that has been reported to the director or that the director has reasonable cause to believe is being operated as a residential facility without a license issued under this section.

The director may petition the court of common pleas of the county in which an unlicensed residential facility is located for an order enjoining the person or governmental agency operating the facility from continuing to operate without a license. The court may grant the injunction on a showing that the person or governmental agency named in the petition is operating a residential facility without a license. The court may grant the injunction, regardless of whether the residential facility meets the requirements for receiving a license issued under this section.

Sec. 5123.193. An applicant for a residential facility license under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code is not required to obtain approval of a plan for the proposed residential facility pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code if all of the following apply:

(A) All of the following apply to the facility for which the residential facility license is sought:

(1) It is licensed as a nursing home under section 3721.02 of the Revised Code on the effective date of this section and the nursing home license authorizes the facility to have fifty nursing home beds.

(2) It was previously certified as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded before July 1, 1992.

(3) It is operated as a nonprofit organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) Its governing board has passed a resolution to close the facility unless a residential facility license is obtained for the facility.

(B) The license application seeks authorization to operate a residential facility with not more than twenty-five beds on the same site on which the facility is operated under its nursing home license on the effective date of this section.

(C) The applicant applies to the director of health to have the facility certified as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(D) The applicant agrees to have the nursing home's licensed capacity reduced to not more than twenty-five nursing home beds effective on the date the director of developmental disabilities issues the residential facility license and agrees to surrender the nursing home license, ending the applicant's right to have any nursing home beds in the facility, effective on the date the director of health certifies the facility as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(E) The applicant provides the director of developmental disabilities assurances that the applicant will cooperate with the department of job and family services in having each resident of the facility who needs a greater or lesser level of care than intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded provide relocated to another facility or residence that is authorized to provide the level of care the resident needs and is willing to accept the resident's placement in the facility or residence.

(F) The applicant submits the application for the residential facility license to the director of developmental disabilities not later than one hundred twenty days after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 5123.197. Neither an applicant for an initial residential facility license under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code nor an applicant for a modification of an existing residential facility license under that section is required to obtain approval of a plan for the proposed new residential facility or modification to the existing residential facility pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code if all of the following apply:

(A) The new residential facility or modification to the existing residential facility is to serve individuals who have diagnoses or special care needs for which a medicaid reimbursement rate is set pursuant to section 5111.258 of the Revised Code;

(B) The directors of job and family services and developmental disabilities determine that there is a need under the medicaid program for the proposed new residential facility or modification to the existing residential facility and that approving the application for the initial residential facility license or modification to the existing residential facility license is fiscally prudent for the medicaid program;

(C) The director of budget and management notifies the directors of job and family services and developmental disabilities that the director of budget and management agrees with the directors' determination under division (B) of this section.

Sec. 5126.044. (A) As used in this section, "eligible:

(1) "Eligible person" has the same meaning as in section 5126.03 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Treatment" means the provision, coordination, or management of services provided to an eligible person.

(3) "Payment" means activities undertaken by a service provider or governmental entity to obtain or provide reimbursement for services to an eligible person.

(B) Except as provided in division (D) (C) of this section, no person shall disclose the identity of an individual who requests programs or services under this chapter or release a record or report regarding an eligible person that is maintained by a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities or an entity under contract with a county board unless one of the following circumstances exists:

(1) The individual, eligible person, or the individual's guardian, or, if the individual is a minor, the individual's parent or guardian, makes a written request to the county board or entity for or approves in writing disclosure of the individual's identity or release of the record or report regarding the eligible person.

(2) Disclosure of the identity of an individual is needed for approval of a direct services contract under section 5126.032 or 5126.033 of the Revised Code. The county board shall release only the individual's name and the general nature of the services to be provided.

(3) Disclosure of the identity of the individual is needed to ascertain that the county board's waiting lists for programs or services are being maintained in accordance with section 5126.042 of the Revised Code and the rules adopted under that section. The county board shall release only the individual's name, the general nature of the programs or services to be provided the individual, the individual's rank on each waiting list that includes the individual, and any circumstances under which the individual was given priority when placed on a waiting list.

(4) Disclosure of the identity of an individual who is an eligible person is needed for treatment of or payment for services provided to the individual.
(C) A board or entity that discloses an individual's identity or releases a record or report regarding an eligible person shall maintain a record of when and to whom the disclosure or release was made.

(D)(1) At the request of an eligible person or the person's guardian or, if the eligible person is a minor, the person's parent or guardian, a county board or entity under contract with a county board shall provide the person who made the request access to records and reports regarding the eligible person. On written request, the county board or entity shall provide copies of the records and reports to the eligible person, guardian, or parent. The county board or entity may charge a reasonable fee to cover the costs of copying. The county board or entity may waive the fee in cases of hardship.

(2) A county board shall provide access to any waiting list or record or report regarding an eligible person maintained by the board to any state agency responsible for monitoring and reviewing programs and services provided or arranged by the county board, any state agency involved in the coordination of services for an eligible person, and any agency under contract with the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities for the provision of protective service pursuant to section 5123.56 of the Revised Code.

(3) When an eligible person who requests programs or services under this chapter dies, the county board or entity under contract with the county board, shall, on written request, provide to both of the following persons any reports and records in the board or entity's possession concerning the eligible person:

(a) If the report or records are necessary to administer the estate of the person who is the subject of the reports or records, to the executor or administrator of the person's estate;

(b) To the guardian of the person who is the subject of the reports or records or, if the individual had no guardian at the time of death, to a person in the first applicable of the following categories:

(i) The person's spouse;
(ii) The person's children;
(iii) The person's parents;
(iv) The person's brothers or sisters;
(v) The person's uncles or aunts;
(vi) The person's closest relative by blood or adoption;
(vii) The person's closest relative by marriage.

The county board or entity shall provide the reports and records as required by division (D)(C)(3) of this section not later than thirty days after receipt of the request.
(E)(D) A county board shall notify an eligible person, the person's guardian, or, if the eligible person is a minor, the person's parent or guardian, prior to destroying any record or report regarding the eligible person.

Sec. 5126.05. (A) Subject to the rules established by the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for programs and services offered pursuant to this chapter, and subject to the rules established by the state board of education pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for programs and services offered pursuant to Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code, the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall:

(1) Administer and operate facilities, programs, and services as provided by this chapter and Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code and establish policies for their administration and operation;

(2) Coordinate, monitor, and evaluate existing services and facilities available to individuals with mental retardation and developmental disabilities;

(3) Provide early childhood services, supportive home services, and adult services, according to the plan and priorities developed under section 5126.04 of the Revised Code;

(4) Provide or contract for special education services pursuant to Chapters 3306., 3317., and 3323. of the Revised Code and ensure that related services, as defined in section 3323.01 of the Revised Code, are available according to the plan and priorities developed under section 5126.04 of the Revised Code;

(5) Adopt a budget, authorize expenditures for the purposes specified in this chapter and do so in accordance with section 319.16 of the Revised Code, approve attendance of board members and employees at professional meetings and approve expenditures for attendance, and exercise such powers and duties as are prescribed by the director;

(6) Submit annual reports of its work and expenditures, pursuant to sections 3323.09 and 5126.12 of the Revised Code, to the director, the superintendent of public instruction, and the board of county commissioners at the close of the fiscal year and at such other times as may reasonably be requested;

(7) Authorize all positions of employment, establish compensation, including but not limited to salary schedules and fringe benefits for all board employees, approve contracts of employment for management employees that are for a term of more than one year, employ legal counsel under section 309.10 of the Revised Code, and contract for employee benefits;
(8) Provide service and support administration in accordance with section 5126.15 of the Revised Code;

(9) Certify respite care homes pursuant to rules adopted under section 5123.171 of the Revised Code by the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities.

(B) To the extent that rules adopted under this section apply to the identification and placement of children with disabilities under Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code, they shall be consistent with the standards and procedures established under sections 3323.03 to 3323.05 of the Revised Code.

(C) Any county board may enter into contracts with other such boards and with public or private, nonprofit, or profit-making agencies or organizations of the same or another county, to provide the facilities, programs, and services authorized or required, upon such terms as may be agreeable, and in accordance with this chapter and Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code and rules adopted thereunder and in accordance with sections 307.86 and 5126.071 of the Revised Code.

(D) A county board may combine transportation for children and adults enrolled in programs and services offered under section 5126.12 with transportation for children enrolled in classes funded under section 3317.20 or units approved under section 3317.05 of the Revised Code.

(E) A county board may purchase all necessary insurance policies, may purchase equipment and supplies through the department of administrative services or from other sources, and may enter into agreements with public agencies or nonprofit organizations for cooperative purchasing arrangements.

(F) A county board may receive by gift, grant, devise, or bequest any moneys, lands, or property for the benefit of the purposes for which the board is established and hold, apply, and dispose of the moneys, lands, and property according to the terms of the gift, grant, devise, or bequest. All money received by gift, grant, bequest, or disposition of lands or property received by gift, grant, devise, or bequest shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of such board and shall be available for use by the board for purposes determined or stated by the donor or grantor, but may not be used for personal expenses of the board members. Any interest or earnings accruing from such gift, grant, devise, or bequest shall be treated in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as such gift, grant, devise, or bequest.

(G) The board of county commissioners shall levy taxes and make appropriations sufficient to enable the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities to perform its functions and duties, and may utilize any available local, state, and federal funds for such purpose.

Sec. 5126.054. (A) Each county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall, by resolution, develop a three-calendar year plan that includes the following three components:

(1) An assessment component that includes all of the following:
   (a) The number of individuals with mental retardation or other developmental disability residing in the county who need the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, may seek home and community-based services, are given priority for the services pursuant to division (D) of section 5126.042 of the Revised Code; the service needs of those individuals; and the projected annualized cost for services;
   (b) The source of funds available to the county board to pay the nonfederal share of medicaid expenditures that the county board is required by sections 5126.059 and 5126.0510 of the Revised Code to pay;
   (c) Any other applicable information or conditions that the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities requires as a condition of approving the component under section 5123.046 of the Revised Code.

(2) A preliminary implementation component that specifies the number of individuals to be provided, during the first year that the plan is in effect, home and community-based services pursuant to the priority given to them under divisions (D)(1) and (2) of section 5126.042 of the Revised Code and the types of home and community-based services the individuals are to receive;

(3) A component that provides for the implementation of medicaid case management services and home and community-based services for individuals who begin to receive the services on or after the date the plan is approved under section 5123.046 of the Revised Code. A county board shall include all of the following in the component:
   (a) If the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities or department of job and family services requires, an agreement to pay the nonfederal share of medicaid expenditures that the county board is required by sections 5126.059 and 5126.0510 of the Revised Code to pay;
   (b) How the services are to be phased in over the period the plan covers, including how the county board will serve individuals on a waiting list established under division (C) of section 5126.042 who are given priority status under division (D)(1) of that section;
   (c) Any agreement or commitment regarding the county board's funding of home and community-based services that the county board has with the department at the time the county board develops the component;

(d) Assurances adequate to the department that the county board will comply with all of the following requirements:

(i) To provide the types of home and community-based services specified in the preliminary implementation component required by division (A)(2) of this section to at least the number of individuals specified in that component;

(ii) To use any additional funds the county board receives for the services to improve the county board's resource capabilities for supporting such services available in the county at the time the component is developed and to expand the services to accommodate the unmet need for those services in the county;

(iii) To employ or contract with a business manager who is either a new employee who has earned at least a bachelor's degree in business administration or a current employee who has the equivalent experience of a bachelor's degree in business administration or enter into an agreement with another county board of developmental disabilities that employs or contracts with a business manager to have the business manager serve both county boards. If the county board will employ a new employee, the county board shall include in the component a timeline for employing the employee. No superintendent of a county board may serve as the county board's business manager.

(iv) To employ or contract with a medicaid services manager who is either a new employee who has earned at least a bachelor's degree or a current employee who has the equivalent experience of a bachelor's degree or enter into an agreement with another county board of developmental disabilities that employs or contracts with a medicaid services manager to have the medicaid services manager serve both county boards. If the county board will employ a new employee, the county board shall include in the component a timeline for employing the employee. Two or three county boards that have a combined total enrollment in county board services not exceeding one thousand individuals as determined pursuant to certifications made under division (B) of section 5126.12 of the Revised Code may satisfy this requirement by sharing the services of a medicaid services manager or using the services of a medicaid services manager employed by or under contract with a regional council that the county boards establish under section 5126.13 of the Revised Code. No superintendent of a county board may serve as the county board's medicaid services manager.

(e) Programmatic and financial accountability measures and projected outcomes expected from the implementation of the plan;
(f) Any other applicable information or conditions that the department requires as a condition of approving the component under section 5123.046 of the Revised Code.

(B) A county board whose plan developed under division (A) of this section is approved by the department under section 5123.046 of the Revised Code shall update and renew the plan in accordance with a schedule the department shall develop.

Sec. 5126.055. (A) Except as provided in section 5126.056 of the Revised Code, a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities has medicaid local administrative authority to, and shall, do all of the following for an individual with mental retardation or other developmental disability who resides in the county that the county board serves and seeks or receives home and community-based services:

1. Perform assessments and evaluations of the individual. As part of the assessment and evaluation process, the county board shall do all of the following:

   a. Make a recommendation to the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities on whether the department should approve or deny the individual's application for the services, including on the basis of whether the individual needs the level of care an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded provides;

   b. If the individual's application is denied because of the county board's recommendation and the individual requests a hearing under section 5101.35 of the Revised Code, present, with the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities or department of job and family services, whichever denies the application, the reasons for the recommendation and denial at the hearing;

   c. If the individual's application is approved, recommend to the departments of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and job and family services the services that should be included in the individual's individualized service plan and, if either department approves, reduces, denies, or terminates a service included in the individual's individualized service plan under section 5111.871 of the Revised Code because of the county board's recommendation, present, with the department that made the approval, reduction, denial, or termination, the reasons for the recommendation and approval, reduction, denial, or termination at a hearing under section 5101.35 of the Revised Code.

2. In accordance with the rules adopted under section 5126.046 of the Revised Code, perform the county board's duties under that section regarding assisting the individual's right to choose a qualified and willing provider of the services and, at a hearing under section 5101.35 of the Revised Code, present evidence of the process for appropriate assistance in choosing providers;

(3) If the county board is certified under section 5123.161 of the Revised Code to provide the services and agrees to provide the services to the individual and the individual chooses the county board to provide the services, furnish, in accordance with the county board's medicaid provider agreement and for the authorized reimbursement rate, the services the individual requires;

(4) Monitor the services provided to the individual and ensure the individual's health, safety, and welfare. The monitoring shall include quality assurance activities. If the county board provides the services, the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall also monitor the services.

(5) Develop, with the individual and the provider of the individual's services, an effective individualized service plan that includes coordination of services, recommend that the departments of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and job and family services approve the plan, and implement the plan unless either department disapproves it. The individualized service plan shall include a summary page, agreed to by the county board, provider, and individual receiving services, that clearly outlines the amount, duration, and scope of services to be provided under the plan.

(6) Have an investigative agent conduct investigations under section 5126.313 of the Revised Code that concern the individual;

(7) Have a service and support administrator perform the duties under division (B)(9) of section 5126.15 of the Revised Code that concern the individual.

(B) A county board shall perform its medicaid local administrative authority under this section in accordance with all of the following:

(1) The county board's plan that the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities approves under section 5123.046 of the Revised Code;

(2) All applicable federal and state laws;

(3) All applicable policies of the departments of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and job and family services and the United States department of health and human services;

(4) The department of job and family services' supervision under its authority under section 5111.01 of the Revised Code to act as the single state medicaid agency;
(5) The department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities' oversight.

(C) The departments of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and job and family services shall communicate with and provide training to county boards regarding medicaid local administrative authority granted by this section. The communication and training shall include issues regarding audit protocols and other standards established by the United States department of health and human services that the departments determine appropriate for communication and training. County boards shall participate in the training. The departments shall assess the county board's compliance against uniform standards that the departments shall establish.

(D) A county board may not delegate its medicaid local administrative authority granted under this section but may contract with a person or government entity, including a council of governments, for assistance with its medicaid local administrative authority. A county board that enters into such a contract shall notify the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities. The notice shall include the tasks and responsibilities that the contract gives to the person or government entity. The person or government entity shall comply in full with all requirements to which the county board is subject regarding the person or government entity's tasks and responsibilities under the contract. The county board remains ultimately responsible for the tasks and responsibilities.

(E) A county board that has medicaid local administrative authority under this section shall, through the departments of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and job and family services, reply to, and cooperate in arranging compliance with, a program or fiscal audit or program violation exception that a state or federal audit or review discovers. The department of job and family services shall timely notify the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and the county board of any adverse findings. After receiving the notice, the county board, in conjunction with the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, shall cooperate fully with the department of job and family services and timely prepare and send to the department a written plan of correction or response to the adverse findings. The county board is liable for any adverse findings that result from an action it takes or fails to take in its implementation of medicaid local administrative authority.

(F) If the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities or department of job and family services determines that a county board's implementation of its medicaid local administrative authority under this section is deficient, the department that makes the determination shall require that county board do the following:

(1) If the deficiency affects the health, safety, or welfare of an individual with mental retardation or other developmental disability, correct the deficiency within twenty-four hours;

(2) If the deficiency does not affect the health, safety, or welfare of an individual with mental retardation or other developmental disability, receive technical assistance from the department or submit a plan of correction to the department that is acceptable to the department within sixty days and correct the deficiency within the time required by the plan of correction.

Sec. 5126.0512. (A) As used in this section, "medicaid waiver component" means a medicaid waiver component as defined in section 5111.85 of the Revised Code under which home and community-based services are provided.

(B) Effective July 1, 2007, and except as provided in rules adopted under section 5123.0413 of the Revised Code, each county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall ensure, for each medicaid waiver component, that the number of individuals eligible under section 5126.041 of the Revised Code for services from the county board who are enrolled in a medicaid waiver component is no less than the sum of the following:

(1) The number of individuals eligible for services from the county board who are enrolled in the medicaid waiver component on June 30, 2007;

(2) The number of medicaid waiver component slots the county board requested before July 1, 2007, that were assigned to the county board before that date but in which no individual was enrolled before that date.

(C) An individual enrolled in a medicaid waiver component after March 1, 2007, due to an emergency reserve capacity waiver assignment shall not be counted in determining the number of individuals a county board must ensure under division (B) of this section are enrolled in a medicaid waiver component.

(D) An individual who is enrolled in a medicaid waiver component to comply with the terms of the consent order filed March 5, 2007, in Martin v. Strickland, Case No. 89-CV-00362, in the United States district court for the southern district of Ohio, eastern division, shall be excluded in determining whether a county board has complied with division (B) of this section.

(E) A county board shall make as many requests for individuals to be enrolled in a medicaid waiver component as necessary for the county board to comply with division (B) of this section.

Sec. 5126.19. (A) The director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities may grant temporary funding from the community mental retardation and developmental disabilities trust fund based on allocations to county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities. The director may distribute all or part of the funding directly to a county board, the persons who provide the services for which the funding is granted, or persons with mental retardation or developmental disabilities who are to receive those services.

(B) Funding granted under division (A) of this section shall be granted according to the availability of moneys in the fund and priorities established by the director. Funding may be granted for any of the following purposes:

1. Behavioral or short-term interventions for persons with mental retardation or developmental disabilities that assist them in remaining in the community by preventing institutionalization;
2. Emergency respite care services, as defined in section 5126.11 of the Revised Code;
3. Family support services provided under section 5126.11 of the Revised Code;
4. Supported living, as defined in section 5126.01 of the Revised Code;
5. Staff training for county board employees, employees of providers of residential services as defined in section 5126.01 of the Revised Code, and other personnel under contract with a county board, to provide the staff with necessary training in serving mentally retarded or developmentally disabled persons in the community;
6. Short-term provision of early childhood services provided under section 5126.05, adult services provided under sections 5126.05 and 5126.051, and service and support administration provided under section 5126.15 of the Revised Code, when local moneys are insufficient to meet the need for such services due to the successive failure within a two-year period of three or more proposed levies for the services;
7. Contracts with providers of residential services to maintain persons with mental retardation and developmental disabilities in their programs and avoid institutionalization.

(C) If the trust fund contains more than ten million dollars on the first day of July the director shall use one million dollars for payments under section 5126.18 of the Revised Code, two million dollars for subsidies to county boards for supported living, and one million dollars for subsidies to county boards for early childhood services and adult services provided under section 5126.05 of the Revised Code. Distributions of funds under this division shall be made prior to August 31 of the state fiscal year in which the funds are available. The funds shall be allocated to a county board in an amount equal to the same percentage of the total amount allocated to the county board the immediately preceding state fiscal year.

(D) In addition to making grants under division (A) of this section, the director may use money available in the trust fund for the same purposes that rules adopted under section 5123.0413 of the Revised Code provide for money in the state MR/DD risk fund and the state insurance against MR/DD risk fund, both created under that section, to be used.

Sec. 5126.24. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "License" means an educator license issued by the state board of education under section 3319.22 of the Revised Code or a certificate issued by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities.

(2) "Teacher" means a person employed by a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities in a position that requires a license.

(3) "Nonteaching employee" means a person employed by a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities in a position that does not require a license.

(4) "Years of service" includes all service described in division (A) of section 3317.13 of the Revised Code.

(B) Subject to rules established by the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, each county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall annually adopt separate salary schedules for teachers and nonteaching employees.

(C) The teachers' salary schedule shall provide for increments based on training and years of service. The board may establish its own service requirements provided no teacher receives less than the salary the teacher would be paid under section 3317.13 of the Revised Code if the teacher were employed by a school district board of education and provided full credit for a minimum of five years of actual teaching and military experience as defined in division (A) of such section is given to each teacher.

Each teacher who has completed training that would qualify the teacher for a higher salary bracket pursuant to this section shall file by the fifteenth day of September with the fiscal officer of the board, satisfactory evidence of the completion of such additional training. The fiscal officer shall then immediately place the teacher, pursuant to this section, in the proper salary bracket in accordance with training and years of service. No teacher shall be paid less than the salary to which the teacher would be entitled under section 3317.13 of the Revised Code if the teacher were employed by a school district board of education.
The superintendent of each county board, on or before the fifteenth day of October of each year, shall certify to the state board of education the name of each teacher employed, on an annual salary, in each special education program operated pursuant to section 3323.09 of the Revised Code during the first full school week of October. The superintendent further shall certify, for each teacher, the number of years of training completed at a recognized college, the degrees earned from a college recognized by the state board, the type of license held, the number of months employed by the board, the annual salary, and other information that the state board may request.

(D) The nonteaching employees' salary schedule established by the board shall be based on training, experience, and qualifications with initial salaries no less than salaries in effect on July 1, 1985. Each board shall prepare and may amend from time to time, specifications descriptive of duties, responsibilities, requirements, and desirable qualifications of the classifications of employees required to perform the duties specified in the salary schedule. All nonteaching employees shall be notified of the position classification to which they are assigned and the salary for the classification. The compensation of all nonteaching employees working for a particular board shall be uniform for like positions except as compensation would be affected by salary increments based upon length of service.

On the fifteenth day of October of each year the nonteaching employees' salary schedule and list of job classifications and salaries in effect on that date shall be filed by each board with the superintendent of public instruction. If such salary schedule and classification plan is not filed, the superintendent of public instruction shall order the board to file such schedule and list forthwith. If this condition is not corrected within ten days after receipt of the order from the superintendent, no money shall be distributed to the district under Chapter 3306. or 3317. of the Revised Code until the superintendent has satisfactory evidence of the board's full compliance with such order.

Sec. 5139.43. (A) The department of youth services shall operate a felony delinquent care and custody program that shall be operated in accordance with the formula developed pursuant to section 5139.41 of the Revised Code, subject to the conditions specified in this section.

(B)(1) Each juvenile court shall use the moneys disbursed to it by the department of youth services pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code in accordance with the applicable provisions of division (B)(2) of this section and shall transmit the moneys to the county treasurer for deposit in accordance with this division. The county treasurer shall create in the county treasury a fund that shall be known as the felony delinquent care and custody fund and shall deposit in that fund the moneys disbursed to the juvenile court pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code. The county treasurer also shall deposit into that fund the state subsidy funds granted to the county pursuant to section 5139.34 of the Revised Code. The moneys disbursed to the juvenile court pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code and deposited pursuant to this division in the felony delinquent care and custody fund shall not be commingled with any other county funds except state subsidy funds granted to the county pursuant to section 5139.34 of the Revised Code; shall not be used for any capital construction projects; upon an order of the juvenile court and subject to appropriation by the board of county commissioners, shall be disbursed to the juvenile court for use in accordance with the applicable provisions of division (B)(2) of this section; shall not revert to the county general fund at the end of any fiscal year; and shall carry over in the felony delinquent care and custody fund from the end of any fiscal year to the next fiscal year. At The maximum balance carry-over at the end of each respective fiscal year, beginning June 30, 2008, the balance in the felony delinquent care and custody fund in any county shall not exceed the total moneys from funds allocated to the county pursuant to sections 5139.34 and 5139.41 of the Revised Code during in the previous fiscal year shall not exceed an amount to be calculated as provided in the formula set forth in this division, unless that county has applied for and been granted an exemption by the director of youth services. Beginning June 30, 2008, the maximum balance carry-over at the end of each respective fiscal year shall be determined by the following formula: for fiscal year 2008, the maximum balance carry-over shall be one hundred per cent of the allocation for fiscal year 2007, to be applied in determining the fiscal year 2009 allocation; for fiscal year 2009, it shall be fifty per cent of the allocation for fiscal year 2008, to be applied in determining the fiscal year 2010 allocation; for fiscal year 2010, it shall be twenty-five per cent of the allocation for fiscal year 2009, to be applied in determining the fiscal year 2011 allocation; and for each fiscal year subsequent to fiscal year 2010, it shall be twenty-five per cent of the allocation for the immediately preceding fiscal year, to be applied in determining the allocation for the next immediate fiscal year. The department shall withhold from future payments to a county an amount equal to any moneys in the felony delinquent care and custody fund of the county that exceed the total moneys allocated pursuant to those sections to the county during the preceding fiscal year maximum balance carry-over that applies for that county for the fiscal year in which the payments are being made and shall reallocate the withheld amount. The department shall adopt rules for the withholding and reallocation of moneys disbursed under sections 5139.34 and 5139.41 of the Revised Code and for the criteria and process for a county to obtain an exemption from the withholding requirement. The moneys disbursed to the juvenile court pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code and deposited pursuant to this division in the felony delinquent care and custody fund shall be in addition to, and shall not be used to reduce, any usual annual increase in county funding that the juvenile court is eligible to receive or the current level of county funding of the juvenile court and of any programs or services for delinquent children, unruly children, or juvenile traffic offenders.

(2)(a) A county and the juvenile court that serves the county shall use the moneys in its felony delinquent care and custody fund in accordance with rules that the department of youth services adopts pursuant to division (D) of section 5139.04 of the Revised Code and as follows:

(i) The moneys in the fund that represent state subsidy funds granted to the county pursuant to section 5139.34 of the Revised Code shall be used to aid in the support of prevention, early intervention, diversion, treatment, and rehabilitation programs that are provided for alleged or adjudicated unruly children or delinquent children or for children who are at risk of becoming unruly children or delinquent children. The county shall not use for capital improvements more than fifteen per cent of the moneys in the fund that represent the applicable annual grant of those state subsidy funds.

(ii) The moneys in the fund that were disbursed to the juvenile court pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code and deposited pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section in the fund shall be used to provide programs and services for the training, treatment, or rehabilitation of felony delinquents that are alternatives to their commitment to the department, including, but not limited to, community residential programs, day treatment centers, services within the home, and electronic monitoring, and shall be used in connection with training, treatment, rehabilitation, early intervention, or other programs or services for any delinquent child, unruly child, or juvenile traffic offender who is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

The fund also may be used for prevention, early intervention, diversion, treatment, and rehabilitation programs that are provided for alleged or adjudicated unruly children, delinquent children, or juvenile traffic offenders or for children who are at risk of becoming unruly children, delinquent children, or juvenile traffic offenders. Consistent with division (B)(1) of this section, a county and the juvenile court of a county shall not use any of those moneys for capital construction projects.

(iii) Moneys in the fund shall not be used to support programs or services that do not comply with federal juvenile justice and delinquency prevention core requirements or to support programs or services that research has shown to be ineffective.

(iv) The county and the juvenile court that serves the county may use moneys in the fund to provide out-of-home placement of children only in detention centers, community rehabilitation centers, or community corrections facilities approved by the department pursuant to standards adopted by the department, licensed by an authorized state agency, or accredited by the American correctional association or another national organization recognized by the department.

(b) Each juvenile court shall comply with division (B)(3)(d) of this section as implemented by the department. If a juvenile court fails to comply with division (B)(3)(d) of this section, the department shall not be required to make any disbursements in accordance with division (C) or (D) of section 5139.41 or division (C)(2) of section 5139.34 of the Revised Code.

(3) In accordance with rules adopted by the department pursuant to division (D) of section 5139.04 of the Revised Code, each juvenile court and the county served by that juvenile court shall do all of the following that apply:

(a) The juvenile court shall prepare an annual grant agreement and application for funding that satisfies the requirements of this section and section 5139.34 of the Revised Code and that pertains to the use, upon an order of the juvenile court and subject to appropriation by the board of county commissioners, of the moneys in its felony delinquent care and custody fund for specified programs, care, and services as described in division (B)(2)(a) of this section, shall submit that agreement and application to the county family and children first council, the regional family and children first council, or the local intersystem services to children cluster as described in sections 121.37 and 121.38 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable, and shall file that agreement and application with the department for its approval. The annual grant agreement and application for funding shall include a method of ensuring equal access for minority youth to the programs, care, and services specified in it.

The department may approve an annual grant agreement and application for funding only if the juvenile court involved has complied with the preparation, submission, and filing requirements described in division (B)(3)(a) of this section. If the juvenile court complies with those requirements and the department approves that agreement and application, the juvenile court and the county served by the juvenile court may expend the state subsidy funds granted to the county pursuant to section 5139.34 of the Revised Code only in accordance with division (B)(2)(a) of this section, the rules pertaining to state subsidy funds that the department adopts pursuant to division (D) of section 5139.04 of the Revised Code, and the approved agreement and application.

(b) By the thirty-first day of August of each year, the juvenile court shall file with the department a report that contains all of the statistical and other information for each month of the prior state fiscal year. If the juvenile court fails to file the report required by division (B)(3)(b) of this section by the thirty-first day of August of any year, the department shall not disburse any payment of state subsidy funds to which the county otherwise is entitled pursuant to section 5139.34 of the Revised Code and shall not disburse pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code the applicable allocation until the juvenile court fully complies with division (B)(3)(b) of this section.

(c) If the department requires the juvenile court to prepare monthly statistical reports and to submit the reports on forms provided by the department, the juvenile court shall file those reports with the department on the forms so provided. If the juvenile court fails to prepare and submit those monthly statistical reports within the department's timelines, the department shall not disburse any payment of state subsidy funds to which the county otherwise is entitled pursuant to section 5139.34 of the Revised Code and shall not disburse pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code the applicable allocation until the juvenile court fully complies with division (B)(3)(c) of this section. If the juvenile court fails to prepare and submit those monthly statistical reports within one hundred eighty days of the date the department establishes for their submission, the department shall not disburse any payment of state subsidy funds to which the county otherwise is entitled pursuant to section 5139.34 of the Revised Code and shall not disburse pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code the applicable allocation, and the state subsidy funds and the remainder of the applicable allocation shall revert to the department. If a juvenile court states in a monthly statistical report that the juvenile court adjudicated within a state fiscal year five hundred or more children to be delinquent children for committing acts that would be felonies if committed by adults and if the department determines that the data in the report may be inaccurate, the juvenile court shall have an independent auditor or other qualified entity certify the accuracy of the data on a date determined by the department.
(d) If the department requires the juvenile court and the county to participate in a fiscal monitoring program or another monitoring program that is conducted by the department to ensure compliance by the juvenile court and the county with division (B) of this section, the juvenile court and the county shall participate in the program and fully comply with any guidelines for the performance of audits adopted by the department pursuant to that program and all requests made by the department pursuant to that program for information necessary to reconcile fiscal accounting. If an audit that is performed pursuant to a fiscal monitoring program or another monitoring program described in this division determines that the juvenile court or the county used moneys in the county's felony delinquent care and custody fund for expenses that are not authorized under division (B) of this section, within forty-five days after the department notifies the county of the unauthorized expenditures, the county either shall repay the amount of the unauthorized expenditures from the county general revenue fund to the state's general revenue fund or shall file a written appeal with the department. If an appeal is timely filed, the director of the department shall render a decision on the appeal and shall notify the appellant county or its juvenile court of that decision within forty-five days after the date that the appeal is filed. If the director denies an appeal, the county's fiscal agent shall repay the amount of the unauthorized expenditures from the county general revenue fund to the state's general revenue fund within thirty days after receiving the director's notification of the appeal decision.

(C) The determination of which county a reduction of the care and custody allocation will be charged against for a particular youth shall be made as outlined below for all youths who do not qualify as public safety beds. The determination of which county a reduction of the care and custody allocation will be charged against shall be made as follows until each youth is released:

1. In the event of a commitment, the reduction shall be charged against the committing county.
2. In the event of a recommitment, the reduction shall be charged against the original committing county until the expiration of the minimum period of institutionalization under the original order of commitment or until the date on which the youth is admitted to the department of youth services pursuant to the order of recommitment, whichever is later. Reductions of the allocation shall be charged against the county that recommitted the youth after the minimum expiration date of the original commitment.
3. In the event of a revocation of a release on parole, the reduction shall be charged against the county that revokes the youth's parole.
(D) A juvenile court is not precluded by its allocation amount for the care and custody of felony delinquents from committing a felony delinquent to the department of youth services for care and custody in an institution or a community corrections facility when the juvenile court determines that the commitment is appropriate.

Sec. 5153.163. (A) As used in this section, "adoptive parent" means, as the context requires, a prospective adoptive parent or an adoptive parent.

(B)(1) Before a child's adoption is finalized, a public children services agency may enter into an agreement with the child's adoptive parent under which the agency, to the extent state funds are available, may make state adoption maintenance subsidy payments as needed on behalf of the child when all of the following apply:

(a) The child is a child with special needs.
(b) The child was placed in the adoptive home by a public children services agency or a private child placing agency and may legally be adopted.
(c) The adoptive parent has the capability of providing the permanent family relationships needed by the child.
(d) The needs of the child are beyond the economic resources of the adoptive parent.
(e) Acceptance of the child as a member of the adoptive parent's family would not be in the child's best interest without payments on the child's behalf under this section.
(f) The gross income of the adoptive parent's family does not exceed one hundred twenty per cent of the median income of a family of the same size, including the child, as most recently determined for this state by the secretary of health and human services under Title XX of the "Social Security Act," 88 Stat. 2337, 42 U.S.C.A. 1397, as amended.

(2) State adoption maintenance subsidy payment agreements must be made by either the public children services agency that has permanent custody of the child or the public children services agency of the county in which the private child placing agency that has permanent custody of the child is located.

(3) State adoption maintenance subsidy payments shall be made in accordance with the agreement between the public children services agency and the adoptive parent and are subject to an annual redetermination of need.
(4) Payments under this division may begin either before or after issuance of the final adoption decree, except that payments made before issuance of the final adoption decree may be made only while the child is living in the adoptive parent's home. Preadoption payments may be made for not more than twelve months, unless the final adoption decree is not issued within that time because of a delay in court proceedings. Payments that begin before issuance of the final adoption decree may continue after its issuance.

(C)(1) If, after the child's adoption is finalized, a public children services agency considers a child residing in the county served by the agency to be in need of public care or protective services, the agency may, to the extent state funds are appropriated for this purpose, enter into an agreement with the child's adoptive parent under which the agency shall make post adoption special services subsidy payments on behalf of the child as needed when both of the following apply:

(a) The child has a physical or developmental handicap or mental or emotional condition that either:

(i) Existed before the adoption petition was filed; or

(ii) Developed after the adoption petition was filed and can be directly attributed to factors in the child's preadoption background, medical history, or biological family's background or medical history.

(b) The agency determines the expenses necessitated by the child's handicap or condition are beyond the adoptive parent's economic resources.

(2) Services for which a public children services agency may make post adoption special services subsidy payments on behalf of a child under this division shall include medical, surgical, psychiatric, psychological, and counseling services, including residential treatment.

(3) The department of job and family services shall establish clinical standards to evaluate a child's physical or developmental handicap or mental or emotional condition and assess the child's need for services.

(4) The total dollar value of post adoption special services subsidy payments made on a child's behalf shall not exceed ten thousand dollars in any fiscal year, unless the department determines that extraordinary circumstances exist that necessitate further funding of services for the child. Under such extraordinary circumstances, the value of the payments made on the child's behalf shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars in any fiscal year.

(5) The adoptive parent or parents of a child who receives post adoption special services subsidy payments shall pay at least five per cent of the total cost of all services provided to the child; except that a public children services agency may waive this requirement if the gross annual income of the child's adoptive family is not more than two hundred per cent of the federal poverty guideline.

(6) A public children services agency may use other sources of revenue to make post adoption special services subsidy payments, in addition to any state funds appropriated for that purpose.

(D) No payment shall be made under division (B) or (C) of this section on behalf of any person eighteen years of age or older beyond the end of the school year during which the person attains the age of eighteen or on behalf of a mentally or physically handicapped person twenty-one years of age or older.

(E) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are needed to implement this section. The rules shall establish all of the following:

(1) The application process for all forms of assistance provided under this section;

(2) The method to determine the amount of assistance payable under division (B) of this section;

(3) The definition of "child with special needs" for this section;

(4) The process whereby a child's continuing need for services provided under division (B) of this section is annually redetermined;

(5) The method of determining the amount, duration, and scope of services provided to a child under division (C) of this section;

(6) Any other rule, requirement, or procedure the department considers appropriate for the implementation of this section.

(F) The state adoption special services subsidy program ceases to exist on July 1, 2004, except that, subject to the findings of the annual redetermination process established under division (E) of this section and the child's individual need for services, a public children services agency may continue to provide state adoption special services subsidy payments on behalf of a child for whom payments were being made prior to July 1, 2004.

(G) No public children services agency shall, pursuant to either section 2151.353 or 5103.15 of the Revised Code, place or maintain a child with special needs who is in the permanent custody of an institution or association certified by the department of job and family services under section 5103.03 of the Revised Code in a setting other than with a person seeking to adopt the child, unless the agency has determined and redetermined at intervals of not more than six months the impossibility of adoption by a person listed pursuant to division (B), (C), or (D) of section 5103.154 of the Revised Code who wishes to adopt children, and is approved by an agency so empowered under Chapter 5103. of the Revised Code, or by a person who wishes to adopt a child with special needs as defined in rules adopted under this section, and who is approved by an agency so empowered under Chapter 5103. of the Revised Code, including the impossibility of entering into a payment agreement with such a person. The agency so maintaining such a child shall report its reasons for doing so to the department of job and family services.

The department may take any action permitted under section 5101.24 of the Revised Code for an agency's failure to determine, redetermine, and report on a child's status.

Sec. 5155.38. As used in this section, "long-term care bed" has the same meaning as in section 3702.51 of the Revised Code.

The operator of each county home and each county nursing home shall, not later than November 1, 2009, certify to the director of health the number of long-term care beds that were in operation in the home on July 1, 1993. The certification shall be accompanied by any documentation requested by the director.

Sec. 5501.04. The following divisions are hereby established in the department of transportation:

(A) The division of business services;
(B) The division of engineering policy;
(C) The division of finance;
(D) The division of human resources;
(E) The division of information technology;
(F) The division of multi-modal planning and programs;
(G) The division of project management;
(H) The division of equal opportunity.

The director of transportation shall distribute the duties, powers, and functions of the department among the divisions of the department.

Each division shall be headed by a deputy director, whose title shall be designated by the director, and shall include those other officers and employees as may be necessary to carry out the work of the division. The director shall appoint the deputy director of each division, who shall be in the unclassified civil service of the state and shall serve at the pleasure of the director. The director shall supervise the work of each division and shall be responsible for the determination of general policies in the performance of the duties, powers, and functions of the department and of each division. The director shall have complete executive charge of the department, shall be responsible for the organization, direction, and supervision of the work of the department and the performance of the duties, powers, and functions assigned to each division, and may establish necessary administrative units therein. The deputy director of each division, with the approval of the director and subject to Chapter 124. of the Revised Code, shall appoint the necessary employees of the division and may remove such employees for cause.

The division of equal opportunity shall ensure that minority groups and all groups protected by state and federal civil rights laws are afforded equal opportunity to be recruited, trained, and work in the employment of or on projects of the department of transportation, and to participate in contracts awarded by the department. The director of transportation each year shall report to the governor and the general assembly on the division's activities and accomplishments.

Sec. 5502.01. (A) The department of public safety shall administer and enforce the laws relating to the registration, licensing, sale, and operation of motor vehicles and the laws pertaining to the licensing of drivers of motor vehicles.

The department shall compile, analyze, and publish statistics relative to motor vehicle accidents and the causes of them, prepare and conduct educational programs for the purpose of promoting safety in the operation of motor vehicles on the highways, and conduct research and studies for the purpose of promoting safety on the highways of this state.

(B) The department shall administer the laws and rules relative to trauma and emergency medical services specified in Chapter 4765. of the Revised Code.

(C) The department shall administer and enforce the laws contained in Chapters 4301. and 4303. of the Revised Code and enforce the rules and orders of the liquor control commission pertaining to retail liquor permit holders.

(D) The department shall administer the laws governing the state emergency management agency and shall enforce all additional duties and responsibilities as prescribed in the Revised Code related to emergency management services.

(E) The department shall conduct investigations pursuant to Chapter 5101. of the Revised Code in support of the duty of the department of job and family services to administer the food stamp programs, the supplemental nutrition assistance program throughout this state. The department of public safety shall conduct investigations necessary to protect the state's property rights and interests in the food stamp supplemental nutrition assistance program.

(F) The department of public safety shall enforce compliance with orders and rules of the public utilities commission and applicable laws in accordance with Chapters 4919., 4921., and 4923. of the Revised Code regarding commercial motor vehicle transportation safety, economic, and hazardous materials requirements.

(G) Notwithstanding Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code, the department of public safety may establish requirements for its enforcement personnel, including its enforcement agents described in section 5502.14 of the Revised Code, that include standards of conduct, work rules and procedures, and criteria for eligibility as law enforcement personnel.

(H) The department shall administer, maintain, and operate the Ohio criminal justice network. The Ohio criminal justice network shall be a computer network that supports state and local criminal justice activities. The network shall be an electronic repository for various data, which may include arrest warrants, notices of persons wanted by law enforcement agencies, criminal records, prison inmate records, stolen vehicle records, vehicle operator's licenses, and vehicle registrations and titles.

(I) The department shall coordinate all homeland security activities of all state agencies and shall be a liaison between state agencies and local entities for those activities and related purposes.

(J) Beginning July 1, 2004, the department shall administer and enforce the laws relative to private investigators and security service providers specified in Chapter 4749. of the Revised Code.

(K) The department shall administer criminal justice services in accordance with sections 5502.61 to 5502.66 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5502.12. (A) The accident reports submitted pursuant to section 5502.11 of the Revised Code shall be for the use of the director of public safety for purposes of statistical, safety, and other studies. The law enforcement agency that submitted a report shall furnish a copy of such report and associated documents to any person claiming an interest arising out of a motor vehicle accident, or to the person's attorney, upon the payment of a nonrefundable fee of four dollars. The law enforcement agency may charge a fee that is in excess of four dollars for photographs and other documents. The cost of photographs or any other electronic format shall be a four-dollar fee in addition to the nonrefundable four-dollar fee for the accident report, whether the report was submitted by the state highway patrol or another law enforcement agency. A law enforcement agency may charge a fee that is in excess of four dollars for photographs and other documents.
electronic formats if such a fee is approved by a board of county commissioners of the county in which the law enforcement agency is located as provided in division (B) of this section.

Such state highway patrol reports, statements, and photographs, in the discretion of the director of public safety, may be withheld until all criminal prosecution has been concluded; the director of public safety may require proof, satisfactory to the director, of the right of any applicant to be furnished such documents.

(B) If, after the effective date of this amendment, the state highway patrol is authorized to charge a nonrefundable fee in excess of four dollars for an accident report relating to an accident investigated by the state highway patrol and all related reports and statements or a fee in excess of four dollars for photographs or other electronic formats related to an accident report, a law enforcement agency described in section 5502.11 of the Revised Code shall be authorized to charge that same fee for an accident report relating to an accident investigated by that law enforcement agency and all related reports and statements or for photographs or other electronic formats related to an accident report investigated by that law enforcement agency upon approval of the board of county commissioners of the county in which that law enforcement agency is located.

Sec. 5502.14. (A) As used in this section, "felony" has the same meaning as in section 109.511 of the Revised Code.

(B)(1) Any person who is employed by the department of public safety and designated by the director of public safety to enforce Title XLIII of the Revised Code, the rules adopted under it, and the laws and rules regulating the use of food stamps supplemental nutrition assistance program benefits shall be known as an enforcement agent. The employment by the department of public safety and the designation by the director of public safety of a person as an enforcement agent shall be subject to division (D) of this section. An enforcement agent has the authority vested in peace officers pursuant to section 2935.03 of the Revised Code to keep the peace, to enforce all applicable laws and rules on any retail liquor permit premises, or on any other premises of public or private property, where a violation of Title XLIII of the Revised Code or any rule adopted under it is occurring, and to enforce all laws and rules governing the use of food stamp coupons, supplemental nutrition assistance program benefits, women, infants, and children's coupons, electronically transferred benefits, or any other access device that is used alone or in conjunction with another access device to obtain payments, allotments, benefits, money, goods, or other things of value, or that can be used to initiate a transfer of funds, pursuant to the food

(2) In addition to the authority conferred by division (B)(1) of this section, an enforcement agent also may execute search warrants and seize and take into custody any contraband, as defined in section 2901.01 of the Revised Code, or any property that is otherwise necessary for evidentiary purposes related to any violations of the laws or rules described in division (B)(1) of this section. An enforcement agent may enter public or private premises where activity alleged to violate the laws or rules described in division (B)(1) of this section is occurring.

(3) Enforcement agents who are on, immediately adjacent to, or across from retail liquor permit premises and who are performing investigative duties relating to that premises, enforcement agents who are on premises that are not liquor permit premises but on which a violation of Title XLIII of the Revised Code or any rule adopted under it allegedly is occurring, and enforcement agents who view a suspected violation of Title XLIII of the Revised Code, of a rule adopted under it, or of another law or rule described in division (B)(1) of this section have the authority to enforce the laws and rules described in division (B)(1) of this section have the authority to enforce the laws and rules described in division (B)(1) of this section, authority to enforce any section in Title XXIX of the Revised Code or any other section of the Revised Code listed in section 5502.13 of the Revised Code if they witness a violation of the section under any of the circumstances described in this division, and authority to make arrests for violations of the laws and rules described in division (B)(1) of this section and violations of any of those sections.

(4) The jurisdiction of an enforcement agent under division (B) of this section shall be concurrent with that of the peace officers of the county, township, or municipal corporation in which the violation occurs.

(C) Enforcement agents of the department of public safety who are engaged in the enforcement of the laws and rules described in division (B)(1) of this section may carry concealed weapons when conducting undercover investigations pursuant to their authority as law enforcement officers and while acting within the scope of their authority pursuant to this chapter.

(D)(1) The department of public safety shall not employ, and the director of public safety shall not designate, a person as an enforcement agent on a permanent basis, on a temporary basis, for a probationary term, or on other than a permanent basis if the person previously has been convicted of or has pleaded guilty to a felony.

(2)(a) The department of public safety shall terminate the employment of a person who is designated as an enforcement agent and who does either of the following:

(i) Pleads guilty to a felony;
(ii) Pleads guilty to a misdemeanor pursuant to a negotiated plea agreement as provided in division (D) of section 2929.43 of the Revised Code in which the enforcement agent agrees to surrender the certificate awarded to that agent under section 109.77 of the Revised Code.

(b) The department shall suspend the employment of a person who is designated as an enforcement agent if the person is convicted, after trial, of a felony. If the enforcement agent files an appeal from that conviction and the conviction is upheld by the highest court to which the appeal is taken or if no timely appeal is filed, the department shall terminate the employment of that agent. If the enforcement agent files an appeal that results in that agent's acquittal of the felony or conviction of a misdemeanor, or in the dismissal of the felony charge against the agent, the department shall reinstate the agent. An enforcement agent who is reinstated under division (D)(2)(b) of this section shall not receive any back pay unless the conviction of that agent of the felony was reversed on appeal, or the felony charge was dismissed, because the court found insufficient evidence to convict the agent of the felony.

(3) Division (D) of this section does not apply regarding an offense that was committed prior to January 1, 1997.

(4) The suspension or termination of the employment of a person designated as an enforcement agent under division (D)(2) of this section shall be in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5502.15. Any funding provided or made available by the United States or by any agency designated and authorized by the United States government for the purposes of enforcing compliance with food stamp supplemental nutrition assistance program laws shall be expended by the department of public safety for those purposes.

Sec. 5505.15. (A)(1) A member of the state highway patrol retirement system shall contribute ten per cent of the member's annual salary to the state highway patrol retirement fund. The amount shall be deducted by the employer from the employee's salary for each payroll period.

(2) The total contributions arising from deductions made prior to January 1, 1966, from the salaries of members in the employ of the state highway patrol and standing to the credit of their individual accounts in the retirement fund shall be transferred and credited to their respective individual accounts in the employees’ savings fund.

(B) The state shall annually pay into the employer accumulation fund, in monthly or less frequent installments as the state highway patrol retirement board requires, an amount that shall be a certain percentage of the total salaries paid contributing members and shall be known as the “employer contribution.” The employer contribution shall be an amount equal to twenty-six and one-half per cent of the total salaries paid contributing members. If a member severs connection with the patrol or is dismissed, the employer contribution shall remain in the retirement system.

The rate percentage of the employer contribution shall be certified by the board to the director of budget and management and shall not be lower than nine per cent of the total salaries paid contributing members and shall not exceed three times the rate percentage being deducted from the annual salaries of contributing members. The board shall prepare and submit to the director, on or before the first day of November of each even-numbered year, an estimate of the amounts necessary to pay the state's obligations accruing during the biennium beginning the first day of July of the following year. Such amounts shall be included in the budget and allocated as certified by the board.

Sec. 5505.152. (A) As used in this section, "entry age normal actuarial cost method" means an actuarial cost method under which the actuarial present value of the projected benefits of each individual included in the valuation is allocated on a level basis over the earnings or service of the individual between the entry age and the assumed exit age, with the portion of the actuarial present value that is allocated to the valuation year to be the normal cost and the portion of the actuarial present value not provided for at the valuation date by the actuarial present value of future normal costs to be the actuarial accrued liability. Under this method, the actuarial gains or losses are reflected as they occur in a decrease or increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability.

(B) The Ohio retirement study council shall annually review the adequacy of the contribution rates provided under divisions (A) and (B) of section 5505.15 of the Revised Code and the contribution rates recommended in a report by the actuary of the state highway patrol retirement system for the forthcoming year.

The actuarial calculations used by the actuary shall be based on the entry age normal actuarial cost method, and the adequacy of the contribution rates shall be reported on the basis of that method. The Ohio retirement study council shall make recommendations to the general assembly that it finds necessary for the proper financing of the benefits of the state highway patrol retirement system.

Sec. 5525.26. Except as provided in federal law, if a project for the construction, reconstruction, or other improvement to a road or highway is administered by the department of transportation or any local public authority authorized under division (C) of section 5501.03 of the Revised Code, if the project is located in a municipal corporation with a population of at least four hundred thousand that is in a county with a population of at least one million two hundred thousand, and if the project is funded with at least one hundred thousand dollars from a political subdivision, then a contractor for the project shall comply with regulations or ordinances of the political subdivision that are in effect before July 1, 2009, and that specifically relate to the employment of residents and local businesses of the political subdivision in the performance of the work of the project, and such ordinances or regulations shall be included by reference unambiguously in the contract between the department of transportation or public authority and the contractor for the project.

Sec. 5537.051. (A)(1) In any county that as of January 1, 2009, had closed one or more roads as a result of grade separation failure at intersections of a turnpike project with a county or township road, the Ohio turnpike commission is responsible for the major maintenance and repair and replacement of such failed grade separations. The governmental entity with jurisdiction over the county or township road is responsible for routine maintenance of such failed grade separations.

(2) This section does not apply to any grade separation at intersections of a turnpike project with a county or township road except as described in division (A)(1) of this section.

(B) As used in this section:
(1) "Major maintenance and repair and replacement" relates to all elements constructed as part of or required for a grade separation, including box culverts, bridges, pile, foundations, substructures, abutments, piers, superstructures, approach slabs, slopes, approaches, embankments, railing, guardrails, drainage facilities including headwalls, and underdrains, inlets, catch basins and grates, fences, and appurtenances. Major maintenance and repair includes the painting and the repair of deteriorated or damaged elements to restore the structural integrity of any grade separation including embankments.

(2) "Routine maintenance" includes, without limitation, clearing debris, sweeping, snow and ice removal, wearing surface improvements, marking for traffic control, minor and emergency repairs to railing and appurtenances, and emergency patching.

Sec. 5701.11. The effective date to which this section refers is the effective date of this section as amended by Sub. H.B. 458 of the 127th 128th general assembly.

(A)(1) Except as provided under division (A)(2) or (B) of this section, any reference in Title LVII of the Revised Code to the Internal Revenue Code, to the Internal Revenue Code "as amended," to other laws of the United States, or to other laws of the United States, "as amended," means the Internal Revenue Code or other laws of the United States as they exist on the effective date.

(2) This section does not apply to any reference in Title LVII of the Revised Code to the Internal Revenue Code as of a date certain specifying the day, month, and year, or to other laws of the United States as of a date certain specifying the day, month, and year.

(B)(1) For purposes of applying section 5733.04, 5745.01, or 5747.01 of the Revised Code to a taxpayer's taxable year ending after December 24, 2007 30, 2008, and before the effective date, a taxpayer may irrevocably elect to incorporate the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code or other laws of the United States that are in effect for federal income tax purposes for that taxable year if those provisions differ from the provisions that, under division (A) of this section, would otherwise apply. The filing by the taxpayer for that taxable year of a report or return that incorporates the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code or other laws of the United States applicable for federal income tax purposes for that taxable year, and that does not include any adjustments to reverse the effects of any differences between those provisions and the provisions that would otherwise apply, constitutes the making of an irrevocable election under this division for that taxable year.

Sec. 5703.21. (A) Except as provided in divisions (B) and (C) of this section, no agent of the department of taxation, except in the agent's report to the department or when called on to testify in any court or proceeding, shall divulge any information acquired by the agent as to the transactions, property, or business of any person while acting or claiming to act under orders of the department. Whoever violates this provision shall thereafter be disqualified from acting as an officer or employee or in any other capacity under appointment or employment of the department.
(B)(1) For purposes of an audit pursuant to section 117.15 of the Revised Code, or an audit of the department pursuant to Chapter 117. of the Revised Code, or an audit, pursuant to that chapter, the objective of which is to express an opinion on a financial report or statement prepared or issued pursuant to division (A)(7) or (9) of section 126.21 of the Revised Code, the officers and employees of the auditor of state charged with conducting the audit shall have access to and the right to examine any state tax returns and state tax return information in the possession of the department to the extent that the access and examination are necessary for purposes of the audit. Any information acquired as the result of that access and examination shall not be divulged for any purpose other than as required for the audit or unless the officers and employees are required to testify in a court or proceeding under compulsion of legal process. Whoever violates this provision shall thereafter be disqualified from acting as an officer or employee or in any other capacity under appointment or employment of the auditor of state.

(2) For purposes of an internal audit pursuant to section 126.45 of the Revised Code, the officers and employees of the office of internal auditing in the office of budget and management charged with conducting the internal audit shall have access to and the right to examine any state tax returns and state tax return information in the possession of the department to the extent that the access and examination are necessary for purposes of the internal audit. Any information acquired as the result of that access and examination shall not be divulged for any purpose other than as required for the audit or unless the officers and employees are required to testify in a court or proceeding under compulsion of legal process. Whoever violates this provision shall thereafter be disqualified from acting as an officer or employee or in any other capacity under appointment or employment of the office of internal auditing.

(3) As provided by section 6103(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, any federal tax returns or federal tax information that the department has acquired from the internal revenue service, through federal and state statutory authority, may be disclosed to the auditor of state or the office of internal auditing solely for purposes of an audit of the department.

(4) For purposes of Chapter 3739. of the Revised Code, an agent of the department of taxation may share information with the division of state fire marshal that the agent finds during the course of an investigation.

(C) Division (A) of this section does not prohibit any of the following:

(1) Divulging information contained in applications, complaints, and related documents filed with the department under section 5715.27 of the Revised Code or in applications filed with the department under section
5715.39 of the Revised Code;

(2) Providing information to the office of child support within the department of job and family services pursuant to section 3125.43 of the Revised Code;

(3) Disclosing to the board of motor vehicle collision repair registration any information in the possession of the department that is necessary for the board to verify the existence of an applicant's valid vendor's license and current state tax identification number under section 4775.07 of the Revised Code;

(4) Providing information to the administrator of workers' compensation pursuant to sections 4123.271 and 4123.591 of the Revised Code;

(5) Providing to the attorney general information the department obtains under division (J) of section 1346.01 of the Revised Code;

(6) Permitting properly authorized officers, employees, or agents of a municipal corporation from inspecting reports or information pursuant to rules adopted under section 5745.16 of the Revised Code;

(7) Providing information regarding the name, account number, or business address of a holder of a vendor's license issued pursuant to section 5739.17 of the Revised Code, a holder of a direct payment permit issued pursuant to section 5739.031 of the Revised Code, or a seller having a use tax account maintained pursuant to section 5741.17 of the Revised Code, or information regarding the active or inactive status of a vendor's license, direct payment permit, or seller's use tax account;

(8) Releasing invoices or invoice information furnished under section 4301.433 of the Revised Code pursuant to that section;

(9) Providing to a county auditor notices or documents concerning or affecting the taxable value of property in the county auditor's county. Unless authorized by law to disclose documents so provided, the county auditor shall not disclose such documents;

(10) Providing to a county auditor sales or use tax return or audit information under section 333.06 of the Revised Code;

(11) Subject to section 4301.441 of the Revised Code, disclosing to the appropriate state agency information in the possession of the department of taxation that is necessary to verify a permit holder's gallonage or noncompliance with taxes levied under Chapter 4301. or 4305. of the Revised Code;

(12) Disclosing to the department of natural resources information in the possession of the department that is necessary to verify the taxpayer's compliance with division (A)(1), (8), or (9) of section 5749.02 of the Revised Code.
Disclosing to the department of job and family services, industrial commission, and bureau of workers' compensation information in the possession of the department of taxation solely for the purpose of identifying employers that misclassify employees as independent contractors or that fail to properly report and pay employer tax liabilities. The department of taxation shall disclose only such information that is necessary to verify employer compliance with law administered by those agencies.

Sec. 5703.37. Whenever (A)(1) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, whenever service of a notice or order is required in the manner provided in this section, a certified copy of the order or notice or order shall be served upon the person affected thereby either by personal service or by certified mail. Within the time specified in an order of the department of taxation, every person upon whom it is served, if required by the order, shall notify the department, by personal service, certified mail, or a delivery service authorized under section 5703.056 of the Revised Code, whether the terms of the order are accepted and will be obeyed that notifies the tax commissioner of the date of delivery.

(2) With the permission of the person affected by the notice or order, the commissioner may enter into a written agreement to deliver a notice or order by alternative means as provided in this section, including, but not limited to, delivery by secure electronic mail. Delivery by such means satisfies the requirements for delivery under this section.

(B)(1)(a) If certified mail is returned because of an undeliverable address, the commissioner shall first utilize reasonable means to ascertain a new last known address, including the use of a change of address service offered by the United States postal service. If, after using reasonable means, the commissioner is unable to ascertain a new last known address, the assessment is final for purposes of section 131.02 of the Revised Code sixty days after the notice or order sent by certified mail is first returned to the commissioner, and the commissioner shall certify the notice or order, if applicable, to the attorney general for collection under section 131.02 of the Revised Code.

(b) Notwithstanding certification to the attorney general under division (B)(1)(a) of this section, once the commissioner or attorney general, or the designee of either, makes an initial contact with the person to whom the notice or order is directed, the person may protest an assessment by filing a petition for reassessment within sixty days after the initial contact. The certification of an assessment under division (B)(1)(a) of this section is prima-facie evidence that delivery is complete and that the notice or order is served.
(2) If mailing of a notice or order by certified mail is returned for some cause other than an undeliverable address, the tax commissioner shall resend the notice or order by ordinary mail. The notice or order shall show the date the commissioner sends the notice or order and include the following statement:

“This notice or order is deemed to be served on the addressee under applicable law ten days from the date this notice or order was mailed by the commissioner as shown on the notice or order, and all periods within which an appeal may be filed apply from and after that date.”

Unless the mailing is returned because of an undeliverable address, the mailing of that information is prima-facie evidence that delivery of the notice or order was completed ten days after the commissioner sent the notice or order by ordinary mail and that the notice or order was served.

If the ordinary mail is subsequently returned because of an undeliverable address, the commissioner shall proceed under division (B)(1)(a) of this section. A person may challenge the presumption of delivery and service under this division in accordance with division (C) of this section.

(C)(1) A person disputing the presumption of delivery and service under division (B) of this section bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the address to which the notice or order was sent was not an address with which the person was associated at the time the commissioner originally mailed the notice or order by certified mail. For the purposes of this section, a person is associated with an address at the time the commissioner originally mailed the notice or order if, at that time, the person was residing, receiving legal documents, or conducting business at the address; or if, before that time, the person had conducted business at the address and, when the notice or order was mailed, the person's agent or the person's affiliate was conducting business at the address. For the purposes of this section, a person's affiliate is any other person that, at the time the notice or order was mailed, owned or controlled at least twenty per cent, as determined by voting rights, of the addressee's business.

(2) If the person elects to protest an assessment certified to the attorney general for collection, the person must do so within sixty days after the attorney general's initial contact with the person. The attorney general may enter into a compromise with the person under sections 131.02 and 5703.06 of the Revised Code if the person does not file a petition for reassessment with the tax commissioner.

(D) Nothing in this section prohibits the tax commissioner or the commissioner's designee from delivering a notice or order by personal service.

(E) Collection actions taken pursuant to section 131.02 of the Revised Code upon any assessment being challenged under division (B)(1)(b) of this section shall be stayed upon the pendency of an appeal under this section. If a petition for reassessment is filed pursuant to this section on a claim that has been certified to the attorney general for collection, the claim shall be uncertified.

(F) As used in this section:

(1) "Last known address" means the address the department has at the time the document is originally sent by certified mail, or any address the department can ascertain using reasonable means such as the use of a change of address service offered by the United States postal service.

(2) "Undeliverable address" means an address to which the United States postal service is not able to deliver a notice or order, except when the reason for nondelivery is because the addressee fails to acknowledge or accept the notice or order.

Sec. 5703.80. There is hereby created in the state treasury the property tax administration fund. All money to the credit of the fund shall be used to defray the costs incurred by the department of taxation in administering the taxation of property and the equalization of real property valuation.

Each fiscal year between the first and fifteenth days of July, the tax commissioner shall compute the following amounts for the property in each taxing district in each county, and certify to the director of budget and management the sum of those amounts for all taxing districts in all counties:

(A) For fiscal year 2006-2010, thirty-three forty-two hundredths of one per cent of the total amount by which taxes charged against real property on the general tax list of real and public utility property were reduced under section 319.302 of the Revised Code for the preceding tax year;

(B) For fiscal year 2007-2011 and thereafter, thirty-five forty-eight hundredths of one per cent of the total amount by which taxes charged against real property on the general tax list of real and public utility property were reduced under section 319.302 of the Revised Code for the preceding tax year;

(C) For fiscal year 2006-2010, one half eight-tenths of one per cent of the total amount of taxes charged and payable against public utility personal property on the general tax list of real and public utility property for the preceding tax year and of the total amount of taxes charged and payable against tangible personal property on the general tax list of personal property of the preceding tax year and for which returns were filed with the tax commissioner under section 5711.13 of the Revised Code;
(D) For fiscal year 2007 and thereafter, fifty-six hundredths nine hundred fifty-one thousandths of one per cent of the total amount of taxes charged and payable against public utility personal property on the general tax list of real and public utility property for the preceding tax year and of the total amount of taxes charged and payable against tangible personal property on the general tax list of personal property of the preceding tax year and for which returns were filed with the tax commissioner under section 5711.13 of the Revised Code;

(E) For fiscal year 2008, six-tenths of one per cent of the total amount of taxes charged and payable against public utility personal property on the general tax list of real and public utility property for the preceding tax year and of the total amount of taxes charged and payable against tangible personal property on the general tax list of personal property of the preceding tax year and for which returns were filed with the tax commissioner under section 5711.13 of the Revised Code;

(F) For fiscal year 2009 and thereafter, seven hundred twenty-five one-thousandths of one per cent of the total amount of taxes charged and payable against public utility personal property on the general tax list of real and public utility property for the preceding tax year and of the total amount of taxes charged and payable against tangible personal property on the general tax list of personal property of the preceding tax year and for which returns were filed with the tax commissioner under section 5711.13 of the Revised Code.

After receiving the tax commissioner's certification, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the property tax administration fund one-fourth of the amount certified on or before each of the following days: the first days of August, November, February, and May.

On or before the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year, the tax commissioner shall certify to the director of budget and management the sum of the amounts by which the amounts computed for a taxing district under this section exceeded the distributions to the taxing district under division (F) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code, and the director shall transfer that sum from the property tax administration fund to the general revenue fund.

Sec. 5705.01. As used in this chapter:

"Taxing authority" also means the educational service center governing board that serves as the taxing authority of a county school.
financing district as provided in section 3311.50 of the Revised Code, and the board of directors of a regional student education district created under section 3313.83 of the Revised Code.

(D) "Fiscal officer" in the case of a county, means the county auditor; in the case of a municipal corporation, the city auditor or village clerk, or an officer who, by virtue of the charter, has the duties and functions of the city auditor or village clerk, except that in the case of a municipal university the board of directors of which have assumed, in the manner provided by law, the custody and control of the funds of the university, the chief accounting officer of the university shall perform, with respect to the funds, the duties vested in the fiscal officer of the subdivision by sections 5705.41 and 5705.44 of the Revised Code; in the case of a school district, the treasurer of the board of education; in the case of a county school financing district, the treasurer of the educational service center governing board that serves as the taxing authority; in the case of a township, the township fiscal officer; in the case of a joint fire district, the clerk of the board of fire district trustees; in the case of a joint ambulance district, the clerk of the board of trustees of the district; in the case of a joint emergency medical services district, the person appointed as fiscal officer pursuant to division (D) of section 307.053 of the Revised Code; in the case of a fire and ambulance district, the person appointed as fiscal officer pursuant to division (B) of section 505.375 of the Revised Code; in the case of a joint recreation district, the person designated pursuant to section 755.15 of the Revised Code; in the case of a union cemetery district, the clerk of the municipal corporation designated in section 759.34 of the Revised Code; in the case of a children's home district, educational service center, general health district, joint-county alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district, county library district, detention facility district, district organized under section 2151.65 of the Revised Code, a combined district organized under sections 2152.41 and 2151.65 of the Revised Code, or a metropolitan park district for which no treasurer has been appointed pursuant to section 1545.07 of the Revised Code, the county auditor of the county designated by law to act as the auditor of the district; in the case of a metropolitan park district which has appointed a treasurer pursuant to section 1545.07 of the Revised Code, that treasurer; in the case of a drainage improvement district, the auditor of the county in which the drainage improvement district is located; in the case of a regional student education district, the fiscal officer appointed pursuant to section 3313.83 of the Revised Code; and in all other cases, the officer responsible for keeping the appropriation accounts and drawing warrants for the expenditure of the moneys of the district or taxing unit.
(E) "Permanent improvement" or "improvement" means any property, asset, or improvement with an estimated life or usefulness of five years or more, including land and interests therein, and reconstructions, enlargements, and extensions thereof having an estimated life or usefulness of five years or more.

(F) "Current operating expenses" and "current expenses" mean the lawful expenditures of a subdivision, except those for permanent improvements, and except payments for interest, sinking fund, and retirement of bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the subdivision.

(G) "Debt charges" means interest, sinking fund, and retirement charges on bonds, notes, or certificates of indebtedness.

(H) "Taxing unit" means any subdivision or other governmental district having authority to levy taxes on the property in the district or issue bonds that constitute a charge against the property of the district, including conservancy districts, metropolitan park districts, sanitary districts, road districts, and other districts.

(I) "District authority" means any board of directors, trustees, commissioners, or other officers controlling a district institution or activity that derives its income or funds from two or more subdivisions, such as the educational service center, the trustees of district children's homes, the district board of health, a joint-county alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district's board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, detention facility districts, a joint recreation district board of trustees, districts organized under section 2151.65 of the Revised Code, combined districts organized under sections 2152.41 and 2151.65 of the Revised Code, and other such boards.

(J) "Tax list" and "tax duplicate" mean the general tax lists and duplicates prescribed by sections 319.28 and 319.29 of the Revised Code.

(K) "Property" as applied to a tax levy means taxable property listed on general tax lists and duplicates.

(L) "School library district" means a school district in which a free public library has been established that is under the control and management of a board of library trustees as provided in section 3375.15 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5705.211. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Adjusted charge-off increase" for a tax year means two and three tenths per cent of the cumulative carryover property value increase. If the cumulative carryover property value increase is computed on the basis of a school district's recognized valuation for a fiscal year before fiscal year 2014, the adjusted charge-off increase shall be adjusted to account for the greater charge-off rates prescribed for such fiscal years under sections 3317.022 and 3306.13 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Cumulative carryover property value increase" means the sum of the increases in carryover value certified under division (B)(2) of section 3317.015 of the Revised Code and included in a school district's total taxable value in the computation of recognized valuation under division (B) of that section for all fiscal years from the fiscal year that ends in the first tax year a levy under this section is extended on the tax list of real and public utility property until and including the fiscal year that ends in the current tax year.

(3) "Taxes charged and payable" means the taxes charged and payable from a tax levy extended on the real and public utility property tax list and the general list of personal property before any reduction under section 319.302, 323.152, or 323.158 of the Revised Code.

(B) The board of education of a city, local, or exempted village school district may adopt a resolution proposing the levy of a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation for the purpose of paying the current operating expenses of the district. If the resolution is approved as provided in division (D) of this section, the tax may be levied at such a rate each tax year that the total taxes charged and payable from the levy equals the adjusted charge-off increase for the tax year or equals a lesser amount as prescribed under division (C) of this section. The tax may be levied for a continuing period of time or for a specific number of years, but not fewer than five years, as provided in the resolution. The tax may not be placed on the tax list for a tax year beginning before the first day of January following adoption of the resolution. A board of education may not adopt a resolution under this section proposing to levy a tax under this section concurrently with any other tax levied by the board under this section.

(C) After the first year a tax is levied under this section, the rate of the tax in any year shall not exceed the rate, estimated by the county auditor, that would cause the sums levied from the tax against carryover property to exceed one hundred four per cent of the sums levied from the tax against carryover property in the preceding year. A board of education imposing a tax under this section may specify in the resolution imposing the tax that the percentage shall be less than one hundred four per cent, but the percentage shall not be less than one hundred per cent. At any time after a resolution adopted under this section is approved by a majority of electors as provided in division (D) of this section, the board of education, by resolution, may decrease the percentage specified in the resolution levying the tax.
A resolution adopted under this section shall state that the purpose of the tax is to pay current operating expenses of the district, and shall specify the first year in which the tax is to be levied, the number of years the tax will be levied or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time, and the election at which the question of the tax is to appear on the ballot, which shall be a general or special election consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code. If the board of education specifies a percentage less than one hundred four per cent pursuant to division (C) of this section, the percentage shall be specified in the resolution.

Upon adoption of the resolution, the board of education may certify a copy of the resolution to the proper county board of elections. The copy of the resolution shall be certified to the board of elections not later than seventy-five days before the day of the election at which the question of the tax is to appear on the ballot. Upon receiving a timely certified copy of such a resolution, the board of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of the question to the electors of the school district, and the election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections in the school district for the election of members of the board of education. Notice of the election shall be published in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the school district once per week for four consecutive weeks. The notice shall state that the purpose of the tax is for the current operating expenses of the school district, the first year the tax is to be levied, the number of years the tax is to be levied or that it is to be levied for a continuing period of time, that the tax is to be levied each year in an amount estimated to offset decreases in state base cost funding caused by appreciation in real estate values, and that the estimated additional tax in any year shall not exceed the previous year's by more than four per cent, or a lesser percentage specified in the resolution levying the tax, except for increases caused by the addition of new taxable property.

The question shall be submitted as a separate proposition but may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election other than the election of officers.

The form of the ballot shall be substantially as follows:

"An additional tax for the benefit of (name of school district) for the purpose of paying the current operating expenses of the district, for .......... (number of years or for continuing period of time), at a rate sufficient to offset any reduction in basic state funding caused by appreciation in real estate values? This levy will permit variable annual growth in revenue up to .......... (amount specified by school district) per cent for the duration of the levy."
For the tax levy
Against the tax levy

If a majority of the electors of the school district voting on the question vote in favor of the question, the board of elections shall certify the results of the election to the board of education and to the tax commissioner immediately after the canvass.

(E) When preparing any estimate of the contemplated receipts from a tax levied pursuant to this section for the purposes of sections 5705.28 to 5705.40 of the Revised Code, and in preparing to certify the tax under section 5705.34 of the Revised Code, a board of education authorized to levy such a tax shall use information supplied by the department of education to determine the adjusted charge-off increase for the tax year for which that certification is made. If the board levied a tax under this section in the preceding tax year, the sum to be certified for collection from the tax shall not exceed the sum that would exceed the limitation imposed under division (C) of this section. At the request of the board of education or the treasurer of the school district, the county auditor shall assist the board of education in determining the rate or sum that may be levied under this section.

The board of education shall certify the sum authorized to be levied to the county auditor, and, for the purpose of the county auditor determining the rate at which the tax is to be levied in the tax year, the sum so certified shall be the sum to be raised by the tax unless the sum exceeds the limitation imposed by division (C) of this section. A tax levied pursuant to this section shall not be levied at a rate in excess of the rate estimated by the county auditor to produce the sum certified by the board of education before the reductions under sections 319.302, 323.152, and 323.158 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding section 5705.34 of the Revised Code, a board of education authorized to levy a tax under this section shall certify the tax to the county auditor before the first day of October of the tax year in which the tax is to be levied, or at a later date as approved by the tax commissioner.

Sec. 5705.214. Not more than three elections during any calendar year shall include the questions by a school district of tax levies proposed under any one or any combination of the following sections: sections 5705.194, 5705.199, 5705.21, 5705.212, 5705.213, 5705.217, and 5705.218, and 5705.219 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5705.219. (A) As used in this section:
(1) "Eligible school district" means a city, local, or exempted village school district in which the taxes charged and payable for current expenses on residential/agricultural real property in the tax year preceding the year in which the levy authorized by this section will be submitted for elector approval or rejection are greater than two per cent of the taxable value of the residential/agricultural real property.

(2) "Residential/agricultural real property" and "nonresidential/agricultural real property" means the property classified as such under section 5713.041 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Effective tax rate" and "taxes charged and payable" have the same meanings as in division (B) of section 319.301 of the Revised Code.

(B) On or after January 1, 2010, but before January 1, 2015, the board of education of an eligible school district, by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, may adopt a resolution proposing to convert existing levies imposed for the purpose of current expenses into a levy raising a specified amount of tax money by repealing all or a portion of one or more of those existing levies and imposing a levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation that will raise a specified amount of money for current expenses of the district.

The board of education shall certify a copy of the resolution to the tax commissioner not later than ninety days before the election upon which the repeal and levy authorized by this section will be proposed to the electors. Within ten days after receiving the copy of the resolution, the tax commissioner shall determine each of the following and certify the determinations to the board of education:

(1) The dollar amount to be raised by the proposed levy, which shall be the product of:
   (a) The difference between the aggregate effective tax rate for residential/agricultural real property for the tax year preceding the year in which the repeal and levy will be proposed to the electors and twenty mills per dollar of taxable value;
   (b) The total taxable value of all property on the tax list of real and public utility property for the tax year preceding the year in which the repeal and levy will be proposed to the electors;

(2) The estimated tax rate of the proposed levy.

(3) The existing levies and any portion of an existing levy to be repealed upon approval of the question. Levies shall be repealed in reverse chronological order from most recently imposed to least recently imposed until the sum of the effective tax rates repealed for residential/agricultural real property is equal to the difference calculated in division (B)(1)(a) of this section.
(4) The sum of the following:

(a) The total taxable value of nonresidential/agricultural real property for the tax year preceding the year in which the repeal and levy will be proposed to the electors multiplied by the difference between (i) the aggregate effective tax rate for nonresidential/agricultural real property for the existing levies and any portion of an existing levy to be repealed and (ii) the amount determined under division (B)(1)(a) of this section, but not less than zero;

(b) The total taxable value of public utility tangible personal property for the tax year preceding the year in which the repeal and levy will be proposed to the electors multiplied by the difference between (i) the aggregate voted tax rate for the existing levies and any portion of an existing levy to be repealed and (ii) the amount determined under division (B)(1)(a) of this section, but not less than zero.

(C) Upon receipt of the certification from the tax commissioner under division (B) of this section, a majority of the members of the board of education may adopt a resolution proposing the repeal of the existing levies as identified in the certification and the imposition of a levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation that will raise annually the amount certified by the commissioner. If the board determines that the tax should be for an amount less than that certified by the commissioner, the board may request that the commissioner redetermine the rate under division (B)(2) of this section on the basis of the lesser amount the levy is to raise as specified by the board. The amount certified under division (B)(4) and the levies to be repealed as certified under division (B)(3) of this section shall not be redetermined. Within ten days after receiving a timely request specifying the lesser amount to be raised by the levy, the commissioner shall redetermine the rate and recertify it to the board as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section. Only one such request may be made by the board of education of an eligible school district.

The resolution shall state the first calendar year in which the levy will be due; the existing levies and any portion of an existing levy that will be repealed, as certified by the commissioner; the term of the levy expressed in years, which may be any number not exceeding ten, or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time; and the date of the election, which shall be the date of a primary or general election.

Immediately upon its passage, the resolution shall go into effect and shall be certified by the board of education to the county auditor of the proper county. The county auditor and the board of education shall proceed as required under section 5705.195 of the Revised Code. No publication of the resolution is necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. Section 5705.196 of the Revised Code shall govern the matters concerning the election. The submission of a question to the electors under this section is subject to the limitation on the number of election dates established by section 5705.214 of the Revised Code.

(D) The form of the ballot to be used at the election provided for in this section shall be as follows:

"Shall the existing levy of . . . (insert the voted millage rate of the levy to be repealed), currently being charged against residential and agricultural property by the . . . (insert the name of school district) at a rate of . . . (insert the residential/agricultural real property effective tax rate of the levy being repealed) for the purpose of . . . (insert the purpose of the existing levy) be repealed, and shall a levy be imposed by the . . . (insert the name of school district) in excess of the ten-mill limitation for the necessary requirements of the school district in the sum of . . . (insert the annual amount the levy is to produce), estimated by the tax commissioner to require . . . (insert the number of mills) mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to . . . (insert the rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation for the initial year of the tax, for a period of . . . (insert the number of years the levy is to be imposed, or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time), commencing in . . . (insert the first year the tax is to be levied), first due in calendar year . . . (insert the first calendar year in which the tax shall be due)?

If the question submitted is a proposal to repeal all or a portion of more than one existing levy, the form of the ballot shall be modified by substituting the statement "shall the existing levy of" with "shall existing levies of" and inserting the aggregate voted and aggregate effective tax rates to be repealed.

(E) If a majority of the electors voting on the question submitted in an election vote in favor of the repeal and levy, the result shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the board of education. The board of education may make the levy necessary to raise the amount specified in the resolution for the purpose stated in the resolution and shall certify it to the county auditor, who shall extend it on the current year tax lists for collection. After the first year, the levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

(F) A levy imposed under this section for a continuing period of time may be decreased or repealed pursuant to section 5705.261 of the Revised Code. If a levy imposed under this section is decreased, the amount calculated under division (B)(4) of this section and paid under section 5705.2110 of the Revised Code shall be decreased by the same proportion as the levy is decreased. If the levy is repealed, no further payments shall be made to the district under that section.

(G) At any time, the board of education, by a vote of two-thirds of all of its members, may adopt a resolution to renew a tax levied under this section. The resolution shall provide for levying the tax and specifically all of the following:

1. That the tax shall be called, and designated on the ballot as, a renewal levy;
2. The amount of the renewal tax, which shall be no more than the amount of tax previously collected;
3. The number of years, not to exceed ten, that the renewal tax will be levied, or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time;
4. That the purpose of the renewal tax is for current expenses.

The board shall certify a copy of the resolution to the board of elections not later than seventy-five days before the date of the election at which the question is to be submitted, which shall be the date of a primary or general election.

(H) The form of the ballot to be used at the election on the question of renewing a levy under this section shall be as follows:

"Shall a tax levy renewing an existing levy of . . . (insert the annual dollar amount the levy is to produce each year), estimated to require . . . (insert the number of mills) mills for each one dollar of valuation be imposed by the . . . (insert the name of school district) for the purpose of current expenses for a period of . . . (insert the number of years the levy is to be imposed, or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time), commencing in . . . (insert the first year the tax is to be levied), first due in calendar year . . . (insert the first calendar year in which the tax shall be due)?"
If the levy submitted is to be for less than the amount of money previously collected, the form of the ballot shall be modified to add "and reducing" after "renewing" and to add before "estimated to require" the statement "be approved at a tax rate necessary to produce . . . (insert the lower annual dollar amount the levy is to produce each year).

Sec. 5705.2110. (A) For purposes of this section:
(1) "Carryover property" has the same meaning as in section 319.301 of the Revised Code.
(2) "Residential/agricultural real property" has the same meaning as in section 5705.219 of the Revised Code.

(B) For each city, local, or exempted village school district in which the tax authorized by section 5705.219 of the Revised Code has been approved by electors in the preceding year, the tax commissioner, not later than the twenty-eighth day of February, shall certify to the department of education the amount determined in division (B)(4) of section 5705.219 of the Revised Code. Not later than the twenty-eighth day of February of each year thereafter for twelve years, the commissioner shall certify an amount equal to the difference between the amount certified in the preceding year under this division and the product of ten mills per dollar multiplied by the excess, if any, of the value of carryover property for residential/agricultural real property for the preceding tax year over the value of carryover property for residential/agricultural real property in the second preceding tax year. If the amount to be certified in any year is zero, in the commissioner's certification the commissioner shall state that no further certifications shall be forthcoming.

(C) Not later than the last day of April and of October beginning in the first year in which a certification under division (B) of this section is received, the department of education shall pay to the school district for which the certification is made one-half of the amount most recently certified by the tax commissioner.

Sec. 5705.2111. (A) If the board of directors of a regional student education district created under section 3313.83 of the Revised Code desires to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation throughout the district for the purpose of funding the services to be provided by the district to students enrolled in the school districts of which the district is composed and their immediate family members, the board shall propose the levy to each of the boards of education of those school districts. The proposal shall specify the rate or amount of the tax, the number of years the tax will be levied or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time, and that the aggregate rate of the tax shall not exceed three mills per dollar of taxable value in the regional student education district.

(B)(1) If a majority of the boards of education of the school districts of which the regional student education district is composed approves the proposal for the tax levy, the board of directors of the regional student education district may adopt a resolution approved by a majority of the board's full membership declaring the necessity of levying the proposed tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation throughout the district for the purpose of funding the services to be provided by the district to students enrolled in the school districts of which the district is composed and their immediate family members. The resolution shall provide for the question of the tax to be submitted to the electors of the district at a general, primary, or special election on a day to be specified in the resolution that is consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code and that occurs at least seventy-five days after the resolution is certified to the board of elections. The resolution shall specify the rate or amount of the tax and the number of years the tax will be levied or that the tax will be levied for a continuing period of time. The aggregate rate of tax levied by a regional student education district under this section at any time shall not exceed three mills per dollar of taxable value in the district. A tax levied under this section may be renewed, subject to section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, or replaced as provided in section 5705.192 of the Revised Code.

(2) The resolution shall take effect immediately upon passage, and no publication of the resolution is necessary other than that provided in the notice of election. The resolution shall be certified and submitted in the manner provided under section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, and that section governs the arrangements governing submission of the question and other matters concerning the election.

Sec. 5705.25. (A) A copy of any resolution adopted as provided in section 5705.19 or 5705.2111 of the Revised Code shall be certified by the taxing authority to the board of elections of the proper county not less than seventy-five days before the general election in any year, and the board shall submit the proposal to the electors of the subdivision at the succeeding November election. Except as otherwise provided in this division, a resolution to renew an existing levy, regardless of the section of the Revised Code under which the tax was imposed, shall not be placed on the ballot unless the question is submitted at the general election held during the last year the tax to be renewed or replaced may be extended on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate, or at any election held in the ensuing year. The limitation of the foregoing sentence does not apply to a resolution to renew and increase or to renew part of an existing levy that was imposed under section 5705.191 of the Revised Code to supplement the general fund for the purpose of making appropriations for one or more of the following purposes: for public assistance, human or social services, relief, welfare, hospitalization, health, and support of general hospitals. The limitation of the second preceding sentence also does not apply to a resolution that proposes to renew two or more existing levies imposed under section 5705.21 of the Revised Code, in which case the question shall be submitted on the date of the general or primary election held during the last year at least one of the levies to be renewed may be extended on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate, or at any election held during the ensuing year. For purposes of this section, a levy shall be considered to be an "existing levy" through the year following the last year it can be placed on that tax list and duplicate.

The board shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of such questions to the electors of such subdivision, and the election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections in such subdivision for the election of county officers. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the subdivision once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the election, and, if the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, the board of elections shall post notice of the election on its web site for thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the purpose, the proposed increase in rate expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of valuation, the number of years during which the increase will be in effect, the first month and year in which the tax will be levied, and the time and place of the election.

(B) The form of the ballots cast at an election held pursuant to division (A) of this section shall be as follows:

"An additional tax for the benefit of (name of subdivision or public library) .......... for the purpose of (purpose stated in the resolution) .......... at a rate not exceeding ...... mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to (rate expressed in dollars and cents) .......... for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for ...... (life of indebtedness or number of years the levy is to run).

(C) If the levy is to be in effect for a continuing period of time, the notice of election and the form of ballot shall so state instead of setting forth a specified number of years for the levy.

If the tax is to be placed on the current tax list, the form of the ballot shall be modified by adding, after the statement of the number of years the levy is to run, the phrase ", commencing in .......... (first year the tax is to be levied), first due in calendar year .......... (first calendar year in which the tax shall be due)."

If the levy submitted is a proposal to renew, increase, or decrease an existing levy, the form of the ballot specified in division (B) of this section may be changed by substituting for the words "An additional" at the beginning of the form, the words "A renewal of a" in case of a proposal to renew an existing levy in the same amount; the words "A renewal of ......... mills and an increase of ...... mills to constitute a" in the case of an increase; or the words "A renewal of part of an existing levy, being a reduction of ...... mills, to constitute a" in the case of a decrease in the proposed levy.

If the levy submitted is a proposal to renew two or more existing levies imposed under section 5705.21 of the Revised Code, the form of the ballot specified in division (B) of this section shall be modified by substituting for the words "an additional tax" the words "a renewal of ....(insert the number of levies to be renewed) existing taxes."

The question covered by such resolution shall be submitted as a separate proposition but may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election, other than the election of officers. More than one such question may be submitted at the same election.

(D) A levy voted in excess of the ten-mill limitation under this section shall be certified to the tax commissioner. In the first year of the levy, it shall be extended on the tax lists after the February settlement succeeding the election. If the additional tax is to be placed upon the tax list of the current year, as specified in the resolution providing for its submission, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the taxing authority, who shall make the necessary levy and certify it to the county auditor, who shall extend it on the tax lists for collection. After the first year, the tax levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

Sec. 5705.29. This section does not apply to a subdivision or taxing unit for which the county budget commission has waived the requirement to adopt a tax budget pursuant to section 5705.281 of the Revised Code. The tax budget shall present the following information in such detail as is prescribed by the auditor of state:
(A)(1) A statement of the necessary current operating expenses for the ensuing fiscal year for each department and division of the subdivision, classified as to personal services and other expenses, and the fund from which such expenditures are to be made. Except in the case of a school district, this estimate may include a contingent expense not designated for any particular purpose, and not to exceed three per cent of the total amount of appropriations for current expenses. In the case of a school district, this estimate may include a contingent expense not designated for any particular purpose and not to exceed thirteen per cent of the total amount of appropriations for current expenses.

(2) A statement of the expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year necessary for permanent improvements, exclusive of any expense to be paid from bond issues, classified as to the improvements contemplated by the subdivision and the fund from which such expenditures are to be made;

(3) The amounts required for the payment of final judgments;

(4) A statement of expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year necessary for any purpose for which a special levy is authorized, and the fund from which such expenditures are to be made;

(5) Comparative statements, so far as possible, in parallel columns of corresponding items of expenditures for the current fiscal year and the two preceding fiscal years.

(B)(1) An estimate of receipts from other sources than the general property tax during the ensuing fiscal year, which shall include an estimate of unencumbered balances at the end of the current fiscal year, and the funds to which such estimated receipts are credited;

(2) The amount each fund requires from the general property tax, which shall be the difference between the contemplated expenditure from the fund and the estimated receipts, as provided in this section. The section of the Revised Code under which the tax is authorized shall be set forth.

(3) Comparative statements, so far as possible, in parallel columns of taxes and other revenues for the current fiscal year and the two preceding fiscal years.

(C)(1) The amount required for debt charges;

(2) The estimated receipts from sources other than the tax levy for payment of such debt charges, including the proceeds of refunding bonds to be issued to refund bonds maturing in the next succeeding fiscal year;

(3) The net amount for which a tax levy shall be made, classified as to bonds authorized and issued prior to January 1, 1922, and those authorized and issued subsequent to such date, and as to what portion of the levy will be within and what in excess of the ten-mill limitation.
(D) An estimate of amounts from taxes authorized to be levied in excess of the ten-mill limitation on the tax rate, and the fund to which such amounts will be credited, together with the sections of the Revised Code under which each such tax is exempted from all limitations on the tax rate.

(E)(1) A board of education may include in its budget for the fiscal year in which a levy proposed under section 5705.194, 5705.199, 5705.21, or 5705.213, or 5705.219, or the original levy under section 5705.212 of the Revised Code is first extended on the tax list and duplicate an estimate of expenditures to be known as a voluntary contingency reserve balance, which shall not be greater than twenty-five per cent of the total amount of the levy estimated to be available for appropriation in such year.

(2) A board of education may include in its budget for the fiscal year following the year in which a levy proposed under section 5705.194, 5705.199, 5705.21, or 5705.213, or 5705.219, or the original levy under section 5705.212 of the Revised Code is first extended on the tax list and duplicate an estimate of expenditures to be known as a voluntary contingency reserve balance, which shall not be greater than twenty per cent of the amount of the levy estimated to be available for appropriation in such year.

(3) Except as provided in division (E)(4) of this section, the full amount of any reserve balance the board includes in its budget shall be retained by the county auditor and county treasurer out of the first semiannual settlement of taxes until the beginning of the next succeeding fiscal year, and thereupon, with the depository interest apportioned thereto, it shall be turned over to the board of education, to be used for the purposes of such fiscal year.

(4) A board of education, by a two-thirds vote of all members of the board, may appropriate any amount withheld as a voluntary contingency reserve balance during the fiscal year for any lawful purpose, provided that prior to such appropriation the board of education has authorized the expenditure of all amounts appropriated for contingencies under section 5705.40 of the Revised Code. Upon request by the board of education, the county auditor shall draw a warrant on the district's account in the county treasury payable to the district in the amount requested.

(F)(1) A board of education may include a spending reserve in its budget for fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2002. The spending reserve shall consist of an estimate of expenditures not to exceed the district's spending reserve balance. A district's spending reserve balance is the amount by which the designated percentage of the district's estimated personal property taxes to be settled during the calendar year in which the fiscal year ends exceeds the estimated amount of personal property taxes to be so settled and received by the district during that fiscal year. Moneys from a spending reserve shall be appropriated in accordance with section 133.301 of the Revised Code.

(2) For the purposes of computing a school district's spending reserve balance for a fiscal year, the designated percentage shall be as follows:

(G) Except as otherwise provided in this division, the county budget commission shall not reduce the taxing authority of a subdivision as a result of the creation of a reserve balance account. Except as otherwise provided in this division, the county budget commission shall not consider the amount in a reserve balance account of a township, county, or municipal corporation as an unencumbered balance or as revenue for the purposes of division (E)(3) or (4) of section 5747.51 of the Revised Code. The county budget commission may require documentation of the reasonableness of the reserve balance held in any reserve balance account. The commission shall consider any amount in a reserve balance account that it determines to be unreasonable as unencumbered and as revenue for the purposes of section 5747.51 of the Revised Code and may take such amounts into consideration when determining whether to reduce the taxing authority of a subdivision.

Sec. 5705.341. Any person required to pay taxes on real, public utility, or tangible personal property in any taxing district or other political subdivision of this state may appeal to the board of tax appeals from the action of the county budget commission of any county which relates to the fixing of uniform rates of taxation and the rate necessary to be levied by each taxing authority within its subdivision or taxing unit and which action has been certified by the county budget commission to the taxing authority of any political subdivision or other taxing district within the county.

Such appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the tax rate complained of and the reason that such a tax rate is not necessary to produce the revenue needed by the taxing district or political subdivision for the ensuing fiscal year as those needs are set out in the tax budget of said taxing unit or, if adoption of a tax budget was waived under section 5705.281 of the Revised Code, as set out in such other information the district or subdivision was required to provide under that section, or that the action of the budget commission appealed from does not otherwise comply with sections 5705.01 to 5705.47 of the Revised Code. The notice of appeal shall be filed with the board of tax appeals, and a true copy thereof shall be filed with the tax commissioner, the county auditor, and with the fiscal officer of each taxing district or political subdivision authorized to levy the tax complained of, and such notice of appeal and copies thereof must be filed within thirty days after the budget commission has certified its action as provided by section 5705.34 of the Revised Code. Such notice of appeal and the copies thereof may be filed either in person or by certified mail. If filed by certified mail, the date of the United States postmark placed on the sender's receipt by the postal employee to whom the notice of appeal is presented shall be treated as the date of filing.

Prior to filing the appeal provided by this section, the appellant shall deposit with the county auditor of the county or, in the event the appeal concerns joint taxing districts in two or more counties, with the county auditor of the county with the greatest valuation of taxable property the sum of five hundred dollars to cover the costs of the proceeding. The county auditor shall forthwith issue a pay-in order and pay such money into the county treasury to the credit of the general fund. The appellant shall produce the receipt of the county treasurer for such deposit and shall file such receipt with the notice of appeal.

The board of tax appeals shall forthwith consider the matter presented on appeal from the action of the county budget commission and may modify any action of the commission with reference to the fixing of tax rates, to the end that no tax rate shall be levied above that necessary to produce the revenue needed by the taxing district or political subdivision for the ensuing fiscal year and to the end that the action of the budget commission appealed from shall otherwise be in conformity with sections 5705.01 to 5705.47 of the Revised Code. The findings of the board of tax appeals shall be substituted for the findings of the budget commission and shall be certified sent to the county auditor and the taxing authority of the taxing district or political subdivision affected as the action of such budget commission under sections 5705.01 to 5705.47 of the Revised Code and to the tax commissioner. At the request of an appellant, the findings of the board of tax appeals shall be sent by certified mail at the appellant's expense.

The board of tax appeals shall promptly prepare a cost bill listing the expenses incurred by the board in conducting any hearing on the appeal and certify the cost bill to the county auditor of the county receiving the deposit for costs, who shall forthwith draw a warrant on the general fund of the county in favor of the person or persons named in the bill of costs certified by the board of tax appeals.

In the event the appellant prevails, the board of tax appeals promptly shall direct the county auditor to refund the deposit to the appellant and the costs shall be taxed to the taxing district or political subdivision involved in the appeal. The county auditor shall withhold from any funds then or thereafter in the auditor's possession belonging to the taxing district or political subdivision named in the order of the board of tax appeals and shall reimburse the general fund of the county.

If the appellant fails, the costs shall be deducted from the deposit provided for in this section and any balance which remains shall be refunded promptly to the appellant by warrant of the county auditor drawn on the general fund of the county.

Nothing in this section or any section of the Revised Code shall permit or require the levying of any rate of taxation, whether within the ten-mill limitation or whether the levy has been approved by the electors of the taxing district, the political subdivision, or the charter of a municipal corporation in excess of such ten-mill limitation, unless such rate of taxation for the ensuing fiscal year is clearly required by a budget of the taxing district or political subdivision properly and lawfully adopted under this chapter, or by other information that must be provided under section 5705.281 of the Revised Code if a tax budget was waived.

In the event more than one appeal is filed involving the same taxing district or political subdivision, all such appeals may be consolidated by the board of tax appeals and heard at the same time.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to bar or prohibit the tax commissioner from initiating an investigation or hearing on the commissioner's own motion.

The tax commissioner shall adopt and issue such orders, rules, and instructions, not inconsistent with law, as the commissioner deems necessary, as to the exercise of the powers and the discharge of the duties of any particular county budget commission, county auditor, or other officer which relate to the budget, the assessment of property, or the levy and collection of taxes. The commissioner shall cause the orders and instructions issued by the commissioner to be obeyed.

Sec. 5705.37. The taxing authority of any subdivision, or the board of trustees of any public library, nonprofit corporation, or library association maintaining a free public library that has adopted and certified rules under section 5705.28 of the Revised Code, that is dissatisfied with any action of the county budget commission may, through its fiscal officer, appeal to the board of tax appeals within thirty days after the receipt by the subdivision of the official certificate or notice of the commission's action. In like manner, but through its clerk, any park district may appeal to the board of tax appeals. An appeal under this section shall be taken by the filing of a notice of appeal, either in person or by certified mail, express mail, or authorized delivery service as provided in section 5703.056 of the Revised Code, with the board and with the commission. If notice of appeal is filed by certified mail, express mail, or authorized delivery service, date of the United States postmark placed on the sender's receipt by the postal service or the date of receipt recorded by the authorized delivery service shall be treated as the date of filing. Upon receipt of the notice of appeal, the commission, by certified mail, shall notify all persons who were parties to the proceeding before the commission of the filing of the notice of appeal and shall file proof of notice with the board of tax appeals. The secretary of the commission shall forthwith certify to the board a transcript of the full and accurate record of all proceedings before the commission, together with all evidence presented in the proceedings or considered by the commission, pertaining to the action from which the appeal is taken. The secretary of the commission also shall certify to the board any additional information that the board may request.

The board of tax appeals, in a de novo proceeding, shall forthwith consider the matter presented to the commission, and may modify any action of the commission with reference to the budget, the estimate of revenues and balances, the allocation of the public library fund, or the fixing of tax rates. The finding of the board of tax appeals shall be substituted for the findings of the commission, and shall be certified sent to the tax commissioner, the county auditor, and the taxing authority of the subdivision affected, or to the board of public library trustees affected, as the action of the commission under sections 5705.01 to 5705.47 of the Revised Code. At the request of the taxing authority, board of trustees, or park district that appealed an action of the county budget commission under this section, the findings of the board of tax appeals shall be sent by certified mail at the requestor's expense.

This section does not give the board of tax appeals any authority to place any tax levy authorized by law within the ten-mill limitation outside of that limitation, or to reduce any levy below any minimum fixed by law.

Sec. 5709.62. (A) In any municipal corporation that is defined by the United States office of management and budget as a principal city of a metropolitan statistical area, the legislative authority of the municipal corporation may designate one or more areas within its municipal corporation as proposed enterprise zones. Upon designating an area, the legislative authority shall petition the director of development for certification of the area as having the characteristics set forth in division (A)(1) of section 5709.61 of the Revised Code as amended by Substitute Senate Bill No. 19 of the 120th general assembly. Except as otherwise provided in division (E) of this section, on and after July 1, 1994, legislative authorities shall not enter into agreements under this section unless the legislative authority has petitioned the director and the director has certified the zone under this section as amended by that act; however, all agreements entered into under this section as it existed prior to July 1, 1994, and the incentives granted under those agreements shall remain in effect for the period agreed to under those agreements. Within sixty days after receiving such a petition, the director shall determine whether the area has the characteristics set forth in division (A)(1) of section 5709.61 of the Revised Code, and shall forward the findings to the legislative authority of the municipal corporation. If the director certifies the area as having those characteristics, and thereby certifies it as a zone, the legislative authority may enter into an agreement with an enterprise under division (C) of this section.

(B) Any enterprise that wishes to enter into an agreement with a municipal corporation under division (C) of this section shall submit a proposal to the legislative authority of the municipal corporation on a form prescribed by the director of development, together with the application fee established under section 5709.68 of the Revised Code. The form shall require the following information:

1. An estimate of the number of new employees whom the enterprise intends to hire, or of the number of employees whom the enterprise intends to retain, within the zone at a facility that is a project site, and an estimate of the amount of payroll of the enterprise attributable to these employees;
2. An estimate of the amount to be invested by the enterprise to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility, including investment in new buildings, additions or improvements to existing buildings, machinery, equipment, furniture, fixtures, and inventory;
3. A listing of the enterprise's current investment, if any, in a facility as of the date of the proposal's submission.

The enterprise shall review and update the listings required under this division to reflect material changes, and any agreement entered into under division (C) of this section shall set forth final estimates and listings as of the time the agreement is entered into. The legislative authority may, on a separate form and at any time, require any additional information necessary to determine whether an enterprise is in compliance with an agreement and to collect the information required to be reported under section 5709.68 of the Revised Code.

(C) Upon receipt and investigation of a proposal under division (B) of this section, if the legislative authority finds that the enterprise submitting the proposal is qualified by financial responsibility and business experience to create and preserve employment opportunities in the zone and improve the economic climate of the municipal corporation, the legislative authority, on or before October 15, 2009, may do one of the following:

(1) Enter into an agreement with the enterprise under which the enterprise agrees to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility and hire new employees, or preserve employment opportunities for existing employees, in return for one or more of the following incentives:
   (a) Exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, up to seventy-five per cent, of the assessed value of tangible personal property first used in business at the project site as a result of the agreement. If an exemption for inventory is specifically granted in the agreement pursuant to this division, the exemption applies to inventory required to be listed pursuant to sections 5711.15 and 5711.16 of the Revised Code, except that, in the instance of an expansion or other situations in which an enterprise was in business at the facility prior to the establishment of the zone, the inventory that is exempt is that amount or value of inventory in excess of the amount or value of inventory required to be listed in the personal property tax return of the enterprise in the return for the tax year in which the agreement is entered into.
   (b) Exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, up to seventy-five per cent, of the increase in the assessed valuation of real property constituting the project site subsequent to formal approval of the agreement by the legislative authority;
   (c) Provision for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of any optional services or assistance that the municipal corporation is authorized to provide with regard to the project site.

(2) Enter into an agreement under which the enterprise agrees to remediate an environmentally contaminated facility, to spend an amount equal to at least two hundred fifty per cent of the true value in money of the real property of the facility prior to remediation as determined for the purposes of property taxation to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy the remediated facility, and to hire new employees or preserve employment opportunities for existing employees at the remediated facility, in return for one or more of the following incentives:
   (a) Exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, not to exceed fifty per cent, of the assessed valuation of the real property of the facility prior to remediation;

(b) Exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, not to exceed one hundred per cent, of the increase in the assessed valuation of the real property of the facility during or after remediation;

(c) The incentive under division (C)(1)(a) of this section, except that the percentage of the assessed value of such property exempted from taxation shall not exceed one hundred per cent;

(d) The incentive under division (C)(1)(c) of this section.

(3) Enter into an agreement with an enterprise that plans to purchase and operate a large manufacturing facility that has ceased operation or announced its intention to cease operation, in return for exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, up to one hundred per cent, of the assessed value of tangible personal property used in business at the project site as a result of the agreement, or of the assessed valuation of real property constituting the project site, or both.

(D)(1) Notwithstanding divisions (C)(1)(a) and (b) of this section, the portion of the assessed value of tangible personal property or of the increase in the assessed valuation of real property exempted from taxation under those divisions may exceed seventy-five per cent in any year for which that portion is exempted if the average percentage exempted for all years in which the agreement is in effect does not exceed sixty per cent, or if the board of education of the city, local, or exempted village school district within the territory of which the property is or will be located approves a percentage in excess of seventy-five per cent.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code to the contrary, the exemptions described in divisions (C)(1)(a), (b), and (c), (C)(2)(a), (b), and (c), and (C)(3) of this section may be for up to fifteen years if the board of education of the city, local, or exempted village school district within the territory of which the property is or will be located approves a number of years in excess of ten.

(3) For the purpose of obtaining the approval of a city, local, or exempted village school district under division (D)(1) or (2) of this section, the legislative authority shall deliver to the board of education a notice not later than forty-five days prior to approving the agreement, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays as defined in section 1.14 of the Revised Code. The notice shall state the percentage to be exempted, an estimate of the true value of the property to be exempted, and the number of years the property is to be exempted. The board of education, by resolution adopted by a majority of the board, shall approve or disapprove the agreement and certify a copy of the resolution to the legislative authority not later than fourteen days prior to the date stipulated by the legislative authority as the date upon which approval of the agreement is to be formally considered by the legislative authority. The board of education may include in the resolution conditions under which the board would approve the agreement, including the execution of an agreement to compensate the school district under division (B) of section 5709.82 of the Revised Code. The legislative authority may approve the agreement at any time after the board of education certifies its resolution approving the agreement to the legislative authority, or, if the board approves the agreement conditionally, at any time after the conditions are agreed to by the board and the legislative authority.

If a board of education has adopted a resolution waiving its right to approve agreements and the resolution remains in effect, approval of an agreement by the board is not required under this division. If a board of education has adopted a resolution allowing a legislative authority to deliver the notice required under this division fewer than forty-five business days prior to the legislative authority's approval of the agreement, the legislative authority shall deliver the notice to the board not later than the number of days prior to such approval as prescribed by the board in its resolution. If a board of education adopts a resolution waiving its right to approve agreements or shortening the notification period, the board shall certify a copy of the resolution to the legislative authority. If the board of education rescinds such a resolution, it shall certify notice of the rescission to the legislative authority.

(4) The legislative authority shall comply with section 5709.83 of the Revised Code unless the board of education has adopted a resolution under that section waiving its right to receive such notice.

(E) This division applies to zones certified by the director of development under this section prior to July 22, 1994.

On or before October 15, 2009 2010, the legislative authority that designated a zone to which this division applies may enter into an agreement with an enterprise if the legislative authority finds that the enterprise satisfies one of the criteria described in divisions (E)(1) to (5) of this section:

(1) The enterprise currently has no operations in this state and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish operations in the zone;

(2) The enterprise currently has operations in this state and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish operations at a new location in the zone that would not result in a reduction in the number of employee positions at any of the enterprise's other locations in this state;

(3) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to relocate operations, currently located in another state, to the zone;

(4) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to expand operations at an existing site in the zone that the enterprise currently operates;

(5) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to relocate operations, currently located in this state, to the zone, and the director of development has issued a waiver for the enterprise under division (B) of section 5709.633 of the Revised Code.

The agreement shall require the enterprise to agree to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility in the zone and hire new employees, or preserve employment opportunities for existing employees, in return for one or more of the incentives described in division (C) of this section.

(F) All agreements entered into under this section shall be in the form prescribed under section 5709.631 of the Revised Code. After an agreement is entered into under this section, if the legislative authority revokes its designation of a zone, or if the director of development revokes a zone's certification, any entitlements granted under the agreement shall continue for the number of years specified in the agreement.

(G) Except as otherwise provided in this division, an agreement entered into under this section shall require that the enterprise pay an annual fee equal to the greater of one per cent of the dollar value of incentives offered under the agreement or five hundred dollars; provided, however, that if the value of the incentives exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the fee shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars. The fee shall be payable to the legislative authority once per year for each year the agreement is effective on the days and in the form specified in the agreement. Fees paid shall be deposited in a special fund created for such purpose by the legislative authority and shall be used by the legislative authority exclusively for the purpose of complying with section 5709.68 of the Revised Code and by the tax incentive review council created under section 5709.85 of the Revised Code exclusively for the purposes of performing the duties prescribed under that section. The legislative authority may waive or reduce the amount of the fee charged against an enterprise, but such a waiver or reduction does not affect the obligations of the legislative authority or the tax incentive review council to comply with section 5709.68 or 5709.85 of the Revised Code.

(H) When an agreement is entered into pursuant to this section, the legislative authority authorizing the agreement shall forward a copy of the agreement to the director of development and to the tax commissioner within fifteen days after the agreement is entered into. If any agreement includes terms not provided for in section 5709.631 of the Revised Code affecting the revenue of a city, local, or exempted village school district or causing revenue to be foregone by the district, including any compensation to be paid to the school district pursuant to section 5709.82 of the Revised Code, those terms also shall be forwarded in writing to the director of development along with the copy of the agreement forwarded under this division.

(I) After an agreement is entered into, the enterprise shall file with each personal property tax return required to be filed, or annual report required to be filed under section 5727.08 of the Revised Code, while the agreement is in effect, an informational return, on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner for that purpose, setting forth separately the property, and related costs and values, exempted from taxation under the agreement.

(J) Enterprises may agree to give preference to residents of the zone within which the agreement applies relative to residents of this state who do not reside in the zone when hiring new employees under the agreement.

(K) An agreement entered into under this section may include a provision requiring the enterprise to create one or more temporary internship positions for students enrolled in a course of study at a school or other educational institution in the vicinity, and to create a scholarship or provide another form of educational financial assistance for students holding such a position in exchange for the student's commitment to work for the enterprise at the completion of the internship.

(L) The tax commissioner's authority in determining the accuracy of any exemption granted by an agreement entered into under this section is limited to divisions (C)(1)(a) and (b), (C)(2)(a), (b), and (c), (C)(3), (D), and (I) of this section and divisions (B)(1) to (10) of section 5709.631 of the Revised Code and, as authorized by law, to enforcing any modification to, or revocation of, that agreement by the legislative authority of a municipal corporation or the director of development.

Sec. 5709.63. (A) With the consent of the legislative authority of each affected municipal corporation or of a board of township trustees, a board of county commissioners may, in the manner set forth in section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, designate one or more areas in one or more municipal corporations or in unincorporated areas of the county as proposed enterprise zones. A board of county commissioners may designate no more than one area within a township, or within adjacent townships, as a proposed enterprise zone. The board shall petition the director of development for certification of the area as having the characteristics set forth in division (A)(1) or (2) of section 5709.61 of the Revised Code as amended by Substitute Senate Bill No. 19 of the 120th general assembly. Except as otherwise provided in division (D) of this section, on and after July 1, 1994, boards of county commissioners shall not enter into agreements under this section unless the board has petitioned the director and the director has certified the zone under this section as amended by that act; however, all agreements entered into under this section as it existed prior to July 1, 1994, and the incentives granted under those agreements shall remain in effect for the period agreed to under those agreements. The director shall make the determination in the manner provided under section 5709.62 of the Revised Code.

Any enterprise wishing to enter into an agreement with the board under division (B) or (D) of this section shall submit a proposal to the board on the form and accompanied by the application fee prescribed under division (B) of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code. The enterprise shall review and update the estimates and listings required by the form in the manner required under that division. The board may, on a separate form and at any time, require any additional information necessary to determine whether an enterprise is in compliance with an agreement and to collect the information required to be reported under section 5709.68 of the Revised Code.

(B) If the board of county commissioners finds that an enterprise submitting a proposal is qualified by financial responsibility and business experience to create and preserve employment opportunities in the zone and to improve the economic climate of the municipal corporation or municipal corporations or the unincorporated areas in which the zone is located and to which the proposal applies, the board, on or before October 15, 2009, and with the consent of the legislative authority of each affected municipal corporation or of the board of township trustees may do either of the following:

(1) Enter into an agreement with the enterprise under which the enterprise agrees to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility in the zone and hire new employees, or preserve employment opportunities for existing employees, in return for the following incentives:

(a) When the facility is located in a municipal corporation, the board may enter into an agreement for one or more of the incentives provided in division (C) of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, subject to division (D) of that section;

(b) When the facility is located in an unincorporated area, the board may enter into an agreement for one or more of the following incentives:

(i) Exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, up to sixty per cent, of the assessed value of tangible personal property first used in business at a project site as a result of the agreement. If an exemption for inventory is specifically granted in the agreement pursuant to this division, the exemption applies to inventory required to be listed pursuant to sections 5711.15 and 5711.16 of the Revised Code, except, in the instance of an expansion or other situations in which an enterprise was in business at the facility prior to the establishment of the zone, the inventory that is exempt is that amount or value of inventory in excess of the amount or value of inventory required to be listed in the personal property tax return of the enterprise in the return for the tax year in which the agreement is entered into.

(ii) Exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, up to sixty per cent, of the increase in the assessed valuation of real property constituting the project site subsequent to formal approval of the agreement by the board;

(iii) Provision for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of any optional services or assistance the board is authorized to provide with regard to the project site;

(iv) The incentive described in division (C)(2) of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code.

(2) Enter into an agreement with an enterprise that plans to purchase and operate a large manufacturing facility that has ceased operation or has announced its intention to cease operation, in return for exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, up to one hundred per cent, of tangible personal property used in business at the project site as a result of the agreement, or of real property constituting the project site, or both.

(C)(1)(a) Notwithstanding divisions (B)(1)(b)(i) and (ii) of this section, the portion of the assessed value of tangible personal property or of the increase in the assessed valuation of real property exempted from taxation under those divisions may exceed sixty per cent in any year for which that portion is exempted if the average percentage exempted for all years in which the agreement is in effect does not exceed fifty per cent, or if the board of education of the city, local, or exempted village school district within the territory of which the property is or will be located approves a percentage in excess of sixty per cent.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code to the contrary, the exemptions described in divisions (B)(1)(b)(i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) and (B)(2) of this section may be for up to fifteen years if the board of education of the city, local, or exempted village school district within the territory of which the property is or will be located approves a number of years in excess of ten.

(c) For the purpose of obtaining the approval of a city, local, or exempted village school district under division (C)(1)(a) or (b) of this section, the board of county commissioners shall deliver to the board of education a notice not later than forty-five days prior to approving the agreement, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays as defined in section 1.14 of the Revised Code. The notice shall state the percentage to be exempted, an estimate of the true value of the property to be exempted, and the number of years the property is to be exempted. The board of education, by resolution adopted by a majority of the board, shall approve or disapprove the agreement and certify a copy of the resolution to the board of county commissioners not later than fourteen days prior to the date stipulated by the board of county commissioners as the date upon which approval of the agreement is to be formally considered by the board of county commissioners. The board of education may include in the resolution conditions under which the board would approve the agreement, including the execution of an agreement to compensate the school district under division (B) of section 5709.82 of the Revised Code. The board of county commissioners may approve the agreement at any time after the board of education certifies its resolution approving the agreement to the board of county commissioners, or, if the board of education approves the agreement conditionally, at any time after the conditions are agreed to by the board of education and the board of county commissioners.

If a board of education has adopted a resolution waiving its right to approve agreements and the resolution remains in effect, approval of an agreement by the board of education is not required under division (C) of this section. If a board of education has adopted a resolution allowing a board of county commissioners to deliver the notice required under this division fewer than forty-five business days prior to approval of the agreement by the board of county commissioners, the board of county commissioners shall deliver the notice to the board of education not later than the number of days prior to such approval as prescribed by the board of education in its resolution. If a board of education adopts a resolution waiving its right to approve agreements or shortening the notification period, the board of education shall certify a copy of the resolution to the board of county commissioners. If the board of education rescinds such a resolution, it shall certify notice of the rescission to the board of county commissioners.

(2) The board of county commissioners shall comply with section 5709.83 of the Revised Code unless the board of education has adopted a resolution under that section waiving its right to receive such notice.

(D) This division applies to zones certified by the director of development under this section prior to July 22, 1994.

On or before October 15, 2009 2010, and with the consent of the legislative authority of each affected municipal corporation or board of township trustees of each affected township, the board of county commissioners that designated a zone to which this division applies may enter into an agreement with an enterprise if the board finds that the enterprise satisfies one of the criteria described in divisions (D)(1) to (5) of this section:

(1) The enterprise currently has no operations in this state and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish operations in the zone;

(2) The enterprise currently has operations in this state and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish operations at a new location in the zone that would not result in a reduction in the number of employee positions at any of the enterprise’s other locations in this state;

(3) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to relocate operations, currently located in another state, to the zone;

(4) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to expand operations at an existing site in the zone that the enterprise currently operates;

(5) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to relocate operations, currently located in this state, to the zone, and the director of development has issued a waiver for the enterprise under division (B) of section 5709.633 of the Revised Code.

The agreement shall require the enterprise to agree to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility in the zone and hire new employees, or preserve employment opportunities for existing employees, in return for one or more of the incentives described in division (B) of this section.

(E) All agreements entered into under this section shall be in the form prescribed under section 5709.631 of the Revised Code. After an agreement under this section is entered into, if the board of county commissioners revokes its designation of a zone, or if the director of development revokes a zone’s certification, any entitlements granted under the agreement shall continue for the number of years specified in the agreement.

(F) Except as otherwise provided in this division, an agreement entered into under this section shall require that the enterprise pay an annual fee equal to the greater of one per cent of the dollar value of incentives offered under the agreement or five hundred dollars; provided, however, that if the value of the incentives exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the fee shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars. The fee shall be payable to the board of county commissioners once per year for each year the agreement is effective on the days and in the form specified in the agreement. Fees paid shall be deposited in a special fund created for such purpose by the board and shall be used by the board exclusively for the purpose of complying with section 5709.68 of the Revised Code and by the tax incentive review council created under section 5709.85 of the Revised Code exclusively for the purposes of performing the duties prescribed under that section. The board may waive or reduce the amount of the fee charged against an enterprise, but such waiver or reduction does not affect the obligations of the board or the tax incentive review council to comply with section 5709.68 or 5709.85 of the Revised Code, respectively.

(G) With the approval of the legislative authority of a municipal corporation or the board of township trustees of a township in which a zone is designated under division (A) of this section, the board of county commissioners may delegate to that legislative authority or board any powers and duties of the board of county commissioners to negotiate and administer agreements with regard to that zone under this section.

(H) When an agreement is entered into pursuant to this section, the board of county commissioners authorizing the agreement or the legislative authority or board of township trustees that negotiates and administers the agreement shall forward a copy of the agreement to the director of development and to the tax commissioner within fifteen days after the agreement is entered into. If any agreement includes terms not provided for in section 5709.631 of the Revised Code affecting the revenue of a city, local, or exempted village school district or causing revenue to be foregone by the district, including any compensation to be paid to the school district pursuant to section 5709.82 of the Revised Code, those terms also shall be forwarded in writing to the director of development along with the copy of the agreement forwarded under this division.

(I) After an agreement is entered into, the enterprise shall file with each personal property tax return required to be filed, or annual report that is required to be filed under section 5727.08 of the Revised Code, while the agreement is in effect, an informational return, on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner for that purpose, setting forth separately the property, and related costs and values, exempted from taxation under the agreement.

(J) Enterprises may agree to give preference to residents of the zone within which the agreement applies relative to residents of this state who do not reside in the zone when hiring new employees under the agreement.

(K) An agreement entered into under this section may include a provision requiring the enterprise to create one or more temporary internship positions for students enrolled in a course of study at a school or other educational institution in the vicinity, and to create a scholarship or provide another form of educational financial assistance for students holding such a position in exchange for the student's commitment to work for the enterprise at the completion of the internship.

(L) The tax commissioner's authority in determining the accuracy of any exemption granted by an agreement entered into under this section is limited to divisions (B)(1)(b)(i) and (iii), (B)(2), (C), and (I) of this section, division (B)(1)(b)(iv) of this section as it pertains to divisions (C)(2)(a), (b), and (c) of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, and divisions (B)(1) to (10) of section 5709.631 of the Revised Code and, as authorized by law, to enforcing any modification to, or revocation of, that agreement by the board of county commissioners or the director of development or, if the board's powers and duties are delegated under division (G) of this section, by the legislative authority of a municipal corporation or board of township trustees.

Sec. 5709.632. (A)(1) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation defined by the United States office of management and budget as a principal city of a metropolitan statistical area may, in the manner set forth in section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, designate one or more areas in the municipal corporation as a proposed enterprise zone.

(2) With the consent of the legislative authority of each affected municipal corporation or of a board of township trustees, a board of county commissioners may, in the manner set forth in section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, designate one or more areas in one or more municipal corporations or in unincorporated areas of the county as proposed urban jobs and enterprise zones, except that a board of county commissioners may designate no more than one area within a township, or within adjacent townships, as a proposed urban jobs and enterprise zone.

(3) The legislative authority or board of county commissioners may petition the director of development for certification of the area as having the characteristics set forth in division (A)(3) of section 5709.61 of the Revised Code. Within sixty days after receiving such a petition, the director shall determine whether the area has the characteristics set forth in that division and forward the findings to the legislative authority or board of county commissioners. If the director certifies the area as having those characteristics and thereby certifies it as a zone, the legislative authority or board may enter into agreements with enterprises under division (B) of this section. Any enterprise wishing to enter into an agreement with a legislative authority or board of county commissioners under this section and satisfying one of the criteria described in divisions (B)(1) to (5) of this section shall submit a proposal to the legislative authority or board on the form prescribed under division (B) of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code and shall review and update the estimates and listings required by the form in the manner required under that division. The legislative authority or board may, on a separate form and at any time, require any additional information necessary to determine whether an enterprise is in compliance with an agreement and to collect the information required to be reported under section 5709.68 of the Revised Code.

(B) Prior to entering into an agreement with an enterprise, the legislative authority or board of county commissioners shall determine whether the enterprise submitting the proposal is qualified by financial responsibility and business experience to create and preserve employment opportunities in the zone and to improve the economic climate of the municipal corporation or municipal corporations or the unincorporated areas in which the zone is located and to which the proposal applies, and whether the enterprise satisfies one of the following criteria:

(1) The enterprise currently has no operations in this state and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish operations in the zone;

(2) The enterprise currently has operations in this state and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish operations at a new location in the zone that would not result in a reduction in the number of employee positions at any of the enterprise's other locations in this state;

(3) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to relocate operations, currently located in another state, to the zone;

(4) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to expand operations at an existing site in the zone that the enterprise currently operates;

(5) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to relocate operations, currently located in this state, to the zone, and the director of development has issued a waiver for the enterprise under division (B) of section 5709.633 of the Revised Code.

(C) If the legislative authority or board determines that the enterprise is so qualified and satisfies one of the criteria described in divisions (B)(1) to (5) of this section, the legislative authority or board may, after complying with section 5709.83 of the Revised Code and on or before October 15, 2009-2010, and, in the case of a board of commissioners, with the consent of the legislative authority of each affected municipal corporation or of the board of township trustees, enter into an agreement with the enterprise under which the enterprise agrees to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility in the zone and hire new employees, or preserve employment opportunities for existing employees, in return for the following incentives:

1) When the facility is located in a municipal corporation, a legislative authority or board of commissioners may enter into an agreement for one or more of the incentives provided in division (C) of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, subject to division (D) of that section;

2) When the facility is located in an unincorporated area, a board of commissioners may enter into an agreement for one or more of the incentives provided in divisions (B)(1)(b), (B)(2), and (B)(3) of section 5709.63 of the Revised Code, subject to division (C) of that section.

(D) All agreements entered into under this section shall be in the form prescribed under section 5709.631 of the Revised Code. After an agreement under this section is entered into, if the legislative authority or board of county commissioners revokes its designation of the zone, or if the director of development revokes the zone's certification, any entitlements granted under the agreement shall continue for the number of years specified in the agreement.

(E) Except as otherwise provided in this division, an agreement entered into under this section shall require that the enterprise pay an annual fee equal to the greater of one per cent of the dollar value of incentives offered under the agreement or five hundred dollars; provided, however, that if the value of the incentives exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the fee shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars. The fee shall be payable to the legislative authority or board of commissioners once per year for each year the agreement is effective on the days and in the form specified in the agreement. Fees paid shall be deposited in a special fund created for such purpose by the legislative authority or board and shall be used by the legislative authority or board exclusively for the purpose of complying with section 5709.68 of the Revised Code and by the tax incentive review council created under section 5709.85 of the Revised Code exclusively for the purposes of performing the duties prescribed under that section. The legislative authority or board may waive or reduce the amount of the fee charged against an enterprise, but such waiver or reduction does not affect the obligations of the legislative authority or board or the tax incentive review council to comply with section 5709.68 or 5709.85 of the Revised Code, respectively.
(F) With the approval of the legislative authority of a municipal corporation or the board of township trustees of a township in which a zone is designated under division (A)(2) of this section, the board of county commissioners may delegate to that legislative authority or board any powers and duties of the board to negotiate and administer agreements with regard to that zone under this section.

(G) When an agreement is entered into pursuant to this section, the legislative authority or board of commissioners authorizing the agreement shall forward a copy of the agreement to the director of development and to the tax commissioner within fifteen days after the agreement is entered into. If any agreement includes terms not provided for in section 5709.631 of the Revised Code affecting the revenue of a city, local, or exempted village school district or causing revenue to be foregone by the district, including any compensation to be paid to the school district pursuant to section 5709.82 of the Revised Code, those terms also shall be forwarded in writing to the director of development along with the copy of the agreement forwarded under this division.

(H) After an agreement is entered into, the enterprise shall file with each personal property tax return required to be filed while the agreement is in effect, an informational return, on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner for that purpose, setting forth separately the property, and related costs and values, exempted from taxation under the agreement.

(I) An agreement entered into under this section may include a provision requiring the enterprise to create one or more temporary internship positions for students enrolled in a course of study at a school or other educational institution in the vicinity, and to create a scholarship or provide another form of educational financial assistance for students holding such a position in exchange for the student's commitment to work for the enterprise at the completion of the internship.

Sec. 5711.33. (A)(1) When a county treasurer receives a certificate from a county auditor pursuant to division (A) of section 5711.32 of the Revised Code charging the treasurer with the collection of an amount of taxes due as the result of a deficiency assessment, the treasurer shall immediately prepare and mail a tax bill to the taxpayer owing such tax. The tax bill shall contain the name of the taxpayer; the taxable value, tax rate, and taxes charged for each year being assessed; the total amount of taxes due; the final date payment may be made without additional penalty; and any other information the treasurer considers pertinent or necessary. Taxes due and payable as a result of a deficiency assessment, less any amount specifically excepted from collection under division (B) of section 5711.32 of the Revised Code, shall be paid with interest thereon as prescribed by section 5719.041 of the Revised Code on or before the sixtieth day following the date of issuance of the certificate by the county auditor. The balance of taxes found due and payable after a final determination by the tax commissioner or a final judgment of the board of tax appeals or any court to which such final judgment may be appealed shall be paid with interest thereon as prescribed by section 5719.041 of the Revised Code on or before the sixtieth day following the date of certification by the auditor to the treasurer pursuant to division (C) of section 5711.32 of the Revised Code of such final determination or judgment. Such final dates for payment shall be determined and exhibited on the tax bill by the treasurer.

(2) If, on or before the sixtieth day following the date of a certification of a deficiency assessment under division (A) of section 5711.32 of the Revised Code or of a certification of a final determination or judgment under division (C) of section 5711.32 of the Revised Code, the taxpayer pays the full amount of taxes and interest due at the time of the receipt of certification with respect to that assessment, determination, or judgment, no interest shall accrue or be charged with respect to that assessment, determination, or judgment for the period that begins on the first day of the month in which the certification is made and that ends on the last day of the month preceding the month in which such sixtieth day occurs.

(B) When the taxes charged, as mentioned in division (A) of this section, are not paid within the time prescribed by such division, a penalty of ten per cent of the amount due and unpaid and interest for the period described in division (A)(2) of this section shall accrue at the time the treasurer closes the treasurer's office for business on the last day so prescribed, but if the taxes are paid within ten days subsequent to the last day prescribed, the treasurer shall waive the collection of and the auditor shall remit one-half of the penalty. The treasurer shall not thereafter accept less than the full amount of taxes and penalty except as otherwise authorized by law. Such penalty shall be distributed in the same manner and at the same time as the tax upon which it has accrued. The whole amount collected shall be included in the next succeeding settlement of appropriate taxes.

(C) When the taxes charged, as mentioned in division (A) of this section, remain unpaid after the final date for payment prescribed by such division, such charges shall be deemed to be delinquent taxes. The county auditor shall cause such charges, including the penalty that has accrued pursuant to this section, to be added to the delinquent tax duplicate in accordance with section 5719.04 of the Revised Code.

(D) The county auditor, upon consultation with the county treasurer, shall remit a penalty imposed under division (B) of this section or division (D) of section 5719.03 of the Revised Code for the late payment of taxes when:

(1) The taxpayer could not make timely payment of the tax because of the negligence or error of the county auditor or county treasurer in the performance of a statutory duty relating to the levy or collection of such tax.

(2) In cases other than those described in division (D)(1) of this section, the taxpayer failed to receive a tax bill or a correct tax bill, and the taxpayer made a good faith effort to obtain such bill within thirty days after the last day for payment of the tax.

(3) The tax was not timely paid because of the death or serious injury of the taxpayer, or the taxpayer's confinement in a hospital within sixty days preceding the last day for payment of the tax if, in any case, the tax was subsequently paid within sixty days after the last day for payment of such tax.

(4) The taxpayer demonstrates that the full payment was properly deposited in the mail in sufficient time for the envelope to be postmarked by the United States postal service on or before the last day for payment of such tax. A private meter postmark on an envelope is not a valid postmark for purposes of establishing the date of payment of such tax.

(5) In cases other than those described in divisions (D)(1) to (4) of this section, the taxpayer's failure to make timely payment of the tax is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect.

(E) The taxpayer, upon application within sixty days after the mailing of the county auditor's decision, may request the tax commissioner to review the denial of the remission of a penalty by the county auditor. The application may be filed in person or by certified mail. If the application is filed by certified mail, the date of the United States postmark placed on the sender's receipt by the postal service shall be treated as the date of filing. The commissioner shall consider the application, determine whether the penalty should be remitted, and certify the determination to the taxpayer and to the county treasurer and county auditor, who shall correct the tax list and duplicate accordingly. The commissioner may issue orders and instructions for the uniform implementation of this section by all county auditors and county treasurers, and such orders and instructions shall be followed by such officers.

Sec. 5715.02. The county treasurer, county auditor, and the president of a member of the board of county commissioners selected by the board of county commissioners shall constitute the county board of revision, or they may provide for one or more hearing boards when they deem the creation of such to be necessary to the expeditious hearing of valuation complaints. Each such official may appoint one qualified employee from his office to serve in his place and stead on each such board for the purpose of hearing complaints as to the value of real property only, each such hearing board has the same authority to hear and decide complaints and sign the journal as the board of revision, and shall proceed in the manner provided for the board of revision by sections 5715.08 to 5715.20, inclusive, of the Revised Code. Any decision by a hearing board shall be the decision of the board of revision.

A majority of a county board of revision or hearing board shall constitute a quorum to hear and determine any complaint, and any vacancy shall not impair the right of the remaining members of such board, whether elected officials or appointees, to exercise all the powers thereof so long as a majority remains.

Each member of a county board of revision or hearing board may administer oaths.

Sec. 5715.251. The county auditor may appeal to the board of tax appeals any determination of change in the abstract of real property of a taxing district in the auditor's county that is made by the tax commissioner under section 5715.24 of the Revised Code. The appeal shall be taken within thirty days after receipt of the statement by the county auditor of the commissioner's determination by the filing by the county auditor of a notice of appeal with the board and the commissioner. Such notice of appeal shall set forth the determination of the commissioner appealed from and the errors therein complained of. Proof of the filing of such notice with the commissioner shall be filed with the board. The board shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the appeal.

In all such appeals the commissioner shall be made appellee. Unless waived, notice of the appeal shall be served upon the commissioner by certified mail. The prosecuting attorney shall represent the county auditor in such an appeal.

The commissioner, upon written demand filed by the county auditor, shall within thirty days after the filing of such demand file with the board a certified transcript of the record of the commissioner's proceedings pertaining to the determination complained of and the evidence considered in making such determination.

If upon hearing and consideration of such record and evidence the board decides that the determination appealed from is reasonable and lawful, it shall affirm the same, but if the board decides that such determination is unreasonable or unlawful, the board shall reverse and vacate the determination or modify it and enter final order in accordance with such modification.

The secretary of the board shall certify send the order of the board to the county auditor and to the commissioner, and they shall take such action in connection therewith as is required to give effect to the order of the board. At the request of the county auditor, the board of tax appeal's order shall be sent by certified mail at the county auditor's expense.

Sec. 5715.26. (A)(1) Upon receiving the statement required by section 5715.25 of the Revised Code, the county auditor shall forthwith add to or deduct from each tract, lot, or parcel of real property or class of real property the required percentage or amount of the valuation thereof, adding or deducting any sum less than five dollars so that the value of any separate tract, lot, or parcel of real property shall be ten dollars or some multiple thereof.

(2) When he has made After making the additions or deductions required by this section, the auditor shall transmit to the tax commissioner the appropriate adjusted abstract of the real property of each taxing district in his the auditor's county in which an adjustment was required.

(3) If the commissioner increases or decreases the aggregate value of the real property or any class thereof in any county or taxing district thereof and does not receive within ninety days thereafter an adjusted abstract conforming to its statement for such county or taxing district therein, he the commissioner shall withhold from such county or taxing district therein fifty per cent of its share in the distribution of state revenues to local governments pursuant to sections 5747.50 to 5747.55 of the Revised Code and shall direct the department of education to withhold therefrom fifty per cent of state revenues to school districts pursuant to Chapters 3306. and 3317. of the Revised Code. The commissioner shall withhold the distribution of such funds until the commissioner has notified the department that such county auditor has complied with this division.

(B)(1) If the commissioner's determination is appealed under section 5715.251 of the Revised Code, the county auditor, treasurer, and all other officers shall forthwith proceed with the levy and collection of the current year's taxes in the manner prescribed by law. The taxes shall be determined and collected as if the commissioner had determined under section 5715.24 of the Revised Code that the real property and the various classes thereof in the county as shown in the auditor's abstract were assessed for taxation and the true and agricultural use values were recorded on the agricultural land.
tax list as required by law.

(2) If as a result of the appeal to the board it is finally determined either that all real property and the various classes thereof have not been assessed as required by law or that the values set forth in the agricultural land tax list do not correctly reflect the true and agricultural use values of the lands contained therein, the county auditor shall forthwith add to or deduct from each tract, lot, or parcel of real property or class of real property the required percentage or amount of the valuation in accordance with the order of the board or judgment of the court to which the board's order was appealed, and the taxes on each tract, lot, or parcel and the percentages required by section 319.301 of the Revised Code shall be recomputed using the valuation as finally determined. The order or judgment making the final determination shall prescribe the time and manner for collecting, crediting, or refunding the resultant increases or decreases in taxes.

Sec. 5717.03. (A) A decision of the board of tax appeals on an appeal filed with it pursuant to section 5717.01, 5717.011, or 5717.02 of the Revised Code shall be entered of record on the journal together with the date when the order is filed with the secretary for journalization.

(B) In case of an appeal from a decision of a county board of revision, the board of tax appeals shall determine the taxable value of the property whose valuation or assessment by the county board of revision is complained of, or in the event the complaint and appeal is against a discriminatory valuation, shall determine a valuation which shall correct such discrimination, and shall determine the liability of the property for taxation, if that question is in issue, and the board of tax appeals' decision and the date when it was filed with the secretary for journalization shall be certified sent by the board by certified mail to all persons who were parties to the appeal before the board, to the person in whose name the property is listed, or sought to be listed, if such person is not a party to the appeal, to the county auditor of the county in which the property involved in the appeal is located, and to the tax commissioner.

In correcting a discriminatory valuation, the board of tax appeals shall increase or decrease the value of the property whose valuation or assessment by the county board of revision is complained of by a per cent or amount which will cause such property to be listed and valued for taxation by an equal and uniform rule.

(C) In the case of an appeal from a review, redetermination, or correction of a tax assessment, valuation, determination, finding, computation, or order of the tax commissioner, the order of the board of tax appeals and the date of the entry thereof upon its journal shall be certified sent by the board by certified mail to all persons who were parties to the appeal before the board, the person in whose name the property is listed or sought to be listed, if the decision determines the valuation or liability of property for taxation and if such person is not a party to the appeal, the taxpayer or other person to whom notice of the tax assessment, valuation, determination, finding, computation, or order, or correction or redetermination thereof, by the tax commissioner was by law required to be given, the director of budget and management, if the revenues affected by such decision would accrue primarily to the state treasury, and the county auditors of the counties to the undivided general tax funds of which the revenues affected by such decision would primarily accrue.

(D) In the case of an appeal from a municipal board of appeal created under section 718.11 of the Revised Code, the order of the board of tax appeals and the date of the entry thereof upon the board's journal shall be certified sent by the board by certified mail to all persons who were parties to the appeal before the board.

(E) In the case of all other appeals or applications filed with and determined by the board, the board's order and the date when the order was filed by the secretary for journalization shall be certified sent by the board by certified mail to the person who is a party to such appeal or application, to such persons as the law requires, and to such other persons as the board deems proper.

(F) The orders of the board may affirm, reverse, vacate, modify, or remand the tax assessments, valuations, determinations, findings, computations, or orders complained of in the appeals determined by the board, and the board's decision shall become final and conclusive for the current year unless reversed, vacated, or modified as provided in section 5717.04 of the Revised Code. When an order of the board becomes final the tax commissioner and all officers to whom such decision has been certified sent shall make the changes in their tax lists or other records which the decision requires.

(G) If the board finds that issues not raised on the appeal are important to a determination of a controversy, the board may remand the cause for an administrative determination and the issuance of a new tax assessment, valuation, determination, finding, computation, or order, unless the parties stipulate to the determination of such other issues without remand. An order remanding the cause is a final order. If the order relates to any issue other than a municipal income tax matter appealed under sections 718.11 and 5717.011 of the Revised Code, the order may be appealed to the court of appeals in Franklin county. If the order relates to a municipal income tax matter appealed under sections 718.11 and 5717.011 of the Revised Code, the order may be appealed to the court of appeals for the county in which the municipal corporation in which the dispute arose is primarily situated.

(H) At the request of any person that filed an appeal subject to this section, the decision or order of the board of tax appeals issued pursuant to division (B), (C), (D), or (E) of this section shall be sent by certified mail at the requestor’s expense.

Sec. 5717.04. The proceeding to obtain a reversal, vacation, or modification of a decision of the board of tax appeals shall be by appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals for the county in which the property taxed is situate or in which the taxpayer resides. If the taxpayer is a corporation, then the proceeding to obtain such reversal, vacation, or modification shall be by appeal to the supreme court or to the court of appeals for the county in which the property taxed is situate, or the county of residence of the agent for service of process, tax notices, or demands, or the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business. In all other instances, the proceeding to obtain such reversal, vacation, or modification shall be by appeal to the court of appeals for Franklin county.

Appeals from decisions of the board determining appeals from decisions of county boards of revision may be instituted by any of the persons who were parties to the appeal before the board of tax appeals, by the person in whose name the property involved in the appeal is listed or sought to be listed, if such person was not a party to the appeal before the board of tax appeals, or by the county auditor of the county in which the property involved in the appeal is located.

Appeals from decisions of the board of tax appeals determining appeals from final determinations by the tax commissioner of any preliminary, amended, or final tax assessments, reassessments, valuations, determinations, findings, computations, or orders made by the commissioner may be instituted by any of the persons who were parties to the appeal or application before the board, by the person in whose name the property is listed or sought to be listed, if the decision appealed from determines the valuation or liability of property for taxation and if any such person was not a party to the appeal or application before the board, by the taxpayer or any other person to whom the decision of the board appealed from was by law required to be certified sent, by the director of budget and management; if the revenue affected by the decision of the board appealed from would accrue primarily to the state treasury, by the county auditor of the county to the undivided general tax funds of which the revenues affected by the decision of the board appealed from would primarily accrue, or by the tax Appeals from decisions of the board upon all other appeals or applications filed with and determined by the board may be instituted by any of the persons who were parties to such appeal or application before the board, by any persons to whom the decision of the board appealed from was by law required to be certified sent, or by any other person to whom the board certified sent the decision appealed from, as authorized by section 5717.03 of the Revised Code.

Such appeals shall be taken within thirty days after the date of the entry of the decision of the board on the journal of its proceedings, as provided by such section, by the filing by appellant of a notice of appeal with the court to which the appeal is taken and the board. If a timely notice of appeal is filed by a party, any other party may file a notice of appeal within ten days of the date on which the first notice of appeal was filed or within the time otherwise prescribed in this section, whichever is later. A notice of appeal shall set forth the decision of the board appealed from and the errors therein complained of. Proof of the filing of such notice with the board shall be filed with the court to which the appeal is being taken. The court in which notice of appeal is first filed shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the appeal.

In all such appeals the tax commissioner or all persons to whom the decision of the board appealed from is required by such section to be certified sent, other than the appellant, shall be made appellees. Unless waived, notice of the appeal shall be served upon all appellees by certified mail. The prosecuting attorney shall represent the county auditor in any such appeal in which the auditor is a party.

The board, upon written demand filed by an appellant, shall within thirty days after the filing of such demand file with the court to which the appeal is being taken a certified transcript of the record of the proceedings of the board pertaining to the decision complained of and the evidence considered by the board in making such decision.

If upon hearing and consideration of such record and evidence the court decides that the decision of the board appealed from is reasonable and lawful it shall affirm the same, but if the court decides that such decision of the board is unreasonable or unlawful, the court shall reverse and vacate the decision or modify it and enter final judgment in accordance with such modification.

The clerk of the court shall certify the judgment of the court to the board, which shall certify such judgment to such public officials or take such other action in connection therewith as is required to give effect to the decision. The "taxpayer" includes any person required to return any property for taxation.

Any party to the appeal shall have the right to appeal from the judgment of the court of appeals on questions of law, as in other cases.

Sec. 5721.01. (A) As used in this chapter:

(1) "Delinquent lands" means all lands upon which delinquent taxes, as defined in section 323.01 of the Revised Code, remain unpaid at the time a settlement is made between the county treasurer and auditor pursuant to division (C) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Delinquent vacant lands" means all lands that have been delinquent lands for at least one year and that are unimproved by any dwelling.

(3) "County land reutilization corporation" means a county land reutilization corporation organized under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code.

(B) As used in sections 5719.04, 5721.03, and 5721.31 of the Revised Code and in any other sections of the Revised Code to which those sections are applicable, a newspaper or newspaper of general circulation shall be a publication bearing a title or name, regularly issued as frequently as once a week for a definite price or consideration paid for by not less than fifty per cent of those to whom distribution is made, having a second class mailing privilege, being not less than four pages, published continuously during the immediately preceding one-year period, and circulated generally in the political subdivision in which it is published. Such publication shall be of a type to which the general public resorts for passing events of a political, religious, commercial, and social nature, current happenings, announcements, miscellaneous reading matter, advertisements, and other notices, that has at least twenty-five per cent editorial, nonadvertising content, exclusive of inserts, measured relative to total publication space, and an audited circulation to at least fifty per cent of the households in the newspaper's retail trade zone as defined by the audit.

Sec. 5721.32. (A) The sale of tax certificates by public auction may be conducted at any time after completion of the advertising of the sale under section 5721.31 of the Revised Code, on the date and at the time and place designated in the advertisements, and may be continued from time to time as the county treasurer directs. The county treasurer may offer the tax certificates for sale in blocks of tax certificates, consisting of any number of tax certificates as determined by the county treasurer.

(B)(1) The sale of tax certificates under this section shall be conducted at a public auction by the county treasurer or a designee of the county treasurer.

(2) No person shall be permitted to bid without completing a bidder registration form, in the form prescribed by the tax commissioner, and without filing the form with the county treasurer prior to the start of the auction, together with remittance of a registration fee, in cash, of five hundred dollars. The bidder registration form shall include a tax identification number of the registrant. The registration fee is refundable at the end of bidding on the day of the auction, unless the registrant is the winning bidder for one or more tax certificates or one or more blocks of tax certificates, in which case the fee may be applied toward the deposit required by this section.

(3) The county treasurer may require a person who wishes to bid on one or more parcels to submit a letter from a financial institution stating that the bidder has sufficient funds available to pay the purchase price of the parcels and a written authorization for the treasurer to verify such information with the financial institution. The county treasurer may require submission of the letter and authorization sufficiently in advance of the auction to allow for verification. No person who fails to submit the required letter and authorization, or whose financial institution fails to provide the requested verification, shall be permitted to bid.

(C) At the public auction, the county treasurer or the treasurer's designee or agent shall begin the bidding at eighteen per cent per year simple interest, and accept lower bids in even increments of one-fourth of one per cent to the rate of zero per cent. The county treasurer, designee, or agent shall award the tax certificate to the person bidding the lowest certificate rate of interest. The county treasurer shall decide which person is the winning bidder in the event of a tie for the lowest bid offered, or if a person contests the lowest bid offered. The county treasurer's decision is not appealable.

(D)(1) The winning bidder shall pay the county treasurer a cash deposit of at least ten per cent of the certificate purchase price not later than the close of business on the day of the sale. The winning bidder shall pay the balance and the fee required under division (H) of this section not later than five business days after the day on which the certificate is sold. Except as provided under division (D)(2) of this section, if the winning bidder fails to pay the balance and fee within the prescribed time, the bidder forfeits the deposit, and the county treasurer shall retain the tax certificate and may attempt to sell it at any auction conducted at a later date.

(2) At the request of a winning bidder, the county treasurer may release the bidder from the bidder's tax certificate purchase obligation. The county treasurer may retain all or any portion of the deposit of a bidder granted a release. After granting a release under this division, the county treasurer may award the tax certificate to the person that submitted the second lowest bid at the auction.

(3) The county treasurer shall deposit the deposit forfeited or retained under divisions (D)(1) or (2) of this section in the county treasury to the credit of the tax certificate administration fund.

(E) Upon receipt of the full payment of the certificate purchase price from the purchaser, the county treasurer shall issue the tax certificate and record the tax certificate sale by entering into a tax certificate register the certificate purchase price, the certificate rate of interest, the date the certificate was sold, the name and address of the certificate holder, and any other information the county treasurer considers necessary. The county treasurer may keep the tax certificate register in a hard-copy format or in an electronic format. The name and address of the certificate holder may be, upon receipt of instructions from the purchaser, that of the secured party of the actual purchaser, or an agent or custodian for the purchaser or secured party. The county treasurer also shall transfer the tax certificate to the certificate holder. The county treasurer shall apportion the part of the proceeds from the sale representing taxes, penalties, and interest among the several taxing districts in the same proportion that the amount of taxes levied by each district against the certificate parcel in the preceding tax year bears to the taxes levied by all such districts against the certificate parcel in the preceding tax year, and credit the part of the proceeds representing assessments and other charges to the items of assessments and charges in the order in which those items became due. Upon issuing a tax certificate, the delinquent taxes that make up the certificate purchase price are transferred, and the superior lien of the state and its taxing districts for those delinquent taxes is conveyed intact to the certificate holder.

(F) If a tax certificate is offered for sale under this section but is not sold, the county treasurer may strike the corresponding certificate parcel from the list of parcels selected for tax certificate sales. The lien for taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest against a parcel stricken from the list thereafter may be foreclosed in the manner prescribed by section 323.25, sections 323.65 to 323.79, or section 5721.14 or 5721.18 of the Revised Code unless, prior to the institution of such proceedings against the parcel, the county treasurer restores the parcel to the list of parcels selected for tax certificate sales.

(G) A certificate holder shall not be liable for damages arising from a violation of sections 3737.87 to 3737.891 or Chapter 3704., 3734., 3745., 3746., 3750., 3751., 3752., 6109., or 6111. of the Revised Code, or a rule adopted or order, permit, license, variance, or plan approval issued under any of those chapters, that is or was committed by another person in connection with the parcel for which the tax certificate is held.

(H) When selling a tax certificate under this section, the county treasurer shall charge a fee to the purchaser of the certificate. The county treasurer shall set the fee at a reasonable amount that covers the treasurer's costs of administering the sale of the tax certificate. The county treasurer shall deposit the fee in the county treasury to the credit of the tax certificate administration fund.

(I) After selling a tax certificate under this section, the county treasurer shall send written notice by certified mail to the owner of the certificate parcel at the owner's last known tax-mailing address. The notice shall inform the owner that the tax certificate was sold, shall describe the owner's options to redeem the parcel, including entering into a redemption payment plan under division (C)(1) of section 5721.38 of the Revised Code, and shall name the certificate holder and its secured party, if any. However, the county treasurer is not required to send a notice under this division if the treasurer previously has attempted to send a notice to the owner of the parcel at the owner's last known tax-mailing address, and the postal service has returned the notice as undeliverable.

(J) A tax certificate shall not be sold to the owner of the certificate parcel. A tax certificate shall not be sold to a county land reutilization corporation after two years following the filing of its articles of incorporation by the secretary of state.

Sec. 5721.33. (A) A county treasurer may, in the treasurer's discretion, negotiate the sale or transfer of any number of tax certificates with one or more persons, including a county land reutilization corporation. No tax certificate shall be sold or transferred to a county land reutilization corporation after two years following the filing of its articles of incorporation by the secretary of state. Terms that may be negotiated include, without limitation, any of the following:

(1) A premium to be added to or discount to be subtracted from the certificate purchase price for the tax certificates;

(2) Different time frames under which the certificate holder may initiate a foreclosure action than are otherwise allowed under sections 5721.30 to 5721.43 of the Revised Code, not to exceed six years after the date the tax certificate was sold or transferred;

(3) The amount to be paid in private attorney's fees related to tax certificate foreclosures, subject to section 5721.371 of the Revised Code;

(4) Any other terms of the sale or transfer that the county treasurer, in the treasurer's discretion, determines appropriate or necessary for the sale or transfer.
(B) The sale or transfer of tax certificates under this section shall be governed by the criteria established by the county treasurer pursuant to division (E) of this section.

(C) The county treasurer may execute a tax certificate sale/purchase agreement and other necessary agreements with a designated purchaser or purchasers to complete a negotiated sale or transfer of tax certificates.

(D) The tax certificate may be sold at a premium to or discount from the certificate purchase price. The county treasurer may establish as one of the terms of the negotiated sale the portion of the certificate purchase price, plus any applicable premium or less any applicable discount, that the purchaser or purchasers shall pay in cash on the date the tax certificates are sold and the portion, if any, of the certificate purchase price, plus any applicable premium or less any applicable discount, that the purchaser or purchasers shall pay in noncash consideration and the nature of that consideration.

The county treasurer shall sell such tax certificates at a certificate purchase price, plus any applicable premium and less any applicable discount, and at a certificate rate of interest that, in the treasurer's determination, are in the best interests of the county.

(E)(1) The county treasurer shall adopt rules governing the eligibility of persons to purchase tax certificates or to otherwise participate in a negotiated sale under this section. The rules may provide for precertification of such persons, including a requirement for disclosure of income, assets, and any other financial information the county treasurer determines appropriate. The rules also may prohibit any person that is delinquent in the payment of any tax to the county or to the state, or that is in default in or on any other obligation to the county or to the state, from purchasing a tax certificate or otherwise participating in a negotiated sale of tax certificates under this section. The rules may also authorize the purchase of certificates by a county land reutilization corporation, and authorize the county treasurer to receive notes in lieu of cash, with such notes being payable to the treasurer upon the receipt or enforcement of such taxes, assessments, charges, costs, penalties, and interest, and as otherwise further agreed between the corporation and the treasurer. A county land reutilization corporation may not purchase any such certificate after two years following the filing of its articles of incorporation by the secretary of state. The eligibility information required shall include the tax identification number of the purchaser and may include the tax identification number of the participant. The county treasurer, upon request, shall provide a copy of the rules adopted under this section.

sale shall submit an affidavit to the county treasurer that establishes compliance with the applicable eligibility criteria and includes any other information required by the treasurer. Any person that fails to submit such an affidavit is ineligible to purchase a tax certificate. Any person that knowingly submits a false or misleading affidavit shall forfeit any tax certificate or certificates purchased by the person at a sale for which the affidavit was submitted, shall be liable for payment of the full certificate purchase price, plus any applicable premium and less any applicable discount, of the tax certificate or certificates, and shall be disqualified from participating in any tax certificate sale conducted in the county during the next five years.

(3) A tax certificate shall not be sold to the owner of the certificate parcel or to any corporation, partnership, or association in which such owner has an interest. No person that purchases a tax certificate in a negotiated sale shall assign or transfer the tax certificate to the owner of the certificate parcel or to any corporation, partnership, or association in which the owner has an interest. Any person that knowingly or negligently transfers or assigns a tax certificate to the owner of the certificate parcel or to any corporation, partnership, or association in which such owner has an interest shall be liable for payment of the full certificate purchase price, plus any applicable premium and less any applicable discount, and shall not be entitled to a refund of any amount paid. Such tax certificate shall be deemed void and the tax lien sold under the tax certificate shall revert to the county as if no sale of the tax certificate had occurred.

(F) The purchaser in a negotiated sale under this section shall deliver the certificate purchase price or other consideration, plus any applicable premium and less any applicable discount and including any noncash consideration, to the county treasurer not later than the close of business on the date the tax certificates are delivered to the purchaser. The certificate purchase price, less any applicable discount, or portion of the price, that is paid in cash shall be deposited in the county's general fund to the credit of the account to which ad valorem real property taxes are credited and further credited as provided in division (G) of this section. Any applicable premium that is paid shall be, at the discretion of the county treasurer, apportioned to and deposited in any authorized county fund. The purchaser also shall pay on the date the tax certificates are delivered to the purchaser the fee, if any, negotiated under division (J) of this section. If the purchaser fails to pay the certificate purchase price, plus any applicable premium and less any applicable discount, and any such fee, within the time periods required by this section, the county treasurer shall retain the tax certificate and may attempt to sell it at any auction or negotiated sale conducted at a later date.

(G) Upon receipt of the full payment from the purchaser of the certificate purchase price or other agreed-upon consideration, plus any applicable premium and less any applicable discount, and the negotiated fee, if any, the county treasurer, or a qualified trustee whom the treasurer has engaged for such purpose, shall issue the tax certificate and record the tax certificate sale by entering into a tax certificate register the certificate purchase price, any premium paid or discount taken, the certificate rate of interest, the date the certificates were sold, the name and address of the certificate holder or, in the case of issuance of the tax certificates in a book-entry system, the name and address of the nominee, and any other information the county treasurer considers necessary. The county treasurer may keep the tax certificate register in a hard-copy format or an electronic format. The name and address of the certificate holder or nominee may be, upon receipt of instructions from the purchaser, that of the secured party of the actual purchaser, or an agent or custodian for the purchaser or secured party. The county treasurer also shall transfer the tax certificates to the certificate holder. The county treasurer shall apportion the part of the cash proceeds from the sale representing taxes, penalties, and interest among the several taxing districts in the same proportion that the amount of taxes levied by each district against the certificate parcels in the preceding tax year bears to the taxes levied by all such districts against the certificate parcels in the preceding tax year, and credit the part of the proceeds representing assessments and other charges to the items of assessments and charges in the order in which those items became due. If the cash proceeds from the sale are not sufficient to fully satisfy the items of taxes, assessments, penalties, interest, and charges on the certificate parcels against which tax certificates were sold, the county treasurer shall credit the cash proceeds to such items pro rata based upon the proportion that each item of taxes, assessments, penalties, interest, and charges bears to the aggregate of all such items, or by any other method that the county treasurer, in the treasurer's sole discretion, determines is equitable. Upon issuing the tax certificates, the delinquent taxes that make up the certificate purchase price are transferred, and the superior lien of the state and its taxing districts for those delinquent taxes is conveyed intact to the certificate holder or holders.

(H) If a tax certificate is offered for sale under this section but is not sold, the county treasurer may strike the corresponding certificate parcel from the list of parcels selected for tax certificate sales. The lien for taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest against a parcel stricken from the list thereafter may be foreclosed in the manner prescribed by section 323.25, 5721.14, or 5721.18 of the Revised Code unless, prior to the institution of such proceedings against the parcel, the county treasurer restores the parcel to the list of parcels selected for tax certificate sales.

(I) Neither a certificate holder nor its secured party, if any, shall be liable for damages arising from a violation of sections 3737.87 to 3737.891 or Chapter 3704., 3734., 3745., 3746., 3750., 3751., 3752., 6109., or 6111. of the Revised Code, or a rule adopted or order, permit, license, variance, or plan approval issued under any of those chapters, that is or was committed by another person in connection with the parcel for which the tax certificate is held.

(J) When selling or transferring a tax certificate under this section, the county treasurer may negotiate with the purchaser of the certificate for fees paid by the purchaser to the county treasurer to reimburse the treasurer for any part or all of the treasurer's costs of preparing for and administering the sale of the tax certificate and any fees set forth by the county treasurer in the tax certificate sale/purchase agreement. Such fees, if any, shall be added to the certificate purchase price and shall be paid by the purchaser on the date of delivery of the tax certificate. The county treasurer shall deposit the fees in the county treasury to the credit of the tax certificate administration fund.

(K) After selling tax certificates under this section, the county treasurer shall send written notice by certified mail to the last known tax-mailing address of the owner of the certificate parcel. The notice shall inform the owner that a tax certificate with respect to such owner's parcel was sold or transferred and shall describe the owner's options to redeem the parcel, including entering into a redemption payment plan under division (C)(2) of section 5721.38 of the Revised Code. However, the county treasurer is not required to send a notice under this division if the treasurer previously has attempted to send a notice to the owner of the parcel at the owner's last known tax-mailing address and the postal service has returned the notice as undeliverable.

Sec. 5722.02. (A) Any municipal corporation, county, or township may elect to adopt and implement the procedures set forth in sections 5722.02 to 5722.15 of the Revised Code to facilitate the effective reutilization of nonproductive land situated within its boundaries. Such election shall be made by ordinance in the case of a municipal corporation, and by resolution in the case of a county or township. The ordinance or resolution shall state that the existence of nonproductive land within its boundaries is such as to necessitate the implementation of a land reutilization program to foster either the return of such nonproductive land to tax revenue generating status or the devotion thereof to public use.
(B) Any county adopting a resolution under division (A) of this section may direct in the resolution that a county land reutilization corporation be organized under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code to act on behalf of and cooperate with the county in exercising the powers and performing the duties of the county under this chapter. The powers extended to a county land reutilization corporation shall not be construed as a limitation on the powers granted to a county land reutilization corporation under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code, but shall be construed as additional powers, except that a county land reutilization corporation may not acquire any interest in real property under this chapter after two years following the filing of its articles of incorporation by the secretary of state.

(C) An electing subdivision shall promptly deliver certified copies of such ordinance or resolution to the auditor, treasurer, and the prosecutor of each county in which the electing subdivision is situated. On and after the effective date of such ordinance or resolution, the foreclosure, sale, management, and disposition of all nonproductive land situated within the electing subdivision's boundaries shall be governed by the procedures set forth in sections 5722.02 to 5722.15 of the Revised Code, and, in the case of a county land reutilization corporation, as authorized under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code. When a county adopts a resolution organizing a county land reutilization corporation pursuant to this chapter, the county shall deliver a copy of the resolution to the county auditor, county treasurer, and county prosecuting attorney.

(D) A county, a county land reutilization corporation, and a municipal corporation or township may enter into an agreement to implement the procedures in sections 5722.02 to 5722.15 of the Revised Code within the boundaries of the municipal corporation or township if the county and the township or municipal corporation are electing subdivisions and the county has, by resolution, designated a county land reutilization corporation to act on its behalf under this chapter.

Any property acquired by a county land reutilization corporation in a transaction other than the tax foreclosure procedures in Chapter 323., 5721., or 5723. of the Revised Code shall be subject to a priority right of acquisition by a municipal corporation or township in which the property is located for a period of thirty days after the county land reutilization corporation first records the deed evidencing acquisition of such property with the county recorder. A municipal corporation or township claiming a priority right of acquisition shall file, and the county recorder shall record, an instrument evidencing such right within the thirty-day period. The instrument shall include the name and address of the applicable municipal corporation or township, the parcel or other identifying number and an affirmative statement by the municipal corporation or township that it intends to acquire the property. If the municipal corporation or township records such an instrument within the thirty-day period, then the priority right of acquisition shall be effective for a period of ninety days after the instrument is recorded. If the municipal corporation or township does not record the instrument expressing its intent to acquire the property or, if having timely recorded such instrument does not thereafter acquire and record a deed within the ninety-day period following the recording of its intent to acquire the property, then the county land reutilization corporation may dispose of such property free and clear of any claim or interest of such municipal corporation or township. If a municipal corporation or township does not record an instrument of intent to acquire property within the thirty-day period, or if a municipal corporation or township, after timely recording an instrument of intent to acquire a parcel, does not thereafter acquire the parcel within ninety days and record a deed thereto with the county recorder, the municipal corporation or township has no statutory, legal, or equitable claim or estate in property acquired by the county land reutilization corporation. This section shall not be construed to constitute an exception to free and clear title to the property held by a county land reutilization corporation or any of its subsequent transferees, or to preclude a county land reutilization corporation and any municipal corporation or township from entering into an agreement that disposes of property on terms to which they may thereafter mutually agree.

Sec. 5722.04. (A) Upon receipt of an ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to section 5722.02 of the Revised Code, the county auditor shall deliver to the electing subdivision a list of all delinquent lands within an electing subdivision's boundaries that have been forfeited to the state pursuant to section 5723.01 of the Revised Code and thereafter shall notify the electing subdivision of any additions to or deletions from such list. The electing subdivision shall select from such lists the forfeited lands that constitute nonproductive lands that the subdivision wishes to acquire, and shall notify the county auditor of its selection prior to the advertisement and sale of such lands. Notwithstanding the sales price provisions of division (A)(1) of section 5723.06 of the Revised Code, the selected nonproductive lands shall be advertised for sale and be sold to the highest bidder for an amount at least sufficient to pay the amount determined under division (A)(2) of section 5721.16 of the Revised Code. All nonproductive lands forfeited to the state and selected by an electing subdivision, when advertised for sale pursuant to the relevant procedures set forth in Chapter 5723. of the Revised Code, shall be advertised separately from the advertisement applicable to other forfeited lands. The advertisement relating to the selected nonproductive lands also shall include a statement that the lands have been selected by the electing subdivision as nonproductive lands that it wishes to acquire and that, if at the forfeiture sale no bid for the sum of the taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, interest, and costs due on the parcel as determined under division (A)(1)(a) of section 5723.06 of the Revised Code is received, the lands shall be sold to the electing subdivision.

(B) If any nonproductive land that has been forfeited to the state and selected by an electing subdivision is advertised and offered for sale by the auditor pursuant to Chapter 5723. of the Revised Code, but no minimum bid is received, the electing subdivision shall be deemed to have submitted the winning bid, and the land is deemed sold to the electing subdivision for no consideration other than the fee charged under division (C) of this section. If both a county and a township in that county have adopted a resolution pursuant to section 5722.02 of the Revised Code and both subdivisions select the same parcel or parcels of land, the electing subdivision deemed to have submitted the winning bid under this division shall be determined pursuant to division (D) of section 5722.03 of the Revised Code.

The auditor shall announce the bid at the sale and shall declare the selected nonproductive land to be sold to the electing subdivision. The auditor shall deliver to the electing subdivision a certificate of sale.

(C) On the returning of the certificate of sale to the auditor, the auditor shall execute and file for recording a deed conveying title to the selected nonproductive land and, once the deed has been recorded, deliver it to the electing subdivision. Thereupon, all previous title is extinguished, and the title in the electing subdivision is incontestable and free and clear from all liens and encumbrances, except taxes and special assessments that are not due at the time of the sale and any easements and covenants of record running with the land and created prior to the time at which the taxes or assessments, for the nonpayment of which the nonproductive land was forfeited, became due and payable. At the time of the sale, the auditor shall collect and the electing subdivision shall pay the fee required by law for transferring and recording of deeds.

Upon delivery of a deed conveying any nonproductive land to an electing subdivision, the county auditor shall charge all costs incurred in any proceeding instituted under section 5721.14 or 5721.18 of the Revised Code or incurred as a result of the forfeiture and sale of the nonproductive land to the taxing districts, including the electing subdivision, in direct proportion to their interest in the taxes, assessments, charges, interest, and penalties on the nonproductive land due and payable at the time the land was sold at the forfeiture sale. The interest of each taxing district in the taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest on the nonproductive land shall bear the same proportion to the amount of those taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest that the amount of taxes levied by each district against the nonproductive land in the preceding tax year bears to the taxes levied by all such districts against the nonproductive land in the preceding tax year. For the purposes of this division, a county land reutilization corporation shall be deemed to have the proportionate interest as the county designating or organizing such corporation in the taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest on the nonproductive land in the county. In making a semiannual apportionment of funds, the auditor shall retain at the next apportionment the amount charged to each such taxing district, except for a county land reutilization corporation acting on behalf of a county, the auditor shall invoice the corporation the amount charged to it.

(D) Where no political subdivision has requested to purchase a parcel of land at a foreclosure sale, any lands otherwise forfeited to the state for want of a bid at the foreclosure sale may, upon the request of a county land reutilization corporation, be transferred directly to the corporation without appraisal or public bidding, except that no interest in real property may be transferred to a county land reutilization corporation under this section after two years following the filing of its articles of incorporation by the secretary of state.

Sec. 5722.21. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Eligible delinquent land" means delinquent land or delinquent vacant land, as defined in section 5721.01 of the Revised Code, included in a delinquent tax list or delinquent vacant land tax list that has been certified delinquent within the meaning of section 5721.03 of the Revised Code, excluding any certificate parcel as defined in section 5721.30 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Delinquent taxes" means the cumulative amount of unpaid taxes, assessments, recoupment charges, penalties, and interest charged against eligible delinquent land that became delinquent before transfer of title to a county, municipal corporation, township, or county land reutilization corporation under this section.

(3) "Foreclosure costs" means the sum of all costs or other charges of publication, service of notice, prosecution, or other proceedings against the land under sections 323.25 to 323.28, 323.65 to 323.79, or Chapter 5721. of the Revised Code as may pertain to delinquent land or be fairly apportioned to it by the county treasurer.
(4) "Tax foreclosure sale" means a sale of delinquent land pursuant to foreclosure proceedings under sections 323.25 to 323.28, 323.65 to 323.79, or section 5721.14 or 5721.18 of the Revised Code.

(5) "Taxing authority" means the legislative authority of any taxing unit, as defined in section 5705.01 of the Revised Code, in which is located a parcel of eligible delinquent land acquired or to be acquired by a county, municipal corporation, township, or county land reutilization corporation in which a declaration under division (B) of this section is in effect.

(B) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation may declare by ordinance, or a board of county commissioners, a board of township trustees, or the board of directors of a county land reutilization corporation may declare by resolution, that it is in the public interest for the county, municipal corporation, township, or county land reutilization corporation to acquire tax-delinquent real property within the county, municipal corporation, or township for the public purpose of redeveloping the property or otherwise rendering it suitable for productive, tax-paying use. In any county, municipal corporation, or township in which such a declaration is in effect, the county, municipal corporation, township, or county land reutilization corporation may purchase or otherwise acquire title to eligible delinquent land, other than by appropriation, and the title shall pass free and clear of the lien for delinquent taxes as provided in division (D) of this section. The authority granted by this section is supplemental to the authority granted under sections 5722.01 to 5722.15 of the Revised Code. A county land reutilization corporation may not acquire an interest in real property under this section after two years following the filing of its articles of incorporation by the secretary of state.

(C) With respect to any parcel of eligible delinquent land purchased or acquired by a county, municipal corporation, township, or county land reutilization corporation in which a declaration is in effect under this section, the county, municipal corporation, or township may obtain the consent of each taxing authority for release of any claim on the delinquent taxes and associated costs attaching to that property at the time of conveyance to the county, municipal corporation, or township. Consent shall be obtained in writing, and shall be certified by the taxing authority granting consent or by the fiscal officer or other person authorized by the taxing authority to provide such consent. Consent may be obtained before or after title to the eligible delinquent land is transferred to the county, municipal corporation, or township. A county that has organized and designated a county land reutilization corporation for purposes of this chapter is not required to obtain such consent. Upon conveyance to a county land
The taxing authority of a taxing unit and a county, municipal corporation, or township in which a declaration is in effect under this section may enter into an agreement whereby the taxing authority consents in advance to release of the taxing authority's claim on delinquent taxes and associated costs with respect to all or a specified number of parcels of eligible delinquent land that may be purchased or acquired by the county, municipal corporation, or township for the purposes of this section. The agreement shall provide for any terms and conditions on the release of such claim as are mutually agreeable to the taxing authority and county, municipal corporation, or township, including any notice to be provided by the county, municipal corporation, or township to the taxing authority of the purchase or acquisition of eligible delinquent land situated in the taxing unit; any option vesting in the taxing authority to revoke its release with respect to any parcel of eligible delinquent land before the release becomes effective; and the manner in which notice of such revocation shall be effected. Nothing in this section or in such an agreement shall be construed to bar a taxing authority from revoking its advance consent with respect to any parcels of eligible delinquent land purchased or acquired by the county, municipal corporation, or township before the county, municipal corporation, or township enters into a purchase or other agreement for acquisition of the parcels.

A county that has organized and designated a county land reutilization corporation is not required to enter into such an agreement with a taxing authority.

(D) The lien for the delinquent taxes and associated costs for which all of the taxing authorities have consented to release their claims under this section is hereby extinguished, and the transfer of title to such delinquent land to the county, municipal corporation, or township shall be transferred free and clear of the lien for such taxes and costs. If a taxing authority does not consent to the release of its claim on delinquent taxes and associated costs, the entire amount of the lien for such taxes and costs shall continue as otherwise provided by law until paid or otherwise discharged according to law. If a county land reutilization corporation acquires title to eligible delinquent land under this section, the lien for delinquent taxes and costs with respect to land acquired by the corporation shall be extinguished simultaneously with the transfer of title to the corporation, notwithstanding that the taxing authorities have not consented to release their claims under this section.
(E) All eligible delinquent land acquired by a county, municipal corporation, township, or county land reutilization corporation under this section is real property held for a public purpose and is exempted from taxation until the county, municipal corporation, township, or county land reutilization corporation sells or otherwise disposes of property.

(F) If a county, municipal corporation, township, or county land reutilization corporation sells or otherwise disposes of delinquent land it purchased or acquired and for which all or a portion of a taxing authority's claim for delinquent taxes was released under this section, whether by consent of the taxing authority or pursuant to division (D) of this section, the net proceeds from such sale or disposition shall be used for such redevelopment purposes the board of county commissioners, the legislative authority of the municipal corporation, the board of township trustees, or the board of directors of the county land reutilization corporation considers necessary or appropriate.

Sec. 5723.04. (A) The county auditor shall maintain a list of forfeited lands and shall offer such lands for sale annually, or more frequently if the auditor determines that more frequent sales are necessary.

(B) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, upon the request of a county land reutilization corporation organized under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code, the county auditor shall promptly transfer to such corporation, by auditor's deed, the fee simple title to a parcel on the list of forfeited lands, which shall pass to such corporation free and clear of all taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, interest, and costs. Any subordinate liens shall be deemed fully and forever satisfied and discharged. Upon such request, the land is deemed sold by the state for no consideration. The county land reutilization corporation shall file the deed for recording. A county land reutilization corporation may not acquire an interest in a parcel under this section after two years following the filing of its articles of incorporation by the secretary of state.

Sec. 5725.18. (A) An annual franchise tax on the privilege of being an insurance company is hereby levied on each domestic insurance company. In the month of May, annually, the treasurer of state shall charge for collection from each domestic insurance company a franchise tax in the amount computed in accordance with the following, as applicable:

1. With respect to a domestic insurance company that is a health insuring corporation, one per cent of all premium rate payments received, exclusive of payments received under the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, or and exclusive of payments received pursuant to the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code for the period ending September 30, 2009, as reflected in its annual report for the preceding calendar year;

(2) With respect to a domestic insurance company that is not a health insuring corporation, one and four-tenths per cent of the gross amount of premiums received from policies covering risks within this state, exclusive of premiums received under the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, or and exclusive of payments received pursuant to the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code for the period ending September 30, 2009, as reflected in its annual statement for the preceding calendar year, and, if the company operates a health insuring corporation as a line of business, one per cent of all premium rate payments received from that line of business, exclusive of payments received under the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, or pursuant to the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code, as reflected in its annual statement for the preceding calendar year.

Domestic insurance companies, including health insuring corporations, receiving payments pursuant to the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code during the period beginning October 1, 2009, and ending December 31, 2009, shall file with the 2009 annual statement to the superintendent a schedule that reflects those payments received pursuant to the medical assistance program for that period. The payments reflected in the schedule, plus all other taxable premiums, are subject to the annual franchise tax due to be paid in 2010.

(B) The gross amount of premium rate payments or premiums used to compute the applicable tax in accordance with division (A) of this section is subject to the deductions prescribed by section 5729.03 of the Revised Code for foreign insurance companies. The objects of such tax are those declared in section 5725.24 of the Revised Code, to which only such tax shall be applied.

(C) In no case shall such tax be less than two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 5725.33. (A) Except as otherwise provided in this section, terms used in this section have the same meaning as section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code, any related proposed, temporary or final regulations promulgated under the Internal Revenue Code, any rules or guidance of the internal revenue service or the United States department of the treasury, and any related rules or guidance issued by the community development financial institutions fund of the United States department of the treasury, as such law, regulations, rules, and guidance exist on the effective date of the enactment of this section by H.B. 1 of the 128th general assembly.

As used in this section:

(1) "Adjusted purchase price" means the amount paid for qualified equity investments multiplied by the qualified low-income community investments made by the issuer in projects located in this state as a percentage of the total amount of qualified low-income community investments made by the issuer in projects located in all states on the credit allowance date during the applicable tax year, subject to divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section.

(2) "Applicable percentage" means zero per cent for each of the first two credit allowance dates, seven per cent for the third credit allowance date, and eight per cent for the four following credit allowance dates.

(3) "Credit allowance date" means the date, on or after January 1, 2010, a qualified equity investment is made and each of the six anniversary dates thereafter. For qualified equity investments made after the effective date of this section but before January 1, 2010, the initial credit allowance date is January 1, 2010, and each of the six anniversary dates thereafter is on the first day of January of each year.

(4) "Qualified active low-income community business" excludes any business that derives or projects to derive fifteen per cent or more of annual revenue from the rental or sale of real property, except any business that is a special purpose entity principally owned by a principal user of that property formed solely for the purpose of renting, either directly or indirectly, or selling real property back to such principal user if such principal user does not derive fifteen per cent or more of its gross annual revenue from the rental or sale of real property.

(5) "Qualified community development entity" includes only entities:

(a) That have entered into an allocation agreement with the community development financial institutions fund of the United States department of the treasury with respect to credits authorized by section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) Whose service area includes any portion of this state; and

(c) That will designate an equity investment in such entities as a qualified equity investment for purposes of both section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code and this section.

(6) "Qualified equity investment" is limited to an equity investment in a qualified community development entity that:

(a) Is acquired after the effective date of the enactment of this section at its original issuance solely in exchange for cash;

(b) Has at least eighty-five per cent of its cash purchase price used by the qualified community development entity to make qualified low-income community investments, provided that in the seventh year after a qualified equity investment is made, only seventy-five per cent of such cash purchase price must be used by the qualified community development entity to make qualified low-income community investments; and

(c) Is designated by the issuer as a qualified equity investment. "Qualified equity investment" includes any equity investment that would, but for division (A)(6)(a) of this section, be a qualified equity investment in the hands of the taxpayer if such investment was a qualified equity investment in the hands of a prior holder.

(B) There is hereby allowed a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by section 5725.18 of the Revised Code for an insurance company holding a qualified equity investment on the credit allowance date occurring in the calendar year for which the tax is due. The credit shall equal the applicable percentage of the adjusted purchase price of qualified low-income community investments, subject to divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section:

(1) For the purpose of calculating the amount of qualified low-income community investments held by a qualified community development entity, an investment shall be considered held by a qualified community development entity even if the investment has been sold or repaid, provided that, at any time before the seventh anniversary of the issuance of the qualified equity investment, the qualified community development entity reinvests an amount equal to the capital returned to or received or recovered by the qualified community development entity from the original investment, exclusive of any profits realized and costs incurred in the sale or repayment, in another qualified low-income community investment within twelve months of the receipt of such capital. If the qualified low-income community investment is sold or repaid after the sixth anniversary of the issuance of the qualified equity investment, the qualified low-income community investment shall be considered held by the qualified community development entity through the seventh anniversary of the qualified equity investment's issuance.

(2) The qualified low-income community investment made in this state shall equal the sum of the qualified low-income community investments in each qualified active low-income community business in this state, not to exceed two million five hundred sixty-four thousand dollars, in which the qualified community development entity invests, including such investments in any such businesses in this state related to that qualified active low-income community business through majority ownership or control.

The credit shall be claimed in the order prescribed by section 5725.98 of the Revised Code. If the amount of the credit exceeds the amount of tax otherwise due after deducting all other credits in that order, the excess may be carried forward and applied to the tax due for not more than four ensuing years.

By claiming a tax credit under this section, an insurance company waives its rights under section 5725.222 of the Revised Code with respect to the time limitation for the assessment of taxes as it relates to credits claimed that later become subject to recapture under division (E) of this section.

(C) The amount of qualified equity investments on the basis of which credits may be claimed under this section and sections 5729.16 and 5733.58 of the Revised Code shall not exceed the amount, estimated by the director of development, that would cause the total amount of credits allowed each fiscal year to exceed ten million dollars, computed without regard to the potential for taxpayers to carry tax credits forward to later years.

(D) If any amount of the federal tax credit allowed for a qualified equity investment for which a credit was received under this section is recaptured under section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code, or if the director of development determines that an investment for which a tax credit is claimed under this section is not a qualified equity investment or that the proceeds of an investment for which a tax credit is claimed under this section are used to make qualified low-income community investments other than in a qualified active low-income community business, all or a portion of the credit received on account of that investment shall be paid by the insurance company that received the credit to the superintendent of insurance. The amount to be recovered shall be determined by the director of development pursuant to rules adopted under division (E) of this section. The director shall certify any amount due under this division to the superintendent of insurance, and the superintendent shall notify the treasurer of state of the amount due. Upon notification, the treasurer shall invoice the insurance company for the amount due. The amount due is payable not later than thirty days after the date the treasurer invoices the insurance company. The amount due shall be considered to be tax due under section 5725.18 of the Revised Code, and may be collected by assessment without regard to the time limitations imposed under section 5725.222 of the Revised Code for the assessment of taxes by the superintendent. All amounts collected under this division shall be credited as revenue from the tax levied under section 5725.18 of the Revised Code.
(E) The tax credits authorized under this section and sections 5729.16 and 5733.58 of the Revised Code shall be administered by the department of development. The director of development, in consultation with the tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance, pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt rules for the administration of this section and sections 5729.16 and 5733.58 of the Revised Code. The rules shall provide for determining the recovery of credits under division (D) of this section, division (D) of section 5729.16, and section 5733.58 of the Revised Code, including prorating the amount of the credit to be recovered on any reasonable basis, the manner in which credits may be allocated among claimants, and the amount of any application or other fees to be charged in connection with a recovery.

(F) There is hereby created in the state treasury the new markets tax credit operating fund. The director of development is authorized to charge reasonable application and other fees in connection with the administration of tax credits authorized by this section and sections 5729.16 and 5733.58 of the Revised Code. Any such fees collected shall be credited to the fund. The director of development shall use money in the fund to pay expenses related to the administration of tax credits authorized under sections 5725.33, 5729.16, and 5733.58 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5725.98. (A) To provide a uniform procedure for calculating the amount of tax imposed by section 5725.18 of the Revised Code that is due under this chapter, a taxpayer shall claim any credits and offsets against tax liability to which it is entitled in the following order:

1. The credit for an insurance company or insurance company group under section 5729.031 of the Revised Code.
2. The credit for eligible employee training costs under section 5725.31 of the Revised Code.
3. The credit for purchasers of qualified low-income community investments under section 5725.33 of the Revised Code.
4. The job retention credit under section 122.171 of the Revised Code;
5. The offset of assessments by the Ohio life and health insurance guaranty association permitted by section 3956.20 of the Revised Code.
6. The refundable credit for Ohio job creation under section 5725.32 of the Revised Code.
7. The refundable credit under section 5729.08 5725.19 of the Revised Code for losses on loans made under the Ohio venture capital program under sections 150.01 to 150.10 of the Revised Code.

(B) For any credit except the credits enumerated in divisions (A)(4)(6) and (5)(7) of this section, the amount of the credit for a taxable year shall not exceed the tax due after allowing for any other credit that precedes it in the order required under this section. Any excess amount of a particular credit may be carried forward if authorized under the section creating that credit. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to allow a taxpayer to claim, directly or indirectly, a credit more than once for a taxable year.

Sec. 5727.81. (A) For the purpose of raising revenue for public education and state and local government operations, an excise tax is hereby levied and imposed on an electric distribution company for all electricity distributed by such company at the following rates per kilowatt hour of electricity distributed in a thirty-day period by the company through a meter of an end user in this state:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>KILOWATT HOURS DISTRIBUTED TO AN END USER</th>
<th>RATE PER KILOWATT HOUR</th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>For the first 2,000</td>
<td>$.00465</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For the next 2,001 to 15,000</td>
<td>$.00419</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For 15,001 and above</td>
<td>$.00363</td>
</tr> </tbody>

If no meter is used to measure the kilowatt hours of electricity distributed by the company, the rates shall apply to the estimated kilowatt hours of electricity distributed to an unmetered location in this state.

The electric distribution company shall base the monthly tax on the kilowatt hours of electricity distributed to an end user through the meter of the end user that is not measured for a thirty-day period by dividing the days in the measurement period into the total kilowatt hours measured during the measurement period to obtain a daily average usage. The tax shall be determined by obtaining the sum of divisions (A)(1), (2), and (3) of this section and multiplying that amount by the number of days in the measurement period:

1. Multiplying $0.00465 per kilowatt hour for the first sixty-seven kilowatt hours distributed using a daily average;
2. Multiplying $0.00419 for the next sixty-eight to five hundred kilowatt hours distributed using a daily average;
3. Multiplying $0.00363 for the remaining kilowatt hours distributed using a daily average.

Except as provided in division (C) of this section, the electric distribution company shall pay the tax to the tax commissioner in accordance with section 5727.82 of the Revised Code, unless required to remit each tax payment by electronic funds transfer to the treasurer of state in accordance with section 5727.83 of the Revised Code.

Only the distribution of electricity through a meter of an end user in this state shall be used by the electric distribution company to compute the amount or estimated amount of tax due. In the event a meter is not actually read for a measurement period, the estimated kilowatt hours distributed by an electric distribution company to bill for its distribution charges shall be used.

(B) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, each electric distribution company shall pay the tax imposed by this section in all of the following circumstances:

1. The electricity is distributed by the company through a meter of an end user in this state;
2. The company is distributing electricity through a meter located in another state, but the electricity is consumed in this state in the manner prescribed by the tax commissioner;
3. The company is distributing electricity in this state without the use of a meter, but the electricity is consumed in this state as estimated and in the manner prescribed by the tax commissioner.

(C)(1) As used in division (C) of this section:

(a) "Total price of electricity" means the aggregate value in money of anything paid or transferred, or promised to be paid or transferred, to obtain electricity or electric service, including but not limited to the value paid or promised to be paid for the transmission or distribution of electricity and for transition costs as described in Chapter 4928. of the Revised Code.

(b) "Package" means the provision or the acquisition, at a combined price, of electricity with other services or products, or any combination thereof, such as natural gas or other fuels; energy management products, software, and services; machinery and equipment acquisition; and financing agreements.

(c) "Single location" means a facility located on contiguous property separated only by a roadway, railway, or waterway.

2. Division (C) of this section applies to any commercial or industrial purchaser's receipt of electricity through a meter of an end user in this state or through more than one meter at a single location in this state in a quantity that exceeds forty-five million kilowatt hours of electricity over the course of the preceding calendar year, or any commercial or industrial purchaser that will consume more than forty-five million kilowatt hours of electricity over the course of the succeeding twelve months as estimated by the tax commissioner. The tax commissioner shall make such an estimate upon the written request by an applicant for registration as a self-assessing purchaser under this division. Such For the meter reading period including July 1, 2008, through the meter reading period including December 31, 2010, such a purchaser may elect to self-assess the excise tax imposed by this section at the rate of $0.00075 per kilowatt hour on the first five hundred four million kilowatt hours distributed to that meter or location during the registration year, and a percentage of the total price of all electricity distributed to that meter or location equal to four per cent through the meter reading period that includes June 30, 2008, and three and one-half per cent beginning for the meter reading period including July 1, 2008, and thereafter. A For the meter reading period including January 1, 2011, and thereafter, such a purchaser may elect to self-assess the excise tax imposed by this section at the rate of $0.00257 per kilowatt hour for the first five hundred million kilowatt hours, and $0.001832 per kilowatt hour for each kilowatt hour in excess of five hundred million kilowatt hours, distributed to that meter or location during the registration year.

A qualified end user that receives electricity through a meter of an end user in this state or through more than one meter at a single location in this state and that consumes, over the course of the previous calendar year, more than forty-five million kilowatt hours in other than its qualifying manufacturing process, may elect to self-assess the tax as allowed by this division with respect to the electricity used in other than its qualifying manufacturing process.

Payment of the tax shall be made directly to the tax commissioner in accordance with divisions (A)(4) and (5) of section 5727.82 of the Revised Code, or the treasurer of state in accordance with section 5727.83 of the Revised Code. If the electric distribution company serving the self-assessing purchaser is a municipal electric utility and the purchaser is within the municipal corporation's corporate limits, payment shall be made to such municipal corporation's general fund and reports shall be filed in accordance with divisions (A)(4) and (5) of section 5727.82 of the Revised Code, except that "municipal corporation" shall be substituted for "treasurer of state" and "tax commissioner." A self-assessing purchaser that pays the excise tax as provided in this division shall not be required to pay the tax to the electric distribution company from which its electricity is distributed. If a self-assessing purchaser's receipt of electricity is not subject to the tax as measured under this division, the tax on the receipt of such electricity shall be measured and paid as provided in division (A) of this section.

(3) In the case of the acquisition of a package, unless the elements of the package are separately stated isolating the total price of electricity from the price of the remaining elements of the package, the tax imposed under this section applies to the entire price of the package. If the elements of the package are separately stated, the tax imposed under this section applies to the total price of the electricity.
(4) Any electric supplier that sells electricity as part of a package shall separately state to the purchaser the total price of the electricity and, upon request by the tax commissioner, the total price of each of the other elements of the package.

(5) The tax commissioner may adopt rules relating to the computation of the total price of electricity with respect to self-assessing purchasers, which may include rules to establish the total price of electricity purchased as part of a package.

(6) An annual application for registration as a self-assessing purchaser shall be made for each qualifying meter or location on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner. The registration year begins on the first day of May and ends on the following thirtieth day of April. Persons may apply after the first day of May for the remainder of the registration year. In the case of an applicant applying on the basis of an estimated consumption of forty-five million kilowatt hours over the course of the succeeding twelve months, the applicant shall provide such information as the tax commissioner considers to be necessary to estimate such consumption. At the time of making the application and by the first day of May of each year, a self-assessing purchaser shall pay a fee of five hundred dollars to the tax commissioner, or to the treasurer of state as provided in section 5727.83 of the Revised Code, for each qualifying meter or location. The tax commissioner shall immediately pay to the treasurer of state all amounts that the tax commissioner receives under this section. The treasurer of state shall deposit such amounts into the kilowatt hour excise tax administration fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury. Money in the fund shall be used to defray the tax commissioner's cost in administering the tax owed under section 5727.81 of the Revised Code by self-assessing purchasers. After the application is approved by the tax commissioner, the registration shall remain in effect for the current registration year, or until canceled by the registrant upon written notification to the commissioner of the election to pay the tax in accordance with division (A) of this section, or until canceled by the tax commissioner for not paying the tax or fee under division (C) of this section or for not meeting the qualifications in division (C)(2) of this section. The tax commissioner shall give written notice to the electric distribution company from which electricity is delivered to a self-assessing purchaser of the purchaser's self-assessing status, and the electric distribution company is relieved of the obligation to pay the tax imposed by division (A) of this section for electricity distributed to that self-assessing purchaser until it is notified by the tax commissioner that the self-assessing purchaser's registration is canceled. Within fifteen days of notification of the canceled registration, the electric distribution company shall be responsible for payment of the tax imposed by division (A) of this section on electricity distributed to a purchaser that is no longer registered as a self-assessing purchaser. A self-assessing purchaser with a canceled registration must file a report and remit the tax imposed by division (A) of this section on all electricity it receives for any measurement period prior to the tax being reported and paid by the electric distribution company. A self-assessing purchaser whose registration is canceled by the tax commissioner is not eligible to register as a self-assessing purchaser for two years after the registration is canceled.

(7) If the tax commissioner cancels the self-assessing registration of a purchaser registered on the basis of its estimated consumption because the purchaser does not consume at least forty-five million kilowatt hours of electricity over the course of the twelve-month period for which the estimate was made, the tax commissioner shall assess and collect from the purchaser the difference between (a) the amount of tax that would have been payable under division (A) of this section on the electricity distributed to the purchaser during that period and (b) the amount of tax paid by the purchaser on such electricity pursuant to division (C)(2)(a) of this section. The assessment shall be paid within sixty days after the tax commissioner issues it, regardless of whether the purchaser files a petition for reassessment under section 5727.89 of the Revised Code covering that period. If the purchaser does not pay the assessment within the time prescribed, the amount assessed is subject to the additional charge and the interest prescribed by divisions (B) and (C) of section 5727.82 of the Revised Code, and is subject to assessment under section 5727.89 of the Revised Code. If the purchaser is a qualified end user, division (C)(7) of this section applies only to electricity it consumes in other than its qualifying manufacturing process.

(D) The tax imposed by this section does not apply to the distribution of any kilowatt hours of electricity to the federal government, to an end user located at a federal facility that uses electricity for the enrichment of uranium, to a qualified regeneration meter, or to an end user for any day the end user is a qualified end user. The exemption under this division for a qualified end user only applies to the manufacturing location where the qualified end user uses more than three million kilowatt hours per day in a qualifying manufacturing process.

Sec. 5727.811. (A) For the purpose of raising revenue for public education and state and local government operations, an excise tax is hereby levied on every natural gas distribution company for all natural gas volumes billed by, or on behalf of, the company beginning with the measurement period that includes July 1, 2001. Except as provided in divisions (C) or (D) of this section, the tax shall be levied at the following rates per MCF of natural gas distributed by the company through a meter of an end user in this state:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>MCF DISTRIBUTED TO AN END USER</th>
<th>RATE PER MCF</th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>For the first 100 MCF per month</td>
<td>$.1593</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For the next 101 to 2000 MCF per month</td>
<td>$.0877</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For 2001 and above MCF per month</td>
<td>$.0411</td>
</tr> </tbody>

If no meter is used to measure the MCF of natural gas distributed by the company, the rates shall apply to the estimated MCF of natural gas distributed to an unmetered location in this state.

(B) A natural gas distribution company shall base the tax on the MCF of natural gas distributed to an end user through the meter of the end user in this state that is estimated to be consumed by the end user as reflected on the end user's customer statement from the natural gas distribution company. Until January 1, 2003, the natural gas distribution company shall pay the tax levied by this section to the treasurer of state in accordance with section 5727.82 of the Revised Code. Beginning January 1, 2003, the natural gas distribution company shall pay the tax levied by this section to the tax commissioner in accordance with section 5727.82 of the Revised Code unless required to remit payment to the treasurer of state in accordance with section 5727.83 of the Revised Code.

(C) A natural gas distribution company with fifty seventy thousand customers or less may elect to apply the rates specified in division (A) of this section to the aggregate of the natural gas distributed by the company through the meter of all its customers in this state, and upon such election, this method shall be used to determine the amount of tax to be paid by such company.

(D) A natural gas distribution company shall pay the tax imposed by this section at the rate of $.02 per MCF of natural gas distributed by the company through the meter of a flex customer. The natural gas distribution company correspondingly shall reduce the per MCF rate that it charges the flex customer for natural gas distribution services by $.02 per MCF of natural gas distributed to the flex customer.

(E) Except as provided in division (F) of this section, each natural gas distribution company shall pay the tax imposed by this section in all of the following circumstances:

1. The natural gas is distributed by the company through a meter of an end user in this state;
(2) The natural gas distribution company is distributing natural gas through a meter located in another state, but the natural gas is consumed in this state in the manner prescribed by the tax commissioner;

(3) The natural gas distribution company is distributing natural gas in this state without the use of a meter, but the natural gas is consumed in this state as estimated and in the manner prescribed by the tax commissioner.

(F) The tax levied by this section does not apply to the distribution of natural gas to the federal government, or natural gas produced by an end user in this state that is consumed by that end user or its affiliates and is not distributed through the facilities of a natural gas company.

Sec. 5727.84. (A) As used in this section and sections 5727.85, 5727.86, and 5727.87 of the Revised Code:

(1) "School district" means a city, local, or exempted village school district.

(2) "Joint vocational school district" means a joint vocational school district created under section 3311.16 of the Revised Code, and includes a cooperative education school district created under section 3311.52 or 3311.521 of the Revised Code and a county school financing district created under section 3311.50 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Local taxing unit" means a subdivision or taxing unit, as defined in section 5705.01 of the Revised Code, a park district created under Chapter 1545. of the Revised Code, or a township park district established under section 511.23 of the Revised Code, but excludes school districts and joint vocational school districts.

(4) "State education aid," for a school district, means the following:

(a) For fiscal years prior to fiscal year 2010, the sum of state aid amounts computed for the district under divisions (A), (C)(1), (C)(4), (D), (E), and (F) of section 3317.022; divisions (B), (C), and (D) of section 3317.023; divisions (G), (L), and (N) of section 3317.024; and sections 3317.029, 3317.0216, 3317.0217, 3317.04, 3317.05, 3317.052, and 3317.053 of the Revised Code; and the adjustments required by: division (C) of section 3310.08; division (C)(2) of section 3310.41; division (C) of section 3314.08; division (D)(2) of section 3314.091; division (D) of section 3314.13; divisions (E), (K), (L), (M), and (N) of section 3317.023; division (C) of section 3317.20; and sections 3313.979 and 3313.981 of the Revised Code. However, when calculating state education aid for a school district for fiscal years 2008 and 2009, include the amount computed for the district under Section 269.20.80 of H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly, as subsequently amended, instead of division (D) of section 3317.022 of the Revised Code; and include amounts calculated under Section 269.30.80 of this act, as subsequently amended; and account for adjustments under division (C)(2) of section 3310.41 of the Revised Code.

(b) For fiscal year 2010 and for each fiscal year thereafter, the sum of the amounts computed for the district under sections 3306.052, 3306.12, 3306.13, 3306.19, 3306.191, and 3306.192; division (G) of section 3317.024; sections 3317.05, 3317.052, and 3317.053 of the Revised Code; and the adjustments required by division (C) of section 3310.08; division (C)(2) of section 3310.41; division (C) of section 3314.08; division (D)(2) of section 3314.091; division (D) of section 3314.13; divisions (E), (K), (L), (M), and (N) of section 3317.023; division (C) of section 3317.20; and sections 3313.979 and 3313.981 of the Revised Code.

(5) "State education aid," for a joint vocational school district, means the following:

(a) For fiscal years prior to fiscal year 2010, the sum of the state aid amounts computed for the district under division (N) of section 3317.024 and section 3317.16 of the Revised Code. However, when calculating state education aid for a joint vocational school district for fiscal years 2008 and 2009, include the amount computed for the district under Section 269.30.90 of H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly, as subsequently amended.

(b) For fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the amount computed for the district in accordance with the section of this act entitled "FUNDING FOR JOINT VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICTS".

(6) "State education aid offset" means the amount determined for each school district or joint vocational school district under division (A)(1) of section 5727.85 of the Revised Code.

(7) "Recognized valuation" has the same meaning as in section 3317.02 of the Revised Code.

(8) "Electric company tax value loss" means the amount determined under division (D) of this section.

(9) "Natural gas company tax value loss" means the amount determined under division (E) of this section.

(10) "Tax value loss" means the sum of the electric company tax value loss and the natural gas company tax value loss.

(11) "Fixed-rate levy" means any tax levied on property other than a fixed-sum levy.

(12) "Fixed-rate levy loss" means the amount determined under division (G) of this section.

(13) "Fixed-sum levy" means a tax levied on property at whatever rate is required to produce a specified amount of tax money or levied in excess of the ten-mill limitation to pay debt charges, and includes school district emergency levies imposed pursuant to section 5705.194 of the Revised Code.

(14) "Fixed-sum levy loss" means the amount determined under division (H) of this section.

(15) "Consumer price index" means the consumer price index (all items, all urban consumers) prepared by the bureau of labor statistics of the United States department of labor.

(B) The kilowatt-hour tax receipts fund is hereby created in the state treasury and shall consist of money arising from the tax imposed by section 5727.81 of the Revised Code. All money in the kilowatt-hour tax receipts fund shall be credited as follows:

(1) Sixty-three per cent shall be credited to the general revenue fund.
(2) Twenty-five and four-tenths per cent shall be credited to the school district property tax replacement fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of making the payments described in section 5727.85 of the Revised Code.
(3) Eleven and six-tenths per cent shall be credited to the local government property tax replacement fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of making the payments described in section 5727.86 of the Revised Code.

(C) The natural gas tax receipts fund is hereby created in the state treasury and shall consist of money arising from the tax imposed by section 5727.811 of the Revised Code. All money in the fund shall be credited as follows:

(1) Sixty-eight and seven-tenths per cent shall be credited to the school district property tax replacement fund for the purpose of making the payments described in section 5727.85 of the Revised Code.
(2) Thirty-one and three-tenths per cent shall be credited to the local government property tax replacement fund for the purpose of making the payments described in section 5727.86 of the Revised Code.

(D) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall determine for each taxing district its electric company tax value loss, which is the sum of the applicable amounts described in divisions (D)(1) to (4) of this section:

(1) The difference obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (D)(1)(b) from the amount described in division (D)(1)(a) of this section.
(a) The value of electric company and rural electric company tangible personal property as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax year 1998 on a preliminary assessment, or an amended preliminary assessment if issued prior to March 1, 1999, and as apportioned to the taxing district for tax year 1998;

(b) The value of electric company and rural electric company tangible personal property as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax year 1998 had the property been apportioned to the taxing district for tax year 2001, and assessed at the rates in effect for tax year 2001.

(2) The difference obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (D)(2)(b) from the amount described in division (D)(2)(a) of this section.

(a) The three-year average for tax years 1996, 1997, and 1998 of the assessed value from nuclear fuel materials and assemblies assessed against a person under Chapter 5711. of the Revised Code from the leasing of them to an electric company for those respective tax years, as reflected in the preliminary assessments;

(b) The three-year average assessed value from nuclear fuel materials and assemblies assessed under division (D)(2)(a) of this section for tax years 1996, 1997, and 1998, as reflected in the preliminary assessments, using an assessment rate of twenty-five per cent.

(3) In the case of a taxing district having a nuclear power plant within its territory, any amount, resulting in an electric company tax value loss, obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (D)(1) of this section from the difference obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (D)(3)(b) of this section from the amount described in division (D)(3)(a) of this section.

(a) The value of electric company tangible personal property as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax year 2000 on a preliminary assessment, or an amended preliminary assessment if issued prior to March 1, 2001, and as apportioned to the taxing district for tax year 2000;

(b) The value of electric company tangible personal property as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax year 2001 on a preliminary assessment, or an amended preliminary assessment if issued prior to March 1, 2002, and as apportioned to the taxing district for tax year 2001.

(4) In the case of a taxing district having a nuclear power plant within its territory, the difference obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (D)(4)(b) of this section from the amount described in division (D)(4)(a) of this section, provided that such difference is greater than ten per cent of the amount described in division (D)(4)(a) of this section.

(a) The value of electric company tangible personal property as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax year 2005 on a preliminary assessment, or an amended preliminary assessment if issued prior to March 1, 2006, and as apportioned to the taxing district for tax year 2005;

(b) The value of electric company tangible personal property as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax year 2006 on a preliminary assessment, or an amended preliminary assessment if issued prior to March 1, 2007, and as apportioned to the taxing district for tax year 2006.

(E) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall determine for each taxing district its natural gas company tax value loss, which is the sum of the amounts described in divisions (E)(1) and (2) of this section:

(1) The difference obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (E)(1)(b) from the amount described in division (E)(1)(a) of this section.

(a) The value of all natural gas company tangible personal property, other than property described in division (E)(2) of this section, as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax year 1999 on a preliminary assessment, or an amended preliminary assessment if issued prior to March 1, 2000, and apportioned to the taxing district for tax year 1999;

(b) The value of all natural gas company tangible personal property, other than property described in division (E)(2) of this section, as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax year 1999 had the property been apportioned to the taxing district for tax year 2001, and assessed at the rates in effect for tax year 2001.

(2) The difference in the value of current gas obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (E)(2)(b) from the amount described in division (E)(2)(a) of this section.

(a) The three-year average assessed value of current gas as assessed by the tax commissioner for tax years 1997, 1998, and 1999 on a preliminary assessment, or an amended preliminary assessment if issued prior to March 1, 2001, and as apportioned in the taxing district for those respective years;

(b) The three-year average assessed value from current gas under division (E)(2)(a) of this section for tax years 1997, 1998, and 1999, as reflected in the preliminary assessment, using an assessment rate of twenty-five per cent.

(F) The tax commissioner may request that natural gas companies, electric companies, and rural electric companies file a report to help determine the tax value loss under divisions (D) and (E) of this section. The report shall be filed within thirty days of the commissioner's request. A company that fails to file the report or does not timely file the report is subject to the penalty in section 5727.60 of the Revised Code.

(G) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall determine for each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit its fixed-rate levy loss, which is the sum of its electric company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1998 for fixed-rate levies and its natural gas company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1999 for fixed-rate levies.

(H) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall determine for each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit its fixed-sum levy loss, which is the amount obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (H)(2) of this section from the amount described in division (H)(1) of this section:

(1) The sum of the electric company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1998, and the natural gas company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1999, for fixed-sum levies for all taxing districts within each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit. For the years 2002 through 2006, this computation shall include school district emergency levies that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss, and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss, and all other fixed-sum levies that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss and continue to be charged in the tax year preceding the distribution year. For the years 2007 through 2016 in the case of school district emergency levies, and for all years after 2006 in the case of all other fixed-sum levies, this computation shall exclude all fixed-sum levies that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss, but are no longer in effect in the tax year preceding the distribution year. For the purposes of this section, an emergency levy that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss, and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss, continues to exist in a year beginning on or after January 1, 2007, but before January 1, 2017, if, in that year, the board of education levies a school district emergency levy for an annual sum at least equal to the annual sum levied by the board in tax year 1998 or 1999, respectively, less the amount of the payment certified under this division for 2002.

(2) The total taxable value in tax year 1999 less the tax value loss in each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit multiplied by one-fourth of one mill.

If the amount computed under division (H) of this section for any school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit is greater than zero, that amount shall equal the fixed-sum levy loss reimbursed pursuant to division (E) of section 5727.85 of the Revised Code or division (A)(2) of section 5727.86 of the Revised Code, and the one-fourth of one mill that is subtracted under division (H)(2) of this section shall be apportioned among all contributing fixed-sum levies in the proportion of each levy to the sum of all fixed-sum levies within each school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit.

(I) Notwithstanding divisions (D), (E), (G), and (H) of this section, in computing the tax value loss, fixed-rate levy loss, and fixed-sum levy loss, the tax commissioner shall use the greater of the 1998 tax rate or the 1999 tax rate in the case of levy losses associated with the electric company tax value loss, but the 1999 tax rate shall not include for this purpose any tax levy approved by the voters after June 30, 1999, and the tax commissioner shall use the greater of the 1999 or the 2000 tax rate in the case of levy losses associated with the natural gas company tax value loss.

(J) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall certify to the department of education the tax value loss determined under divisions (D) and (E) of this section for each taxing district, the fixed-rate levy loss calculated under division (G) of this section, and the fixed-sum levy loss calculated under division (H) of this section. The calculations under divisions (G) and (H) of this section shall separately display the levy loss for each levy eligible for reimbursement.

(K) Not later than September 1, 2001, the tax commissioner shall certify the amount of the fixed-sum levy loss to the county auditor of each county in which a school district with a fixed-sum levy loss has territory.

Sec. 5728.12. Any non-resident of this state who accepts the privilege extended by the laws of this state to non-residents of operating a commercial car or commercial tractor, which is subject to the tax levied in section 5728.06 of the Revised Code, or of having the same operated within this state, and any resident of this state who operates a commercial car or commercial tractor, which is subject to the tax levied in section 5728.06 of the Revised Code, or has the same operated within this state and subsequently becomes a non-resident or conceals his the person's whereabouts, makes the secretary of state of the state of Ohio his the person's agent for the service of process or notice in any assessment, action or proceeding instituted in this state against such person out of the failure to pay the taxes imposed upon him by the provisions of section 5728.06 of the Revised Code.

Such process or notice shall be served upon the secretary of state by leaving at the office of the secretary of state, at least fifteen days before the return day of such process or notice, a true and attested copy thereof, and by sending to the defendant by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, a like and true attested copy, with an endorsement thereon of the service upon said secretary of state, addressed to such defendant at his last known address. The registered or certified mail return receipt of such defendant shall be attached to and made a part of the return of such service of process as provided under section 5703.37 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5729.03. (A) If the superintendent of insurance finds the annual statement required by section 5729.02 of the Revised Code to be correct, the superintendent shall compute the following amount, as applicable, of the balance of such gross amount, after deducting such return premiums and considerations received for reinsurance, and charge such amount to such company as a tax upon the business done by it in this state for the period covered by such annual statement:

(1) If the company is a health insuring corporation, one per cent of the balance of premium rate payments received, exclusive of payments received under the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, and exclusive of payments received pursuant to the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code for the period ending September 30, 2009, as reflected in its annual report;

(2) If the company is not a health insuring corporation, one and four-tenths per cent of the balance of premiums received, exclusive of premiums received under the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, and exclusive of payments received pursuant to the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code for the period ending September 30, 2009, as reflected in its annual statement, and, if the company operates a health insuring corporation as a line of business, one per cent of the balance of premium rate payments received from that line of business, exclusive of payments received under the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, and exclusive of payments received pursuant to the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code for the period ending September 30, 2009, as reflected in its annual statement.

Each foreign insurance company, including health insuring corporations, receiving payments pursuant to the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code during the period beginning October 1, 2009, and ending December 31, 2009, shall file with the 2009 annual statement to the superintendent a schedule that reflects those payments received pursuant to the medical assistance program for that period. The payments reflected in the schedule, plus all other taxable premiums, are subject to the annual franchise tax due to be paid in 2010.

(B) Any insurance policies that were not issued in violation of Title XXXIX of the Revised Code and that were issued prior to April 15, 1967, by a life insurance company organized and operated without profit to any private shareholder or individual, exclusively for the purpose of aiding educational or scientific institutions organized and operated without profit to any private shareholder or individual, are not subject to the tax imposed by this section. All taxes collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to the general revenue fund.

(C) In no case shall the tax imposed under this section be less than two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 5729.16. (A) Terms used in this section have the same meaning as in section 5725.33 of the Revised Code.

(B) There is hereby allowed a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by section 5729.03 of the Revised Code for a foreign insurance company holding a qualified equity investment on the credit allowance date occurring in the calendar year for which the tax is due. The credit shall be computed in the same manner prescribed for the computation of credits allowed under section 5725.33 of the Revised Code.

The credit shall be claimed in the order prescribed by section 5729.98 of the Revised Code. If the amount of the credit exceeds the amount of tax otherwise due after deducting all other credits in that order, the excess may be carried forward and applied to the tax due for not more than four ensuing years.

By claiming a tax credit under this section, an insurance company waives its rights under section 5729.102 of the Revised Code with respect to the time limitation for the assessment of taxes as it relates to credits claimed that later become subject to recapture under division (D) of this section.

(C) The total amount of qualified equity investments on the basis of which credits may be claimed under this section, section 5725.33, and section 5733.58 of the Revised Code is subject to the limitation of division (C) of section 5725.33 of the Revised Code.

(D) If any amount of the federal tax credit allowed for a qualified equity investment for which a credit was received under this section is recaptured under section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code, or if the director of development determines that an investment for which a tax credit is claimed under this section is not a qualified equity investment or that the proceeds of an investment for which a tax credit is claimed under this section are used to make qualified low-income community investments other than in a qualified active low-income community business, all or a portion of the credit received on account of that investment shall be paid by the insurance company that received the credit to the superintendent of insurance. The amount to be recovered shall be determined by the director of development pursuant to rules adopted under section 5725.33 of the Revised Code. The director shall certify any amount due under this division to the superintendent of insurance, and the superintendent shall notify the treasurer of state of the amount due. Upon notification, the treasurer shall invoice the insurance company for the amount due. The amount due is payable not later than thirty days after the date the treasurer invoices the insurance company. The amount due shall be considered to be tax due under section 5729.03 of the Revised Code, and may be collected by assessment without regard to the time limitations imposed under section 5729.102 of the Revised Code for the assessment of taxes by the superintendent. All amounts collected under this division shall be credited as revenue from the tax levied under section 5729.03 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5729.98. (A) To provide a uniform procedure for calculating the amount of tax due under this chapter, a taxpayer shall claim any credits and offsets against tax liability to which it is entitled in the following order:

(1) The credit for an insurance company or insurance company group under section 5729.031 of the Revised Code.

(2) The credit for eligible employee training costs under section 5729.07 of the Revised Code.

(3) The credit for purchases of qualified low-income community investments under section 5729.16 of the Revised Code;

(4) The job retention credit under section 122.171 of the Revised Code.

(5) The offset of assessments by the Ohio life and health insurance guaranty association against tax liability permitted by section 3956.20 of the Revised Code.

(6) The refundable credit for Ohio job creation under section 5729.032 of the Revised Code.

(7) The refundable credit under section 5729.08 of the Revised Code for losses on loans made under the Ohio venture capital program under sections 150.01 to 150.10 of the Revised Code.

(B) For any credit except the credits enumerated in divisions (A)(4)(6) and (7) of this section, the amount of the credit for a taxable year shall not exceed the tax due after allowing for any other credit that precedes it in the order required under this section. Any excess amount of a particular credit may be carried forward if authorized under the section creating that credit. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to allow a taxpayer to claim, directly or indirectly, a credit more than once for a taxable year.

Sec. 5733.01. (A) The tax provided by this chapter for domestic corporations shall be the amount charged against each corporation organized for profit under the laws of this state and each nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to Chapter 1729. of the Revised Code, except as provided in sections 5733.09 and 5733.10 of the Revised Code, for the privilege of exercising its franchise during the calendar year in which that amount is payable, and the tax provided by this chapter for foreign corporations shall be the amount charged against each corporation organized for profit and each nonprofit corporation organized or operating in the same or similar manner as nonprofit corporations organized under Chapter 1729. of the Revised Code, for the privilege of doing business in this state, owning or using a part or all of its capital or property in this state, holding a certificate of compliance with the laws of this state authorizing it to do business in this state, or otherwise having nexus in or with this state under the Constitution of the United States, during the calendar year in which that amount is payable.

(B) A corporation is subject to the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code for each calendar year that it is so organized, doing business, owning or using a part or all of its capital or property, holding a certificate of compliance, or otherwise having nexus in or with this state under the Constitution of the United States, on the first day of January of that calendar year.

(C) Any corporation subject to this chapter that is not subject to the federal income tax shall file its returns and compute its tax liability as required by this chapter in the same manner as if that corporation were subject to the federal income tax.

(D) For purposes of this chapter, a federally chartered financial institution shall be deemed to be organized under the laws of the state within which its principal office is located.

(E) For purposes of this chapter, any person, as defined in section 5701.01 of the Revised Code, shall be treated as a corporation if the person is classified for federal income tax purposes as an association taxable as a corporation, and an equity interest in the person shall be treated as capital stock of the person.
(F) For the purposes of this chapter, "disregarded entity" has the same meaning as in division (D) of section 5745.01 of the Revised Code.

1) A person's interest in a disregarded entity, whether held directly or indirectly, shall be treated as the person's ownership of the assets and liabilities of the disregarded entity, and the income, including gain or loss, shall be included in the person's net income under this chapter.

2) Any sale, exchange, or other disposition of the person's interest in the disregarded entity, whether held directly or indirectly, shall be treated as a sale, exchange, or other disposition of the person's share of the disregarded entity's underlying assets or liabilities, and the gain or loss from such sale, exchange, or disposition shall be included in the person's net income under this chapter.

3) The disregarded entity's payroll, property, and sales factors shall be included in the person's factors.

(G) The tax a corporation is required to pay under this chapter shall be as follows:

1)(a) For financial institutions, the greater of the minimum payment required under division (E) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code or the difference between all taxes charged the financial institution under this chapter, without regard to division (G)(2) of this section, less any credits allowable against such tax.

(b) A corporation satisfying the description in division (E)(5), (6), (7), (8), or (10) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code that is not a financial institution, insurance company, or dealer in intangibles is subject to the taxes imposed under this chapter as a corporation and not subject to tax as a financial institution, and shall pay the greater of the minimum payment required under division (E) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code or the difference between all the taxes charged under this chapter, without regard to division (G)(2) of this section, less any credits allowable against such tax.

2) For all corporations other than those persons described in division (G)(1)(a) or (b) of this section, the amount under division (G)(2)(a) of this section applicable to the tax year specified less the amount under division (G)(2)(b) of this section:

(a)(i) For tax year 2005, the greater of the minimum payment required under division (E) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code or the difference between all taxes charged the corporation under this chapter and any credits allowable against such tax;

(ii) For tax year 2006, the greater of the minimum payment required under division (E) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code or four-fifths of the difference between all taxes charged the corporation under this chapter and any credits allowable against such tax, except the qualifying pass-through entity tax credit described in division (A)(29)(30) and the refundable credits described in divisions (A)(30)(31) to (34)(35) of section 5733.98 of the Revised Code;

(iii) For tax year 2007, the greater of the minimum payment required under division (E) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code or three-fifths of the difference between all taxes charged the corporation under this chapter and any credits allowable against such tax, except the qualifying pass-through entity tax credit described in division (A)(29)(30) and the refundable credits described in divisions (A)(30)(31) to (34)(35) of section 5733.98 of the Revised Code;

(iv) For tax year 2008, the greater of the minimum payment required under division (E) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code or two-fifths of the difference between all taxes charged the corporation under this chapter and any credits allowable against such tax, except the qualifying pass-through entity tax credit described in division (A)(29)(30) and the refundable credits described in divisions (A)(30)(31) to (34)(35) of section 5733.98 of the Revised Code;

(v) For tax year 2009, the greater of the minimum payment required under division (E) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code or one-fifth of the difference between all taxes charged the corporation under this chapter and any credits allowable against such tax, except the qualifying pass-through entity tax credit described in division (A)(29)(30) and the refundable credits described in divisions (A)(30)(31) to (34)(35) of section 5733.98 of the Revised Code;

(vi) For tax year 2010 and each tax year thereafter, no tax.

(b) A corporation shall subtract from the amount calculated under division (G)(2)(a)(ii), (iii), (iv), or (v) of this section any qualifying pass-through entity tax credit described in division (A)(29)(30) and any refundable credits described in divisions (A)(30)(31) to (34)(35) of section 5733.98 of the Revised Code to which the corporation is entitled. Any unused qualifying pass-through entity tax credit is not refundable.

(c) For the purposes of computing the amount of a credit that may be carried forward to a subsequent tax year under division (G)(2) of this section, a credit is utilized against the tax for a tax year to the extent the credit applies against the tax for that tax year, even if the difference is then multiplied by the applicable fraction under division (G)(2)(a) of this section.

(3) Nothing in division (G) of this section eliminates or reduces the tax imposed by section 5733.41 of the Revised Code on a qualifying pass-through entity.
Sec. 5733.04. As used in this chapter:
(A) "Issued and outstanding shares of stock" applies to nonprofit corporations, as provided in section 5733.01 of the Revised Code, and includes, but is not limited to, membership certificates and other instruments evidencing ownership of an interest in such nonprofit corporations, and with respect to a financial institution that does not have capital stock, "issued and outstanding shares of stock" includes, but is not limited to, ownership interests of depositors in the capital employed in such an institution.
(B) "Taxpayer" means a corporation subject to the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code.
(C) "Resident" means a corporation organized under the laws of this state.
(D) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.
(E) "Taxable year" means the period prescribed by division (A) of section 5733.031 of the Revised Code upon the net income of which the value of the taxpayer's issued and outstanding shares of stock is determined under division (B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code or the period prescribed by division (A) of section 5733.031 of the Revised Code that immediately precedes the date as of which the total value of the corporation is determined under division (A) or (C) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code.
(F) "Tax year" means the calendar year in and for which the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is required to be paid.
(H) "Federal income tax" means the income tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code.
(I) Except as provided in section 5733.058 of the Revised Code, "net income" means the taxpayer's taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions, as required to be reported for the taxpayer's taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code, subject to the following adjustments:
(1) Deduct any net operating loss incurred in any taxable years ending in 1971 or thereafter, but exclusive of any net operating loss incurred in taxable years ending prior to January 1, 1971. This deduction shall not be allowed in any tax year commencing before December 31, 1973, but shall be carried over and allowed in tax years commencing after December 31, 1973, until fully utilized in the next succeeding taxable year or years in which the taxpayer has net income, but in no case for more than the designated carryover period as described in division (I)(1)(b) of this section. The amount of such net operating loss, as determined under the allocation and apportionment provisions of section 5733.051 and division (B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code for the year in which the net operating loss occurs, shall be deducted from net income, as determined under the allocation and apportionment provisions of section 5733.051 and division (B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code, to the extent necessary to reduce net income to zero with the remaining unused portion of the deduction, if any, carried forward to the remaining years of the designated carryover period as described in division (I)(1)(b) of this section, or until fully utilized, whichever occurs first.

(b) For losses incurred in taxable years ending on or before December 31, 1981, the designated carryover period shall be the five consecutive taxable years after the taxable year in which the net operating loss occurred. For losses incurred in taxable years ending on or after January 1, 1982, and beginning before August 6, 1997, the designated carryover period shall be the fifteen consecutive taxable years after the taxable year in which the net operating loss occurs. For losses incurred in taxable years beginning on or after August 6, 1997, the designated carryover period shall be the twenty consecutive taxable years after the taxable year in which the net operating loss occurs.

(c) The tax commissioner may require a taxpayer to furnish any information necessary to support a claim for deduction under division (I)(1)(a) of this section and no deduction shall be allowed unless the information is furnished.

(2) Deduct any amount included in net income by application of section 78 or 951 of the Internal Revenue Code, amounts received for royalties, technical or other services derived from sources outside the United States, and dividends received from a subsidiary, associate, or affiliated corporation that neither transacts any substantial portion of its business nor regularly maintains any substantial portion of its assets within the United States. For purposes of determining net foreign source income deductible under division (I)(2) of this section, the amount of gross income from all such sources other than dividend income and income derived by application of section 78 or 951 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be reduced by:

(a) The amount of any reimbursed expenses for personal services performed by employees of the taxpayer for the subsidiary, associate, or affiliated corporation;

(b) Ten per cent of the amount of royalty income and technical assistance fees;
(c) Fifteen per cent of the amount of all other income. The amounts described in divisions (I)(2)(a) to (c) of this section are deemed to be the expenses attributable to the production of deductible foreign source income unless the taxpayer shows, by clear and convincing evidence, less actual expenses, or the tax commissioner shows, by clear and convincing evidence, more actual expenses.

(3) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of a capital asset, or an asset described in section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent that such loss or gain occurred prior to the first taxable year on which the tax provided for in section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is computed on the corporation's net income. For purposes of division (I)(3) of this section, the amount of the prior loss or gain shall be measured by the difference between the original cost or other basis of the asset and the fair market value as of the beginning of the first taxable year on which the tax provided for in section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is computed on the corporation's net income. At the option of the taxpayer, the amount of the prior loss or gain may be a percentage of the gain or loss, which percentage shall be determined by multiplying the gain or loss by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months from the acquisition of the asset to the beginning of the first taxable year on which the tax provided for in section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is computed on the corporation's net income, and the denominator of which is the number of months from the acquisition of the asset to the sale, exchange, or other disposition of the asset. The adjustments described in this division do not apply to any gain or loss where the gain or loss is recognized by a qualifying taxpayer, as defined in section 5733.0510 of the Revised Code, with respect to a qualifying taxable event, as defined in that section.

(4) Deduct the dividend received deduction provided by section 243 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) Deduct any interest or interest equivalent on public obligations and purchase obligations to the extent included in federal taxable income. As used in divisions (I)(5) and (6) of this section, "public obligations," "purchase obligations," and "interest or interest equivalent" have the same meanings as in section 5709.76 of the Revised Code.

(6) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of public obligations to the extent included in federal taxable income.

(7) To the extent not otherwise allowed, deduct any dividends or distributions received by a taxpayer from a public utility, excluding an electric company and a combined company, and, for tax years 2005 and thereafter, a telephone company, if the taxpayer owns at least eighty per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of the public utility. As used in division (I)(7) of this section, "public utility" means a public utility as defined in Chapter 5727. of the Revised Code, whether or not the public utility is doing business in the state.

(8) To the extent not otherwise allowed, deduct any dividends received by a taxpayer from an insurance company, if the taxpayer owns at least eighty per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of the insurance company. As used in division (I)(8) of this section, "insurance company" means an insurance company that is taxable under Chapter 5725. or 5729. of the Revised Code.

(9) Deduct expenditures for modifying existing buildings or structures to meet American national standards institute standard A-117.1-1961 (R-1971), as amended; provided, that no deduction shall be allowed to the extent that such deduction is not permitted under federal law or under rules of the tax commissioner. Those deductions as are allowed may be taken over a period of five years. The tax commissioner shall adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing reasonable limitations on the extent that expenditures for modifying existing buildings or structures are attributable to the purpose of making the buildings or structures accessible to and usable by physically handicapped persons.

(10) Deduct the amount of wages and salaries, if any, not otherwise allowable as a deduction but that would have been allowable as a deduction in computing federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions for the taxable year, had the targeted jobs credit allowed and determined under sections 38, 51, and 52 of the Internal Revenue Code not been in effect.

(11) Deduct net interest income on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent the laws of the United States prohibit inclusion of the net interest for purposes of determining the value of the taxpayer's issued and outstanding shares of stock under division (B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code. As used in division (I)(11) of this section, "net interest" means interest net of any expenses taken on the federal income tax return that would not have been allowed under section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code if the interest were exempt from federal income tax.

(12)(a) Except as set forth in division (I)(12)(d) of this section, to the extent not included in computing the taxpayer's federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions, add gains and deduct losses from direct or indirect sales, exchanges, or other dispositions, made by a related entity who is not a taxpayer, of the taxpayer's indirect, beneficial, or constructive investment in the stock or debt of another entity, unless the gain or loss has been included in computing the federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions of another taxpayer with a more closely related investment in the stock or debt of the other entity. The amount of gain added or loss deducted shall not exceed the product obtained by multiplying such gain or loss by the taxpayer's proportionate share, directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, of the outstanding stock of the related entity immediately prior to the direct or indirect sale, exchange, or other disposition.

(b) Except as set forth in division (I)(12)(e) of this section, to the extent not included in computing the taxpayer's federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions, add gains and deduct losses from direct or indirect sales, exchanges, or other dispositions made by a related entity who is not a taxpayer, of intangible property other than stock, securities, and debt, if such property was owned, or used in whole or in part, at any time prior to or at the time of the sale, exchange, or disposition by either the taxpayer or by a related entity that was a taxpayer at any time during the related entity's ownership or use of such property, unless the gain or loss has been included in computing the federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions of another taxpayer with a more closely related ownership or use of such intangible property. The amount of gain added or loss deducted shall not exceed the product obtained by multiplying such gain or loss by the taxpayer's proportionate share, directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, of the outstanding stock of the related entity immediately prior to the direct or indirect sale, exchange, or other disposition.

(c) As used in division (I)(12) of this section, "related entity" means those entities described in divisions (I)(12)(c)(i) to (iii) of this section:

(i) An individual stockholder, or a member of the stockholder's family enumerated in section 318 of the Internal Revenue Code, if the stockholder and the members of the stockholder's family own, directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, in the aggregate, at least fifty per cent of the value of the taxpayer's outstanding stock;

(ii) A stockholder, or a stockholder's partnership, estate, trust, or corporation, if the stockholder and the stockholder's partnerships, estates, trusts, and corporations own directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, in the aggregate, at least fifty per cent of the value of the taxpayer's outstanding stock;
(iii) A corporation, or a party related to the corporation in a manner that would require an attribution of stock from the corporation to the party or from the party to the corporation under division (I)(12)(c)(iv) of this section, if the taxpayer owns, directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, at least fifty per cent of the value of the corporation's outstanding stock.

(iv) The attribution rules of section 318 of the Internal Revenue Code apply for purposes of determining whether the ownership requirements in divisions (I)(12)(c)(i) to (iii) of this section have been met.

(d) For purposes of the adjustments required by division (I)(12)(a) of this section, the term "investment in the stock or debt of another entity" means only those investments where the taxpayer and the taxpayer's related entities directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively own, in the aggregate, at any time during the twenty-four month period commencing one year prior to the direct or indirect sale, exchange, or other disposition of such investment at least fifty per cent or more of the value of either the outstanding stock or such debt of such other entity.

(e) For purposes of the adjustments required by division (I)(12)(b) of this section, the term "related entity" excludes all of the following:

(i) Foreign corporations as defined in section 7701 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(ii) Foreign partnerships as defined in section 7701 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(iii) Corporations, partnerships, estates, and trusts created or organized in or under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any possession of the United States;

(iv) Foreign estates and foreign trusts as defined in section 7701 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The exclusions described in divisions (I)(12)(e)(i) to (iv) of this section do not apply if the corporation, partnership, estate, or trust is described in any one of divisions (C)(1) to (5) of section 5733.042 of the Revised Code.

(f) Nothing in division (I)(12) of this section shall require or permit a taxpayer to add any gains or deduct any losses described in divisions (I)(12)(f)(i) and (ii) of this section:

(i) Gains or losses recognized for federal income tax purposes by an individual, estate, or trust without regard to the attribution rules described in division (I)(12)(c) of this section;

(ii) A related entity's gains or losses described in division (I)(12)(b) of this section if the taxpayer's ownership of or use of such intangible property was limited to a period not exceeding nine months and was attributable to a transaction or a series of transactions executed in accordance with the election or elections made by the taxpayer or a related entity pursuant to section 338 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(13) Any adjustment required by section 5733.042 of the Revised Code.

(14) Add any amount claimed as a credit under section 5733.0611 of the Revised Code to the extent that such amount satisfies either of the following:

(a) It was deducted or excluded from the computation of the corporation's taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions as required to be reported for the corporation's taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) It resulted in a reduction of the corporation's taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions as required to be reported for any of the corporation's taxable years under the Internal Revenue Code.

(15) Deduct the amount contributed by the taxpayer to an individual development account program established by a county department of job and family services pursuant to sections 329.11 to 329.14 of the Revised Code for the purpose of matching funds deposited by program participants. On request of the tax commissioner, the taxpayer shall provide any information that, in the tax commissioner's opinion, is necessary to establish the amount deducted under division (1)(15) of this section.

(16) Any adjustment required by section 5733.0510 or 5733.0511 of the Revised Code.

(17)(a)(i) Add five-sixths of the amount of depreciation expense allowed under subsection (k) of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, including a person's proportionate or distributive share of the amount of depreciation expense allowed by that subsection to any pass-through entity in which the person has direct or indirect ownership.

(ii) Add five-sixths of the amount of qualifying section 179 depreciation expense, including a person's proportionate or distributive share of the amount of qualifying section 179 depreciation expense allowed to any pass-through entity in which the person has direct or indirect ownership. For the purposes of this division, "qualifying section 179 depreciation expense" means the difference between (I) the amount of depreciation expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (II) the amount of depreciation expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code as that section existed on December 31, 2002.

The tax commissioner, under procedures established by the commissioner, may waive the add-backs related to a pass-through entity if the person owns, directly or indirectly, less than five per cent of the pass-through entity.

(b) Nothing in division (I)(17) of this section shall be construed to adjust or modify the adjusted basis of any asset.

(c) To the extent the add-back is attributable to property generating income or loss allocable under section 5733.051 of the Revised Code, the add-back shall be allocated to the same location as the income or loss generated by that property. Otherwise, the add-back shall be apportioned, subject to division (B)(2)(d) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code.

(18)(a) If a person is required to make the add-back under division (I)(17)(a) of this section for a tax year, the person shall deduct one-fifth of the amount added back for each of the succeeding five tax years.

(b) If the amount deducted under division (I)(18)(a) of this section is attributable to an add-back allocated under division (I)(17)(c) of this section, the amount deducted shall be allocated to the same location. Otherwise, the amount shall be apportioned using the apportionment factors for the taxable year in which the deduction is taken, subject to division (B)(2)(d) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code.

(J) Except as otherwise expressly provided or clearly appearing from the context, any term used in this chapter has the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes. Any reference in this chapter to the Internal Revenue Code includes other laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes.

(K) "Financial institution" has the meaning given by section 5725.01 of the Revised Code but does not include a production credit association as described in 85 Stat. 597, 12 U.S.C.A. 2091.

(a) Subject to divisions (L)(2) and (3) of this section, the net book value of the corporation's intangible assets is greater than or equal to ninety per cent of the net book value of all of its assets and at least fifty per cent of the net book value of all of its assets represents direct or indirect investments in the equity of, loans and advances to, and accounts receivable due from related members;

(b) At least ninety per cent of the corporation's gross income for the taxable year is attributable to the following:

(i) The maintenance, management, ownership, acquisition, use, and disposition of its intangible property, its aircraft the use of which is not subject to regulation under 14 C.F.R. part 121 or part 135, and any real property described in division (L)(2)(c) of this section;

(ii) The collection and distribution of income from such property.
(c) The corporation is not a financial institution on the last day of the taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year;

(d) The corporation's related members make a good faith and reasonable effort to make timely and fully the adjustments required by division (C)(2)(D) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code and to pay timely and fully all uncontested taxes, interest, penalties, and other fees and charges imposed under this chapter;

(e) Subject to division (L)(4) of this section, the corporation elects to be treated as a qualifying holding company for the tax year.

A corporation otherwise satisfying divisions (L)(1)(a) to (e) of this section that does not elect to be a qualifying holding company is not a qualifying holding company for the purposes of this chapter.

(2)(a)(i) For purposes of making the ninety per cent computation under division (L)(1)(a) of this section, the net book value of the corporation's assets shall not include the net book value of aircraft or real property described in division (L)(1)(b)(i) of this section.

(ii) For purposes of making the fifty per cent computation under division (L)(1)(a) of this section, the net book value of assets shall include the net book value of aircraft or real property described in division (L)(1)(b)(i) of this section.

(b)(i) As used in division (L) of this section, "intangible asset" includes, but is not limited to, the corporation's direct interest in each pass-through entity only if at all times during the corporation's taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year the corporation's and the corporation's related members' combined direct and indirect interests in the capital or profits of such pass-through entity do not exceed fifty per cent. If the corporation's interest in the pass-through entity is an intangible asset for that taxable year, then the distributive share of any income from the pass-through entity shall be income from an intangible asset for that taxable year.

(ii) If a corporation's and the corporation's related members' combined direct and indirect interests in the capital or profits of a pass-through entity exceed fifty per cent at any time during the corporation's taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year, "intangible asset" does not include the corporation's direct interest in the pass-through entity, and the corporation shall include in its assets its proportionate share of the assets of any such pass-through entity and shall include in its gross income its distributive share of the gross income of such pass-through entity in the same form as was earned by the pass-through entity.

(iii) A pass-through entity's direct or indirect proportionate share of any other pass-through entity's assets shall be included for the purpose of computing the corporation's proportionate share of the pass-through entity's assets under division (L)(2)(b)(ii) of this section, and such pass-through entity's distributive share of any other pass-through entity's gross income shall be included for purposes of computing the corporation's distributive share of the pass-through entity's gross income under division (L)(2)(b)(ii) of this section.

(c) For the purposes of divisions (L)(1)(b)(i), (1)(b)(ii), (2)(a)(i), and (2)(a)(ii) of this section, real property is described in division (L)(2)(c) of this section only if all of the following conditions are present at all times during the taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year:

(i) The real property serves as the headquarters of the corporation's trade or business, or is the place from which the corporation's trade or business is principally managed or directed;

(ii) Not more than ten per cent of the value of the real property and not more than ten per cent of the square footage of the building or buildings that are part of the real property is used, made available, or occupied for the purpose of providing, acquiring, transferring, selling, or disposing of tangible property or services in the normal course of business to persons other than related members, the corporation's employees and their families, and such related members' employees and their families.

(d) As used in division (L) of this section, "related member" has the same meaning as in division (A)(6) of section 5733.042 of the Revised Code without regard to division (B) of that section.

3 The percentages described in division (L)(1)(a) of this section shall be equal to the quarterly average of those percentages as calculated during the corporation's taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year.

4 With respect to the election described in division (L)(1)(e) of this section:

(a) The election need not accompany a timely filed report;

(b) The election need not accompany the report; rather, the election may accompany a subsequently filed but timely application for refund and timely amended report, or a subsequently filed but timely petition for reassessment;

(c) The election is not irrevocable;

(d) The election applies only to the tax year specified by the corporation;

(e) The corporation's related members comply with division (L)(1)(d) of this section.

Nothing in division (L)(4) of this section shall be construed to extend any statute of limitations set forth in this chapter.

(M) "Qualifying controlled group" means two or more corporations that satisfy the ownership and control requirements of division (A) of section 5733.052 of the Revised Code.

(N) "Limited liability company" means any limited liability company formed under Chapter 1705. of the Revised Code or under the laws of any other state.

(O) "Pass-through entity" means a corporation that has made an election under subchapter S of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code for its taxable year under that code, or a partnership, limited liability company, or any other person, other than an individual, trust, or estate, if the partnership, limited liability company, or other person is not classified for federal income tax purposes as an association taxed as a corporation.

(P) "Electric company," "combined company," and "telephone company" have the same meanings as in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code.

(Q) "Business income" means income arising from transactions, activities, and sources in the regular course of a trade or business and includes income from real property, tangible personal property, and intangible personal property if the acquisition, rental, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the regular course of a trade or business operation. "Business income" includes income, including gain or loss, from a partial or complete liquidation of a business, including, but not limited to, gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of goodwill.

(R) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

Sec. 5733.47. (A) As used in this section, "certificate owner" has the same meaning as in section 149.311 of the Revised Code.

(B) There is allowed a refundable credit against the tax imposed under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code for a taxpayer that is a certificate owner of a rehabilitation tax credit certificate issued under section 149.311 of the Revised Code. The credit shall equal twenty-five per cent of the dollar amount indicated on the certificate, but shall not exceed five million dollars. The credit shall be claimed for the tax year specified in the certificate and in the order required under section 5733.98 of the Revised Code. For purposes of making tax payments under this chapter, taxes equal to the amount of the refundable credit shall be considered to be paid to the state on the first day of the tax year.

(C) A taxpayer claiming a credit under this section shall retain the rehabilitation tax credit certificate for four years following the end of the tax year to which the credit was applied, and shall make the certificate available for inspection by the tax commissioner upon the request of the tax commissioner during that period.

(D) If, pursuant to division (G) of section 5733.01 of the Revised Code, a taxpayer no longer pays a tax under this chapter, the taxpayer may nonetheless file an annual report under section 5733.02 of the Revised Code and claim the refundable credit authorized by this section. Nothing in this division allows a taxpayer to claim the credit under this section more than once.

(E) Nothing in this section limits or disallows pass-through treatment of the credit if the certificate owner is a pass-through entity. If the certificate owner is a pass-through entity, the amount of the credit allowed for the entity shall not exceed five million dollars, and the credit may be allocated among the entity's equity owners in proportion to their ownership interests or in such proportions or amounts as the equity owners mutually agree.

Sec. 5733.58. (A) Terms used in this section have the same meaning as in section 5725.33 of the Revised Code.

(B) There is hereby allowed a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code for a financial institution holding a qualified equity investment on the credit allowance date occurring in the calendar year immediately preceding the tax year for which the tax is due. The credit shall be computed in the same manner prescribed for the computation of credits allowed under section 5725.33 of the Revised Code.

By claiming a tax credit under this section, a financial institution waives its rights under section 5733.11 of the Revised Code with respect to the time limitation for the assessment of taxes as it relates to credits claimed that later become subject to recapture under division (D) of this section.

The credit shall be claimed in the order prescribed by section 5733.98 of the Revised Code. If the amount of the credit exceeds the amount of tax otherwise due after deducting all other credits in that order, the excess may be carried forward and applied to the tax due for not more than four ensuing tax years.

(C) The total amount of qualified equity investments on the basis of which credits may be claimed under this section and sections 5725.33 and 5729.16 of the Revised Code is subject to the limitation of division (C) of section 5725.33 of the Revised Code.

(D) If any amount of the federal tax credit allowed for a qualified equity investment for which a credit was received under this section is recaptured under section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code, or if the director of development determines that an investment for which a tax credit is claimed under this section is not a qualified equity investment or that the proceeds of an investment for which a tax credit is claimed under this section are used to make qualified low-income community investments other than in a qualified active low-income community business, all or a portion of the credit received on account of that investment shall be paid by the financial institution that received the credit to the tax commissioner. The amount to be recovered shall be determined by the director of development pursuant to rules adopted under section 5725.33 of the Revised Code. The director shall certify any amount due under this division to the tax commissioner, and the commissioner shall notify the financial institution of the amount due. The amount due is payable not later than thirty days after the day the commissioner issues the notice. The amount due shall be considered to be tax due under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code, and may be collected by assessment without regard to the limitations imposed under section 5733.11 of the Revised Code for the assessment of taxes by the commissioner. All amounts collected under this division shall be credited as revenue from the tax levied under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5733.59. (A) Any term used in this section has the same meaning as in section 122.85 of the Revised Code.

(B) There is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code for any corporation that is the certificate owner of a tax credit certificate issued under section 122.85 of the Revised Code. The credit shall be claimed for the taxable year in which the certificate is issued by the director of development. The credit amount equals the amount stated in the certificate. The credit shall be claimed in the order required under section 5733.98 of the Revised Code. If the credit amount exceeds the tax otherwise due under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code after deducting all other credits in that order, the excess shall be refunded.

(C) If, pursuant to division (G) of section 5733.01 of the Revised Code, the corporation is not required to pay tax under this chapter, the corporation may file an annual report under section 5733.02 of the Revised Code and claim the credit authorized by this section. Nothing in this section allows a corporation to claim more than one credit per tax credit-eligible production.

Sec. 5733.98. (A) To provide a uniform procedure for calculating the amount of tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code that is due under this chapter, a taxpayer shall claim any credits to which it is entitled in the following order, except as otherwise provided in section 5733.058 of the Revised Code:

(1) For tax year 2005, the credit for taxes paid by a qualifying pass-through entity allowed under section 5733.0611 of the Revised Code;

(2) The credit allowed for financial institutions under section 5733.45 of the Revised Code;
(3) The credit for qualifying affiliated groups under section 5733.068 of the Revised Code;

(4) The subsidiary corporation credit under section 5733.067 of the Revised Code;

(5) The savings and loan assessment credit under section 5733.063 of the Revised Code;

(6) The credit for recycling and litter prevention donations under section 5733.064 of the Revised Code;

(7) The credit for employers that enter into agreements with child day-care centers under section 5733.36 of the Revised Code;

(8) The credit for employers that reimburse employee child care expenses under section 5733.38 of the Revised Code;

(9) The credit for maintaining railroad active grade crossing warning devices under section 5733.43 of the Revised Code;

(10) The credit for purchases of lights and reflectors under section 5733.44 of the Revised Code;

(11) The job retention credit under division (B) of section 5733.0610 of the Revised Code;

(12) The credit for tax years 2008 and 2009 for selling alternative fuel under section 5733.48 of the Revised Code;

(13) The second credit for purchases of new manufacturing machinery and equipment under section 5733.33 of the Revised Code;

(14) The job training credit under section 5733.42 of the Revised Code;

(15) The credit for qualified research expenses under section 5733.351 of the Revised Code;

(16) The enterprise zone credit under section 5709.66 of the Revised Code;

(17) The credit for the eligible costs associated with a voluntary action under section 5733.34 of the Revised Code;

(18) The credit for employers that establish on-site child day-care centers under section 5733.37 of the Revised Code;

(19) The ethanol plant investment credit under section 5733.46 of the Revised Code;

(20) The credit for purchases of qualifying grape production property under section 5733.32 of the Revised Code;

(21) The export sales credit under section 5733.069 of the Revised Code;

(22) The credit for research and development and technology transfer investors under section 5733.35 of the Revised Code;

(23) The enterprise zone credits under section 5709.65 of the Revised Code;
(24) The credit for using Ohio coal under section 5733.39 of the Revised Code;

(25) The credit for purchases of qualified low-income community investments under section 5733.58 of the Revised Code;

(26) The credit for small telephone companies under section 5733.57 of the Revised Code;

(26)(27) The credit for eligible nonrecurring 9-1-1 charges under section 5733.55 of the Revised Code;

(27)(28) For tax year 2005, the credit for providing programs to aid the communicatively impaired under division (A) of section 5733.56 of the Revised Code;

(28)(29) The research and development credit under section 5733.352 of the Revised Code;

(29)(30) For tax years 2006 and subsequent tax years, the credit for taxes paid by a qualifying pass-through entity allowed under section 5733.0611 of the Revised Code;

(30)(31) The refundable credit for rehabilitating a historic building under section 5733.47 of the Revised Code;

(31)(32) The refundable jobs creation credit under division (A) of section 5733.0610 of the Revised Code;

(32)(33) The refundable credit for tax withheld under division (B)(2) of section 5747.062 of the Revised Code;

(33)(34) The refundable credit under section 5733.49 of the Revised Code for losses on loans made to the Ohio venture capital program under sections 150.01 to 150.10 of the Revised Code;

(34)(35) For tax years 2006, 2007, and 2008, the refundable credit allowable under division (B) of section 5733.56 of the Revised Code;

(B) For any credit except the credits enumerated in divisions (A)(30)(31) to (34)(36) of this section, the amount of the credit for a tax year shall not exceed the tax due after allowing for any other credit that precedes it in the order required under this section. Any excess amount of a particular credit may be carried forward if authorized under the section creating that credit.

Sec. 5735.142. (A)(1) Any person who uses any motor fuel, on which the tax imposed by sections 5735.05, 5735.25, and 5735.29 of the Revised Code has been paid, for the purpose of operating a transit bus shall be reimbursed in the amount of the such tax paid on motor fuel used by public transportation systems providing transit or paratransit service on a regular and continuing basis within the state;

(2) A city, exempted village, joint vocational, or local school district or educational service center that purchases any motor fuel for school district or service center operations, on which any tax imposed by section 5735.29 of the Revised Code that became effective on or after July 1, 2003, has been paid, may, if an application is filed under this section, be reimbursed in the amount of all but two cents per gallon of the total tax imposed by such section and paid on motor fuel.

(3) A county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities that, on or after July 1, 2005, purchases any motor fuel for county board operations, on which any tax imposed by section 5735.29 of the Revised Code has been paid may, if an application is filed under this section, be reimbursed in the amount of all but two cents per gallon of the total tax imposed by such section and paid on motor fuel purchased on or after July 1, 2005.

(B) Such person, school district, educational service center, or county board shall file with the tax commissioner an application for refund within one year from the date of purchase, stating the quantity of fuel used for operating transit buses used by local transit systems in furnishing scheduled common carrier, public passenger land transportation service along regular routes primarily in one or more municipal corporations or for operating vehicles used for school district, service center, or county board operations. However, no claim shall be made for the tax on fewer than one hundred gallons of motor fuel. A school district, educational service center, or county board shall not apply for a refund for any tax paid on motor fuel that is sold by the district, service center, or county board. The application shall be accompanied by the statement described in section 5735.15 of the Revised Code showing the purchase, together with evidence of payment thereof.

(C) After consideration of the application and statement, the commissioner shall determine the amount of refund to which the applicant is entitled. If the amount is not less than that claimed, the commissioner shall certify the amount to the director of budget and management and treasurer of state for payment from the tax refund fund created by section 5703.052 of the Revised Code. If the amount is less than that claimed, the commissioner shall proceed in accordance with section 5703.70 of the Revised Code.

The commissioner may require that the application be supported by the affidavit of the claimant. No refund shall be authorized or ordered for any single claim for the tax on fewer than one hundred gallons of motor fuel. No refund shall be authorized or ordered on motor fuel that is sold by a school district, educational service center, or county board.

(D) The refund authorized by this section or section 5703.70 of the Revised Code shall be reduced by the cents per gallon amount of any qualified fuel credit received under section 5735.145 of the Revised Code, as determined by the commissioner, for each gallon of qualified fuel included in the total gallonage of motor fuel upon which the refund is computed.

(E) The right to receive any refund under this section or section 5703.70 of the Revised Code is not assignable. The payment of this refund shall not be made to any person or entity other than the person or entity originally entitled thereto who used the motor fuel upon which the claim for refund is based, except that the refund when allowed and certified, as provided in this section, may be paid to the executor, the administrator, the receiver, the trustee in bankruptcy, or the assignee in insolvency proceedings of the person.

Sec. 5739.01. As used in this chapter:

(A) "Person" includes individuals, receivers, assignees, trustees in bankruptcy, estates, firms, partnerships, associations, joint-stock companies, joint ventures, clubs, societies, corporations, the state and its political subdivisions, and combinations of individuals of any form.

(B) "Sale" and "selling" include all of the following transactions for a consideration in any manner, whether absolutely or conditionally, whether for a price or rental, in money or by exchange, and by any means whatsoever:

1. All transactions by which title or possession, or both, of tangible personal property, is or is to be transferred, or a license to use or consume tangible personal property is or is to be granted;

2. All transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests;

3. All transactions by which:

   a. An item of tangible personal property is or is to be repaired, except property, the purchase of which would not be subject to the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code;

   b. An item of tangible personal property is or is to be installed, except property, the purchase of which would not be subject to the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code or property that is or is to be incorporated into and will become a part of a production, transmission, transportation, or distribution system for the delivery of a public utility service;

   c. The service of washing, cleaning, waxing, polishing, or painting a motor vehicle is or is to be furnished;

(d) Until August 1, 2003, industrial laundry cleaning services are or are to be provided and, on and after August 1, 2003, laundry and dry cleaning services are or are to be provided;

(e) Automatic data processing, computer services, or electronic information services are or are to be provided for use in business when the true object of the transaction is the receipt by the consumer of automatic data processing, computer services, or electronic information services rather than the receipt of personal or professional services to which automatic data processing, computer services, or electronic information services are incidental or supplemental. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, such transactions that occur between members of an affiliated group are not sales. An "affiliated group" means two or more persons related in such a way that one person owns or controls the business operation of another member of the group. In the case of corporations with stock, one corporation owns or controls another if it owns more than fifty per cent of the other corporation's common stock with voting rights.

(f) Telecommunications service, including prepaid calling service, prepaid wireless calling service, or ancillary service, is or is to be provided, but not including coin-operated telephone service;

(g) Landscaping and lawn care service is or is to be provided;

(h) Private investigation and security service is or is to be provided;

(i) Information services or tangible personal property is provided or ordered by means of a nine hundred telephone call;

(j) Building maintenance and janitorial service is or is to be provided;

(k) Employment service is or is to be provided;

(l) Employment placement service is or is to be provided;

(m) Exterminating service is or is to be provided;

(n) Physical fitness facility service is or is to be provided;

(o) Recreation and sports club service is or is to be provided;

(p) On and after August 1, 2003, satellite broadcasting service is or is to be provided;

(q) On and after August 1, 2003, personal care service is or is to be provided to an individual. As used in this division, "personal care service" includes skin care, the application of cosmetics, manicuring, pedicuring, hair removal, tattooing, body piercing, tanning, massage, and other similar services. "Personal care service" does not include a service provided by or on the order of a licensed physician or licensed chiropractor, or the cutting, coloring, or styling of an individual's hair.

(r) On and after August 1, 2003, the transportation of persons by motor vehicle or aircraft is or is to be provided, when the transportation is entirely within this state, except for transportation provided by an ambulance service, by a transit bus, as defined in section 5735.01 of the Revised Code, and transportation provided by a citizen of the United States holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued under 49 U.S.C. 41102;

(s) On and after August 1, 2003, motor vehicle towing service is or is to be provided. As used in this division, "motor vehicle towing service" means the towing or conveyance of a wrecked, disabled, or illegally parked motor vehicle.

(t) On and after August 1, 2003, snow removal service is or is to be provided. As used in this division, "snow removal service" means the removal of snow by any mechanized means, but does not include the providing of such service by a person that has less than five thousand dollars in sales of such service during the calendar year.

(u) Electronic publishing service is or is to be provided to a consumer for use in business, except that such transactions occurring between members of an affiliated group, as defined in division (B)(3)(e) of this section, are not sales.

(4) All transactions by which printed, imprinted, overprinted, lithographic, multilithic, blueprinted, photostatic, or other productions or reproductions of written or graphic matter are or are to be furnished or transferred;

(5) The production or fabrication of tangible personal property for a consideration for consumers who furnish either directly or indirectly the materials used in the production of fabrication work; and include the furnishing, preparing, or serving for a consideration of any tangible personal property consumed on the premises of the person furnishing, preparing, or serving such tangible personal property. Except as provided in section 5739.03 of the Revised Code, a construction contract pursuant to which tangible personal property is or is to be incorporated into a structure or improvement on and becoming a part of real property is not a sale of such tangible personal property. The construction contractor is the consumer of such tangible personal property, provided that the sale and installation of carpeting, the sale and installation of agricultural land tile, the sale and erection or installation of portable grain bins, or the provision of landscaping and lawn care service and the transfer of property as part of such service is never a construction contract.

As used in division (B)(5) of this section:

(a) "Agricultural land tile" means fired clay or concrete tile, or flexible or rigid perforated plastic pipe or tubing, incorporated or to be incorporated into a subsurface drainage system appurtenant to land used or to be used directly in production by farming, agriculture, horticulture, or floriculture. The term does not include such materials when they are or are to be incorporated into a drainage system appurtenant to a building or structure even if the building or structure is used or to be used in such production.

(b) "Portable grain bin" means a structure that is used or to be used by a person engaged in farming or agriculture to shelter the person's grain and that is designed to be disassembled without significant damage to its component parts.

(6) All transactions in which all of the shares of stock of a closely held corporation are transferred, if the corporation is not engaging in business and its entire assets consist of boats, planes, motor vehicles, or other tangible personal property operated primarily for the use and enjoyment of the shareholders;

(7) All transactions in which a warranty, maintenance or service contract, or similar agreement by which the vendor of the warranty, contract, or agreement agrees to repair or maintain the tangible personal property of the consumer is or is to be provided;

(8) The transfer of copyrighted motion picture films used solely for advertising purposes, except that the transfer of such films for exhibition purposes is not a sale;

(9) On and after August 1, 2003, all transactions by which tangible personal property is or is to be stored, except such property that the consumer of the storage holds for sale in the regular course of business;

(10) All transactions in which "guaranteed auto protection" is provided whereby a person promises to pay to the consumer the difference between the amount the consumer receives from motor vehicle insurance and the amount the consumer owes to a person holding title to or a lien on the consumer's motor vehicle in the event the consumer's motor vehicle suffers a total loss under the terms of the motor vehicle insurance policy or is stolen and not recovered, if the protection and its price are included in the purchase or lease agreement;

(11)(a) Except as provided in division (B)(11)(b) of this section, on and after October 1, 2009, all transactions by which health care services are paid for, reimbursed, provided, delivered, arranged for, or otherwise made available by a medicaid health insuring corporation pursuant to the corporation's contract with the state.

(b) If the centers for medicare and medicaid services of the United States department of health and human services determines that the taxation of transactions described in division (B)(11)(a) of this section constitutes an impermissible health care-related tax under section 1903(w) of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 1396b(w), as amended, and regulations adopted thereunder, the director of job and family services shall notify the tax commissioner of that determination. Beginning with the first day of the month following that notification, the transactions described in division (B)(11)(a) of this section are not sales for the purposes of this chapter or Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner shall order that the collection of taxes under sections 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, 5739.026, 5741.02, 5741.021, 5741.022, and 5741.023 of the Revised Code shall cease for transactions occurring on or after that date.

Except as provided in this section, "sale" and "selling" do not include transfers of interest in leased property where the original lessee and the terms of the original lease agreement remain unchanged, or professional, insurance, or personal service transactions that involve the transfer of tangible personal property as an inconsequential element, for which no separate charges are made.

(C) "Vendor" means the person providing the service or by whom the transfer effected or license given by a sale is or is to be made or given and, for sales described in division (B)(3)(i) of this section, the telecommunications service vendor that provides the nine hundred telephone service; if two or more persons are engaged in business at the same place of business under a single trade name in which all collections on account of sales by each are made, such persons shall constitute a single vendor.

Physicians, dentists, hospitals, and veterinarians who are engaged in selling tangible personal property as received from others, such as eyeglasses, mouthwashes, dentifrices, or similar articles, are vendors. Veterinarians who are engaged in transferring to others for a consideration drugs, the dispensing of which does not require an order of a licensed veterinarian or physician under federal law, are vendors.

(D)(1) "Consumer" means the person for whom the service is provided, to whom the transfer effected or license given by a sale is or is to be made or given, to whom the service described in division (B)(3)(f) or (i) of this section is charged, or to whom the admission is granted.

(2) Physicians, dentists, hospitals, and blood banks operated by nonprofit institutions and persons licensed to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry are consumers of all tangible personal property and services purchased by them in connection with the practice of medicine, dentistry, the rendition of hospital or blood bank service, or the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry. In addition to being consumers of drugs administered by them or by their assistants according to their direction, veterinarians also are consumers of drugs that under federal law may be dispensed only by or upon the order of a licensed veterinarian or physician, when transferred by them to others for a consideration to provide treatment to animals as directed by the veterinarian.

(3) A person who performs a facility management, or similar service contract for a contractee is a consumer of all tangible personal property and services purchased for use in connection with the performance of such contract, regardless of whether title to any such property vests in the contractee. The purchase of such property and services is not subject to the exception for resale under division (E)(1) of this section.

(4)(a) In the case of a person who purchases printed matter for the purpose of distributing it or having it distributed to the public or to a designated segment of the public, free of charge, that person is the consumer of that printed matter, and the purchase of that printed matter for that purpose is a sale.

(b) In the case of a person who produces, rather than purchases, printed matter for the purpose of distributing it or having it distributed to the public or to a designated segment of the public, free of charge, that person is the consumer of all tangible personal property and services purchased for use or consumption in the production of that printed matter. That person is not entitled to claim exemption under division (B)(42)(f) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code for any material incorporated into the printed matter or any equipment, supplies, or services primarily used to produce the printed matter.

(c) The distribution of printed matter to the public or to a designated segment of the public, free of charge, is not a sale to the members of the public to whom the printed matter is distributed or to any persons who purchase space in the printed matter for advertising or other purposes.

(5) A person who makes sales of any of the services listed in division (B)(3) of this section is the consumer of any tangible personal property used in performing the service. The purchase of that property is not subject to the resale exception under division (E)(1) of this section.

(6) A person who engages in highway transportation for hire is the consumer of all packaging materials purchased by that person and used in performing the service, except for packaging materials sold by such person in a transaction separate from the service.

(7) In the case of a transaction for health care services under division (B)(11) of this section, a medicaid health insuring corporation is the consumer of such services. The purchase of such services by a medicaid health insuring corporation is not subject to the exception for resale under division (E)(1) of this section or to the exemptions provided under divisions (B)(12), (18), (19), and (22) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code.

(E) "Retail sale" and "sales at retail" include all sales, except those in which the purpose of the consumer is to resell the thing transferred or benefit of the service provided, by a person engaging in business, in the form in which the same is, or is to be, received by the person.

(F) "Business" includes any activity engaged in by any person with the object of gain, benefit, or advantage, either direct or indirect. "Business" does not include the activity of a person in managing and investing the person's own funds.

(G) "Engaging in business" means commencing, conducting, or continuing in business, and liquidating a business when the liquidator thereof holds itself out to the public as conducting such business. Making a casual sale is not engaging in business.

(H)(1)(a) "Price," except as provided in divisions (H)(2) and (3) and (4) of this section, means the total amount of consideration, including cash, credit, property, and services, for which tangible personal property or services are sold, leased, or rented, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise, without any deduction for any of the following:

   (i) The vendor's cost of the property sold;
   (ii) The cost of materials used, labor or service costs, interest, losses, all costs of transportation to the vendor, all taxes imposed on the vendor, including the tax imposed under Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code, and any other expense of the vendor;
   (iii) Charges by the vendor for any services necessary to complete the sale;
   (iv) On and after August 1, 2003, delivery charges. As used in this division, "delivery charges" means charges by the vendor for preparation and delivery to a location designated by the consumer of tangible personal property or a service, including transportation, shipping, postage, handling, crating, and packing.
   (v) Installation charges;
   (vi) Credit for any trade-in.

   (b) "Price" includes consideration received by the vendor from a third party, if the vendor actually receives the consideration from a party other than the consumer, and the consideration is directly related to a price reduction or discount on the sale; the vendor has an obligation to pass the price reduction or discount through to the consumer; the amount of the consideration attributable to the sale is fixed and determinable by the vendor.
at the time of the sale of the item to the consumer; and one of the following criteria is met:

(i) The consumer presents a coupon, certificate, or other document to the vendor to claim a price reduction or discount where the coupon, certificate, or document is authorized, distributed, or granted by a third party with the understanding that the third party will reimburse any vendor to whom the coupon, certificate, or document is presented;

(ii) The consumer identifies the consumer's self to the seller as a member of a group or organization entitled to a price reduction or discount. A preferred customer card that is available to any patron does not constitute membership in such a group or organization.

(iii) The price reduction or discount is identified as a third party price reduction or discount on the invoice received by the consumer, or on a coupon, certificate, or other document presented by the consumer.

(c) "Price" does not include any of the following:

(i) Discounts, including cash, term, or coupons that are not reimbursed by a third party that are allowed by a vendor and taken by a consumer on a sale;

(ii) Interest, financing, and carrying charges from credit extended on the sale of tangible personal property or services, if the amount is separately stated on the invoice, bill of sale, or similar document given to the purchaser;

(iii) Any taxes legally imposed directly on the consumer that are separately stated on the invoice, bill of sale, or similar document given to the consumer. For the purpose of this division, the tax imposed under Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code is not a tax directly on the consumer, even if the tax or a portion thereof is separately stated.

(iv) Notwithstanding divisions (H)(1)(b)(i) to (iii) of this section, any discount allowed by an automobile manufacturer to its employee, or to the employee of a supplier, on the purchase of a new motor vehicle from a new motor vehicle dealer in this state.

(2) In the case of a sale of any new motor vehicle by a new motor vehicle dealer, as defined in section 4517.01 of the Revised Code, in which another motor vehicle is accepted by the dealer as part of the consideration received, "price" has the same meaning as in division (H)(1) of this section, reduced by the credit afforded the consumer by the dealer for the motor vehicle received in trade.

(3) In the case of a sale of any watercraft or outboard motor by a watercraft dealer licensed in accordance with section 1547.543 of the Revised Code, in which another watercraft, watercraft and trailer, or outboard motor is accepted by the dealer as part of the consideration received, "price" has the same meaning as in division (H)(1) of this section, reduced by the credit afforded the consumer by the dealer for the watercraft, watercraft and trailer, or outboard motor received in trade. As used in this division, "watercraft" includes an outdrive unit attached to the watercraft.

(4) In the case of transactions for health care services under division (B)(11) of this section, "price" means the amount of managed care premiums received each month by a medicaid health insuring corporation.

(I) "Receipts" means the total amount of the prices of the sales of vendors, provided that cash discounts allowed and taken on sales at the time they are consummated are not included, minus any amount deducted as a bad debt pursuant to section 5739.121 of the Revised Code. "Receipts" does not include the sale price of property returned or services rejected by consumers when the full sale price and tax are refunded either in cash or by credit.

(J) "Place of business" means any location at which a person engages in business.

(K) "Premises" includes any real property or portion thereof upon which any person engages in selling tangible personal property at retail or making retail sales and also includes any real property or portion thereof designated for, or devoted to, use in conjunction with the business engaged in by such person.

(L) "Casual sale" means a sale of an item of tangible personal property that was obtained by the person making the sale, through purchase or otherwise, for the person's own use and was previously subject to any state's taxing jurisdiction on its sale or use, and includes such items acquired for the seller's use that are sold by an auctioneer employed directly by the person for such purpose, provided the location of such sales is not the auctioneer's permanent place of business. As used in this division, "permanent place of business" includes any location where such auctioneer has conducted more than two auctions during the year.

(M) "Hotel" means every establishment kept, used, maintained, advertised, or held out to the public to be a place where sleeping accommodations are offered to guests, in which five or more rooms are used for the accommodation of such guests, whether the rooms are in one or several structures, except as otherwise provided in division (G) of section 5739.09 of the Revised Code.

(N) "Transient guests" means persons occupying a room or rooms for sleeping accommodations for less than thirty consecutive days.

(O) "Making retail sales" means the effecting of transactions wherein one party is obligated to pay the price and the other party is obligated to provide a service or to transfer title to or possession of the item sold. "Making retail sales" does not include the preliminary acts of promoting or soliciting the retail sales, other than the distribution of printed matter which displays or describes and prices the item offered for sale, nor does it include delivery of a predetermined quantity of tangible personal property or transportation of property or personnel to or from a place where a service is performed, regardless of whether the vendor is a delivery vendor.

(P) "Used directly in the rendition of a public utility service" means that property that is to be incorporated into and will become a part of the consumer's production, transmission, transportation, or distribution system and that retains its classification as tangible personal property after such incorporation; fuel or power used in the production, transmission, transportation, or distribution system; and tangible personal property used in the repair and maintenance of the production, transmission, transportation, or distribution system, including only such motor vehicles as are specially designed and equipped for such use. Tangible personal property and services used primarily in providing highway transportation for hire are not used directly in the rendition of a public utility service. In this definition, "public utility" includes a citizen of the United States holding, and required to hold, a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued under 49 U.S.C. 41102.

(Q) "Refining" means removing or separating a desirable product from raw or contaminated materials by distillation or physical, mechanical, or chemical processes.

(R) "Assembly" and "assembling" mean attaching or fitting together parts to form a product, but do not include packaging a product.

(S) "Manufacturing operation" means a process in which materials are changed, converted, or transformed into a different state or form from which they previously existed and includes refining materials, assembling parts, and preparing raw materials and parts by mixing, measuring, blending, or otherwise committing such materials or parts to the manufacturing process. "Manufacturing operation" does not include packaging.

(T) "Fiscal officer" means, with respect to a regional transit authority, the secretary-treasurer thereof, and with respect to a county that is a transit authority, the fiscal officer of the county transit board if one is appointed pursuant to section 306.03 of the Revised Code or the county auditor if the board of county commissioners operates the county transit system.

(U) "Transit authority" means a regional transit authority created pursuant to section 306.31 of the Revised Code or a county in which a county transit system is created pursuant to section 306.01 of the Revised Code. For the purposes of this chapter, a transit authority must extend to at least the entire area of a single county. A transit authority that includes territory in more than one county must include all the area of the most populous county that is a part of such transit authority. County population shall be measured by the most recent census taken by the United States census bureau.

(V) "Legislative authority" means, with respect to a regional transit authority, the board of trustees thereof, and with respect to a county that is a transit authority, the board of county commissioners.

(W) "Territory of the transit authority" means all of the area included within the territorial boundaries of a transit authority as they from time to time exist. Such territorial boundaries must at all times include all the area of a single county or all the area of the most populous county that is a part of such transit authority. County population shall be measured by the most recent census taken by the United States census bureau.

(X) "Providing a service" means providing or furnishing anything described in division (B)(3) of this section for consideration.

(Y)(1)(a) "Automatic data processing" means processing of others' data, including keypunching or similar data entry services together with verification thereof, or providing access to computer equipment for the purpose of processing data.

(b) "Computer services" means providing services consisting of specifying computer hardware configurations and evaluating technical processing characteristics, computer programming, and training of computer programmers and operators, provided in conjunction with and to support the sale, lease, or operation of taxable computer equipment or systems.

(c) "Electronic information services" means providing access to computer equipment by means of telecommunications equipment for the purpose of either of the following:

(i) Examining or acquiring data stored in or accessible to the computer equipment;

(ii) Placing data into the computer equipment to be retrieved by designated recipients with access to the computer equipment.

For transactions occurring on or after the effective date of the amendment of this section by H.B. 157 of the 127th general assembly, December 21, 2007, "electronic information services" does not include electronic publishing as defined in division (LLL) of this section.

(d) "Automatic data processing, computer services, or electronic information services" shall not include personal or professional services.
(2) As used in divisions (B)(3)(e) and (Y)(1) of this section, "personal and professional services" means all services other than automatic data processing, computer services, or electronic information services, including but not limited to:

(a) Accounting and legal services such as advice on tax matters, asset management, budgetary matters, quality control, information security, and auditing and any other situation where the service provider receives data or information and studies, alters, analyzes, interprets, or adjusts such material;

(b) Analyzing business policies and procedures;

(c) Identifying management information needs;

(d) Feasibility studies, including economic and technical analysis of existing or potential computer hardware or software needs and alternatives;

(e) Designing policies, procedures, and custom software for collecting business information, and determining how data should be summarized, sequenced, formatted, processed, controlled, and reported so that it will be meaningful to management;

(f) Developing policies and procedures that document how business events and transactions are to be authorized, executed, and controlled;

(g) Testing of business procedures;

(h) Training personnel in business procedure applications;

(i) Providing credit information to users of such information by a consumer reporting agency, as defined in the "Fair Credit Reporting Act," 84 Stat. 1114, 1129 (1970), 15 U.S.C. 1681a(f), or as hereafter amended, including but not limited to gathering, organizing, analyzing, recording, and furnishing such information by any oral, written, graphic, or electronic medium;

(j) Providing debt collection services by any oral, written, graphic, or electronic means.

The services listed in divisions (Y)(2)(a) to (j) of this section are not automatic data processing or computer services.

(Z) "Highway transportation for hire" means the transportation of personal property belonging to others for consideration by any of the following:

(1) The holder of a permit or certificate issued by this state or the United States authorizing the holder to engage in transportation of personal property belonging to others for consideration over or on highways, roadways, streets, or any similar public thoroughfare;

(2) A person who engages in the transportation of personal property belonging to others for consideration over or on highways, roadways, streets, or any similar public thoroughfare but who could not have engaged in such transportation on December 11, 1985, unless the person was the holder of a permit or certificate of the types described in division (Z)(1) of this section;

(3) A person who leases a motor vehicle to and operates it for a person described by division (Z)(1) or (2) of this section.

(AA)(1) "Telecommunications service" means the electronic transmission, conveyance, or routing of voice, data, audio, video, or any other information or signals to a point, or between or among points. "Telecommunications service" includes such transmission, conveyance, or routing in which computer processing applications are used to act on the form, code, or protocol of the content for purposes of transmission, conveyance, or routing without regard to whether the service is referred to as voice-over internet protocol service or is classified by the federal communications commission as enhanced or value-added. "Telecommunications service" does not include any of the following:

(a) Data processing and information services that allow data to be generated, acquired, stored, processed, or retrieved and delivered by an electronic transmission to a consumer where the consumer's primary purpose for the underlying transaction is the processed data or information;

(b) Installation or maintenance of wiring or equipment on a customer's premises;

(c) Tangible personal property;

(d) Advertising, including directory advertising;

(e) Billing and collection services provided to third parties;

(f) Internet access service;

(g) Radio and television audio and video programming services, regardless of the medium, including the furnishing of transmission, conveyance, and routing of such services by the programming service provider. Radio and television audio and video programming services include, but are not limited to, cable service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. 522(6), and audio and video programming services delivered by commercial mobile radio service providers, as defined in 47 C.F.R. 20.3;

(h) Ancillary service;

(i) Digital products delivered electronically, including software, music, video, reading materials, or ring tones.

(2) "Ancillary service" means a service that is associated with or incidental to the provision of telecommunications service, including conference bridging service, detailed telecommunications billing service, directory assistance, vertical service, and voice mail service. As used in this division:
(a) "Conference bridging service" means an ancillary service that links two or more participants of an audio or video conference call, including providing a telephone number. "Conference bridging service" does not include telecommunications services used to reach the conference bridge.

(b) "Detailed telecommunications billing service" means an ancillary service of separately stating information pertaining to individual calls on a customer's billing statement.

(c) "Directory assistance" means an ancillary service of providing telephone number or address information.

(d) "Vertical service" means an ancillary service that is offered in connection with one or more telecommunications services, which offers advanced calling features that allow customers to identify callers and manage multiple calls and call connections, including conference bridging service.

(e) "Voice mail service" means an ancillary service that enables the customer to store, send, or receive recorded messages. "Voice mail service" does not include any vertical services that the customer may be required to have in order to utilize the voice mail service.

(3) "900 service" means an inbound toll telecommunications service purchased by a subscriber that allows the subscriber's customers to call in to the subscriber's prerecorded announcement or live service, and which is typically marketed under the name "900" service and any subsequent numbers designated by the federal communications commission. "900 service" does not include the charge for collection services provided by the seller of the telecommunications service to the subscriber, or services or products sold by the subscriber to the subscriber's customer.

(4) "Prepaid calling service" means the right to access exclusively telecommunications services, which must be paid for in advance and which enables the origination of calls using an access number or authorization code, whether manually or electronically dialed, and that is sold in predetermined units of dollars of which the number declines with use in a known amount.

(5) "Prepaid wireless calling service" means a telecommunications service that provides the right to utilize mobile telecommunications service as well as other non-telecommunications services, including the download of digital products delivered electronically, and content and ancillary services, that must be paid for in advance and that is sold in predetermined units of dollars of which the number declines with use in a known amount.

(6) "Value-added non-voice data service" means a telecommunications service in which computer processing applications are used to act on the form, content, code, or protocol of the information or data primarily for a purpose other than transmission, conveyance, or routing.

(7) "Coin-operated telephone service" means a telecommunications service paid for by inserting money into a telephone accepting direct deposits of money to operate.

(8) "Customer" has the same meaning as in section 5739.034 of the Revised Code.

(BB) "Laundry and dry cleaning services" means removing soil or dirt from towels, linens, articles of clothing, or other fabric items that belong to others and supplying towels, linens, articles of clothing, or other fabric items. "Laundry and dry cleaning services" does not include the provision of self-service facilities for use by consumers to remove soil or dirt from towels, linens, articles of clothing, or other fabric items.

(CC) "Magazines distributed as controlled circulation publications" means magazines containing at least twenty-four pages, at least twenty-five per cent editorial content, issued at regular intervals four or more times a year, and circulated without charge to the recipient, provided that such magazines are not owned or controlled by individuals or business concerns which conduct such publications as an auxiliary to, and essentially for the advancement of the main business or calling of, those who own or control them.

(EE) "Private investigation and security service" means the performance of any activity for which the provider of such service is required to be licensed pursuant to Chapter 4749. of the Revised Code, or would be required to be so licensed in performing such services in this state, and also includes the services of conducting polygraph examinations and of monitoring or overseeing the activities on or in, or the condition of, the consumer's home, business, or other facility by means of electronic or similar monitoring devices. "Private investigation and security service" does not include special duty services provided by off-duty police officers, deputy sheriffs, and other peace officers regularly employed by the state or a political subdivision.

(FF) "Information services" means providing conversation, giving consultation or advice, playing or making a voice or other recording, making or keeping a record of the number of callers, and any other service provided to a consumer by means of a nine hundred telephone call, except when the nine hundred telephone call is the means by which the consumer makes a contribution to a recognized charity.

(GG) "Research and development" means designing, creating, or formulating new or enhanced products, equipment, or manufacturing processes, and also means conducting scientific or technological inquiry and experimentation in the physical sciences with the goal of increasing scientific knowledge which may reveal the bases for new or enhanced products, equipment, or manufacturing processes.

(HH) "Qualified research and development equipment" means capitalized tangible personal property, and leased personal property that would be capitalized if purchased, used by a person primarily to perform research and development. Tangible personal property primarily used in testing, as defined in division (A)(4) of section 5739.011 of the Revised Code, or used for recording or storing test results, is not qualified research and development equipment unless such property is primarily used by the consumer in testing the product, equipment, or manufacturing process being created, designed, or formulated by the consumer in the research and development activity or in recording or storing such test results.

(II) "Building maintenance and janitorial service" means cleaning the interior or exterior of a building and any tangible personal property located therein or thereon, including any services incidental to such cleaning for which no separate charge is made. However, "building maintenance and janitorial service" does not include the providing of such service by a person who has less than five thousand dollars in sales of such service during the calendar year.

(JJ) "Employment service" means providing or supplying personnel, on a temporary or long-term basis, to perform work or labor under the supervision or control of another, when the personnel so provided or supplied receive their wages, salary, or other compensation from the provider or supplier of the employment service or from a third party that provided or supplied the personnel to the provider or supplier. "Employment service" does not include:

(1) Acting as a contractor or subcontractor, where the personnel performing the work are not under the direct control of the purchaser.
(2) Medical and health care services.

(3) Supplying personnel to a purchaser pursuant to a contract of at least one year between the service provider and the purchaser that specifies that each employee covered under the contract is assigned to the purchaser on a permanent basis.

(4) Transactions between members of an affiliated group, as defined in division (B)(3)(e) of this section.

(5) Transactions where the personnel so provided or supplied by a provider or supplier to a purchaser of an employment service are then provided or supplied by that purchaser to a third party as an employment service, except "employment service" does include the transaction between that purchaser and the third party.

(KK) "Employment placement service" means locating or finding employment for a person or finding or locating an employee to fill an available position.

(LL) "Exterminating service" means eradicating or attempting to eradicate vermin infestations from a building or structure, or the area surrounding a building or structure, and includes activities to inspect, detect, or prevent vermin infestation of a building or structure.

(MM) "Physical fitness facility service" means all transactions by which a membership is granted, maintained, or renewed, including initiation fees, membership dues, renewal fees, monthly minimum fees, and other similar fees and dues, by a physical fitness facility such as an athletic club, health spa, or gymnasium, which entitles the member to use the facility for physical exercise.

(NN) "Recreation and sports club service" means all transactions by which a membership is granted, maintained, or renewed, including initiation fees, membership dues, renewal fees, monthly minimum fees, and other similar fees and dues, by a recreation and sports club, which entitles the member to use the facilities of the organization. "Recreation and sports club" means an organization that has ownership of, or controls or leases on a continuing, long-term basis, the facilities used by its members and includes an aviation club, gun or shooting club, yacht club, card club, swimming club, tennis club, golf club, country club, riding club, amateur sports club, or similar organization.

(OO) "Livestock" means farm animals commonly raised for food or food production, and includes but is not limited to cattle, sheep, goats, swine, and poultry. "Livestock" does not include invertebrates, fish, amphibians, reptiles, horses, domestic pets, animals for use in laboratories or for exhibition, or other animals not commonly raised for food or food production.

(PP) "Livestock structure" means a building or structure used exclusively for the housing, raising, feeding, or sheltering of livestock, and includes feed storage or handling structures and structures for livestock waste handling.

(QQ) "Horticulture" means the growing, cultivation, and production of flowers, fruits, herbs, vegetables, sod, mushrooms, and nursery stock. As used in this division, "nursery stock" has the same meaning as in section 927.51 of the Revised Code.

(RR) "Horticulture structure" means a building or structure used exclusively for the commercial growing, raising, or overwintering of horticultural products, and includes the area used for stocking, storing, and packing horticultural products when done in conjunction with the production of those products.

(SS) "Newspaper" means an unbound publication bearing a title or name that is regularly published, at least as frequently as biweekly, and distributed from a fixed place of business to the public in a specific geographic area, and that contains a substantial amount of news matter of international, national, or local events of interest to the general public.

(TT) "Professional racing team" means a person that employs at least twenty full-time employees for the purpose of conducting a motor vehicle racing business for profit. The person must conduct the business with the purpose of racing one or more motor racing vehicles in at least ten competitive professional racing events each year that comprise all or part of a motor racing series sanctioned by one or more motor racing sanctioning organizations. A "motor racing vehicle" means a vehicle for which the chassis, engine, and parts are designed exclusively for motor racing, and does not include a stock or production model vehicle that may be modified for use in racing. For the purposes of this division:

1) A "competitive professional racing event" is a motor vehicle racing event sanctioned by one or more motor racing sanctioning organizations, at which aggregate cash prizes in excess of eight hundred thousand dollars are awarded to the competitors.

2) "Full-time employee" means an individual who is employed for consideration for thirty-five or more hours a week, or who renders any other standard of service generally accepted by custom or specified by contract as full-time employment.

(UU)(1) "Lease" or "rental" means any transfer of the possession or control of tangible personal property for a fixed or indefinite term, for consideration. "Lease" or "rental" includes future options to purchase or extend, and agreements described in 26 U.S.C. 7701(h)(1) covering motor vehicles and trailers where the amount of consideration may be increased or decreased by reference to the amount realized upon the sale or disposition of the property. "Lease" or "rental" does not include:

(a) A transfer of possession or control of tangible personal property under a security agreement or a deferred payment plan that requires the transfer of title upon completion of the required payments;

(b) A transfer of possession or control of tangible personal property under an agreement that requires the transfer of title upon completion of required payments and payment of an option price that does not exceed the greater of one hundred dollars or one per cent of the total required payments;

(c) Providing tangible personal property along with an operator for a fixed or indefinite period of time, if the operator is necessary for the property to perform as designed. For purposes of this division, the operator must do more than maintain, inspect, or set-up the tangible personal property.

(2) "Lease" and "rental," as defined in division (UU) of this section, shall not apply to leases or rentals that exist before June 26, 2003.

(3) "Lease" and "rental" have the same meaning as in division (UU)(1) of this section regardless of whether a transaction is characterized as a lease or rental under generally accepted accounting principles, the Internal Revenue Code, Title XIII of the Revised Code, or other federal, state, or local laws.

(VV) "Mobile telecommunications service" has the same meaning as in the "Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act," Pub. L. No. 106-252, 114 Stat. 631 (2000), 4 U.S.C.A. 124(7), as amended, and, on and after August 1, 2003, includes related fees and ancillary services, including universal service fees, detailed billing service, directory assistance, service initiation, voice mail service, and vertical services, such as caller ID and three-way calling.

(WW) "Certified service provider" has the same meaning as in section 5740.01 of the Revised Code.

(XX) "Satellite broadcasting service" means the distribution or broadcasting of programming or services by satellite directly to the subscriber's receiving equipment without the use of ground receiving or distribution equipment, except the subscriber's receiving equipment or equipment used in the uplink process to the satellite, and includes all service and rental charges, premium channels or other special services, installation and repair service charges, and any other charges having any connection with the provision of the satellite broadcasting service.

(YY) "Tangible personal property" means personal property that can be seen, weighed, measured, felt, or touched, or that is in any other manner perceptible to the senses. For purposes of this chapter and Chapter 5741 of the Revised Code, "tangible personal property" includes motor vehicles, electricity, water, gas, steam, and prewritten computer software.

(ZZ) "Direct mail" means printed material delivered or distributed by United States mail or other delivery service to a mass audience or to addressees on a mailing list provided by the consumer or at the direction of the consumer when the cost of the items are not billed directly to the recipients. "Direct mail" includes tangible personal property supplied directly or indirectly by the consumer to the direct mail vendor for inclusion in the package containing the printed material. "Direct mail" does not include multiple items of printed material delivered to a single address.

(AAA) "Computer" means an electronic device that accepts information in digital or similar form and manipulates it for a result based on a sequence of instructions.

(BBB) "Computer software" means a set of coded instructions designed to cause a computer or automatic data processing equipment to perform a task.

(CCC) "Delivered electronically" means delivery of computer software from the seller to the purchaser by means other than tangible storage media.

(DDD) "Prewritten computer software" means computer software, including prewritten upgrades, that is not designed and developed by the author or other creator to the specifications of a specific purchaser. The combining of two or more prewritten computer software programs or prewritten portions thereof does not cause the combination to be other than prewritten computer software. "Prewritten computer software" includes software designed and developed by the author or other creator to the specifications of a specific purchaser when it is sold to a person other than the purchaser. If a person modifies or enhances computer software of which the person is not the author or creator, the person shall be deemed to be the author or creator only of such person's modifications or enhancements. Prewritten computer software or a prewritten portion thereof that is modified or enhanced to any degree, where such modification or enhancement is designed and developed to the specifications of a specific purchaser, remains prewritten computer software; provided, however, that where there is a reasonable, separately stated charge or an invoice or other statement of the price given to the purchaser for the modification or enhancement, the modification or enhancement shall not constitute prewritten computer software.

(EEE)(1) "Food" means substances, whether in liquid, concentrated, solid, frozen, dried, or dehydrated form, that are sold for ingestion or chewing by humans and are consumed for their taste or nutritional value. "Food" does not include alcoholic beverages, dietary supplements, soft drinks, or tobacco.

(2) As used in division (EEE)(1) of this section:

(a) "Alcoholic beverages" means beverages that are suitable for human consumption and contain one-half of one per cent or more of alcohol by volume.

(b) "Dietary supplements" means any product, other than tobacco, that is intended to supplement the diet and that is intended for ingestion in tablet, capsule, powder, softgel, gelcap, or liquid form, or, if not intended for ingestion in such a form, is not represented as conventional food for use as a sole item of a meal or of the diet; that is required to be labeled as a dietary supplement, identifiable by the "supplement facts" box found on the label, as required by 21 C.F.R. 101.36; and that contains one or more of the following dietary ingredients:

(i) A vitamin;
(ii) A mineral;
(iii) An herb or other botanical;
(iv) An amino acid;
(v) A dietary substance for use by humans to supplement the diet by increasing the total dietary intake;
(vi) A concentrate, metabolite, constituent, extract, or combination of any ingredient described in divisions (EEE)(2)(b)(i) to (v) of this section.

(c) "Soft drinks" means nonalcoholic beverages that contain natural or artificial sweeteners. "Soft drinks" does not include beverages that contain milk or milk products, soy, rice, or similar milk substitutes, or that contains greater than fifty per cent vegetable or fruit juice by volume.

(d) "Tobacco" means cigarettes, cigars, chewing or pipe tobacco, or any other item that contains tobacco.

(FFF) "Drug" means a compound, substance, or preparation, and any component of a compound, substance, or preparation, other than food, dietary supplements, or alcoholic beverages that is recognized in the official United States pharmacopoeia, official homeopathic pharmacopoeia of the United States, or official national formulary, and supplements to them; is intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease; or is intended to affect the structure or any function of the body.

(GGG) "Prescription" means an order, formula, or recipe issued in any form of oral, written, electronic, or other means of transmission by a duly licensed practitioner authorized by the laws of this state to issue a prescription.

(HHH) "Durable medical equipment" means equipment, including repair and replacement parts for such equipment, that can withstand repeated use, is primarily and customarily used to serve a medical purpose, generally is not useful to a person in the absence of illness or injury, and is not worn in or on the body. "Durable medical equipment" does not include mobility enhancing equipment.

(JJJ) "Prosthetic device" means a replacement, corrective, or supportive device, including repair and replacement parts for the device, worn on or in the human body to artificially replace a missing portion of the body, prevent or correct physical deformity or malfunction, or support a weak or deformed portion of the body. As used in this division, "prosthetic device" does not include corrective eyeglasses, contact lenses, or dental prosthesis.

(KKK)(1) "Fractional aircraft ownership program" means a program in which persons within an affiliated group sell and manage fractional ownership program aircraft, provided that at least one hundred airworthy aircraft are operated in the program and the program meets all of the following criteria:

(a) Management services are provided by at least one program manager within an affiliated group on behalf of the fractional owners.

(b) Each program aircraft is owned or possessed by at least one fractional owner.

(c) Each fractional owner owns or possesses at least a one-sixteenth interest in at least one fixed-wing program aircraft.

(d) A dry-lease aircraft interchange arrangement is in effect among all of the fractional owners.

(e) Multi-year program agreements are in effect regarding the fractional ownership, management services, and dry-lease aircraft interchange aspects of the program.

(2) As used in division (KKK)(1) of this section:
(a) "Affiliated group" has the same meaning as in division (B)(3)(e) of this section.

(b) "Fractional owner" means a person that owns or possesses at least a one-sixteenth interest in a program aircraft and has entered into the agreements described in division (KKK)(1)(e) of this section.

c) "Fractional ownership program aircraft" or "program aircraft" means a turbojet aircraft that is owned or possessed by a fractional owner and that has been included in a dry-lease aircraft interchange arrangement and agreement under divisions (KKK)(1)(d) and (e) of this section, or an aircraft a program manager owns or possesses primarily for use in a fractional aircraft ownership program.

(d) "Management services" means administrative and aviation support services furnished under a fractional aircraft ownership program in accordance with a management services agreement under division (KKK)(1)(e) of this section, and offered by the program manager to the fractional owners, including, at a minimum, the establishment and implementation of safety guidelines; the coordination of the scheduling of the program aircraft and crews; program aircraft maintenance; program aircraft insurance; crew training for crews employed, furnished, or contracted by the program manager or the fractional owner; the satisfaction of record-keeping requirements; and the development and use of an operations manual and a maintenance manual for the fractional aircraft ownership program.

e) "Program manager" means the person that offers management services to fractional owners pursuant to a management services agreement under division (KKK)(1)(e) of this section.

(LLL) "Electronic publishing" means providing access to one or more of the following primarily for business customers, including the federal government or a state government or a political subdivision thereof, to conduct research: news; business, financial, legal, consumer, or credit materials; editorials, columns, reader commentary, or features; photos or images; archival or research material; legal notices, identity verification, or public records; scientific, educational, instructional, technical, professional, trade, or other literary materials; or other similar information which has been gathered and made available by the provider to the consumer in an electronic format. Providing electronic publishing includes the functions necessary for the acquisition, formatting, editing, storage, and dissemination of data or information that is the subject of a sale.

(MMM) "Medicaid health insuring corporation" means a health insuring corporation that holds a certificate of authority under Chapter 1751 of the

Sec. 5739.02. For the purpose of providing revenue with which to meet the needs of the state, for the use of the general revenue fund of the state, for the purpose of securing a thorough and efficient system of common schools throughout the state, for the purpose of affording revenues, in addition to those from general property taxes, permitted under constitutional limitations, and from other sources, for the support of local governmental functions, and for the purpose of reimbursing the state for the expense of administering this chapter, an excise tax is hereby levied on each retail sale made in this state.

(A)(1) The tax shall be collected as provided in section 5739.025 of the Revised Code. The rate of the tax shall be five and one-half per cent. The tax applies and is collectible when the sale is made, regardless of the time when the price is paid or delivered.

(2) In the case of the lease or rental, with a fixed term of more than thirty days or an indefinite term with a minimum period of more than thirty days, of any motor vehicles designed by the manufacturer to carry a load of not more than one ton, watercraft, outboard motor, or aircraft, or of any tangible personal property, other than motor vehicles designed by the manufacturer to carry a load of more than one ton, to be used by the lessee or renter primarily for business purposes, the tax shall be collected by the vendor at the time the lease or rental is consummated and shall be calculated by the vendor on the basis of the total amount to be paid by the lessee or renter under the lease agreement. If the total amount of the consideration for the lease or rental includes amounts that are not calculated at the time the lease or rental is executed, the tax shall be calculated and collected by the vendor at the time such amounts are billed to the lessee or renter. In the case of an open-end lease or rental, the tax shall be calculated by the vendor on the basis of the total amount to be paid during the initial fixed term of the lease or rental, and for each subsequent renewal period as it comes due. As used in this division, "motor vehicle" has the same meaning as in section 4501.01 of the Revised Code, and "watercraft" includes an outdrive unit attached to the watercraft.

A lease with a renewal clause and a termination penalty or similar provision that applies if the renewal clause is not exercised is presumed to be a sham transaction. In such a case, the tax shall be calculated and paid on the basis of the entire length of the lease period, including any renewal periods, until the termination penalty or similar provision no longer applies. The taxpayer shall bear the burden, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the transaction or series of transactions is not a sham transaction.

(3) Except as provided in division (A)(2) of this section, in the case of a sale, the price of which consists in whole or in part of the lease or rental of tangible personal property, the tax shall be measured by the installments of that lease or rental.

(4) In the case of a sale of a physical fitness facility service or recreation and sports club service, the price of which consists in whole or in part of a membership for the receipt of the benefit of the service, the tax applicable to the sale shall be measured by the installments thereof.

(B) The tax does not apply to the following:

(1) Sales to the state or any of its political subdivisions, or to any other state or its political subdivisions if the laws of that state exempt from taxation sales made to this state and its political subdivisions;

(2) Sales of food for human consumption off the premises where sold;

(3) Sales of food sold to students only in a cafeteria, dormitory, fraternity, or sorority maintained in a private, public, or parochial school, college, or university;

(4) Sales of newspapers and of magazine subscriptions and sales or transfers of magazines distributed as controlled circulation publications;

(5) The furnishing, preparing, or serving of meals without charge by an employer to an employee provided the employer records the meals as part compensation for services performed or work done;

(6) Sales of motor fuel upon receipt, use, distribution, or sale of which in this state a tax is imposed by the law of this state, but this exemption shall not apply to the sale of motor fuel on which a refund of the tax is allowable under division (A) of section 5735.14 of the Revised Code; and the tax commissioner may deduct the amount of tax levied by this section applicable to the price of motor fuel when granting a refund of motor fuel tax pursuant to division (A) of section 5735.14 of the Revised Code and shall cause the amount deducted to be paid into the general revenue fund of this state;

(7) Sales of natural gas by a natural gas company, of water by a water-works company, or of steam by a heating company, if in each case the thing sold is delivered to consumers through pipes or conduits, and all sales of communications services by a telegraph company, all terms as defined in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code, and sales of electricity delivered through wires;

(8) Casual sales by a person, or auctioneer employed directly by the person to conduct such sales, except as to such sales of motor vehicles, watercraft or outboard motors required to be titled under section 1548.06 of the Revised Code, watercraft documented with the United States coast guard, snowmobiles, and all-purpose vehicles as defined in section 4519.01
of the Revised Code;

(9)(a) Sales of services or tangible personal property, other than motor vehicles, mobile homes, and manufactured homes, by churches, organizations exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or nonprofit organizations operated exclusively for charitable purposes as defined in division (B)(12) of this section, provided that the number of days on which such tangible personal property or services, other than items never subject to the tax, are sold does not exceed six in any calendar year, except as otherwise provided in division (B)(9)(b) of this section. If the number of days on which such sales are made exceeds six in any calendar year, the church or organization shall be considered to be engaged in business and all subsequent sales by it shall be subject to the tax.
In counting the number of days, all sales by groups within a church or within an organization shall be considered to be sales of that church or organization.

(b) The limitation on the number of days on which tax-exempt sales may be made by a church or organization under division (B)(9)(a) of this section does not apply to sales made by student clubs and other groups of students of a primary or secondary school, or a parent-teacher association, booster group, or similar organization that raises money to support or fund curricular or extracurricular activities of a primary or secondary school.

(c) Divisions (B)(9)(a) and (b) of this section do not apply to sales by a noncommercial educational radio or television broadcasting station.

(10) Sales not within the taxing power of this state under the Constitution of the United States;

(11) Except for transactions that are sales under division (B)(3)(r) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, the transportation of persons or property, unless the transportation is by a private investigation and security service;

(12) Sales of tangible personal property or services to churches, to organizations exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and to any other nonprofit organizations operated exclusively for charitable purposes in this state, no part of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which consists of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; sales to offices administering one or more homes for the aged or one or more hospital facilities exempt under section 140.08 of the Revised Code; and sales to organizations described in division (D) of section 5709.12 of the Revised Code.

"Charitable purposes" means the relief of poverty; the improvement of health through the alleviation of illness, disease, or injury; the operation of an organization exclusively for the provision of professional, laundry, printing, and purchasing services to hospitals or charitable institutions; the operation of a home for the aged, as defined in section 5701.13 of the Revised Code; the operation of a radio or television broadcasting station that is licensed by the federal communications commission as a noncommercial educational radio or television station; the operation of a nonprofit animal adoption service or a county humane society; the promotion of education by an institution of learning that maintains a faculty of qualified instructors, teaches regular continuous courses of study, and confers a recognized diploma upon completion of a specific curriculum; the operation of a parent-teacher association, booster group, or similar organization primarily engaged in the promotion and support of the curricular or extracurricular activities of a primary or secondary school; the operation of a community or area center in which presentations in music, dramatics, the arts, and related fields are made in order to foster public interest and education therein; the production of performances in music, dramatics, and the arts; or the promotion of education by an organization engaged in carrying on research in, or the dissemination of, scientific and technological knowledge and information primarily for the public.

Nothing in this division shall be deemed to exempt sales to any organization for use in the operation or carrying on of a trade or business, or sales to a home for the aged for use in the operation of independent living facilities as defined in division (A) of section 5709.12 of the Revised Code.

(13) Building and construction materials and services sold to construction contractors for incorporation into a structure or improvement to real property under a construction contract with this state or a political subdivision of this state, or with the United States government or any of its agencies; building and construction materials and services sold to construction contractors for incorporation into a structure or improvement to real property that are accepted for ownership by this state or any of its political subdivisions, or by the United States government or any of its agencies at the time of completion of the structures or improvements; building and construction materials sold to construction contractors for incorporation into a horticulture structure or livestock structure for a person engaged in the business of horticulture or producing livestock; building materials and services sold to a construction contractor for incorporation into a house of public worship or religious education, or a building used exclusively for charitable purposes under a construction contract with an organization whose purpose is as described in division (B)(12) of this section; building materials and services sold to a construction contractor for incorporation into a building under a construction contract with an organization exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 when the building is to be used exclusively for the organization's exempt purposes; building and construction materials sold for incorporation into the original construction of a sports facility under section 307.696 of the Revised Code; and building and construction materials and services sold to a construction contractor for incorporation into real property outside this state if such materials and services, when sold to a construction contractor in the state in which the real property is located for incorporation into real property in that state, would be exempt from a tax on sales levied by that state;

(14) Sales of ships or vessels or rail rolling stock used or to be used principally in interstate or foreign commerce, and repairs, alterations, fuel, and lubricants for such ships or vessels or rail rolling stock;

(15) Sales to persons primarily engaged in any of the activities mentioned in division (B)(42)(a) or (g) of this section, to persons engaged in making retail sales, or to persons who purchase for sale from a manufacturer tangible personal property that was produced by the manufacturer in accordance with specific designs provided by the purchaser, of packages, including material, labels, and parts for packages, and of machinery, equipment, and material for use primarily in packaging tangible personal property produced for sale, including any machinery, equipment, and supplies used to make labels or packages, to prepare packages or products for labeling, or to label packages or products, by or on the order of the person doing the packaging, or sold at retail. "Packages" includes bags, baskets, cartons, crates, boxes, cans, bottles, bindings, wrappings, and other similar devices and containers, but does not include motor vehicles or bulk tanks, trailers, or similar devices attached to motor vehicles. "Packaging" means placing in a package. Division (B)(15) of this section does not apply to persons engaged in highway transportation for hire.

(16) Sales of food to persons using food stamp supplemental nutrition assistance program benefits to purchase the food. As used in this division, "food" has the same meaning as in the "Food Stamp Act of 1977," 91 Stat. 958, 7 U.S.C. 2012, as amended, and federal regulations adopted pursuant to that act, the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008.

(17) Sales to persons engaged in farming, agriculture, horticulture, or floriculture, of tangible personal property for use or consumption directly in the production by farming, agriculture, horticulture, or floriculture of other tangible personal property for use or consumption directly in the production of tangible personal property for sale by farming, agriculture, horticulture, or floriculture; or material and parts for incorporation into any such tangible personal property for use or consumption in production; and of tangible personal property for such use or consumption in the conditioning or holding of products produced by and for such use, consumption, or sale by persons engaged in farming, agriculture, horticulture, or floriculture, except where such property is incorporated into real property;

(18) Sales of drugs for a human being that may be dispensed only pursuant to a prescription; insulin as recognized in the official United States Pharmacopoeia; urine and blood testing materials when used by diabetics or persons with hypoglycemia to test for glucose or acetone; hypodermic syringes and needles when used by diabetics for insulin injections; epoetin alfa when purchased for use in the treatment of persons with medical disease; hospital beds when purchased by hospitals, nursing homes, or other medical facilities; and medical oxygen and medical oxygen-dispensing equipment when purchased by hospitals, nursing homes, or other medical facilities;

(19) Sales of prosthetic devices, durable medical equipment for home use, or mobility enhancing equipment, when made pursuant to a prescription and when such devices or equipment are for use by a human being.

(20) Sales of emergency and fire protection vehicles and equipment to nonprofit organizations for use solely in providing fire protection and emergency services, including trauma care and emergency medical services, for political subdivisions of the state;

(21) Sales of tangible personal property manufactured in this state, if sold by the manufacturer in this state to a retailer for use in the retail business of the retailer outside of this state and if possession is taken from the manufacturer by the purchaser within this state for the sole purpose of immediately removing the same from this state in a vehicle owned by the purchaser;

(22) Sales of services provided by the state or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, instrumentalities, institutions, or authorities, or by governmental entities of the state or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, instrumentalities, institutions, or authorities;

(23) Sales of motor vehicles to nonresidents of this state under the circumstances described in division (B) of section 5739.029 of the Revised Code;

(24) Sales to persons engaged in the preparation of eggs for sale of tangible personal property used or consumed directly in such preparation, including such tangible personal property used for cleaning, sanitizing, preserving, grading, sorting, and classifying by size; packages, including material and parts for packages, and machinery, equipment, and material for use in packaging eggs for sale; and handling and transportation equipment and parts therefor, except motor vehicles licensed to operate on public highways, used in intraplant or interplant transfers or shipment of eggs in the process of preparation for sale, when the plant or plants within or between which such transfers or shipments occur are operated by the same person. "Packages" includes containers, cases, baskets, flats, fillers, filler flats, cartons, closure materials, labels, and labeling materials, and "packaging" means placing therein.

(25)(a) Sales of water to a consumer for residential use, except the sale of bottled water, distilled water, mineral water, carbonated water, or ice;
(b) Sales of water by a nonprofit corporation engaged exclusively in the treatment, distribution, and sale of water to consumers, if such water is delivered to consumers through pipes or tubing.

(26) Fees charged for inspection or reinspection of motor vehicles under section 3704.14 of the Revised Code;

(27) Sales to persons licensed to conduct a food service operation pursuant to section 3717.43 of the Revised Code, of tangible personal property primarily used directly for the following:
(a) To prepare food for human consumption for sale;
(b) To preserve food that has been or will be prepared for human consumption for sale by the food service operator, not including tangible personal property used to display food for selection by the consumer;
(c) To clean tangible personal property used to prepare or serve food for human consumption for sale.

(28) Sales of animals by nonprofit animal adoption services or county humane societies;

(29) Sales of services to a corporation described in division (A) of section 5709.72 of the Revised Code, and sales of tangible personal property that qualifies for exemption from taxation under section 5709.72 of the Revised Code;

(B)(5)(a) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code;

31) Sales and erection or installation of portable grain bins, as defined in division (B)(5)(b) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code;

32) The sale, lease, repair, and maintenance of, parts for, or items attached to or incorporated in, motor vehicles that are primarily used for transporting tangible personal property belonging to others by a person engaged in highway transportation for hire, except for packages and packaging used for the transportation of tangible personal property;

33) Sales to the state headquarters of any veterans’ organization in this state that is either incorporated and issued a charter by the congress of the United States or is recognized by the United States veterans administration, for use by the headquarters;

34) Sales to a telecommunications service vendor, mobile telecommunications service vendor, or satellite broadcasting service vendor of tangible personal property and services used directly and primarily in transmitting, receiving, switching, or recording any interactive, one- or two-way electromagnetic communications, including voice, image, data, and information, through the use of any medium, including, but not limited to, poles, wires, cables, switching equipment, computers, and record storage devices and media, and component parts for the tangible personal property. The exemption provided in this division shall be in lieu of all other exemptions under division (B)(42)(a) of this section to which the vendor may otherwise be entitled, based upon the use of the thing purchased in providing the telecommunications, mobile telecommunications, or satellite broadcasting service.

35)(a) Sales where the purpose of the consumer is to use or consume the things transferred in making retail sales and consisting of newspaper inserts, catalogues, coupons, flyers, gift certificates, or other advertising material that prices and describes tangible personal property offered for retail sale.

(b) Sales to direct marketing vendors of preliminary materials such as photographs, artwork, and typesetting that will be used in printing advertising material; of printed matter that offers free merchandise or chances to win sweepstake prizes and that is mailed to potential customers with advertising material described in division (B)(35)(a) of this section; and of equipment such as telephones, computers, facsimile machines, and similar tangible personal property primarily used to accept orders for direct marketing retail sales.

(c) Sales of automatic food vending machines that preserve food with a shelf life of forty-five days or less by refrigeration and dispense it to the consumer.

For purposes of division (B)(35) of this section, "direct marketing" means the method of selling where consumers order tangible personal property by United States mail, delivery service, or telecommunication and the vendor delivers or ships the tangible personal property sold to the consumer from a warehouse, catalogue distribution center, or similar fulfillment facility by means of the United States mail, delivery service, or common carrier.

(36) Sales to a person engaged in the business of horticulture or producing livestock of materials to be incorporated into a horticulture structure or livestock structure;

(37) Sales of personal computers, computer monitors, computer keyboards, modems, and other peripheral computer equipment to an individual who is licensed or certified to teach in an elementary or a secondary school in this state for use by that individual in preparation for teaching elementary or secondary school students;

(38) Sales to a professional racing team of any of the following:
   (a) Motor racing vehicles;
   (b) Repair services for motor racing vehicles;
   (c) Items of property that are attached to or incorporated in motor racing vehicles, including engines, chassis, and all other components of the vehicles, and all spare, replacement, and rebuilt parts or components of the vehicles; except not including tires, consumable fluids, paint, and accessories consisting of instrumentation sensors and related items added to the vehicle to collect and transmit data by means of telemetry and other forms of communication.

(39) Sales of used manufactured homes and used mobile homes, as defined in section 5739.0210 of the Revised Code, made on or after January 1, 2000;

(40) Sales of tangible personal property and services to a provider of electricity used or consumed directly and primarily in generating, transmitting, or distributing electricity for use by others, including property that is or is to be incorporated into and will become a part of the consumer's production, transmission, or distribution system and that retains its classification as tangible personal property after incorporation; fuel or power used in the production, transmission, or distribution of electricity; and tangible personal property and services used in the repair and maintenance of the production, transmission, or distribution system, including only those motor vehicles as are specially designed and equipped for such use. The exemption provided in this division shall be in lieu of all other exemptions in division (B)(42)(a) of this section to which a provider of electricity may otherwise be entitled based on the use of the tangible personal property or service purchased in generating, transmitting, or distributing electricity.

(41) Sales to a person providing services under division (B)(3)(r) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code of tangible personal property and services used directly and primarily in providing taxable services under that section.

(42) Sales where the purpose of the purchaser is to do any of the following:

(a) To incorporate the thing transferred as a material or a part into tangible personal property to be produced for sale by manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining; or to use or consume the thing transferred directly in producing tangible personal property for sale by mining, including, without limitation, the extraction from the earth of all substances that are classed geologically as minerals, production of crude oil and natural gas, farming, agriculture, horticulture, or floriculture, or directly in the rendition of a public utility service, except that the sales tax levied by this section shall be collected upon all meals, drinks, and food for human consumption sold when transporting persons. Persons engaged in rendering farming, agricultural, horticultural, or floricultural services, and services in the exploration for, and production of, crude oil and natural gas, for others are deemed engaged directly in farming, agriculture, horticulture, and floriculture, or exploration for, and production of, crude oil and natural gas. This paragraph does not exempt from "retail sale" or "sales at retail" the sale of tangible personal property that is to be incorporated into a structure or improvement to real property.

(b) To hold the thing transferred as security for the performance of an obligation of the vendor;

(c) To resell, hold, use, or consume the thing transferred as evidence of a contract of insurance;

(d) To use or consume the thing directly in commercial fishing;

(e) To incorporate the thing transferred as a material or a part into, or to use or consume the thing transferred directly in the production of, magazines distributed as controlled circulation publications;

(f) To use or consume the thing transferred in the production and preparation in suitable condition for market and sale of printed, imprinted, overprinted, lithographic, multilithic, blueprinted, photostatic, or other productions or reproductions of written or graphic matter;

(g) To use the thing transferred, as described in section 5739.011 of the Revised Code, primarily in a manufacturing operation to produce tangible personal property for sale;

(h) To use the benefit of a warranty, maintenance or service contract, or similar agreement, as described in division (B)(7) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, to repair or maintain tangible personal property, if all of the property that is the subject of the warranty, contract, or agreement would not be subject to the tax imposed by this section;

(i) To use the thing transferred as qualified research and development equipment;

(j) To use or consume the thing transferred primarily in storing, transporting, mailing, or otherwise handling purchased sales inventory in a warehouse, distribution center, or similar facility when the inventory is primarily distributed outside this state to retail stores of the person who owns or controls the warehouse, distribution center, or similar facility, to retail stores of an affiliated group of which that person is a member, or by means of direct marketing. This division does not apply to motor vehicles registered for operation on the public highways. As used in this division, "affiliated group" has the same meaning as in division (B)(3)(e) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code and "direct marketing" has the same meaning as in division (B)(35) of this section.

(k) To use or consume the thing transferred to fulfill a contractual obligation incurred by a warrantor pursuant to a warranty provided as a part of the price of the tangible personal property sold or by a vendor of a warranty, maintenance or service contract, or similar agreement the provision of which is defined as a sale under division (B)(7) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code;

(l) To use or consume the thing transferred in the production of a newspaper for distribution to the public;

(m) To use tangible personal property to perform a service listed in division (B)(3) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, if the property is or is to be permanently transferred to the consumer of the service as an integral part of the performance of the service;

(n) To use or consume the thing transferred in acquiring, formatting, editing, storing, and disseminating data or information by electronic publishing.

As used in division (B)(42) of this section, "thing" includes all transactions included in divisions (B)(3)(a), (b), and (e) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code.

(43) Sales conducted through a coin operated device that activates vacuum equipment or equipment that dispenses water, whether or not in combination with soap or other cleaning agents or wax, to the consumer for the consumer's use on the premises in washing, cleaning, or waxing a motor vehicle, provided no other personal property or personal service is provided as part of the transaction.

(44) Sales of replacement and modification parts for engines, airframes, instruments, and interiors in, and paint for, aircraft used primarily in a fractional aircraft ownership program, and sales of services for the repair, modification, and maintenance of such aircraft, and machinery, equipment, and supplies primarily used to provide those services.

(45) Sales of telecommunications service that is used directly and primarily to perform the functions of a call center. As used in this division, "call center" means any physical location where telephone calls are placed or received in high volume for the purpose of making sales, marketing, customer service, technical support, or other specialized business activity, and that employs at least fifty individuals that engage in call center activities on a full-time basis, or sufficient individuals to fill fifty full-time equivalent positions.

(46) Sales by a telecommunications service vendor of 900 service to a subscriber. This division does not apply to information services, as defined in division (FF) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code.

(47) Sales of value-added non-voice data service. This division does not apply to any similar service that is not otherwise a telecommunications service.

(48)(a) Sales of machinery, equipment, and software to a qualified direct selling entity for use in a warehouse or distribution center primarily for storing, transporting, or otherwise handling inventory that is held for sale to independent salespersons who operate as direct sellers and that is held primarily for distribution outside this state;

(b) As used in division (B)(48)(a) of this section:

(i) "Direct seller" means a person selling consumer products to individuals for personal or household use and not from a fixed retail location, including selling such product at in-home product demonstrations, parties, and other one-on-one selling.

(ii) "Qualified direct selling entity" means an entity selling to direct sellers at the time the entity enters into a tax credit agreement with the tax credit authority pursuant to section 122.17 of the Revised Code, provided that the agreement was entered into on or after January 1, 2007. Neither contingencies relevant to the granting of, nor later developments with respect to, the tax credit shall impair the status of the qualified direct selling entity under division (B)(48) of this section after execution of the tax credit agreement by the tax credit authority.
(c) Division (B)(48) of this section is limited to machinery, equipment, and software first stored, used, or consumed in this state within the period commencing June 24, 2008, and ending on the date that is five years after that date.

(49) Sales of materials, parts, equipment, or engines used in the repair or maintenance of aircraft or avionics systems of such aircraft, and sales of repair, remodeling, replacement, or maintenance services in this state performed on aircraft or on an aircraft's avionics, engine, or component materials or parts. As used in division (B)(49) of this section, "aircraft" means aircraft of more than six thousand pounds maximum certified takeoff weight or used exclusively in general aviation.

(50) Sales of full flight simulators that are used for pilot or flight-crew training, sales of repair or replacement parts or components, and sales of repair or maintenance services for such full flight simulators. "Full flight simulator" means a replica of a specific type, or make, model, and series of aircraft cockpit. It includes the assemblage of equipment and computer programs necessary to represent aircraft operations in ground and flight conditions, a visual system providing an out-of-the-cockpit view, and a system that provides cues at least equivalent to those of a three-degree-of-freedom motion system, and has the full range of capabilities of the systems installed in the device as described in appendices A and B of part 60 of chapter 1 of title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(C) For the purpose of the proper administration of this chapter, and to prevent the evasion of the tax, it is presumed that all sales made in this state are subject to the tax until the contrary is established.

(D) The levy of this tax on retail sales of recreation and sports club service shall not prevent a municipal corporation from levying any tax on recreation and sports club dues or on any income generated by recreation and sports club dues.

(E) The tax collected by the vendor from the consumer under this chapter is not part of the price, but is a tax collection for the benefit of the state, and of counties levying an additional sales tax pursuant to section 5739.021 or 5739.026 of the Revised Code and of transit authorities levying an additional sales tax pursuant to section 5739.023 of the Revised Code. Except for the discount authorized under section 5739.12 of the Revised Code and the effects of any rounding pursuant to section 5703.055 of the Revised Code, no person other than the state or such a county or transit authority shall derive any benefit from the collection or payment of the tax levied by this section or section 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the
Sec. 5739.03. (A) Except as provided in section 5739.05 or section 5739.051 of the Revised Code, the tax imposed by or pursuant to section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code shall be paid by the consumer to the vendor, and each vendor shall collect from the consumer, as a trustee for the state of Ohio, the full and exact amount of the tax payable on each taxable sale, in the manner and at the times provided as follows:

(1) If the price is, at or prior to the provision of the service or the delivery of possession of the thing sold to the consumer, paid in currency passed from hand to hand by the consumer or the consumer's agent to the vendor or the vendor's agent, the vendor or the vendor's agent shall collect the tax with and at the same time as the price;

(2) If the price is otherwise paid or to be paid, the vendor or the vendor's agent shall, at or prior to the provision of the service or the delivery of possession of the thing sold to the consumer, charge the tax imposed by or pursuant to section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code to the account of the consumer, which amount shall be collected by the vendor from the consumer in addition to the price. Such sale shall be reported on and the amount of the tax applicable thereto shall be remitted with the return for the period in which the sale is made, and the amount of the tax shall become a legal charge in favor of the vendor and against the consumer.

(B)(1)(a) If any sale is claimed to be exempt under division (E) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code or under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, with the exception of divisions (B)(1) to (11) or (28) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the consumer must provide to the vendor, and the vendor must obtain from the consumer, a certificate specifying the reason that the sale is not legally subject to the tax. The certificate shall be in such form, and shall be provided either in a hard copy form or electronic form, as the tax commissioner prescribes.

(b) A vendor that obtains a fully completed exemption certificate from a consumer is relieved of liability for collecting and remitting tax on any sale covered by that certificate. If it is determined the exemption was improperly claimed, the consumer shall be liable for any tax due on that sale under section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 or Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code. Relief under this division from liability does not apply to any of the following:

(i) A vendor that fraudulently fails to collect tax;

(ii) A vendor that solicits consumers to participate in the unlawful claim of an exemption;

(iii) A vendor that accepts an exemption certificate from a consumer that claims an exemption based on who purchases or who sells property or a service, when the subject of the transaction sought to be covered by the exemption certificate is actually received by the consumer at a location operated by the vendor in this state, and this state has posted to its web site an exemption certificate form that clearly and affirmatively indicates that the claimed exemption is not available in this state;

(iv) A vendor that accepts an exemption certificate from a consumer who claims a multiple points of use exemption under division (D) of section 5739.033 of the Revised Code, if the item purchased is tangible personal property, other than prewritten computer software.

(2) The vendor shall maintain records, including exemption certificates, of all sales on which a consumer has claimed an exemption, and provide them to the tax commissioner on request.

(3) The tax commissioner may establish an identification system whereby the commissioner issues an identification number to a consumer that is exempt from payment of the tax. The consumer must present the number to the vendor, if any sale is claimed to be exempt as provided in this section.

(4) If no certificate is provided or obtained within ninety days after the date on which such sale is consummated, it shall be presumed that the tax applies. Failure to have so provided or obtained a certificate shall not preclude a vendor, within one hundred twenty days after the tax commissioner gives written notice of intent to levy an assessment, from either establishing that the sale is not subject to the tax, or obtaining, in good faith, a fully completed exemption certificate.

(5) Certificates need not be obtained nor provided where the identity of the consumer is such that the transaction is never subject to the tax imposed or where the item of tangible personal property sold or the service provided is never subject to the tax imposed, regardless of use, or when the sale is in interstate commerce.

(6) If a transaction is claimed to be exempt under division (B)(13) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the contractor shall obtain certification of the claimed exemption from the contractee. This certification shall be in addition to an exemption certificate provided by the contractor to the vendor. A contractee that provides a certification under this division shall be deemed to be the consumer of all items purchased by the contractor under the claim of exemption, if it is subsequently determined that the exemption is not properly claimed. The certification shall be in such form as the tax commissioner prescribes.

(C) As used in this division, "contractee" means a person who seeks to enter or enters into a contract or agreement with a contractor or vendor for the construction of real property or for the sale and installation onto real property of tangible personal property. Any contractor or vendor may request from any contractee a certification of what portion of the property to be transferred under such contract or agreement is to be incorporated into the realty and what portion will retain its status as tangible personal property after installation is completed. The contractor or vendor shall request the certification by certified mail delivered to the contractee, return receipt requested. Upon receipt of such request and prior to entering into the contract or agreement, the contractee shall provide to the contractor or vendor a certification sufficiently detailed to enable the contractor or vendor to ascertain the resulting classification of all materials purchased or fabricated by the contractor or vendor and transferred to the contractee. This requirement applies to a contractee regardless of whether the contractee holds a direct payment permit under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code or provides to the contractor or vendor an exemption certificate as provided under this section.

For the purposes of the taxes levied by this chapter and Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code, the contractor or vendor may in good faith rely on the contractee's certification. Notwithstanding division (B) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, if the tax commissioner determines that certain property certified by the contractee as tangible personal property pursuant to this division is, in fact, real property, the contractee shall be considered to be the consumer of all materials so incorporated into that real property and shall be liable for the applicable tax, and the contractor or vendor shall be excused from any liability on those materials.

If a contractee fails to provide such certification upon the request of the contractor or vendor, the contractor or vendor shall comply with the provisions of this chapter and Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code without the certification. If the tax commissioner determines that such compliance has been performed in good faith and that certain property treated as tangible personal property by the contractor or vendor is, in fact, real property, the contractee shall be considered to be the consumer of all materials so incorporated into that real property and shall be liable for the applicable tax, and the construction contractor or vendor shall be excused from any liability on those materials.

This division does not apply to any contract or agreement where the tax commissioner determines as a fact that a certification under this division was made solely on the decision or advice of the contractor or vendor.

(D) Notwithstanding division (B) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, whenever the total rate of tax imposed under this chapter is increased after the date after a construction contract is entered into, the contractee shall reimburse the construction contractor for any additional tax paid on tangible property consumed or services received pursuant to the contract.

(E) A vendor who files a petition for reassessment contesting the assessment of tax on sales for which the vendor obtained no valid exemption certificates and for which the vendor failed to establish that the sales were properly not subject to the tax during the one-hundred-twenty-day period allowed under division (B) of this section, may present to the tax commissioner additional evidence to prove that the sales were properly subject to a claim of exception or exemption. The vendor shall file such evidence within ninety days of the receipt by the vendor of the notice of assessment, except that, upon application and for reasonable cause, the period for submitting such evidence shall be extended thirty days.

The commissioner shall consider such additional evidence in reaching the final determination on the assessment and petition for reassessment.

(F) Whenever a vendor refunds the price, minus any separately stated delivery charge, of an item of tangible personal property on which the tax imposed under this chapter has been paid, the vendor shall also refund the amount of tax paid, minus the amount of tax attributable to the delivery charge.

Sec. 5739.033. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, divisions (C) to (I) of this section apply to sales made on and after January 1, 2008. Any vendor previously required to comply with divisions (C) to (I) of this section and any vendor that irrevocably elects to comply with divisions (C) to (I) of this section for all of the vendor's sales and places of business in this state shall continue to source its sales under those divisions.

The amount of tax due pursuant to sections 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, and 5739.026 of the Revised Code is the sum of the taxes imposed pursuant to those sections at the sourcing location of the sale as determined under this section or, if applicable, under division (C) of section 5739.031 or section 5739.034 of the Revised Code, or at the situs of the sale as determined under section 5739.035 of the Revised Code. This section applies only to a vendor's or seller's obligation to collect and remit sales taxes under section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code or use taxes under section 5741.02, 5741.021, 5741.022, or 5741.023 of the Revised Code. Division (A) of this section does not apply in determining the jurisdiction for which sellers are required to collect the use tax under section 5741.05 of the Revised Code. This section does not affect the obligation of a consumer to remit use taxes on the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property or on the benefit realized of any service provided, to the jurisdiction of that storage, use, or consumption, or benefit realized.

(B)(1) As used in this division:
(a) "Delivery sale" means the taxable sale of tangible personal property or a service that is received by a consumer, or a donee designated by the consumer, in a taxing jurisdiction that is not the taxing jurisdiction in which the vendor has a fixed place of business.
(b) "Agreement" has the same meaning as in section 5740.01 of the Revised Code.
(c) "Governing board" has the same meaning as in section 5740.02 of the Revised Code.

(2) If the tax commissioner does not make the certification under section 5740.10 of the Revised Code, a vendor that is not required by division (A) of this section to situs sales under divisions (C) to (I) of this section on the date of the commissioner's certification may continue after that date to situs its sales under section 5739.035 of the Revised Code unless it is required, under division (B)(5) of this section, to situs its sales under divisions (C) to (I) of this section.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in divisions (B)(4) and (5) of this section, a vendor with total delivery sales within this state in prior calendar years, beginning with calendar year 2007, of less than five hundred thousand dollars may situs its sales under section 5739.035 of the Revised Code.

(4) Once a vendor has total delivery sales in this state of five hundred thousand dollars or more for a prior calendar year, the vendor shall source its sales under divisions (C) to (I) of this section and shall continue to source its sales under those divisions regardless of the amount of the vendor's total delivery sales in future years.

(5) A vendor permitted under division (B)(3) of this section to situs its sales under section 5739.035 of the Revised Code that fails to provide, absent a clerical error, the notices required under division (I)(1) of section 5739.035 of the Revised Code shall situs all subsequent sales as required under divisions (C) to (I) of this section.

(C) Except for sales, other than leases, of titled motor vehicles, titled watercraft, or titled outboard motors as provided in section 5741.05 of the Revised Code, or as otherwise provided in this section and section 5739.034 of the Revised Code, all sales shall be sourced as follows:
(1) If the consumer or a donee designated by the consumer receives tangible personal property or a service at a vendor's place of business, the sale shall be sourced to that place of business.

(2) When the tangible personal property or service is not received at a vendor's place of business, the sale shall be sourced to the location known to the vendor where the consumer or the donee designated by the consumer receives the tangible personal property or service, including the location indicated by instructions for delivery to the consumer or the consumer's donee.

(3) If divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section do not apply, the sale shall be sourced to the location indicated by an address for the consumer that is available from the vendor's business records that are maintained in the ordinary course of the vendor's business, when use of that address does not constitute bad faith.

(4) If divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section do not apply, the sale shall be sourced to the location indicated by an address for the consumer obtained during the consummation of the sale, including the address associated with the consumer's payment instrument, if no other address is available, when use of that address does not constitute bad faith.

(5) If divisions (C)(1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section do not apply, including in the circumstance where the vendor is without sufficient information to apply any of those divisions, the sale shall be sourced to the address from which tangible personal property was shipped, or from which the service was provided, disregarding any location that merely provided the electronic transfer of the property sold or service provided.

(6) As used in division (C) of this section, "receive" means taking possession of tangible personal property or making first use of a service. "Receive" does not include possession by a shipping company on behalf of a consumer.

(D)(1)(a) Notwithstanding divisions (C)(1) to (5) of this section, a business consumer that is not a holder of a direct payment permit granted under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code, that purchases a digital good, computer software, except computer software received in person by a business consumer at a vendor's place of business, or a service, and that knows at the time of purchase that such digital good, software, or service will be concurrently available for use in more than one taxing jurisdiction shall deliver to the vendor in conjunction with its purchase an exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use, or shall meet the requirements of division (D)(2) of this section. On receipt of the exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use, the vendor is relieved of its obligation to collect, pay, or remit the tax due, and the business consumer must pay the tax directly to the state.

(b) A business consumer that delivers the exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use to a vendor may use any reasonable, consistent, and uniform method of apportioning the tax due on the digital good, computer software, or service that is supported by the consumer's business records as they existed at the time of the sale. The business consumer shall report and pay the appropriate tax to each jurisdiction where concurrent use occurs.
The tax due shall be calculated as if the apportioned amount of the digital good, computer software, or service had been delivered to each jurisdiction to which the sale is apportioned under this division.

c) The exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use shall remain in effect for all future sales by the vendor to the business consumer until it is revoked in writing by the business consumer, except as to the business consumer's specific apportionment of a subsequent sale under division (D)(1)(b) of this section and the facts existing at the time of the sale.

(2) When the vendor knows that a digital good, computer software, or service sold will be concurrently available for use by the business consumer in more than one jurisdiction, but the business consumer does not provide an exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use as required by division (D)(1) of this section, the vendor may work with the business consumer to produce the correct apportionment. Governed by the principles of division (D)(1)(b) of this section, the vendor and business consumer may use any reasonable, but consistent and uniform, method of apportionment that is supported by the vendor's and business consumer's books and records as they exist at the time the sale is reported for purposes of the taxes levied under this chapter. If the business consumer certifies to the accuracy of the apportionment and the vendor accepts the certification, the vendor shall collect and remit the tax accordingly. In the absence of bad faith, the vendor is relieved of any further obligation to collect tax on any transaction where the vendor has collected tax pursuant to the information certified by the business consumer.

(3) When the vendor knows that the digital good, computer software, or service will be concurrently available for use in more than one jurisdiction, and the business consumer does not have a direct pay permit and does not provide to the vendor an exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use as required in division (D)(1) of this section, or certification pursuant to division (D)(2) of this section, the vendor shall collect and remit the tax based on division (C) of this section.
(4) Nothing in this section shall limit a person's obligation for sales or use tax to any state in which a digital good, computer software, or service is concurrently available for use, nor limit a person's ability under local, state, or federal law, to claim a credit for sales or use taxes legally due and paid to other jurisdictions.

(E) A person who holds a direct payment permit issued under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code is not required to deliver an exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use to a vendor. But such permit holder shall comply with division (D)(2) of this section in apportioning the tax due on a digital good, computer software, or a service for use in business that will be concurrently available for use in more than one taxing jurisdiction.

(F)(1) Notwithstanding divisions (C)(1) to (5) of this section, the consumer of direct mail that is not a holder of a direct payment permit shall provide to the vendor in conjunction with the sale either an exemption certificate claiming direct mail prescribed by the tax commissioner, or information to show the jurisdictions to which the direct mail is delivered to recipients.

(2) Upon receipt of such exemption certificate, the vendor is relieved of all obligations to collect, pay, or remit the applicable tax and the consumer is obligated to pay that tax on a direct pay basis. An exemption certificate claiming direct mail shall remain in effect for all future sales of direct mail by the vendor to the consumer until it is revoked in writing.

(3) Upon receipt of information from the consumer showing the jurisdictions to which the direct mail is delivered to recipients, the vendor shall collect the tax according to the delivery information provided by the consumer. In the absence of bad faith, the vendor is relieved of any further obligation to collect tax on any transaction where the vendor has collected tax pursuant to the delivery information provided by the consumer.

(4) If the consumer of direct mail does not have a direct payment permit and does not provide the vendor with either an exemption certificate claiming direct mail or delivery information as required by division (F)(1) of this section, the vendor shall collect the tax according to division (C)(5) of this section. Nothing in division (F)(4) of this section shall limit a consumer's obligation to pay sales or use tax to any state to which the direct mail is delivered.

(5) If a consumer of direct mail provides the vendor with documentation of direct payment authority, the consumer shall not be required to provide an exemption certificate claiming direct mail or delivery information to the vendor.
(G) If the vendor provides lodging to transient guests as specified in division (B)(2) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, the sale shall be sourced to the location where the lodging is located.

(H)(1) As used in this division and division (I) of this section, "transportation equipment" means any of the following:
   (a) Locomotives and railcars that are utilized for the carriage of persons or property in interstate commerce.
   (b) Trucks and truck-tractors with a gross vehicle weight rating of greater than ten thousand pounds, trailers, semi-trailers, or passenger buses that are registered through the international registration plan and are operated under authority of a carrier authorized and certificated by the United States department of transportation or another federal authority to engage in the carriage of persons or property in interstate commerce.
   (c) Aircraft that are operated by air carriers authorized and certificated by the United States department of transportation or another federal authority to engage in the carriage of persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce.
   (d) Containers designed for use on and component parts attached to or secured on the items set forth in division (H)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section.

(2) A sale, lease, or rental of transportation equipment shall be sourced pursuant to division (C) of this section.

(I)(1) A lease or rental of tangible personal property that does not require recurring periodic payments shall be sourced pursuant to division (C) of this section.

(2) A lease or rental of tangible personal property that requires recurring periodic payments shall be sourced as follows:
   (a) In the case of a motor vehicle, other than a motor vehicle that is transportation equipment, or an aircraft, other than an aircraft that is transportation equipment, such lease or rental shall be sourced as follows:
      (i) An accelerated tax payment on a lease or rental taxed pursuant to division (A)(2) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code shall be sourced to the primary property location at the time the lease or rental is consummated. Any subsequent taxable charges on the lease or rental shall be sourced to the primary property location for the period in which the charges are incurred.
      (ii) For a lease or rental taxed pursuant to division (A)(3) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, each lease or rental installment shall be sourced to the primary property location for the period covered by the installment.
   (b) In the case of a lease or rental of all other tangible personal property, other than transportation equipment, such lease or rental shall be sourced as follows:

(i) An accelerated tax payment on a lease or rental that is taxed pursuant to division (A)(2) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code shall be sourced pursuant to division (C) of this section at the time the lease or rental is consummated. Any subsequent taxable charges on the lease or rental shall be sourced to the primary property location for the period in which the charges are incurred.

(ii) For a lease or rental that is taxed pursuant to division (A)(3) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the initial lease or rental installment shall be sourced pursuant to division (C) of this section. Each subsequent installment shall be sourced to the primary property location for the period covered by the installment.

(3) As used in division (I) of this section, "primary property location" means an address for tangible personal property provided by the lessee or renter that is available to the lessor or owner from its records maintained in the ordinary course of business, when use of that address does not constitute bad faith.

(J) Sales described in division (B)(11) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code shall be sourced to the location of the enrollee for whom a medicaid health insuring corporation receives managed care premiums. Such sales shall be sourced to the locations of the enrollees in the same proportion as the managed care premiums received by the medicaid health insuring corporation on behalf of enrollees located in a particular taxing jurisdiction in Ohio as compared to all managed care premiums received by the medicaid health insuring corporation.

Sec. 5739.051. (A) The tax commissioner shall issue a direct payment permit to a medicaid health insuring corporation that authorizes the medicaid health insuring corporation to pay all taxes due on sales described in division (B)(11) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code directly to the state. Each medicaid health insuring corporation shall pay pursuant to such direct payment authority all sales tax levied on such sales by sections 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, and 5739.026 of the Revised Code and all use tax levied on such sales pursuant to sections 5741.02, 5741.021, 5741.022, and 5741.023 of the Revised Code, unless division (B)(11)(b) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code applies.

(B) Each medicaid health insuring corporation shall, on or before the twenty-third day of each month, file a return for the preceding month on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner and shall pay the tax shown on the return to be due, unless division (B)(11)(b) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code applies. The return shall show the amount of tax due from the medicaid health care insuring corporation for the period covered by the return and other such information as the commissioner deems necessary.
Upon written request, the commissioner may extend the time for filing the return and paying the tax. The commissioner may require each medicaid health insuring corporation to file returns and remit payment by electronic means as provided in section 5739.032 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5739.09. (A)(1) A board of county commissioners may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board, levy an excise tax not to exceed three per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The board shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code.
Except as provided in divisions (A)(2), (3), (4), (5), (6), and (7) of this section, the regulations shall provide, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax, for the return to each municipal corporation or township that does not levy an excise tax on the transactions, a uniform percentage of the tax collected in the municipal corporation or in the unincorporated portion of the township from each transaction, not to exceed thirty-three and one-third per cent. The remainder of the revenue arising from the tax shall be deposited in a separate fund and shall be spent solely to make contributions to the convention and visitors' bureau operating within the county, including a pledge and contribution of any portion of the remainder pursuant to an agreement authorized by section 307.695 of the Revised Code, provided that if the board of county commissioners of an eligible county as defined in section 307.695 of the Revised Code adopts a resolution amending a resolution levying a tax under this division to provide that the revenue from the tax shall be used by the board as described in division (H) of section 307.695 of the Revised Code, the remainder of the revenue shall be used as described in the resolution making that amendment.
Except as provided in division (A)(2), (3), (4), (5), (6), or (7) or (H) of this section, on and after May 10, 1994, a board of county commissioners may not levy an excise tax pursuant to this division in any municipal corporation or township located wholly or partly within the county that has in effect an ordinance or resolution levying an excise tax pursuant to division (B) of this section. The board of a county that has levied a tax under division (C) of this section may, by resolution adopted within ninety days after July 15, 1985, by a majority of the members of the board, amend the resolution levying a tax under this division to provide for a portion of that tax to be pledged and contributed in accordance with an agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code. A tax, any revenue from which is pledged pursuant to such an agreement, shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the duration of the period for which the revenue from the tax has been so pledged.

The board of county commissioners of an eligible county as defined in section 307.695 of the Revised Code may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board, amend a resolution levying a tax under this division to provide that the revenue from the tax shall be used by the board as described in division (H) of section 307.695 of the Revised Code, in which case the tax shall remain in effect at the rate at which it was imposed for the duration of any agreement entered into by the board under section 307.695 of the Revised Code, the duration during which any securities issued by the board under that section are outstanding, or the duration of the period during which the board owns a project as defined in section 307.695 of the Revised Code, whichever duration is longest.

(2) A board of county commissioners that levies an excise tax under division (A)(1) of this section on June 30, 1997, at a rate of three per cent, and that has pledged revenue from the tax to an agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code or, in the case of the board of county commissioners of an eligible county as defined in section 307.695 of the Revised Code, has amended a resolution levying a tax under division (C) of this section to provide that proceeds from the tax shall be used by the board as described in division (H) of section 307.695 of the Revised Code, may, at any time by a resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board, amend the resolution levying a tax under division (A)(1) of this section to provide for an increase in the rate of that tax up to seven per cent on each transaction; to provide that revenue from the increase in the rate shall be used as described in division (H) of section 307.695 of the Revised Code or be spent solely to make contributions to the convention and visitors' bureau operating within the county to be used specifically for promotion, advertising, and marketing of the region in which the county is located; and to provide that the rate in excess of the three per cent levied under division (A)(1) of this section shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the duration of the period during which any agreement is in effect that was entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code by the board of county commissioners levying a tax under division (A)(1) of this section, the duration of the period during which any securities issued by the board under division (I) of section 307.695 of the Revised Code are outstanding, or the duration of the period during which the board owns a project as defined in section 307.695 of the Revised Code, whichever duration is longest. The amendment also shall provide that no portion of that revenue need be returned to townships or municipal corporations as would otherwise be required under division (A)(1) of this section.

(3) A board of county commissioners that levies a tax under division (A)(1) of this section on March 18, 1999, at a rate of three per cent may, by resolution adopted not later than forty-five days after March 18, 1999, amend the resolution levying the tax to provide for all of the following:

(a) That the rate of the tax shall be increased by not more than an additional four per cent on each transaction;

(b) That all of the revenue from the increase in the rate shall be pledged and contributed to a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code on or before November 15, 1998, and used to pay costs of constructing, maintaining, operating, and promoting a facility in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided by that chapter;

(c) That no portion of the revenue arising from the increase in rate need be returned to municipal corporations or townships as otherwise required under division (A)(1) of this section;

(d) That the increase in rate shall not be subject to diminution by initiative or referendum or by law while any bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, issued by the authority under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code to which the revenue is pledged, remain outstanding in accordance with their terms, unless provision is made by law or by the board of county commissioners for an adequate substitute therefor that is satisfactory to the trustee if a trust agreement secures the bonds.

Division (A)(3) of this section does not apply to the board of county commissioners of any county in which a convention center or facility exists or is being constructed on November 15, 1998, or of any county in which a convention facilities authority levies a tax pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code on that date.

As used in division (A)(3) of this section, "cost" and "facility" have the same meanings as in section 351.01 of the Revised Code, and "convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(4)(a) A board of county commissioners that levies a tax under division (A)(1) of this section on June 30, 2002, at a rate of three per cent may, by resolution adopted not later than September 30, 2002, amend the resolution levying the tax to provide for all of the following:

Am. Sub. H. B. No. 1 128th G.A.

2591

(i) That the rate of the tax shall be increased by not more than an additional three and one-half per cent on each transaction;

(ii) That all of the revenue from the increase in rate shall be pledged and contributed to a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code on or before May 15, 2002, and be used to pay costs of constructing, expanding, maintaining, operating, or promoting a convention center in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided by that chapter;

(iii) That no portion of the revenue arising from the increase in rate need be returned to municipal corporations or townships as otherwise required under division (A)(1) of this section;

(iv) That the increase in rate shall not be subject to diminution by initiative or referendum or by law while any bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, issued by the authority under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code to which the revenue is pledged, remain outstanding in accordance with their terms, unless provision is made by law or by the board of county commissioners for an adequate substitute therefor that is satisfactory to the trustee if a trust agreement secures the bonds.

(b) Any board of county commissioners that, pursuant to division (A)(4)(a) of this section, has amended a resolution levying the tax authorized by division (A)(1) of this section may further amend the resolution to provide that the revenue referred to in division (A)(4)(a)(ii) of this section shall be pledged and contributed both to a convention facilities authority to pay the costs of constructing, expanding, maintaining, or operating one or more convention centers in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided in Chapter 351. of the Revised Code, and to a convention and visitors' bureau to pay the costs of promoting one or more convention centers in the county.

As used in division (A)(4) of this section, "cost" has the same meaning as in section 351.01 of the Revised Code, and "convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(5)(a) As used in division (A)(5) of this section:

(i) "Port authority" means a port authority created under Chapter 4582. of the Revised Code.

(ii) "Port authority military-use facility" means port authority facilities on which or adjacent to which is located an installation of the armed forces of the United States, a reserve component thereof, or the national guard and at least part of which is made available for use, for consideration, by the armed forces of the United States, a reserve component thereof, or the national guard.

(b) For the purpose of contributing revenue to pay operating expenses of a port authority that operates a port authority military-use facility, the board of county commissioners of a county that created, participated in the creation of, or has joined such a port authority may do one or both of the following:

(i) Amend a resolution previously adopted under division (A)(1) of this section to designate some or all of the revenue from the tax levied under the resolution to be used for that purpose, notwithstanding that division;

(ii) Amend a resolution previously adopted under division (A)(1) of this section to increase the rate of the tax by not more than an additional two per cent and use the revenue from the increase exclusively for that purpose.

(c) If a board of county commissioners amends a resolution to increase the rate of a tax as authorized in division (A)(5)(b)(ii) of this section, the board also may amend the resolution to specify that the increase in rate of the tax does not apply to "hotels," as otherwise defined in section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, having fewer rooms used for the accommodation of guests than a number of rooms specified by the board.

(6) A board of county commissioners of a county organized under a county charter adopted pursuant to Article X, Section 3, Ohio Constitution, and that levies an excise tax under division (A)(1) of this section at a rate of three per cent and levies an additional excise tax under division (E) of this section at a rate of one and one-half per cent may, by resolution adopted not later than January 1, 2008, by a majority of the members of the board, amend the resolution levying a tax under division (A)(1) of this section to provide for an increase in the rate of that tax by not more than an additional one per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. Notwithstanding divisions (A)(1) and (E) of this section, the resolution shall provide that all of the revenue from the increase in rate, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax, shall be used to pay the costs of improving, expanding, equipping, financing, or operating a convention center by a convention and visitors' bureau in the county. The increase in rate shall remain in effect for the period specified in the resolution, not to exceed ten years. The increase in rate shall be subject to the regulations adopted under division (A)(1) of this section, except that the resolution may provide that no portion of the revenue from the increase in the rate shall be returned to townships or municipal corporations as would otherwise be required under that division.

(7) Division (A)(7) of this section applies only to a county with a population greater than sixty-five thousand and less than seventy thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census and in which, on December 31, 2006, an excise tax is levied under division (A)(1) of this section at a rate not less than and not greater than three per cent, and in which the most recent increase in the rate of that tax was enacted or took effect in November 1984.

The board of county commissioners of a county to which this division applies, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board, may increase the rate of the tax by not more than one per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The increase in rate shall be for the purpose of paying expenses deemed necessary by the convention and visitors' bureau operating in the county to promote travel and tourism. The increase in rate shall remain in effect for the period specified in the resolution, not to exceed twenty years, provided that the increase in rate may not continue beyond the time when the purpose for which the increase is levied ceases to exist. If revenue from the increase in rate is pledged to the payment of debt charges on securities, the increase in rate is not subject to diminution by initiative or referendum or by law so long as the securities are outstanding, unless provision is made by law or by the board of county commissioners for an adequate substitute for that revenue that is satisfactory to the trustee if a trust agreement secures payment of the debt charges. The increase in rate shall be subject to the regulations adopted under division (A)(1) of this section, except that the resolution may provide that no portion of the revenue from the increase in the rate shall be returned to townships or municipal corporations as would otherwise be required under division (A)(1) of this section. A resolution adopted under division (A)(7) of this section is subject to referendum under sections 305.31 to 305.99 of the Revised Code.

(B)(1) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation or the board of trustees of a township that is not wholly or partly located in a county that has in effect a resolution levying an excise tax pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section may, by ordinance or resolution, levy an excise tax not to exceed three per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The legislative authority of the municipal corporation or the board of trustees of the township shall deposit at least fifty per cent of the revenue from the tax levied pursuant to this division into a separate fund, which shall be spent solely to make contributions to convention and visitors' bureaus operating within the county in which the municipal corporation or township is wholly or partly located, and the balance of that revenue shall be deposited in the general fund. The municipal corporation or township shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. The levy of a tax under this division is in addition to any tax imposed on the same transaction by a municipal corporation or a township as authorized by division (A) of section 5739.08 of the Revised Code.

(2)(a) The legislative authority of the most populous municipal corporation located wholly or partly in a county in which the board of county commissioners has levied a tax under division (A)(4) of this section may amend, on or before September 30, 2002, that municipal corporation's ordinance or resolution that levies an excise tax on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests, to provide for all of the following:

(i) That the rate of the tax shall be increased by not more than an additional one per cent on each transaction;

(ii) That all of the revenue from the increase in rate shall be pledged and contributed to a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code on or before May 15, 2002, and be used to pay costs of constructing, expanding, maintaining, operating, or promoting a convention center in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided by that chapter;

(iii) That the increase in rate shall not be subject to diminution by initiative or referendum or by law while any bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, issued by the authority under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code to which the revenue is pledged, remain outstanding in accordance with their terms, unless provision is made by law, by the board of county commissioners, or by the legislative authority, for an adequate substitute therefor that is satisfactory to the trustee if a trust agreement secures the bonds.

(b) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation that, pursuant to division (B)(2)(a) of this section, has amended its ordinance or resolution to increase the rate of the tax authorized by division (B)(1) of this section may further amend the ordinance or resolution to provide that the revenue referred to in division (B)(2)(a)(ii) of this section shall be pledged and contributed both to a convention facilities authority to pay the costs of constructing, expanding, maintaining, or operating one or more convention centers in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided in Chapter 351. of the Revised Code, and to a convention and visitors' bureau to pay the costs of promoting one or more convention centers in the county.

As used in division (B)(2) of this section, "cost" has the same meaning as in section 351.01 of the Revised Code, and "convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(C) For the purposes described in section 307.695 of the Revised Code and to cover the costs of administering the tax, a board of county commissioners of a county where a tax imposed under division (A)(1) of this section is in effect may, by resolution adopted within ninety days after July 15, 1985, by a majority of the members of the board, levy an additional excise tax not to exceed three per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The tax authorized by this division shall be in addition to any tax that is levied pursuant to division (A) of this section, but it shall not apply to transactions subject to a tax levied by a municipal corporation or township pursuant to the authorization granted by division (A) of section 5739.08 of the Revised Code. The board shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.695 of the Revised Code. The board of county commissioners of an eligible county as defined in section 307.695 of the Revised Code may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board, amend the resolution levying a tax under this division to provide that the revenue from the tax shall be used by the board as described in division (H) of section 307.695 of the Revised Code. A tax imposed under this division shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the duration of the period during which any agreement entered into by the board under section 307.695 of the Revised Code is in effect, the duration of the period during which any securities issued by the board under division (I) of section 307.695 of the Revised Code are outstanding, or the duration of the period during which the board owns a project as defined in section 307.695 of the Revised Code, whichever duration is longest.

(D) For the purpose of providing contributions under division (B)(1) of section 307.671 of the Revised Code to enable the acquisition, construction, and equipping of a port authority educational and cultural facility in the county and, to the extent provided for in the cooperative agreement authorized by that section, for the purpose of paying debt service charges on bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, described in division (B)(1)(b) of that section, a board of county commissioners, by resolution adopted within ninety days after December 22, 1992, by a majority of the members of the board, may levy an additional excise tax not to exceed one and one-half per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The excise tax authorized by this division shall be in addition to any tax that is levied pursuant to divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section, to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 5739.08 of the Revised Code, and to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code. The board of county commissioners shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax that are not inconsistent with this section or section 307.671 of the Revised Code. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.671 of the Revised Code and division (D) of this section. The levy of a tax imposed under this division may not commence prior to the first day of the month next following the execution of the cooperative agreement authorized by section 307.671 of the Revised Code by all parties to that agreement. The tax shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the period of time described in division (C) of section 307.671 of the Revised Code for which the revenue from the tax has been pledged by the county to the corporation pursuant to that section, but, to any extent provided for in the cooperative agreement, for no lesser period than the period of time required for payment of the debt service charges on bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, described in division (B)(1)(b) of that section.

(E) For the purpose of paying the costs of acquiring, constructing, equipping, and improving a municipal educational and cultural facility, including debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.672 of the Revised Code, and for any additional purposes determined by the county in the resolution levying the tax or amendments to the resolution, including subsequent amendments providing for paying costs of acquiring, constructing, renovating, rehabilitating, equipping, and improving a port authority educational and cultural performing arts facility, as defined in section 307.674 of the Revised Code, and including debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code, the legislative authority of a county, by resolution adopted within ninety days after June 30, 1993, by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, may levy an additional excise tax not to exceed one and one-half per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The excise tax authorized by this division shall be in addition to any tax that is levied pursuant to divisions (A), (B), (C), and (D) of this section, to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 5739.08 of the Revised Code, and to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code. The legislative authority of the county shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.672 of the Revised Code and this division. The levy of a tax imposed under this division shall not commence prior to the first day of the month next following the execution of the cooperative agreement authorized by section 307.672 of the Revised Code by all parties to that agreement. The tax shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the period of time determined by the legislative authority of the county. That period of time shall not exceed fifteen years, except that the legislative authority of a county with a population of less than two hundred fifty thousand according to the most recent federal decennial census, by resolution adopted by a majority of its members before the original tax expires, may extend the duration of the tax for an additional period of time. The additional period of time by which a legislative authority extends a tax levied under this division shall not exceed fifteen years.

(F) The legislative authority of a county that has levied a tax under division (E) of this section may, by resolution adopted within one hundred eighty days after January 4, 2001, by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, amend the resolution levying a tax under that division to provide for the use of the proceeds of that tax, to the extent that it is no longer needed for its original purpose as determined by the parties to a cooperative agreement amendment pursuant to division (D) of section 307.672 of the Revised Code, to pay costs of acquiring, constructing, renovating, rehabilitating, equipping, and improving a port authority educational and cultural performing arts facility, including debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code, and to pay all obligations under any guaranty agreements, reimbursement agreements, or other credit enhancement agreements described in division (C) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code. The resolution may also provide for the extension of the tax at the same rate for the longer of the period of time determined by the legislative authority of the county, but not to exceed an additional twenty-five years, or the period of time required to pay all debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.672 of the Revised Code and on port authority revenue bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the amendment and extension of the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.674 of the Revised Code, this division, and division (E) of this section.

(G) For purposes of a tax levied by a county, township, or municipal corporation under this section or section 5739.08 of the Revised Code, a board of county commissioners, board of township trustees, or the legislative authority of a municipal corporation may adopt a resolution or ordinance at any time specifying that "hotel," as otherwise defined in section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, includes the following:

(1) Establishments in which fewer than five rooms are used for the accommodation of guests.

(2) Establishments at which rooms are used for the accommodation of guests regardless of whether each room is accessible through its own keyed entry or several rooms are accessible through the same keyed entry; and, in determining the number of rooms, all rooms are included regardless of the number of structures in which the rooms are situated or the number of parcels of land on which the structures are located if the structures are under the same ownership and the structures are not identified in advertisements of the accommodations as distinct establishments. For the purposes of division (G)(2) of this section, two or more structures are under the same ownership if they are owned by the same person, or if they are owned by two or more persons the majority of the ownership interests of which are owned by the same person.

The resolution or ordinance may apply to a tax imposed pursuant to this section prior to the adoption of the resolution or ordinance if the resolution or ordinance so states, but the tax shall not apply to transactions by which lodging by such an establishment is provided to transient guests prior to the adoption of the resolution or ordinance.

(H)(1) As used in this division:
   (a) "Convention facilities authority" has the same meaning as in section
       351.01 of the Revised Code.
   (b) "Convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of
       the Revised Code.

(2) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of division (D) of this section, the legislative authority of a county with a population of one million or more according to the most recent federal decennial census that has levied a tax under division (D) of this section may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, provide for the extension of such levy and may provide that the proceeds of that tax, to the extent that they are no longer needed for their original purpose as defined by a cooperative agreement entered into under section 307.671 of the Revised Code, shall be deposited into the county general revenue fund. The resolution shall provide for the extension of the tax at a rate not to exceed the rate specified in division (D) of this section for a period of time determined by the legislative authority of the county, but not to exceed an additional forty years.

(3) The legislative authority of a county with a population of one million or more that has levied a tax under division (A)(1) of this section may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, increase the rate of the tax levied by such county under division (A)(1) of this section to a rate not to exceed five per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests.
    Notwithstanding any contrary provision of division (A)(1) of this section, the resolution may provide that all collections resulting from the rate levied in excess of three per cent, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax, shall be deposited in the county general fund.

(4) The legislative authority of a county with a population of one million or more that has levied a tax under division (A)(1) of this section may, by resolution adopted on or before August 30, 2004, by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, provide that all or a portion of the proceeds of the tax levied under division (A)(1) of this section, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax and the amounts required to be returned to townships and municipal corporations with respect to the first three per cent levied under division (A)(1) of this section, shall be deposited in the county general fund, provided that such proceeds shall be used to satisfy any pledges made in connection with an agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code.
(5) No amount collected from a tax levied, extended, or required to be deposited in the county general fund under division (H) of this section shall be contributed to a convention facilities authority, corporation, or other entity created after July 1, 2003, for the principal purpose of constructing, improving, expanding, equipping, financing, or operating a convention center unless the mayor of the municipal corporation in which the convention center is to be operated by that convention facilities authority, corporation, or other entity has consented to the creation of that convention facilities authority, corporation, or entity. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 351.04 of the Revised Code, if a tax is levied by a county under division (H) of this section, the board of county commissioners of that county may determine the manner of selection, the qualifications, the number, and terms of office of the members of the board of directors of any convention facilities authority, corporation, or other entity described in division (H)(5) of this section.

(6)(a) No amount collected from a tax levied, extended, or required to be deposited in the county general fund under division (H) of this section may be used for any purpose other than paying the direct and indirect costs of constructing, improving, expanding, equipping, financing, or operating a convention center and for the real and actual costs of administering the tax, unless, prior to the adoption of the resolution of the legislative authority of the county authorizing the levy, extension, increase, or deposit, the county and the mayor of the most populous municipal corporation in that county have entered into an agreement as to the use of such amounts, provided that such agreement has been approved by a majority of the mayors of the other municipal corporations in that county. The agreement shall provide that the amounts to be used for purposes other than paying the convention center or administrative costs described in division (H)(6)(a) of this section be used only for the direct and indirect costs of capital improvements, including the financing of capital improvements.

(b) If the county in which the tax is levied has an association of mayors and city managers, the approval of that association of an agreement described in division (H)(6)(a) of this section shall be considered to be the approval of the majority of the mayors of the other municipal corporations for purposes of that division.

(7) Each year, the auditor of state shall conduct an audit of the uses of any amounts collected from taxes levied, extended, or deposited under division (H) of this section and shall prepare a report of the auditor of state's findings. The auditor of state shall submit the report to the legislative authority of the county that has levied, extended, or deposited the tax, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, and the leaders of the minority parties of the house of representatives and the senate.

(1)(1) As used in this division:
(a) "Convention facilities authority" has the same meaning as in section
351.01 of the Revised Code.
(b) "Convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of
the Revised Code.

(2) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of division (D) of this section, the legislative authority of a county with a population of one million two hundred thousand or more according to the most recent federal decennial census or the most recent annual population estimate published or released by the United States census bureau at the time the resolution is adopted placing the levy on the ballot, that has levied a tax under division
(D) of this section may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, provide for the extension of such levy and may provide that the proceeds of that tax, to the extent that the proceeds are no longer needed for their original purpose as defined by a cooperative agreement entered into under section 307.671 of the Revised Code and after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax, shall be used for paying the direct and indirect costs of constructing, improving, expanding, equipping, financing, or operating a convention center. The resolution shall provide for the extension of the tax at a rate not to exceed the rate specified in division (D) of this section for a period of time determined by the legislative authority of the county, but not to exceed an additional forty years.

(3) The legislative authority of a county with a population of one million two hundred thousand or more that has levied a tax under division (A)(1) of this section may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, increase the rate of the tax levied by such county under division (A)(1) of this section to a rate not to exceed five per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of division (A)(1) of this section, the resolution shall provide that all collections resulting from the rate levied in excess of three per cent, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax, shall be used for paying the direct and indirect costs of constructing, improving, expanding, equipping, financing, or operating a convention center.

(4) The legislative authority of a county with a population of one million two hundred thousand or more that has levied a tax under division (A)(1) of this section may, by resolution adopted on or before July 1, 2008, by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, provide that all or a portion of the proceeds of the tax levied under division (A)(1) of this section, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax and the amounts required to be returned to townships and municipal corporations with respect to the first three per cent levied under division (A)(1) of this section, shall be used to satisfy any pledges made in connection with an agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code or shall otherwise be used for paying the direct and indirect costs of constructing, improving, expanding, equipping, financing, or operating a convention center.

(5) Any amount collected from a tax levied or extended under division (I) of this section may be contributed to a convention facilities authority created before July 1, 2005, but no amount collected from a tax levied or extended under division (I) of this section may be contributed to a convention facilities authority, corporation, or other entity created after July 1, 2005, unless the mayor of the municipal corporation in which the convention center is to be operated by that convention facilities authority, corporation, or other entity has consented to the creation of that convention facilities authority, corporation, or entity.

Sec. 5739.131. Any nonresident of this state who accepts the privilege extended by the laws of this state to nonresidents of engaging in the business of selling in this state, as defined in section 5741.01 of the Revised Code, and any resident of this state who is required by sections 5739.17 and 5739.31 of the Revised Code to have a vendor's license and subsequently becomes a nonresident or conceals his whereabouts, makes the secretary of state his agent for the service of process or notice in any assessment, action, or proceedings instituted in this state against such person under sections 5739.01 to 5739.31 and 5741.01 to 5741.22 of the Revised Code.

Such process or notice shall be served, by the officer to whom the same is directed or by the tax commissioner, or by the sheriff of Franklin county, who may be deputized for such purpose by the officer to whom the service is directed, upon the secretary of state by leaving at the office of the secretary of state, at least fifteen days before the return day of such process or notice, a true and attested copy thereof, and by sending to the defendant by certified mail, postage prepaid, a like and true attested copy, with an endorsement thereon of the service upon the secretary of state, addressed to such defendant at his last known address as provided under section 5703.37 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5743.15. (A) Except as otherwise provided in this division, no person shall engage in this state in the wholesale or retail business of trafficking in cigarettes or in the business of a manufacturer or importer of cigarettes without having a license to conduct each such activity issued by a county auditor under division (B) of this section or the tax commissioner under division (E) divisions (C) and (F) of this section, except that on. On dissolution of a partnership by death, the surviving partner may operate under the license of the partnership until expiration of the license, and the heirs or legal representatives of deceased persons, and receivers and trustees in bankruptcy appointed by any competent authority, may operate under the license of the person succeeded in possession by such heir, representative, receiver, or trustee in bankruptcy if the partner or successor notifies the issuer of the license of the dissolution or succession within thirty days after the dissolution or succession.

(B)(1) Each applicant for a license to engage in the wholesale or retail business of trafficking in cigarettes under this section, annually, on or before the fourth Monday of May, shall make and deliver to the county auditor of the county in which the applicant desires to engage in the wholesale or retail business of trafficking in cigarettes, upon a blank form furnished by such auditor for that purpose, a statement showing the name of the applicant, each physical place in the county where the applicant's business is conducted, the nature of the business, and any other information the tax commissioner requires in the form of statement prescribed by the commissioner. If the applicant is a firm, partnership, or association other than a corporation, the application shall state the name and address of each of its members. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall state the name and address of each of its officers. At the time of making the application required by this section, every person desiring to engage in the wholesale business of trafficking in cigarettes shall pay into the county treasury a license tax in the sum of two hundred dollars, or if desiring to engage in the retail business of trafficking in cigarettes a license tax shall pay an application fee in the sum of thirty one hundred twenty-five dollars for each of the first five places physical place where the person proposes to carry on such business and twenty five dollars for each additional place. Each place of business shall be deemed such space, under lease or license to, or under the control of, or under the supervision of the applicant, as is contained in one or more contiguous, adjacent, or adjoining buildings constituting an industrial plant or a place of business operated by, or under the control of, one person, or under one roof and connected by doors, halls, stairways, or elevators, which space may contain any number of points at which cigarettes are offered for sale, provided that each additional point at which cigarettes are offered for sale shall be listed in the application.

(2) Upon receipt of the application and exhibition of the county treasurer's receipt showing the payment of the tax application fee, the county auditor shall issue to the applicant a license for each place of business designated in the application, authorizing the applicant to engage in such business at such place for one year commencing on the fourth Monday of May. Companies operating club or dining cars or other cars upon which cigarettes are sold shall obtain licenses at railroad terminals within the state, under such rules as are prescribed by the commissioner. The form of the license shall be prescribed by the commissioner. A duplicate license may be obtained from the county auditor upon payment of a fifty-cent five-dollar fee if the original license is lost, destroyed, or defaced. When an application is filed after the fourth Monday of May, the license tax application fee required to be paid shall be proportioned in amount to the remainder of the license year, except that it shall not be less than one-fifth of the whole amount twenty-five dollars in any one year.

(3) The holder of a wholesale or retail dealer's cigarette license may transfer the license to a place of business within the same county other than that designated on the license or may assign the license to another person for use in the same county on condition that the licensee or assignee, whichever is applicable, make application licensee's ownership interest and business structure remain unchanged, and that the licensee applies to the county auditor therefor, upon forms approved by the commissioner and the payment of a fee of one dollar five dollars into the county treasury.

(C)(1) Each applicant for a license to engage in the wholesale business of trafficking in cigarettes under this section, annually, on or before the fourth Monday in May, shall make and deliver to the tax commissioner, upon a blank form furnished by the commissioner for that purpose, a statement showing the name of the applicant, physical street address where the applicant's business is conducted, the nature of the business, and any other information required by the commissioner. If the applicant is a firm, partnership, or association other than a corporation, the applicant shall state the name and address of each of its members. If the applicant is a corporation, the applicant shall state the name and address of each of its officers. At the time of making the application required by this section, every person desiring to engage in the wholesale business of trafficking in cigarettes shall pay an application fee of one thousand dollars for each physical place where the person proposes to carry on such business. Each place of business shall be deemed such space, under lease or license to, or under the control of, or under the supervision of the applicant, as is contained in one or more contiguous, adjacent, or adjoining buildings constituting an industrial plant or a place of business operated by, or under the control of, one person, or under one roof and connected by doors, halls, stairways, or elevators. A duplicate license may be obtained from the commissioner upon payment of a twenty-five-dollar fee if the original license is lost, destroyed, or defaced.

(2) Upon receipt of the application and payment of any application fee required by this section, the commissioner shall verify that the applicant is in good standing under Chapter 1346. and Title LVII of the Revised Code. Upon approval, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a license for each physical place of business designated in the application authorizing the applicant to engage in business at that location for one year commencing on the fourth Monday in May. For licenses issued after the fourth Monday in May, the application fee shall be reduced proportionately by the remainder of the twelve-month period for which the license is issued, except that the application fee required to be paid under this section shall be not less than two hundred dollars in any one year.

(3) The holder of a wholesale dealer cigarette license may transfer the license to a place of business other than that designated on the license on condition that the licensee's ownership or business structure remains unchanged, and that the licensee applies to the commissioner for such a transfer upon a form promulgated by the commissioner and pays a fee of twenty-five dollars, which shall be deposited into the cigarette tax enforcement fund created in division (E) of this section.

(D)(1) The wholesale cigarette license tax revenue application fees collected under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Thirty-seven and one half per cent shall be paid upon the warrant of the county auditor into the treasury of the municipal corporation or township in which the place of business for which the tax revenue was received is located;

(b) Fifteen per cent shall be credited to the general fund of the county;

(c) Forty-seven and one half per cent shall be paid into the cigarette tax enforcement fund created by division (C) of this section.

(2) The revenue retail cigarette license application fees collected from the thirty-dollar tax imposed upon the first five places of business of a person engaged in the retail business of trafficking in cigarettes under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Sixty-two and one half Thirty per cent shall be paid upon the warrant of the county auditor into the treasury of the municipal corporation or township in which the places of business for which the tax revenue was received are located;

- Twenty-two and one-half Ten per cent shall be credited to the general fund of the county;

- Fifteen Sixty per cent shall be paid into the cigarette tax enforcement fund created by division (C) of this section.

3) The remainder of the revenues and fines collected under this section and the penal laws relating to cigarettes shall be distributed as follows:

- Three-fourths shall be paid upon the warrant of the county auditor into the treasury of the municipal corporation or township in which the place of business, on account of which the revenues and fines were received, is located;

- One-fourth shall be credited to the general fund of the county.

(D)(E) There is hereby created within the state treasury the cigarette tax enforcement fund for the purpose of providing funds to assist in paying the costs of enforcing sections 1333.11 to 1333.21 and Chapter 5743 of the Revised Code.

The portion of cigarette license tax revenues application fees received by a county auditor during the annual application period that ends before on the fourth Monday in May which and that is required to be deposited in the cigarette tax enforcement fund shall be sent to the treasurer of state by the thirtieth day of June each year accompanied by the form prescribed by the tax commissioner. The portion of cigarette license tax money application fees received by each county auditor after the fourth Monday in May which and that is required to be deposited in the cigarette tax enforcement fund shall be sent to the treasurer of state by the thirty-first day of December last day of the month following the month in which such fees were collected.

(E)(F)1) Every person who desires to engage in the business of a manufacturer or importer of cigarettes shall, annually, on or before the fourth Monday of May, make and deliver to the tax commissioner, upon a blank form furnished by the commissioner for that purpose, a statement showing the name of the applicant, the nature of the applicant's business, and any other information required by the commissioner. If the applicant is a firm, partnership, or association other than a corporation, the applicant shall state the name and address of each of its members. If the applicant is a corporation, the applicant shall state the name and address of each of its officers.

2) Upon receipt of the application required under this section, the commissioner shall verify that the applicant is in good standing under Chapter 1346, and Title LVII of the Revised Code. Upon approval, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a license authorizing the applicant... to engage in the business of manufacturer or importer, whichever the case may be, for one year commencing on the fourth Monday of May.

(2) The issuing of a license under division (E)(1) of this section to a manufacturer does not excuse a manufacturer from the certification process required under section 1346.05 of the Revised Code. A manufacturer who is issued a license under division (E)(1) of this section and who is not listed on the directory required under section 1346.05 of the Revised Code shall not be permitted to sell cigarettes in this state other than to a licensed cigarette wholesaler for sale outside this state. Such a manufacturer shall provide documentation to the commissioner evidencing that the cigarettes are legal for sale in another state.

(3) The tax commissioner may adopt rules necessary to administer division (E) of this section.

Sec. 5743.61. (A) No distributor shall engage in the business of distributing tobacco products within this state without having a license issued by the department of taxation to engage in that business, except that on the dissolution of a partnership by death, the surviving partner may operate under the license of the partnership until the expiration of the license, and the heirs or legal representatives of deceased persons, and receivers and trustees in bankruptcy appointed by any competent authority, may operate under the license of the person succeeded in possession by the heir, representative, receiver, or trustee in bankruptcy if the partner or successor notifies the department of taxation of the dissolution or succession within thirty days after the dissolution or succession.

(B)(1) Each applicant for a license to engage in the business of distributing tobacco products, annually, on or before the first day of February, shall make and deliver to the tax commissioner, upon a form furnished by the commissioner for that purpose, a statement showing the name of the applicant, each physical place from which the applicant distributes to distributors, retail dealers, or wholesale dealers, and any other information the commissioner considers necessary for the administration of sections 5743.51 to 5743.66 of the Revised Code.

(2) At the time of making the license application, the applicant shall pay a license application fee of one hundred thousand dollars for each place listed on the application where the applicant proposes to carry on that business. The fee charged for the license application shall accompany the application and shall be made payable to the treasurer of state for deposit into the cigarette tax enforcement fund.

(3) Upon receipt of the application and payment of any licensing fee required by this section, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a license for each place of distribution designated in the application authorizing the applicant to engage in business at that location for one year commencing on the first day of February. For licenses issued after the first day of February, the license application fee shall be reduced proportionately by the remainder of the twelve-month period for which the license is issued, except that the application fee required to be paid under this section shall be not less than two hundred dollars. If the original license is lost, destroyed, or defaced, a duplicate license may be obtained from the commissioner upon payment of a license replacement fee of twenty-five dollars.

(C) The holder of a tobacco products license may transfer the license to a place of business or may assign the license to another person for use, on condition that the licensee's ownership and business structure remains unchanged and the licensee or assignee applies to the commissioner for the transfer, upon forms on a form issued by the commissioner, and pays a transfer fee of twenty-five dollars.

(D) If a distributor fails to file the returns forms as required under Chapter 1346, or section 5743.52 of the Revised Code, or pay the tax due thereon, on for two consecutive months periods or three months periods during any twelve-month period, the commissioner may suspend the license issued to the distributor under this section. The suspension is effective ten days after the commissioner notifies the distributor of the suspension in writing personally or by certified mail. The commissioner shall lift the suspension when the distributor files the delinquent returns forms and pays the tax due, including any penalties, interest, and additional charges. The commissioner may refuse to issue the annual renewal of the license required by this section and may refuse to issue a new license for the same location until all delinquent returns forms are filed and outstanding taxes are paid. This division does not apply to any unpaid or underpaid tax liability that is the subject of a petititon petition or appeal filed pursuant to section 5743.56, 5717.02, or 5717.04 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5747.01. Except as otherwise expressly provided or clearly appearing from the context, any term used in this chapter that is not otherwise defined in this section has the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes or if not used in a comparable context in those laws, has the same meaning as in section 5733.40 of the Revised Code. Any reference in this chapter to the Internal Revenue Code includes other laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes.

As used in this chapter:
(A) "Adjusted gross income" or "Ohio adjusted gross income" means federal adjusted gross income, as defined and used in the Internal Revenue Code, adjusted as provided in this section:

(1) Add interest or dividends on obligations or securities of any state or of any political subdivision or authority of any state, other than this state and its subdivisions and authorities.

(2) Add interest or dividends on obligations of any authority, commission, instrumentality, territory, or possession of the United States to the extent that the interest or dividends are exempt from federal income taxes but not from state income taxes.

(3) Deduct interest or dividends on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent that the interest or dividends are included in federal adjusted gross income but exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States.

(4) Deduct disability and survivor's benefits to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income.

(5) Deduct benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act and tier I railroad retirement benefits to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income under section 86 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) In the case of a taxpayer who is a beneficiary of a trust that makes an accumulation distribution as defined in section 665 of the Internal Revenue Code, add, for the beneficiary's taxable years beginning before 2002, the portion, if any, of such distribution that does not exceed the undistributed net income of the trust for the three taxable years preceding the taxable year in which the distribution is made to the extent that the portion was not included in the trust's taxable income for any of the trust's taxable years beginning in 2002 or thereafter. "Undistributed net income of a trust" means the taxable income of the trust increased by (a)(i) the additions to adjusted gross income required under division (A) of this section and (ii) the personal exemptions allowed to the trust pursuant to section 642(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, and decreased by (b)(i) the deductions to adjusted gross income required under division (A) of this section, (ii) the amount of federal income taxes attributable to such income, and (iii) the amount of taxable income that has been included in the adjusted gross income of a beneficiary by reason of a prior accumulation distribution. Any undistributed net income included in the adjusted gross income of a beneficiary shall reduce the undistributed net income of the trust commencing with the earliest years of the accumulation period.

(7) Deduct the amount of wages and salaries, if any, not otherwise allowable as a deduction but that would have been allowable as a deduction in computing federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, had the targeted jobs credit allowed and determined under sections 38, 51, and 52 of the Internal Revenue Code not been in effect.

(8) Deduct any interest or interest equivalent on public obligations and purchase obligations to the extent that the interest or interest equivalent is included in federal adjusted gross income.

(9) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of public obligations to the extent that the loss has been deducted or the gain has been included in computing federal adjusted gross income.

(10) Deduct or add amounts, as provided under section 5747.70 of the Revised Code, related to contributions to variable college savings program accounts made or tuition units purchased pursuant to Chapter 3334. of the Revised Code.

(11)(a) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise allowable as a deduction or exclusion in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income for the taxable year, the amount the taxpayer paid during the taxable year for medical care insurance and qualified long-term care insurance for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, and dependents. No deduction for medical care insurance under division (A)(11) of this section shall be allowed either to any taxpayer who is eligible to participate in any subsidized health plan maintained by any employer of the taxpayer or of the taxpayer's spouse, or to any taxpayer who is entitled to, or on application would be entitled to, benefits under part A of Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 301, as amended. For the purposes of division (A)(11)(a) of this section, "subsidized health plan" means a health plan for which the employer pays any portion of the plan's cost. The deduction allowed under division (A)(11)(a) of this section shall be the net of any related premium refunds, related premium reimbursements, or related insurance premium dividends received during the taxable year.

(b) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income during the taxable year, the amount the taxpayer paid during the taxable year, not compensated for by any insurance or otherwise, for medical care of the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, and dependents, to the extent the expenses exceed seven and one-half per cent of the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income.

(c) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income, any amount included in federal adjusted gross income under section 105 or not excluded under section 106 of the Internal Revenue Code solely because it relates to an accident and health plan for a person who otherwise would be a "qualifying relative" and thus a "dependent" under section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code but for the fact that the person fails to meet the income and support limitations under section 152(d)(1)(B) and (C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) For purposes of division (A)(11) of this section, "medical care" has the meaning given in section 213 of the Internal Revenue Code, subject to the special rules, limitations, and exclusions set forth therein, and "qualified long-term care" has the same meaning given in section 7702B(c) of the Internal Revenue Code. Solely for purposes of divisions (A)(11)(a) and (c) of this section, "dependent" includes a person who otherwise would be a "qualifying relative" and thus a "dependent" under section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code but for the fact that the person fails to meet the income and support limitations under section 152(d)(1)(B) and (C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(12)(a) Deduct any amount included in federal adjusted gross income solely because the amount represents a reimbursement or refund of expenses that in any year the taxpayer had deducted as an itemized deduction pursuant to section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable United States department of the treasury regulations. The deduction otherwise allowed under division (A)(12)(a) of this section shall be reduced to the extent the reimbursement is attributable to an amount the taxpayer deducted under this section in any taxable year.

(b) Add any amount not otherwise included in Ohio adjusted gross income for any taxable year to the extent that the amount is attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of any amount deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income in any taxable year.

(13) Deduct any portion of the deduction described in section 1341(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, for repaying previously reported income received under a claim of right, that meets both of the following requirements:

(a) It is allowable for repayment of an item that was included in the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for a prior taxable year and did not qualify for a credit under division (A) or (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code for that year;

(b) It does not otherwise reduce the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for the current or any other taxable year.

(14) Deduct an amount equal to the deposits made to, and net investment earnings of, a medical savings account during the taxable year, in accordance with section 3924.66 of the Revised Code. The deduction allowed by division (A)(14) of this section does not apply to medical savings account deposits and earnings otherwise deducted or excluded for the current or any other taxable year from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income.

(15)(a) Add an amount equal to the funds withdrawn from a medical savings account during the taxable year, and the net investment earnings on those funds, when the funds withdrawn were used for any purpose other than to reimburse an account holder for, or to pay, eligible medical expenses, in accordance with section 3924.66 of the Revised Code;

(b) Add the amounts distributed from a medical savings account under division (A)(2) of section 3924.68 of the Revised Code during the taxable year.

(16) Add any amount claimed as a credit under section 5747.059 of the Revised Code to the extent that such amount satisfies either of the following:

(a) The amount was deducted or excluded from the computation of the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income as required to be reported for the taxpayer's taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) The amount resulted in a reduction of the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income as required to be reported for any of the taxpayer's taxable years under the Internal Revenue Code.

(17) Deduct the amount contributed by the taxpayer to an individual development account program established by a county department of job and family services pursuant to sections 329.11 to 329.14 of the Revised Code for the purpose of matching funds deposited by program participants. On request of the tax commissioner, the taxpayer shall provide any information that, in the tax commissioner's opinion, is necessary to establish the amount deducted under division (A)(17) of this section.

(18) Beginning in taxable year 2001 but not for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 2005, if the taxpayer is married and files a joint return and the combined federal adjusted gross income of the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse for the taxable year does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, or if the taxpayer is single and has a federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, deduct amounts paid during the taxable year for qualified tuition and fees paid to an eligible institution for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, or any dependent of the taxpayer, who is a resident of this state and is enrolled in or attending a program that culminates in a degree or diploma at an eligible institution. The deduction may be claimed only to the extent that qualified tuition and fees are not otherwise deducted or excluded for any taxable year from federal or Ohio adjusted gross income. The deduction may not be claimed for educational expenses for which the taxpayer claims a credit under section 5747.27 of the Revised Code.

(19) Add any reimbursement received during the taxable year of any amount the taxpayer deducted under division (A)(18) of this section in any previous taxable year to the extent the amount is not otherwise included in Ohio adjusted gross income.

(20)(a)(i) Add five-sixths of the amount of depreciation expense allowed by subsection (k) of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, including the taxpayer's proportionate or distributive share of the amount of depreciation expense allowed by that subsection to a pass-through entity in which the taxpayer has a direct or indirect ownership interest.

(ii) Add five-sixths of the amount of qualifying section 179 depreciation expense, including a person's proportionate or distributive share of the amount of qualifying section 179 depreciation expense allowed to any pass-through entity in which the person has a direct or indirect ownership. For the purposes of this division, "qualifying section 179 depreciation expense" means the difference between (I) the amount of depreciation expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (II) the amount of depreciation expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code as that section existed on December 31, 2002.

The tax commissioner, under procedures established by the commissioner, may waive the add-backs related to a pass-through entity if the taxpayer owns, directly or indirectly, less than five per cent of the pass-through entity.

(b) Nothing in division (A)(20) of this section shall be construed to adjust or modify the adjusted basis of any asset.

(c) To the extent the add-back required under division (A)(20)(a) of this section is attributable to property generating nonbusiness income or loss allocated under section 5747.20 of the Revised Code, the add-back shall be situated to the same location as the nonbusiness income or loss generated by the property for the purpose of determining the credit under division (A) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code. Otherwise, the add-back shall be apportioned, subject to one or more of the four alternative methods of apportionment enumerated in section 5747.21 of the Revised Code.

(d) For the purposes of division (A) of this section, net operating loss carryback and carryforward shall not include five-sixths of the allowance of any net operating loss deduction carryback or carryforward to the taxable (21)(a) If the taxpayer was required to add an amount under division (A)(20)(a) of this section for a taxable year, deduct one-fifth of the amount so added for each of the five succeeding taxable years.

(b) If the amount deducted under division (A)(21)(a) of this section is attributable to an add-back allocated under division (A)(20)(c) of this section, the amount deducted shall be sitused to the same location. Otherwise, the add-back shall be apportioned using the apportionment factors for the taxable year in which the deduction is taken, subject to one or more of the four alternative methods of apportionment enumerated in section 5747.21 of the Revised Code.

(c) No deduction is available under division (A)(21)(a) of this section with regard to any depreciation allowed by section 168(k) of the Internal Revenue Code and by the qualifying section 179 depreciation expense amount to the extent that such depreciation resulted in or increased a federal net operating loss carryback or carryforward to a taxable year to which division (A)(20)(d) of this section does not apply.

(22) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income for the taxable year, the amount the taxpayer received during the taxable year as reimbursement for life insurance premiums under section 5919.31 of the Revised Code.

(23) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income for the taxable year, the amount the taxpayer received during the taxable year as a death benefit paid by the adjutant general under section 5919.33 of the Revised Code.

(24) Deduct, to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income and not otherwise allowable as a deduction or exclusion in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income for the taxable year, military pay and allowances received by the taxpayer during the taxable year for active duty service in the United States army, air force, navy, marine corps, or coast guard or reserve components thereof or the national guard. The deduction may not be claimed for military pay and allowances received by the taxpayer while the taxpayer is stationed in this state.

(25) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise allowable as a deduction or exclusion in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income for the taxable year and not otherwise compensated for by any other source, the amount of qualified organ donation expenses incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year, not to exceed ten thousand dollars. A taxpayer may deduct qualified organ donation expenses only once for all taxable years beginning with taxable years beginning in 2007.

For the purposes of division (A)(25) of this section:
(a) "Human organ" means all or any portion of a human liver, pancreas, kidney, intestine, or lung, and any portion of human bone marrow.
(b) "Qualified organ donation expenses" means travel expenses, lodging expenses, and wages and salary forgone by a taxpayer in connection with the taxpayer's donation, while living, of one or more of the taxpayer's human organs to another human being.

(26) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income for the taxable year, amounts received by the taxpayer as retired military personnel pay for service in the United States army, navy, air force, coast guard, or marine corps or reserve components thereof, or the national guard, or received by the surviving spouse or former spouse of such a taxpayer under the survivor benefit plan on account of such a taxpayer's death. If the taxpayer receives income on account of retirement paid under the federal civil service retirement system or federal employees retirement system, or under any successor retirement program enacted by the congress of the United States that is established and maintained for retired employees of the United States government, and such retirement income is based, in whole or in part, on credit for the taxpayer's military service, the deduction allowed under this division shall include only that portion of such retirement income that is attributable to the taxpayer's military service, to the extent that portion of such retirement income is otherwise included in federal adjusted gross income and is not otherwise deducted under this section. Any amount deducted under division (A)(26) of this section is not included in a taxpayer's adjusted gross income for the purposes of section 5747.055 of the Revised Code. No amount may be deducted under division (A)(26) of this section on the basis of which a credit was claimed under section 5747.055 of the Revised Code.

(27) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income for the taxable year, the amount the taxpayer received during the taxable year from the military injury relief fund created in section 5101.98 of the Revised Code.

(B) "Business income" means income, including gain or loss, arising from transactions, activities, and sources in the regular course of a trade or business and includes income, gain, or loss from real property, tangible property, and intangible property if the acquisition, rental, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the regular course of a trade or business operation. "Business income" includes income, including gain or loss, from a partial or complete liquidation of a business, including, but not limited to, gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of goodwill.

(C) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income and may include, but is not limited to, compensation, rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains, interest, dividends and distributions, patent or copyright royalties, or lottery winnings, prizes, and awards.

(D) "Compensation" means any form of remuneration paid to an employee for personal services.

(E) "Fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any other person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any individual, trust, or estate.

(F) "Fiscal year" means an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(G) "Individual" means any natural person.

(I) "Resident" means any of the following, provided that division (I)(3) of this section applies only to taxable years of a trust beginning in 2002 or thereafter:

(1) An individual who is domiciled in this state, subject to section 5747.24 of the Revised Code;

(2) The estate of a decedent who at the time of death was domiciled in this state. The domicile tests of section 5747.24 of the Revised Code are not controlling for purposes of division (I)(2) of this section.

(3) A trust that, in whole or part, resides in this state. If only part of a trust resides in this state, the trust is a resident only with respect to that part.

For the purposes of division (I)(3) of this section:

(a) A trust resides in this state for the trust's current taxable year to the extent, as described in division (I)(3)(d) of this section, that the trust consists directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, of assets, net of any related liabilities, that were transferred, or caused to be transferred, directly or indirectly, to the trust by any of the following:

(i) A person, a court, or a governmental entity or instrumentality on account of the death of a decedent, but only if the trust is described in division (I)(3)(e)(i) or (ii) of this section;

(ii) A person who was domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter when the person directly or indirectly transferred assets to an irrevocable trust, but only if at least one of the trust's qualifying beneficiaries is domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter during all or some portion of the trust's current taxable year;

(iii) A person who was domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter when the trust document or instrument or part of the trust document or instrument became irrevocable, but only if at least one of the trust's qualifying beneficiaries is a resident domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter during all or some portion of the trust's current taxable year. If a trust document or instrument became irrevocable upon the death of a person who at the time of death was domiciled in this state for purposes of this chapter, that person is a person described in division (I)(3)(a)(iii) of this section.

(b) A trust is irrevocable to the extent that the transferor is not considered to be the owner of the net assets of the trust under sections 671 to 678 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) With respect to a trust other than a charitable lead trust, "qualifying beneficiary" has the same meaning as "potential current beneficiary" as defined in section 1361(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, and with respect to a charitable lead trust "qualifying beneficiary" is any current, future, or contingent beneficiary, but with respect to any trust "qualifying beneficiary" excludes a person or a governmental entity or instrumentality to any of which a contribution would qualify for the charitable deduction under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) For the purposes of division (I)(3)(a) of this section, the extent to which a trust consists directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, of assets, net of any related liabilities, that were transferred directly or indirectly, in whole or part, to the trust by any of the sources enumerated in that division shall be ascertained by multiplying the fair market value of the trust's assets, net of related liabilities, by the qualifying ratio, which shall be computed as follows:

(i) The first time the trust receives assets, the numerator of the qualifying ratio is the fair market value of those assets at that time, net of any related liabilities, from sources enumerated in division (I)(3)(a) of this section. The denominator of the qualifying ratio is the fair market value of all the trust's assets at that time, net of any related liabilities.

(ii) Each subsequent time the trust receives assets, a revised qualifying ratio shall be computed. The numerator of the revised qualifying ratio is the sum of (1) the fair market value of the trust's assets immediately prior to the subsequent transfer, net of any related liabilities, multiplied by the qualifying ratio last computed without regard to the subsequent transfer, and (2) the fair market value of the subsequently transferred assets at the time transferred, net of any related liabilities, from sources enumerated in division (I)(3)(a) of this section. The denominator of the revised qualifying ratio is the fair market value of all the trust's assets immediately after the subsequent transfer, net of any related liabilities.

(iii) Whether a transfer to the trust is by or from any of the sources enumerated in division (I)(3)(a) of this section shall be ascertained without regard to the domicile of the trust's beneficiaries.

(e) For the purposes of division (I)(3)(a)(i) of this section:

(i) A trust is described in division (I)(3)(e)(i) of this section if the trust is a testamentary trust and the testator of that testamentary trust was domiciled in this state at the time of the testator's death for purposes of the taxes levied under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code.

(ii) A trust is described in division (I)(3)(e)(ii) of this section if the transfer is a qualifying transfer described in any of divisions (I)(3)(f)(i) to (vi) of this section, the trust is an irrevocable inter vivos trust, and at least one of the trust's qualifying beneficiaries is domiciled in this state for purposes of this chapter during all or some portion of the trust's current taxable year.

(f) For the purposes of division (I)(3)(e)(ii) of this section, a "qualifying transfer" is a transfer of assets, net of any related liabilities, directly or indirectly to a trust, if the transfer is described in any of the following:

(i) The transfer is made to a trust, created by the decedent before the decedent's death and while the decedent was domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter, and, prior to the death of the decedent, the trust became irrevocable while the decedent was domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter.

(ii) The transfer is made to a trust to which the decedent, prior to the decedent's death, had directly or indirectly transferred assets, net of any related liabilities, while the decedent was domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter, and prior to the death of the decedent the trust became irrevocable while the decedent was domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter.

(iii) The transfer is made on account of a contractual relationship existing directly or indirectly between the transferor and either the decedent or the estate of the decedent at any time prior to the date of the decedent's death, and the decedent was domiciled in this state at the time of death for purposes of the taxes levied under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code.

(iv) The transfer is made to a trust on account of a contractual relationship existing directly or indirectly between the transferor and another person who at the time of the decedent's death was domiciled in this state for
(v) The transfer is made to a trust on account of the will of a testator.
(vi) The transfer is made to a trust created by or caused to be created by a court, and the trust was directly or indirectly created in connection with or as a result of the death of an individual who, for purposes of the taxes levied under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code, was domiciled in this state at the time of the individual's death.
(g) The tax commissioner may adopt rules to ascertain the part of a trust residing in this state.
(J) "Nonresident" means an individual or estate that is not a resident. An individual who is a resident for only part of a taxable year is a nonresident for the remainder of that taxable year.
(K) "Pass-through entity" has the same meaning as in section 5733.04 of the Revised Code.
(L) "Return" means the notifications and reports required to be filed pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of reporting the tax due and includes declarations of estimated tax when so required.
(M) "Taxable year" means the calendar year or the taxpayer's fiscal year ending during the calendar year, or fractional part thereof, upon which the adjusted gross income is calculated pursuant to this chapter.
(N) "Taxpayer" means any person subject to the tax imposed by section 5747.02 of the Revised Code or any pass-through entity that makes the election under division (D) of section 5747.08 of the Revised Code.
(O) "Dependents" means dependents as defined in the Internal Revenue Code and as claimed in the taxpayer's federal income tax return for the taxable year or which the taxpayer would have been permitted to claim had the taxpayer filed a federal income tax return.
(P) "Principal county of employment" means, in the case of a nonresident, the county within the state in which a taxpayer performs services for an employer or, if those services are performed in more than one county, the county in which the major portion of the services are performed.
(Q) As used in sections 5747.50 to 5747.55 of the Revised Code:
(1) "Subdivision" means any county, municipal corporation, park district, or township.
(2) "Essential local government purposes" includes all functions that any subdivision is required by general law to exercise, including like functions that are exercised under a charter adopted pursuant to the Ohio Constitution.
(R) "Overpayment" means any amount already paid that exceeds the figure determined to be the correct amount of the tax.

(S) "Taxable income" or "Ohio taxable income" applies only to estates and trusts, and means federal taxable income, as defined and used in the Internal Revenue Code, adjusted as follows:

1. Add interest or dividends, net of ordinary, necessary, and reasonable expenses not deducted in computing federal taxable income, on obligations or securities of any state or of any political subdivision or authority of any state, other than this state and its subdivisions and authorities, but only to the extent that such net amount is not otherwise includible in Ohio taxable income and is described in either division (S)(1)(a) or (b) of this section:
   a. The net amount is not attributable to the S portion of an electing small business trust and has not been distributed to beneficiaries for the taxable year;
   b. The net amount is attributable to the S portion of an electing small business trust for the taxable year.
2. Add interest or dividends, net of ordinary, necessary, and reasonable expenses not deducted in computing federal taxable income, on obligations of any authority, commission, instrumentality, territory, or possession of the United States to the extent that the interest or dividends are exempt from federal income taxes but not from state income taxes, but only to the extent that such net amount is not otherwise includible in Ohio taxable income and is described in either division (S)(1)(a) or (b) of this section;
3. Add the amount of personal exemption allowed to the estate pursuant to section 642(b) of the Internal Revenue Code;
4. Deduct interest or dividends, net of related expenses deducted in computing federal taxable income, on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent that the interest or dividends are exempt from state taxes under the laws of the United States, but only to the extent that such amount is included in federal taxable income and is described in either division (S)(1)(a) or (b) of this section;
5. Deduct the amount of wages and salaries, if any, not otherwise allowable as a deduction but that would have been allowable as a deduction in computing federal taxable income for the taxable year, had the targeted jobs credit allowed under sections 38, 51, and 52 of the Internal Revenue Code not been in effect, but only to the extent such amount relates either to income included in federal taxable income for the taxable year or to income of the S portion of an electing small business trust for the taxable year;
6. Deduct any interest or interest equivalent, net of related expenses deducted in computing federal taxable income, on public obligations and purchase obligations, but only to the extent that such net amount relates either to income included in federal taxable income for the taxable year or to income of the S portion of an electing small business trust for the taxable year;

(7) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from sale, exchange, or other disposition of public obligations to the extent that such loss has been deducted or such gain has been included in computing either federal taxable income or income of the S portion of an electing small business trust for the taxable year;

(8) Except in the case of the final return of an estate, add any amount deducted by the taxpayer on both its Ohio estate tax return pursuant to section 5731.14 of the Revised Code, and on its federal income tax return in determining federal taxable income;

(9)(a) Deduct any amount included in federal taxable income solely because the amount represents a reimbursement or refund of expenses that in a previous year the decedent had deducted as an itemized deduction pursuant to section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable treasury regulations. The deduction otherwise allowed under division (S)(9)(a) of this section shall be reduced to the extent the reimbursement is attributable to an amount the taxpayer or decedent deducted under this section in any taxable year.

(b) Add any amount not otherwise included in Ohio taxable income for any taxable year to the extent that the amount is attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of any amount deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio taxable income in any taxable year, but only to the extent such amount has not been distributed to beneficiaries for the taxable year.

(10) Deduct any portion of the deduction described in section 1341(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, for repaying previously reported income received under a claim of right, that meets both of the following requirements:

(a) It is allowable for repayment of an item that was included in the taxpayer's taxable income or the decedent's adjusted gross income for a prior taxable year and did not qualify for a credit under division (A) or (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code for that year.

(b) It does not otherwise reduce the taxpayer's taxable income or the decedent's adjusted gross income for the current or any other taxable year.

(11) Add any amount claimed as a credit under section 5747.059 of the Revised Code to the extent that the amount satisfies either of the following:

(a) The amount was deducted or excluded from the computation of the taxpayer's federal taxable income as required to be reported for the taxpayer's taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) The amount resulted in a reduction in the taxpayer's federal taxable income as required to be reported for any of the taxpayer's taxable years under the Internal Revenue Code.

(12) Deduct any amount, net of related expenses deducted in computing federal taxable income, that a trust is required to report as farm income on its federal income tax return, but only if the assets of the trust include at least ten acres of land satisfying the definition of "land devoted exclusively to agricultural use" under section 5713.30 of the Revised Code, regardless of whether the land is valued for tax purposes as such land under sections 5713.30 to 5713.38 of the Revised Code. If the trust is a pass-through entity investor, section 5747.231 of the Revised Code applies in ascertaining if the trust is eligible to claim the deduction provided by division (S)(12) of this section in connection with the pass-through entity's farm income.

Except for farm income attributable to the S portion of an electing small business trust, the deduction provided by division (S)(12) of this section is allowed only to the extent that the trust has not distributed such farm income. Division (S)(12) of this section applies only to taxable years of a trust beginning in 2002 or thereafter.

(13) Add the net amount of income described in section 641(c) of the Internal Revenue Code to the extent that amount is not included in federal taxable income.

(14) Add or deduct the amount the taxpayer would be required to add or deduct under division (A)(20) or (21) of this section if the taxpayer's Ohio taxable income were computed in the same manner as an individual's Ohio adjusted gross income is computed under this section. In the case of a trust, division (S)(14) of this section applies only to any of the trust's taxable years beginning in 2002 or thereafter.

(T) "School district income" and "school district income tax" have the same meanings as in section 5748.01 of the Revised Code.

(U) As used in divisions (A)(8), (A)(9), (S)(6), and (S)(7) of this section, "public obligations," "purchase obligations," and "interest or interest equivalent" have the same meanings as in section 5709.76 of the Revised Code.

(V) "Limited liability company" means any limited liability company formed under Chapter 1705. of the Revised Code or under the laws of any other state.

(W) "Pass-through entity investor" means any person who, during any portion of a taxable year of a pass-through entity, is a partner, member, shareholder, or equity investor in that pass-through entity.
(X) "Banking day" has the same meaning as in section 1304.01 of the Revised Code.

(Y) "Month" means a calendar month.

(Z) "Quarter" means the first three months, the second three months, the third three months, or the last three months of the taxpayer's taxable year.

(AA)(1) "Eligible institution" means a state university or state institution of higher education as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, or a private, nonprofit college, university, or other post-secondary institution located in this state that possesses a certificate of authorization issued by the Ohio board of regents pursuant to Chapter 1713. of the Revised Code or a certificate of registration issued by the state board of career colleges and schools under Chapter 3332. of the Revised Code.

(2) "Qualified tuition and fees" means tuition and fees imposed by an eligible institution as a condition of enrollment or attendance, not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars in each of the individual's first two years of post-secondary education. If the individual is a part-time student, "qualified tuition and fees" includes tuition and fees paid for the academic equivalent of the first two years of post-secondary education during a maximum of five taxable years, not exceeding a total of five thousand dollars. "Qualified tuition and fees" does not include:

(a) Expenses for any course or activity involving sports, games, or hobbies unless the course or activity is part of the individual's degree or diploma program;

(b) The cost of books, room and board, student activity fees, athletic fees, insurance expenses, or other expenses unrelated to the individual's academic course of instruction;

(c) Tuition, fees, or other expenses paid or reimbursed through an employer, scholarship, grant in aid, or other educational benefit program.

(BB)(1) "Modified business income" means the business income included in a trust's Ohio taxable income after such taxable income is first reduced by the qualifying trust amount, if any.

(2) "Qualifying trust amount" of a trust means capital gains and losses from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of equity or ownership interests in, or debt obligations of, a qualifying investee to the extent included in the trust's Ohio taxable income, but only if the following requirements are satisfied:

(a) The book value of the qualifying investee's physical assets in this state and everywhere, as of the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the gain or loss, is available to the trust.
(b) The requirements of section 5747.011 of the Revised Code are satisfied for the trust's taxable year in which the trust recognizes the gain or loss.

Any gain or loss that is not a qualifying trust amount is modified business income, qualifying investment income, or modified nonbusiness income, as the case may be.

(3) "Modified nonbusiness income" means a trust's Ohio taxable income other than modified business income, other than the qualifying trust amount, and other than qualifying investment income, as defined in section 5747.012 of the Revised Code, to the extent such qualifying investment income is not otherwise part of modified business income.

(4) "Modified Ohio taxable income" applies only to trusts, and means the sum of the amounts described in divisions (BB)(4)(a) to (c) of this section:

   (a) The fraction, calculated under section 5747.013, and applying section 5747.231 of the Revised Code, multiplied by the sum of the following amounts:

      (i) The trust's modified business income;

      (ii) The trust's qualifying investment income, as defined in section 5747.012 of the Revised Code, but only to the extent the qualifying investment income does not otherwise constitute modified business income and does not otherwise constitute a qualifying trust amount.

   (b) The qualifying trust amount multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the book value of the qualifying investee's physical assets in this state on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the trust recognizes the qualifying trust amount, and the denominator of which is the sum of the book value of the qualifying investee's total physical assets everywhere on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the trust recognizes the qualifying trust amount. If, for a taxable year, the trust recognizes a qualifying trust amount with respect to more than one qualifying investee, the amount described in division (BB)(4)(b) of this section shall equal the sum of the products so computed for each such qualifying investee.

   (c)(i) With respect to a trust or portion of a trust that is a resident as ascertained in accordance with division (I)(3)(d) of this section, its modified nonbusiness income.

      (ii) With respect to a trust or portion of a trust that is not a resident as ascertained in accordance with division (I)(3)(d) of this section, the amount of its modified nonbusiness income satisfying the descriptions in divisions
(B)(2) to (5) of section 5747.20 of the Revised Code, except as otherwise provided in division (BB)(4)(c)(ii) of this section. With respect to a trust or portion of a trust that is not a resident as ascertained in accordance with division (I)(3)(d) of this section, the trust's portion of modified nonbusiness income recognized from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of a debt interest in or equity interest in a section 5747.212 entity, as defined in section 5747.212 of the Revised Code, without regard to division (A) of that section, shall not be allocated to this state in accordance with section 5747.20 of the Revised Code but shall be apportioned to this state in accordance with division (B) of section 5747.212 of the Revised Code without regard to division (A) of that section.

If the allocation and apportionment of a trust's income under divisions (BB)(4)(a) and (c) of this section do not fairly represent the modified Ohio taxable income of the trust in this state, the alternative methods described in division (C) of section 5747.21 of the Revised Code may be applied in the manner and to the same extent provided in that section.

(5)(a) Except as set forth in division (BB)(5)(b) of this section, "qualifying investee" means a person in which a trust has an equity or ownership interest, or a person or unit of government the debt obligations of either of which are owned by a trust. For the purposes of division (BB)(2)(a) of this section and for the purpose of computing the fraction described in division (BB)(4)(b) of this section, all of the following apply:

(i) If the qualifying investee is a member of a qualifying controlled group on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the gain or loss, then "qualifying investee" includes all persons in the qualifying controlled group on such last day.

(ii) If the qualifying investee, or if the qualifying investee and any members of the qualifying controlled group of which the qualifying investee is a member on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the gain or loss, separately or cumulatively own, directly or indirectly, on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the qualifying trust amount, more than fifty per cent of the equity of a pass-through entity, then the qualifying investee and the other members are deemed to own the proportionate share of the pass-through entity's physical assets which the pass-through entity directly or indirectly owns on the last day of the pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year ending within or with the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the qualifying trust amount.

(iii) For the purposes of division (BB)(5)(a)(iii) of this section, "upper level pass-through entity" means a pass-through entity directly or indirectly owning any equity of another pass-through entity, and "lower level pass-through entity" means that other pass-through entity.

An upper level pass-through entity, whether or not it is also a qualifying investee, is deemed to own, on the last day of the upper level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year, the proportionate share of the lower level pass-through entity's physical assets that the lower level pass-through entity directly or indirectly owns on the last day of the lower level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year ending within or with the last day of the upper level pass-through entity's fiscal or calendar year. If the upper level pass-through entity directly and indirectly owns less than fifty per cent of the equity of the lower level pass-through entity on each day of the upper level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year in which or with which ends the calendar or fiscal year of the lower level pass-through entity and if, based upon clear and convincing evidence, complete information about the location and cost of the physical assets of the lower pass-through entity is not available to the upper level pass-through entity, then solely for purposes of ascertaining if a gain or loss constitutes a qualifying trust amount, the upper level pass-through entity shall be deemed as owning no equity of the lower level pass-through entity for each day during the upper level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year in which or with which ends the lower level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year. Nothing in division (BB)(5)(a)(iii) of this section shall be construed to provide for any deduction or exclusion in computing any trust's Ohio taxable income.

(b) With respect to a trust that is not a resident for the taxable year and with respect to a part of a trust that is not a resident for the taxable year, "qualifying investee" for that taxable year does not include a C corporation if both of the following apply:

(i) During the taxable year the trust or part of the trust recognizes a gain or loss from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of equity or ownership interests in, or debt obligations of, the C corporation.

(ii) Such gain or loss constitutes nonbusiness income.

(6) "Available" means information is such that a person is able to learn of the information by the due date plus extensions, if any, for filing the return for the taxable year in which the trust recognizes the gain or loss.

(CC) "Qualifying controlled group" has the same meaning as in section 5733.04 of the Revised Code.

(DD) "Related member" has the same meaning as in section 5733.042 of
the Revised Code.

(EE)(1) For the purposes of division (EE) of this section:

   (a) "Qualifying person" means any person other than a qualifying corporation.

   (b) "Qualifying corporation" means any person classified for federal income tax purposes as an association taxable as a corporation, except either of the following:

   (i) A corporation that has made an election under subchapter S, chapter one, subtitle A, of the Internal Revenue Code for its taxable year ending within, or on the last day of, the investor's taxable year;

   (ii) A subsidiary that is wholly owned by any corporation that has made an election under subchapter S, chapter one, subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code for its taxable year ending within, or on the last day of, the investor's taxable year.

   (2) For the purposes of this chapter, unless expressly stated otherwise, no qualifying person indirectly owns any asset directly or indirectly owned by any qualifying corporation.

   (FF) For purposes of this chapter and Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code:

   (1) "Trust" does not include a qualified pre-income tax trust.

   (2) A "qualified pre-income tax trust" is any pre-income tax trust that makes a qualifying pre-income tax trust election as described in division (FF)(3) of this section.

   (3) A "qualifying pre-income tax trust election" is an election by a pre-income tax trust to subject to the tax imposed by section 5751.02 of the Revised Code the pre-income tax trust and all pass-through entities of which the trust owns or controls, directly, indirectly, or constructively through related interests, five per cent or more of the ownership or equity interests. The trustee shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the election on or before April 15, 2006. The election, if timely made, shall be effective on and after January 1, 2006, and shall apply for all tax periods and tax years until revoked by the trustee of the trust.

   (4) A "pre-income tax trust" is a trust that satisfies all of the following requirements:

      (a) The document or instrument creating the trust was executed by the grantor before January 1, 1972;

      (b) The trust became irrevocable upon the creation of the trust; and

      (c) The grantor was domiciled in this state at the time the trust was created.

Sec. 5747.13. (A) If any employer collects the tax imposed by section 5747.02 or under Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code and fails to remit the tax as required by law, or fails to collect the tax, the employer is personally liable for any amount collected that the employer fails to remit, or any amount that the employer fails to collect. If any taxpayer fails to file a return or fails to pay the tax imposed by section 5747.02 or under Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code, the taxpayer is personally liable for the amount of the tax.

If any employer, taxpayer, or qualifying entity required to file a return under this chapter fails to file the return within the time prescribed, files an incorrect return, fails to remit the full amount of the taxes due for the period covered by the return, or fails to remit any additional tax due as a result of a reduction in the amount of the credit allowed under division (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code together with interest on the additional tax within the time prescribed by that division, the tax commissioner may make an assessment against any person liable for any deficiency for the period for which the return is or taxes are due, based upon any information in the commissioner's possession.

An assessment issued against either the employer or the taxpayer pursuant to this section shall not be considered an election of remedies or a bar to an assessment against the other for failure to report or pay the same tax. No assessment shall be issued against any person if the tax actually has been paid by another.

No assessment shall be made or issued against an employer, taxpayer, or qualifying entity more than four years after the final date the return subject to assessment was required to be filed or the date the return was filed, whichever is later. However, the commissioner may assess any balance due as the result of a reduction in the credit allowed under division (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code, including applicable penalty and interest, within four years of the date on which the taxpayer reports a change in either the portion of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income subjected to an income tax or tax measured by income in another state or the District of Columbia, or the amount of liability for an income tax or tax measured by income to another state or the District of Columbia, as required by division (B)(3) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code. Such time limits may be extended if both the employer, taxpayer, or qualifying entity and the commissioner consent in writing to the extension or if an agreement waiving or extending the time limits has been entered into pursuant to section 122.171 of the Revised Code. Any such extension shall extend the four-year time limit in division (B) of section 5747.11 of the Revised Code for the same period of time. There shall be no bar or limit to an assessment against an employer for taxes withheld from employees and not remitted to the state, against an employer, taxpayer, or qualifying entity that fails to file a return subject to assessment as required by this chapter, or against an employer, taxpayer, or qualifying entity that files a fraudulent return.

Am. Sub. H. B. No. 1 128th G.A.

The commissioner shall give the party assessed written notice of the assessment in the manner provided in section 5703.37 of the Revised Code. With the notice, the commissioner shall provide instructions on how to petition for reassessment and request a hearing on the petition.

(B) Unless the party assessed files with the tax commissioner within sixty days after service of the notice of assessment, either personally or by certified mail, a written petition for reassessment, signed by the party assessed or that party's authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, the assessment becomes final, and the amount of the assessment is due and payable from the party assessed to the commissioner with remittance made payable to the treasurer of state. The petition shall indicate the objections of the party assessed, but additional objections may be raised in writing if received by the commissioner prior to the date shown on the final determination. If the petition has been properly filed, the commissioner shall proceed under section 5703.60 of the Revised Code.

(C) After an assessment becomes final, if any portion of the assessment remains unpaid, including accrued interest, a certified copy of the tax commissioner's entry making the assessment final may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas in the county in which the employer's, taxpayer's, or qualifying entity's place of business is located or the county in which the party assessed resides. If the party assessed is not a resident of this state, the certified copy of the entry may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas of Franklin county.

Immediately upon the filing of the entry, the clerk shall enter a judgment against the party assessed in the amount shown on the entry. The judgment shall be filed by the clerk in one of two loose-leaf books, one entitled "special judgments for state and school district income taxes," and the other entitled "special judgments for qualifying entity taxes." The judgment shall have the same effect as other judgments. Execution shall issue upon the judgment upon the request of the tax commissioner, and all laws applicable to sales on execution shall apply to sales made under the judgment.

The portion of the assessment not paid within sixty days after the assessment was issued shall bear interest at the rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code from the day the tax commissioner issues the assessment until it is paid. Interest shall be paid in the same manner as the tax and may be collected by the issuance of an assessment under this section.

(D) All money collected under this section shall be considered as revenue arising from the taxes imposed by this chapter or Chapter 5733, or 5748, of the Revised Code, as appropriate.

(E) The portion of an assessment that must be paid upon the filing of a petition for reassessment shall be as follows:

(1) If the sole item objected to is the assessed penalty or interest, payment of the assessment, including interest but not penalty, is required;

(2) If the taxpayer or qualifying entity that is assessed failed to file, prior to the date of issuance of the assessment, the annual return or report required by section 5747.08 or 5747.42 of the Revised Code, any amended return or amended report required by section 5747.10 or 5747.45 of the Revised Code for the taxable year at issue, or any report required by division (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code to indicate a reduction in the amount of the credit provided under that division, payment of the assessment, including interest but not penalty, is required, except as otherwise provided under division (E)(6) or (7) of this section;

(3) If the employer assessed had not filed, prior to the date of issuance of the assessment, the annual return required by division (E)(2) of section 5747.07 of the Revised Code covering the period at issue, payment of the assessment, including interest but not penalty, is required;

(4) If the taxpayer or qualifying entity that is assessed filed, prior to the date of issuance of the assessment, the annual return or report required by section 5747.08 or 5747.42 of the Revised Code, all amended returns or reports required by section 5747.10 or 5747.45 of the Revised Code for the taxable year at issue, and all reports required by division (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code to indicate a reduction in the amount of the credit provided under that division, and a balance of the taxes shown due on the returns or reports as computed on the returns or reports remains unpaid, payment of only that portion of the assessment representing the unpaid balance of tax and interest is required;

(5) If the employer assessed filed, prior to the date of issuance of the assessment, the annual return required by division (E)(2) of section 5747.07 of the Revised Code covering the period at issue, and a balance of the taxes shown due on the return as computed on the return remains unpaid, payment of only that portion of the assessment representing the unpaid balance of tax and interest is required;

(6) In the case of a party assessed as a qualifying entity subject to the tax levied under section 5733.41 or 5747.41 of the Revised Code, if the party does not dispute that it is a qualifying entity subject to that tax but

(7) In the case of a party assessed as a qualifying entity subject to the tax levied under section 5733.41 or 5747.41 of the Revised Code, if the party does dispute that it is a qualifying entity subject to that tax, no payment is required.

(8) If none of the conditions specified in divisions (E)(1) to (7) of this section apply, no payment is required If the party assessed files a petition for reassessment under division (B) of this section, the person, on or before the last day the petition may be filed, shall pay the assessed amount, including assessed interest and assessed penalties, if any of the following conditions exists:

1. The person files a tax return reporting Ohio adjusted gross income, less the exemptions allowed by section 5747.025 of the Revised Code, in an amount less than one cent, and the reported amount is not based on the computations required under division (A) of section 5747.01 or section 5747.025 of the Revised Code.

2. The person files a tax return that the tax commissioner determines to be incomplete, false, fraudulent, or frivolous.

3. The person fails to file a tax return, and the basis for this failure is not either of the following:
   a. An assertion that the person has no nexus with this state;
   b. The computations required under division (A) of section 5747.01 of the Revised Code or the application of credits allowed under this chapter has the result that the person's tax liability is less than one dollar and one cent.

(F) Notwithstanding the fact that a petition for reassessment is pending, the petitioner may pay all or a portion of the assessment that is the subject of the petition. The acceptance of a payment by the treasurer of state does not prejudice any claim for refund upon final determination of the petition.

If upon final determination of the petition an error in the assessment is corrected by the tax commissioner, upon petition so filed or pursuant to a decision of the board of tax appeals or any court to which the determination or decision has been appealed, so that the amount due from the party assessed under the corrected assessment is less than the portion paid, there shall be issued to the petitioner or to the petitioner's assigns or legal representative a refund in the amount of the overpayment as provided by section 5747.11 of the Revised Code, with interest on that amount as provided by such section, subject to section 5747.12 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5747.16. Any nonresident who accepts the privileges extended by the laws of this state to nonresidents earning or receiving income in this state, and any resident who becomes a nonresident or conceals his person's whereabouts thereby makes the secretary of state his person's agent for the service of process or notice in any assessment, action, or proceedings instituted in this state against such person under this chapter, such process or notice shall be served by the officer to whom the same is directed by the tax commissioner, or by the sheriff of Franklin county, who may be deputized for such purpose by the officer to whom the service is directed, upon the secretary of state by leaving at the secretary's office at least fifteen days before the return day of such process or notice, a true and attested copy thereof, and by sending to the defendant by certified mail, postage prepaid, a like and true attested copy, with an endorsement thereon of the service upon the secretary of state, addressed to such defendant at his last known address as provided under section 5703.37 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5747.18. The tax commissioner shall enforce and administer this chapter. In addition to any other powers conferred upon the commissioner by law, the commissioner may:

(A) Prescribe all forms required to be filed pursuant to this chapter;
(B) Adopt such rules as the commissioner finds necessary to carry out this chapter;
(C) Appoint and employ such personnel as are necessary to carry out the duties imposed upon the commissioner by this chapter.

Any information gained as the result of returns, investigations, hearings, or verifications required or authorized by this chapter is confidential, and no person shall disclose such information, except for official purposes, or as provided by section 3125.43, 4123.271, 4123.591, 4507.023, or 5101.182, division (B) of section or 5703.21 of the Revised Code, or in accordance with a proper judicial order. The tax commissioner may furnish the internal revenue service with copies of returns or reports filed and may furnish the officer of a municipal corporation charged with the duty of enforcing a tax subject to Chapter 718. of the Revised Code with the names, addresses, and identification numbers of taxpayers who may be subject to such tax. A municipal corporation shall use this information for tax collection purposes only. This section does not prohibit the publication of statistics in a form which does not disclose information with respect to individual taxpayers.

Sec. 5747.66. (A) Any term used in this section has the same meaning as in section 122.85 of the Revised Code.
(B) There is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by section 5747.02 of the Revised Code for any individual who, on the last day of the individual's taxable year, is the certificate owner of a tax credit certificate issued under section 122.85 of the Revised Code. The credit shall be claimed for the taxable year that includes the date the certificate was issued by the director of development. The credit amount equals the amount stated in the certificate. The credit shall be claimed in the order required under section 5747.98 of the Revised Code. If the credit amount exceeds the tax otherwise due under section 5747.02 of the Revised Code after deducting all other credits in that order, the excess shall be refunded.

Nothing in this section limits or disallows pass-through treatment of the credit.

Sec. 5747.76. (A) As used in this section, "certificate owner" has the same meaning as in section 149.311 of the Revised Code.

(B) There is allowed a credit against the tax imposed under section 5747.02 of the Revised Code for a taxpayer that is the certificate owner of a rehabilitation tax credit certificate issued under section 149.311 of the Revised Code. The credit shall equal twenty-five per cent of the dollar amount indicated on the certificate, but the amount of credit allowed for any taxpayer shall not exceed five million dollars. The credit shall be claimed for the taxable year specified in the certificate and in the order required under section 5747.98 of the Revised Code.

(C) Nothing in this section limits or disallows pass-through treatment of the credit if the certificate owner is a pass-through entity. If the certificate owner is a pass-through entity, the amount of the credit allowed for the pass-through entity shall not exceed five million dollars. If the certificate owner is a pass-through entity, the credit may be allocated among the entity's equity owners in proportion to their ownership interests or in such proportions or amounts as the equity owners mutually agree.

(D) If the credit allowed for any taxable year exceeds the tax otherwise due under section 5747.02 of the Revised Code, after allowing for any other credits preceding the credit in the order prescribed by section 5747.98 of the Revised Code, the excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer but, if any amount of the credit is refunded, the sum of the amount refunded and the amount applied to reduce the tax otherwise due for that year shall not exceed three million dollars or, if the certificate owner is a pass-through entity, shall not exceed the taxpayer's distributive or proportionate share, as allocated under division (C) of this section, of three million dollars. The taxpayer may carry forward any balance of the credit in excess of the amount claimed for that year for not more than five ensuing taxable years, and shall deduct any amount claimed for any such year from the amount claimed in an ensuing year.

(E) A taxpayer claiming a credit under this section shall retain the rehabilitation tax credit certificate for four years following the end of the
Sec. 5747.98. (A) To provide a uniform procedure for calculating the amount of tax due under section 5747.02 of the Revised Code, a taxpayer shall claim any credits to which the taxpayer is entitled in the following order:

(1) The retirement income credit under division (B) of section 5747.055 of the Revised Code;
(2) The senior citizen credit under division (C) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code;
(3) The lump sum distribution credit under division (D) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code;
(4) The dependent care credit under section 5747.054 of the Revised Code;
(5) The lump sum retirement income credit under division (C) of section 5747.055 of the Revised Code;
(6) The lump sum retirement income credit under division (D) of section 5747.055 of the Revised Code;
(7) The lump sum retirement income credit under division (E) of section 5747.055 of the Revised Code;
(8) The low-income credit under section 5747.056 of the Revised Code;
(9) The credit for displaced workers who pay for job training under section 5747.27 of the Revised Code;
(10) The campaign contribution credit under section 5747.29 of the Revised Code;
(11) The twenty-dollar personal exemption credit under section 5747.022 of the Revised Code;
(12) The joint filing credit under division (G) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code;
(13) The nonresident credit under division (A) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code;
(14) The credit for a resident's out-of-state income under division (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code;
(15) The credit for employers that enter into agreements with child day-care centers under section 5747.34 of the Revised Code;
(16) The credit for employers that reimburse employee child care expenses under section 5747.36 of the Revised Code;
(17) The credit for adoption of a minor child under section 5747.37 of the Revised Code;
The credit for purchases of lights and reflectors under section 5747.38 of the Revised Code;
(19) The job retention credit under division (B) of section 5747.058 of the Revised Code;
(20) The credit for selling alternative fuel under section 5747.77 of the Revised Code;
(21) The second credit for purchases of new manufacturing machinery and equipment and the credit for using Ohio coal under section 5747.31 of the Revised Code;
(22) The job training credit under section 5747.39 of the Revised Code;
(23) The enterprise zone credit under section 5709.66 of the Revised Code;
(24) The credit for the eligible costs associated with a voluntary action under section 5747.32 of the Revised Code;
(25) The credit for employers that establish on-site child day-care centers under section 5747.35 of the Revised Code;
(26) The ethanol plant investment credit under section 5747.75 of the Revised Code;
(27) The credit for purchases of qualifying grape production property under section 5747.28 of the Revised Code;
(28) The export sales credit under section 5747.057 of the Revised Code;
(29) The credit for research and development and technology transfer investors under section 5747.33 of the Revised Code;
(30) The enterprise zone credits under section 5709.65 of the Revised Code;
(31) The research and development credit under section 5747.331 of the Revised Code;
(32) The credit for rehabilitating a historic building under section 5747.76 of the Revised Code;
(33) The refundable credit for rehabilitating a historic building under section 5747.76 of the Revised Code;
(34) The refundable jobs creation credit under division (A) of section 5747.058 of the Revised Code;
(35) The refundable credit for taxes paid by a qualifying entity granted under section 5747.059 of the Revised Code;
(36) The refundable credits for taxes paid by a qualifying pass-through entity granted under division (J) of section 5747.08 of the Revised Code;
(37) The refundable credit for tax withheld under division (B)(1) of section 5747.062 of the Revised Code;
The refundable credit under section 5747.80 of the Revised Code for losses on loans made to the Ohio venture capital program under sections 150.01 to 150.10 of the Revised Code;

The refundable motion picture production credit under section 5747.66 of the Revised Code.

(B) For any credit, except the refundable credits enumerated in divisions (A)(33) to (38) of this section and the credit granted under division (I) of section 5747.08 of the Revised Code, the amount of the credit for a taxable year shall not exceed the tax due after allowing for any other credit that precedes it in the order required under this section. Any excess amount of a particular credit may be carried forward if authorized under the section creating that credit. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to allow a taxpayer to claim, directly or indirectly, a credit more than once for a taxable year.

Sec. 5748.02. (A) The board of education of any school district, except a joint vocational school district, may declare, by resolution, the necessity of raising annually a specified amount of money for school district purposes. The resolution shall specify whether the income that is to be subject to the tax is taxable income of individuals and estates as defined in divisions (E)(1)(a) and (2) of section 5748.01 of the Revised Code or taxable income of individuals as defined in division (E)(1)(b) of that section. A copy of the resolution shall be certified to the tax commissioner no later than eighty-five days prior to the date of the election at which the board intends to propose a levy under this section. Upon receipt of the copy of the resolution, the tax commissioner shall estimate both of the following:

1. The property tax rate that would have to be imposed in the current year by the district to produce an equivalent amount of money;
2. The income tax rate that would have had to have been in effect for the current year to produce an equivalent amount of money from a school district income tax.

Within ten days of receiving the copy of the board's resolution, the commissioner shall prepare these estimates and certify them to the board. Upon receipt of the certification, the board may adopt a resolution proposing an income tax under division (B) of this section at the estimated rate contained in the certification rounded to the nearest one-fourth of one per cent. The commissioner's certification applies only to the board's proposal to levy an income tax at the election for which the board requested the certification. If the board intends to submit a proposal to levy an income tax at any other election, it shall request another certification for that election in the manner prescribed in this division.
(B)(1) Upon the receipt of a certification from the tax commissioner under division (A) of this section, a majority of the members of a board of education may adopt a resolution proposing the levy of an annual tax for school district purposes on school district income. The proposed levy may be for a continuing period of time or for a specified number of years. The resolution shall set forth the purpose for which the tax is to be imposed, the rate of the tax, which shall be the rate set forth in the commissioner's certification rounded to the nearest one-fourth of one per cent, the number of years the tax will be levied or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time, the date on which the tax shall take effect, which shall be the first day of January of any year following the year in which the question is submitted, and the date of the election at which the proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the district, which shall be on the date of a primary, general, or special election the date of which is consistent with section 3501.01 of the Revised Code. The resolution shall specify whether the income that is to be subject to the tax is taxable income of individuals and estates as defined in divisions (E)(1)(a) and (2) of section 5748.01 of the Revised Code or taxable income of individuals as defined in division (E)(1)(b) of that section. The specification shall be the same as the specification in the resolution adopted and certified under division (A) of this section.

If the tax is to be levied for current expenses and permanent improvements, the resolution shall apportion the annual rate of the tax. The apportionment may be the same or different for each year the tax is levied, but the respective portions of the rate actually levied each year for current expenses and for permanent improvements shall be limited by the apportionment.

If the board of education currently imposes an income tax pursuant to this chapter that is due to expire and a question is submitted under this section for a proposed income tax to take effect upon the expiration of the existing tax, the board may specify in the resolution that the proposed tax renews the expiring tax and is not an additional income tax, provided that two or more expiring income taxes may be renewed under this paragraph if the taxes are due to expire on the same date. If the tax rate being proposed is no higher than the total tax rate that is currently imposed by the expiring tax or taxes, the resolution may state that the proposed tax is not an additional income tax.

(2) A board of education adopting a resolution under division (B)(1) of this section proposing a school district income tax for a continuing period of time and limited to the purpose of current expenses may propose in that resolution to reduce the rate or rates of one or more of the school district's property taxes levied for a continuing period of time in excess of the ten-mill limitation for the purpose of current expenses. The reduction in the rate of a property tax may be any amount, expressed in mills per one dollar in valuation, not exceeding the rate at which the tax is authorized to be levied. The reduction in the rate of a tax shall first take effect for the tax year that includes the day on which the school district income tax first takes effect, and shall continue for each tax year that both the school district income tax and the property tax levy are in effect.

In addition to the matters required to be set forth in the resolution under division (B)(1) of this section, a resolution containing a proposal to reduce the rate of one or more property taxes shall state for each such tax the maximum rate at which it currently may be levied and the maximum rate at which the tax could be levied after the proposed reduction, expressed in mills per one dollar in valuation, and that the tax is levied for a continuing period of time.

If a board of education proposes to reduce the rate of one or more property taxes under division (B)(2) of this section, the board, when it makes the certification required under division (A) of this section, shall designate the specific levy or levies to be reduced, the maximum rate at which each levy currently is authorized to be levied, and the rate by which each levy is proposed to be reduced. The tax commissioner, when making the certification to the board under division (A) of this section, also shall certify the reduction in the total effective tax rate for current expenses for each class of property that would have resulted if the proposed reduction in the rate or rates had been in effect the previous tax year. As used in this paragraph, "effective tax rate" has the same meaning as in section 323.08 of
 the Revised Code.

(C) A resolution adopted under division (B) of this section shall go into immediate effect upon its passage, and no publication of the resolution shall be necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. Immediately after its adoption and at least seventy-five days prior to the election at which the question will appear on the ballot, a copy of the resolution shall be certified to the board of elections of the proper county, which shall submit the proposal to the electors on the date specified in the resolution. The form of the ballot shall be as provided in section 5748.03 of the Revised Code. Publication of notice of the election shall be made in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the election, and, if the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, the board of elections shall post notice of the election on its web site for thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall contain the time and place of the election and the question to be submitted to the electors. The question covered by the resolution shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election, other than the election of officers.

(D) No board of education shall submit the question of a tax on school district income to the electors of the district more than twice in any calendar year. If a board submits the question twice in any calendar year, one of the elections on the question shall be held on the date of the general election.

(E)(1) No board of education may submit to the electors of the district the question of a tax on school district income on the taxable income of individuals as defined in division (E)(1)(b) of section 5748.01 of the Revised Code if that tax would be in addition to an existing tax on the taxable income of individuals and estates as defined in divisions (E)(1)(a) and (2) of that section.

(2) No board of education may submit to the electors of the district the question of a tax on school district income on the taxable income of individuals and estates as defined in divisions (E)(1)(a) and (2) of section 5748.01 of the Revised Code if that tax would be in addition to an existing tax on the taxable income of individuals as defined in division (E)(1)(b) of that section.

Sec. 5748.03. (A) The form of the ballot on a question submitted to the electors under section 5748.02 of the Revised Code shall be as follows:

"Shall an annual income tax of ...... (state the proposed rate of tax) on the school district income of individuals and of estates be imposed by ...... (state the name of the school district), for ...... (state the number of years the tax would be levied, or that it would be levied for a continuing period of time), beginning ...... (state the date the tax would first take effect), for the purpose of ...... (state the purpose of the tax)?

<th>AGAINST THE TAX</th>

(B)(1) If the question submitted to electors proposes a school district income tax only on the taxable income of individuals as defined in division (E)(1)(b) of section 5748.01 of the Revised Code, the form of the ballot shall be modified by stating that the tax is to be levied on the "earned income of individuals residing in the school district" in lieu of the "school district income of individuals and of estates."

(2) If the question submitted to electors proposes to renew one or more expiring income tax levies, the ballot shall be modified by adding the following language immediately after the name of the school district that would impose the tax: "to renew an income tax (or income taxes) expiring at the end of ........ (state the last year the existing income tax or taxes may be levied)."

(3) If the question includes a proposal under division (B)(2) of section 5748.02 of the Revised Code to reduce the rate of one or more school district property taxes, the ballot shall state that the purpose of the school district income tax is for current expenses, and the form of the ballot shall be modified by adding the following language immediately after the statement of the purpose of the proposed income tax: ", and shall the rate of an existing tax on property, currently levied for the purpose of current expenses at the rate of ........ mills, be REDUCED to ........ mills until any such time as the income tax is repealed." In lieu of "for the tax" and "against the tax," the phrases "for the issue" and "against the issue," respectively, shall be used. If a board of education proposes a reduction in the rates of more than one tax, the ballot language shall be modified accordingly to express the rates at which those taxes currently are levied and the rates to which the taxes will be reduced.

(C) The board of elections shall certify the results of the election to the board of education and to the tax commissioner. If a majority of the electors voting on the question vote in favor of it, the income tax, the applicable provisions of Chapter 5747. of the Revised Code, and the reduction in the rate or rates of existing property taxes if the question included such a reduction shall take effect on the date specified in the resolution. If the question approved by the voters includes a reduction in the rate of a school district property tax, the board of education shall not levy the tax at a rate greater than the rate to which the tax is reduced, unless the school district income tax is repealed in an election under section 5748.04 of the Revised Code.

(D) If the rate at which a property tax is levied and collected is reduced pursuant to a question approved under this section, the tax commissioner shall compute the percentage required to be computed for that tax under division (D) of section 319.301 of the Revised Code each year the rate is reduced as if the tax had been levied in the preceding year at the rate at which it has been reduced. If the rate of a property tax increases due to the repeal of the school district income tax pursuant to section 5748.04 of the Revised Code, the tax commissioner, for the first year for which the rate increases, shall compute the percentage as if the tax in the preceding year had been levied at the rate at which the tax was authorized to be levied prior to any rate reduction.

Sec. 5749.02. (A) For the purpose of providing revenue to administer the state's coal mining and reclamation regulatory program, to meet the environmental and resource management needs of this state, and to reclaim land affected by mining, an excise tax is hereby levied on the privilege of engaging in the severance of natural resources from the soil or water of this state. The tax shall be imposed upon the severer and shall be:

1. Ten cents per ton of coal;
2. Four cents per ton of salt;
3. Two cents per ton of limestone or dolomite;
4. Two cents per ton of sand and gravel;
5. Ten cents per barrel of oil;
6. Two and one-half cents per thousand cubic feet of natural gas;
7. One cent per ton of clay, sandstone or conglomerate, shale, gypsum, or quartzite;
8. Except as otherwise provided in this division or in rules adopted by the reclamation forfeiture fund advisory board under section 1513.182 of the Revised Code, an additional fourteen cents per ton of coal produced from an area under a coal mining and reclamation permit issued under Chapter 1513. of the Revised Code for which the performance security is provided under division (C)(2) of section 1513.08 of the Revised Code. Beginning July 1, 2007, if at the end of a fiscal biennium the balance of the reclamation forfeiture fund created in section 1513.18 of the Revised Code is equal to or greater than ten million dollars, the rate levied shall be twelve cents per ton. Beginning July 1, 2007, if at the end of a fiscal biennium the balance of the fund is at least five million dollars, but less than ten million dollars, the rate levied shall be fourteen cents per ton. Beginning July 1, 2007, if at the end of a fiscal biennium the balance of the fund is less than five million dollars, the rate levied shall be sixteen cents per ton. Beginning July 1, 2009, not later than thirty days after the close of a fiscal biennium, the chief of the division of mineral resources management shall certify to the tax commissioner the amount of the balance of the reclamation forfeiture fund as of the close of the fiscal biennium. Any necessary adjustment of the rate levied shall take effect on the first day of the following January and shall remain in effect during the calendar biennium that begins on that date.
9. An additional one and two-tenths cents per ton of coal mined by surface mining methods.

(B) Of the moneys received by the treasurer of state from the tax levied in division (A)(1) of this section, four and seventy-six-hundredths per cent shall be credited to the geological mapping fund created in section 1505.09 of the Revised Code, eighty and ninety-five-hundredths per cent shall be credited to the coal mining administration and reclamation reserve fund created in section 1513.181 of the Revised Code, and fourteen and twenty-nine-hundredths per cent shall be credited to the unreclaimed lands fund created in section 1513.30 of the Revised Code.

Fifteen per cent of the moneys received by the treasurer of state from the tax levied in division (A)(2) of this section shall be credited to the geological mapping fund and the remainder shall be credited to the unreclaimed lands fund.

Of the moneys received by the treasurer of state from the tax levied in divisions (A)(3) and (4) of this section, seven and five-tenths per cent shall be credited to the geological mapping fund, forty-two and five-tenths per cent shall be credited to the unreclaimed lands fund, and the remainder shall be credited to the surface mining fund created in section 1514.06 of the Revised Code.

Of the moneys received by the treasurer of state from the tax levied in divisions (A)(5) and (6) of this section, ninety per cent shall be credited to the oil and gas well fund created in section 1509.02 of the Revised Code and ten per cent shall be credited to the geological mapping fund. All of the moneys received by the treasurer of state from the tax levied in division (A)(7) of this section shall be credited to the surface mining fund.

All of the moneys received by the treasurer of state from the tax levied in division (A)(8) of this section shall be credited to the reclamation forfeiture fund.

All of the moneys received by the treasurer of state from the tax levied in division (A)(9) of this section shall be credited to the unreclaimed lands fund.

(C) When, at the close of any fiscal year, the chief finds that the balance of the reclamation forfeiture fund, plus estimated transfers to it from the coal mining administration and reclamation reserve fund under section 1513.181 of the Revised Code, plus the estimated revenues from the tax levied by division (A)(8) of this section for the remainder of the calendar year that includes the close of the fiscal year, are sufficient to complete the reclamation of lands for which the performance security has been provided under division (C)(2) of section 1513.08 of the Revised Code, the purposes for which the tax under division (A)(8) of this section is levied shall be deemed accomplished at the end of that calendar year. The chief, within thirty days after the close of the fiscal year, shall certify those findings to the tax commissioner, and the tax levied under division (A)(8) of this section shall cease to be imposed after the last day of that calendar year on coal produced under a coal mining and reclamation permit issued under Chapter 1513. of the Revised Code if the permittee has made tax payments under division (A)(8) of this section during each of the preceding five full calendar years. Not later than thirty days after the close of a fiscal year, the chief shall certify to the tax commissioner the identity of any permittees who accordingly no longer are required to pay the tax levied under division (A)(8) of this section.

Sec. 5749.12. Any nonresident of this state who accepts the privilege extended by the laws of this state to nonresidents severing natural resources in this state, and any resident of this state who subsequently becomes a nonresident or conceals his whereabouts, makes the secretary of state his agent for the service of process or notice in any assessment, action or proceedings instituted in this state against such person under this chapter.

Such process or notice shall be served, by the officer to whom the same is directed by the tax commissioner or by the sheriff of Franklin county, who may be deputized for such purpose by the officer to whom the service is directed, upon the secretary of state by leaving at the office of the secretary of state, at least fifteen days before the return day of such process or notice, a true and attested copy thereof, and by sending to the defendant by certified mail, a like and true attested copy, with an endorsement thereon of the service upon said secretary of state, addressed to such defendant at his last known address as provided under section 5703.37 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5751.01. As used in this chapter:

(A) "Person" means, but is not limited to, individuals, combinations of individuals of any form, receivers, assignees, trustees in bankruptcy, firms, companies, joint-stock companies, business trusts, estates, partnerships, limited liability partnerships, limited liability companies, associations, joint ventures, clubs, societies, for-profit corporations, S corporations, qualified subchapter S subsidiaries, qualified subchapter S trusts, trusts, entities that are disregarded for federal income tax purposes, and any other entities. "Person" does not include nonprofit organizations or the state, its agencies, its instrumentalities, and its political subdivisions.

(B) "Consolidated elected taxpayer" means a group of two or more persons treated as a single taxpayer for purposes of this chapter as the result of an election made under section 5751.011 of the Revised Code.

(C) "Combined taxpayer" means a group of two or more persons treated as a single taxpayer for purposes of this chapter under section 5751.012 of the Revised Code.

(D) "Taxpayer" means any person, or any group of persons in the case of a consolidated elected taxpayer or combined taxpayer treated as one taxpayer, required to register or pay tax under this chapter. "Taxpayer" does not include excluded persons.

(E) "Excluded person" means any of the following:

(1) Any person with not more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars of taxable gross receipts during the calendar year. Division (E)(1) of this section does not apply to a person that is a member of a group that is a consolidated elected taxpayer or a combined taxpayer.

(2) A public utility that paid the excise tax imposed by section 5727.24 or 5727.30 of the Revised Code based on one or more measurement periods that include the entire tax period under this chapter, except that a public utility that is a combined company is a taxpayer with regard to the following gross receipts:

(a) Taxable gross receipts directly attributed to a public utility activity, but not directly attributed to an activity that is subject to the excise tax imposed by section 5727.24 or 5727.30 of the Revised Code;

(b) Taxable gross receipts that cannot be directly attributed to any activity, multiplied by a fraction whose numerator is the taxable gross receipts described in division (E)(2)(a) of this section and whose denominator is the total taxable gross receipts that can be directly attributed to any activity;

(c) Except for any differences resulting from the use of an accrual basis method of accounting for purposes of determining gross receipts under this chapter and the use of the cash basis method of accounting for purposes of determining gross receipts under section 5727.24 of the Revised Code, the gross receipts directly attributed to the activity of a natural gas company shall be determined in a manner consistent with division (D) of section 5727.03 of the Revised Code.

As used in division (E)(2) of this section, "combined company" and "public utility" have the same meanings as in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code.

(3) A financial institution, as defined in section 5725.01 of the Revised Code, that paid the corporation franchise tax charged by division (D) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code based on one or more taxable years that include the entire tax period under this chapter;

(4) A dealer in intangibles, as defined in section 5725.01 of the Revised Code, that paid the dealer in intangibles tax levied by division (D) of section 5707.03 of the Revised Code based on one or more measurement periods that include the entire tax period under this chapter;

(5) A financial holding company as defined in the "Bank Holding Company Act," 12 U.S.C. 1841(p);

(6) A bank holding company as defined in the "Bank Holding Company Act," 12 U.S.C. 1841(a);

(7) A savings and loan holding company as defined in the "Home Owners Loan Act," 12 U.S.C. 1467a(a)(1)(D) that is engaging only in activities or investments permissible for a financial holding company under 12 U.S.C. 1843(k);

(8) A person directly or indirectly owned by one or more financial institutions, financial holding companies, bank holding companies, or savings and loan holding companies described in division (E)(3), (5), (6), or (7) of this section that is engaged in activities permissible for a financial holding company under 12 U.S.C. 1843(k), except that any such person held pursuant to merchant banking authority under 12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(H) or 12 U.S.C. 1843(k)(4)(I) is not an excluded person, or a person directly or indirectly owned by one or more insurance companies described in division (E)(9) of this section that is authorized to do the business of insurance in this state.

For the purposes of division (E)(8) of this section, a person owns another person under the following circumstances:

(a) In the case of corporations issuing capital stock, one corporation owns another corporation if it owns fifty per cent or more of the other corporation's capital stock with current voting rights;

(b) In the case of a limited liability company, one person owns the company if that person's membership interest, as defined in section 1705.01 of the Revised Code, is fifty per cent or more of the combined membership interests of all persons owning such interests in the company;

(c) In the case of a partnership, trust, or other unincorporated business organization other than a limited liability company, one person owns the organization if, under the articles of organization or other instrument governing the affairs of the organization, that person has a beneficial interest in the organization's profits, surpluses, losses, or distributions of fifty per cent or more of the combined beneficial interests of all persons having such an interest in the organization;

(d) In the case of multiple ownership, the ownership interests of more than one person may be aggregated to meet the fifty per cent ownership tests in this division only when each such owner is described in division (E)(3), (5), (6), or (7) of this section and is engaged in activities permissible for a financial holding company under 12 U.S.C. 1843(k) or is a person directly or indirectly owned by one or more insurance companies described in division (E)(9) of this section that is authorized to do the business of insurance in this state.

(9) A domestic insurance company or foreign insurance company, as defined in section 5725.01 of the Revised Code, that paid the insurance company premiums tax imposed by section 5725.18 or Chapter 5729. of the Revised Code based on one or more measurement periods that include the entire tax period under this chapter;

(10) A person that solely facilitates or services one or more securitizations or similar transactions for any person described in division (E)(3), (5), (6), (7), (8), or (9) of this section. For purposes of this division, "securitization" means transferring one or more assets to one or more persons and then issuing securities backed by the right to receive payment from the asset or assets so transferred.

(11) Except as otherwise provided in this division, a pre-income tax trust as defined in division (FF)(4) of section 5747.01 of the Revised Code and any pass-through entity of which such pre-income tax trust owns or controls, directly, indirectly, or constructively through related interests, more than five per cent of the ownership or equity interests. If the pre-income tax trust has made a qualifying pre-income tax trust election under division (FF)(3) of section 5747.01 of the Revised Code, then the trust and the pass-through entities of which it owns or controls, directly, indirectly, or constructively through related interests, more than five per cent of the ownership or equity interests, shall not be excluded persons for purposes of the tax imposed under section 5751.02 of the Revised Code.

(12) Nonprofit organizations or the state and its agencies, instrumentalities, or political subdivisions.

(F) Except as otherwise provided in divisions (F)(2), (3), and (4) of this section, "gross receipts" means the total amount realized by a person, without deduction for the cost of goods sold or other expenses incurred, that contributes to the production of gross income of the person, including the fair market value of any property and any services received, and any debt transferred or forgiven as consideration.

(1) The following are examples of gross receipts:
(a) Amounts realized from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of the taxpayer's property to or with another;
(b) Amounts realized from the taxpayer's performance of services for another;
(c) Amounts realized from another's use or possession of the taxpayer's property or capital;
(d) Any combination of the foregoing amounts.
(2) "Gross receipts" excludes the following amounts:
(a) Interest income except interest on credit sales;
(b) Dividends and distributions from corporations, and distributive or proportionate shares of receipts and income from a pass-through entity as defined under section 5733.04 of the Revised Code;
(c) Receipts from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of an asset described in section 1221 or 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code, without regard to the length of time the person held the asset. Notwithstanding section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code, receipts from hedging transactions also are excluded to the extent the transactions are entered into primarily to protect a financial position, such as managing the risk of exposure to (i) foreign currency fluctuations that affect assets, liabilities, profits, losses, equity, or investments in foreign operations; (ii) interest rate fluctuations; or (iii) commodity price fluctuations. As used in division (F)(2)(c) of this section, "hedging transaction" has the same meaning as used in section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code and also includes transactions accorded hedge accounting treatment under statement of financial accounting standards number 133 of the financial accounting standards board. For the purposes of division (F)(2)(c) of this section, the actual transfer of title of real or tangible personal property to another entity is not a hedging transaction.
(d) Proceeds received attributable to the repayment, maturity, or redemption of the principal of a loan, bond, mutual fund, certificate of deposit, or marketable instrument;
(e) The principal amount received under a repurchase agreement or on account of any transaction properly characterized as a loan to the person;
(f) Contributions received by a trust, plan, or other arrangement, any of which is described in section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to which Title 26, Subtitle A, Chapter 1, Subchapter (D) of the Internal Revenue Code applies;
(g) Compensation, whether current or deferred, and whether in cash or in kind, received or to be received by an employee, former employee, or the employee's legal successor for services rendered to or for an employer, including reimbursements received by or for an individual for medical or education expenses, health insurance premiums, or employee expenses, or on account of a dependent care spending account, legal services plan, any cafeteria plan described in section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code, or any similar employee reimbursement;
(h) Proceeds received from the issuance of the taxpayer's own stock, options, warrants, puts, or calls, or from the sale of the taxpayer's treasury stock;
(i) Proceeds received on the account of payments from life insurance policies, except those proceeds received for the loss of business revenue;

(j) Gifts or charitable contributions received; membership dues received; by trade, professional, homeowners’, or condominium associations; and payments received for educational courses, meetings, meals, or similar payments to a trade, professional, or other similar association; and fundraising receipts received by any person when any excess receipts are donated or used exclusively for charitable purposes; and proceeds received by a nonprofit organization including proceeds realized with regard to its unrelated business taxable income;

(k) Damages received as the result of litigation in excess of amounts that, if received without litigation, would be gross receipts;

(l) Property, money, and other amounts received or acquired by an agent on behalf of another in excess of the agent's commission, fee, or other remuneration;

(m) Tax refunds, other tax benefit recoveries, and reimbursements for the tax imposed under this chapter made by entities that are part of the same combined taxpayer or consolidated elected taxpayer group, and reimbursements made by entities that are not members of a combined taxpayer or consolidated elected taxpayer group that are required to be made for economic parity among multiple owners of an entity whose tax obligation under this chapter is required to be reported and paid entirely by one owner, pursuant to the requirements of sections 5751.011 and 5751.012 of the Revised Code;

(n) Pension reversions;

(o) Contributions to capital;

(p) Sales or use taxes collected as a vendor or an out-of-state seller on behalf of the taxing jurisdiction from a consumer or other taxes the taxpayer is required by law to collect directly from a purchaser and remit to a local, state, or federal tax authority;

(q) In the case of receipts from the sale of cigarettes or tobacco products by a wholesale dealer, retail dealer, distributor, manufacturer, or seller, all as defined in section 5743.01 of the Revised Code, an amount equal to the federal and state excise taxes paid by any person on or for such cigarettes or tobacco products under subtitle E of the Internal Revenue Code or Chapter 5743. of the Revised Code;

(r) In the case of receipts from the sale of motor fuel by a licensed motor fuel dealer, licensed retail dealer, or licensed permissive motor fuel dealer, all as defined in section 5735.01 of the Revised Code, an amount equal to federal and state excise taxes paid by any person on such motor fuel under section 4081 of the Internal Revenue Code or Chapter 5735. of the Revised Code;

(s) In the case of receipts from the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor, as defined in section 4301.01 of the Revised Code, by a person holding a permit issued under Chapter 4301. or 4303. of the Revised Code, an amount equal to federal and state excise taxes paid by any person on or for such beer or intoxicating liquor under subtitle E of the Internal Revenue Code or Chapter 4301. or 4305. of the Revised Code;

(t) Receipts realized by a new motor vehicle dealer or used motor vehicle dealer, as defined in section 4517.01 of the Revised Code, from the sale or other transfer of a motor vehicle, as defined in that section, to another motor vehicle dealer for the purpose of resale by the transferee motor vehicle dealer, but only if the sale or other transfer was based upon the transferee's need to meet a specific customer's preference for a motor vehicle;

(u) Receipts from a financial institution described in division (E)(3) of this section for services provided to the financial institution in connection with the issuance, processing, servicing, and management of loans or credit accounts, if such financial institution and the recipient of such receipts have at least fifty per cent of their ownership interests owned or controlled, directly or constructively through related interests, by common owners;

(v) Receipts realized from administering anti-neoplastic drugs and other cancer chemotherapy, biologicals, therapeutic agents, and supportive drugs in a physician's office to patients with cancer;

(w) Funds received or used by a mortgage broker that is not a dealer in intangibles, other than fees or other consideration, pursuant to a table-funding mortgage loan or warehouse-lending mortgage loan. Terms used in division (F)(2)(w) of this section have the same meanings as in section 1322.01 of the Revised Code, except "mortgage broker" means a person assisting a buyer in obtaining a mortgage loan for a fee or other consideration paid by the buyer or a lender, or a person engaged in table-funding or warehouse-lending mortgage loans that are first lien mortgage loans.

(x) Property, money, and other amounts received by a professional employer organization, as defined in section 4125.01 of the Revised Code, from a client employer, as defined in that section, in excess of the administrative fee charged by the professional employer organization to the client employer;

(y) In the case of amounts retained as commissions by a permit holder under Chapter 3769. of the Revised Code, an amount equal to the amounts specified under that chapter that must be paid to or collected by the tax commissioner as a tax and the amounts specified under that chapter to be used as purse money;

(z) Qualifying distribution center receipts.

(i) For purposes of division (F)(2)(z) of this section:

(I) "Qualifying distribution center receipts" means receipts of a supplier from qualified property that is delivered to a qualified distribution center, multiplied by a quantity that equals one minus the Ohio delivery percentage.

(II) "Qualified property" means tangible personal property delivered to a qualified distribution center that is shipped to that qualified distribution center solely for further shipping by the qualified distribution center to another location in this state or elsewhere. "Further shipping" includes storing and repackaging such property into smaller or larger bundles, so long as such property is not subject to further manufacturing or processing.

(III) "Qualified distribution center" means a warehouse or other similar facility in this state that, for the qualifying year, is operated by a person that is not part of a combined taxpayer group and that has a qualifying certificate. However, all warehouses or other similar facilities that are operated by persons in the same taxpayer group and that are located within one mile of each other shall be treated as one qualified distribution center.

(IV) "Qualifying year" means the calendar year to which the qualifying certificate applies.

(V) "Qualifying period" means the period of the first day of July of the second year preceding the qualifying year through the thirtieth day of June of the year preceding the qualifying year.

(VI) "Qualifying certificate" means the certificate issued by the tax commissioner after the operator of a distribution center files an annual application approved by the tax commissioner from an operator of a distribution center that has filed an application as prescribed by the commissioner and paid the annual fee for the qualifying certificate on or before the first day of September prior to the qualifying year or forty-five days after the opening of the distribution center, whichever is later with the commissioner. The application and annual fee shall be filed and paid for each qualified distribution center on or before the first day of September before the qualifying year or within forty-five days after the distribution center opens, whichever is later.

The applicant must substantiate to the commissioner's satisfaction that, for the qualifying period, all persons operating the distribution center have more than fifty per cent of the cost of the qualified property shipped to a location such that it would be sitused outside this state under the provisions of division (E) of section 5751.033 of the Revised Code. The applicant must also substantiate that the distribution center cumulatively had costs from its suppliers equal to or exceeding five hundred million dollars during the qualifying period. (For purposes of division (F)(2)(z)(i)(VI) of this section, "supplier" excludes any person that is part of the consolidated elected taxpayer group, if applicable, of the operator of the qualified distribution center.) The commissioner may require the applicant to have an independent certified public accountant certify that the calculation of the minimum thresholds required for a qualified distribution center by the operator of a distribution center has been made in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The commissioner shall issue or deny the issuance of a certificate within sixty days after the receipt of the application. A denial is subject to appeal under section 5717.02 of the Revised Code. If the operator files a timely appeal under section 5717.02 of the Revised Code, the operator shall be granted a qualifying certificate, provided that the operator is liable for any tax, interest, or penalty upon amounts claimed as qualifying distribution center receipts, other than those receipts exempt under division (C)(1) of section 5751.011 of the Revised Code, that would have otherwise not been owed by its suppliers if the qualifying certificate was valid.

(VII) "Ohio delivery percentage" means the proportion of the total property delivered to a destination inside Ohio from the qualified distribution center during the qualifying period compared with total deliveries from such distribution center everywhere during the qualifying period.

(ii) If the distribution center is new and was not open for the entire qualifying period, the operator of the distribution center may request that the commissioner grant a qualifying certificate. If the certificate is granted and it is later determined that more than fifty per cent of the qualified property during that year was not shipped to a location such that it would be sitused outside of this state under the provisions of division (E) of section 5751.033 of the Revised Code or if it is later determined that the person that operates the distribution center had average monthly costs from its suppliers of less than forty million dollars during that year, then the operator of the distribution center shall be liable for any tax, interest, or penalty upon amounts claimed as qualifying distribution center receipts, other than those receipts exempt under division (C)(1) of section 5751.011 of the Revised Code, that would have not otherwise been owed by its suppliers during the qualifying year if the qualifying certificate was valid. (For purposes of division (F)(2)(z)(ii) of this section, "supplier" excludes any person that is part of the consolidated elected taxpayer group, if applicable, of the operator of the qualified distribution center.)

(iii) When filing an application for a qualifying certificate under division (F)(2)(z)(i)(VI) of this section, the operator of a qualified distribution center also shall provide documentation, as the commissioner requires, for the commissioner to ascertain the Ohio delivery percentage. The commissioner, upon issuing the qualifying certificate, also shall certify the Ohio delivery percentage. The operator of the qualified distribution center may appeal the commissioner's certification of the Ohio delivery percentage in the same manner as an appeal is taken from the denial of a qualifying certificate under division (F)(2)(z)(i)(VI) of this section.

Within thirty days after all appeals have been exhausted, the operator of the qualified distribution center shall notify the affected suppliers of qualified property that such suppliers are required to file, within sixty days after receiving notice from the operator of the qualified distribution center, amended reports for the impacted calendar quarter or quarters or calendar year, whichever the case may be. Any additional tax liability or tax overpayment shall be subject to interest but shall not be subject to the imposition of any penalty so long as the amended returns are timely filed. The supplier of tangible personal property delivered to the qualified distribution center shall include in its report of taxable gross receipts the receipts from the total sales of property delivered to the qualified distribution center for the calendar quarter or calendar year, whichever the case may be, multiplied by the Ohio delivery percentage for the qualifying year. Nothing in division (F)(2)(z)(iii) of this section shall be construed as imposing liability on the operator of a qualified distribution center for the tax imposed by this chapter arising from any change to the Ohio delivery percentage.

(iv) In the case where the distribution center is new and not open for the entire qualifying period, the operator shall make a good faith estimate of an Ohio delivery percentage for use by suppliers in their reports of taxable gross receipts for the remainder of the qualifying period. The operator of the facility shall disclose to the suppliers that such Ohio delivery percentage is an estimate and is subject to recalculation. By the due date of the next application for a qualifying certificate, the operator shall determine the actual Ohio delivery percentage for the estimated qualifying period and proceed as provided in division (F)(2)(z)(iii) of this section with respect to the calculation and recalculation of the Ohio delivery percentage. The supplier is required to file, within sixty days after receiving notice from the operator of the qualified distribution center, amended reports for the impacted calendar quarter or quarters or calendar year, whichever the case may be. Any additional tax liability or tax overpayment shall be subject to interest but shall not be subject to the imposition of any penalty so long as the amended returns are timely filed.

(v) Qualifying certificates and Ohio delivery percentages issued by the commissioner shall be open to public inspection and shall be timely published by the commissioner. A supplier relying in good faith on a certificate issued under this division shall not be subject to tax on the qualifying distribution center receipts under division (F)(2)(z) of this section. A person receiving a qualifying certificate is responsible for paying the tax, interest, and penalty upon amounts claimed as qualifying distribution center receipts that would not otherwise have been owed by the supplier if the qualifying certificate were available when it is later determined that the qualifying certificate should not have been issued because the statutory requirements were in fact not met.

(vi) The annual fee for a qualifying certificate shall be one hundred thousand dollars for each qualified distribution center. If a qualifying certificate is not issued, the annual fee is subject to refund after the exhaustion of all appeals provided for in division (F)(2)(z)(i)(VI) of this section. The fee imposed under this division may be assessed in the same manner as the tax imposed under this chapter. The first one hundred thousand dollars of the annual application fees collected each calendar year shall be credited to the commercial activity tax administrative fund. The remainder of the annual application fees collected shall be distributed in the same manner required under section 5751.20 of the Revised Code.

(vii) The tax commissioner may require that adequate security be posted by the operator of the distribution center on appeal when the commissioner disagrees that the applicant has met the minimum thresholds for a qualified distribution center as set forth in divisions (F)(2)(z)(i)(VI) and (F)(2)(z)(ii) of this section.

(aa) Receipts of an employer from payroll deductions relating to the reimbursement of the employer for advancing moneys to an unrelated third party on an employee's behalf;
   (bb) Cash discounts allowed and taken;
   (cc) Returns and allowances;
   (dd) Bad debts from receipts on the basis of which the tax imposed by this chapter was paid in a prior quarterly tax payment period. For the purpose of this division, "bad debts" means any debts that have become worthless or uncollectible between the preceding and current quarterly tax payment periods, have been uncollected for at least six months, and that may be claimed as a deduction under section 166 of the Internal Revenue
Code and the regulations adopted under that section, or that could be claimed as such if the taxpayer kept its accounts on the accrual basis. "Bad debts" does not include repossessed property, uncollectible amounts on property that remains in the possession of the taxpayer until the full purchase price is paid, or expenses in attempting to collect any account receivable or for any portion of the debt recovered:

(ee) Any amount realized from the sale of an account receivable to the extent the receipts from the underlying transaction giving rise to the account receivable were included in the gross receipts of the taxpayer;

(ff) Any receipts for which the tax imposed by this chapter is prohibited by the Constitution or laws of the United States or the Constitution of Ohio.

(3) In the case of a taxpayer when acting as a real estate broker, "gross receipts" includes only the portion of any fee for the service of a real estate broker, or service of a real estate salesperson associated with that broker, that is retained by the broker and not paid to an associated real estate salesperson or another real estate broker. For the purposes of this division, "real estate broker" and "real estate salesperson" have the same meanings as in section 4735.01 of the Revised Code.

(4) A taxpayer's method of accounting for gross receipts for a tax period shall be the same as the taxpayer's method of accounting for federal income tax purposes for the taxpayer's federal taxable year that includes the tax period. If a taxpayer's method of accounting for federal income tax purposes changes, its method of accounting for gross receipts under this chapter shall be changed accordingly.

In calculating gross receipts, the following shall be deducted to the extent included as a gross receipt in the current tax period or reported as taxable gross receipts in a prior tax period:

(a) Cash discounts allowed and taken;
(b) Returns and allowances;
(c) Bad debts. For the purposes of this division, "bad debts" mean any debts that have become worthless or uncollectible between the preceding and current quarterly tax payment periods, have been uncollected for at least six months, and may be claimed as a deduction under section 166 of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto, or that could be claimed as such if the taxpayer kept its accounts on the accrual basis. "Bad debts" does not include uncollectible amounts on property that remains in the possession of the taxpayer until the full purchase price is paid, expenses in attempting to collect any account receivable or for any portion of the debt recovered, and repossessed property;
(d) Any amount realized from the sale of an account receivable but only to the extent the receipts from the underlying transaction giving rise to the account receivable were included in the gross receipts of the taxpayer.

(G) "Taxable gross receipts" means gross receipts sitused to this state under section 5751.033 of the Revised Code.

(H) A person has "substantial nexus with this state" if any of the following applies. The person:
   (1) Owns or uses a part or all of its capital in this state;
   (2) Holds a certificate of compliance with the laws of this state authorizing the person to do business in this state;
   (3) Has bright-line presence in this state;
   (4) Otherwise has nexus with this state to an extent that the person can be required to remit the tax imposed under this chapter under the Constitution of the United States.

(I) A person has "bright-line presence" in this state for a reporting period and for the remaining portion of the calendar year if any of the following applies. The person:
   (1) Has at any time during the calendar year property in this state with an aggregate value of at least fifty thousand dollars. For the purpose of division (I)(1) of this section, owned property is valued at original cost and rented property is valued at eight times the net annual rental charge.
   (2) Has during the calendar year payroll in this state of at least fifty thousand dollars. Payroll in this state includes all of the following:
      (a) Any amount subject to withholding by the person under section 5747.06 of the Revised Code;
      (b) Any other amount the person pays as compensation to an individual under the supervision or control of the person for work done in this state; and
      (c) Any amount the person pays for services performed in this state on its behalf by another.
   (3) Has during the calendar year taxable gross receipts of at least five hundred thousand dollars.
   (4) Has at any time during the calendar year within this state at least twenty-five per cent of the person's total property, total payroll, or total gross receipts.
   (5) Is domiciled in this state as an individual or for corporate, commercial, or other business purposes.

(J) "Tangible personal property" has the same meaning as in section 5739.01 of the Revised Code.

(K) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C. 1, as amended. Any term used in this chapter that is not otherwise defined has the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes unless a different meaning is clearly required. Any reference in this chapter to the Internal Revenue Code includes other laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes.

(L) "Calendar quarter" means a three-month period ending on the thirty-first day of March, the thirtieth day of June, the thirtieth day of September, or the thirty-first day of December.

(M) "Tax period" means the calendar quarter or calendar year on the basis of which a taxpayer is required to pay the tax imposed under this chapter.

(N) "Calendar year taxpayer" means a taxpayer for which the tax period is a calendar year.

(O) "Calendar quarter taxpayer" means a taxpayer for which the tax period is a calendar quarter.

(P) "Agent" means a person authorized by another person to act on its behalf to undertake a transaction for the other, including any of the following:

1. A person receiving a fee to sell financial instruments;
2. A person retaining only a commission from a transaction with the other proceeds from the transaction being remitted to another person;
3. A person issuing licenses and permits under section 1533.13 of the Revised Code;
4. A lottery sales agent holding a valid license issued under section 3770.05 of the Revised Code;
5. A person acting as an agent of the division of liquor control under section 4301.17 of the Revised Code.

(Q) "Received" includes amounts accrued under the accrual method of accounting.

(R) "Reporting person" means a person in a consolidated elected taxpayer or combined taxpayer group that is designated by that group to legally bind the group for all filings and tax liabilities and to receive all legal notices with respect to matters under this chapter, or, for the purposes of section 5751.04 of the Revised Code, a separate taxpayer that is not a member of such a group.

Sec. 5751.011. (A) A group of two or more persons may elect to be a consolidated elected taxpayer for the purposes of this chapter if the group satisfies all of the following requirements:

1. The group elects to include all persons, including persons enumerated in divisions (E)(2) to (10) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code, having at least eighty per cent, or having at least fifty per cent, of the value of their ownership interests owned or controlled, directly or constructively through related interests, by common owners during all or any portion of the tax period, together with the common owners. At the election of the group, all entities that are not incorporated or formed under the laws of a state or of the United States and that meet the consolidated elected ownership test shall either be included in the group or all shall be excluded from the group. If, at the time of registration, the group does not include any such entities that meet the consolidated elected ownership test, the group shall elect to either include or exclude the newly acquired entities before the due date of the first return due after the date of the acquisition.

Each group shall notify the tax commissioner of the foregoing elections before the due date of the return in which the election is to become effective for the period in which the election becomes binding. If fifty per cent of the value of a person's ownership interests is owned or controlled by each of two consolidated elected taxpayer groups formed under the fifty per cent ownership or control test, that person is a member of each group for the purposes of this section, and each group shall include in the group's taxable gross receipts fifty per cent of that person's taxable gross receipts. Otherwise, all of that person's taxable gross receipts shall be included in the taxable gross receipts of the consolidated elected taxpayer group of which the person is a member. In no event shall the ownership or control of fifty per cent of the value of a person's ownership interests by two otherwise unrelated groups form the basis for consolidating the groups into a single consolidated elected taxpayer group or permit any exclusion under division (C) of this section of taxable gross receipts between members of the two groups. Division (A)(3) of this section applies with respect to the elections described in this division.

(2) The group makes the election to be treated as a consolidated elected taxpayer in the manner prescribed under division (D) of this section.

(3) Subject to review and audit by the tax commissioner, the group agrees that all of the following apply:

(a) The group shall file reports as a single taxpayer for at least the next eight calendar quarters following the election so long as at least two or more of the members of the group meet the requirements of division (A)(1) of this section.

(b) Before the expiration of the eighth such calendar quarter, the group shall notify the commissioner if it elects to cancel its designation as a consolidated elected taxpayer. If the group does not so notify the tax commissioner, the election remains in effect for another eight calendar quarters.

(c) If, at any time during any of those eight calendar quarters following the election, a former member of the group no longer meets the requirements under division (A)(1) of this section, that member shall report and pay the tax imposed under this chapter separately, as a member of a combined taxpayer, or, if the former member satisfies such requirements with respect to another consolidated elected group, as a member of that consolidated elected group.

(d) The group agrees to the application of division (B) of this section.

(B) A group of persons making the election under this section shall report and pay tax on all of the group's taxable gross receipts even if substantial nexus with this state does not exist for one or more persons in the group.

(C)(1)(a) Members of a consolidated elected taxpayer group shall exclude gross receipts among persons included in the consolidated elected taxpayer group.

(b) Subject to divisions (C)(1)(c) and (C)(2) of this section, nothing in this section shall have the effect of requiring a consolidated elected taxpayer group to include gross receipts received by a person enumerated in divisions (E)(2) to (10) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code if that person is a member of the group pursuant to the elections made by the group under division (A)(1) of this section.

(c)(i) As used in division (C)(1)(c) of this section, "dealer transfer" means a transfer of property that satisfies both of the following: (I) the property is directly transferred by any means from one member of the group to another member of the group that is a dealer in intangibles but is not a qualifying dealer as defined in section 5725.24 of the Revised Code; and (II) the property is subsequently delivered by the dealer in intangibles to a person that is not a member of the group.

(ii) In the event of a dealer transfer, a consolidated elected taxpayer group shall not exclude, under division (C) of this section, gross receipts from the transfer described in division (C)(1)(c)(i)(I) of this section.

(2) Gross receipts related to the sale or transmission of electricity through the use of an intermediary regional transmission organization approved by the federal energy regulatory commission shall be excluded from taxable gross receipts under division (C)(1) of this section if all other requirements of that division are met, even if the receipts are from and to the same member of the group.

(D) To make the election to be a consolidated elected taxpayer, a group of persons shall notify the tax commissioner of the election in the manner prescribed by the commissioner and pay the commissioner a registration fee equal to the lesser of two hundred dollars or twenty dollars for each person in the group. No additional fee shall be imposed for the addition of new members to the group once the group has remitted a fee in the amount of two hundred dollars. The election shall be made and the fee paid before the later of the beginning of the first calendar quarter to which the election applies or November 15, 2005. The fee shall be collected and used in the same manner as provided in section 5751.04 of the Revised Code.

The election shall be made on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner for that purpose and shall be signed by one or more individuals with authority, separately or together, to make a binding election on behalf of all persons in the group.

Any person acquired or formed after the filing of the registration shall be included in the group if the person meets the requirements of division (A)(1) of this section, and the group shall notify the tax commissioner of any additions to the group with the next tax return it files with the commissioner.

(E) Each member of a consolidated elected taxpayer is jointly and severally liable for the tax imposed by this chapter and any penalties or interest thereon. The tax commissioner may require one person in the group to be the taxpayer for purposes of registration and remittance of the tax, but all members of the group are subject to assessment under section 5751.09 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5751.012. (A) All persons, other than persons enumerated in divisions (E)(2) to (10) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code, having more than fifty per cent of the value of their ownership interest owned or controlled, directly or constructively through related interests, by common owners during all or any portion of the tax period, together with the common owners, shall be members of a combined taxpayer if those persons are not members of a consolidated elected taxpayer pursuant to an election under section 5751.011 of the Revised Code.

(B) A combined taxpayer shall register, file returns, and pay taxes under this chapter as a single taxpayer.

(C) A combined taxpayer shall neither exclude taxable gross receipts between its members nor from others that are not members.

(D) A combined taxpayer shall pay to the tax commissioner a registration fee equal to the lesser of two hundred dollars or twenty dollars for each person in the group. No additional fee shall be imposed for the addition of new members to the group once the group has remitted a fee in the amount of two hundred dollars. The fee shall be timely paid before the later of the beginning of the first calendar quarter or November 15, 2005. The fee shall be collected and used in the same manner as provided in section 5751.04 of the Revised Code.

Any person acquired or formed after the filing of the registration shall be included in the group if the person meets the requirements of division (A) of this section, and the group must notify the tax commissioner of any additions with the next quarterly tax return it files with the commissioner.

(E) Each member of a combined taxpayer is jointly and severally liable for the tax imposed by this chapter and any penalties or interest thereon. The tax commissioner may require one person in the group to be the taxpayer for purposes of registration and remittance of the tax, but all members of the group are subject to assessment under section 5751.09 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5751.013. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this section:

(1) A person shall include as taxable gross receipts the value of property the person transfers into this state for the person's own use within one year after the person receives the property outside this state; and

(2) In the case of an elected a consolidated elected taxpayer group or a combined taxpayer group, the taxpayer shall include as taxable gross receipts the value of property that any of the taxpayer's members transferred into this state for the use of any of the taxpayer's members within one year after the taxpayer receives the property outside this state.

(B) Property brought into this state within one year after it is received outside this state by a person or group described in division (A)(1) or (2) of this section shall not be included as taxable gross receipts as required under those divisions if the tax commissioner ascertains that the property's receipt outside this state by the person or group followed by its transfer into this state within one year was not intended in whole or in part to avoid in whole or in part the tax imposed under this chapter.

(C) The tax commissioner may adopt rules necessary to administer this section.

Sec. 5751.014. All members of a consolidated elected taxpayer or combined taxpayer group during the tax period or periods for which additional tax, penalty, or interest is owed are jointly and severally liable for such amounts. Although the reporting person will be assessed for the liability, such amounts due may be pursued against any member of the group when a liability is certified to the attorney general under section 131.02 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5751.02. (A) For the purpose of funding the needs of this state and its local governments beginning with the tax period that commences July 1, 2005, and continuing for every tax period thereafter, there is hereby levied a commercial activity tax on each person with taxable gross receipts for the privilege of doing business in this state. For the purposes of this chapter, "doing business" means engaging in any activity, whether legal or illegal, that is conducted for, or results in, gain, profit, or income, at any time during the calendar year. Persons on which the commercial activity tax is levied include, but are not limited to, persons with substantial nexus with this state. The tax imposed under this section is not a transactional tax and is not subject to Public Law No. 86-272, 73 Stat. 555. The tax imposed under this section is in addition to any other taxes or fees imposed under the Revised Code. The tax levied under this section is imposed on the person receiving the gross receipts and is not a tax imposed directly on a purchaser. The tax imposed by this section is an annual privilege tax for the calendar year that, in the case of calendar year taxpayers, is the annual tax period and, in the case of calendar quarter taxpayers, contains all quarterly tax periods in the calendar year. A taxpayer is subject to the annual privilege tax for doing business during any portion of such calendar year.

(B) The tax imposed by this section is a tax on the taxpayer and, shall not be billed or invoiced to another person. Even if the tax or any portion thereof is billed or invoiced and separately stated, such amounts remain part of the price for purposes of the sales and use taxes levied under Chapters 5739. and 5741. of the Revised Code. Nothing in division (B) of this section prohibits a:

(1) A person from including in the price charged for a good or service an amount sufficient to recover the tax imposed by this section; or
(2) A lessor from including an amount sufficient to recover the tax imposed by this section in a lease payment charged, or from including such an amount on a billing or invoice pursuant to the terms of a written lease agreement providing for the recovery of the lessor's tax costs. The recovery of such costs shall be based on an estimate of the total tax cost of the lessor during the tax period, as the tax liability of the lessor cannot be calculated until the end of that period.

Sec. 5751.03. (A) Except as provided in divisions (B) and (D) of this section and in sections 5751.031 and 5751.032 of the Revised Code, the tax levied under this section for each tax period shall be the product of two and six-tenths mills per dollar times the remainder of the taxpayer's taxable gross receipts for the tax period after subtracting the exclusion amount provided for in division (C) of this section.

(B) Notwithstanding division (C) of this section, the tax on the first one million dollars in taxable gross receipts each calendar year shall be one hundred fifty dollars. For calendar year 2006, the tax imposed under this division shall be paid not later than May 10, 2006, by both calendar year taxpayers and calendar quarter taxpayers. For calendar years 2007 and thereafter, 2008, and 2009, the tax imposed under this division shall be paid with the fourth-quarter tax return or annual tax return for the prior calendar year by both calendar year taxpayers and calendar quarter taxpayers. For calendar years 2010 and thereafter, the tax imposed under this division shall be paid not later than the tenth day of May of each year along with the first quarter or annual tax return, as applicable.

(C)(1) Each calendar quarter taxpayer may exclude the first two hundred fifty thousand dollars of taxable gross receipts for a calendar quarter and may carry forward and apply any unused exclusion amount to the three subsequent calendar quarters. Each calendar year taxpayer may exclude the first one million dollars of taxable gross receipts for a calendar year.

(2) A taxpayer switching from a calendar year tax period to a calendar quarter tax period may, for the first quarter of the change, apply the prior calendar quarter exclusion amounts to the first calendar quarter return the taxpayer files that calendar year. The tax rate shall be based on the rate imposed that calendar quarter when the taxpayer switches from a calendar year to a calendar quarter tax period.

(D) There is hereby allowed a credit against the tax imposed under this chapter for each of the following calendar years if a transfer was made in the preceding calendar year from the general revenue fund to the commercial activity tax refund fund under division (D) of section 5751.032 of the Revised Code: calendar years 2008, 2010, and 2012. The credit is allowed for taxpayers that paid in full the tax imposed under this chapter for the calendar year in which the transfer was made. The amount of a taxpayer's credit equals the amount computed under division (D) of section 5751.032 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5751.04. (A) As used in this section, "person" includes a reporting person.

(B) Not later than the later of November 15, 2005, or thirty days after a person first has more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars in taxable gross receipts in a calendar year, each person subject to this chapter shall register with the tax commissioner on the form prescribed by the commissioner. The form shall include the following:

(1) The person's name;
(2) If applicable, the name of the state or country under the laws of which the person is incorporated;
(3) If applicable, the location of a person's principal office and the name and address of the officer or agent of the corporation in charge of the business;
(4) If applicable, the names of the person's president, secretary, treasurer, and statutory agent designated pursuant to section 1703.041 of the Revised Code, with the post office address of each;
(5) The kind of business in which the person is engaged, including applicable business or industry codes;
(6) If required by the tax commissioner, the date of the beginning of the person's annual accounting period that includes the first day of January of the taxable calendar year;
(7) If the person is not a corporation or a sole proprietor, the names of the person's owners and officers, if required by the tax commissioner;
(8) The person's federal employer identification number or numbers or, if those are not applicable, the person's social security number or equivalent;
(9) All other information that the commissioner requires to administer and enforce this chapter.

(C) Except as otherwise provided in this division, each person registering with the tax commissioner as required by division (A) of this section shall pay a registration fee. The fee shall be in the amount of fifteen dollars if a person registers electronically and twenty dollars if a person does not register electronically. The registration fee shall be paid in the manner prescribed by the tax commissioner at the same time the registration is due if a person is subject to the tax imposed under this chapter before January 1, 2006. If a person first becomes subject to the tax after that date, the registration fee is payable with the first tax period return the person is required to file as prescribed by section 5751.051 of the Revised Code. If a registration fee is not paid when due, the person does not register within the time prescribed by this section, an additional fee is imposed in the amount of one hundred dollars per month or part thereof that the fee is outstanding, not to exceed one thousand dollars. The tax commissioner may abate the additional fee. The fee imposed under this division may be assessed in the same manner as the tax imposed under this chapter. Proceeds from the fee shall be credited to the commercial activity tax administrative fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury for the commissioner to use in implementing and administering the tax imposed under this chapter.

No registration fee is payable by a person for a calendar year if the person first begins business operations in this state after the thirtieth day of November of that calendar year or if the person's taxable gross receipts for the calendar year exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars but do not exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars as of the first day of December of the calendar year.

Registration fees paid under this section, excluding any additional fee imposed for late payment of the registration fee, shall be credited against the first payment of tax payable under section 5751.03 of the Revised Code after the registration fee is paid.

(C) If a person that has registered under this section is no longer a taxpayer subject to this chapter, including no longer being a taxpayer because of the application of division (E)(1) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code, the person shall notify the commissioner that the person's registration should be cancelled.

(E) With respect to registrations received by the commissioner before the effective date of the amendment of this section by the main operating appropriations act of the 128th general assembly, the taxpayer listed as the primary taxpayer on the registration shall be the reporting person until the taxpayer notifies the commissioner otherwise.

Sec. 5751.05. (A) If a person subject to this chapter anticipates that the person's taxable gross receipts will be more than one million dollars or less in a calendar year 2006, the person may elect to be a calendar year taxpayer. If a person is not required to be registered under this section for calendar year 2006 and anticipates that the person's taxable gross receipts will be one million dollars or less in the first calendar year the person is required to register under this section, the person may elect to be a calendar year taxpayer. The person shall notify the tax commissioner on the person's initial registration form and file on a quarterly basis as a calendar quarter taxpayer. Any taxpayer with taxable gross receipts of one million dollars or less shall register as a calendar year taxpayer and shall file annually.

(B) Any person that is a calendar year taxpayer pursuant to an election under division (A) of this section shall become a calendar quarter taxpayer in the subsequent calendar year if the person's taxable gross receipts for the prior calendar year are more than one million dollars, and shall remain a calendar quarter taxpayer until the person notifies the tax commissioner, and receives approval in writing from the tax commissioner, to switch back to being a calendar year taxpayer. Nothing in this division prohibits a person that has elected to be a calendar year taxpayer from notifying the tax commissioner, using the procedures prescribed by the commissioner, that it is switching back to being a calendar quarter taxpayer.

(C) Any taxpayer that is not a calendar year quarter taxpayer pursuant to this section is a calendar quarter taxpayer. The tax commissioner may grant written approval for a calendar quarter taxpayer to use an alternative reporting schedule or estimate the amount of tax due for a calendar quarter if the taxpayer demonstrates to the commissioner the need for such a deviation. The commissioner may adopt a rule to apply division (C) of this section to a group of taxpayers without the taxpayers having to receive written approval from the commissioner.

Sec. 5751.051. (A)(1) Not later than forty days the tenth day of the second month after the end of each calendar quarter, every taxpayer other than a calendar year taxpayer shall file with the tax commissioner a tax return in such form as the commissioner prescribes. The return shall include, but is not limited to, the amount of the taxpayer's taxable gross receipts for the calendar quarter and shall indicate the amount of tax due under section 5751.03 of the Revised Code for the calendar quarter.

(2)(a) Subject to division (C) of section 5751.05 of the Revised Code, a calendar quarter taxpayer shall report the taxable gross receipts for that calendar quarter.

(b) With respect to taxable gross receipts incorrectly reported in a calendar quarter that has a lower tax rate, the tax shall be computed at the tax rate in effect for the quarterly return in which such receipts should have been reported. Nothing in division (A)(2)(b) of this section prohibits a taxpayer from filing an application for refund under section 5751.08 of the Revised Code with regard to the incorrect reporting of taxable gross receipts discovered after filing the annual return described in division (A)(3) of this section.

A tax return shall not be deemed to be an incorrect reporting of taxable gross receipts for the purposes of division (A)(2)(b) of this section if the return reflects between ninety-five and one hundred five per cent of the actual taxable gross receipts for the calendar quarter.

(3) The For the purposes of division (A)(2)(b) of this section, the tax return filed for the fourth calendar quarter of a calendar year is the annual return for the privilege tax imposed by this chapter. Such return shall report any additional taxable gross receipts not previously reported in the calendar year and shall adjust for any over-reported taxable gross receipts in the calendar year. If the taxpayer ceases to be a taxpayer before the end of the calendar year, the last return the taxpayer is required to file shall be the annual return for the taxpayer and the taxpayer shall report any additional taxable gross receipts not previously reported in the calendar year and shall adjust for any over-reported taxable gross receipts in the calendar year.

(4) Because the tax imposed by this chapter is a privilege tax, the tax rate with respect to taxable gross receipts for a calendar quarter is not fixed until the end of the measurement period for each calendar quarter. Subject to division (A)(2)(b) of this section, the total amount of taxable gross receipts reported for a given calendar quarter shall be subject to the tax rate in effect in that quarter.

(5) Not later than forty days after the tenth day of May following the end of each calendar year, every calendar year taxpayer shall file with the tax commissioner a tax return in such form as the commissioner prescribes. The return shall include, but is not limited to, the amount of the taxpayer's taxable gross receipts for the calendar year and shall indicate the amount of tax due under section 5751.03 of the Revised Code for the calendar year.

(B)(1) A person that first becomes subject to the tax imposed under this chapter shall pay the minimum tax imposed under division (B) of section 5751.03 of the Revised Code along with the registration fee imposed under this section, if applicable, on or before the day the return is required to be filed for that quarter under division (A)(1) of this section, regardless of whether the person elects to be a calendar year taxpayer under section 5751.05 of the Revised Code.

(2) The amount of the minimum tax for a person subject to division (B)(1) of this section shall be reduced to seventy-five dollars if the registration is timely filed after the first day of May and before the first day of January of the following calendar year.

Sec. 5751.06. (A) Any taxpayer that fails to file a return or pay the full amount of the tax due within the period prescribed therefor under this chapter shall pay a penalty in an amount not exceeding the greater of fifty dollars or ten per cent of the tax required to be paid for the tax period.

(B)(1) If any additional tax is found to be due, the tax commissioner may impose an additional penalty of up to fifteen per cent on the additional tax found to be due.

(2) Any delinquent payments of the tax made after a taxpayer is notified of an audit or a tax discrepancy by the commissioner is subject to the penalty imposed by division (B) of this section. If an assessment is issued under section 5751.09 of the Revised Code in connection with such delinquent payments, the payments shall be credited to the assessment.

(C) After calendar year 2008, the tax commissioner may impose an additional penalty against a taxpayer that fails to switch to being a calendar quarter taxpayer at the time it had over two million in taxable gross receipts in the calendar year, as required under section 5751.04 of the Revised Code. The penalty may be imposed in an amount not to exceed ten per cent of the tax due above two million dollars in taxable gross receipts for the calendar year. Any penalty imposed under this division is in addition to any other penalties imposed under this section.

(D) If the tax commissioner notifies a person required to register under section 5751.05 of the Revised Code of such requirement and of the requirement to remit the tax due under this chapter, and the person fails to so register and remit the tax within sixty days after such notice, the tax commissioner may impose an additional penalty of up to thirty-five per cent of the tax due. The penalty imposed under this division is in addition to any other penalties imposed under this section.

(E) The tax commissioner may collect any penalty or interest imposed by this section in the same manner as the tax imposed under this chapter. Penalties and interest so collected shall be considered as revenue arising from the tax imposed under this chapter.

(F) The tax commissioner may abate all or a portion of any penalties imposed under this section and may adopt rules governing such abatements.

(G) If any tax due is not timely paid in accordance with this chapter, the taxpayer shall pay interest, calculated at the rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code, from the date the tax payment was due to the date of payment or to the date an assessment was issued, whichever occurs first.

(H) The tax commissioner may impose a penalty of up to ten per cent for any additional tax that is due under division (A)(2)(b) of section 5751.051 of the Revised Code from a taxpayer incorrectly reporting its taxable gross receipts.

(I) If the tax commissioner discovers that a taxpayer has billed or invoiced another person for the tax imposed under this chapter in violation of division (B) of section 5751.02 of the Revised Code, the tax commissioner shall notify the taxpayer of the violation by certified mail and may impose a penalty of up to five hundred dollars. If the taxpayer subsequently bills or invoices a person for the tax imposed under this chapter, the tax commissioner shall impose a penalty of five hundred dollars.

Sec. 5751.08. (A) An application for refund to the taxpayer of the amount of taxes imposed under this chapter that are overpaid, paid illegally or erroneously, or paid on any illegal or erroneous assessment shall be filed by the reporting person with the tax commissioner, on the form prescribed by the commissioner, within four years after the date of the illegal or erroneous payment of the tax. The applicant shall provide the amount of the requested refund along with the claimed reasons for, and documentation to support, the issuance of a refund.

(B) On the filing of the refund application, the tax commissioner shall determine the amount of refund to which the applicant is entitled. If the amount is not less than that claimed, the commissioner shall certify the amount to the director of budget and management and treasurer of state for payment from the tax refund fund created under section 5703.052 of the Revised Code. If the amount is less than that claimed, the commissioner shall proceed in accordance with section 5703.70 of the Revised Code.

(C) Interest on a refund applied for under this section, computed at the rate provided for in section 5703.47 of the Revised Code, shall be allowed from the later of the date the tax was paid or when the tax payment was due.

(D) A calendar quarter taxpayer with more than one million dollars in taxable gross receipts in a calendar year other than calendar year 2005 and that is not able to exclude one million dollars in taxable gross receipts because of the operation of the taxpayer's business in that calendar year may file for a refund under this section to obtain the full exclusion of one million dollars in taxable gross receipts for that calendar year.

(E) No person with an active registration as a taxpayer under this chapter may claim a refund under this section for the tax imposed under division (B) of section 5751.03 of the Revised Code unless the person cancelled the registration before the tenth day of February May of the current calendar year pursuant to division (C) of section 5751.04 of the Revised Code.

(F) Except as provided in section 5751.091 of the Revised Code, the tax commissioner may, with the consent of the taxpayer, provide for the crediting against tax due for a tax year the amount of any refund due the taxpayer under this chapter for a preceding tax year.

Sec. 5751.09. (A) The tax commissioner may make an assessment, based on any information in the commissioner's possession, against any person that fails to file a return or pay any tax as required by this chapter.
The commissioner shall give the person assessed written notice of the assessment as provided in section 5703.37 of the Revised Code. With the notice, the commissioner shall provide instructions on the manner in which to petition for reassessment and request a hearing with respect to the petition. The commissioner shall send any assessments against consolidated elected taxpayer and combined taxpayer groups under section 5751.011 or 5751.012 of the Revised Code to the taxpayer's "reporting person" as defined under division (R) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code. The reporting person shall notify all members of the group of the assessment and all outstanding taxes, interest, and penalties for which the assessment is issued.

(B) Unless the person assessed, within sixty days after service of the notice of assessment, files with the tax commissioner, either personally or by certified mail, a written petition signed by the person or the person's authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, the assessment becomes final, and the amount of the assessment is due and payable from the person assessed to the treasurer of state. The petition shall indicate the objections of the person assessed, but additional objections may be raised in writing if received by the commissioner prior to the date shown on the final determination.

If a petition for reassessment has been properly filed, the commissioner shall proceed under section 5703.60 of the Revised Code.

(C)(1) After an assessment becomes final, if any portion of the assessment, including accrued interest, remains unpaid, a certified copy of the tax commissioner's entry making the assessment final may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas in the county in which the person resides or has its principal place of business in this state, or in the office of the clerk of court of common pleas of Franklin county.

(2) Immediately upon the filing of the entry, the clerk shall enter judgment for the state against the person assessed in the amount shown on the entry. The judgment may be filed by the clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled, "special judgments for the commercial activity tax" and shall have the same effect as other judgments. Execution shall issue upon the judgment at the request of the tax commissioner, and all laws applicable to sales on execution shall apply to sales made under the judgment.

(3) The portion of the assessment not paid within sixty days after the day the assessment was issued shall bear interest at the rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code from the day the tax commissioner issues the assessment until it is paid. Interest shall be paid in the same manner as the tax and may be collected by the issuance of an assessment under this section.

(D) If the tax commissioner believes that collection of the tax will be jeopardized unless proceedings to collect or secure collection of the tax are instituted without delay, the commissioner may issue a jeopardy assessment against the person liable for the tax. Immediately upon the issuance of the jeopardy assessment, the commissioner shall file an entry with the clerk of the court of common pleas in the manner prescribed by division (C) of this section. Notice of the jeopardy assessment shall be served on the person assessed or the person's authorized agent in the manner provided in section 5703.37 of the Revised Code within five days of the filing of the entry with the clerk. The total amount assessed is immediately due and payable, unless the person assessed files a petition for reassessment in accordance with division (B) of this section and provides security in a form satisfactory to the commissioner and in an amount sufficient to satisfy the unpaid balance of the assessment. Full or partial payment of the assessment does not prejudice the commissioner's consideration of the petition for reassessment.

(E) The tax commissioner shall immediately forward to the treasurer of state all amounts the commissioner receives under this section, and such amounts shall be considered as revenue arising from the tax imposed under this chapter.

(F) Except as otherwise provided in this division, no assessment shall be made or issued against a taxpayer for the tax imposed under this chapter more than four years after the due date for the filing of the return for the tax period for which the tax was reported, or more than four years after the return for the tax period was filed, whichever is later. Nothing in this division bars an assessment against a taxpayer that fails to file a return required by this chapter or that files a fraudulent return.

(G) If the tax commissioner possesses information that indicates that the amount of tax a taxpayer is required to pay under this chapter exceeds the amount the taxpayer paid, the tax commissioner may audit a sample of the taxpayer's gross receipts over a representative period of time to ascertain the amount of tax due, and may issue an assessment based on the audit. The tax commissioner shall make a good faith effort to reach agreement with the taxpayer in selecting a representative sample. The tax commissioner may apply a sampling method only if the commissioner has prescribed the method by rule.

(H) If the whereabouts of a person subject to this chapter is not known to the tax commissioner, the secretary of state is hereby deemed to be that person's agent for purposes of service of process of notice of any assessment, action, or proceedings instituted in this state against the person under this chapter. Such process or notice shall be served on such person by the commissioner or by one of the commissioner's agents by leaving at the office of the secretary of state, at least fifteen days before the return day of such process or notice, a true and attested copy of the notice, and by sending to such person by ordinary mail, with an endorsement thereon of the service upon the secretary of state, addressed to such person at the person's last known address. Commissioner shall follow the procedures under section 5703.37 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5751.20. (A) As used in sections 5751.20 to 5751.22 of the Revised Code:

(1) "School district," "joint vocational school district," "local taxing unit," "recognized valuation," "fixed-rate levy," and "fixed-sum levy" have the same meanings as used in section 5727.84 of the Revised Code.

(2) "State education aid" for a school district means the following:

(a) For fiscal years prior to fiscal year 2010, the sum of state aid amounts computed for the district under division (A) of section 3317.022 of the Revised Code, including the amounts calculated under sections 3317.029 and 3317.0217 of the Revised Code; divisions (C)(1), (C)(4), (D), (E), and (F) of section 3317.022; divisions (B), (C), and (D) of section 3317.023; divisions (L) and (N) of section 3317.024; section 3317.0216; and any unit payments for gifted student services paid under sections 3317.05, 3317.052, and 3317.053 of the Revised Code; except that, for fiscal years 2008 and 2009, the amount computed for the district under Section 269.30.80 of H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly and as that section subsequently may be amended shall be substituted for the amount computed under division (D) of section 3317.022 of the Revised Code, and the amount computed under Section 269.30.80 of H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly and as that section subsequently may be amended shall be included.

(b) For fiscal year 2010 and for each fiscal year thereafter, the sum of the amounts computed under sections 3306.052, 3306.12, 3306.13, 3306.19, 3306.191, and 3306.192 of the Revised Code.

(3) "State education aid" for a joint vocational school district means the following:

(a) For fiscal years prior to fiscal year 2010, the sum of the state aid computed for the district under division (N) of section 3317.024 and section 3317.16 of the Revised Code, except that, for fiscal years 2008 and 2009, the amount computed under Section 269.30.80 of H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly and as that section subsequently may be amended shall be
(b) For fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the amount paid in accordance with the section of this act entitled "FUNDING FOR JOINT VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICTS."

(4) "State education aid offset" means the amount determined for each school district or joint vocational school district under division (A)(1) of section 5751.21 of the Revised Code.

(5) "Machinery and equipment property tax value loss" means the amount determined under division (C)(1) of this section.

(6) "Inventory property tax value loss" means the amount determined under division (C)(2) of this section.

(7) "Furniture and fixtures property tax value loss" means the amount determined under division (C)(3) of this section.

(8) "Machinery and equipment fixed-rate levy loss" means the amount determined under division (D)(1) of this section.

(9) "Inventory fixed-rate levy loss" means the amount determined under division (D)(2) of this section.

(10) "Furniture and fixtures fixed-rate levy loss" means the amount determined under division (D)(3) of this section.

(11) "Total fixed-rate levy loss" means the sum of the machinery and equipment fixed-rate levy loss, the inventory fixed-rate levy loss, the furniture and fixtures fixed-rate levy loss, and the telephone company fixed-rate levy loss.

(12) "Fixed-sum levy loss" means the amount determined under division (E) of this section.

(13) "Machinery and equipment" means personal property subject to the assessment rate specified in division (F) of section 5711.22 of the Revised Code.

(14) "Inventory" means personal property subject to the assessment rate specified in division (E) of section 5711.22 of the Revised Code.

(15) "Furniture and fixtures" means personal property subject to the assessment rate specified in division (G) of section 5711.22 of the Revised Code.

(16) "Qualifying levies" are levies in effect for tax year 2004 or applicable to tax year 2005 or approved at an election conducted before September 1, 2005. For the purpose of determining the rate of a qualifying levy authorized by section 5705.212 or 5705.213 of the Revised Code, the rate shall be the rate that would be in effect for tax year 2010.

(17) "Telephone property" means tangible personal property of a telephone, telegraph, or interexchange telecommunications company subject

(18) "Telephone property tax value loss" means the amount determined under division (C)(4) of this section.

(19) "Telephone property fixed-rate levy loss" means the amount determined under division (D)(4) of this section.

(B) The commercial activities tax receipts fund is hereby created in the state treasury and shall consist of money arising from the tax imposed under this chapter. All money in that fund shall be credited to the tax reform system implementation fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury, and shall be used to defray the costs incurred by the department of taxation in administering the tax imposed by this chapter and in implementing tax reform measures. The remainder in the commercial activities tax receipts fund shall be credited for each fiscal year in the following percentages to the general revenue fund, to the school district tangible property tax replacement fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of making the payments described in section 5751.21 of the Revised Code, and to the local government tangible property tax replacement fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of making the payments described in section 5751.22 of the Revised Code, in the following percentages:

(C) Not later than September 15, 2005, the tax commissioner shall determine for each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit its machinery and equipment, inventory property, furniture and fixtures property, and telephone property tax value losses, which are the applicable amounts described in divisions (C)(1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, except as provided in division (C)(5) of this section:

(1) Machinery and equipment property tax value loss is the taxable value of machinery and equipment property as reported by taxpayers for tax year 2004 multiplied by:
   (a) For tax year 2006, thirty-three and eight-tenths per cent;
   (b) For tax year 2007, sixty-one and three-tenths per cent;
   (c) For tax year 2008, eighty-three per cent;
   (d) For tax year 2009 and thereafter, one hundred per cent.

(2) Inventory property tax value loss is the taxable value of inventory property as reported by taxpayers for tax year 2004 multiplied by:
   (a) For tax year 2006, a fraction, the numerator of which is five and three-fourths and the denominator of which is twenty-three;
   (b) For tax year 2007, a fraction, the numerator of which is nine and one-half and the denominator of which is twenty-three;
   (c) For tax year 2008, a fraction, the numerator of which is thirteen and one-fourth and the denominator of which is twenty-three;
   (d) For tax year 2009 and thereafter a fraction, the numerator of which is seventeen and the denominator of which is twenty-three.

(3) Furniture and fixtures property tax value loss is the taxable value of furniture and fixture property as reported by taxpayers for tax year 2004 multiplied by:
   (a) For tax year 2006, twenty-five per cent;
   (b) For tax year 2007, fifty per cent;
   (c) For tax year 2008, seventy-five per cent;
   (d) For tax year 2009 and thereafter, one hundred per cent.

The taxable value of property reported by taxpayers used in divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section shall be such values as determined to be final by the tax commissioner as of August 31, 2005. Such determinations shall be final except for any correction of a clerical error that was made prior to August 31, 2005, by the tax commissioner.

(4) Telephone property tax value loss is the taxable value of telephone property as taxpayers would have reported that property for tax year 2004 if the assessment rate for all telephone property for that year were twenty-five per cent, multiplied by:

(a) For tax year 2006, zero per cent;
(b) For tax year 2007, zero per cent;
(c) For tax year 2008, zero per cent;
(d) For tax year 2009, sixty per cent;
(e) For tax year 2010, eighty per cent;
(f) For tax year 2011 and thereafter, one hundred per cent.

(5) Division (C)(5) of this section applies to any school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit in a county in which is located a facility currently or formerly devoted to the enrichment or commercialization of uranium or uranium products, and for which the total taxable value of property listed on the general tax list of personal property for any tax year from tax year 2001 to tax year 2004 was fifty per cent or less of the taxable value of such property listed on the general tax list of personal property for the next preceding tax year.

In computing the fixed-rate levy losses under divisions (D)(1), (2), and (3) of this section for any school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit to which division (C)(5) of this section applies, the taxable value of such property as listed on the general tax list of personal property for tax year 2000 shall be substituted for the taxable value of such property as reported by taxpayers for tax year 2004, in the taxing district containing the uranium facility, if the taxable value listed for tax year 2000 is greater than the taxable value reported by taxpayers for tax year 2004. For the purpose of making the computations under divisions (D)(1), (2), and (3) of this section, the tax year 2000 valuation is to be allocated to machinery and equipment, inventory, and furniture and fixtures property in the same proportions as the tax year 2004 values. For the purpose of the calculations in division (A) of section 5751.21 of the Revised Code, the tax year 2004 taxable values shall be used.

To facilitate the calculations required under division (C) of this section, the county auditor, upon request from the tax commissioner, shall provide by August 1, 2005, the values of machinery and equipment, inventory, and furniture and fixtures for all single-county personal property taxpayers for tax year 2004.

(D) Not later than September 15, 2005, the tax commissioner shall determine for each tax year from 2006 through 2009 for each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit its machinery and equipment, inventory, and furniture and fixtures fixed-rate levy losses, and for each tax year from 2006 through 2011 its telephone property fixed-rate levy loss, which, Except as provided in division (F) of this section, such losses are the applicable amounts described in divisions (D)(1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section:

(1) The machinery and equipment fixed-rate levy loss is the machinery and equipment property tax value loss multiplied by the sum of the tax rates of fixed-rate qualifying levies.

(2) The inventory fixed-rate loss is the inventory property tax value loss multiplied by the sum of the tax rates of fixed-rate qualifying levies.

(3) The furniture and fixtures fixed-rate levy loss is the furniture and fixture property tax value loss multiplied by the sum of the tax rates of fixed-rate qualifying levies.

(4) The telephone property fixed-rate levy loss is the telephone property tax value loss multiplied by the sum of the tax rates of fixed-rate qualifying levies.

(E) Not later than September 15, 2005, the tax commissioner shall determine for each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit its fixed-sum levy loss. The fixed-sum levy loss is the amount obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (E)(2) of this section from the amount described in division (E)(1) of this section:

(1) The sum of the machinery and equipment property tax value loss, the inventory property tax value loss, and the furniture and fixtures property tax value loss, and, for 2008 through 2017 and thereafter the telephone property tax value loss of the district or unit multiplied by the sum of the fixed-sum tax rates of qualifying levies. For 2006 through 2010, this computation shall include all qualifying levies remaining in effect for the current tax year and any school district levies imposed under section 5705.194 or 5705.213 of the Revised Code that are qualifying levies not remaining in effect for the current year. For 2011 through 2017 in the case of school district levies imposed under section 5705.194 or 5705.213 of the Revised Code and for all years after 2010 in the case of other fixed-sum levies and thereafter, this computation shall include only qualifying levies remaining in effect for the current year. For purposes of this computation, a qualifying school district levy imposed under section 5705.194 or 5705.213 of the Revised Code remains in effect in a year after 2010 only if, for that year, the board of education levies a school district levy imposed under section 5705.194 or 5705.199, 5705.213, or 5705.219 of the Revised Code for an annual sum at least equal to the annual sum levied by the board in tax year 2004 less the amount of the payment certified under this division for 2006.
(2) The total taxable value in tax year 2004 less the sum of the machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone property tax value losses in each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit multiplied by one-half of one mill per dollar.

(3) For the calculations in divisions (E)(1) and (2) of this section, the tax value losses are those that would be calculated for tax year 2009 under divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section and for tax year 2011 under division (C)(4) of this section.

(4) To facilitate the calculation under divisions (D) and (E) of this section, not later than September 1, 2005, any school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit that has a qualifying levy that was approved at an election conducted during 2005 before September 1, 2005, shall certify to the tax commissioner a copy of the county auditor's certificate of estimated property tax millage for such levy as required under division (B) of section 5705.03 of the Revised Code, which is the rate that shall be used in the calculations under such divisions.

If the amount determined under division (E) of this section for any school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit is greater than zero, that amount shall equal the reimbursement to be paid pursuant to division (E) of section 5751.21 or division (A)(3) of section 5751.22 of the Revised Code, and the one-half of one mill that is subtracted under division (E)(2) of this section shall be apportioned among all contributing fixed-sum levies in the proportion that each levy bears to the sum of all fixed-sum levies within each school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit.

(F) If a school district levies a tax under section 5705.219 of the Revised Code, the fixed-rate levy loss for qualifying levies, to the extent repealed under that section, shall equal the sum of the following amounts in lieu of the amounts computed for such levies under division (D) of this section:

(1) The sum of the rates of qualifying levies to the extent so repealed multiplied by the sum of the machinery and equipment, inventory, and furniture and fixtures tax value losses for 2009 as determined under that division;

(2) The sum of the rates of qualifying levies to the extent so repealed multiplied by the telephone property tax value loss for 2011 as determined under that division.

The fixed-rate levy losses for qualifying levies to the extent not repealed under section 5705.219 of the Revised Code shall be as determined under division (D) of this section. The revised fixed-rate levy losses determined under this division and division (D) of this section first apply in the year following the first year the district levies the tax under section 5705.219 of the Revised Code.

(G) Not later than October 1, 2005, the tax commissioner shall certify to the department of education for every school district and joint vocational school district the machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone property tax value losses determined under division (C) of this section, the machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone fixed-rate levy losses determined under division (D) of this section, and the fixed-sum levy losses calculated under division (E) of this section. The calculations under divisions (D) and (E) of this section shall separately display the levy loss for each levy eligible for reimbursement.

(G)(H) Not later than October 1, 2005, the tax commissioner shall certify the amount of the fixed-sum levy losses to the county auditor of each county in which a school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit with a fixed-sum levy loss reimbursement has territory.

(I) Not later than the twenty-eighth day of February each year beginning in 2011 and ending in 2014, the tax commissioner shall certify to the department of education for each school district first levying a tax under section 5705.219 of the Revised Code in the preceding year the revised fixed-rate levy losses determined under divisions (D) and (F) of this section.

Sec. 5751.21. (A) Not later than the thirtieth day of July of 2007 through 2017 and of each year thereafter, the department of education shall consult with the director of budget and management and determine the following for each school district and each joint vocational school district eligible for payment under division (B) of this section:

(1) The state education aid offset, which is the difference obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (A)(1)(b) of this section from the amount described in division (A)(1)(a) of this section:

(a) The state education aid computed for the school district or joint vocational school district for the current fiscal year as of the thirtieth day of July;

(b) The state education aid that would be computed for the school district or joint vocational school district for the current fiscal year as of the thirtieth day of July if the recognized valuation included the machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone property tax value losses for the school district or joint vocational school district for the second preceding tax year, and if taxes charged and payable associated with the tax value losses are accounted for in any state education aid computation.
dependent on taxes charged and payable.

(2) The greater of zero or the difference obtained by subtracting the state education aid offset determined under division (A)(1) of this section from the sum of the machinery and equipment fixed-rate levy loss, the inventory fixed-rate levy loss, furniture and fixtures fixed-rate levy loss, and telephone property fixed-rate levy loss certified under division (F) divisions (G) and (I) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code for all taxing districts in each school district and joint vocational school district for the second preceding tax year.

By the thirtieth day of July of each such year, the department of education and the director of budget and management shall agree upon the amount to be determined under division (A)(1) of this section.

(B) On or before the thirty-first day of August of each year beginning in 2008, the department of education shall recalculate the offset described under division (A) of this section for the previous fiscal year and recalculate the payments made under division (C) of this section in the preceding fiscal year using the offset calculated under this division. If the payments calculated under this division differ from the payments made under division (C) of this section in the preceding fiscal year, the difference shall either be paid to a school district or recaptured from a school district through an adjustment at the same times during the current fiscal year that the payments under division (C) of this section are made. In August and October of the current fiscal year, the amount of each adjustment shall be three-sevenths of the amount calculated under this division. In May of the current fiscal year, the adjustment shall be one-seventh of the amount calculated under this division.

(C) The department of education shall pay from the school district tangible property tax replacement fund to each school district and joint vocational school district all of the following for fixed-rate levy losses certified under division (F) divisions (G) and (I) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code:

(1) On or before May 31, 2006, one-seventh of the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2006;
(2) On or before August 31, 2006, and October 31, 2006, one-half of six-sevenths of the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2006;
(3) On or before May 31, 2007, one-seventh of the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2007;
(4) On or before August 31, 2007, and October 31, 2007, forty-three per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2008, but not less than zero, plus one-half of six-sevenths of the difference between the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2007 and the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2006.

(5) On or before May 31, 2008, fourteen per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2008, but not less than zero, plus one-seventh of the difference between the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2008 and the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2006.

(6) On or before August 31, 2008, and October 31, 2008, forty-three per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2009, but not less than zero, plus one-half of six-sevenths of the difference between the total fixed-rate levy loss in tax year 2008 and the total fixed-rate levy loss in tax year 2007.

(7) On or before May 31, 2009, fourteen per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2009, but not less than zero, plus one-seventh of the difference between the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2009 and the total fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2007.

(8) On or before August 31, 2009, and October 31, 2009, forty-three per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2010, but not less than zero, plus one-half of six-sevenths of the difference between the total fixed-rate levy loss in tax year 2009 and the total fixed-rate levy loss in tax year 2008.

(9) On or before May 31, 2010, fourteen per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2010, but not less than zero, plus one-seventh of the difference between the total fixed-rate levy loss in tax year 2010 and the total fixed-rate levy loss in tax year 2009.

(10) On or before August 31, 2010, and October 31, 2010, forty-three per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2011, but not less than zero, plus one-half of six-sevenths of the difference between the telephone property fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2010 and the telephone property fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2009.

(11) On or before May 31, 2011, fourteen per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2011, but not less than zero, plus one-seventh of the difference between the telephone property fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2011 and the telephone property fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2009.

(12) On or before August 31, 2011, and October 31, 2011, forty-three per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is fourteen and the denominator of which is seventeen, but not less than zero, multiplied by forty-three per cent, plus one-half of six-sevenths of the difference between the telephone property fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2011 and the telephone property fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2010.

(13) On or before May 31, 2012, fourteen per cent of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section for fiscal year 2012, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is fourteen and the denominator of which is seventeen but not less than zero, plus one-seventh of the difference between the telephone property fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2011 and the telephone property fixed-rate levy loss for tax year 2010.

(14) On or before August 31, 2012, October 31, 2012, and May 31, 2013, the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is eleven and the denominator of which is seventeen, but not less than zero, multiplied by one-third.

(15) On or before August 31, 2013, October 31, 2013, and May 31, 2014, the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is nine and the denominator of which is seventeen, but not less than zero, multiplied by one-third.

(16) On or before August 31, 2014, October 31, 2014, and May 31, 2015, the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is seven and the denominator of which is seventeen, but not less than zero, multiplied by one-third.

(17) On or before August 31, 2015, October 31, 2015, and May 31, 2016, the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is five and the denominator of which is seventeen, but not less than zero, multiplied by one-third.

(18) On or before August 31, 2016, October 31, 2016, and May 31, 2017, the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is three and the denominator of which is seventeen, but not less than zero, multiplied by one-third.

(19) On or before August 31, 2017, October 31, 2017, and May 31, 2018, the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is one and the denominator of which is seventeen, but not less than zero, multiplied by one-third the thirty-first day of August and October of 2012 and of each year thereafter and the thirty-first day of May of 2013 and of each year thereafter, one-third of the amount determined under division (A)(2) of this section, but not less than zero.

The department of education shall report to each school district and joint vocational school district the apportionment of the payments among the school district's or joint vocational school district's funds based on the certifications under division (F) divisions (G) and (I) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code.

Any qualifying levy that is a fixed-rate levy that is not applicable to a tax year after 2010 does not qualify for any reimbursement after the tax year to which it is last applicable.

(D) For taxes levied within the ten-mill limitation for debt purposes in tax year 2005, payments shall be made equal to one hundred per cent of the loss computed as if the tax were a fixed-rate levy, but those payments shall extend from fiscal year 2006 through fiscal year 2018, as long as the qualifying levy continues to be used for debt purposes. If the purpose of such a qualifying levy is changed, that levy becomes subject to the payments determined in division (C) of this section.

(E)(1) Not later than January 1, 2006, for each fixed-sum levy of each school district or joint vocational school district and for each year for which a determination is made under division (F)(E) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code that a fixed-sum levy loss is to be reimbursed, the tax commissioner shall certify to the department of education the fixed-sum levy loss determined under that division. The certification shall cover a time period sufficient to include all fixed-sum levies for which the commissioner made such a determination. The department shall pay from the school district property tax replacement fund to the school district or joint vocational school district one-third of the fixed-sum levy loss so certified for each year, plus one-third of the amount certified under division (I) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code, on or before the last day of May, August, and October of the current year. Payments under this division of the amounts certified under division (I) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code shall continue until the levy adopted under section 5705.219 of the Revised Code expires.

(2) Beginning in 2006, by the first day of January of each year, the tax commissioner shall review the certification originally made under division (E)(1) of this section. If the commissioner determines that a debt levy that had been scheduled to be reimbursed in the current year has expired, a revised certification for that and all subsequent years shall be made to the department of education.

(F) Beginning in September 2007 and through June 2018, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the school district tangible property tax replacement fund to the general revenue fund each of the following:

(1) On the first day of September, one-fourth of the amount determined for that fiscal year under division (A)(1) of this section;

(2) On the first day of December, one-fourth of the amount determined for that fiscal year under division (A)(1) of this section;

(3) On the first day of March, one-fourth of the amount determined for that fiscal year under division (A)(1) of this section;

(4) On the first day of June, one-fourth of the amount determined for that fiscal year under division (A)(1) of this section.

If, when a transfer is required under division (F)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section, there is not sufficient money in the school district tangible property tax replacement fund to make the transfer in the required amount, the director shall transfer the balance in the fund to the general revenue fund and may make additional transfers on later dates as determined by the director in a total amount that does not exceed one-fourth of the amount determined for the fiscal year.

(G) For each of the fiscal years 2006 through 2018, if the total amount in the school district tangible property tax replacement fund is insufficient to make all payments under divisions (C), (D), and (E) of this section at the times the payments are to be made, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the school district tangible property tax replacement fund the difference between the total amount to be paid and the amount in the school district tangible property tax replacement fund. For each fiscal year after 2018, at the time payments under division (E) of this section are to be made, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the school district property tax replacement fund the amount necessary to make such payments.

(H) (1) On the fifteenth day of June of 2006 through 2011, the director of budget and management may transfer any balance in the school district tangible property tax replacement fund to the general revenue fund. At the end of fiscal years 2012 through 2018, any balance in the school district tangible property tax replacement fund shall remain in the fund to be used in future fiscal years for school purposes.

(2) In each fiscal year beginning with fiscal year 2019, all amounts credited to the school district tangible personal property tax replacement fund shall be appropriated for school purposes.

(I) If all of the territory of a school district or joint vocational school district is merged with another district, or if a part of the territory of a school district or joint vocational school district is transferred to an existing or newly created district, the department of education, in consultation with the tax commissioner, shall adjust the payments made under this section as follows:
(1) For a merger of two or more districts, the machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone property fixed-rate levy losses and the fixed-sum levy losses of the successor district shall be equal to the sum of the machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone property fixed-rate levy losses and debt levy losses as determined in section 5751.20 of the Revised Code, for each of the districts involved in the merger.

(2) If property is transferred from one district to a previously existing district, the amount of machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone property tax value losses and fixed-rate levy losses that shall be transferred to the recipient district shall be an amount equal to the total machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone property fixed-rate levy losses times a fraction, the numerator of which is the value of business tangible personal property on the land being transferred in the most recent year for which data are available, and the denominator of which is the total value of business tangible personal property in the district from which the land is being transferred in the most recent year for which data are available. For each of the first five years after the property is transferred, but not after fiscal year 2012, if the tax rate in the recipient district is less than the tax rate of the district from which the land was transferred, one-half of the payments arising from the amount of fixed-rate levy losses so transferred to the recipient district shall be paid to the recipient district and one-half of the payments arising from the fixed-rate levy losses so transferred shall be paid to the district from which the land was transferred. Fixed-rate levy losses so transferred shall be computed on the basis of the sum of the rates of fixed-rate qualifying levies of the district from which the land was transferred, notwithstanding division (E) of this section.

(3) After December 31, 2004, if property is transferred from one or more districts to a district that is newly created out of the transferred property, the newly created district shall be deemed not to have any machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, or telephone property fixed-rate levy losses and the districts from which the property was transferred shall have no reduction in their machinery and equipment, inventory, furniture and fixtures, and telephone property fixed-rate levy losses.

(4) If the recipient district under division (I)(2) of this section or the newly created district under division (I)(3) of this section is assuming debt from one or more of the districts from which the property was transferred and any of the districts losing the property had fixed-sum levy losses, the department of education, in consultation with the tax commissioner, shall make an equitable division of the fixed-sum levy loss reimbursements.

Sec. 5751.22. (A) Not later than January 1, 2006, the tax commissioner shall compute the payments to be made to each local taxing unit for each year according to divisions (A)(1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, and shall distribute the payments in the manner prescribed by division (C) of this section. The calculation of the fixed-sum levy loss shall cover a time period sufficient to include all fixed-sum levies for which the commissioner determined, pursuant to division (E) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code, that a fixed-sum levy loss is to be reimbursed.

(1) Except as provided in division (A)(4) of this section, for machinery and equipment, inventory, and furniture and fixtures fixed-rate levy losses determined under division (D) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code, payments shall be made in an amount equal to each of those losses multiplied by the following:

(a) For tax years 2006 through 2010, one hundred per cent;
(b) For tax year 2011, a fraction, the numerator of which is fourteen and the denominator of which is seventeen;
(c) For tax year 2012, a fraction, the numerator of which is eleven and the denominator of which is seventeen;
(d) For tax year 2013, a fraction, the numerator of which is nine and the denominator of which is seventeen;
(e) For tax year 2014, a fraction, the numerator of which is seven and the denominator of which is seventeen;
(f) For tax year 2015, a fraction, the numerator of which is five and the denominator of which is seventeen;
(g) For tax year 2016, a fraction, the numerator of which is three and the denominator of which is seventeen;
(h) For tax year 2017, a fraction, the numerator of which is one and the denominator of which is seventeen;
(i) For tax years 2018 and thereafter, no fixed-rate payments shall be made.

Any qualifying levy that is a fixed-rate levy that is not applicable to a tax year after 2010 shall not qualify for any reimbursement after the tax year to which it is last applicable.

(2) Except as provided in division (A)(4) of this section, for telephone property fixed-rate levy losses determined under division (D)(4) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code, payments shall be made in an amount equal to each of those losses multiplied by the following:

(a) For tax years 2009 through 2011, one hundred per cent;
(b) For tax year 2012, seven-eighths;
(c) For tax year 2013, six-eighths;
(d) For tax year 2014, five-eighths;
(e) For tax year 2015, four-eighths;
(f) For tax year 2016, three-eighths;
(g) For tax year 2017, two-eighths;
(h) For tax year 2018, one-eighth;
(i) For tax years 2019 and thereafter, no fixed-rate payments shall be made.

Any qualifying levy that is a fixed-rate levy that is not applicable to a tax year after 2011 shall not qualify for any reimbursement after the tax year to which it is last applicable.

(3) For fixed-sum levy losses determined under division (E) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code, payments shall be made in the amount of one hundred per cent of the fixed-sum levy loss for payments required to be made in 2006 and thereafter.

(4) For taxes levied within the ten-mill limitation for debt purposes in tax year 2005, payments shall be made based on the schedule in division (A)(1) of this section for each of the calendar years 2006 through 2010. For each of the calendar years 2011 through 2017, the percentages for calendar year 2010 shall be used, as long as the qualifying levy continues to be used for debt purposes. If the purpose of such a qualifying levy is changed, that levy becomes subject to the payment schedules in divisions (A)(1)(a) to (h) of this section. No payments shall be made for such levies after calendar year 2017 equal to one-hundred per cent of the loss computed as if the tax were a fixed-rate levy.

(B) Beginning in 2007, by the thirty-first day of January of each year, the tax commissioner shall review the calculation originally made under division (A) of this section of the fixed-sum levy losses determined under division (E) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code. If the commissioner determines that a fixed-sum levy that had been scheduled to be reimbursed in the current year has expired, a revised calculation for that and all subsequent years shall be made.

(C) Payments to local taxing units required to be made under division (A) of this section shall be paid from the local government tangible property tax replacement fund to the county undivided income tax fund in the proper county treasury. Beginning in May 2006, one-seventh of the amount certified under that division shall be paid by the last day of May each year, and three-sevenths shall be paid by the last day of August and October each year. Within forty-five days after receipt of such payments, the county treasurer shall distribute amounts determined under division (A) of this section to the proper local taxing unit as if they had been levied and collected as taxes, and the local taxing unit shall apportion the amounts so received among its funds in the same proportions as if those amounts had been levied and collected as taxes.

(D) For each of the fiscal years 2006 through 2019, if the total amount in the local government tangible property tax replacement fund is insufficient to make all payments under division (C) of this section at the times the payments are to be made, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the local government tangible property tax replacement fund the difference between the total amount to be paid and the amount in the local government tangible property tax replacement fund. For each fiscal year after 2019, at the time payments under division (A)(2) of this section are to be made, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the local government property tax replacement fund the amount necessary to make such payments.

(E) On the fifteenth day of June of each year from 2006 through 2018 beginning in 2006, the director of budget and management may transfer any balance in the local government tangible property tax replacement fund to the general revenue fund.

(F) If all or a part of the territories of two or more local taxing units are merged, or unincorporated territory of a township is annexed by a municipal corporation, the tax commissioner shall adjust the payments made under this section to each of the local taxing units in proportion to the tax value loss apportioned to the merged or annexed territory, or as otherwise provided by a written agreement between the legislative authorities of the local taxing units certified to the commissioner not later than the first day of June of the calendar year in which the payment is to be made.

Sec. 5751.23. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Administrative fees" means the dollar percentages allowed by the county auditor for services or by the county treasurer as fees, or paid to the credit of the real estate assessment fund, under divisions (A) and (C) of section 319.54 and division (A) of section 321.26 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Administrative fee loss" means a county's loss of administrative fees due to its tax value loss, determined as follows:

(a) For purposes of the determination made under division (B) of this section in the years 2006 through 2010, the administrative fee loss shall be computed by multiplying the amounts determined for all taxing districts in the county under divisions (D) and (E) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code by nine thousand six hundred fifty-nine ten-thousandths of one per cent if total taxes collected in the county in 2004 exceeded one hundred fifty million dollars, or one and one thousand one hundred fifty-nine ten-thousandths of one per cent if total taxes collected in the county in 2004 were one hundred fifty million dollars or less;

(b) For purposes of the determination under division (B) of this section in the years after 2010, the administrative fee losses shall be determined by multiplying the administrative fee losses calculated for 2010 by the fractions in divisions (A)(1)(b) to (i) of section 5751.22 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Total taxes collected" means all money collected on any tax duplicate of the county, other than the estate tax duplicates. "Total taxes collected" does not include amounts received pursuant to divisions (F) and (G) of section 321.24 or section 323.156 of the Revised Code.

(B) Not later than December 31, 2005, the tax commissioner shall certify to each county auditor the tax levy losses calculated under divisions (D) and (E) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code for each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit in the county. Not later than the thirty-first day of January of 2006 through 2017, the county auditor shall determine the administrative fee loss for the county and apportion that loss ratably among the school districts, joint vocational school districts, and local taxing units on the basis of the tax levy losses certified under this division.

(C) On or before each of the days prescribed for the settlements under divisions (A) and (C) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code in the years 2006 through 2017, the county treasurer shall deduct one-half of the amount apportioned to each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit from the portions of revenue payable to them.

(D) On or before each of the days prescribed for settlements under divisions (A) and (C) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code in the years 2006 through 2017, the county auditor shall cause to be deposited an amount equal to one-half of the amount of the administrative fee loss in the same funds as if allowed as administrative fees.

Sec. 5911.10. If any armory erected or purchased by the state becomes vacant because of the deactivation of the organizations quartered in that armory, the governor and the adjutant general may lease that armory for periods not to exceed one year; or, when authorized by an act of the general assembly, may sell that armory or lease it for a period of years. The proceeds from the sale or lease of such an armory, or from the sale or lease of other facilities and land owned by the adjutant general, shall be... credited to the armory improvements fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury. The moneys in the fund shall be used to support Ohio army national guard facility and maintenance expenses as the adjutant general directs. Any fund expenditure related to the construction, acquisition, lease, or financing of a capital asset is subject to approval by the controlling board. Investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the general revenue fund.

Sec. 5911.11. There is hereby created in the state treasury the community match armories fund. The fund shall consist of all amounts received as revenue from contributions from local entities for construction and maintenance of Ohio army national guard readiness and community centers and facilities. The moneys in the fund shall be used to support the acquisition and maintenance costs of centers and facilities representing the local entity's share of costs, including the local entity's share of utility costs. Investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the fund.

Sec. 5913.051. To supplement the military staff of the governor, the (A) The adjutant general may appoint an assistant to the state area commander for readiness and training for adjutant general - army. This assistant shall be a brigadier general and shall aid the adjutant general by performing duties that the adjutant general assigns that include the areas of readiness, training, and mobilization, and homeland defense preparedness. This assistant shall not be a full-time state employee or a member of the governor's military staff, but shall serve in that capacity only during federally recognized training, special duty periods, or mobilization periods, or state active duty, and shall at the time of appointment be in the rank of colonel or above but otherwise meet the qualifications established in section 5913.021 of the Revised Code by the department of defense/army for general officer qualification.

(B) The adjutant general may appoint an assistant adjutant general - airforce. This assistant shall be a brigadier general and shall aid the adjutant general by performing duties that the adjutant general assigns that include the areas of readiness, mobilization, and homeland defense preparedness. This assistant shall not be a full-time state employee or a member of the governor's military staff, but shall serve in that capacity only during federally recognized training, special duty periods, mobilization periods, or state active duty, and shall at the time of appointment be in the rank of colonel or above but otherwise meet the qualifications established by the department of defense/air force for general officer qualification.

Sec. 5913.09. (A) The adjutant general is the custodian of all military and other adjutant general's department property, both real and personal, belonging to the state.

(B) The adjutant general may make changes and improvements to military and other adjutant general's department property as the needs of the state and federal government and the exigencies of the service require. All improvements made upon that property belonging to the state, from moneys received either all or in part from the state or federal government, or both, become the property of the state, except as may be provided in an agreement and corresponding regulations by which the United States contributes to the cost of an improvement.

(C)(1) In accordance with applicable state and federal law and regulations, the adjutant general, with the approval of the governor, may acquire by purchase lease, license, or otherwise, real and personal property necessary for the purposes of the department.

(2) In accordance with applicable state and federal law and regulations, the adjutant general, with the approval of the attorney general, may enter into contracts for the construction, repair, renovation, maintenance, and operation of military or other adjutant general's department property.

(3) In accordance with applicable state and federal law and regulations, the adjutant general, with the approval of the governor, may lease or exchange all or part of any military or other adjutant general's department property or grant easements or licenses, if the lease, exchange, easement, or license is advantageous to the state.

(4) All real property of the adjutant general's department shall be sold in accordance with section 5911.10 of the Revised Code.

(D)(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all income from any military or other adjutant general's department property of the state, not made a portion of the company, troop, battery, detachment, squadron, or other organization funds by regulations, shall be credited to the funds for the operation and maintenance of the Ohio organized militia, as the adjutant general directs, in accordance with applicable state and federal law and regulations and the agreements by which the United States contributes to the cost of operation and maintenance of the Ohio national guard.

(2) There is hereby created in the state treasury the camp Perry/buckeye inn operations fund. The fund shall consist of all amounts received as revenue from the rental of facilities located at the camp Perry training site in Ottawa county and the buckeye inn at Rickenbacker air national guard base in Franklin county, and all amounts received from the use of the camp Perry training site and its facilities, including shooting ranges. The moneys in the fund shall be used to support the facility operations of the camp Perry clubhouse and the buckeye inn. Investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the general revenue fund.

Sec. 5919.20. There is hereby created in the state treasury the national guard service medal fund. The fund shall consist of all amounts received from the purchase of Ohio national guard service medals for eligible national guard service members as authorized by the general assembly. The moneys in the fund shall be used to purchase additional medals. Investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the fund.

Sec. 5919.36. There is hereby created in the state treasury the Ohio national guard facility maintenance fund. The fund shall consist of all amounts received from revenue from leases of sites, including towers and wells, and other revenue received from reimbursements for services related to Ohio national guard programs. The moneys in the fund shall be used for service, maintenance, and repair expenses, and for equipment purchases for programs and facilities of the adjutant general. Investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the general revenue fund.

Sec. 6103.01. As used in this chapter:

(A) "Public water supply facilities," "water supply facilities," "water supply improvement," or "improvement" means, without limiting the generality of those terms, water wells and well fields, springs, lakes, rivers, streams, or other sources of water supply, intakes, pumping stations and equipment, treatment, filtration, or purification plants, force and distribution lines or mains, cisterns, reservoirs, storage facilities, necessary equipment for fire protection, other related structures, equipment, and furnishings, and real estate and interests in real estate, necessary or useful in the proper development of a water supply for domestic or other purposes and its proper distribution.

(B) "Current operating expenses," "debt charges," "permanent improvement," "public obligations," and "subdivision" have the same meanings as in section 133.01 of the Revised Code.

(C) "Construct," "construction," or "constructing" means construction, reconstruction, enlargement, extension, improvement, renovation, repair, and replacement of water supply facilities, but does not include repairs, replacements, or similar actions that do not constitute and qualify as permanent improvements.

(D) "Maintain," "maintaining," or "maintenance" means repairs, replacements, and similar actions that constitute and are payable as current operating expenses and that are required to restore water supply facilities to, or to continue water supply facilities in, good order and working condition, but does not include construction of permanent improvements.

(E) "Public agency" means a state and any agency or subdivision of a state, including a county, a municipal corporation, or other subdivision.

(F) "County sanitary engineer" means either of the following:

(1) The registered professional engineer employed or appointed by the board of county commissioners to be the county sanitary engineer as provided in section 6117.01 of the Revised Code;

(2) The county engineer, if, for as long as and to the extent that engineer by agreement entered into under section 315.14 of the Revised Code is retained to discharge the duties of a county sanitary engineer under this chapter.

(G) "Homestead exemption" means the reduction of taxes allowed under division (A) of section 323.152 of the Revised Code.

(H) "Low- and moderate-income persons" has the same meaning as in section 175.01 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 6103.02. (A) For the purpose of preserving and promoting the public health and welfare, a board of county commissioners may acquire, construct, maintain, and operate any public water supply facilities within its county for one or more sewer districts and may provide for their protection and prevent their pollution and unnecessary waste. The board may negotiate and enter into a contract with any public agency or any person for the management, maintenance, operation, and repair of the facilities on behalf of the county, upon the terms and conditions as may be agreed upon with the agency or person and as may be determined by the board to be in the interests of the county. By contract with any public agency or any person operating public water supply facilities within or without its county, the board also may provide a supply of water to a sewer district from the facilities of the public agency or person.

(B) The county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, in addition to other assigned duties, shall assist the board in the performance of its duties under this chapter and shall be charged with other duties and services in relation to the board's duties as the board prescribes.

(C) The board may adopt, publish, administer, and enforce rules for the construction, maintenance, protection, and use of county-owned or county-operated public water supply facilities outside municipal corporations and of public water supply facilities within municipal corporations that are owned or operated by the county or that are supplied with water from water supply facilities owned or operated by the county, including, but not limited to, rules for the establishment and use of any connections, the termination in accordance with reasonable procedures of water service for nonpayment of county water rates and charges, and the establishment and use of security deposits to the extent considered necessary to ensure the payment of county water rates and charges. The rules shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the state or any applicable rules of the director of environmental protection.

(D) No public water supply facilities shall be constructed in any county outside municipal corporations by any person, except for the purpose of supplying water to those municipal corporations, until the plans and specifications for the facilities have been approved by the board. Construction shall be done under the supervision of the county sanitary engineer. Any person constructing public water supply facilities shall pay to the county all expenses incurred by the board in connection with the construction.

(E) The county sanitary engineer or the county sanitary engineer's authorized assistants or agents, when properly identified in writing or otherwise and after written notice is delivered to the owner at least five days in advance or mailed at least five days in advance by first class or certified mail to the owner's tax mailing address, may enter upon any public or private property for the purpose of making, and may make, surveys or inspections necessary for the design or evaluation of county public water supply facilities. This entry is not a trespass and is not to be considered an entry in connection with any appropriation of property proceedings under sections 163.01 to 163.22 of the Revised Code that may be pending. No person or public agency shall forbid the county sanitary engineer or the county sanitary engineer's authorized assistants or agents to enter, or interfere with their entry, upon the property for the purpose of making the surveys or inspections. If actual damage is done to property by the making of the surveys or inspections, the board shall pay the reasonable value of the damage to the property owner, and the cost shall be included in the cost of the facilities and may be included in any special assessments levied and collected to pay that cost.

(F) The board shall fix reasonable rates, including penalties for late payments, for water supplied to public agencies and persons when the source of supply or the facilities for its distribution are owned or operated by the county and may change the rates from time to time as it considers advisable. When the source of the water supply to be used by the county is owned by another public agency or person, the schedule of rates to be charged by the public agency or person shall be approved by the board at the time it enters into a contract for the use of water from the public agency or person. When the distribution facilities are owned by the county, the board also may fix reasonable charges to be collected for the privilege of connecting to the distribution facilities and may require that, prior to the connection, the charges be paid in full or, if determined by the board to be equitable in a resolution relating to the payment of the charges, may require their payment in installments, as considered adequate by the board, at the times, in the amounts, and with the security, carrying charges, and penalties as may be determined by the board in that resolution to be fair and appropriate. No public agency or person shall be permitted to connect to those facilities until the charges have been paid in full or provision for their payment in installments has been made. If the connection charges are to be paid in installments, the board shall certify, to the county auditor, information sufficient to identify each parcel of property served by a connection and, with respect to each parcel, the total of the charges to be paid in installments, the amount of each installment, and the total number of installments to be paid. The county auditor shall record and maintain the information so supplied in the waterworks record provided for in section 6103.16 of the Revised Code until the connection charges are paid in full.
The board may include amounts attributable to connection charges being paid in installments in its billings of rates and other charges for water supplied. In addition, the board may consider payments made to a school district under section 6103.25 of the Revised Code when the board establishes rates and other charges for water supplied.

A board may establish discounted rates or charges or may establish another mechanism for providing a reduction in rates or charges for persons who are sixty-five years of age or older. The board shall establish eligibility requirements for such discounted or reduced rates or charges, including a requirement that a person be eligible for the homestead exemption or qualify as a low- and moderate-income person.

(G) When any rates or charges are not paid when due, the board may do any or all of the following:

(1) Certify the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, to the county auditor. The county auditor shall place the certified amount upon the real property tax list and duplicate against the property served by the connection. The certified amount shall be a lien on the property from the date placed on the real property tax list and duplicate and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes, except that, notwithstanding section 323.15 of the Revised Code, a county treasurer shall accept a payment in that amount when separately tendered as payment for the full amount of the unpaid rates or charges and associated penalties. The lien shall be released immediately upon payment in full of the certified amount.

(2) Collect the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, by actions at law in the name of the county from an owner, tenant, or other person or public agency that is liable for the payment of the rates or charges;

(3) Terminate, in accordance with established rules, the water service to the particular property unless and until the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, are paid in full;

(4) Apply, to the extent required, any security deposit made in accordance with established rules to the payment of the unpaid rates and charges, together with any penalties, for water service to the particular property.

All moneys collected as rates, charges, or penalties fixed or established in accordance with division (F) of this section for water supply purposes in or for any sewer district shall be paid to the county treasurer and kept in a separate and distinct water fund established by the board to the credit of the district.

Each board that fixes water rates or charges may render estimated bills periodically, provided that at least quarterly it shall schedule an actual reading of each customer's meter so as to render a bill for the actual amount shown by the meter reading to be due, with credit for prior payments of any estimated bills submitted for any part of the billing period, except that estimated bills may be rendered if a customer's meter is not accessible for a timely reading or if the circumstances preclude a scheduled reading. Each board also shall establish procedures providing a fair and reasonable opportunity for the resolution of billing disputes.

When property to which water service is provided is about to be sold, any party to the sale or an agent of a party may request the board to have the meter at that property read and to render, within ten days following the date on which the request is made, a final bill for all outstanding rates and charges for water service. The request shall be made at least fourteen days prior to the transfer of the title of the property.

At any time prior to a certification under division (G)(1) of this section, the board shall accept any partial payment of unpaid water rates or charges in the amount of ten dollars or more.

Except as otherwise provided in any proceedings authorizing or providing for the security for and payment of any public obligations, or in any indenture or trust or other agreement securing public obligations, moneys in the water fund shall be applied first to the payment of the cost of the management, maintenance, and operation of the water supply facilities of, or used or operated for, the sewer district, which cost may include the county's share of management, maintenance, and operation costs under cooperative contracts for the acquisition, construction, or use of water supply facilities and, in accordance with a cost allocation plan adopted under division (H) of this section, payment of all allowable direct and indirect costs of the district, the county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, or a federal or state grant program, incurred for the purposes of this chapter, and shall be applied second to the payment of debt charges payable on any outstanding public obligations issued or incurred for the acquisition or construction of water supply facilities for or serving the district, or for the funding of a bond retirement or other fund established for the payment of or security for the obligations. Any surplus remaining may be applied to the acquisition or construction of those facilities or for the payment of contributions to be made, or costs incurred, for the acquisition or construction of those facilities under cooperative contracts. Moneys in the water fund shall not be expended other than for the use and benefit of the district.

(H) A board of county commissioners may adopt a cost allocation plan that identifies, accumulates, and distributes allowable direct and indirect costs that may be paid from the water fund of the sewer district created pursuant to division (G) of this section, and that prescribes methods for allocating those costs. The plan shall authorize payment from the fund of only those costs incurred by the district, the county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, or a federal or state grant program, and those costs incurred by the general and other funds of the county for a common or joint purpose, that are necessary and reasonable for the proper and efficient administration of the district under this chapter. The plan shall not authorize payment from the fund of any general government expense required to carry out the overall governmental responsibilities of a county. The plan shall conform to United States office of management and budget Circular A-87, "Cost Principles for State, Local, and Indian Tribal Governments," published May 17, 1995.

Sec. 6109.21. (A) Except as provided in divisions (D) and (E) of this section, on and after January 1, 1994, no person shall operate or maintain a public water system in this state without a license issued by the director of environmental protection. A person who operates or maintains a public water system on January 1, 1994, shall obtain an initial license under this section in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) If the public water system is a community water system, not later than January 31, 1994;

(2) If the public water system is not a community water system and serves a nontransient population, not later than January 31, 1994;

(3) If the public water system is not a community water system and serves a transient population, not later than January 31, 1995.

A person proposing to operate or maintain a new public water system after January 1, 1994, in addition to complying with section 6109.07 of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it, shall submit an application for an initial license under this section to the director prior to commencing operation of the system.

A license or license renewal issued under this section shall be renewed annually. Such a license or license renewal shall expire on the thirtieth day of January in the year following its issuance. A license holder that proposes to continue operating the public water system for which the license or license renewal was issued shall apply for a license renewal at least thirty days prior to that expiration date.

The director shall adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing procedures governing and information to be included on applications for licenses and license renewals under this section. Through June 30, 2012, each application shall be accompanied by the appropriate fee established under division (M) of section 3745.11 of the Revised Code, provided that an applicant for an initial license who is proposing to operate or maintain a new public water system after January 1, 1994, shall submit a fee that equals a prorated amount of the appropriate fee established under that division for the remainder of the licensing year.

(B) Not later than thirty days after receiving a completed application and the appropriate license fee for an initial license under division (A) of this section, the director shall issue the license for the public water system. Not later than thirty days after receiving a completed application and the appropriate license fee for a license renewal under division (A) of this section, the director shall do one of the following:

(1) Issue the license renewal for the public water system;

(2) Issue the license renewal subject to terms and conditions that the director determines are necessary to ensure compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it;

(3) Deny the license renewal if the director finds that the public water system was not operated in substantial compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it.

(C) The director may suspend or revoke a license or license renewal issued under this section if the director finds that the public water system was not operated in substantial compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it. The director shall adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing such suspensions and revocations.

(D)(1) As used in division (D) of this section, "church" means a fellowship of believers, congregation, society, corporation, convention, or association that is formed primarily or exclusively for religious purposes and that is not formed or operated for the private profit of any person.

(2) This section does not apply to a church that operates or maintains a public water system solely to provide water for that church or for a campground that is owned by the church and operated primarily or exclusively for members of the church and their families. A church that, on or before March 5, 1996, has obtained a license under this section for such a public water system need not obtain a license renewal under this section.

(E) This section does not apply to any public or nonpublic school that meets minimum standards of the state board of education that operates or maintains a public water system solely to provide water for that school.

(F) The environmental protection agency shall collect well log filing fees on behalf of the division of soil and water resources in the department of natural resources in accordance with section 1521.05 of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it. The fees shall be submitted to the division quarterly as provided in those rules.

Sec. 6111.04. (A) Both of the following apply except as otherwise provided in division (A) or (F) of this section:

(1) No person shall cause pollution or place or cause to be placed any sewage, sludge, sludge materials, industrial waste, or other wastes in a location where they cause pollution of any waters of the state.

(2) Such an action prohibited under division (A)(1) of this section is hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

Divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section do not apply if the person causing pollution or placing or causing to be placed wastes in a location in which they cause pollution of any waters of the state holds a valid, unexpired permit, or renewal of a permit, governing the causing or placement as provided in sections 6111.01 to 6111.08 of the Revised Code or if the person's application for renewal of such a permit is pending.

(B) If the director of environmental protection administers a sludge management program pursuant to division (S) of section 6111.03 of the Revised Code, both of the following apply except as otherwise provided in division (B) or (F) of this section:

(1) No person, in the course of sludge management, shall place on land located in the state or release into the air of the state any sludge or sludge materials.

(2) An action prohibited under division (B)(1) of this section is hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

Divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section do not apply if the person placing or releasing the sludge or sludge materials holds a valid, unexpired permit, or renewal of a permit, governing the placement or release as provided in sections 6111.01 to 6111.08 of the Revised Code or if the person's application for renewal of such a permit is pending.

(C) No person to whom a permit has been issued shall place or discharge, or cause to be placed or discharged, in any waters of the state any sewage, sludge, sludge materials, industrial waste, or other wastes in excess of the permissive discharges specified under an existing permit without first receiving a permit from the director to do so.

(D) No person to whom a sludge management permit has been issued shall place on the land or release into the air of the state any sludge or sludge materials in excess of the permissive amounts specified under the existing sludge management permit without first receiving a modification of the existing sludge management permit or a new sludge management permit to do so from the director.

(E) The director may require the submission of plans, specifications, and other information that the director considers relevant in connection with the issuance of permits.

(F) This section does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Waters used in washing sand, gravel, other aggregates, or mineral products when the washing and the ultimate disposal of the water used in the washing, including any sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes contained in the waters, are entirely confined to the land under the control of the person engaged in the recovery and processing of the sand, gravel, other aggregates, or mineral products and do not result in the pollution of waters of the state;

(2) Water, gas, or other material injected into a well to facilitate, or that is incidental to, the production of oil, gas, artificial brine, or water derived in association with oil or gas production and disposed of in a well, in compliance with a permit issued under Chapter 1509. of the Revised Code, or sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes injected into a well in compliance with an injection well operating permit. Division (F)(2) of this section does not authorize, without a permit, any discharge that is prohibited by, or for which a permit is required by, regulation of the United States environmental protection agency.

(3) Application of any materials to land for agricultural purposes or runoff of the materials from that application or pollution by animal waste or soil sediment, including attached substances, resulting from farming,
(4) The excrement of domestic and farm animals defecated on land or runoff therefrom into any waters of the state. Division (F)(4) of this section does not authorize, without a permit, any discharge that is prohibited by, or for which a permit is required by, the Federal Water Pollution Control Act or regulations adopted under it.

(5) On and after the date on which the United States environmental protection agency approves the NPDES program submitted by the director of agriculture under section 903.08 of the Revised Code, any discharge that is within the scope of the approved NPDES program submitted by the director of agriculture;

(6) The discharge of sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes into a sewerage system tributary to a treatment works. Division (F)(6) of this section does not authorize any discharge into a publicly owned treatment works in violation of a pretreatment program applicable to the publicly owned treatment works.

(7) A household sewage treatment system or a small flow on-site sewage treatment system, as applicable, as defined in section 3718.01 of the Revised Code that is installed Septic tanks or other disposal systems for the disposal or treatment of sewage from single-family, two-family, or three-family dwellings in compliance with Chapter 3718 of the sanitary code and section 3707.01 of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it. Division (F)(7) of this section does not authorize, without a permit, any discharge that is prohibited by, or for which a permit is required by, regulation of the United States environmental protection agency.

(8) Exceptional quality sludge generated outside of this state and contained in bags or other containers not greater than one hundred pounds in capacity. As used in division (F)(8) of this section, "exceptional quality sludge" has the same meaning as in division (Y) of section 3745.11 of the Revised Code.

(G) The holder of a permit issued under section 402 (a) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act need not obtain a permit for a discharge authorized by the permit until its expiration date. Except as otherwise provided in this division, the director of environmental protection shall administer and enforce those permits within this state and may modify their terms and conditions in accordance with division (J) of section 6111.03 of the Revised Code. On and after the date on which the United States environmental protection agency approves the NPDES program submitted by the director of agriculture under section 903.08 of the Revised Code, the director of agriculture shall administer and enforce those permits within this state that are issued for any discharge that is within the scope of the approved NPDES program submitted by the director of agriculture.

Sec. 6111.044. Upon receipt of an application for an injection well drilling permit, an injection well operating permit, a renewal of an injection well operating permit, or a modification of an injection well drilling permit, operating permit, or renewal of an operating permit, the director of environmental protection shall determine whether the application is complete and demonstrates that the activities for which the permit, renewal permit, or modification is requested will comply with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act and regulations adopted under it; the "Safe Drinking Water Act," 88 Stat. 1661 (1974), 42 U.S.C.A. 300(f), as amended, and regulations adopted under it; and this chapter and the rules adopted under it. If the application demonstrates that the proposed activities will not comply or will pose an unreasonable risk of inducing seismic activity, inducing geologic fracturing, or contamination of an underground source of drinking water, the director shall deny the application. If the application does not make the required demonstrations, the director shall return it to the applicant with an indication of those matters about which a required demonstration was not made. If the director determines that the application makes the required demonstrations, the director shall transmit copies of the application and all of the accompanying maps, data, samples, and information to the chief of the division of mineral resources management, the chief of the division of geological survey, and the chief of the division of soil and water resources in the department of natural resources.

The chief of the division of geological survey shall comment upon the application if the chief determines that the proposed well or injection will present an unreasonable risk of loss or damage to valuable mineral resources. If the chief submits comments on the application, those comments shall be accompanied by an evaluation of the geological factors upon which the comments are based, including fractures, faults, earthquake potential, and the porosity and permeability of the injection zone and confining zone, and by the documentation supporting the evaluation. The director shall take into consideration the chief's comments, and the accompanying evaluation of geologic factors and supporting documentation, when considering the application. The director shall provide written notice to the chief of the director's decision on the application and, if the chief's comments are not included in the permit, renewal permit, or modification, of the director's rationale for not including them.

The chief of the division of mineral resources management shall comment upon the application if the chief determines that the proposed well or injection will present an unreasonable risk that waste or contamination of recoverable oil or gas in the earth will occur. If the chief submits comments on the application, those comments shall be accompanied by an evaluation of the oil or gas reserves that, in the best professional judgment of the chief, are recoverable and will be adversely affected by the proposed well or injection, and by the documentation supporting the evaluation. The director shall take into consideration the chief's comments, and the accompanying evaluation and supporting documentation, when considering the application. The director shall provide written notice to the chief of the director's decision on the application and, if the chief's comments are not included in the permit, renewal permit, or modification, of the director's rationale for not including them.

The chief of the division of soil and water resources shall assist the director in determining whether all underground sources of drinking water in the area of review of the proposed well or injection have been identified and correctly delineated in the application. If the application fails to identify or correctly delineate an underground source of drinking water, the chief shall provide written notice of that fact to the director.

The chief of the division of mineral resources management also shall review the application as follows:

If the application concerns the drilling or conversion of a well or the injection into a well that is not or is not to be located within five thousand feet of the excavation and workings of a mine, the chief of the division of mineral resources management shall note upon the application that it has been examined by the division of mineral resources management, retain a copy of the application and map, and immediately return a copy of the application to the director.

If the application concerns the drilling or conversion of a well or the injection into a well that is or is to be located within five thousand feet, but more than five hundred feet from the surface excavations and workings of a mine, the chief of the division of mineral resources management immediately shall notify the owner or lessee of the mine that the application has been filed and send to the owner or lessee a copy of the map accompanying the application setting forth the location of the well. The chief of the division of mineral resources management shall note on the application that the notice has been sent to the owner or lessee of the mine, retain a copy of the application and map, and immediately return a copy of the application to the director with the chief's notation on it.

If the application concerns the drilling or conversion of a well or the injection into a well that is or is to be located within five thousand feet of the underground excavations and workings of a mine or within five hundred feet of the surface excavations and workings of a mine, the chief of the division of mineral resources management immediately shall notify the owner or lessee of the mine that the application has been filed and send to the owner or lessee a copy of the map accompanying the application setting forth the location of the well. If the owner or lessee objects to the application, the owner or lessee shall notify the chief of the division of mineral resources management of the objection, giving the reasons, within six days after the receipt of the notice. If the chief of the division of mineral resources management receives no objections from the owner or lessee of the mine within ten days after the receipt of the notice by the owner or lessee, or if in the opinion of the chief of the division of mineral resources management the objections offered by the owner or lessee are not sufficiently well-founded, the chief shall retain a copy of the application and map and return a copy of the application to the director with any applicable notes concerning it.

If the chief of the division of mineral resources management receives an objection from the owner or lessee of the mine as to the application, within ten days after receipt of the notice by the owner or lessee, and if in the opinion of the chief the objection is well-founded, the chief shall disapprove the application and immediately return it to the director together with the chief's reasons for the disapproval. The director promptly shall notify the applicant for the permit, renewal permit, or modification of the disapproval. The applicant may appeal the disapproval of the application by the chief of the division of mineral resources management to the reclamation commission created under section 1513.05 of the Revised Code, and the commission shall hear the appeal in accordance with section 1513.13 of the Revised Code. The appeal shall be filed within thirty days from the date the applicant receives notice of the disapproval. No comments concerning or disapproval of an application shall be delayed by the chief of the division of mineral resources management for more than fifteen days from the date of sending of notice to the mine owner or lessee as required by this section.

The director shall not approve an application for an injection well drilling permit, an injection well operating permit, a renewal of an injection well operating permit, or a modification of an injection well drilling permit, operating permit, or renewal of an operating permit for a well that is or is to be located within three hundred feet of any opening of any mine used as a means of ingress, egress, or ventilation for persons employed in the mine, nor within one hundred feet of any building or flammable structure connected with the mine and actually used as a part of the operating equipment of the mine, unless the chief of the division of mineral resources management determines that life or property will not be endangered by drilling and operating the well in that location.

Upon review by the chief of the division of mineral resources management, the chief of the division of geological survey, and the chief of the division of soil and water resources, and if the chief of the division of mineral resources management has not disapproved the application, the director shall issue a permit, renewal permit, or modification with any terms and conditions that may be necessary to comply with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act and regulations adopted under it; the "Safe Drinking Water Act," 88 Stat. 1661 (1974), 42 U.S.C.A. 300(f) as amended, and regulations adopted under it; and this chapter and the rules adopted under it. The director shall not issue a permit, renewal permit, or modification to an applicant if the applicant or persons associated with the applicant have engaged in or are engaging in a substantial violation of this chapter that is endangering or may endanger human health or the environment or if, in the case of an applicant for an injection well drilling permit, the applicant, at the time of applying for the permit, did not hold an injection well operating permit or renewal of an injection well drilling permit and failed to demonstrate sufficient expertise and competency to operate the well in compliance with the applicable provisions of this chapter.

If the director receives a disapproval from the chief of the division of mineral resources management regarding an application for an injection well drilling or operating permit, renewal permit, or modification, if required, the director shall issue an order denying the application.

The director need not issue a proposed action under section 3745.07 of the Revised Code or hold an adjudication hearing under that section and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code before issuing or denying a permit, renewal permit, or modification of a permit or renewal permit. Before issuing or renewing a permit to drill or operate a class I injection well or a modification of it, the director shall propose the permit, renewal permit, or modification in draft form and shall hold a public hearing to receive public comment on the draft permit, renewal permit, or modification. At least fifteen days before the public hearing on a draft permit, renewal permit, or modification, the director shall publish notice of the date, time, and location of the public hearing in at least one newspaper of general circulation serving the area where the well is or is to be located. The proposing of such a draft permit, renewal permit, or modification does not constitute the issuance of a proposed action under section 3745.07 of the Revised Code, and the holding of the public hearing on such a draft permit, renewal permit, or modification does not constitute the holding of an adjudication hearing under that section and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. Appeals of orders other than orders of the chief of the division of mineral resources management shall be taken under sections 3745.04 to 3745.08 of the Revised Code.

The director may order that an injection well drilling permit or an injection well operating permit or renewal permit be suspended and that activities under it cease after determining that those activities are occurring in violation of law, rule, order, or term or condition of the permit. Upon service of a copy of the order upon the permit holder or the permit holder's authorized agent or assignee, the permit and activities under it shall be suspended immediately without prior hearing and shall remain suspended until the violation is corrected and the order of suspension is lifted. If a violation is the second within a one-year period, the director, after a hearing, may revoke the permit.

The director may order that an injection well drilling permit or an injection well operating permit or renewal permit be suspended and that activities under it cease if the director has reasonable cause to believe that the permit would not have been issued if the information available at the time of suspension had been available at the time a determination was made by one of the agencies acting under authority of this section. Upon service of a copy of the order upon the permit holder or the permit holder's authorized agent or assignee, the permit and activities under it shall be suspended immediately without prior hearing, but a permit may not be suspended for that reason without prior hearing unless immediate suspension is necessary to prevent waste or contamination of oil or gas, comply with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act and regulations U.S.C.A. 300(f), as amended, and regulations adopted under it; and this chapter and the rules adopted under it, or prevent damage to valuable mineral resources, prevent contamination of an underground source of drinking water, or prevent danger to human life or health. If after a hearing the director determines that the permit would not have been issued if the information available at the time of the hearing had been available at the time a determination was made by one of the agencies acting under authority of this section, the director shall revoke the permit.
When a permit has been revoked, the permit holder or other person responsible for it immediately shall plug the well in the manner required by the director.

The director may issue orders to prevent or require cessation of violations of this section, section 6111.043, 6111.045, 6111.046, or 6111.047 of the Revised Code, rules adopted under any of those sections, and terms or conditions of permits issued under any of them. The orders may require the elimination of conditions caused by the violation.

Sec. 6111.44. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, in section 6111.14 of the Revised Code, or in rules adopted under division (G) of section 6111.03 of the Revised Code, no municipal corporation, county, public institution, corporation, or officer or employee thereof or other person shall provide or install sewerage or treatment works for sewage, sludge, or sludge materials disposal or treatment or make a change in any sewerage or treatment works until the plans therefor have been submitted to and approved by the director of environmental protection. Sections 6111.44 to 6111.46 of the Revised Code apply to sewerage and treatment works of a municipal corporation or part thereof, an unincorporated community, a county sewer district, or other land outside of a municipal corporation or any publicly or privately owned building or group of buildings or place, used for the assemblage, entertainment, recreation, education, correction, hospitalization, housing, or employment of persons.

In granting an approval, the director may stipulate modifications, conditions, and rules that the public health and prevention of pollution may require. Any action taken by the director shall be a matter of public record and shall be entered in the director's journal. Each period of thirty days that a violation of this section continues, after a conviction for the violation, constitutes a separate offense.

(B) Sections 6111.45 and 6111.46 of the Revised Code and division (A) of this section do not apply to any of the following:

(1) Sewerage or treatment works for sewage installed or to be installed for the use of a private residence or dwelling;

(2) Sewerage systems, treatment works, or disposal systems for storm water from an animal feeding facility or manure, as "animal feeding facility" and "manure" are defined in section 903.01 of the Revised Code;

(3) Animal waste treatment or disposal works and related management and conservation practices that are subject to rules adopted under division (E)(2) of section 1511.02 of the Revised Code;

(4) Sewerage or treatment works for the on-lot disposal or treatment of sewage from a small flow on-site sewage treatment system, as defined in section 3718.01 of the Revised Code, if the board of health of a city or general health district has notified the director of health and the director of environmental protection under section 3718.021 of the Revised Code that the board has chosen to regulate the system, provided that the board remains in compliance with the rules adopted under division (A)(13) of section 3718.02 of the Revised Code.

The exclusions established in divisions (B)(2) and (3) of this section do not apply to the construction or installation of disposal systems, as defined in section 6111.01 of the Revised Code, that are located at an animal feeding facility and that store, treat, or discharge wastewaters that do not include storm water or manure or that discharge to a publicly owned treatment works.

Sec. 6117.01. (A) As used in this chapter:

(1) "Sanitary facilities" means sanitary sewers, force mains, lift or pumping stations, and facilities for the treatment, disposal, impoundment, or storage of wastes; equipment and furnishings; and all required appurtenances and necessary real estate and interests in real estate.

(2) "Drainage" or "waters" means flows from rainfall or otherwise produced by, or resulting from, the elements, storm water discharges and releases or migrations of waters from properties, accumulations, flows, and overflows of water, including accelerated flows and runoffs, flooding and threats of flooding of properties and structures, and other surface and subsurface drainage.

(3) "Drainage facilities" means storm sewers, force mains, pumping stations, and facilities for the treatment, disposal, impoundment, retention, control, or storage of waters; improvements of or for any channel, ditch, drain, floodway, or watercourse, including location, construction, reconstruction, reconditioning, widening, deepening, cleaning, removal of obstructions, straightening, boxing, culverting, tiling, filling, walling, arching, or change in course, location, or terminus; improvements of or for a river, creek, or run, including reinforcement of banks, enclosing, deepening, widening, straightening, removal of obstructions, or change in course, location, or terminus; facilities for the protection of lands from the overflow of water, including a levee, wall, embankment, jetty, dike, dam, sluice, revetment, reservoir, retention or holding basin, control gate, or breakwater; facilities for controlled drainage, regulation of stream flow, and protection of an outlet; the vacation of a ditch or drain; equipment and furnishings; and all required appurtenances and necessary real estate and interests in real estate.
4. "County sanitary engineer" means either of the following:
   (a) The registered professional engineer employed or appointed by the board of county commissioners to be the county sanitary engineer as provided in this section;
   (b) The county engineer, if, for as long as and to the extent that engineer by agreement entered into under section 315.14 of the Revised Code is retained to discharge duties of a county sanitary engineer under this chapter.
5. "Current operating expenses," "debt charges," "permanent improvement," "public obligations," and "subdivision" have the same meanings as in section 133.01 of the Revised Code.
6. "Construct," "construction," or "constructing" means construction, reconstruction, enlargement, extension, improvement, renovation, repair, and replacement of sanitary or drainage facilities or of prevention or replacement facilities, but does not include any repairs, replacements, or similar actions that do not constitute and qualify as permanent improvements.
7. "Maintain," "maintaining," or "maintenance" means repairs, replacements, and similar actions that constitute and are payable as current operating expenses and that are required to restore sanitary or drainage facilities or prevention or replacement facilities to, or to continue sanitary or drainage facilities or prevention or replacement facilities in, good order and working condition, but does not include construction of permanent improvements.
8. "Public agency" means a state and any agency or subdivision of a state, including a county, a municipal corporation, or other subdivision.
9. "Combined sewer" means a sewer system that is designed to collect and convey sewage, including domestic, commercial, and industrial wastewater, and storm water through a single-pipe system to a treatment works or combined sewer overflow outfall approved by the director of environmental protection.
10. "Prevention or replacement facilities" means vegetated swales or median strips, permeable pavement, trees and tree boxes, rain barrels and cisterns, rain gardens and filtration planters, vegetated roofs, wetlands, riparian buffers, and practices and structures that use or mimic natural processes to filter or reuse storm water.
11. "Homestead exemption" means the reduction of taxes allowed under division (A) of section 323.152 of the Revised Code.
12. "Low- and moderate-income person" has the same meaning as in section 175.01 of the Revised Code.
(B)(1) For the purpose of preserving and promoting the public health and welfare, a board of county commissioners may lay out, establish, consolidate, or otherwise modify the boundaries of, and maintain, one or more sewer districts within the county and outside municipal corporations and may have a registered professional engineer make the surveys necessary for the determination of the proper boundaries of each district, which shall be designated by an appropriate name or number. The board may acquire, construct, maintain, and operate within any district sanitary or drainage facilities that it determines to be necessary or appropriate for the collection of sewage and other wastes originating in or entering the district, to comply with the provisions of a contract entered into for the purposes described in sections 6117.41 to 6117.44 of the Revised Code and pursuant to those sections or other applicable provisions of law, or for the collection, control, or abatement of waters originating or accumulating in, or flowing in, into, or through, the district, and other sanitary or drainage facilities, within or outside of the district, that it determines to be necessary or appropriate to conduct the wastes and waters to a proper outlet and to provide for their proper treatment, disposal, and disposition. The board may provide for the protection of the sanitary and drainage facilities and may negotiate and enter into a contract with any public agency or person for the management, maintenance, operation, and repair of any of the facilities on behalf of the county upon the terms and conditions that may be agreed upon with the agency or person and that may be determined by the board to be in the best interests of the county. By contract with any public agency or person operating sanitary or drainage facilities within or outside of the county, the board may provide a proper outlet for any of the wastes and waters and for their proper treatment, disposal, and disposition.

(2) For purposes of preventing storm water from entering a combined sewer and causing an overflow or an inflow to a sanitary sewer, the board may acquire, design, construct, operate, repair, maintain, and provide for a project or program that separates storm water from a combined sewer or for a prevention or replacement facility that prevents or minimizes storm water from entering a combined sewer or a sanitary sewer.

(C) The board of county commissioners may employ a registered professional engineer to be the county sanitary engineer for the time and on the terms it considers best and may authorize the county sanitary engineer to employ necessary assistants upon the terms fixed by the board. Prior to the initial assignment of drainage facilities duties to the county sanitary engineer, if the county sanitary engineer is not the county engineer, the board first shall offer to enter into an agreement with the county engineer pursuant to section 315.14 of the Revised Code for assistance in the performance of those duties of the board pertaining to drainage facilities, and the county engineer shall accept or reject the offer within thirty days after the date the offer is made.

The board may create and maintain a sanitary engineering department, which shall be under its supervision and which shall be headed by the county sanitary engineer, for the purpose of aiding it in the performance of its duties under this chapter and Chapter 6103. of the Revised Code or its other duties regarding sanitation, drainage, and water supply provided by law. The board shall provide suitable facilities for the use of the department and shall provide for and pay the compensation of the county sanitary engineer and all authorized necessary expenses of the county sanitary engineer and the sanitary engineering department. The county sanitary engineer, with the approval of the board, may appoint necessary assistants and clerks, and the compensation of those assistants and clerks shall be provided for and paid by the board.

(D) The board of county commissioners may adopt, publish, administer, and enforce rules for the construction, maintenance, protection, and use of county-owned or county-operated sanitary and drainage facilities and prevention or replacement facilities outside municipal corporations, and of sanitary and drainage facilities and prevention or replacement facilities within municipal corporations that are owned or operated by the county or that discharge into sanitary or drainage facilities or prevention or replacement facilities owned or operated by the county, including, but not limited to, rules for the establishment and use of any connections, the termination in accordance with reasonable procedures of sanitary service for the nonpayment of county sanitary rates and charges and, if so determined, the concurrent termination of any county water service for the nonpayment of those rates and charges, the termination in accordance with reasonable procedures of drainage service for the nonpayment of county drainage rates and charges, and the establishment and use of security deposits to the extent considered necessary to ensure the payment of county sanitary or drainage rates and charges. The rules shall not be inconsistent with the laws of this state or any applicable rules of the director of environmental protection.

(E) No sanitary or drainage facilities or prevention or replacement facilities shall be constructed in any county outside municipal corporations by any person until the plans and specifications have been approved by the board of county commissioners, and any construction shall be done under the supervision of the county sanitary engineer. Not less than thirty days before the date drainage plans are submitted to the board for its approval, the plans shall be submitted to the county engineer. If the county engineer is of the opinion after review that the facilities will have a significant adverse effect on roads, culverts, bridges, or existing maintenance within the county, the county engineer may submit a written opinion to the board not later than thirty days after the date the plans are submitted to the county engineer. The board may take action relative to the drainage plans only after the earliest of receiving the written opinion of the county engineer, receiving a written waiver of submission of an opinion from the county engineer, or passage of thirty days from the date the plans are submitted to the county engineer. Any person constructing the facilities shall pay to the county all expenses incurred by the board in connection with the construction.

(F) The county sanitary engineer or the county sanitary engineer's authorized assistants or agents, when properly identified in writing or otherwise and after written notice is delivered to the owner at least five days in advance or is mailed at least five days in advance by first class or certified mail to the owner's tax mailing address, may enter upon any public or private property for the purpose of making, and may make, surveys or inspections necessary for the laying out of sewer districts or the design or evaluation of county sanitary or drainage facilities or prevention or replacement facilities. This entry is not a trespass and is not to be considered an entry in connection with any appropriation of property proceedings under sections 163.01 to 163.22 of the Revised Code that may be pending. No person or public agency shall forbid the county sanitary engineer or the county sanitary engineer's authorized assistants or agents to enter, or interfere with their entry, upon the property for that purpose or forbid or interfere with their making of surveys or inspections. If actual damage is done to property by the making of the surveys and inspections, the board shall pay the reasonable value of the damage to the property owner, and the cost shall be included in the cost of the facilities and may be included in any special assessments to be levied and collected to pay that cost.

Sec. 6117.02. (A) The board of county commissioners shall fix reasonable rates, including penalties for late payments, for the use, or the availability for use, of the sanitary facilities of a sewer district to be paid by every person and public agency whose premises are served, or capable of being served, by a connection directly or indirectly to those facilities when those facilities are owned or operated by the county and may change the rates from time to time as it considers advisable. When the sanitary facilities to be used by the county are owned by another public agency or person, the schedule of rates to be charged by the public agency or person for the use of the facilities by the county, or the formula or other procedure for their determination, shall be approved by the board at the time it enters into a contract for that use.

(B) The board also shall establish reasonable charges to be collected for the privilege of connecting to the sanitary facilities of the district, with the requirement that, prior to the connection, the charges shall be paid in full, or, if determined by the board to be equitable in a resolution relating to the payment of the charges, provision considered adequate by the board shall be made for their payment in installments at the times, in the amounts, and with the security, carrying charges, and penalties as may be found by the board in that resolution to be fair and appropriate. No public agency or person shall be permitted to connect to those facilities until the charges have been paid in full or provision for their payment in installments has been made. If the connection charges are to be paid in installments, the board shall certify to the county auditor information sufficient to identify each parcel of property served by a connection and, with respect to each parcel, the total of the charges to be paid in installments, the amount of each installment, and the total number of installments to be paid. The auditor shall record and maintain the information supplied in the sewer improvement record provided for in section 6117.33 of the Revised Code until the connection charges are paid in full. The board may include amounts attributable to connection charges being paid in installments in its billings of rates and charges for the use of sanitary facilities.

(C) When any of the sanitary rates or charges are not paid when due, the board may do any or all of the following as it considers appropriate:

1. Certify the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, to the county auditor, who shall place them upon the real property tax list and duplicate against the property served by the connection. The certified amount shall be a lien on the property from the date placed on the real property tax list and duplicate and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes, except that, notwithstanding section 323.15 of the Revised Code, a county treasurer shall accept a payment in that amount when separately tendered as payment for the full amount of the unpaid sanitary rates or charges and associated penalties. The lien shall be released immediately upon payment in full of the certified amount.

2. Collect the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, by actions at law in the name of the county from an owner, tenant, or other person or public agency that is liable for the payment of the rates or charges;

3. Terminate, in accordance with established rules, the sanitary service to the particular property and, if so determined, any county water service to that property, unless and until the unpaid sanitary rates or charges, together with any penalties, are paid in full;
(4) Apply, to the extent required, any security deposit made in accordance with established rules to the payment of sanitary rates and charges for service to the particular property.

All moneys collected as sanitary rates, charges, or penalties fixed or established in accordance with divisions (A) and (B) of this section for any sewer district shall be paid to the county treasurer and kept in a separate and distinct sanitary fund established by the board to the credit of the district. Except as otherwise provided in any proceedings authorizing or providing for the security for and payment of any public obligations, or in any indenture or trust or other agreement securing public obligations, moneys in the sanitary fund shall be applied first to the payment of the cost of the management, maintenance, and operation of the sanitary facilities of, or used or operated for, the district, which cost may include the county's share of management, maintenance, and operation costs under cooperative contracts for the acquisition, construction, or use of sanitary facilities and, in accordance with a cost allocation plan adopted under division (E) of this section, payment of all allowable direct and indirect costs of the district, the county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, or a federal or state grant program, incurred for sanitary purposes under this chapter, and shall be applied second to the payment of debt charges payable on any outstanding public obligations issued or incurred for the acquisition or construction of sanitary facilities for or serving the district, or for the funding of a bond retirement or other fund established for the payment of or security for the obligations. Any surplus remaining may be applied to the acquisition or construction of those facilities or for the payment of contributions to be made, or costs incurred, for the acquisition or construction of those facilities under cooperative contracts. Moneys in the sanitary fund shall not be expended other than for the use and benefit of the district.

(D) The board may fix reasonable rates and charges, including connection charges and penalties for late payments, to be paid by any person or public agency owning or having possession or control of any properties that are connected with, capable of being served by, or otherwise served directly or indirectly by, drainage facilities owned or operated by or under the jurisdiction of the county, including, but not limited to, properties requiring, or lying within an area of the district requiring, in the judgment of the board, the collection, control, or abatement of waters originating or accumulating in, or flowing in, into, or through, the district, and may change those rates and charges from time to time as it considers advisable. In addition, the board may fix the rates and charges in order to pay the costs of complying with the requirements of phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. part 122.

The rates and charges shall be payable periodically as determined by the board, except that any connection charges shall be paid in full in one payment, or, if determined by the board to be equitable in a resolution relating to the payment of those charges, provision considered adequate by the board shall be made for their payment in installments at the times, in the amounts, and with the security, carrying charges, and penalties as may be found by the board in that resolution to be fair and appropriate. The board may include amounts attributable to connection charges being paid in installments in its billings of rates and charges for the services provided by the drainage facilities. In the case of rates and charges that are fixed in order to pay the costs of complying with the requirements of phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. part 122, the rates and charges may be paid annually or semiannually with real property taxes, provided that the board certifies to the county auditor information that is sufficient for the auditor to identify each parcel of property for which a rate or charge is levied and the amount of the rate or charge.

When any of the drainage rates or charges are not paid when due, the board may do any or all of the following as it considers appropriate:

(1) Certify the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, to the county auditor, who shall place them upon the real property tax list and duplicate against the property to which the rates or charges apply. The certified amount shall be a lien on the property from the date placed on the real property tax list and duplicate and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes, except that notwithstanding section 323.15 of the Revised Code, a county treasurer shall accept a payment in that amount when separately tendered as payment for the full amount of the unpaid drainage rates or charges and associated penalties. The lien shall be released immediately upon payment in full of the certified amount.

(2) Collect the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, by actions at law in the name of the county from an owner, tenant, or other person or public agency that is liable for the payment of the rates or charges;

(3) Terminate, in accordance with established rules, the drainage service for the particular property until the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, are paid in full;

(4) Apply, to the extent required, any security deposit made in accordance with established rules to the payment of drainage rates and charges applicable to the particular property.

All moneys collected as drainage rates, charges, or penalties in or for any sewer district shall be paid to the county treasurer and kept in a separate and distinct drainage fund established by the board to the credit of the district. Except as otherwise provided in any proceedings authorizing or providing for the security for and payment of any public obligations, or in any indenture or trust or other agreement securing public obligations, moneys in the drainage fund shall be applied first to the payment of the cost of the management, maintenance, and operation of the drainage facilities of, or used or operated for, the district, which cost may include the county's share of management, maintenance, and operation costs under cooperative contracts for the acquisition, construction, or use of drainage facilities and, in accordance with a cost allocation plan adopted under division (E) of this section, payment of all allowable direct and indirect costs of the district, the county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, or a federal or state grant program, incurred for drainage purposes under this chapter, and shall be applied second to the payment of debt charges payable on any outstanding public obligations issued or incurred for the acquisition or construction of drainage facilities for or serving the district, or for the funding of a bond retirement or other fund established for the payment of or security for the obligations. Any surplus remaining may be applied to the acquisition or construction of those facilities or for the payment of contributions to be made, or costs incurred, for the acquisition or construction of those facilities under cooperative contracts. Moneys in the drainage fund shall not be expended other than for the use and benefit of the district.

(E) A board of county commissioners may adopt a cost allocation plan that identifies, accumulates, and distributes allowable direct and indirect costs that may be paid from each of the funds of the district created pursuant to divisions (C) and (D) of this section, and that prescribes methods for allocating those costs. The plan shall authorize payment from each of those funds of only those costs incurred by the district, the county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, or a federal or state grant program, and those costs incurred by the general and other funds of the county for a common or joint purpose, that are necessary and reasonable for the proper and efficient administration of the district under this chapter and properly attributable to the particular fund of the district. The plan shall not authorize payment from either of the funds of any general government expense required to carry out the overall governmental responsibilities of a county. The plan shall conform to United States office of management and
(F) A board of county commissioners may establish discounted rates or charges or may establish another mechanism for providing a reduction in rates or charges for persons who are sixty-five years of age or older. The board shall establish eligibility requirements for such discounted or reduced rates or charges, including a requirement that a person be eligible for the homestead exemption or qualify as a low- and moderate-income person.

Sec. 6119.011. As used in Chapter 6119. of the Revised Code this chapter:

(A) "Court of common pleas" or "court" means, unless the context indicates a different meaning or intent, the court of common pleas in which the petition for the organization of a regional water and sewer district is filed.

(B) "Political subdivision" includes departments, divisions, authorities, or other units of state governments, watershed districts, soil and water conservation districts, park districts, municipal corporations, counties, townships, and other political subdivisions, special water districts, including county and regional water and sewer districts, conservancy districts, sanitary districts, sewer districts or any other public corporation or agency having the authority to acquire, construct, or operate waste water or water management facilities, and all other governmental agencies now or hereafter granted the power of levying taxes or special assessments, the United States or any agency thereof, and any agency, commission, or authority established pursuant to an interstate compact or agreement.

(C) "Person" means any natural person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation other than a political subdivision.

(D) "Beneficial use" means a use of water, including the method of diversion, storage, transportation, treatment, and application, that is reasonable and consistent with the public interest in the proper utilization of water resources, including, but not limited to, domestic, agricultural, industrial, power, municipal, navigational, fish and wildlife, and recreational uses.

(E) "Waters of the state" means all streams, lakes, ponds, marshes, watercourses, waterways, wells, springs, irrigation systems, drainage systems, and all other bodies or accumulations of water, surface and underground, natural or artificial, which are situated wholly or partly within, or border upon, this state, or are within its jurisdiction, except those private waters which do not combine or effect a junction with natural surface or underground waters.
(F) "Water resources" means all waters of the state occurring on the surface in natural or artificial channels, lakes, reservoirs, or impoundments, and in subsurface aquifers, which are available or may be made available to agricultural, commercial, recreational, public, and domestic users.

(G) "Project" or "water resource project" means any waste water facility or water management facility acquired, constructed, or operated by or leased to a regional water and sewer district or to be acquired, constructed, or operated by or leased to a regional water and sewer district under Chapter 6119 of the Revised Code of this chapter, or acquired or constructed or to be acquired or constructed by a political subdivision with a portion of the cost thereof being paid from a loan or grant from the district under Chapter 6119 of the Revised Code of this chapter, including all buildings and facilities which the district considers necessary for the operation of the project, together with all property, rights, easements, and interest which may be required for the operation of the project. Any water resource project shall be determined by the board of trustees of the district to be consistent with any applicable comprehensive plan of water management approved by the director of natural resources of the state or in the process of preparation by such the director and to be not inconsistent with the standards set for the waters of the state affected thereby by the water pollution control board of the state environmental protection agency. Any resolution of the board of trustees of the district providing for acquiring, operating, leasing, or constructing such projects or for making a loan or grant for such projects shall include a finding by the board of trustees of the district that such determinations have been made.

(H) "Pollution" means the placing of any noxious or deleterious substances in any waters of the state or affecting the properties of any waters of the state in a manner which renders such those waters harmful or inimical to the public health, or to animal or aquatic life, or to the use of such the waters for domestic water supply, industrial or agricultural purposes, or recreation.

(I) "Sewage" means any substance that contains any of the waste products or excrementitious or other discharge from the bodies of human beings or animals, which pollutes the waters of the state.

(J) "Industrial waste" means any liquid, gaseous, or solid waste substance resulting from any process of industry, manufacture, trade, or business, or from the development, processing, or recovery of any natural resource, together with such sewage as is present, which pollutes the waters of the state.
(K) "Waste water" means any storm water and any water containing sewage or industrial waste or other pollutants or contaminants derived from the prior use of such the water.

(L) "Waste water facilities" means facilities for the purpose of treating, neutralizing, disposing of, stabilizing, cooling, segregating, or holding waste water, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, facilities for the treatment and disposal of sewage or industrial waste and the residue thereof, facilities for the temporary or permanent impoundment of waste water, both surface and underground, and storm and sanitary sewers and other systems, whether on the surface or underground, designed to transport waste water, together with the equipment and furnishings thereof and their appurtenances and systems, whether on the surface or underground, including force mains and pumping facilities therefor when necessary.

(M) "Water management facilities" means facilities for the purpose of the development, use, and protection of water resources, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, facilities for water supply, facilities for stream flow improvement, dams, reservoirs, and other impoundments, water transmission lines, water wells and well fields, pumping stations and works for underground water recharge, stream monitoring systems, facilities for the stabilization of stream and river banks, and facilities for the treatment of streams and rivers, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, facilities for the removal of oil, debris, and other solid waste from the waters of the state and stream and river aeration facilities.

(N) "Cost" as applied to water resource projects means the cost of acquisition and construction, the cost of acquisition of all land, rights-of-way, property rights, easements, franchise rights, and interests required by the district for such acquisition and construction, the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved, the cost of acquiring or constructing and equipping a principal office and sub-offices of the district, the cost of diverting highways, interchange of highways, and access roads to private property, including the cost of land or easements therefor, the cost of all machinery, furnishings, and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction and for no more than eighteen months after completion of acquisition or construction, engineering, expenses of research and development with respect to waste water or water management facilities, legal expenses, plans, specifications, surveys, estimates of cost and revenues, working capital, other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of acquiring or constructing any such project, administrative expense, and such other expense as may be necessary or incident to the acquisition or construction of the project, the financing of such the acquisition or construction, including the amount authorized in the resolution of the district providing for the issuance of water resource revenue bonds to be paid into any special funds from the proceeds of such those bonds and the financing of the placing of any such project in operation. Any obligation or expense incurred by any political subdivision, and approved by the district, for surveys, borings, preparation of plans and specifications, and other engineering services in connection with the acquisition or construction of a project shall be regarded as a part of the cost of such the project and may be reimbursed by the district.

(O) "Owner" includes all individuals, partnerships, associations, corporations, or political subdivisions having any title or interest in any property rights, easements, and interests authorized to be acquired by Chapter 6119. of the Revised Code this chapter.

(P) "Revenues" means all rentals and other charges received by a district for the use or services of any project, all special assessments levied by the district pursuant to Chapter 6119. of the Revised Code this chapter, any gift or grant received with respect thereto, and moneys received in repayment of and for interest on any loan made by the district to a political subdivision, whether from the United States or a department, administration, or agency thereof, or otherwise.

(Q) "Public roads" includes all public highways, roads, and streets in the state, whether maintained by the state, county, city, township, or other political subdivision.

(R) "Public utility facilities" includes tracks, pipes, mains, conduits, cables, wires, towers, poles, and other equipment and appliances of any public utility.

(S) "Construction," unless the context indicates a different meaning or intent, includes reconstruction, enlargement, improvement, or providing furnishings or equipment.

(T) "Water resources bonds," unless the context indicates a different meaning or intent, includes water resource notes and water resource refunding bonds.

(U) "Regional water and sewer district" means a district organized or operating for one or both of the purposes described in section 6119.01 of the Revised Code and, if organized or operating for only one of such those purposes, may be designated either a regional water district or a regional sewer district, as the case may be.
(V) "Homestead exemption" means the reduction of taxes allowed under division (A) of section 323.152 of the Revised Code.

(W) "Low- and moderate-income person" has the same meaning as in section 175.01 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 6119.091. When fixing rentals or other charges under section 6119.09 of the Revised Code, a board of trustees of a regional water and sewer district may establish discounted rentals or charges or may establish another mechanism for providing a reduction in rentals or charges for persons who are sixty-five years of age or older. The board shall establish eligibility requirements for such discounted or reduced rentals or charges, including a requirement that a person be eligible for the homestead exemption or qualify as a low- and moderate-income person.

Sec. 6301.03. (A) In administering the "Workforce Investment Act of 1998," 112 Stat. 936, 29 U.S.C.A. 2801, as amended, the "Wagner-Peyser Act," 48 Stat. 113 (1933), 29 U.S.C.A. 49, as amended, the funds received pursuant to those acts, and the workforce development system, the director of job and family services may make allocations and payment of funds for the local administration of the workforce development activities established under this chapter. Pursuant to the "Workforce Investment Act of 1998," 112 Stat. 936, 29 U.S.C.A. 2801, as amended, the governor shall reserve not more than fifteen per cent of the amounts allocated to the state under Title I of that act for adults, dislocated workers, and youth for statewide activities, and not more than twenty-five per cent of funds allocated for dislocated workers under Title I of that act for statewide rapid response activities.

(B) The director shall allocate to local areas all funds required to be allocated to local areas pursuant to the "Workforce Investment Act of 1998," 112 Stat. 936, 29 U.S.C.A. 2801, as amended. The director shall make allocations only with funds available. Local areas, as defined by either section 101 of the "Workforce Investment Act of 1998," 112 Stat. 936, 29 U.S.C.A. 2801, as amended, or section 6301.01 of the Revised Code, and subrecipients of a local area shall establish a workforce development fund and the entity receiving funds shall deposit all funds received under this section into the workforce development fund. All expenditures for activities funded under this section shall be made from the workforce development fund, including reimbursements to a county public assistance fund for expenditures made for activities funded under this section.

(C) The use of funds, reporting requirements, and other administrative and operational requirements governing the use of funds received by the director pursuant to this section shall be governed by internal management rules adopted by the director pursuant to section 111.15 of the Revised
(D) To the extent permitted by state or federal law, the director, local areas, counties, and municipal corporations authorized to administer workforce development activities may assess a fee for specialized services requested by an employer. The director shall adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the nature and amount of those types of fees.

SECTION 101.02. SECTION 105.10. Sections 1751.53 and 3923.38 of the Revised Code as they result from Section 120.10 of H.B. 2 of the 128th General Assembly are hereby repealed. This repeal enables the continued existence of those sections as they result from Section 101.01 of H.B. 2 of the 128th General Assembly.
SECTION 110.10. That the version of section 2949.111 of the Revised Code that is scheduled to take effect January 1, 2010, be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2949.111. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Court costs" means any assessment that the court requires an offender to pay to defray the costs of operating the court.

(2) "State fines or costs" means any costs imposed or forfeited bail collected by the court under section 2743.70 of the Revised Code for deposit into the reparations fund or under section 2949.091 of the Revised Code for deposit into the general revenue indigent defense support fund established under section 120.08 of the Revised Code and all fines, penalties, and forfeited bail collected by the court and paid to a law library association under section 307.515 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Reimbursement" means any reimbursement for the costs of confinement that the court orders an offender to pay pursuant to section 2929.28 of the Revised Code, any supervision fee, any fee for the costs of house arrest with electronic monitoring that an offender agrees to pay, any reimbursement for the costs of an investigation or prosecution that the court orders an offender to pay pursuant to section 2929.71 of the Revised Code, or any other costs that the court orders an offender to pay.

(4) "Supervision fees" means any fees that a court, pursuant to sections 2929.18, 2929.28, and 2951.021 of the Revised Code, requires an offender who is under a community control sanction to pay for supervision services.

(5) "Community control sanction" has the same meaning as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) Unless the court, in accordance with division (C) of this section, enters in the record of the case a different method of assigning payments, if a person who is charged with a misdemeanor is convicted of or pleads guilty to the offense, if the court orders the offender to pay any combination of court costs, state fines or costs, restitution, a conventional fine, or any reimbursement, and if the offender makes any payment of any of them to a clerk of court, the clerk shall assign the offender's payment in the following manner:

(1) If the court ordered the offender to pay any court costs, the offender's payment shall be assigned toward the satisfaction of those court costs until they have been entirely paid.

(2) If the court ordered the offender to pay any state fines or costs and if all of the court costs that the court ordered the offender to pay have been paid, the remainder of the offender's payment shall be assigned on a pro rata basis toward the satisfaction of the state fines or costs until they have been entirely paid.

(3) If the court ordered the offender to pay any restitution and if all of the court costs and state fines or costs that the court ordered the offender to pay have been paid, the remainder of the offender's payment shall be assigned toward the satisfaction of the restitution until it has been entirely paid.

(4) If the court ordered the offender to pay any fine and if all of the court costs, state fines or costs, and restitution that the court ordered the offender to pay have been paid, the remainder of the offender's payment shall be assigned toward the satisfaction of the fine until it has been entirely paid.

(5) If the court ordered the offender to pay any reimbursement and if all of the court costs, state fines or costs, restitution, and fines that the court ordered the offender to pay have been paid, the remainder of the offender's payment shall be assigned toward the satisfaction of the reimbursements until they have been entirely paid.

(C) If a person who is charged with a misdemeanor is convicted of or pleads guilty to the offense and if the court orders the offender to pay any combination of court costs, state fines or costs, restitution, fines, or reimbursements, the court, at the time it orders the offender to make those payments, may prescribe an order of payments that differs from the order set forth in division (B) of this section by entering in the record of the case the order so prescribed. If a different order is entered in the record, on receipt of any payment, the clerk of the court shall assign the payment in the manner prescribed by the court.

SECTION 110.11. That the existing version of section 2949.111 of the Revised Code that is scheduled to take effect January 1, 2010, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 110.12. Sections 110.10 and 110.11 of this act take effect January 1, 2010.

SECTION 110.20. That the version of section 5739.033 of the Revised Code that is scheduled to take effect January 1, 2010, be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5739.033. (A) The amount of tax due pursuant to sections 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, and 5739.026 of the Revised Code is the sum of the taxes imposed pursuant to those sections at the sourcing location of the sale as determined under this section or, if applicable, under division (C) of section 5739.031 or section 5739.034 of the Revised Code. This section applies only to a vendor's or seller's obligation to collect and remit sales taxes under section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code or use taxes under section 5741.02, 5741.021, 5741.022, or 5741.023 of the Revised Code. Division (A) of this section does not apply in determining the jurisdiction for which sellers are required to collect the use tax under section 5741.05 of the Revised Code. This section does not affect the obligation of a consumer to remit use taxes on the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property or on the benefit realized of any service provided, to the jurisdiction of that storage, use, or consumption, or benefit realized.

(B)(1) Beginning January 1, 2010, retail sales, excluding the lease or rental, of tangible personal property or digital goods shall be sourced to the location where the vendor receives an order for the sale of such property or goods if:

(a) The vendor receives the order in this state and the consumer receives the property or goods in this state;
(b) The location where the consumer receives the property or goods is determined under division (C)(2), (3), or (4) of this section; and
(c) The record-keeping system used by the vendor to calculate the tax imposed captures the location where the order is received at the time the order is received.

(2) A consumer has no additional liability to this state under this chapter or Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code for tax, penalty, or interest on a sale for which the consumer remits tax to the vendor in the amount invoiced by the vendor if the invoice amount is calculated at either the rate applicable to the location where the consumer receives the property or digital good or at the rate applicable to the location where the order is received by the vendor. A consumer may rely on a written representation by the vendor as to the location where the order for the sale was received by the vendor. If the consumer does not have a written representation by the vendor as to the location where the order was received by the vendor, the consumer may use a location indicated by a business address for the vendor that is available from records that are maintained in the ordinary course of the consumer's business to determine the rate applicable to the location where the order was received.

(3) For the purposes of division (B) of this section, the location where an order is received by or on behalf of a vendor means the physical location of the vendor or a third party such as an established outlet, office location, or automated order receipt system operated by or on behalf of the vendor, where an order is initially received by or on behalf of the vendor, and not where the order may be subsequently accepted, completed, or fulfilled. An order is received when all necessary information to determine whether the order can be accepted has been received by or on behalf of the vendor. The location from which the property or digital good is shipped shall not be used to determine the location where the order is received by the vendor.

(4) For the purposes of division (B) of this section, if services subject to taxation under this chapter or Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code are sold with tangible personal property or digital goods pursuant to a single contract or in the same transaction, the services are billed on the same billing statement or invoice, and, because of the application of division (B) of this section, the transaction would be sourced to more than one jurisdiction, the situs of the transaction shall be the location where the order is received by or on behalf of the vendor.

(C) Except for sales, other than leases, of titled motor vehicles, titled watercraft, or titled outboard motors as provided in section 5741.05 of the Revised Code, or as otherwise provided in this section and section 5739.034 of the Revised Code, all sales shall be sourced as follows:

(1) If the consumer or a donee designated by the consumer receives tangible personal property or a service at a vendor's place of business, the sale shall be sourced to that place of business.

(2) When the tangible personal property or service is not received at a vendor's place of business, the sale shall be sourced to the location known to the vendor where the consumer or the donee designated by the consumer receives the tangible personal property or service, including the location indicated by instructions for delivery to the consumer or the consumer's donee.

(3) If divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section do not apply, the sale shall be sourced to the location indicated by an address for the consumer that is available from the vendor's business records that are maintained in the ordinary course of the vendor's business, when use of that address does not constitute bad faith.

(4) If divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section do not apply, the sale shall be sourced to the location indicated by an address for the consumer obtained during the consummation of the sale, including the address associated with the consumer's payment instrument, if no other address is available, when use of that address does not constitute bad faith.
(5) If divisions (C)(1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section do not apply, including in the circumstance where the vendor is without sufficient information to apply any of those divisions, the sale shall be sourced to the address from which tangible personal property was shipped, or from which the service was provided, disregarding any location that merely provided the electronic transfer of the property sold or service provided.

(6) As used in division (C) of this section, "receive" means taking possession of tangible personal property or making first use of a service. "Receive" does not include possession by a shipping company on behalf of a consumer.

(D)(1)(a) Notwithstanding divisions (C)(1) to (5) of this section, a business consumer that is not a holder of a direct payment permit granted under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code, that purchases a digital good, computer software, except computer software received in person by a business consumer at a vendor's place of business, or a service, and that knows at the time of purchase that such digital good, software, or service will be concurrently available for use in more than one taxing jurisdiction shall deliver to the vendor in conjunction with its purchase an exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use, or shall meet the requirements of division (D)(2) of this section. On receipt of the exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use, the vendor is relieved of its obligation to collect, pay, or remit the tax due, and the business consumer must pay the tax directly to the state.

(b) A business consumer that delivers the exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use to a vendor may use any reasonable, consistent, and uniform method of apportioning the tax due on the digital good, computer software, or service that is supported by the consumer's business records as they existed at the time of the sale. The business consumer shall report and pay the appropriate tax to each jurisdiction where concurrent use occurs. The tax due shall be calculated as if the apportioned amount of the digital good, computer software, or service had been delivered to each jurisdiction to which the sale is apportioned under this division.

(c) The exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use shall remain in effect for all future sales by the vendor to the business consumer until it is revoked in writing by the business consumer, except as to the business consumer's specific apportionment of a subsequent sale under division (D)(1)(b) of this section and the facts existing at the time of the sale.

(2) When the vendor knows that a digital good, computer software, or service sold will be concurrently available for use by the business consumer in more than one jurisdiction, but the business consumer does not provide an exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use as required by division (D)(1) of this section, the vendor may work with the business consumer to produce the correct apportionment. Governed by the principles of division (D)(1)(b) of this section, the vendor and business consumer may use any reasonable, but consistent and uniform, method of apportionment that is supported by the vendor's and business consumer's books and records as they exist at the time the sale is reported for purposes of the taxes levied under this chapter. If the business consumer certifies to the accuracy of the apportionment and the vendor accepts the certification, the vendor shall collect and remit the tax accordingly. In the absence of bad faith, the vendor is relieved of any further obligation to collect tax on any transaction where the vendor has collected tax pursuant to the information certified by the business consumer.

(3) When the vendor knows that the digital good, computer software, or service will be concurrently available for use in more than one jurisdiction, and the business consumer does not have a direct pay permit and does not provide to the vendor an exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use as required in division (D)(1) of this section, or certification pursuant to division (D)(2) of this section, the vendor shall collect and remit the tax based on division (C) of this section.

(4) Nothing in this section shall limit a person's obligation for sales or use tax to any state in which a digital good, computer software, or service is concurrently available for use, nor limit a person's ability under local, state, or federal law, to claim a credit for sales or use taxes legally due and paid to other jurisdictions.

(E) A person who holds a direct payment permit issued under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code is not required to deliver an exemption certificate claiming multiple points of use to a vendor. But such permit holder shall comply with division (D)(2) of this section in apportioning the tax due on a digital good, computer software, or a service for use in business that will be concurrently available for use in more than one taxing jurisdiction.

(F)(1) Notwithstanding divisions (C)(1) to (5) of this section, the consumer of direct mail that is not a holder of a direct payment permit shall provide to the vendor in conjunction with the sale either an exemption certificate claiming direct mail prescribed by the tax commissioner, or information to show the jurisdictions to which the direct mail is delivered to recipients.

(2) Upon receipt of such exemption certificate, the vendor is relieved of all obligations to collect, pay, or remit the applicable tax and the consumer is obligated to pay that tax on a direct pay basis. An exemption certificate claiming direct mail shall remain in effect for all future sales of direct mail by the vendor to the consumer until it is revoked in writing.

(3) Upon receipt of information from the consumer showing the jurisdictions to which the direct mail is delivered to recipients, the vendor shall collect the tax according to the delivery information provided by the consumer. In the absence of bad faith, the vendor is relieved of any further obligation to collect tax on any transaction where the vendor has collected tax pursuant to the delivery information provided by the consumer.

(4) If the consumer of direct mail does not have a direct payment permit and does not provide the vendor with either an exemption certificate claiming direct mail or delivery information as required by division (F)(1) of this section, the vendor shall collect the tax according to division (C)(5) of this section. Nothing in division (F)(4) of this section shall limit a consumer’s obligation to pay sales or use tax to any state to which the direct mail is delivered.

(5) If a consumer of direct mail provides the vendor with documentation of direct payment authority, the consumer shall not be required to provide an exemption certificate claiming direct mail or delivery information to the vendor.

(G) If the vendor provides lodging to transient guests as specified in division (B)(2) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, the sale shall be sourced to the location where the lodging is located.

(H)(1) As used in this division and division (I) of this section, "transportation equipment" means any of the following:

(a) Locomotives and railcars that are utilized for the carriage of persons or property in interstate commerce.

(b) Trucks and truck-tractors with a gross vehicle weight rating of greater than ten thousand pounds, trailers, semi-trailers, or passenger buses that are registered through the international registration plan and are operated under authority of a carrier authorized and certificated by the United States department of transportation or another federal authority to engage in the carriage of persons or property in interstate commerce.

(c) Aircraft that are operated by air carriers authorized and certificated by the United States department of transportation or another federal authority to engage in the carriage of persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce.

(d) Containers designed for use on and component parts attached to or secured on the items set forth in division (H)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section.
(2) A sale, lease, or rental of transportation equipment shall be sourced pursuant to division (C) of this section.

(I)(1) A lease or rental of tangible personal property that does not require recurring periodic payments shall be sourced pursuant to division (C) of this section.

(2) A lease or rental of tangible personal property that requires recurring periodic payments shall be sourced as follows:

(a) In the case of a motor vehicle, other than a motor vehicle that is transportation equipment, or an aircraft, other than an aircraft that is transportation equipment, such lease or rental shall be sourced as follows:

(i) An accelerated tax payment on a lease or rental taxed pursuant to division (A)(2) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code shall be sourced to the primary property location at the time the lease or rental is consummated. Any subsequent taxable charges on the lease or rental shall be sourced to the primary property location for the period in which the charges are incurred.

(ii) For a lease or rental taxed pursuant to division (A)(3) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, each lease or rental installment shall be sourced to the primary property location for the period covered by the installment.

(b) In the case of a lease or rental of all other tangible personal property, other than transportation equipment, such lease or rental shall be sourced as follows:

(i) An accelerated tax payment on a lease or rental that is taxed pursuant to division (A)(2) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code shall be sourced pursuant to division (C) of this section at the time the lease or rental is consummated. Any subsequent taxable charges on the lease or rental shall be sourced to the primary property location for the period in which the charges are incurred.

(ii) For a lease or rental that is taxed pursuant to division (A)(3) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the initial lease or rental installment shall be sourced pursuant to division (C) of this section. Each subsequent installment shall be sourced to the primary property location for the period covered by the installment.

(3) As used in division (I) of this section, "primary property location" means an address for tangible personal property provided by the lessee or renter that is available to the lessor or owner from its records maintained in the ordinary course of business, when use of that address does not constitute bad faith.

(J) If the vendor provides a service specified in division (B)(11) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, the situs of the sale is the location of the enrollee for whom a medicaid health insurance corporation receives managed care premiums. Such sales shall be sourced to the locations of the enrollees in the same proportion as the managed care premiums received by the medicaid health insuring corporation on behalf of enrollees located in a particular taxing jurisdiction in Ohio as compared to all managed care premiums received by the medicaid health insuring corporation.

SECTION 110.21. That the existing version of section 5739.033 of the Revised Code that is scheduled to take effect January 1, 2010, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 110.22. Sections 110.20 and 110.21 of this act take effect January 1, 2010.

SECTION 125.10. Sections 5112.40, 5112.41, 5112.42, 5112.43, 5112.44, 5112.45, 5112.46, 5112.47, and 5112.48 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed, effective October 1, 2011.

SECTION 201.01. Except as otherwise provided in this act, all appropriation items in this act are appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury to the credit of the designated fund that are not otherwise appropriated. For all appropriations made in this act, the amounts in the first column are for fiscal year 2010 and the amounts in the second column are for fiscal year 2011.

The foregoing appropriation item 745407, National Guard Benefits, shall be used for purposes of sections 5919.31 and 5919.33 of the Revised Code, and for administrative costs of the associated programs.

For active duty members of the Ohio National Guard who died after October 7, 2001, while performing active duty, the death benefit, pursuant to section 5919.33 of the Revised Code, shall be paid to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated on the member's Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance Policy.

STATE ACTIVE DUTY COSTS

Of the foregoing appropriation item 745409, Central Administration, $50,000 in each fiscal year shall be used for the purpose of paying expenses related to state active duty of members of the Ohio organized militia, in accordance with a proclamation of the Governor. Expenses include, but are not limited to, the cost of equipment, supplies, and services, as determined by the Adjutant General's Department.

SECTION 205.20. FUND ABOLITION

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management, upon request by the Adjutant General, shall transfer the cash balance in the Marksmanship Activities Fund (Fund 5280) to the Camp Perry/Buckeye Inn Operations Fund (Fund 5360). The Director shall cancel any existing encumbrances against appropriation item 745645, Marksmanship Activities, and re-establish them against appropriation item 745620, Camp Perry/Buckeye Inn Operations. The re-established encumbrance amounts are hereby appropriated. Upon completion of the transfer, Fund 5280 is abolished.

Am. Sub. H. B. No. 1 128th G.A. 2736
SECTION 207.10.20. OAKS RENTAL PAYMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 100415, OAKS Rental Payments, shall be used for payments for the period from July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2011, pursuant to leases and agreements entered into under Chapter 125. of the Revised Code, as supplemented by Section 503.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 496 and Section 281.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 562 of the 127th General Assembly with respect to financing the costs associated with the acquisition, development, installation, and implementation of the Ohio Administrative Knowledge System. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 207.10.30. STATE TAXATION ACCOUNTING AND REVENUE SYSTEM

The Office of Information Technology, in conjunction with the Department of Taxation, may acquire the State Taxation Accounting and Revenue System (STARS) pursuant to Chapter 125. of the Revised Code, including, but not limited to, the application software and installation and implementation thereof, for the use of the Department of Taxation. STARS is an integrated tax collection and audit system that will replace all of the state's existing separate tax software and administration systems for the various taxes collected by the state. Any lease-purchase arrangement used under Chapter 125. of the Revised Code to acquire STARS, including any fractionalized interests therein as defined in division (N) of section 133.01 of the Revised Code, shall provide that at the end of the lease period, STARS becomes the property of the state.

SECTION 207.10.40. STARS LEASE RENTAL PAYMENTS
The foregoing appropriation item 100416, STARS Lease Rental Payments, shall be used for payments for the period from July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2011, pursuant to leases and agreements entered into under Chapter 125. of the Revised Code, as supplemented by Section 757.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly, with respect to financing the cost associated with the acquisition, development, installation, and implementation of the State Taxation Accounting and Revenue System (STARS). If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, the amounts are appropriated.

SECTION 207.10.50. BUILDING RENT PAYMENTS
The foregoing appropriation item 100447, OBA - Building Rent Payments, shall be used to meet all payments at the times they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, by the Department of Administrative Services to the Ohio Building Authority pursuant to leases and agreements under Chapter 152. of the Revised Code. These appropriations are the source of funds pledged for bond service charges on obligations issued pursuant to Chapter 152. of the Revised Code.

The foregoing appropriation item 100448, OBA - Building Operating Payments, shall be used to meet all payments at the times that they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, by the Department of Administrative Services to the Ohio Building Authority pursuant to leases and agreements under Chapter 152. of the Revised Code, but limited to the aggregate amount of $51,206,000.

The payments to the Ohio Building Authority are for paying the expenses of agencies that occupy space in various state facilities. The Department of Administrative Services may enter into leases and agreements with the Ohio Building Authority providing for the payment of these expenses. The Ohio Building Authority shall report to the Department of Administrative Services and the Office of Budget and Management not later than five months after the start of each fiscal year the actual expenses incurred by the Ohio Building Authority in operating the facilities and any balances remaining from payments and rentals received in the prior fiscal year. The Department of Administrative Services shall reduce subsequent payments by the amount of the balance reported to it by the Ohio Building Authority.
SECTION 207.10.60. DAS - BUILDING OPERATING PAYMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 100449, DAS - Building Operating Payments, shall be used to pay the rent expenses of veterans organizations pursuant to section 123.024 of the Revised Code in fiscal years 2010 and 2011.

The foregoing appropriation item, 100449, DAS - Building Operating Payments, also may be used to provide funding for the cost of property appraisals or building studies that the Department of Administrative Services may be required to obtain for property that is being sold by the state or property under consideration to be renovated or purchased by the state.

Notwithstanding section 125.28 of the Revised Code, the remaining portion of the appropriation may be used to pay the operating expenses of state facilities maintained by the Department of Administrative Services that are not billed to building tenants. These expenses may include, but are not limited to, the costs for vacant space and space undergoing renovation, and the rent expenses of tenants that are relocated because of building renovations. These payments shall be processed by the Department of Administrative Services through intrastate transfer vouchers and placed in the Building Management Fund (Fund 1320).

Notwithstanding division (A)(1) of section 125.28 of the Revised Code, the Department of Administrative Services may use the Building Management Fund (Fund 1320) to support utility costs at the State of Ohio Computer Center that exceed the available appropriation in appropriation item 100433, State of Ohio Computer Center.

SECTION 207.10.70. CENTRAL SERVICE AGENCY FUND

The appropriation item 100632, Central Service Agency, shall be used to purchase the equipment, products, and services that are needed to maintain automated applications for the professional licensing boards and to support board licensing functions in fiscal years 2010 and 2011. The Department of Administrative Services shall establish charges for recovering the costs of carrying out these functions. The charges shall be billed to the professional licensing boards and deposited via intrastate transfer vouchers to the credit of the Central Service Agency Fund (Fund 1150). Total Department of Administrative Services charges for the maintenance and support of the licensing system shall not exceed $363,678 in each fiscal year of the biennium.
SECTION 207.20.10. GENERAL SERVICE CHARGES
The Department of Administrative Services, with the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, shall establish charges for recovering the costs of administering the programs funded by the General Services Fund (Fund 1170) and the State Printing Fund (Fund 2100). Such charges within Fund 1170 may be used to recover the cost of paying a vendor to establish reduced pricing for contracted supplies or services.

If the Director of Administrative Services determines that additional amounts are necessary to pay for consulting and administrative costs related to securing lower pricing, the Director of Administrative Services may request that the Director of Budget and Management approve additional expenditures. Such approved additional amounts are appropriated to appropriation item 100644, General Services Division-Operating.

SECTION 207.20.20. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING ARBITRATION EXPENSES
With approval of the Director of Budget and Management, the Department of Administrative Services may seek reimbursement from state agencies for the actual costs and expenses the Department incurs in the collective bargaining arbitration process. The reimbursements shall be processed through intrastate transfer vouchers and credited to the Collective Bargaining Fund (Fund 1280).

SECTION 207.20.30. BROADBAND OHIO
Any unencumbered, unexpended amounts of the foregoing appropriation item 100607, IT Services Delivery, that were allocated for implementation of the NextGen Network in fiscal years 2008 and 2009, and are necessary for the continuation of the Connect Ohio contract in fiscal years 2010 and 2011, are hereby reappropriated for the same purpose in fiscal years 2010 and 2011.

SECTION 207.20.40. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM
The Department of Administrative Services, with the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, shall establish charges for recovering the costs of administering the activities supported by the State EEO Fund (Fund 1880). These charges shall be deposited to the credit of the State EEO Fund (Fund 1880) upon payment made by state agencies, state-supported or state-assisted institutions of higher education, and tax-supported agencies, municipal corporations, and other political subdivisions of the state, for services rendered.

SECTION 207.20.43. GRF TRANSFER TO STATE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY FUND

On July 1 of each fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $500,000 cash from the General Revenue Fund to the State Equal Employment Opportunity Fund (Fund 1880) used by the Department of Administrative Services.

SECTION 207.20.50. MERCHANDISE RESALE FUND ABOLISHMENT

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the cash balance, functions, assets, and liabilities of the Merchandise Resale Fund (Fund 2010) to the State Printing Fund (Fund 2100). The Director of Budget and Management shall cancel any existing encumbrances against appropriation item 100653, General Services Resale Merchandise, and re-establish them against appropriation item 100612, State Printing. The re-established encumbrances are appropriated. Upon completion of the transfer, Fund 2010 is abolished.

The State Printing Fund is thereupon and thereafter successor to, assumes the obligations of, and otherwise constitutes the continuation of the Merchandise Resale Fund. Any business commenced but not completed pertaining to the Merchandise for Resale Fund by July 1, 2009, shall be completed within the State Printing Fund in the same manner and with the same effect as if it were completed within the Merchandise for Resale Fund. All of the rules, orders, and determinations associated with the Merchandise for Resale Fund continue in effect as rules, orders, and determinations associated with the State Printing Fund until modified or rescinded by the Director of Administrative Services. If necessary to ensure the integrity of the Administrative Code, the Director of the Legislative Service Commission shall renumber the rules relating to the Merchandise for Resale Fund to reflect its transfer to the State Printing Fund.

On and after July 1, 2009, when the Merchandise for Resale Fund is referred to in any statute, rule, contract, grant or other document, the reference is hereby deemed to refer to the State Printing Fund.
SECTION 207.20.60. LEVERAGED ENTERPRISE PURCHASE PROGRAM FUNDING

The foregoing appropriation item 100640, Leveraged Enterprise Purchases, may be used by the Director of Administrative Services to operate a Leveraged Enterprise Purchases Program to make enterprise-wide information technology purchases. The Director of Administrative Services may recover the cost of operating such a program from all participating government entities through intrastate transfer voucher billings for each applicable procurement, or the Director may use any pass-through billing method agreed to by the Director of Administrative Services, the Director of Budget and Management, and the participating government entities that will receive the applicable procurement. If the Director of Administrative Services chooses to recover the costs through intrastate transfer voucher billings, the participating government entities shall process the intrastate transfer vouchers to pay for the cost.

Amounts received under this section for the Leveraged Enterprise Purchases Program shall be deposited to the credit of the IT Governance Fund (Fund 2290).

SECTION 207.20.70. INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY ASSESSMENT

The Director of Administrative Services, with the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, may establish an information technology assessment for the purpose of recovering the cost of selected infrastructure and statewide programs. The information technology assessment shall be charged to all organized bodies, offices, or agencies established by the laws of the state for the exercise of any function of state government except for the General Assembly, any legislative agency, the Supreme Court, the other courts of record in Ohio, or any judicial agency, the Adjutant General, the Bureau of Workers' Compensation, and institutions administered by a board of trustees. Any state-entity exempted by this section may use the infrastructure or statewide program by participating in the information technology assessment. All charges for the information technology assessment shall be deposited to the credit of the IT Governance Fund (Fund 2290).

SECTION 207.20.80. INVESTMENT RECOVERY FUND

Notwithstanding division (B) of section 125.14 of the Revised Code, cash balances in the Investment Recovery Fund (Fund 4270) may be used to support the operating expenses of the Federal Surplus Operating Program created in sections 125.84 to 125.90 of the Revised Code.

Notwithstanding division (B) of section 125.14 of the Revised Code, cash balances in the Investment Recovery Fund may be used to support the operating expenses of the Asset Management Services Program, including, but not limited to, the cost of establishing and maintaining procedures for inventory records for state property as described in section 125.16 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 100602, Investment Recovery, up to $2,093,564 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $2,107,388 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used to pay the operating expenses of the State Surplus Property Program, the Surplus Federal Property Program, and the Asset Management Services Program under Chapter 125. of the Revised Code and this section. If additional appropriations are necessary for the operations of these programs, the Director of Administrative Services shall seek increased appropriations from the Controlling Board under section 131.35 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 100602, Investment Recovery, $3,590,000 in fiscal year 2010 and $3,576,176 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used to transfer proceeds from the sale of surplus property from the Investment Recovery Fund to non-General Revenue Funds under division (A)(2) of section 125.14 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Administrative Services that additional amounts are necessary for the transfer of such sale proceeds, the Director of Administrative Services may request the Director of Budget and Management to authorize additional amounts. Such authorized additional amounts are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 207.20.90. DAS INFORMATION SERVICES

There is hereby established in the State Treasury the DAS Information Services Fund. The foregoing appropriation item 100603, DAS Information Services, shall be used to pay the costs of providing information systems and services in the Department of Administrative Services. Any state agency, board, or commission may use DAS Information Services by paying for the services rendered.

The Department of Administrative Services shall establish user charges for all information systems and services that are allowable in the statewide indirect cost allocation plan submitted annually to the United States Department of Health and Human Services. These charges shall comply with federal regulations and shall be deposited to the credit of the DAS Information Services Fund (Fund 4P30).

SECTION 207.30.30. CASH TRANSFER TO OAKS SUPPORT ORGANIZATION FUND
The Director of Budget and Management may transfer $1,317,922.16 in cash from the IT Services Delivery Fund (Fund 1330) to the OAKS Support Organization Fund (5EB0) to correct an intrastate transfer voucher from the Department of Administrative Services that was deposited in the IT Services Delivery Fund.

SECTION 207.30.40. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 100610, Professional Development, shall be used to make payments from the Professional Development Fund (Fund 5L70) under section 124.182 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 207.30.50. EMPLOYEE EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
The foregoing appropriation item 100619, Employee Educational Development, shall be used to make payments from the Employee Educational Development Fund (Fund 5V60) under section 124.86 of the Revised Code. The fund shall be used to pay the costs of administering educational programs under existing collective bargaining agreements with District 1199, the Health Care and Social Service Union; State Council of Professional Educators; Ohio Education Association and National Education Association; the Fraternal Order of Police Ohio Labor Council, Unit 2; and the Ohio State Troopers Association, Units 1 and 15.
If it is determined by the Director of Administrative Services that additional amounts are necessary, the Director of Administrative Services may request that the Director of Budget and Management approve additional amounts. Such approved additional amounts are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 207.30.60. CENTRALIZED GATEWAY ENHANCEMENT FUND
(A) As used in this section, "Ohio Business Gateway" refers to the internet-based system operated by the Department of Administrative Services with the advice of the Ohio Business Gateway Steering Committee established under section 5703.57 of the Revised Code. The Ohio Business Gateway is established to provide businesses a central web site where various filings and payments are submitted on-line to government. The information is then distributed to the various government entities that interact with the business community.

(B) As used in this section:

1. "State Portal" refers to the official web site of the state, operated by the Department of Administrative Services.

2. "Shared Hosting Environment" refers to the computerized system operated by the Department of Administrative Services for the purpose of providing capability for state agencies to host web sites.

(C) There is hereby created in the state treasury the Centralized Gateway Enhancement Fund (Fund 5X30). The foregoing appropriation item 100634, Centralized Gateway Enhancement, shall be used by the Department of Administrative Services to pay the costs of enhancing, expanding, and operating the infrastructure of the Ohio Business Gateway, State Portal, and Shared Hosting Environment. The Director of Administrative Services shall submit spending plans to the Director of Budget and Management to justify operating transfers to the fund from the General Revenue Fund. Upon approval, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer approved amounts to the fund, not to exceed the amount of the annual appropriation in each fiscal year. The spending plans may be based on the recommendations of the Ohio Business Gateway Steering Committee or its successor.

SECTION 207.30.70. MAJOR IT PURCHASES AND CONTRACTS

The Director of Administrative Services shall compute the amount of revenue attributable to the amortization of all equipment purchases and capitalized systems from appropriation item 100607, IT Services Delivery; appropriation item 100617, Major IT Purchases; and appropriation item C10014, Major Computer Purchases, which is recovered by the Department of Administrative Services as part of the rates charged by the IT Service Delivery Fund (Fund 1330) created in section 125.15 of the Revised Code. The Director of Budget and Management may transfer cash in an amount not to exceed the amount of amortization computed from the IT Service Delivery Fund (Fund 1330) to the Major IT Purchases Fund (Fund 4N60).

SECTION 207.30.80. CASH TRANSFERS FROM THE MAJOR IT PURCHASES FUND

Upon request of the Director of Administrative Services, the Director of Budget and Management may make the following transfers from the Major IT Purchases Fund (Fund 4N60):

1. Up to $2,800,000 in each fiscal year of the biennium to the State Architect's Fund (Fund 1310) to support the OAKS Capital Improvements Module and other costs of the State Architect's Office that are not directly related to capital projects managed by the State Architect;

2. Up to $457,467 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $471,630 in fiscal year 2011 to the Director's Office Fund (Fund 1120) to support operating expenses of the Accountability and Results Initiative;

3. Up to $4,000,000 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $1,000,000 in fiscal year 2011 to the OAKS Support Organization Fund (Fund 5EB0) to support OAKS operating costs not billed to the Office of Budget and Management's Accounting and Budgeting Fund (Fund 1050), to the Department of Administrative Services' Human Resources Services Fund (Fund 1250), or paid from other funds of the Department of Administrative Services; and

4. Up to $639,945 in each fiscal year of the biennium to the General Revenue Fund.

Upon approval of the Director of Budget and Management, the transferred amounts to non-GRF funds are appropriated in the designated fiscal years to the following appropriation items: 100639, State Architect's Office (Fund 1310) in each fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011; 100616, DAS Administration (Fund 1120) in both fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011; and 100635, OAKS Support Organization (Fund 5EB0) in fiscal year 2010 only.

SECTION 207.30.90. CORRECTIVE CASH TRANSFER TO INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY FUND

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $7,768.37 in cash from the Unemployment Compensation Fund (Fund 1130) to the Information Technology Fund (Fund 1330). This transfer corrects a deposit of revenue that was made to Fund 1130. Upon completion of the transfer, Fund 1130 is abolished.

SECTION 207.40.10. MULTI-AGENCY RADIO COMMUNICATION SYSTEM DEBT SERVICE PAYMENTS

The Director of Administrative Services, in consultation with the Multi-Agency Radio Communication System (MARCS) Steering Committee and the Director of Budget and Management, shall determine the share of debt service payments attributable to spending for MARCS components that are not specific to any one agency and that shall be charged to agencies supported by the motor fuel tax. Such share of debt service payments shall be calculated for MARCS capital disbursements made beginning July 1, 1997. Within thirty days of any payment made from appropriation item 100447, OBA - Building Rent Payments, the Director of Administrative Services shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of this share. The Director of Budget and Management shall transfer such amounts to the General Revenue Fund from the State Highway Safety Fund (Fund 7036) established in section 4501.06 of the Revised Code.

The Director of Administrative Services shall consider renting or leasing existing tower sites at reasonable or current market rates, so long as these existing sites are equipped with the technical capabilities to support the MARCS project.

SECTION 207.40.30. DIRECTOR'S DECLARATION OF PUBLIC EXIGENCY

Whenever the Director of Administrative Services declares a "public exigency," as provided in division (C) of section 123.15 of the Revised Code, the Director shall also notify the members of the Controlling Board.

SECTION 209.20. LONG-TERM CARE

Pursuant to an interagency agreement, the Department of Job and Family Services shall designate the Department of Aging to perform assessments under section 5111.204 of the Revised Code. The Department of Aging shall provide long-term care consultations under section 173.42 of the Revised Code to assist individuals in planning for their long-term health care needs. The foregoing appropriation items 490423, Long Term Care Budget – State, and 490623, Long Term Care Budget, may be used to provide the preadmission screening and resident review (PASRR), which includes screening, assessments, and determinations made under sections 5111.02, 5111.204, 5119.061, and 5123.021 of the Revised Code.

The foregoing appropriation items 490423, Long Term Care Budget - State, and 490623, Long Term Care Budget, may be used to assess and provide long-term care consultations to clients regardless of Medicaid eligibility.

The Director of Aging shall adopt rules under section 111.15 of the Revised Code governing the nonwaiver funded PASSPORT program, including client eligibility. The foregoing appropriation item 490423, Long Term Care Budget - State, may be used by the Department of Aging to provide nonwaiver funded PASSPORT services to persons the Department has determined to be eligible to participate in the nonwaiver funded PASSPORT Program, including those persons not yet determined to be financially eligible to participate in the Medicaid waiver component of the PASSPORT Program by a county department of job and family services.

The Department of Aging shall administer the Medicaid waiver-funded PASSPORT Home Care Program, the Choices Program, the Assisted Living Program, and the PACE Program as delegated by the Department of Job and Family Services in an interagency agreement. The foregoing appropriation item 490423, Long Term Care Budget - State, shall be used to provide the required state match for federal Medicaid funds supporting the Medicaid Waiver-funded PASSPORT Home Care Program, the Choices Program, the Assisted Living Program, and the PACE Program. The foregoing appropriation items 490423, Long Term Care Budget - State, and 490623, Long Term Care Budget, may also be used to support the Department of Aging's administrative costs associated with operating the PASSPORT, Choices, Assisted Living, and PACE programs.

The foregoing appropriation item 490623, Long Term Care Budget, shall be used to provide the federal matching share for all program costs determined by the Department of Job and Family Services to be eligible for Medicaid reimbursement.

HOME FIRST PROGRAM

(A) As used in this section, "Long Term Care Budget Services" includes the following existing programs: PASSPORT, Assisted Living, Residential State Supplement, and PACE.

(B) On a quarterly basis, on receipt of the certified expenditures related to sections 173.401, 173.351, and 5111.894 of the Revised Code, the Director of Budget and Management may do all of the following for fiscal years 2010 and 2011:

1. Transfer cash from the Nursing Facility Stabilization Fund (Fund 5R20), used by the Department of Job and Family Services, to the PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement Fund (Fund 4J40), used by the Department of Aging.

The transferred cash is hereby appropriated to appropriation item 490610, PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement.

2. If receipts credited to the PASSPORT Fund (Fund 3C40) exceed the amounts appropriated from the fund, the Director of Aging may request the Director of Budget and Management to authorize expenditures from the fund in excess of the amounts appropriated. Upon the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, the additional amounts are hereby appropriated.

3. If receipts credited to the Interagency Reimbursement Fund (Fund 3G50) exceed the amounts appropriated from the fund, the Director of Job and Family Services may request the Director of Budget and Management to authorize expenditures from the fund in excess of the amounts appropriated. Upon the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, the additional amounts are hereby appropriated.

(C) The individuals placed in Long Term Care Budget Services pursuant to this section shall be in addition to the individuals placed in Long Term Care Budget Services during fiscal years 2010 and 2011 before any transfers to appropriation item 490423, Long Term Care Budget-State, are made under this section.

ALLOCATION OF PACE SLOTS

In order to effectively administer and manage growth within the PACE Program, the Director of Aging may, as the director deems appropriate and to the extent funding is available, expand the PACE Program to regions of Ohio beyond those currently served by the PACE Program. In implementing the expansion, the Director may not decrease the number of residents of Cuyahoga and Hamilton counties and parts of Butler, Clermont, and Warren counties who are participating in the PACE Program below the number of residents of those counties and parts of counties who were enrolled in the PACE Program on July 1, 2008.

SECTION 209.30. OHIO COMMUNITY SERVICE COUNCIL

The foregoing appropriation items 490409, AmeriCorps Operations, and 490617, AmeriCorps Programs, shall be used in accordance with section 121.40 of the Revised Code.

LONG-TERM CARE OMBUDSMAN

The foregoing appropriation item 490410, Long-Term Care Ombudsman, shall be used for a program to fund ombudsman program activities as authorized in sections 173.14 to 173.27 and section 173.99 of the Revised Code.

SENIOR COMMUNITY SERVICES

The foregoing appropriation item 490411, Senior Community Services, shall be used for services designated by the Department of Aging, including, but not limited to, home-delivered and congregate meals, transportation services, personal care services, respite services, adult day services, home repair, care coordination, and decision support systems. Service priority shall be given to low income, frail, and cognitively impaired persons 60 years of age and over. The department shall promote cost sharing by service recipients for those services funded with senior community services funds, including, when possible, sliding-fee scale payment systems based on the income of service recipients.

RESIDENTIAL STATE SUPPLEMENT
Under the Residential State Supplement Program, the amount used to determine whether a resident is eligible for payment and for determining the amount per month the eligible resident will receive shall be as follows:

(A) $927 for a residential care facility, as defined in section 3721.01 of
the Revised Code;
(B) $927 for an adult group home, as defined in Chapter 3722. of the Revised Code;
(C) $824 for an adult foster home, as defined in Chapter 173. of the Revised Code;
(D) $824 for an adult family home, as defined in Chapter 3722. of the Revised Code;
(E) $824 for an adult residential facility, as defined in Chapter 5119. of
the Revised Code;
(F) $618 for adult community mental health housing services, as defined in division (B)(5) of section 173.35 of the Revised Code.

The Departments of Aging and Job and Family Services shall reflect these amounts in any applicable rules the departments adopt under section 173.35 of the Revised Code.

TRANSFER OF RESIDENTIAL STATE SUPPLEMENT APPROPRIATIONS

The foregoing appropriation items 490412, Residential State Supplement, and 490610, PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement, may be used by the Director of Aging to transfer cash to the Home and Community Based Services for the Aged Fund (Fund 4J50), which is used by the Department of Job and Family Services and the Residential State Supplement Fund (Fund 5CH0), used by the Department of Mental Health for training for adult care facilities serving residents with mental illness. The transferred cash shall be used to make benefit payments to residential state supplement recipients. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

RESIDENTIAL STATE SUPPLEMENT WORKGROUP

(A) There is hereby created the Residential State Supplement
Workgroup consisting of all of the following:
(1) The Director of Aging or the Director's designee;
(2) The Director of Health or the Director's designee;
(3) The Director of Job and Family Services or the Director's designee;
(4) The Director of Mental Health or the Director's designee.

(B) The Director of Aging or the Director's designee shall serve as the chairperson of the Workgroup. Members of the Workgroup shall serve without compensation, except to the extent that serving on the Workgroup is considered part of their regular employment duties.

(C) The Workgroup shall examine solely the issue of which state agency is the most appropriate to administer the Residential State Supplement Program. Not later than December 31, 2009, the Workgroup shall submit written recommendations on this issue to the Governor and, in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, to the General Assembly. The Workgroup shall cease to exist on submission of its recommendations.

ALZHEIMER'S RESpite

The foregoing appropriation item 490414, Alzheimer's Respite, shall be used to fund only Alzheimer's disease services under section 173.04 of the Revised Code.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

The foregoing appropriation item 490606, Senior Community Outreach and Education, may be used to provide training to workers in the field of aging pursuant to division (G) of section 173.02 of the Revised Code.

REGIONAL LONG-TERM CARE OMBUDSMAN PROGRAM

The foregoing appropriation item 490609, Regional Long-Term Care Ombudsman, shall be used to pay the costs of operating the regional long-term care ombudsman programs designated by the Long-Term Care Ombudsman.

PASSPORT/RESIDENTIAL STATE SUPPLEMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 490610, PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement, may be used to fund the Residential State Supplement Program. The remaining available funds shall be used to fund the PASSPORT program.

TRANSFER OF APPROPRIATIONS - FEDERAL INDEPENDENCE SERVICES AND FEDERAL AGING GRANTS

At the request of the Director of Aging, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer appropriation between appropriation items 490612, Federal Independence Services, and 490618, Federal Aging Grants. The amounts transferred shall not exceed 30 per cent of the appropriation from which the transfer is made. Any transfers shall be reported by the Department of Aging to the Controlling Board at the next scheduled meeting of the board.

TRANSFER OF RESIDENT PROTECTION FUNDS

In each fiscal year, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer $600,000 cash from the Resident Protection Fund (Fund 4E30), which is used by the Department of Job and Family Services, to the Ombudsman Support Fund (Fund 5BA0), which is used by the Department of Aging.
SECTION 209.40. UNIFIED LONG-TERM CARE BUDGET WORKGROUP

(A) There is hereby created the Unified Long-Term Care Budget Workgroup. The Workgroup shall consist of the following members:

(1) The Director of Aging;

(2) Consumer advocates, representatives of the provider community, representatives of managed care organizations with which the Department of Job and Family Services contracts under section 5111.17 of the Revised Code, and state policy makers, appointed by the Governor;

(3) Two members of the House of Representatives, one member from the majority party and one member from the minority party, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives;

(4) Two members of the Senate, one member from the majority party and one member from the minority party, appointed by the President of the Senate.

The Director of Aging shall serve as the chairperson of the Workgroup.

The Workgroup shall be staffed by the departments of Aging and Job and Family Services.

(B) The Workgroup shall develop a unified long-term care budget that facilitates the following:

(1) Providing a consumer a choice of services that meet the consumer's health care needs and improve the consumer's quality of life;

(2) Providing a continuum of services that meet the needs of a consumer throughout life and promote a consumer's independence and autonomy;

(3) Consolidating policymaking authority and the associated budgets in a single entity to simplify the consumer's decision making and maximize the state's flexibility in meeting the consumer's needs;

(4) Assuring the state has a system that is cost effective and links disparate services across agencies and jurisdictions.

(C) On an annual basis, the Directors of Aging, Job and Family Services, and Budget and Management shall submit a written report to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, and the members of the Joint Legislative Committee on Medicaid Technology and Reform describing the progress towards establishing, or if already established, the effectiveness of the unified long-term care budget.

(D) In support of the Workgroup's proposal, the Director of Budget and Management may seek Controlling Board approval to transfer cash from the Nursing Facility Stabilization Fund (Fund 5R20), used by the Department of Job and Family Services, to the PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement Fund (Fund 4J40), used by the Department of Aging.

Any transfers of cash approved by the Controlling Board under this section are hereby appropriated to appropriation item 490610, PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement.

SECTION 209.50. OHIO'S BEST RX PROGRAM
On and after the effective date of this section, the Director of Aging may take any actions necessary to conclude the operation of the Ohio's Best Rx Program and settle all accounts with drug manufacturers and terminal distributors of dangerous drugs that had program agreements in effect on the day before the effective date of this section. As appropriate, the Director's actions shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of former sections 173.71 to 173.91 of the Revised Code, as those sections existed on the day before the effective date of this section. The Director shall make every effort to conclude the program by the thirtieth day after the effective date of this section, but any program accounts with drug manufacturers and terminal distributors that remain open after that date may be settled until October 1, 2009.

OHIO'S BEST RX ADMINISTRATION
On the thirty-first day after the effective date of this section, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the cash balance in the Ohio's Best Rx Administration Fund (Fund 5AA0) to the General Revenue Fund. Fund 5AA0 shall remain open after the transfer to allow program accounts to be settled with drug manufacturers and terminal distributors pursuant to this section. On October 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall complete the final transfer of any cash balance in Fund 5AA0 to the General Revenue Fund. Upon completion of the transfer, Fund 5AA0 is abolished. The Director shall cancel any existing encumbrances against appropriation item 490673, Ohio's Best Rx Administration.

COAL DEVELOPMENT OFFICE
The foregoing appropriation item 898402, Coal Development Office, shall be used for the administrative costs of the Coal Development Office.

COAL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE
The foregoing appropriation item GRF 898901, Coal Research and Development General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs at the times they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, for obligations issued under sections 151.01 and 151.07 of the Revised Code.

COAL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT
The foregoing appropriation item 898604, Coal Research and Development Fund, shall be used for research and development of clean coal technologies. On or before June 30, 2010, any unexpended and unencumbered portion of the appropriation item at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated for the same purpose in fiscal year 2011.

SECTION 213.20. ENERGY STRATEGY DEVELOPMENT
The Ohio Air Quality Development Authority shall establish the Energy Strategy Development Program for the purpose of developing energy initiatives, projects, and policy for the state. Issues addressed by such initiatives, projects, and policy shall not be limited to those governed by Chapter 3706. of the Revised Code.

There is hereby created in the state treasury the Energy Strategy Development Fund (Fund 5EG0). The fund shall consist of money credited to it and money obtained for advanced energy projects from federal or private grants, loans, or other sources. Money in the fund shall be used to carry out the purposes of the program. Interest earned on the money in the fund shall be credited to the General Revenue Fund.

On July 1 of each fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer cash from the funds specified below, in the amounts specified below, to the Energy Strategy Development Fund. Fund 5EG0 may accept contributions and transfers made to the fund. On July 1, 2012, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director shall transfer to the General Revenue Fund all cash credited to Fund 5EG0. Upon completion of the transfer, Fund 5EG0 is abolished.

COUNTY SHERIFFS' PAY SUPPLEMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 055411, County Sheriffs' Pay Supplement, shall be used for the purpose of supplementing the annual compensation of county sheriffs as required by section 325.06 of the Revised Code.

At the request of the Attorney General, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer appropriation from appropriation item 055321, Operating Expenses, to appropriation item 055411, County Sheriffs' Pay Supplement. Any appropriation so transferred shall be used to supplement the annual compensation of county sheriffs as required by section 325.06 of the Revised Code.

COUNTY PROSECUTORS' PAY SUPPLEMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 055415, County Prosecutors' Pay Supplement, shall be used for the purpose of supplementing the annual compensation of certain county prosecutors as required by section 325.111
of the Revised Code.

At the request of the Attorney General, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer appropriation from appropriation item 055321, Operating Expenses, to appropriation item 055415, County Prosecutors' Pay Supplement. Any appropriation so transferred shall be used to supplement the annual compensation of county prosecutors as required by section 325.111 of the Revised Code.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION SECTION

The Workers' Compensation Fund (Fund 1950) is entitled to receive payments from the Bureau of Workers' Compensation and the Ohio Industrial Commission at the beginning of each quarter of each fiscal year to fund legal services to be provided to the Bureau of Workers' Compensation and the Ohio Industrial Commission during the ensuing quarter. The advance payment shall be subject to adjustment.

In addition, the Bureau of Workers' Compensation shall transfer payments at the beginning of each quarter for the support of the Workers' Compensation Fraud Unit.

All amounts shall be mutually agreed upon by the Attorney General, the Bureau of Workers' Compensation, and the Ohio Industrial Commission.

CORRUPT ACTIVITY INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTION

The foregoing appropriation item 055636, Corrupt Activity Investigation and Prosecution, shall be used as provided by division (D)(2) of section 2923.35 of the Revised Code to dispose of the proceeds, fines, and penalties credited to the Corrupt Activity Investigation and Prosecution Fund, which is created in division (D)(1)(b) of section 2923.35 of the Revised Code. If it is determined that additional amounts are necessary for this purpose, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

GENERAL HOLDING ACCOUNT

The foregoing appropriation item 055631, General Holding Account, shall be used to distribute moneys under the terms of relevant court orders or other settlements received in a variety of cases involving the Office of the Attorney General. If it is determined that additional amounts are necessary for this purpose, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PASS-THROUGH FUNDS

The foregoing appropriation item 055638, Attorney General Pass-Through Funds, shall be used to receive federal grant funds provided to the Attorney General by other state agencies, including, but not limited to, the Department of Youth Services and the Department of Public Safety.

ANTITRUST SETTLEMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 055632, Antitrust Settlements, shall be used to distribute moneys under the terms of relevant court orders or other out of court settlements in antitrust cases or antitrust matters involving the Office of the Attorney General. If it is determined that additional amounts are necessary for this purpose, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

CONSUMER FRAUDS

The foregoing appropriation item 055630, Consumer Frauds, shall be used for distribution of moneys from court-ordered judgments against sellers in actions brought by the Office of Attorney General under sections 1334.08 and 4549.48 and division (B) of section 1345.07 of the Revised Code. These moneys shall be used to provide restitution to consumers victimized by the fraud that generated the court-ordered judgments. If it is determined that additional amounts are necessary for this purpose, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

ORGANIZED CRIME COMMISSION DISTRIBUTIONS

The foregoing appropriation item 055601, Organized Crime Commission Distributions, shall be used by the Organized Crime Investigations Commission, as provided by section 177.011 of the Revised Code, to reimburse political subdivisions for the expenses the political subdivisions incur when their law enforcement officers participate in an organized crime task force. If it is determined that additional amounts are necessary for this purpose, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

FUND ABOLISHMENTS

Effective July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the cash balance in the Asbestos Abatement Distribution Fund (Fund 6740) to the General Revenue Fund. Upon completion of the transfer, Fund 6740 is abolished.

Effective July 1, 2009, the Bingo License Refunds Fund (Fund R003) is abolished.

FISCAL WATCH/EMERGENCY TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

The foregoing appropriation item 070403, Fiscal Watch/Emergency Technical Assistance, shall be used for expenses incurred by the Office of the Auditor of State in its role relating to fiscal watch or fiscal emergency activities under Chapters 118. and 3316. of the Revised Code. Expenses include, but are not limited to, the following: duties related to the determination or termination of fiscal watch or fiscal emergency of municipal corporations, counties, townships, or school districts; development of preliminary accounting reports; performance of annual forecasts; provision of performance audits; and supervisory, accounting, or auditing services for the municipal corporations, counties, townships, or school districts.

An amount equal to the unexpended, unencumbered portion of appropriation item 070403, Fiscal Watch/Emergency Technical Assistance, at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated for the same purpose in fiscal year 2011.

SECTION 225.20
The moneys transferred pursuant to division (E) of section 117.13 of the Revised Code relative to costs of audits of state agencies and local public offices are hereby appropriated.

AUDIT COSTS

All centralized audit costs associated with either Single Audit Schedules or financial statements prepared in conformance with generally accepted accounting principles for the state shall be paid from the foregoing appropriation item 042603, State Accounting and Budgeting.

SHARED SERVICES CENTER

The Director of Budget and Management shall use the OAKS Project Implementation Fund (Fund 5N40) and the Accounting and Budgeting Fund (Fund 1050) to implement a Shared Services Center within the Office of Budget and Management for the purpose of consolidating statewide finance functions and common transactional processes. The Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the unobligated cash balance remaining in Fund 5N40 to the General Revenue Fund before the end of fiscal year 2011.

Effective July 1, 2009, the Director of Budget and Management shall include the recovery of costs to operate the Shared Services Center in the accounting and budgeting services payroll rate and through a direct charge using intrastate transfer vouchers to agencies for services rendered. The Director of Budget and Management shall determine the cost recovery methodology. Such cost recovery revenues shall be deposited to the credit of Fund 1050.

INTERNAL CONTROL AND AUDIT OVERSIGHT

Effective July 1, 2009, the Director of Budget and Management shall include the recovery of costs to operate the Internal Control and Audit Oversight Program in the accounting and budgeting services payroll rate and through a direct charge using intrastate transfer vouchers to agencies reviewed by the program. The Director of Budget and Management, with advice from the Internal Audit Advisory Council, shall determine the cost recovery methodology. Such cost recovery revenues shall be deposited to the credit of the Accounting and Budgeting Fund (Fund 1050).

FORGERY RECOVERY

The foregoing appropriation item 042604, Forgery Recovery, shall be used to reissue warrants that have been certified as forgeries by the rightful recipient as determined by the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation and the Treasurer of State. Upon receipt of funds to cover the reissuance of the warrant, the Director of Budget and Management shall reissue a state warrant of the same amount.

SMALL GOVERNMENT FIRE DEPARTMENTS
Notwithstanding section 3737.17 of the Revised Code, the foregoing appropriation item 800635, Small Government Fire Departments, may be used to provide loans to private fire departments.

UNCLAIMED FUNDS PAYMENTS
The foregoing appropriation item 800625, Unclaimed Funds-Claims, shall be used to pay claims under section 169.08 of the Revised Code. If it is determined that additional amounts are necessary, the amounts are appropriated.

UNCLAIMED FUNDS TRANSFERS
Notwithstanding division (A) of section 169.05 of the Revised Code, on or after December 1, 2009, the Director of Budget and Management shall request the Director of Commerce to transfer to the General Revenue Fund up to $250,000,000 of unclaimed funds that have been reported by holders of unclaimed funds under section 169.05 of the Revised Code, irrespective of the allocation of the unclaimed funds under that section. After such request has been made, the Director of Commerce shall transfer the funds prior to June 30, 2010.

Notwithstanding division (A) of section 169.05 of the Revised Code, on or after December 1, 2010, the Director of Budget and Management shall request the Director of Commerce to transfer to the General Revenue Fund up to $135,000,000 of unclaimed funds that have been reported by holders of unclaimed funds under section 169.05 of the Revised Code, irrespective of the allocation of the unclaimed funds under that section. After such request has been made, the Director of Commerce shall transfer the funds prior to June 30, 2011.

FIRE DEPARTMENT GRANTS
Of the foregoing appropriation item 800639, Fire Department Grants, up to $1,647,140 in each fiscal year shall be used to make annual grants to volunteer fire departments, fire departments that serve one or more small municipalities or small townships, joint fire districts comprised of fire departments that primarily serve small municipalities or small townships, local units of government responsible for such fire departments, and local units of government responsible for the provision of fire protection services for small municipalities or small townships.

The grants shall be used by recipients to purchase firefighting or rescue equipment or gear or similar items, to provide full or partial reimbursement for the documented costs of firefighter training, or, at the discretion of the State Fire Marshal, to cover fire department costs for providing fire protection services in that grant recipient's jurisdiction.

Grant awards for firefighting or rescue equipment or gear or for fire department costs of providing fire protection services shall be up to $15,000 per fiscal year, or up to $25,000 per fiscal year if an eligible entity serves a jurisdiction in which the Governor declared a natural disaster during the preceding or current fiscal year in which the grant was awarded. In addition to any grant funds awarded for rescue equipment or gear, or for fire department costs associated with the provision of fire protection services, an eligible entity may receive a grant for up to $15,000 per fiscal year for full or partial reimbursement of the documented costs of firefighter training. For each fiscal year, the State Fire Marshal shall determine the total amounts to be allocated for each eligible purpose.

The grant program shall be administered by the State Fire Marshal in accordance with rules the State Fire Marshal adopts as part of the state fire code adopted pursuant to section 3737.82 of the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration and operation of the grant program. The rules may further define the entities eligible to receive grants and establish criteria for the awarding and expenditure of grant funds, including methods the State Fire Marshal may use to verify the proper use of grant funds or to obtain reimbursement for or the return of equipment for improperly used grant funds. Any amounts in appropriation item 800639, Fire Department Grants, in excess of the amount allocated for these grants may be used for the administration of the grant program.

DIVISION OF SECURITIES TECHNOLOGY UPGRADES

Of the foregoing appropriation item 800617, Securities, such sums as are necessary may be used over the biennium to support the development and implementation of information technology solutions designed to enable the Division of Securities to better protect the interests of investors, the public, and the securities industry. Implementation of these solutions shall, among other things, enhance the Division's ability to monitor complaints about and actions against persons engaged in any practice prohibited by Chapter 1707. of the Revised Code or defined as fraudulent in that chapter or any other deceptive scheme or practice in connection with the sale of securities. The Director of Commerce may seek assistance from the Department of Administrative Services in relation to the development and implementation of the solutions.

CASH TRANSFERS TO THE DIVISION OF SECURITIES INVESTOR EDUCATION AND ENFORCEMENT EXPENSE FUND

The Director of Budget and Management, upon the request of the Director of Commerce, shall transfer up to $485,000 in cash in each fiscal year from the Division of Securities Fund (Fund 5500) to the Division of Securities Investor Education and Enforcement Expense Fund (Fund 5GK0) created in section 1707.37 of the Revised Code.

CASH TRANSFERS TO THE REAL ESTATE OPERATING FUND

The Director of Budget and Management, upon request of the Director of Commerce, shall transfer $1,300,000 in cash over the FY 2010-FY 2011 biennium from the Real Estate Education and Research Fund (Fund 5470) to the Real Estate Operating Fund (Fund 5490).

The Director of Budget and Management, upon request of the Director of Commerce, shall transfer $600,000 in cash over the FY 2010-FY 2011 biennium from the Real Estate Recovery Fund (Fund 5480) to the Real Estate Operating Fund (Fund 5490).

INCREASED APPROPRIATION - MERCHANDISING

The foregoing appropriation item 800601, Merchandising, shall be used under section 4301.12 of the Revised Code. If it is determined that additional expenditures are necessary, the amounts are appropriated.

DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 800633, Development Assistance Debt Service, shall be used to pay debt service and related financing costs at the times they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, for bond service charges on obligations issued under Chapter 166. of the Revised Code. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are appropriated, subject to the limitations set forth in section 166.11 of the Revised Code. An appropriation for this purpose is not required, but is made in this form and in this act for record purposes only.

REVITALIZATION DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 800636, Revitalization Debt Service, shall be used to pay debt service and related financing costs under sections 151.01 and 151.40 of the Revised Code during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are hereby appropriated. The General Assembly acknowledges the priority of the pledge of a portion of receipts from that source to obligations issued and to be issued under Chapter 166. of the Revised Code.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSESSMENTS
Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Division of Administration Fund (Fund 1630) is entitled to receive assessments from all operating funds of the Department in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Director of Commerce and approved by the Director of Budget and Management.

DISASTER SERVICES FUND TRANSFERS TO THE EMERGENCY PURPOSES/CONTINGENCIES APPROPRIATION LINE ITEM
The Controlling Board may, at the request of any state agency or the Director of Budget and Management, transfer all or part of the appropriation in appropriation item 911401, Emergency Purposes/Contingencies, for the purpose of providing disaster and emergency situation aid to state agencies and political subdivisions in the event of disasters and emergency situations or for the other purposes noted in this section, including, but not limited to, costs related to the disturbance that occurred on April 11, 1993, at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility in Lucasville, Ohio.

FEDERAL SHARE
In transferring appropriations to or from appropriation items that have federal shares identified in this act, the Controlling Board shall add or subtract corresponding amounts of federal matching funds at the percentages indicated by the state and federal division of the appropriations in this act. Such changes are hereby appropriated.

DISASTER ASSISTANCE
Pursuant to requests submitted by the Department of Public Safety, the Controlling Board may approve transfers from appropriation item 911401, Emergency Purposes/Contingencies, to appropriation items used by the Department of Public Safety to provide funding for assistance to political subdivisions and individuals made necessary by natural disasters or emergencies. Such transfers may be requested and approved prior to or following the occurrence of any specific natural disasters or emergencies in order to facilitate the provision of timely assistance.

DISASTER SERVICES

Pursuant to requests submitted by the Department of Public Safety, the Controlling Board may approve transfers from the Disaster Services Fund (5E20) to a fund and appropriation item used by the Department of Public Safety to provide for assistance to political subdivisions made necessary by natural disasters or emergencies. These transfers may be requested and approved prior to the occurrence of any specific natural disasters or emergencies in order to facilitate the provision of timely assistance. The Emergency Management Agency of the Department of Public Safety shall use the funding to fund the State Disaster Relief Program for disasters that have been declared by the Governor, and the State Individual Assistance Program for disasters that have been declared by the Governor and the federal Small Business Administration. The Ohio Emergency Management Agency shall publish and make available application packets outlining procedures for the State Disaster Relief Program and the State Individual Assistance Program.

Fund 5E20 shall be used by the Controlling Board, pursuant to requests submitted by state agencies, to transfer cash and appropriations to any fund and appropriation item for the payment of state agency disaster relief program expenses for disasters declared by the Governor, if the Director of Budget and Management determines that sufficient funds exist.

SOUTHERN OHIO CORRECTIONAL FACILITY COST

The Division of Criminal Justice Services in the Department of Public Safety and the Public Defender Commission may each request, upon approval of the Director of Budget and Management, additional funds from appropriation item 911401, Emergency Purposes/Contingencies, for costs related to the disturbance that occurred on April 11, 1993, at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility in Lucasville, Ohio.

MANDATE ASSISTANCE

(A) The foregoing appropriation item 911404, Mandate Assistance, shall be used to provide financial assistance to local units of government and school districts for the cost of the following two state mandates:
(1) The cost to county prosecutors for prosecuting certain felonies that occur on the grounds of state institutions operated by the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction and the Department of Youth Services;

(2) The cost to school districts of in-service training for child abuse detection.

(B) The Division of Criminal Justice Services in the Department of Public Safety and the Department of Education may prepare and submit to the Controlling Board one or more requests to transfer appropriations from appropriation item 911404, Mandate Assistance. The state agencies charged with this administrative responsibility are listed below, as well as the estimated annual amounts that may be used for each program of state financial assistance.

(C) Subject to the total amount appropriated in each fiscal year for appropriation item 911404, Mandate Assistance, the Division of Criminal Justice Services and the Department of Education may request from the Controlling Board that amounts smaller or larger than these estimated annual amounts be transferred to each program.

(D) In addition to making the initial transfers requested by the Division of Criminal Justice Services and the Department of Education, the Controlling Board may transfer appropriations received by a state agency under this section back to appropriation item 911404, Mandate Assistance, or to the other program of state financial assistance identified under this section.

(E) It is expected that not all costs incurred by local units of government and school districts under each of the two programs of state financial assistance identified in this section will be fully reimbursed by the state. Reimbursement levels may vary by program and shall be based on: the relationship between the appropriation transfers requested by the Division of Criminal Justice Services and the Department of Education and provided by the Controlling Board for each of the programs; the rules and procedures established for each program by the administering state agency; and the actual costs incurred by local units of government and school districts.

(F) Each of these programs of state financial assistance shall be carried out as follows:

(1) PROSECUTION COSTS

(a) Appropriations may be transferred to the Division of Criminal Justice Services to cover local prosecution costs for aggravated murder, murder, felonies of the first degree, and felonies of the second degree that occur on the grounds of institutions operated by the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction and the Department of Youth Services.

(b) Upon a delinquency filing in juvenile court or the return of an indictment for aggravated murder, murder, or any felony of the first or second degree that was committed at a Department of Youth Services or a Department of Rehabilitation and Correction institution, the affected county may, in accordance with rules that the Division of Criminal Justice Services shall adopt, apply to the Division of Criminal Justice Services for a grant to cover all documented costs that are incurred by the county prosecutor's office.

(c) Twice each year, the Division of Criminal Justice Services shall designate counties to receive grants from those counties that have submitted one or more applications in compliance with the rules that have been adopted by the Division of Criminal Justice Services for the receipt of such grants. In each year's first round of grant awards, if sufficient appropriations have been made, up to a total of $100,000 may be awarded. In each year's second round of grant awards, the remaining appropriations available for this purpose may be awarded.

(d) If for a given round of grants there are insufficient appropriations to make grant awards to all the eligible counties, the first priority shall be given to counties with cases involving aggravated murder and murder; second priority shall be given to counties with cases involving a felony of the first degree; and third priority shall be given to counties with cases involving a felony of the second degree. Within these priorities, the grant awards shall be based on the order in which the applications were received, except that applications for cases involving a felony of the first or second degree shall not be considered in more than two consecutive rounds of grant awards.

(2) CHILD ABUSE DETECTION TRAINING COSTS

Appropriations may be transferred to the Department of Education for payment to local school districts as full or partial reimbursement for the cost of providing in-service training for child abuse detection. In accordance with rules that the Department shall adopt, a local school district may apply to the Department for a grant to cover all documented costs that are incurred to provide in-service training for child abuse detection. The department shall make grants within the limits of the funding provided.

(G) Any moneys allocated within appropriation item 911404, Mandate Assistance, not fully utilized may, upon application of the Ohio Public Defender Commission, and with the approval of the Controlling Board, be paid to boards of county commissioners to provide additional reimbursement for the costs incurred by counties in providing defense to indigent defendants pursuant to Chapter 120. of the Revised Code. Application for the unutilized funds shall be made by the Ohio Public Defender Commission at the first June meeting of the Controlling Board.

The amount to be paid to each county shall be allocated proportionately on the basis of the total amount of reimbursement paid to each county as a percentage of the amount of reimbursement paid to all of the counties during the most recent state fiscal year for which data is available and as calculated by the Ohio Public Defender Commission.

BALLOT ADVERTISING COSTS

Pursuant to section 3501.17 of the Revised Code, and upon requests submitted by the Secretary of State, the Controlling Board shall approve transfers from the foregoing appropriation item 911441, Ballot Advertising Costs, to appropriation item 050621, Statewide Ballot Advertising, in order to pay for the cost of public notices associated with statewide ballot initiatives.

CAPITAL APPROPRIATION INCREASE FOR FEDERAL STIMULUS ELIGIBILITY

A state agency director shall request that the Controlling Board increase the amount of the agency's capital appropriations if the director determines such an increase is necessary for the agency to receive and use funds under the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. The Controlling Board may increase the capital appropriations pursuant to the request up to the exact amount necessary under the federal act if the Board determines it is necessary for the agency to receive and use those federal funds.

LEASE RENTAL PAYMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 371401, Lease Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments from the Ohio Cultural Facilities Commission to the Treasurer of State during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, under the primary leases and agreements for those arts and sports facilities made under Chapters 152. and 154. of the Revised Code. This appropriation is the source of funds pledged for bond service charges on related obligations issued under Chapters 152. and 154. of the Revised Code.

OPERATING EXPENSES

The foregoing appropriation item 371321, Operating Expenses, shall be used by the Ohio Cultural Facilities Commission to carry out its responsibilities under this section and Chapter 3383. of the Revised Code.

By the tenth day following each calendar quarter in each fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall determine the amount of cash from interest earnings to be transferred from the Cultural and Sports Facilities Building Fund (Fund 7030) to the Cultural Facilities Commission Administration Fund (Fund 4T80).

As soon as possible after each bond issuance made on behalf of the Cultural Facilities Commission, the Director of Budget and Management shall determine the amount of cash from any premium paid on each issuance that is available to be transferred after all issuance costs have been paid from the Cultural and Sports Facilities Building Fund (Fund 7030) to the Cultural Facilities Commission Administration Fund (Fund 4T80).

CAPITAL DONATIONS FUND CERTIFICATIONS AND APPROPRIATIONS
The Executive Director of the Cultural Facilities Commission shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of cash receipts and related investment income, irrevocable letters of credit from a bank, or certification of the availability of funds that have been received from a county or a municipal corporation for deposit into the Capital Donations Fund (Fund 5A10) and that are related to an anticipated project. These amounts are hereby appropriated to appropriation item C37146, Capital Donations. Prior to certifying these amounts to the Director, the Executive Director shall make a written agreement with the participating entity on the necessary cash flows required for the anticipated construction or equipment acquisition project.

SECTI0N 259.10.10. THOMAS EDISON PROGRAM
The foregoing appropriation item 195401, Thomas Edison Program, shall be used for the purposes of sections 122.28 to 122.38 of the Revised Code. Of the foregoing appropriation item 195401, Thomas Edison Program, not more than ten per cent in each fiscal year shall be used for operating expenditures in administering the programs of the Technology and Innovation Division.

SECTION 259.10.20. SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT
The foregoing appropriation item 195404, Small Business Development, shall be used as matching funds for grants from the United States Small Business Administration and other federal agencies, pursuant to Pub. L. No. 96-302 (1980) as amended by Pub. L. No. 98-395 (1984), and regulations and policy guidelines for the programs pursuant thereto. This appropriation item also may be used to provide grants to local organizations to support the operation of small business development centers and other local economic development activities that promote small business development and entrepreneurship.

SECTION 259.10.30. RAPID OUTREACH GRANTS

Of the foregoing appropriation item 195412, Rapid Outreach Grants, $5,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be used as an incentive for attracting, expanding, and retaining business opportunities for the state in accordance with Chapter 166. of the Revised Code. Of that amount, no more than five per cent in each fiscal year shall be used for administrative costs of Rapid Outreach Program.

The department shall award funds directly to business entities considering Ohio for their expansion or new site location opportunities. Rapid Outreach grants shall be used by recipients to purchase equipment, make infrastructure improvements, make real property improvements, or fund other fixed assets. To meet the particular needs of economic development in a region, the department may elect to award funds directly to a political subdivision to assist with making on- or off-site infrastructure improvements to water and sewage treatment facilities, electric or gas service connections, fiber optic access, rail facilities, site preparation, and parking facilities. The Director of Development may recommend that the funds be used for alternative purposes when considered appropriate to satisfy an economic development opportunity or need deemed extraordinary in nature by the Director including, but not limited to, construction, rehabilitation, and acquisition projects for rail freight assistance as requested by the Department of Transportation. The Director of Transportation shall submit the proposed projects to the Director of Development for an evaluation of potential economic benefit.

Moneys awarded directly to business entities from the foregoing appropriation item 195412, Rapid Outreach Grants, may be expended only after the submission of a request to the Controlling Board by the Department of Development outlining the planned use of the funds, and the subsequent approval of the request by the Controlling Board.

SECTION 259.10.40. STRATEGIC BUSINESS INVESTMENT DIVISION AND REGIONAL OFFICES

The foregoing appropriation item 195415, Strategic Business Investment Division and Regional Offices, shall be used for the operating expenses of the Strategic Business Investment Division and the regional economic development offices and for grants for cooperative economic development ventures.
SECTION 259.10.50. GOVERNOR'S OFFICE OF APPALACHIA
The foregoing appropriation item 195416, Governor's Office of Appalachia, may be used for the administrative costs of planning and liaison activities for the Governor's Office of Appalachia, to provide financial assistance to projects in Ohio's Appalachian counties, and to match federal funds from the Appalachian Regional Commission.

SECTION 259.10.60. TECHNOLOGY ACTION
The foregoing appropriation item 195422, Technology Action, shall be used for operating expenses the Department of Development incurs for administering sections 184.10 to 184.20 of the Revised Code. If the appropriation is insufficient to cover the operating expenses, the Department may request Controlling Board approval to appropriate the additional amount needed in appropriation item 195686, Third Frontier Operating. The Department shall not request an amount in excess of the amount needed.

SECTION 259.10.70. CLEAN OHIO IMPLEMENTATION
The foregoing appropriation item 195426, Clean Ohio Implementation, shall be used to fund the costs of administering the Clean Ohio Revitalization program and other urban revitalization programs that may be implemented by the Department of Development.

SECTION 259.10.80. GLOBAL MARKETS
The foregoing appropriation item 195432, Global Markets, shall be used to administer Ohio's foreign trade and investment programs, including operation and maintenance of Ohio's out-of-state trade and investment offices. This appropriation item also shall be used to fund the Global Markets Division and to assist Ohio manufacturers, agricultural producers, and service providers in exporting to foreign countries and to assist in the attraction of foreign direct investment.

SECTION 259.10.90. OHIO WORKFORCE GUARANTEE PROGRAM
The foregoing appropriation item 195434, Industrial Training Grants, may be used for the Ohio Workforce Guarantee Program to promote training through grants to businesses and, in the case of a business consortium, training and education providers for the reimbursement of eligible training
SECTION 259.20.10. OHIO FILM OFFICE

The Ohio Film Office shall promote media productions in the state and help the industry optimize its production experience in the state by enhancing local economies through increased employment and tax revenues and ensuring an accurate portrayal of Ohio. The Office shall serve as an informational clearinghouse and provide technical assistance to the media production industry and business entities engaged in media production in the state. The Office shall promote Ohio as the ideal site for media production and help those in the industry benefit from their experience in the state.

The primary objective of the Office shall be to encourage development of a strong capital base for electronic media production in order to achieve an independent, self-supporting industry in Ohio. Other objectives shall include:

(A) Attracting private investment for the electronic media production industry;

(B) Developing a tax infrastructure that encourages private investment; and

(C) Encouraging increased employment opportunities within this sector and increased competition with other states.

SECTION 259.20.30. THIRD FRONTIER RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 195905, Third Frontier Research & Development General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, on obligations issued for research and development purposes under sections 151.01 and 151.10 of the Revised Code.

JOB READY SITE DEVELOPMENT GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 195912, Job Ready Site Development General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, on obligations issued for job ready site development purposes under sections 151.01 and 151.11 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 259.20.40. SUPPORTIVE SERVICES
The Director of Development may assess divisions of the department for the cost of central service operations. An assessment shall contain the characteristics of administrative ease and uniform application. A division's payments shall be credited to the Supportive Services Fund (Fund 1350) using an intrastate transfer voucher.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CONTINGENCY

The foregoing appropriation item 195677, Economic Development Contingency, may be used to award funds directly to either (1) business entities considering Ohio for expansion or new site location opportunities or (2) political subdivisions to assist with necessary costs involved in attracting a business entity. In addition, the Director of Development may award funds for alternative purposes when appropriate to satisfy an economic development opportunity or need deemed extraordinary in nature by the Director.

DIRECT COST RECOVERY EXPENDITURES

The foregoing appropriation item 195636, Direct Cost Recovery Expenditures, shall be used for reimbursable costs. Revenues to the General Reimbursement Fund (Fund 6850) shall consist of moneys charged for administrative costs that are not central service costs.

SECTION 259.20.50. HEAP WEATHERIZATION

Up to fifteen per cent of the federal funds deposited to the credit of the Home Energy Assistance Block Grant Fund (Fund 3K90) may be expended from appropriation item 195614, HEAP Weatherization, to provide home weatherization services in the state as determined by the Director of Development. Any transfers or increases in appropriation for the foregoing appropriation items 195614, HEAP Weatherization, or 195611, Home Energy Assistance Block Grant, shall be subject to approval by the Controlling Board.

STATE SPECIAL PROJECTS

The State Special Projects Fund (Fund 4F20), may be used for the deposit of private-sector funds from utility companies and for the deposit of other miscellaneous state funds. State moneys so deposited shall be used to match federal housing grants for the homeless and to market economic development opportunities in the state. Private-sector moneys shall be deposited for use in appropriation item 195699, Utility Provided Funds, and shall be used to (1) pay the expenses of verifying the income-eligibility of HEAP applicants, (2) leverage additional federal funds, (3) fund special projects to assist homeless individuals, (4) fund special projects to assist with the energy efficiency of households eligible to participate in the Percentage of Income Payment Plan, and (5) assist with training programs for agencies that administer low-income customer assistance programs.

SECTION 259.20.60. TAX INCENTIVE PROGRAMS OPERATING
The foregoing appropriation item 195630, Tax Incentive Programs, shall be used for the operating costs of the Office of Grants and Tax Incentives.

SECTION 259.20.70. MINORITY BUSINESS ENTERPRISE LOAN
All repayments from the Minority Development Financing Advisory Board Loan Program and the Ohio Mini-Loan Guarantee Program shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Minority Business Enterprise Loan Fund (Fund 4W10). All operating costs of administering the Minority Business Enterprise Loan Fund shall be paid from the Minority Business Enterprise Loan Fund (Fund 4W10).

MINORITY BUSINESS BONDING FUND
Notwithstanding Chapters 122., 169., and 175. of the Revised Code, the Director of Development may, upon the recommendation of the Minority Development Financing Advisory Board, pledge up to $10,000,000 in the fiscal year 2010-fiscal year 2011 biennium of unclaimed funds administered by the Director of Commerce and allocated to the Minority Business Bonding Program under section 169.05 of the Revised Code. The transfer of any cash by the Director of Budget and Management from the Department of Commerce's Unclaimed Funds Fund (Fund 5430) to the Department of Development's Minority Business Bonding Fund (Fund 4490) shall occur, if requested by the Director of Development, only if such funds are needed for payment of losses arising from the Minority Business Bonding Program, and only after proceeds of the initial transfer of $2,700,000 by the Controlling Board to the Minority Business Bonding Program has been used for that purpose. Moneys transferred by the Director of Budget and Management from the Department of Commerce for this purpose may be moneys in custodial funds held by the Treasurer of State. If expenditures are required for payment of losses arising from the Minority Business Bonding Program, such expenditures shall be made from appropriation item 195623, Minority Business Bonding Contingency in the Minority Business Bonding Fund, and such amounts are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 259.20.80. ALTERNATIVE FUEL TRANSPORTATION
Of the foregoing appropriation item 195679, Alternative Fuel Transportation, not more than ten per cent shall be used by the Director of Development for administrative costs associated with the program under section 122.075 of the Revised Code.

ADVANCED ENERGY FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 195660, Advanced Energy Programs, shall be used to provide financial assistance to customers for eligible advanced energy projects for residential, commercial, and industrial business, local government, educational institution, nonprofit, and agriculture customers, and to pay for the program's administrative costs as provided in sections 4928.61 to 4928.63 of the Revised Code and rules adopted by the Director of Development.

GLOBAL ANALYST SETTLEMENT AGREEMENTS PAYMENTS
All payments received by the state pursuant to a series of settlements with ten brokerage firms reached with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, the New York Stock Exchange, the New York Attorney General, and other state regulators (henceforth referred to as the "Global Analysts Settlement Agreements"), shall be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the Economic Development Contingency Fund (Fund 5Y60). The fund shall be used by the Director of Development to support economic development projects. Moneys shall be awarded to either (1) business entities considering Ohio for expansion or new site location opportunities or (2) political subdivisions to assist with necessary costs involved in attracting a business entity. In addition, the Director of Development may award funds for alternative purposes when appropriate to satisfy an economic development opportunity or need deemed extraordinary by the Director. Grant funds may be expended only after the submission of a request to the Controlling Board by the Department outlining the planned use of the funds and the subsequent approval of the Controlling Board.

VOLUME CAP ADMINISTRATION
The foregoing appropriation item 195654, Volume Cap Administration, shall be used for expenses related to the administration of the Volume Cap Program. Revenues received by the Volume Cap Administration Fund (Fund 6170) shall consist of application fees, forfeited deposits, and interest earned from the custodial account held by the Treasurer of State.

INNOVATION OHIO LOAN FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 195664, Innovation Ohio, shall be used to provide for innovation Ohio purposes, including loan guarantees and loans under Chapter 166. and particularly sections 166.12 to 166.16 of the Revised Code.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 195665, Research and Development, shall be used to provide for research and development purposes, including loans, under Chapter 166. and particularly sections 166.17 to 166.21 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 259.20.90. LOGISTICS AND DISTRIBUTION INFRASTRUCTURE

The foregoing appropriation item 195698, Logistics and Distribution Infrastructure, shall be used for eligible logistics and distribution infrastructure projects as defined in section 166.01 of the Revised Code. Any unexpended and unencumbered portion of the appropriation item at the end of fiscal year 2009 is hereby reappropriated for the same purpose in fiscal year 2010, and any unexpended and unencumbered portion of the appropriation item at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated for the same purpose in fiscal year 2011.

Any unexpended and unencumbered portion of appropriation item 195649, Logistics and Distribution Infrastructure Taxable Bonds, in fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Development for the same purpose in fiscal year 2011.

The Director of Budget and Management may approve written requests from the Director of Development for the transfer of appropriations between appropriation items 195698, Logistics and Distribution Infrastructure, and 195649, Logistics and Distribution Infrastructure Taxable Bonds, based upon awards recommended by the Director of Development. Such transfers shall be subject to approval by the Controlling Board.

FACILITIES ESTABLISHMENT FUND

The foregoing appropriation item 195615, Facilities Establishment (Fund 7037), shall be used for the purposes of the Facilities Establishment Fund under Chapter 166. of the Revised Code.

Notwithstanding Chapter 166. of the Revised Code, an amount not to exceed $2,000,000 in cash each fiscal year may be transferred from the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037) to the Economic Development Financing Operating Fund (Fund 4510). The transfer is subject to Controlling Board approval under division (B) of section 166.03 of the Revised Code.

Notwithstanding Chapter 166. of the Revised Code, an amount not to exceed $5,000,000 in cash each fiscal year may be transferred during the biennium from the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037) to the Urban Redevelopment Loans Fund (Fund 5D20) for the purpose of removing barriers to urban core redevelopment. The Director of Development shall develop program guidelines for the transfer and release of funds, including, but not limited to, the completion of all appropriate environmental assessments before state assistance is committed to a project. The transfers shall be subject to approval by the Controlling Board upon the submission of a request by the Department of Development.

Notwithstanding Chapter 166. of the Revised Code, an amount not to exceed $3,000,000 in cash each fiscal year may be transferred from the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037) to the Rural Industrial Park Loan Fund (Fund 4Z60). The transfer is subject to Controlling Board approval under section 166.03 of the Revised Code.

Notwithstanding Chapter 166. of the Revised Code, on the first day of July of each year of the biennium, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management, at the request of the Director of Development, may transfer $6,102,500 in cash from the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037) to the General Revenue Fund. The amount transferred is hereby appropriated for each fiscal year in appropriation item 195412, Rapid Outreach Grants.

Notwithstanding Chapter 166. of the Revised Code, on the first day of July of each year of the biennium, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management, at the request of the Director of Development, shall transfer $4,275,000 in cash from the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037) to the Job Development Initiatives Fund (Fund 5AD0). The amount transferred is hereby appropriated in each fiscal year in appropriation item 195677, Economic Development Contingency.

ALTERNATIVE FUEL TRANSPORTATION GRANT FUND

Notwithstanding Chapter 166. of the Revised Code, an amount not to exceed $1,000,000 in cash in fiscal year 2010 and $500,000 in cash in fiscal year 2011 shall be transferred from moneys in the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037) to the Alternative Fuel Transportation Grant Fund (Fund 5CG0) in the Department of Development.

RURAL DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE FUND

(A)(1) The Rural Development Initiative Fund (Fund 5S80) is entitled to receive moneys from the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037). The Director of Development may make grants from the Rural Development Initiative Fund as specified in division (A)(2) of this section to eligible applicants in Appalachian counties and in rural counties in the state that are designated as distressed under section 122.25 of the Revised Code. Preference shall be given to eligible applicants located in Appalachian counties designated as distressed by the federal Appalachian Regional Commission.

(2) The Director of Development shall make grants from the Rural Development Initiative Fund (Fund 5S80) only to eligible applicants who also qualify for and receive funding under the Rural Industrial Park Loan Program as specified in sections 122.23 to 122.27 of the Revised Code. Eligible applicants shall use the grants for the purposes specified in section 122.24 of the Revised Code. All projects supported by grants from the fund are subject to Chapter 4115. of the Revised Code as specified in division (E) of section 166.02 of the Revised Code. The Director shall develop program guidelines for the transfer and release of funds. The release of grant moneys to an eligible applicant is subject to Controlling Board approval.

(B) Notwithstanding Chapter 166. of the Revised Code, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer an amount not to exceed $3,000,000 in cash each fiscal year on an as-needed basis at the request of the Director of Development from the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037) to the Rural Development Initiative Fund (Fund 5S80). The transfer is subject to Controlling Board approval under section 166.03 of the Revised Code.

CAPITAL ACCESS LOAN PROGRAM
The foregoing appropriation item 195628, Capital Access Loan Program, shall be used for operating, program, and administrative expenses of the program. Funds of the Capital Access Loan Program shall be used to assist participating financial institutions in making program loans to eligible businesses that face barriers in accessing working capital and obtaining fixed-asset financing.

Notwithstanding Chapter 166. of the Revised Code, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer an amount not to exceed $3,000,000 in cash each fiscal year on an as-needed basis at the request of the Director of Development from the Facilities Establishment Fund (Fund 7037) to the Capital Access Loan Program Fund (Fund 5S90). The transfer is subject to Controlling Board approval under section 166.03 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 259.30.05. RAPID OUTREACH LOANS
Of the foregoing appropriation item 195606, Rapid Outreach Loans, $15,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to provide financial assistance in the form of forgivable loans or grants for eligible projects in accordance with Chapter 166. of the Revised Code. Such loans or grants shall be awarded on the same basis as awards from appropriation item 195412, Rapid Outreach Grants, and shall be repaid in such a manner as determined by the Director of Development in accordance with section 166.22 of the Revised Code.

When necessary, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer the cash arising from the issuance of obligations under section 166.08 of the Revised Code or from the funds mentioned in sections 166.20, 166.21, 166.25, and 166.26 of the Revised Code, into the Rapid Outreach Loan Fund (Fund 7022). The Director may make additional transfers on later dates as determined by the Director, in consultation with the Director of Development, provided the total amount of transfers does not exceed $30,000,000 for fiscal years 2010 and 2011.

The foregoing appropriation item 195606, Rapid Outreach Loans, may be expended only after the submission of a request to the Controlling Board by the Department of Development outlining the planned use of the funds, and the subsequent approval of the request by the Controlling Board.

SECTION 259.30.10. CLEAN OHIO OPERATING EXPENSES

The foregoing appropriation item 195663, Clean Ohio Operating, shall be used by the Department of Development in administering sections 122.65 to 122.658 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 259.30.20. THIRD FRONTIER RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS AND RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT TAXABLE BOND PROJECTS

The foregoing appropriation items 195687, Third Frontier Research and Development Projects, and 195692, Research and Development Taxable Bond Projects, shall be used by the Department of Development to fund selected projects. Eligible costs are those costs of research and development projects to which the proceeds of the Third Frontier Research and Development Fund (Fund 7011) and the Research & Development Taxable Bond Project Fund (Fund 7014) are to be applied.

TRANSFERS OF THIRD FRONTIER APPROPRIATIONS

The Director of Budget and Management may approve written requests from the Director of Development for the transfer of appropriations between appropriation items 195687, Third Frontier Research and Development Projects, and 195692, Research and Development Taxable Bond Projects, based upon awards recommended by the Third Frontier Commission. The transfers are subject to approval by the Controlling Board.

On or before June 30, 2010, any unexpended and unencumbered portions of the foregoing appropriation items 195687, Third Frontier Research & Development Projects, and 195692, Research & Development Taxable Bond Projects, for fiscal year 2010 are hereby reappropriated to the Department of Development for the same purposes for fiscal year 2011.

AUTHORITY TO ISSUE AND SELL ORIGINAL OBLIGATIONS

The Ohio Public Facilities Commission, upon request of the Department of Development, is hereby authorized to issue and sell, in accordance with Section 2p of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and particularly sections 151.01 and 151.10 of the Revised Code, original obligations of the State of Ohio in an aggregate amount not to exceed $100,000,000 in addition to the original issuance of obligations authorized by prior acts of the General Assembly. The authorized obligations shall be issued and sold from time to time and in amounts necessary to ensure sufficient moneys to the credit of the Third Frontier Research and Development Fund (Fund 7011) to pay costs of research and development projects.

SECTION 259.30.30. JOB READY SITE OPERATING

The foregoing appropriation item 195688, Job Ready Site Operating, shall be used for operating expenses incurred by the Department of Development in administering the Job Ready Sites Program authorized under sections 122.085 to 122.0820 of the Revised Code. Operating expenses include, but are not limited to, certain expenses of the District Public Works Integrating Committees, as applicable, engineering review of submitted applications by the State Architect or a third party engineering firm, audit and accountability activities, and costs associated with formal certifications verifying that site infrastructure is in place and is functional.

SECTION 259.30.40. THIRD FRONTIER BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH AND COMMERCIALIZATION PROGRAM

The General Assembly and the Governor recognize the role that the biomedical industry has in job creation, innovation, and economic development throughout Ohio. It is the intent of the General Assembly, the Governor, the Director of Development, and the Director of Budget and Management to work together in continuing to provide comprehensive state support for the biomedical industry as a whole through the Third Frontier Biomedical Research and Commercialization Program.

SECTION 259.30.60. JOBS FUND CASH TRANSFER

On June 30, 2011, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the unexpended and unencumbered cash balance in the Jobs Fund (Fund 5Z30) to the General Revenue Fund. Upon completion of the transfer, the Jobs Fund is abolished.

SECTION 259.30.70. UNCLAIMED FUNDS TRANSFER

(A) Notwithstanding division (A) of section 169.05 of the Revised Code, upon the request of the Director of Budget and Management, the Director of Commerce, before June 30, 2010, shall transfer to the Job Development Initiatives Fund (Fund 5AD0) an amount not to exceed $4,000,000 in cash of the unclaimed funds that have been reported by the holders of unclaimed funds under section 169.05 of the Revised Code, regardless of the allocation of the unclaimed funds described under that section.

Notwithstanding division (A) of section 169.05 of the Revised Code, upon the request of the Director of Budget and Management, the Director of Commerce, before June 30, 2011, shall transfer to the Job Development Initiatives Fund (Fund 5AD0) an amount not to exceed $4,000,000 in cash of the unclaimed funds that have been reported by the holders of unclaimed funds under section 169.05 of the Revised Code, regardless of the allocation of the unclaimed funds described under that section.

(B) Notwithstanding division (A) of section 169.05 of the Revised Code, upon the request of the Director of Budget and Management, the Director of Commerce, before June 30, 2010, shall transfer to the State Special Projects Fund (Fund 4F20) an amount not to exceed $8,400,000 of the unclaimed funds that have been reported by the holders of unclaimed funds under section 169.05 of the Revised Code, regardless of the allocation of the unclaimed funds described under that section.

Notwithstanding division (A) of section 169.05 of the Revised Code, upon the request of the Director of Budget and Management, the Director of Commerce, prior to June 30, 2011, shall transfer to the State Special Projects Fund (Fund 4F20) an amount not to exceed $3,800,000 in cash of the unclaimed funds that have been reported by the holders of unclaimed funds under section 169.05 of the Revised Code, regardless of the allocation of the unclaimed funds described under that section.

SECTION 259.30.90. WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

The Director of Development and the Director of Job and Family Services may enter into one or more interagency agreements between the two departments and take other actions the directors consider appropriate to further integrate workforce development into a larger economic development strategy, to implement the recommendations of the Workforce Policy Board, and to complete activities related to the transition of the administration of employment programs identified by the board. Subject to the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, the Department of Development and the Department of Job and Family Services may expend moneys to support the recommendations of the Workforce Policy Board in the area of integration of employment functions as described in this paragraph and to complete implementation and transition activities from the appropriations to those departments.

SECTION 259.40.10. CORRECTIVE CASH TRANSFERS

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management, upon request from the Director of Development, shall transfer up to $130,000 in cash from the Low- and Moderate-Income Housing Trust Fund (Fund 6460) to the HOME Program Fund (Fund 3V10) to correct deposits that were mistakenly deposited in Fund 6460.

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management, upon request from the Director of Development, shall transfer up to $6,660 in cash from the Low- and Moderate-Income Housing Trust Fund (Fund 6460) to the Community Development Block Grant Fund (Fund 3K80) to correct deposits that were mistakenly deposited in Fund 6460.

SECTION 259.40.20. DIESEL EMISSIONS REDUCTION GRANT PROGRAM

Any unexpended and unencumbered balance of appropriation item 195697, Diesel Emissions Reduction Grants, remaining at the end of fiscal year 2009, less amounts encumbered by the Department of Transportation for reimbursement of public entities for fiscal year 2009, is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Development for the same purpose in fiscal year 2010. Total expenditures of both the Department of Development and the Department of Transportation for the Diesel Emissions Reduction Grant Program in fiscal year 2010 shall not exceed the reappropriated amount.

Am. Sub. H. B. No. 1 128th G.A.

SECTION 265.10.10. PERSONAL SERVICES
The foregoing appropriation item 200100, Personal Services, may be used to pay fees for the Department's membership in the Education Commission of the States, an interstate nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that supports states with the development of education policy.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200100, Personal Services, up to $500,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to support administration and activities including travel, contract services, and other expenses of the Governor's Closing the Achievement Gap Initiative in the Department.

SECTION 265.10.20. EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION
The Department of Education shall distribute the foregoing appropriation item 200408, Early Childhood Education, to pay the costs of early childhood education programs.

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Provider" means a city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational school district, or an educational service center.

(2) In the case of a city, local, or exempted village school district, "new eligible provider" means a district that did not receive state funding for Early Childhood Education in the previous fiscal year or demonstrates a need for early childhood programs as defined in division (D) of this section.

(3) "Eligible child" means a child who is at least three years of age as of the district entry date for kindergarten, is not of the age to be eligible for kindergarten, and whose family earns not more than two hundred per cent of the federal poverty guidelines as defined in division (A)(3) of section 5101.46 of the Revised Code. Children with an Individualized Education Program and where the Early Childhood Education program is the least restrictive environment may be enrolled on their third birthday.

(B) In each fiscal year, up to two per cent of the total appropriation may be used by the Department for program support and technical assistance. The Department shall distribute the remainder of the appropriation in each fiscal year to serve eligible children.

(C) The Department shall provide an annual report to the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the President of the Senate and post the report to the Department's web site, regarding early childhood education programs operated under this section and the early learning program guidelines.

(D) After setting aside the amounts to make payments due from the previous fiscal year, in fiscal year 2010, the Department shall distribute funds first to recipients of funds for early childhood education programs under Section 269.10.20 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly in the previous fiscal year and the balance to new eligible providers of early childhood education programs under this section or to existing providers to serve more eligible children or for purposes of program expansion, improvement, or special projects to promote quality and innovation.

After setting aside the amounts to make payments due from the previous fiscal year, in fiscal year 2011, the Department shall distribute funds first to providers of early childhood education programs under this section in the previous fiscal year and the balance to new eligible providers or to existing providers to serve more eligible children or for purposes of program expansion, improvement, or special projects to promote quality and innovation.

Awards under this section shall be distributed on a per-pupil basis, and in accordance with division (H) of this section. The Department may adjust the per-pupil amount so that the per-pupil amount multiplied by the number of eligible children enrolled and receiving services, as defined by the Department, reported on the first day of December or the first business day following that date equals the amount allocated under this section.

(E) Costs for developing and administering an early childhood education program may not exceed fifteen per cent of the total approved costs of the program.

All providers shall maintain such fiscal control and accounting procedures as may be necessary to ensure the disbursement of, and accounting for, these funds. The control of funds provided in this program, and title to property obtained therefrom, shall be under the authority of the approved provider for purposes provided in the program unless, as described in division (J) of this section, the program waives its right for funding or a program's funding is eliminated or reduced due to its inability to meet financial or early learning program guidelines. The approved provider shall administer and use such property and funds for the purposes specified.

(F) The Department may examine a provider's financial and program records. If the financial practices of the program are not in accordance with standard accounting principles or do not meet financial standards outlined under division (E) of this section, or if the program fails to substantially meet the early learning program guidelines or exhibits below average performance as measured against the guidelines, the early childhood education program shall propose and implement a corrective action plan that has been approved by the Department. The approved corrective action plan shall be signed by the chief executive officer and the executive of the official governing body of the provider. The corrective action plan shall include a schedule for monitoring by the Department. Such monitoring may include monthly reports, inspections, a timeline for correction of deficiencies, and technical assistance to be provided by the Department or obtained by the early childhood education program. The Department may withhold funding pending corrective action. If an early childhood education program fails to satisfactorily complete a corrective action plan, the Department may deny expansion funding to the program or withdraw all or part of the funding to the program and establish a new eligible provider through a selection process established by the Department.

(G) Each early childhood education program shall do all of the following:

1. Meet teacher qualification requirements prescribed by section 3301.311 of the Revised Code;
2. Align curriculum to the early learning content standards developed by the Department;
3. Meet any child or program assessment requirements prescribed by the Department;
4. Require teachers, except teachers enrolled and working to obtain a degree pursuant to section 3301.311 of the Revised Code, to attend a minimum of twenty hours every two years of professional development as prescribed by the Department;
5. Document and report child progress as prescribed by the Department;
6. Meet and report compliance with the early learning program guidelines as prescribed by the Department.

(H) Per-pupil funding for programs subject to this section shall be sufficient to provide eligible children with services for a standard early childhood schedule which shall be defined in this section as one-half of the statewide average length of the school day, as determined by the Department, for the minimum school year as defined in sections 3313.48, 3313.481, and 3313.482 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit program providers from utilizing other funds to serve eligible children in programs that exceed the statewide average length of the school day or that exceed the minimum school year. For any provider for which a standard early childhood education does not meet the local need or creates a hardship, the provider may submit a waiver to the Department requesting an alternate schedule. If the Department approves a waiver for an alternate schedule that provides services for less time than the standard early childhood education schedule, the Department shall reduce the provider's annual allocation proportionately. Under no circumstances shall an annual allocation be increased because of the approval of an alternate schedule.

(I) Each provider shall develop a sliding fee scale based on family incomes and shall charge families who earn more than two hundred per cent of the federal poverty guidelines, as defined in division (A)(3) of section 5101.46 of the Revised Code, for the early childhood education program.

(J) If an early childhood education program voluntarily waives its right for funding, or has its funding eliminated for not meeting financial standards or the early learning program guidelines, the provider shall transfer control of title to property, equipment, and remaining supplies obtained through the program to providers designated by the Department and return any unexpended funds to the Department along with any reports prescribed by the Department. The funding made available from a program that waives its right for funding or has its funding eliminated or reduced may be used by the Department for new grant awards or expansion grants. The Department may award new grants or expansion grants to eligible providers who apply. The eligible providers who apply must do so in accordance with the selection process established by the Department.

(K) As used in this section, "early learning program guidelines" means the guidelines established by the Department pursuant to division (C)(3) of Section 206.09.54 of Am. Sub. H.B. 66 of the 126th General Assembly.

(L) Eligible expenditures for the Early Childhood Education program shall be claimed each fiscal year to help meet the state's TANF maintenance of effort requirement. The Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Director of Job and Family Services shall enter into an interagency agreement to carry out the requirements under this division, which shall include developing reporting guidelines for these expenditures.

SECTION 265.10.23. EARLY CHILDHOOD CABINET

The Governor shall appoint to the entity in the Office of the Governor known as the Early Childhood Cabinet a representative of a board of health of a city or general health district or an authority having the duties of a board of health under section 3709.05 of the Revised Code. The Governor shall make the appointment not later than six months after the effective date of this section.

SECTION 265.10.30. CAREER-TECHNICAL EDUCATION MATCH
The foregoing appropriation item 200416, Career-Technical Education Match, shall be used by the Department of Education to provide vocational administration matching funds under 20 U.S.C. 2311.

COMPUTER/APPLICATION/NETWORK DEVELOPMENT
The foregoing appropriation item 200420, Computer/Application/Network Development, shall be used to support the development and implementation of information technology solutions designed to improve the performance and services of the Department of Education. Funds may be used for personnel, maintenance, and equipment costs related to the development and implementation of these technical system projects. Implementation of these systems shall allow the Department to provide greater levels of assistance to school districts and to provide more timely information to the public, including school districts, administrators, and legislators. Funds may also be used to support data-driven decision-making and differentiated instruction, as well as to communicate academic content standards and curriculum models to schools through web-based applications.

SECTION 265.10.40. ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAMS
The foregoing appropriation item 200421, Alternative Education Programs, shall be used for the renewal of successful implementation grants and for competitive matching grants to the 21 urban school districts as defined in division (O) of section 3317.02 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to July 1, 1998, and for the renewal of successful implementation grants and for competitive matching grants to rural and suburban school districts for alternative educational programs for existing and new at-risk and delinquent youth. Programs shall be focused on youth in one or more of the following categories: those who have been expelled or suspended, those who have dropped out of school or who are at risk of dropping out of school, those who are habitually truant or disruptive, or those on probation or on parole from a Department of Youth Services facility. Grants shall be awarded according to the criteria established by the Alternative Education Advisory Council in 1999. Grants shall be awarded only to programs in which the grant will not serve as the program's primary source of funding. These grants shall be administered by the Department of Education.
The Department of Education may waive compliance with any minimum education standard established under section 3301.07 of the Revised Code for any alternative school that receives a grant under this section on the grounds that the waiver will enable the program to more effectively educate students enrolled in the alternative school.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200421, Alternative Education Programs, a portion may be used for program administration, monitoring, technical assistance, support, research, and evaluation.

SECTION 265.10.50. SCHOOL MANAGEMENT ASSISTANCE
Of the foregoing appropriation item 200422, School Management Assistance, $1,279,948 in fiscal year 2010 and $1,500,000 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used by the Auditor of State in consultation with the Department of Education for expenses incurred in the Auditor of State's role relating to fiscal caution, fiscal watch, and fiscal emergency activities as defined in Chapter 3316. of the Revised Code and may also be used by the Auditor of State to conduct performance audits of other school districts with priority given to districts in fiscal distress. Districts in fiscal distress shall be determined by the Auditor of State and shall include districts that the Auditor of State, in consultation with the Department of Education determines are employing fiscal practices or experiencing budgetary conditions that could produce a state of fiscal watch or fiscal emergency.

The remainder of foregoing appropriation item 200422, School Management Assistance, shall be used by the Department of Education to provide fiscal technical assistance and inservice education for school district management personnel and to administer, monitor, and implement the fiscal caution, fiscal watch, and fiscal emergency provisions under Chapter 3316. of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.10.60. POLICY ANALYSIS
The foregoing appropriation item 200424, Policy Analysis, shall be used by the Department of Education to support a system of administrative, statistical, and legislative education information to be used for policy analysis. Staff supported by this appropriation shall administer the development of reports, analyses, and briefings to inform education policymakers of current trends in education practice, efficient and effective use of resources, and evaluation of programs to improve education results. The database shall be kept current at all times. These research efforts shall be used to supply information and analysis of data to the General Assembly.
and other state policymakers, including the Office of Budget and Management and the Legislative Service Commission.

The Department of Education may use funding from this appropriation item to purchase or contract for the development of software systems or contract for policy studies that will assist in the provision and analysis of policy-related information. Funding from this appropriation item also may be used to monitor and enhance quality assurance for research-based policy analysis and program evaluation to enhance the effective use of education information to inform education policymakers.

A portion of the foregoing appropriation item 200424, Policy Analysis, may be used in conjunction with appropriation item 200439, Accountability/Report Cards, to develop a fiscal reporting dimension, which shall contain fiscal data reported for the prior fiscal year, to the school report card for publication beginning in fiscal year 2011. The fiscal information contained therein shall be updated and reported annually in a form and in a manner as determined by the Department.

TECH PREP CONSORTIA SUPPORT

The foregoing appropriation item 200425, Tech Prep Consortia Support, shall be used by the Department of Education to support state-level activities designed to support, promote, and expand tech prep programs. Use of these funds shall include, but not be limited to, administration of grants, program evaluation, professional development, curriculum development, assessment development, program promotion, communications, and statewide coordination of tech prep consortia.

SECTION 265.10.70. OHIO EDUCATIONAL COMPUTER NETWORK

The foregoing appropriation item 200426, Ohio Educational Computer Network, shall be used by the Department of Education to maintain a system of information technology throughout Ohio and to provide technical assistance for such a system in support of the P-16 State Education Technology Plan developed under section 3353.09 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200426, Ohio Educational Computer Network, up to $11,626,123 in fiscal year 2010 and $11,895,077 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used by the Department of Education to support connection of all public school buildings and participating chartered nonpublic schools to the state's education network, to each other, and to the Internet. In each fiscal year the Department of Education shall use these funds to assist information technology centers or school districts with the operational costs associated with this connectivity. The Department of Education shall develop a formula and guidelines for the distribution of these funds to information technology centers or individual school districts. As used in this section, "public school building" means a school building of any city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational school district, any community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, any educational service center building used for instructional purposes, the Ohio School for the Deaf and the Ohio School for the Blind, or high schools chartered by the Ohio Department of Youth Services and high schools operated by Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections' Ohio Central School System.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200426, Ohio Educational Computer Network, up to $1,600,000 in each fiscal year shall be used for the Union Catalog and InfOhio Network and to support the provision of electronic resources with priority given to resources that support the teaching of state academic content standards in all public schools. Consideration shall be given by the Department of Education to coordinating the allocation of these moneys with the efforts of Libraries Connect Ohio, whose members include OhioLINK, the Ohio Public Information Network, and the State Library of Ohio.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200426, Ohio Educational Computer Network, up to $5,800,000 in each fiscal year shall be used, through a formula and guidelines devised by the Department, to subsidize the activities of designated information technology centers, as defined by State Board of Education rules, to provide school districts and chartered nonpublic schools with computer-based student and teacher instructional and administrative information services, including approved computerized financial accounting, and to ensure the effective operation of local automated administrative and instructional systems.

The remainder of appropriation item 200426, Ohio Educational Computer Network, shall be used to support development, maintenance, and operation of a network of uniform and compatible computer-based information and instructional systems. This technical assistance shall include, but not be restricted to, development and maintenance of adequate computer software systems to support network activities. In order to improve the efficiency of network activities, the Department and information technology centers may jointly purchase equipment, materials, and services from funds provided under this appropriation for use by the network and, when considered practical by the Department, may utilize the services of appropriate state purchasing agencies.

SECTION 265.10.80. ACADEMIC STANDARDS
The foregoing appropriation item 200427, Academic Standards, shall be used by the Department of Education to develop, revise, and communicate to school districts academic content standards and curriculum models.

SECTION 265.10.90. SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT INITIATIVES

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200431, School Improvement Initiatives, up to $300,000 in each fiscal year may be used by the Department for administrative costs associated with middle school and high school reform programs.

The remainder of the foregoing appropriation item 200431, School Improvement Initiatives, shall be used to support districts in the development and implementation of their continuous improvement plans as required in section 3302.04 of the Revised Code and to provide technical assistance and support in accordance with Title I of the "No Child Left Behind Act of 2001," 115 Stat. 1425, 20 U.S.C. 6317.

SECTION 265.20.10. STUDENT ASSESSMENT

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200437, Student Assessment, up to $100,000 in each fiscal year may be used to support the assessments required under section 3301.0715 of the Revised Code.

The remainder of appropriation item 200437, Student Assessment, shall be used to develop, field test, print, distribute, score, report results, and support other associated costs for the tests required under sections 3301.0710 and 3301.0711 of the Revised Code and for similar purposes as required by section 3301.27 of the Revised Code. If funds remain in this appropriation after these purposes have been fulfilled, the Department may use the remainder of the appropriation to develop end-of-course exams.

SECTION 265.20.15. (A) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 3301.0710, 3301.0711, 3301.0715 or 3313.608 of the Revised Code, the administration of the English language arts assessments for elementary grades as a replacement for the separate reading and writing assessments prescribed by sections 3301.0710 and 3301.0711 of the Revised Code, as those sections are amended by this act, shall not be required until a date prescribed by rule of the State Board of Education. Until that date, the Department of Education and school districts and schools shall continue to administer separate reading and writing assessments for elementary grades, as prescribed by the versions of sections 3301.0710 and 3301.0711 of the Revised Code that were in effect prior to the effective date of this section. The intent for delaying implementation of the replacement English language arts assessment is to provide adequate time for the complete development of the new assessment.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code, the State Board shall not prescribe the three ranges of scores for the assessments prescribed by division (A)(2) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, until the Board adopts the rule required by division (A) of this section. Until that date, the Board shall continue to prescribe the five ranges of scores required by the version of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code in effect prior to the effective date of this section, and the following apply:

(1) The range of scores designated by the State Board as a proficient level of skill remains the passing score on the Ohio Graduation Tests for purposes of sections 3313.61, 3313.611, 3313.612, and 3325.08 of the Revised Code;

(2) The range of scores designated as a limited level of skill remains the standard for applying the third-grade reading guarantee under division (A) of section 3313.608 of the Revised Code;

(3) The range of scores designated by the State Board as a proficient level of skill remains the standard for the summer remediation requirement of division (B)(2) of section 3313.608 of the Revised Code.

(C) This section is not subject to expiration under Section 809.10 of this act.

SECTION 265.20.18. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections 3301.0710 and 3301.0711 of the Revised Code, in the 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 school years, the Department of Education shall not furnish, and school districts and schools shall not administer, the elementary writing and social studies achievement assessments prescribed by section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code, unless the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines the Department has sufficient funds to pay the costs of furnishing and scoring those assessments.

SECTION 265.20.20. ACCOUNTABILITY/REPORT CARDS

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200439, Accountability/Report Cards, a portion in each fiscal year may be used to train district and regional specialists and district educators in the use of the value-added progress dimension and in the use of data as it relates to improving student achievement. This training may include teacher and administrator professional development in the use of data to improve instruction and student learning, and teacher and administrator training in understanding teacher value-added reports and how they can be used as a component in measuring teacher and administrator effectiveness. A portion of this funding may be provided to a credible nonprofit organization with expertise in value-added progress dimensions.

The remainder of appropriation item 200439, Accountability/Report Cards, shall be used by the Department to incorporate a statewide pilot value-added progress dimension into performance ratings for school districts and for the development of an accountability system that includes the preparation and distribution of school report cards and funding and expenditure accountability reports under sections 3302.03 and 3302.031 of the Revised Code.

CHILD CARE LICENSING

The foregoing appropriation item 200442, Child Care Licensing, shall be used by the Department of Education to license and to inspect preschool and school-age child care programs under sections 3301.52 to 3301.59 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.20.30. EDUCATION MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM

The foregoing appropriation item 200446, Education Management Information System, shall be used by the Department of Education to improve the Education Management Information System (EMIS).

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200446, Education Management Information System, up to $1,000,000 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $810,000 in fiscal year 2011 shall be distributed to designated information technology centers for costs relating to processing, storing, and transferring data for the effective operation of the EMIS. These costs may include, but are not limited to, personnel, hardware, software development, communications connectivity, professional development, and support services, and to provide services to participate in the State Education Technology Plan developed under section 3353.09 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200446, Education Management Information System, up to $6,035,256 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $4,960,388 in fiscal year 2011 shall be distributed on a per-pupil basis to school districts, community schools established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, educational service centers, joint vocational school districts, and any other education entity that reports data through EMIS. From this funding, each school district or community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code with enrollment greater than 100 students and each vocational school district shall receive a minimum of $5,000 in each fiscal year. Each school district or community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code with enrollment between one and one hundred and each educational service center and each county board of MR/DD that submits data through EMIS shall receive $3,000 in each fiscal year. This subsidy shall be used for costs relating to reporting, processing, storing, transferring, and exchanging data necessary to meet requirements of the Department of Education's data system.

The remainder of appropriation item 200446, Education Management Information System, shall be used to develop and support a common core of data definitions and standards as adopted by the Education Management Information System Advisory Board, including the ongoing development and maintenance of the data dictionary and data warehouse. In addition, such funds shall be used to support the development and implementation of data standards and the design, development, and implementation of a new data exchange system.

Any provider of software meeting the standards approved by the Education Management Information System Advisory Board shall be designated as an approved vendor and may enter into contracts with local school districts, community schools, information technology centers, or other educational entities for the purpose of collecting and managing data required under Ohio's education management information system (EMIS) laws. On an annual basis, the Department of Education shall convene an advisory group of school districts, community schools, and other education-related entities to review the Education Management Information System data definitions and data format standards. The advisory group shall recommend changes and enhancements based upon surveys of its members, education agencies in other states, and current industry practices, to reflect best practices, align with federal initiatives, and meet the needs of school districts.

School districts and community schools not implementing a common and uniform set of data definitions and data format standards for Education Management Information System purposes shall have all EMIS funding withheld until they are in compliance.

SECTION 265.20.40. GED TESTING

The foregoing appropriation item 200447, GED Testing, shall be used to provide General Educational Development (GED) testing under rules adopted by the State Board of Education. The Department of Education may reimburse in fiscal year 2010 school districts and community schools, created under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, for a portion of the costs incurred in providing summer instructional or intervention services to students who have not graduated because of their inability to pass one or more parts of the state's Ohio Graduation Test. School districts shall also provide such services to students who are residents of the district under section 3313.64 of the Revised Code, but who are enrolled in chartered, nonpublic schools. The services shall be provided in the public school, in nonpublic schools, in public centers, or in mobile units located on or off the nonpublic school premises. No school district shall provide summer instructional or intervention services to nonpublic school students as authorized by this section unless such services are available to students attending the public schools within the district. No school district shall provide services for use in religious courses, devotional exercises, religious training, or any other religious activity. Chartered, nonpublic schools shall pay for any unreimbursed costs incurred by school districts for providing summer instruction or intervention services to students enrolled in chartered, nonpublic schools. School districts may provide these services to students directly or contract with postsecondary or nonprofit community-based institutions in providing instruction.

SECTION 265.20.50. EDUCATOR PREPARATION
The foregoing appropriation item 200448, Educator Preparation, may be used by the Department to support the Educator Standards Board under section 3319.61 of the Revised Code as it develops and recommends to the State Board of Education standards for educator training and standards for teacher and other school leadership positions. Also, any remaining funds may be used by the Department to develop alternative preparation programs for school leaders and coordination of a career ladder for teachers.

SECTION 265.20.60. COMMUNITY SCHOOLS
The foregoing appropriation item 200455, Community Schools, may be used by the Department of Education for additional services and responsibilities under section 3314.11 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200455, Community Schools, a portion in each fiscal year may be used by the Department of Education for developing and conducting training sessions for community schools and sponsors and prospective sponsors of community schools as prescribed in division (A)(1) of section 3314.015 of the Revised Code. In developing the training sessions, the Department shall collect and disseminate examples of best practices used by sponsors of independent charter schools in Ohio and other states.

STEM INITIATIVES

The foregoing appropriation item 200457, STEM Initiatives, shall be distributed by the STEM Committee to STEM schools, STEM Programs of Excellence, or other initiatives that support innovative mathematics and science education and mathematics and science professional development for teachers. Such initiatives may include on-site laboratories, job-embedded professional development, and mentoring and coaching.

SCHOOL EMPLOYEES HEALTH CARE BOARD

The foregoing appropriation item 200458, School Employees Health Care Board, shall be used by the School Employees Health Care Board to hire staff to provide administrative support to the Board as the Board carries out its duties under section 9.901 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.20.70. PUPIL TRANSPORTATION

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200502, Pupil Transportation, up to $838,930 in each fiscal year may be used by the Department of Education for training prospective and experienced school bus drivers in accordance with training programs prescribed by the Department. Up to $60,469,220 in each fiscal year may be used by the Department of Education for special education transportation reimbursements to school districts and county MR/DD boards for transportation operating costs as provided in division (J) of section 3317.024 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200502, Pupil Transportation, $376,914,469 in each fiscal year shall be used to calculate the prorated portion of transportation aid to school districts and shall be distributed as provided by division (L)(1) of section 3306.12 of the Revised Code.

The remainder of appropriation item 200502, Pupil Transportation, shall be used for additional transportation aid for school districts as provided by division (L)(2) of section 3306.12 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.20.80. SCHOOL LUNCH MATCH

The foregoing appropriation item 200505, School Lunch Match, shall be used to provide matching funds to obtain federal funds for the school lunch program.

Any remaining appropriation after providing matching funds for the school lunch program shall be used to partially reimburse school buildings within school districts that are required to have a school breakfast program under section 3313.813 of the Revised Code, at a rate decided by the Department.

SECTION 265.20.90. AUXILIARY SERVICES

The foregoing appropriation item 200511, Auxiliary Services, shall be used by the Department of Education for the purpose of implementing section 3317.06 of the Revised Code. Of the appropriation, up to $1,789,943 in each fiscal year may be used for payment of the Post-Secondary Enrollment Options Program for nonpublic students. Notwithstanding section 3365.10 of the Revised Code, the Department shall distribute funding according to rules adopted by the Department in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.30.10. NONPUBLIC ADMINISTRATIVE COST REIMBURSEMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 200532, Nonpublic Administrative Cost Reimbursement, shall be used by the Department of Education for the purpose of implementing section 3317.063 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.30.20. SPECIAL EDUCATION ENHANCEMENTS

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200540, Special Education Enhancements, up to $2,206,875 in each fiscal year shall be used for home instruction for children with disabilities.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200540, Special Education Enhancements, up to $44,700,561 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $45,282,959 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used to fund special education and related services at county boards of developmental disabilities for eligible students under section 3317.20 of the Revised Code and at institutions for eligible students under section 3317.201 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding the distribution formulas under sections 3317.20 and 3317.201 of the Revised Code, funding for MR/DD boards and institutions in fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011 shall be determined by inflating the per pupil amount received by each MR/DD board and institution in the prior fiscal year by .75 per cent and providing that inflated per pupil amount for each student served in the current fiscal year.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200540, Special Education
Enhancements, up to $1,333,468 in each fiscal year shall be used for parent mentoring programs.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200540, Special Education Enhancements, up to $2,537,824 in each fiscal year may be used for school psychology interns.

The remainder of appropriation item 200540, Special Education Enhancements, shall be distributed by the Department of Education to county boards of developmental disabilities, educational service centers, and school districts for preschool special education units and preschool supervisory units under section 3317.052 of the Revised Code. To the greatest extent possible, the Department of Education shall allocate these units to school districts and educational service centers.

The Department may reimburse county MR/DD boards, educational service centers, and school districts for services provided by instructional assistants, related services as defined in rule 3301-51-11 of the Administrative Code, physical therapy services provided by a licensed physical therapist or physical therapist assistant under the supervision of a licensed physical therapist as required under Chapter 4755. of the Revised Code and Chapter 4755-27 of the Administrative Code and occupational therapy services provided by a licensed occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant under the supervision of a licensed occupational therapist as required under Chapter 4755. of the Revised Code and Chapter 4755-7 of the Administrative Code. Nothing in this section authorizes occupational therapy assistants or physical therapist assistants to generate or manage their own caseloads.

The Department of Education shall require school districts, educational service centers, and county MR/DD boards serving preschool children with disabilities to document child progress using research-based indicators prescribed by the Department and report results annually. The reporting dates and method shall be determined by the Department.

SECTION 265.30.30. CAREER-TECHNICAL EDUCATION ENHANCEMENTS

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200545, Career-Technical Education Enhancements, up to $2,543,531 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $2,563,568 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used to fund secondary career-technical education at institutions.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200545, Career-Technical Education Enhancements, up to $2,138,281 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Department of Education to fund competitive grants to tech prep consortia that expand the number of students enrolled in tech prep programs. These grant funds shall be used to directly support expanded tech prep programs provided to students enrolled in school districts, including joint vocational school districts, and affiliated higher education institutions. This support may include the purchase of equipment.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200545, Career-Technical Education Enhancements, up to $2,800,850 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Department of Education to support existing High Schools That Work (HSTW) sites, develop and support new sites, fund technical assistance, and support regional centers and middle school programs. The purpose of HSTW is to combine challenging academic courses and modern career-technical studies to raise the academic achievement of students. HSTW provides intensive technical assistance, focused staff development, targeted assessment services, and ongoing communications and networking opportunities.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200545, Career-Technical Education Enhancements, up to $270,000 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $300,000 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used by the Department of Education to enable students in agricultural programs to enroll in a fifth quarter of instruction based on the agricultural education model of delivering work-based learning through supervised agricultural experience. The Department of Education shall determine eligibility criteria and the reporting process for the Agriculture 5th Quarter Project and shall fund as many programs as possible given the set aside.

SECTION 265.30.40. FOUNDATION FUNDING

The foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, includes $92,300,000 in fiscal year 2010 and $92,700,000 in fiscal year 2011 for the state education aid offset due to the change in public utility valuation as a result of Am. Sub. S.B. 3 and Am. Sub. S.B. 287, both of the 123rd General Assembly. For each fiscal year, this amount represents the greater of the total state education aid offset calculated for that fiscal year or for fiscal year 2009 due to the valuation change for school districts and the total state education aid offset calculated for fiscal year 2009 for joint vocational school districts from all relevant appropriation line item sources. Upon certification by the Department of Education, in consultation with the Department of Taxation, to the Director of Budget and Management of the actual state aid offsets, the cash transfer from the School District Property Tax Replacement - Utility Fund (Fund 7053) to the General Revenue Fund shall be decreased or increased by the Director of Budget and Management to match the certification in accordance with section 5727.84 of the Revised Code.

The foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, includes $127,700,000 in fiscal year 2010 and $126,600,000 in fiscal year 2011 for the state education aid offset because of the changes in tangible personal property valuation as a result of Am. Sub. H.B. 66 of the 126th General Assembly. For each fiscal year, this amount represents the greater of the total state education aid offset calculated for that fiscal year or for fiscal year 2009 because of the valuation change for school districts and the total state education aid offset calculated for fiscal year 2009 for joint vocational school districts from all relevant appropriation item sources. Upon certification by the Department of Education of the actual state education aid offsets to the Director of Budget and Management, the cash transfer from the School District Tangible Property Tax Replacement - Business Fund (Fund 7047) to the General Revenue Fund shall be decreased or increased by the Director of Budget and Management to match the certification in accordance with section 5751.21 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, up to $425,000 shall be expended in each fiscal year for court payments under section 2151.362 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, up to $15,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be reserved for payments under sections 3317.026, 3317.027, and 3317.028 of the Revised Code except that the Controlling Board may increase the $15,000,000 amount if presented with such a request from the Department of Education.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, up to $8,100,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to fund gifted education units at educational service centers under division (L) of section 3317.024 of the Revised Code, notwithstanding divisions (D)(3) and (6) of section 3317.018 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, an amount shall be available in each fiscal year to be used by the Department of Education for transitional aid for school districts under section 3306.19 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, up to $10,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to provide additional state aid to school districts for special education students under division (C)(3) of section 3317.022 of the Revised Code, except that the Controlling Board may increase these amounts if presented with such a request from the Department of Education at the final meeting of the fiscal year; up to
$2,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be reserved for Youth Services tuition payments under section 3317.024 of the Revised Code; and up to $46,400,000 in each fiscal year shall be reserved to fund the state reimbursement of educational service centers under section 3317.11 of the Revised Code and the section of this act entitled "EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CENTERS FUNDING."

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, up to $1,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Department of Education for a program to pay for educational services for youth who have been assigned by a juvenile court or other authorized agency to any of the facilities described in division (A) of the section of this act entitled "PRIVATE TREATMENT FACILITY PROJECT."

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, up to $8,686,000 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $8,722,860 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used to operate school choice programs.

Of the portion of the funds distributed to the Cleveland Municipal School District under this section, up to $11,901,887 in each fiscal year shall be used to operate the school choice program in the Cleveland Municipal School District under sections 3313.974 to 3313.979 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding divisions (B) and (C) of section 3313.978 and division (C) of section 3313.979 of the Revised Code, up to $1,000,000 in each fiscal year of this amount shall be used by the Cleveland Municipal School District to provide tutorial assistance as provided in division (H) of section 3313.974 of the Revised Code. The Cleveland Municipal School District shall report the use of these funds in the district's three-year continuous improvement plan as described in section 3302.04 of the Revised Code in a manner approved by the Department of Education.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, an amount shall be available in each fiscal year to be paid to joint vocational school districts in accordance with the section of this act entitled "FUNDING FOR JOINT VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICTS."

Appropriation items 200502, Pupil Transportation, 200540, Special Education Enhancements, 200550, Foundation Funding, and 200551, Foundation Funding - Federal Stimulus, other than specific set-asides, are collectively used in each fiscal year to pay state formula aid obligations for school districts, community schools, and joint vocational school districts under this act. The first priority of these appropriation items, with the exception of specific set-asides, is to fund state formula aid obligations. It may be necessary to reallocate funds among these appropriation items or use excess funds from other general revenue fund appropriation items in the Department of Education's budget in each fiscal year, in order to meet state formula aid obligations. If it is determined that it is necessary to transfer funds among these appropriation items or to transfer funds from other General Revenue Fund appropriations in the Department of Education's budget to meet state formula aid obligations, the Department of Education shall seek approval from the Controlling Board to transfer funds as needed.

SECTION 265.30.45. STATE EDUCATION AID OFFSET
Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections 5727.84 to 5727.87 or sections 5751.20 to 5751.22 of the Revised Code, when calculating payments under those sections for fiscal years 2010 and 2011:

(A) The Department of Education shall use for each city, local, and exempted village school district for each fiscal year the greater of the respective "state education aid offset" amount calculated for the district for the current fiscal year or the respective "state education aid offset" amount calculated for the district for fiscal year 2009.

(B) The Department shall use for each joint vocational school district for each fiscal year the respective "state education aid offset" amount calculated for the district for fiscal year 2009.

SECTION 265.30.50. FUNDING FOR JOINT VOCATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICTS

(A) The Department of Education shall distribute funds within appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, for joint vocational funding in each fiscal year to each joint vocational school district that received joint vocational funding in fiscal year 2009. The Department shall distribute to each such district joint vocational funding in an amount equal to the district's joint vocational funding from the previous fiscal year inflated by .75 per cent.

(B)(1) A district's fiscal year 2009 joint vocational funding equals the sum of the following, as reconciled by the Department:
(a) Base-cost funding under division (B) of section 3317.16 of the Revised Code;
(b) Special education and related services additional weighted funding under division (D)(1) of section 3317.16 of the Revised Code;
(c) Speech services funding under division (D)(2) of section 3317.16 of the Revised Code;
(d) Vocational education additional weighted funding under division (C) of section 3317.16 of the Revised Code;
(e) GRADS funding under division (N) of section 3317.024 of the Revised Code;

(f) Any transitional aid computed for the district under Section 269.30.90 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly.

(2) The joint vocational funding for each fiscal year for each district is the amount specified in division (A) or (B) of this section less any general revenue fund spending reductions ordered by the Governor under section 126.05 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.30.70. VIOLENCE PREVENTION AND SCHOOL SAFETY

The foregoing appropriation item 200578, Violence Prevention and School Safety, shall be used to fund a safe school center to provide resources for parents and for school and law enforcement personnel.

SECTION 265.30.80. PROPERTY TAX ALLOCATION - EDUCATION

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall not request, and the Controlling Board shall not approve, the transfer of appropriation from appropriation item 200901, Property Tax Allocation - Education, to any other appropriation item.

The appropriation item 200901, Property Tax Allocation - Education, is appropriated to pay for the state’s costs incurred because of the homestead exemption, the property tax rollback, and payments required under division (C) of section 5705.2110 of the Revised Code. In cooperation with the Department of Taxation, the Department of Education shall distribute these funds directly to the appropriate school districts of the state, notwithstanding sections 321.24 and 323.156 of the Revised Code, which provide for payment of the homestead exemption and property tax rollback by the Tax Commissioner to the appropriate county treasurer and the subsequent redistribution of these funds to the appropriate local taxing districts by the county auditor.

Upon receipt of these amounts, each school district shall distribute the amount among the proper funds as if it had been paid as real or tangible personal property taxes. Payments for the costs of administration shall continue to be paid to the county treasurer and county auditor as provided for in sections 319.54, 321.26, and 323.156 of the Revised Code.

Any sums, in addition to the amount specifically appropriated in appropriation items 200901, Property Tax Allocation - Education, for the homestead exemption and the property tax rollback payments, and payments required under division (C) of section 5705.2110 of the Revised Code, which are determined to be necessary for these purposes, are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 265.30.83. EDUCATION TECHNOLOGY

(A) As used in this section, "eligible entity" means an "eligible local entity" for purposes of the "Enhancing Education Through Technology Act of 2001," as defined in 20 U.S.C. 6753.

(B) Notwithstanding anything in section 3353.20 of the Revised Code to the contrary, for fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the interactive distance learning pilot project required by that section shall be developed and administered only as prescribed by this section.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200641, Education Technology, the Department of Education, in each fiscal year, shall use the lesser of one-half of the amount of federal funds allocated to the state for the fiscal year as an Education Technology State Grant (CFDA 84.318) or $4,500,000 in collaboration with the eTech Ohio Commission to provide grants on a competitive basis to eligible entities for their participation in the interactive distance learning pilot project.

An amount equal to the unexpended, unencumbered portion of this set aside at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Education for fiscal year 2011 to provide grants under this section.

(1) The Department and the Commission shall enter into a memorandum of understanding giving the Commission the authority to set the grant criteria and to select the grant recipients and giving the Department all federal monitoring and compliance responsibilities. The memorandum of understanding also shall specify all of the following:

(a) Administrative functions to be provided by each of the Department and the Commission and the distribution between the Department and the Commission of the costs associated with those functions;

(b) The process that the Department shall use to draw down and transfer the funds necessary under this section in accordance with the "Cash Management Improvement Act of 1990," 31 U.S.C. 6501 et seq. to support the Commission in its functions;

(c) The amount that may be used for administration of the pilot project is limited to not more than five per cent of the total amount expended under this section.

The memorandum of understanding shall comply with all relevant federal guidelines and regulations.
(2) The Commission shall issue a request for proposals for awards to be issued before or during the 2009-2010 academic year.

(3) The Commission shall limit the number of grants so that each grant recipient receives an amount that is sufficient to ensure full participation in the program. The Commission shall endeavor to award grants in a manner that ensures diversity among grant recipients according to geographical regions, economic scale, and school district size.

(4) In awarding grants under this section, the Commission shall give priority to the following:

(a) School districts for which advanced placement or foreign language course offerings make up less than one per cent of the district's total course offerings;

(b) Schools and school districts that without additional assistance lack the necessary connectivity to offer interactive distance learning courses;

(c) Schools and school districts that demonstrate commitment to appropriately supporting distance learning offerings, as determined satisfactory by the Commission, including but not limited to:
   (i) Enrolling a minimum number of students to participate in the distance learning classes;
   (ii) Committing the necessary personnel to facilitate and assist students with distance learning classes;
   (iii) Committing the necessary personnel capable of operating distance learning equipment.

(d) Schools and school districts that without additional assistance lack the necessary equipment to offer interactive distance learning courses;

(e) School districts that demonstrate that the course offerings will take place during the regular school day.

(C) In implementing this section, the Commission shall do all of the following:

(1) Solicit all eligible entities to participate in the program;

(2) Require twenty-five per cent of any grant award to be used for professional development. This professional development shall include at least one component of training in the classroom. It also shall include any training conducted by the Commission that the Commission deems necessary to participate in the program.

(3) Require that eligible entities awarded grants under this section use a percentage of their respective grant awards to contract with a vendor selected by the Commission for the development and offering of interactive distance learning courses;

(4) Require each eligible entity submitting a proposal to specify the amount, if any, needed to purchase video conferencing telecommunications equipment and connectivity devices and the cost of upgrading the school.

(5) Require each eligible entity submitting a proposal to specify the amount needed to upgrade its Internet service, if the school currently has a connection slower than 1.544 Mbits per second;

(6) Assist eligible entities awarded grants in arranging for the purchase and installation of telecommunications equipment and connectivity devices.

(D) In the development of, administration of, oversight of, and award of funds for the program, the Commission shall not be obligated for more than the amount appropriated.

(E) In fiscal years 2010 and 2011, no school that is not an eligible entity shall be entitled to the items specified in divisions (A)(3) to (5) of section 3353.20 of the Revised Code. However, any student, teacher, or other school employee of a public or nonpublic school that is not awarded a grant under this section may participate in the interactive distance learning pilot project, as long as such participation does not impose an additional cost to the state, does not diminish the quality of project outcomes for those entities that are awarded grants, and aligns with federal regulations and guidelines.

(F) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, and the Commission shall submit the formative evaluation prescribed by division (G) of section 3353.20 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.30.90. TEACHER CERTIFICATION AND LICENSURE

The foregoing appropriation item 200681, Teacher Certification and Licensure, shall be used by the Department of Education in each year of the biennium to administer and support teacher certification and licensure activities.

SCHOOL DISTRICT SOLVENCY ASSISTANCE

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200687, School District Solvency Assistance, $9,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be allocated to the School District Shared Resource Account and $9,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be allocated to the Catastrophic Expenditures Account. These funds shall be used to provide assistance and grants to school districts to enable them to remain solvent under section 3316.20 of the Revised Code. Assistance and grants shall be subject to approval by the Controlling Board. Any required reimbursements from school districts for solvency assistance shall be made to the appropriate account in the School District Solvency Assistance Fund (Fund 5H30).

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, upon the request of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Director of Budget and Management may make transfers to the School District Solvency Assistance Fund (Fund 5H30) from any fund used by the Department of Education or the General Revenue Fund to maintain sufficient cash balances in Fund 5H30 in fiscal years 2010 and 2011. Any cash transferred is hereby appropriated. The transferred cash may be used by the Department of Education to provide assistance and grants to school districts to enable them to remain solvent and to pay unforeseeable expenses of a temporary or emergency nature that the school district is unable to pay from existing resources. The Director of Budget and Management shall notify the members of the Controlling Board of any such transfers.

SECTION 265.40.10. SCHOOLS MEDICAID ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIMS

Upon the request of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer up to $639,000 cash in each fiscal year from the General Revenue Fund to the Schools Medicaid Administrative Claims Fund (Fund 3AF0). The transferred cash is to be used by the Department of Education to pay the expenses the Department incurs in administering the Medicaid School Component of the Medicaid program established under sections 5111.71 to 5111.715 of the Revised Code. On June 1 of each fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer cash from Fund 3AF0 back to the General Revenue Fund in an amount equal to the total amount transferred to Fund 3AF0 in that fiscal year.

The money deposited into Fund 3AF0 under division (B) of section 5111.714 of the Revised Code is hereby appropriated for fiscal years 2010 and 2011 and shall be used in accordance with division (D) of section 5111.714 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.40.20. READING FIRST

The foregoing appropriation item 200632, Reading First, shall be used by school districts to administer federal diagnostic tests as well as other functions permitted by federal statute. Notwithstanding section 3301.079 of the Revised Code, federal diagnostic tests may be recognized as meeting the state diagnostic testing requirements outlined in section 3301.079 of the Revised Code.

HALF-MILL MAINTENANCE EQUALIZATION

The foregoing appropriation item 200626, Half-Mill Maintenance Equalization, shall be used to make payments pursuant to section 3318.18 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.40.30. START-UP FUNDS

Funds appropriated for the purpose of providing start-up grants to Title IV-A Head Start and Title IV-A Head Start Plus agencies in fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005 for the provision of services to children eligible for Title IV-A services under the Title IV-A Head Start or Title IV-A Head Start Plus programs shall be reimbursed to the General Revenue Fund as follows:

(A) If, for fiscal years 2010 or 2011, an entity that was a Title IV-A Head Start or Title IV-A Head Start Plus agency will not be an early learning agency or early learning provider, the entity shall repay the entire amount of the start-up grant it received in fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005 not later than June 30, 2019, in accordance with a payment schedule agreed to by the Department of Education.

(B) If an entity that was a Title IV-A Head Start or Title IV-A Head Start Plus agency in fiscal year 2004 or fiscal year 2005 will be an early learning agency or early learning provider in fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011, the entity shall be allowed to retain any amount of the start-up grant it received, unless division (D) of this section applies to the entity. In that case, the entity shall repay the entire amount of the obligation described in that division not later than June 30, 2019.

(C) Within ninety days after the closure of an early learning agency or early learning provider that was a Title IV-A Head Start Plus agency in fiscal year 2004 or fiscal year 2005, the former Title IV-A Head Start agencies, Title IV-A Head Start Plus agencies, and the Department of Education shall determine the repayment schedule for amounts owed under division (A) of this section. These amounts shall be paid to the state not later than June 30, 2019.

(D) If an entity that was a Title IV-A Head Start or Title IV-A Head Start Plus agency in fiscal year 2004 or fiscal year 2005 owed the state any portion of the start-up grant amount during fiscal year 2006 or fiscal year 2007 but failed to repay the entire amount of the obligation by June 30, 2007, the entity shall be given an extension for repayment through June 30, 2019, before any amounts remaining due and payable to the state are referred to the Attorney General for collection under section 131.02 of the Revised Code.

(E) Any Title IV-A Head Start or Title IV-A Head Start Plus start-up grants that are retained by early learning agencies or early learning providers pursuant to this section shall be reimbursed to the General Revenue Fund when the early learning program ceases or if an early learning agency's or early learning provider's participation in the early learning program ceases or is terminated.

SECTION 265.40.40. AUXILIARY SERVICES REIMBURSEMENT

Notwithstanding section 3317.064 of the Revised Code, if the unexpended, unencumbered cash balance is sufficient, the Treasurer of State shall transfer $1,500,000 in fiscal year 2010 within thirty days after the effective date of this section, and $1,500,000 in fiscal year 2011 by August 1, 2010, from the Auxiliary Services Personnel Unemployment Compensation Fund to the Auxiliary Services Reimbursement Fund (Fund 5980) used by the Department of Education.

SECTION 265.40.50. LOTTERY PROFITS EDUCATION FUND

Appropriation item 200612, Foundation Funding (Fund 7017), shall be used in conjunction with appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding (GRF), to provide state foundation payments to school districts.

The Department of Education, with the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, shall determine the monthly distribution schedules of appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding (GRF), and appropriation item 200612, Foundation Funding (Fund 7017). If adjustments to the monthly distribution schedule are necessary, the Department of Education shall make such adjustments with the approval of the Director of Budget and Management.

SECTION 265.40.60. LOTTERY PROFITS EDUCATION RESERVE FUND

(A) There is hereby created the Lottery Profits Education Reserve Fund (Fund 7018) in the State Treasury. Investment earnings of the Lottery Profits Education Reserve Fund shall be credited to the fund. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may certify cash balances exceeding $75,000,000 in Fund 7018 to the Director of Budget and Management in June of any given fiscal year. Prior to making the certification, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine whether the funds above the $75,000,000 threshold are needed to help pay for foundation program obligations for that fiscal year.

For fiscal years 2010 and 2011, notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, amounts necessary to make loans authorized by sections 3317.0210, 3317.0211, and 3317.62 of the Revised Code are hereby appropriated to Fund 7018. Loan repayments from loans made in previous years shall be deposited to the fund.

(B) On July 15, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of the Ohio Lottery Commission shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount by which lottery profit transfers received by the Lottery Profits Education Fund (Fund 7017) exceeded $667,900,000 in fiscal year 2009. The Director of Budget and Management may transfer the amount so certified, plus the cash balance in Fund 7017, to Fund 7018.

(C) On July 15, 2010, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of the Ohio Lottery Commission shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount by which lottery profit transfers received by Fund 7017 exceeded $705,000,000 in fiscal year 2010. The Director of Budget and Management may transfer the amount so certified, plus the cash balance in Fund 7017, to Fund 7018.

(D) Any amounts transferred under division (B) or (C) of this section may be made available by the Controlling Board in fiscal years 2010 or 2011, at the request of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, to provide assistance and grants to school districts to enable them to remain solvent and to pay unforeseeable expenses of a temporary or emergency nature that they are unable to pay from existing resources under section 3316.20 of the Revised Code, and to provide state foundation payments to school districts.

SECTION 265.40.70. GENERAL REVENUE FUND TRANSFERS TO SCHOOL DISTRICT PROPERTY TAX REPLACEMENT - BUSINESS (FUND 7047)

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011 the Director of Budget and Management may make temporary transfers between the General Revenue Fund and the School District Property Tax Replacement – Business Fund (Fund 7047) in the Department of Education to ensure sufficient balances in Fund 7047 and to replenish the General Revenue Fund for such transfers.

SECTION 265.40.80. SCHOOL DISTRICT PROPERTY TAX REPLACEMENT - BUSINESS

The foregoing appropriation item 200909, School District Property Tax Replacement – Business, shall be used by the Department of Education, in consultation with the Department of Taxation, to make payments to school districts and joint vocational school districts under section 5751.21 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

SCHOOL DISTRICT PROPERTY TAX REPLACEMENT - UTILITY

The foregoing appropriation item 200900, School District Property Tax Replacement-Utility, shall be used by the Department of Education, in consultation with the Department of Taxation, to make payments to school districts and joint vocational school districts under section 5727.85 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

DISTRIBUTION FORMULAS

The Department of Education shall report the following to the Director of Budget and Management and the Legislative Service Commission:

(A) Changes in formulas for distributing state appropriations, including administratively defined formula factors;

(B) Discretionary changes in formulas for distributing federal appropriations;

(C) Federally mandated changes in formulas for distributing federal appropriations.

Any such changes shall be reported two weeks prior to the effective date of the change.

SECTION 265.50.10. EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CENTERS FUNDING

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Internet- or computer-based community school" has the same meaning as in section 3314.02 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Service center ADM" has the same meaning as in section 3317.11 of the Revised Code.

(3) "STEM school" means a science, technology, engineering, and mathematics school established under Chapter 3326. of the Revised Code.

(B) Notwithstanding division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code, no funds shall be provided under that division to an educational service center in either fiscal year for any pupils of a city or exempted village school district unless an agreement to provide services under section 3313.843 of the Revised Code was entered into by January 1, 1997, except that funds shall be provided to an educational service center for any pupils of a city school district if the agreement to provide services was entered into within one year of the date upon which such district changed from a local school district to a city school district.

If an educational service center that entered into an agreement by January 1, 1997, with a city or exempted village school district to provide services under section 3313.843 of the Revised Code ceases to operate because all of the local school districts that constituted the territory of the service center have severed from the service center pursuant to section 3311.059 of the Revised Code, another educational service center, by resolution of its governing board, may assume the obligations of the original service center to provide services to the city or exempted village school district under that agreement. If that other service center assumes those obligations to provide services to the city or exempted village school district, that service center shall be considered to be the service center that entered into the agreement by January 1, 1997, and, accordingly, may receive funds under division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code in accordance with this section in fiscal years 2010 and 2011 for pupils of that city or exempted village school district.

(C) Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code to the contrary, an educational service center that sponsors a community school under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code in either fiscal year may include the students of that community school in its service center ADM for purposes of state funding under division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code, unless the community school is an Internet- or computer-based community school. A service center shall include the community school students in its service center ADM only to the extent that the students are not already so included, and only in accordance with guidelines issued by the Department of Education. If the students of a community school sponsored by an educational service center are included in the service center ADM of another educational service center, those students shall be removed from the service center ADM of the other educational service center and added to the service center ADM of the community school's sponsoring service center. The General Assembly authorizes this procedure as an incentive for educational service centers to take over sponsorship of community schools from the State Board of Education as the State Board's sponsorship is phased out in accordance with Sub. H.B. 364 of the 124th General Assembly. No student of an Internet- or computer-based community school shall be counted in the service center ADM of any educational service center. The Department shall pay educational service centers under division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code for community school students included in their service center ADMs under this division only if sufficient funds earmarked within appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, for payments under that division remain after first paying for students attributable to their local and client school districts, in accordance with divisions (B) and (E) of this section.

(D) Notwithstanding division (C) of section 3326.45 of the Revised Code, the Department shall pay educational service centers under division (H) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code for services provided to STEM schools only if sufficient funds earmarked within appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, for payments under that division remain after first paying for students attributable to the local and client school districts of the service centers and for community school students in their service center ADMs, in accordance with divisions (B), (C), and (E) of this section.

(E) If insufficient funds are earmarked within appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding, for the full amount of payments to educational service centers, as calculated under this section and section 3317.11 of the Revised Code, the Department shall allocate funding to the service centers in accordance with the same methodology the Department used for that purpose for fiscal year 2009.

SECTION 265.50.20. WAIVER OF PUPIL TO TEACHER RATIO
For the school year commencing July 1, 2009, or the school year commencing July 1, 2010, or both, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive for the board of education of any school district the ratio of teachers to pupils in kindergarten through fourth grade required under paragraph (A)(3) of rule 3301-35-05 of the Administrative Code if the following conditions apply:

(A) The board of education requests the waiver.

(B) After the Department of Education conducts an on-site evaluation of the district related to meeting the required ratio, the board of education demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction that providing the facilities necessary to meet the required ratio during the district's regular school hours with pupils in attendance would impose an extreme hardship on the district.

(C) The board of education provides assurances that are satisfactory to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that the board will act in good faith to meet the required ratio as soon as possible.

SECTION 265.50.30. PRIVATE TREATMENT FACILITY PROJECT
(A) As used in this section:

(1) The following are "participating residential treatment centers":
(a) Private residential treatment facilities that have entered into a contract with the Department of Youth Services to provide services to children placed at the facility by the Department and which, in fiscal year 2010 or fiscal year 2011 or both, the Department pays through appropriation item 470401, RECLAIM Ohio;
   (b) Abraxas, in Shelby;
   (c) Paint Creek, in Bainbridge;
   (d) Act One, in Akron;
   (e) F.I.R.S.T., in Mansfield.

(2) "Education program" means an elementary or secondary education program or a special education program and related services.

(3) "Served child" means any child receiving an education program pursuant to division (B) of this section.

(4) "School district responsible for tuition" means a city, exempted village, or local school district that, if tuition payment for a child by a school district is required under law that existed in fiscal year 1998, is the school district required to pay that tuition.

(5) "Residential child" means a child who resides in a participating residential treatment center and who is receiving an educational program under division (B) of this section.

(B) A youth who is a resident of the state and has been assigned by a juvenile court or other authorized agency to a residential treatment facility specified in division (A) of this section shall be enrolled in an approved educational program located in or near the facility. Approval of the educational program shall be contingent upon compliance with the criteria established for such programs by the Department of Education. The educational program shall be provided by a school district or educational service center, or by the residential facility itself. Maximum flexibility shall be given to the residential treatment facility to determine the provider. In the event that a voluntary agreement cannot be reached and the residential facility does not choose to provide the educational program, the educational service center in the county in which the facility is located shall provide the educational program at the treatment center to children under twenty-two years of age residing in the treatment center.

(C) Any school district responsible for tuition for a residential child shall, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised Code regarding tuition payment, pay tuition for the child for fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011 to the education program provider and in the amount specified in this division. If there is no school district responsible for tuition for a residential child and if the participating residential treatment center to which the child is assigned is located in the city, exempted village, or local school district that, if the child were not a resident of that treatment center, would be the school district where the child is entitled to attend school under sections 3313.64 and 3313.65 of the Revised Code, that school district, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised Code, shall pay tuition for the child for fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011 under this division unless that school district is providing the educational program to the child under division (B) of this section.

A tuition payment under this division shall be made to the school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility providing the educational program to the child.

The amount of tuition paid shall be:

(1) The amount of tuition determined for the district under division (A) of section 3317.08 of the Revised Code;

(2) In addition, for any student receiving special education pursuant to an individualized education program as defined in section 3323.01 of the Revised Code, a payment for excess costs. This payment shall equal the actual cost to the school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility of providing special education and related services to the student pursuant to the student's individualized education program, minus the tuition paid for the child under division (C)(1) of this section.

A school district paying tuition under this division shall not include the child for whom tuition is paid in the district's average daily membership certified under division (A) of section 3317.03 of the Revised Code.

(D) In each of fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the Department of Education shall reimburse, from appropriations made for the purpose, a school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility, whichever is providing the service, that has demonstrated that it is in compliance with the funding criteria for each served child for whom a school district must pay tuition under division (C) of this section. The amount of the reimbursement shall be the amount appropriated for this purpose divided by the full-time equivalent number of children for whom reimbursement is to be made.

(E) Funds provided to a school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility under this section shall be used to supplement, not supplant, funds from other public sources for which the school district, service center, or residential treatment facility is entitled or eligible.

(F) The Department of Education shall track the utilization of funds provided to school districts, educational service centers, and residential treatment facilities under this section and monitor the effect of the funding on the educational programs they provide in participating residential treatment facilities. The Department shall monitor the programs for educational accountability.

SECTION 265.50.40. SCHOOL DISTRICT PARTICIPATION IN NATIONAL ASSESSMENT OF EDUCATION PROGRESS

The General Assembly intends for the Superintendent of Public Instruction to provide for school district participation in the administration of the National Assessment of Education Progress in accordance with section 3301.27 of the Revised Code. Each school and school district selected for participation by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall participate.

SECTION 265.50.50. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION APPROPRIATION TRANSFERS FOR STUDENT ASSESSMENT

In fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011, if the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that additional funds are needed to fully fund the requirements of Am. Sub. H.B. 3 of the 125th General Assembly and this act for assessments of student performance, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may recommend the reallocation of unexpended and unencumbered General Revenue Fund appropriations within the Department of Education to appropriation item 200437, Student Assessment, to the Director of Budget and Management. If the Director of Budget and Management determines that such a reallocation is required, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer unexpended and unencumbered appropriations within the Department of Education as necessary to appropriation item 200437, Student Assessment. If these transferred appropriations are not sufficient to fully fund the assessment requirements in fiscal year 2010 or fiscal year 2011, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may request that the Controlling Board transfer up to $9,000,000 cash from the Lottery Profits Education Reserve Fund (Fund 7018) to the General Revenue Fund. Upon approval of the Controlling Board, these transferred funds are hereby appropriated for the same purpose as appropriation item 200437, Student Assessment.

SECTION 265.50.53. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION APPROPRIATION TRANSFERS FOR SCHOOL MANAGEMENT ASSISTANCE

In fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011, if the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that additional funds are needed to meet the reporting requirements of the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may recommend the reallocation of unexpended and unencumbered General Revenue Fund appropriations within the Department of Education to appropriation item 200422, School Management Assistance, to the Director of Budget and Management. If the Director of Budget and Management determines that such a reallocation is required, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer unexpended and unencumbered appropriations within the Department of Education as necessary to appropriation item 200422, School Management Assistance.

SECTION 265.50.55. TRANSFER AND ADJUSTMENT OF ARRA STATE FISCAL STABILIZATION FUND APPROPRIATIONS

The Director of Budget and Management, with the approval of the Controlling Board, may transfer appropriation between appropriation items 200550, Foundation Funding, and 200551, Foundation Funding – Federal Stimulus, in each fiscal year, upon the written request of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, to meet the maintenance of effort and use of funds provisions of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, including transferring appropriation between fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011.

SECTION 265.50.60. COMMUNITY SCHOOL FUNDING GUARANTEE FOR SBH STUDENTS

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "IEP" has the same meaning as in section 3323.01 of the Revised Code.

(2) "SBH student" means a student receiving special education and related services for severe behavior disabilities pursuant to an IEP.

(B) This section applies only to a community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code that in each of fiscal years 2010 and 2011 enrolls a number of SBH students equal to at least fifty per cent of the total number of students enrolled in the school in the applicable fiscal year.

(C) In addition to any state foundation payments made, in each of fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the Department of Education shall pay to a community school to which this section applies a subsidy equal to the difference between the aggregate amount calculated and paid in that fiscal year to the community school for special education and related services additional weighted costs for the SBH students enrolled in the school and the aggregate amount that would have been calculated for the school for special education and related services additional weighted costs for those same students in fiscal year 2001. If the difference is a negative number, the amount of the subsidy shall be zero.

(D) The amount of any subsidy paid to a community school under this section shall not be deducted from the school district in which any of the students enrolled in the community school are entitled to attend school under section 3313.64 or 3313.65 of the Revised Code. The amount of any subsidy paid to a community school under this section shall be paid from funds appropriated to the Department of Education in appropriation item 200550, Foundation Funding.

SECTION 265.50.70. EARMARK ACCOUNTABILITY
At the request of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, any entity that receives a budget earmark under the Department of Education shall submit annually to the chairpersons of the committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate primarily concerned with education and to the Department of Education a report that includes a description of the services supported by the funds, a description of the results achieved by those services, an analysis of the effectiveness of the program, and an opinion as to the program's applicability to other school districts. For an earmarked entity that received state funds from an earmark in the prior fiscal year, no funds shall be provided by the Department of Education to an earmarked entity for a fiscal year until its report for the prior fiscal year has been submitted.

SECTION 265.50.80. PROHIBITION FROM OPERATING FROM HOME
No community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code that was not open for operation as of May 1, 2005, shall operate from a home, as defined in section 3313.64 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.50.90. EARLY COLLEGE START UP COMMUNITY SCHOOL
(A) As used in this section:
(1) "Big eight school district" has the same meaning as in section 3314.02 of the Revised Code.
(2) "Early college high school" means a high school that provides students with a personalized learning plan based on an accelerated curriculum combining high school and college-level coursework.

(B) Any early college high school that is operated by a big eight school district in partnership with a private university may operate as a new start-up community school under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code beginning in the 2007-2008 school year, if all of the following conditions are met:

1) The governing authority and sponsor of the school enter into a contract in accordance with section 3314.03 of the Revised Code and, notwithstanding division (D) of section 3314.02 of the Revised Code, both parties adopt and sign the contract by July 9, 2007.

2) Notwithstanding division (A) of section 3314.016 of the Revised Code, the school's governing authority enters into a contract with the private university under which the university will be the school's operator.

3) The school provides the same educational program the school provided while part of the big eight school district.

SECTION 265.60.30. USE OF VOLUNTEERS

The Department of Education may utilize the services of volunteers to accomplish any of the purposes of the Department. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall approve for what purposes volunteers may be used and for these purposes may recruit, train, and oversee the services of volunteers. The Superintendent may reimburse volunteers for necessary and appropriate expenses in accordance with state guidelines and may designate volunteers as state employees for the purpose of motor vehicle accident liability insurance under section 9.83 of the Revised Code, for immunity under section 9.86 of the Revised Code, and for indemnification from liability incurred in the performance of their duties under section 9.87 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 265.60.60. EDUCATOR STANDARDS BOARD

(A) The State Board of Education shall appoint two teachers under division (A)(1)(a) of section 3319.60 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, not later than sixty days after the effective date of this section. The term of office of the new secondary school teacher member shall expire July 1, 2011, and the term of office of the new elementary school teacher member shall expire July 1, 2012. Thereafter, the term of the additional secondary and elementary school teachers appointed to the Educator Standards Board shall be for two years.

(B) The State Board of Education shall appoint a school district treasurer or business manager to the Educator Standards Board under division (A)(1)(c) of section 3319.60 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, not later than sixty days after the effective date of this section. The term of office of that member shall expire July 1, 2012. Thereafter, the term of the school district treasurer or business manager appointed to the Educator Standards Board shall be for two years.

(C) The State Board of Education shall appoint a parent to the Educator Standards Board under division (A)(1)(e) of section 3319.60 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, not later than sixty days after the effective date of this section. The term of office of that member shall expire July 1, 2011. Thereafter, the term of the parent representative appointed to the Educator Standards Board shall be for two years.

(D) The higher education representatives appointed by the State Board of Education to the Educator Standards Board prior to the effective date of this section under former division (A)(5) of section 3319.60 of the Revised Code shall serve for the remainder of their terms. The Chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents shall appoint higher education representatives to the Educator Standards Board under division (A)(2) of section 3319.60 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, as the terms of the higher education representatives appointed under former division (A)(5) of that section expire, each for a term of two years. The Chancellor also shall fill any vacancies that occur during the term of a higher education representative appointed under former division (A)(5) of that section.

SECTION 265.60.70. RESTRICTION OF LIABILITY FOR CERTAIN REIMBURSEMENTS

(A) Except as expressly required under a court judgment not subject to further appeals, or a settlement agreement with a school district executed on or before June 1, 2009, in the case of a school district for which the formula ADM for fiscal year 2005, as reported for that fiscal year under division (A) of section 3317.03 of the Revised Code, was reduced based on enrollment reports for community schools, made under section 3314.08 of the Revised Code, regarding students entitled to attend school in the district, which reduction of formula ADM resulted in a reduction of foundation funding or transitional aid funding for fiscal year 2005, 2006, or 2007, no school district, except a district named in the court's judgment or the settlement agreement, shall have a legal claim for reimbursement of the amount of such reduction in foundation funding or transitional aid funding, and the state shall not have liability for reimbursement of the amount of such reduction in foundation funding or transitional aid funding.

(B) As used in this section:
(1) "Community school" means a community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code.

(2) "Entitled to attend school" means entitled to attend school in a school district under section 3313.64 or 3313.65 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Foundation funding" means payments calculated for the respective fiscal year under Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code.

(4) "Transitional aid funding" means payments calculated for the respective fiscal year under Section 41.37 of Am. Sub. H.B. 95 of the 125th General Assembly, as subsequently amended; Section 206.09.39 of Am. Sub. H.B. 66 of the 126th General Assembly, as subsequently amended; and Section 269.30.80 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly.

SECTION 265.60.80. COMMITTEE TO UPDATE STANDARDS AND CURRICULA
Not later than September 15, 2009, the State Board of Education shall convene a committee of national experts, state experts, and local practitioners to provide advice and guidance in the design of the updated standards and curricula required by section 3301.079 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act.

SECTION 265.60.90. All duties, powers, obligations, and functions performed by, all rights exercised by, and the remaining unexpended, unencumbered balance of any money appropriated or reappropriated to the Department of Administrative Services with regard to the School Employees Health Care Board under section 9.901 of the Revised Code, whether obligated or unobligated, are transferred to the Department of Education on July 1, 2009. The Department of Education thereupon succeeds to, and shall assume, all duties, powers, obligations, and functions performed by, all rights exercised by, and the remaining unexpended, unencumbered balance of any money appropriated or reappropriated to the Department of Administrative Services with regard to the School Employees Health Care Board under section 9.901 of the Revised Code.
Any aspect of the board's operations commenced but not completed by the Department of Administrative Services on July 1, 2009, shall be completed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or staff of the Department of Education in the same manner, and with the same effect, as if completed by the Department of Administrative Services or the staff of the Department of Administrative Services. Any validation, cure, right, privilege, remedy, obligation, or liability related to the board's operations is neither lost nor impaired by reason of the transfer and shall be administered by the Department of Education.

All of the rules, orders, and determinations of the Department of Administrative Services in relation to the board's operations continue in effect as rules, orders, and determinations of the Superintendent of Public Instruction until modified or rescinded by the Superintendent. At the request of the Superintendent, and if necessary to ensure the integrity of the numbering of the Administrative Code, the Director of the Legislative Service Commission shall renumber the rules of the board to reflect the transfer to the Department of Education.

The Department of Administrative Services and the Superintendent shall identify the employees of the board to be transferred to the Department of Education. The employees shall be transferred on July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter.

Whenever the Department of Administrative Services is referred to in relation to the board in any law, contract, or other document, the reference shall be deemed to refer to the Department of Education in relation to the board.

Any action or proceeding that is related to the board's operations and that is pending on the effective date of this section is not affected by the transfer and shall be prosecuted or defended in the name of the Superintendent or the Department of Education. In all such actions and proceedings, the Superintendent or the Department of Education, upon application to the court or agency, shall be substituted as a party.

On or after July 1, 2009, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Director of Budget and Management shall take any action with respect to budget changes made necessary by the transfer, including the creation of new funds and the consolidation of funds. The Director may transfer cash balances between funds. The Director may cancel encumbrances and re-establish encumbrances or parts of encumbrances as needed in the fiscal year in the appropriate fund and appropriation item for the same purpose and to the same vendor. As determined by the Director, encumbrances re-established in the fiscal year in a different fund or appropriation item used by an agency or between agencies are appropriated. The Director shall reduce each year's appropriation balances by the amount of the encumbrance canceled in their respective funds and appropriation item. Any unencumbered or unallocated appropriation balances from the previous fiscal year may be transferred to the appropriate appropriation item to be used for the same purposes, as determined by the Director.
SECTION 265.70.10. CENTER FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT

(A) The Governor and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall create the Center for Early Childhood Development in the Department of Education comprised of staff from the Department of Education, the Department of Job and Family Services, the Department of Health, and any other state agency as determined necessary by the Governor and the Superintendent. The Governor and the Superintendent also shall hire a Director of the Center who shall report to the Superintendent and the Governor. The Center, under the supervision of the Director, shall research and make recommendations about the coordination of early childhood programs and services for children, beginning with prenatal care and continuing until entry into kindergarten, and the eventual transfer of the authority to implement those programs and services from other state agencies to the Department of Education.

(B) The Center for Early Childhood Development shall promote family-centered programs and services that acknowledge and support the social, emotional, cognitive, intellectual, and physical development of children and the vital role of families in ensuring the well-being and success of children.

(C) The Director of the Center for Early Childhood Development, in partnership with staff from the Department of Education, the Department of Job and Family Services, the Department of Health, and any other state agency as determined necessary by the Governor and the Superintendent, and advised by the Early Childhood Advisory Council, shall submit an implementation plan to the Superintendent and the Governor not later than December 31, 2009. The implementation plan shall include research and recommendations regarding all of the following:

1. The identification of programs, services, and funding sources to be transferred from other state agencies to the Department of Education;
2. A new administrative structure within the Department of Education for the purpose of implementing early childhood programs and services;
3. Statutory changes necessary to implement the new administrative structure within the Department of Education;
4. A timeline for the transition from the current administrative structure within other state agencies to the new administrative structure within the Department of Education.

(D) The Director of Budget and Management may seek Controlling Board approval to do any of the following to support the preparation of an implementation plan to create a new administrative structure for early childhood programs and services within the Department of Education:

1. Create new funds and non-GRF appropriation items;
2. Transfer cash between funds;
3. Transfer appropriations within the same fund used by the same state agency.

Any transfers of cash approved by the Controlling Board under this section are hereby appropriated.

Section 265.70.20. Early Childhood Financing Workgroup
The Early Childhood Advisory Council shall establish an Early Childhood Financing Workgroup. The chairperson of the Early Childhood Advisory Council shall serve as chairperson of the Early Childhood Financing Workgroup. The Early Childhood Financing Workgroup shall develop recommendations that explore the implementation of a single financing system for early care and education programs that includes aligned payment mechanisms and consistent eligibility and co-payment policies. Not later than December 31, 2009, the Early Childhood Financing Workgroup shall submit its recommendations to the Governor. Upon the order of the Early Childhood Advisory Council, the Early Childhood Financing Workgroup shall cease to exist.

Section 265.70.23. Recommendations for Minimum School Year
Not later than December 31, 2010, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall submit to the General Assembly, in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, a report of the Superintendent's findings and recommendations on extending the school year.

Section 265.70.40. Moratorium on Local School District Relocations to Different Educational Service Centers
Notwithstanding section 3311.059 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, and notwithstanding Section 265.70.41 of this act, no severance of the territory of a local school district from the educational service center to which it currently belongs and annexation of that district's territory to an adjacent educational service center, as otherwise authorized under that section, shall be effective for the period beginning on the effective date of this section and ending July 1, 2011. All resolutions proposing such severance and annexation approved by the State Board of Education but not effective prior to July 1, 2009, are hereby void. All resolutions proposing such severance and annexation pending on the effective date of this section are hereby void and shall not be considered by the State Board. If the board of education of a local school district with such a severance and annexation action pending or approved on the effective date of this section that is void under this section desires to have the action considered after July 1, 2011, the board shall adopt after that date a new resolution in the manner prescribed by section 3311.059 of the Revised Code. No local school district shall adopt a severance and annexation resolution under that section during the period beginning on the effective date of this section and ending July 1, 2011.

SECTION 265.70.41. The amendments to section 3311.059 of the Revised Code enacted by this act shall apply to any resolution proposing the severance of a local school district from its current educational service center and annexation of the district to the territory of another service center pending before the State Board of Education on and after the effective date of this section.

SECTION 265.70.50. (A) Not later than December 31, 2010, the Department of Education, in consultation with the Educator Standards Board, shall develop a model peer assistance and review program and shall develop recommendations to expand the use of peer assistance and review programs in school districts throughout the state.

(B) In developing the model program required under this section, the Department shall review existing peer assistance and review programs in Ohio school districts and shall consult with the districts about the operation of those programs. The model program shall include the following elements:

(1) Releasing experienced classroom teachers from instructional duties for up to three years to focus full-time on mentoring and evaluating new teachers and underperforming veteran teachers through classroom observations and follow-up meetings;

(2) Professional development for new and underperforming teachers that is targeted at their instructional weaknesses;

(3) A committee comprised of representatives of teachers and the employer to review teacher evaluations and make recommendations regarding the teachers' continued employment.

(C) The recommendations required under this section shall include the following:

(1) Identification of barriers to expansion of peer assistance and review programs, including financial constraints, labor-management relationships, and barriers unique to small school districts;

(2) Legislative changes that would eliminate barriers to expansion of the programs;

(3) Incentives to increase participation in the programs.

(D) The Department shall provide copies of its model program and recommendations to the Governor, the President and Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker and Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, and the chairpersons and ranking minority members of the standing committees on education. The Department also shall make the model program and recommendations available to school districts and shall post them on its web site.

SECTION 265.70.70. As used in this section, "all-day kindergarten" has the same meaning as in section 3321.05 of the Revised Code.

Any school district or community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code that, in fiscal year 2009, offered all-day kindergarten and charged fees or tuition for students enrolled in all-day kindergarten in accordance with section 3321.01 of the Revised Code, as it existed prior to the effective date of this section, may charge fees or tuition for students enrolled in all-day kindergarten in fiscal years 2010 and 2011, at a rate not higher than the per-student amount charged in fiscal year 2009 as specified in the sliding fee scale based on family incomes developed by the district or community school for that fiscal year. No district or community school shall charge fees or tuition for students enrolled in all-day kindergarten after fiscal year 2011.

SECTION 265.70.80. Notwithstanding section 3306.31 of the Revised Code, in fiscal year 2010, the Governor's Closing the Achievement Gap Initiative shall work with those districts that have a three-year overall average graduation rate of 80 per cent or less to assist them in planning for the implementation of the program in fiscal year 2011. Districts that are currently participating in the program and that continue to have a three-year overall graduation rate of 80 per cent or less are encouraged to maintain existing programs during this planning period.
SEC. 265.80.20. UNAUDITABLE COMMUNITY SCHOOL

(A) If the Auditor of State or a public accountant, pursuant to section 117.41 of the Revised Code, declares a community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code to be unauditable, the Auditor of State shall provide written notification of that declaration to the school, the school's sponsor, and the Department of Education. The Auditor of State also shall post the notification on the Auditor of State's web site.

(B) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code or any other provision of law, a sponsor of a community school that is notified by the Auditor of State under division (A) of this section that a community school it sponsors is unauditable shall not enter into contracts with any additional community schools under section 3314.03 of the Revised Code until the Auditor of State or a public accountant has completed a financial audit of that school.

(C) Not later than forty-five days after receiving notification by the Auditor of State under division (A) of this section that a community school is unauditable, the sponsor of the school shall provide a written response to the Auditor of State. The response shall include the following:

1. An overview of the process the sponsor will use to review and understand the circumstances that led to the community school becoming unauditable;

2. A plan for providing the Auditor of State with the documentation necessary to complete an audit of the community school and for ensuring that all financial documents are available in the future;

3. The actions the sponsor will take to ensure that the plan described in division (C)(2) of this section is implemented.

(D) If a community school fails to make reasonable efforts and continuing progress to bring its accounts, records, files, or reports into an auditable condition within ninety days after being declared unauditable, the Auditor of State, in addition to requesting legal action under sections 117.41 and 117.42 of the Revised Code, shall notify the Department of the school's failure. If the Auditor of State or a public accountant subsequently is able to complete a financial audit of the school, the Auditor of State shall notify the Department that the audit has been completed.

(E) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code or any other provision of law, upon notification by the Auditor of State under division (D) of this section that a community school has failed to make reasonable efforts and continuing progress to bring its accounts, records, files, or reports into an auditable condition following a declaration that the school is unauditable, the Department shall immediately cease all payments to the school under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code and any other provision of law. Upon subsequent notification from the Auditor of State under that division that the Auditor of State or a public accountant was able to complete a financial audit of the community school, the Department shall release all funds withheld from the school under this section.

SECTION 265.80.30. (A) This section applies only to the contract for vocational education services, under section 3313.90 of the Revised Code, between:

(1) A local school district receiving the services under the contract, which was created under section 3311.26 of the Revised Code and began operating in fiscal year 2005;

(2) Another local school district providing the services under the contract, the territory of which district had included the territory of the district described in division (A)(1) of this section prior to the creation of that district.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in rule 3301-61-06 of the Administrative Code, a vocational education contract to which this section applies that expires on or before June 30, 2010, may be renewed one time for a term of less than five years.

SECTION 265.80.40. Not later than January 29, 2010, the State Board of Education shall develop a list of best practices for improving parental involvement in schools that public and nonpublic schools may use to increase parental participation. The Department of Education shall make the list available to schools on its web site.

PAYROLL WITHHOLDING FUND TRANSFER
On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $33,065.48 from the Payroll Withholding Fund (Fund 1240) to the General Revenue Fund. This amount represents the remaining balance in the Manual Emergency Payroll Account. After the transfer is completed, the Manual Emergency Payroll Account shall be closed.

ACCRUED LEAVE LIABILITY FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 995666, Accrued Leave Fund, shall be used to make payments from the Accrued Leave Liability Fund (Fund 8060) pursuant to section 125.211 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional amounts are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

STATE EMPLOYEE DISABILITY LEAVE BENEFIT FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 995667, Disability Fund, shall be used to make payments from the State Employee Disability Leave Benefit Fund (Fund 8070) pursuant to section 124.83 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional amounts are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

PAYROLL WITHHOLDING FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 995673, Payroll Deductions, shall be used to make payments from the Payroll Withholding Fund (Fund 1240). If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional appropriation amounts are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

STATE EMPLOYEE HEALTH BENEFIT FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 995668, State Employee Health Benefit Fund, shall be used to make payments from the State Employee Health Benefit Fund (Fund 8080) pursuant to section 124.87 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional amounts are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

DEPENDENT CARE SPENDING FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 995669, Dependent Care Spending Account, shall be used to make payments from the Dependent Care Spending Fund (Fund 8090) to employees eligible for dependent care expenses. If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional amounts are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

LIFE INSURANCE INVESTMENT FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 995670, Life Insurance Investment Fund, shall be used to make payments from the Life Insurance Investment Fund (Fund 8100) for the costs and expenses of the state's life insurance benefit program pursuant to section 125.212 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional amounts are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

PARENTAL LEAVE BENEFIT FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 995671, Parental Leave Benefit Fund, shall be used to make payments from the Parental Leave Benefit Fund (Fund 8110) to employees eligible for parental leave benefits pursuant to section 124.137 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Budget and Management that additional amounts are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

HEALTH CARE SPENDING ACCOUNT FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 995672, Health Care Spending Account, shall be used to make payments from the Health Care Spending Account Fund (Fund 8130) for payments pursuant to state employees’ participation in a flexible spending account for non-reimbursed health care... expenses and section 124.821 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Administrative Services that additional appropriation amounts are necessary, the Director of Administrative Services may request that the Director of Budget and Management increase such amounts. Such amounts are hereby appropriated.

At the request of the Director of Administrative Services, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer up to $145,000 from the General Revenue Fund to the Health Care Spending Account Fund during fiscal years 2010 and 2011. This cash shall be transferred as needed to provide adequate cash flow for the Health Care Spending Account Fund during fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011. If funds are available at the end of fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer cash up to the amount previously transferred in the respective year, plus interest income, from the Health Care Spending Account (Fund 8130) to the General Revenue Fund.

COST SAVINGS DAYS

The foregoing appropriation item, 995674, Cost Savings Days, shall be used by the Director of Budget and Management in accordance with division (E) of section 124.392 of the Revised Code to pay employees who participated in a mandatory cost savings program, or to reimburse employees who did not fully participate in a mandatory cost savings program by the close of each fiscal year. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011, the Director may transfer agency savings achieved from the use of a mandatory cost savings program to the General Revenue Fund or any other fund as deemed necessary by the Director. The Director may make temporary transfers from the General Revenue Fund to ensure sufficient balances in the Cost Savings Fund and may reimburse the General Revenue Fund for such transfers. If the Director determines that additional amounts are necessary for these purposes, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

(A) Beginning on July 1, 2009, the Chairperson of the State Employment Relations Board is the appointing authority for all employees of the State Personnel Board of Review and the State Employment Relations Board. After conferring with the Chairperson of the State Personnel Board of Review, the Chairperson of the State Employment Relations Board shall identify the employees, equipment, assets, and records of the State Personnel Board of Review to be transferred to the State Employment Relations Board. The State Employment Relations Board and the State Personnel Board of Review shall enter into an interagency agreement to transfer to the State Employment Relations Board employees, equipment, assets, and records of the State Personnel Board of Review by July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter. The agreement may include provisions to transfer property and any other provisions necessary for the continued administration of program activities. The employees of the State Personnel Board of Review that the Chairperson of the State Employment Relations Board identifies for transfer, and any equipment assigned to those employees, are hereby transferred to the State Employment Relations Board. Any employees of the State Personnel Board of Review so transferred shall retain the rights specified in sections 124.321 to 124.328 of the Revised Code, and any employee transferred to the State Employment Relations Board retains the employee's respective classification, but the Chairperson of the State Employment Relations Board may reassign and reclassify the employee's position and compensation as the Chairperson determines to be in the interest of efficient office administration. Pursuant to division (B)(2)(b) of section 4117.02 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, to the extent determined necessary by the Chairperson of the State Employment Relations Board, the State Personnel Board of Review shall utilize employees of the State Employment Relations Board in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties of the State Personnel Board of Review.

(B) Effective July 1, 2009, and pursuant to section 124.03 of the Revised Code, the State Personnel Board of Review shall exercise its duties and exist as a separate entity within the State Employment Relations Board. The costs of the State Personnel Board of Review shall be supported by the foregoing appropriation item 125321, Operating Expenses.

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the cash balance of the Transcript and Other Documents Fund (Fund 6360) used by the State Personnel Board of Review to the Training, Publications, and Grants Fund (Fund 5720) used by the State Employment Relations Board. Upon completion of the transfer, Fund 6360 is abolished. The Director shall cancel any existing encumbrances against appropriation item 124601, Records and Reporting Support, and re-establish them against appropriation item 125603, Training and Publications. The re-established encumbrance amounts are hereby appropriated.

Any business commenced but not completed under Fund 6360 by July 1, 2009, shall be completed under Fund 5720 in the same manner, and with the same effect, as if completed with regard to Fund 6360. No validation, cure, right, privilege, remedy, obligation, or liability is lost or impaired by reason of the transfer and shall be administered with regard to Fund 5720.

On and after July 1, 2009, where the Transcript and Other Documents Fund is referred to in any statute, rule, contract, grant, or other document, the reference is hereby deemed to refer to the Training, Publications, and Grants Fund.

SECTION 281.20. STATEHOUSE NEWS BUREAU

The foregoing appropriation item 935401, Statehouse News Bureau, shall be used solely to support the operations of the Ohio Statehouse News Bureau.

OHIO GOVERNMENT TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

The foregoing appropriation item 935402, Ohio Government Telecommunications Services, shall be used solely to support the operations of Ohio Government Telecommunications Services which include providing multimedia support to the state government and its affiliated organizations and broadcasting the activities of the legislative, judicial, and executive branches of state government, among its other functions.

TECHNOLOGY OPERATIONS

Of the foregoing appropriation item 935409, Technology Operations, $2,000,000 in fiscal year 2010 shall be used by eTech Ohio to contract with an entity to provide a common statewide platform and online advanced placement courses to public school students in Ohio and, $1,000,000 in fiscal year 2011 shall be used to maintain the clearinghouse established under section 3333.82 of the Revised Code for online advanced placement courses. School districts that have students participating in the program shall not be charged a fee in fiscal year 2010, but may be charged a fee in fiscal year 2011 through the clearinghouse. Students participating in the program shall receive services free of charge.

An amount equal to the unexpended, unencumbered portion of the foregoing appropriation item 935409, at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated in fiscal year 2011 to continue to support the statewide platform and to maintain the clearinghouse.

The remainder of appropriation item 935409, Technology Operations, shall be used by eTech Ohio to pay expenses of eTech Ohio's network infrastructure, which includes the television and radio transmission infrastructure and infrastructure that shall link all public K-12 classrooms to each other and to the Internet, and provide access to voice, video, other communication services, and data educational resources for students and teachers.

CONTENT DEVELOPMENT, ACQUISITION, AND DISTRIBUTION

The foregoing appropriation 935410, Content Development, Acquisition, and Distribution, shall be used for the development, acquisition, and distribution of information resources by public media and radio reading services and for educational use in the classroom and online.
Of the foregoing appropriation item 935410, Content Development, Acquisition, and Distribution, up to $731,055 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $731,221 in fiscal year 2011 shall be allocated equally among the 12 Ohio educational television stations and used with the advice and approval of eTech Ohio. Funds shall be used for the production of interactive instructional programming series with priority given to resources aligned with state academic content standards in consultation with the Ohio Department of Education and for teleconferences to support eTech Ohio. The programming shall be targeted to the needs of the poorest two hundred school districts as determined by the district's adjusted valuation per pupil as defined in former section 3317.0213 of the Revised Code as that section existed prior to June 30, 2005.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 935410, Content Development, Acquisition, and Distribution, up to $1,810,966 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $1,811,376 in fiscal year 2011 shall be distributed by eTech Ohio to Ohio's qualified public educational television stations and educational radio stations to support their operations. The funds shall be distributed pursuant to an allocation formula used by the Ohio Educational Telecommunications Network Commission unless a substitute formula is developed by eTech Ohio in consultation with Ohio's qualified public educational television stations and educational radio stations.

Of the foregoing appropriation 935410, Content Development, Acquisition, and Distribution, up to $221,902 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $221,952 in fiscal year 2011 shall be distributed by eTech Ohio to Ohio's qualified radio reading services to support their operations. The funds shall be distributed pursuant to an allocation formula used by the Ohio Educational Telecommunications Network Commission unless a substitute formula is developed by eTech Ohio in consultation with Ohio's qualified radio reading services.

SECTION 281.30. TECHNOLOGY INTEGRATION AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 935411, Technology Integration and Professional Development, shall be used by eTech Ohio for the provision of staff development, hardware, software, telecommunications services, and information resources to support educational uses of technology in the classroom and at a distance and for professional development for teachers, administrators, and technology staff on the use of educational technology in qualifying public schools, including the State School for the Blind, the State School for the Deaf, and the Department of Youth Services.
Of the foregoing appropriation item 935411, Technology Integration and Professional Development, up to $1,875,826 in fiscal year 2010 and up to $1,879,668 in fiscal year 2011, shall be used by eTech Ohio to contract with educational television to provide Ohio public schools with instructional resources and services with priority given to resources and services aligned with state academic content standards and such resources and services shall be based upon the advice and approval of eTech Ohio, based on a formula used by the Ohio SchoolNet Commission unless and until a substitute formula is developed by eTech Ohio in consultation with Ohio's educational technology agencies and noncommercial educational television stations.

SECTION 281.40. TELECOMMUNITY

The foregoing appropriation item 935630, Telecommunity, shall be distributed by eTech Ohio on a grant basis to eligible school districts to establish "distance learning" through interactive video technologies in the school district. Per agreements with eight Ohio local telephone companies, ALLTEL Ohio, CENTURY Telephone of Ohio, Chillicothe Telephone Company, Cincinnati Bell Telephone Company, Orwell Telephone Company, Sprint North Central Telephone, VERIZON, and Western Reserve Telephone Company, school districts are eligible for funds if they are within one of the listed telephone company service areas. Funds to administer the program shall be expended by eTech Ohio up to the amount specified in the agreements with the listed telephone companies.

Within thirty days after the effective date of this section, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer to Fund 4W90 in the State Special Revenue Fund Group any investment earnings from moneys paid by any telephone company as part of any settlement agreement between the listed companies and the Public Utilities Commission in fiscal years 1996 and beyond.

DISTANCE LEARNING

The foregoing appropriation item 935634, Distance Learning, shall be distributed by eTech Ohio on a grant basis to eligible school districts to establish "distance learning" in the school district. Per an agreement with Ameritech, school districts are eligible for funds if they are within an Ameritech service area. Funds to administer the program shall be expended by eTech Ohio up to the amount specified in the agreement with Ameritech.

Within thirty days after the effective date of this section, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer to Fund 4X10 in the State Special Revenue Fund Group any investment earnings from moneys paid by any telephone company as part of a settlement agreement between the company and the Public Utilities Commission in fiscal year 1995.

GATES FOUNDATION GRANTS

The foregoing appropriation item 935607, Gates Foundation Grants, shall be used by eTech Ohio to provide professional development to school district principals, superintendents, and other administrative staff on the use of education technology.

SECTION 289.20. HIV/AIDS PREVENTION/TREATMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 440444, AIDS Prevention and Treatment, shall be used to assist persons with HIV/AIDS in acquiring HIV-related medications and to administer educational prevention initiatives.

INFECTIOUS DISEASE PREVENTION

The foregoing appropriation item 440446, Infectious Disease Protection and Surveillance, shall be used for coordination and management of prevention program operations and the purchase of drugs for sexually transmitted diseases.

HELP ME GROW

The foregoing appropriation item 440459, Help Me Grow, shall be used by the Department of Health to distribute subsidies to counties to implement the Help Me Grow Program. Appropriation item 440459, Help Me Grow, may be used in conjunction with Early Intervention funding from the Department of Developmental Disabilities, and in conjunction with other early childhood funds and services to promote the optimal development of young children and family-centered programs and services that acknowledge and support the social, emotional, cognitive, intellectual, and physical development of children and the vital role of families in ensuring the well-being and success of children. The Department of Health shall enter into an interagency agreement with the Department of Education, Department of Developmental Disabilities, Department of Job and Family Services, and Department of Mental Health to ensure that all early childhood programs and initiatives are coordinated and school linked.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 440459, Help Me Grow, if a county Family and Children First Council selects home-visiting programs, the home-visiting program shall only be eligible for funding if it serves pregnant women, or parents or other primary caregivers and the parent or other primary caregiver's child or children under three years of age, through quality programs of early childhood home visitation and if the home visitations are performed by nurses, social workers, child development specialists or other well-trained and competent staff, as demonstrated by education or training and the provision of ongoing specific training and supervision in the model of service being delivered. The home-visiting program also shall be required to have outcome and research standards that demonstrate ongoing positive outcomes for children, parents, and other primary caregivers that enhance child health and development, and conform to a clear consistent home visitation model that has been in existence for at least three years. The home visitation model shall be research-based; grounded in relevant, empirically based knowledge; linked to program-determined outcomes; associated with a national organization or institution of higher education that has comprehensive home visitation program standards that ensure high quality service delivery and continuous program improvement; and have demonstrated significant positive outcomes when evaluated using well-designed and rigorous randomized, controlled, or quasi-experimental research designs, and the evaluation results have been published in a peer-reviewed journal.

The foregoing appropriation item 440459, Help Me Grow, may also be used for the Autism Diagnosis Education Pilot Program.

TARGETED HEALTH CARE SERVICES OVER 21

The foregoing appropriation item 440507, Targeted Health Care Services Over 21, shall be used to administer the Cystic Fibrosis Program and to implement the Hemophilia Insurance Premium Payment Program.

The foregoing appropriation item 440507, Targeted Health Care Services Over 21, shall also be used to provide essential medications and to pay the copayments for drugs approved by the Department of Health and covered by Medicare Part D that are dispensed to Bureau for Children with Medical Handicaps (BCMH) participants for the Cystic Fibrosis Program.

These funds also may be used, to the extent that funding is available, to provide up to 18 in-patient hospital days for participants in the Cystic Fibrosis Program.

The Department shall expend all of these funds.

GENETICS SERVICES

The foregoing appropriation item 440608, Genetics Services (Fund 4D60), shall be used by the Department of Health to administer programs authorized by sections 3701.501 and 3701.502 of the Revised Code. None of these funds shall be used to counsel or refer for abortion, except in the case of a medical emergency.

MEDICALLY HANDICAPPED CHILDREN AUDIT

The Medically Handicapped Children Audit Fund (Fund 4770) shall receive revenue from audits of hospitals and recoveries from third-party payers. Moneys may be expended for payment of audit settlements and for costs directly related to obtaining recoveries from third-party payers and for encouraging Medically Handicapped Children's Program recipients to apply for third-party benefits. Moneys also may be expended for payments for diagnostic and treatment services on behalf of medically handicapped children, as defined in division (A) of section 3701.022 of the Revised Code, and Ohio residents who are twenty-one or more years of age and who are suffering from cystic fibrosis or hemophilia. Moneys may also be expended for administrative expenses incurred in operating the Medically Handicapped Children's Program.

CASH TRANSFER FROM LIQUOR CONTROL FUND TO ALCOHOL TESTING AND PERMIT FUND

The Director of Budget and Management, pursuant to a plan submitted by the Department of Health, or as otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and Management, shall set a schedule to transfer cash from the Liquor Control Fund (Fund 7043) to the Alcohol Testing and Permit Fund (Fund 5C00) to meet the operating needs of the Alcohol Testing and Permit Program.

The Director of Budget and Management may transfer to the Alcohol Testing and Permit Fund (Fund 5C00) from the Liquor Control Fund (Fund 7043) created in section 4301.12 of the Revised Code such amounts at such times as determined by the transfer schedule.

DENTIST LOAN REPAYMENT ADVISORY BOARD

As specified in the amendments made by this act to section 3702.92 of the Revised Code, the Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and President of the Senate shall each appoint one additional member to the Dentist Loan Repayment Advisory Board. The appointments shall be made not later than sixty days after the effective date of section 3702.92 of the Revised Code. The terms of office of the additional members shall end on January 27, 2011, except that a legislative member ceases to be a member of the Board on ceasing to be a member of the General Assembly. Vacancies occurring prior to January 27, 2011, shall be filled in the manner prescribed for original appointments under this section.

MEDICALLY HANDICAPPED CHILDREN - COUNTY ASSESSMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 440607, Medically Handicapped Children - County Assessments (Fund 6660), shall be used to make payments under division (E) of section 3701.023 of the Revised Code.

CASH TRANSFER FROM THE SEWAGE INNOVATION FUND TO FEE SUPPORTED PROGRAMS FUND

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Health shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of cash to be transferred from the Sewage Innovation Fund (Fund 5CJ0) to the Fee Supported Program Fund (Fund 4700) to meet the needs of the Sewage Program. The Director of Budget and Management may transfer the amount certified. The amount certified is hereby appropriated.

NURSING FACILITY TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer, cash from the Resident Protection Fund (Fund 4E30), which is used by the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, to the Nursing Facility Technical Assistance Program Fund (Fund 5L10), which is used by the Ohio Department of Health, to be used under section 3721.026 of the Revised Code. The transfers shall be up to $698,595 in each fiscal year.

TOBACCO USE PREVENTION

The Department of Health shall seek Controlling Board approval prior to expending any moneys from appropriation item 440656, Tobacco Use Prevention. The Department shall submit a spending plan to the Controlling Board for each project for which they seek expenditure approval.

SECTION 289.30. DISEASE AND CANCER COMMISSION

(A) There is hereby established in the Department of Health the Disease and Cancer Commission. The Commission shall be composed of individuals selected by the Director of Health who are both of the following:

(1) Representatives of boards of health of city health districts or general health districts, or the authorities having the duties of a board of health under section 3709.05 of the Revised Code;

(2) Located in an area in which the Director of Health determines there is a high prevalence of one of the following:
   (a) Colorectal cancer;
   (b) Prostate cancer;
   (c) Sickle cell anemia;
   (d) Triple negative breast cancer.
(B) The Governor shall designate from among the Commission members an individual to serve as the chairperson of the Commission who shall establish the meeting time and locations for the Commission.
(C) The Commission shall study colorectal cancer, prostate cancer, sickle cell anemia, and triple negative breast cancer in areas of the state in which the Director determines such conditions are prevalent. Not later than June 30, 2011, the Commission shall submit a report to the Governor, Speaker and Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, and President and Minority Leader of the Senate describing its findings on the prevalence of colorectal cancer, prostate cancer, sickle cell anemia, and triple negative breast cancer in the areas included in the study. The report shall include policy recommendations to combat the prevalence of these conditions in such areas.
(D) The Commission shall cease to exist on submission of the report under division (C) of this section.

SECTION 289.40. FUNDING FOR IMMUNIZATIONS
To the extent permitted under state and federal law, the Department of Health shall use state general revenue funds and federal funds appropriated for the purchase of vaccinations to provide immunizations to children and adults in Ohio.

SECTION 289.60. FEDERAL ABSTINENCE EDUCATION PROGRAM
The Director of Health shall apply to the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services for abstinence education funding under Title V of the "Social Security Act," 42 U.S.C. 710.

SECTION 289.70. LIMITED EXTENSION OF THE MORATORIUM UNDER THE CERTIFICATE OF NEED PROGRAM
(A) As used in this section, "certificate of need" and "long-term care bed" have the same meanings as in section 3702.51 of the Revised Code.
(B) Until the effective date of the actions taken by this act to amend, enact, and repeal sections included within the range consisting of sections 3702.51 to 3702.62 of the Revised Code, the Director of Health shall proceed as follows with respect to a certificate of need application proposing an increase in long-term care beds:

1. If the application was received during the period beginning July 1, 2009, and ending on the day before the effective date of this section, the Director shall grant the certificate of need only if the proposed increase in long-term care beds is attributable solely to a replacement or relocation of existing long-term care beds within the same county.

2. If the application is received on or after the effective date of this section, the Director shall accept the application, for review under section 3702.52 of the Revised Code, only if the proposed increase in long-term care beds is attributable solely to a replacement or relocation of existing long-term care beds within the same county.

3. If a certificate of need is granted to the applicant, the Director shall not authorize additional beds beyond those being replaced or relocated.

C. If pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section a certificate of need cannot be granted or pursuant to division (B)(2) of this section an application cannot be accepted, the Director shall return to the applicant both the application and the fee that accompanied the application. This division applies to all pending actions regarding applications received before the effective date of the actions taken by this act to amend, enact, and repeal sections included within the range consisting of sections 3702.51 to 3702.62 of the Revised Code.

D. The provisions of this section are applicable to the Director and the Certificate of Need Program, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of sections 3702.51 to 3702.62 of the Revised Code.

SUBSIDY APPROPRIATION

Upon approval by the Director of Budget and Management, the foregoing appropriation items shall be released to the Ohio Historical Society in quarterly amounts that in total do not exceed the annual appropriations. The funds and fiscal records of the society for fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011 shall be examined by independent certified public accountants approved by the Auditor of State, and a copy of the audited financial statements shall be filed with the Office of Budget and Management. The society shall prepare and submit to the Office of Budget and Management the following:

(A) An estimated operating budget for each fiscal year of the biennium. The operating budget shall be submitted at or near the beginning of each calendar year.

(B) Financial reports, indicating actual receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year to date. These reports shall be filed at least semiannually during the fiscal biennium.

The foregoing appropriations shall be considered to be the contractual consideration provided by the state to support the state's offer to contract with the Ohio Historical Society under section 149.30 of the Revised Code.

STATE ARCHIVES

Of the foregoing appropriation item 360501, Education and Collections, $910,459 in each fiscal year shall be used for the State Archives, Library, and Artifact Collections Program.

HAYES PRESIDENTIAL CENTER

If a United States government agency, including, but not limited to, the National Park Service, chooses to take over the operations or maintenance of the Hayes Presidential Center, in whole or in part, the Ohio Historical Society shall make arrangements with the National Park Service or other United States government agency for the efficient transfer of operations or maintenance.

HEALTH INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND HEALTH CARE COVERAGE AND QUALITY COUNCIL

Notwithstanding section 3929.682 of the Revised Code, up to $8,000,000 of the foregoing appropriation item 820603, Health Information Technology and Health Care Coverage and Quality Council, shall be used for health information technology initiatives: to provide the central tools and support the electronic exchange of health information, to work with industry associations to encourage and support providers in using electronic medical records, and to establish a loan program to help health care providers with the financial burden of buying and implementing electronic medical records.

Notwithstanding section 3929.682 of the Revised Code, up to $2,116,272 of the foregoing appropriation item 820603, Health Information Technology and Health Care Coverage and Quality Council, may be used to support the implementation of strategies recommended by the Health Care Coverage and Quality Council established in section 3923.90 of the Revised Code.

An amount equal to the unexpended, unencumbered portion of the foregoing appropriation item 820603, Health Information Technology and Health Care Coverage and Quality Council, at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated for the same purpose for fiscal year 2011.

MARKET CONDUCT EXAMINATION

When conducting a market conduct examination of any insurer doing business in this state, the Superintendent of Insurance may assess the costs of the examination against the insurer. The superintendent may enter into consent agreements to impose administrative assessments or fines for conduct discovered that may be violations of statutes or rules administered by the superintendent. All costs, assessments, or fines collected shall be deposited to the credit of the Department of Insurance Operating Fund (Fund 5540).

EXAMINATIONS OF DOMESTIC FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETIES

The Director of Budget and Management, at the request of the Superintendent of Insurance, may transfer funds from the Department of Insurance Operating Fund (Fund 5540), established by section 3901.021 of the Revised Code, to the Superintendent's Examination Fund (Fund 5550), established by section 3901.071 of the Revised Code, only for expenses incurred in examining domestic fraternal benefit societies as required by section 3921.28 of the Revised Code.

TRANSFER FROM FUND 5540 TO GENERAL REVENUE FUND

Not later than the thirty-first day of July each fiscal year, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $5,000,000 from the Department of Insurance Operating Fund (Fund 5540) to the General Revenue Fund.

SECTION 307.20. HEALTH CARE COVERAGE AND QUALITY COUNCIL

(A) The Health Care Coverage and Quality Council created under section 3923.90 of the Revised Code, as enacted by this act, shall hold its first meeting not later than September 1, 2009.

(B) In addition to the Council's duties specified in section 3923.91 of the Revised Code, the Council shall evaluate and recommend strategies pursuant to the recommendations of the former Ohio Medicaid Administrative Study Council to establish an initiative conducted by clinicians in the Office of Ohio Health Plans within the Department of Job and Family Services to do all of the following:

1. Adopt evidence-based protocols for the prevention and management of disease;
2. Develop a centralized system for payment of Medicaid claims;
3. Provide physicians, nurses, and allied health professionals with training on Medicaid claims procedures and Medicaid payment reforms;
4. Monitor results for preventive and primary care services.

C. Not later than June 30, 2010, the Council shall submit a report of its findings and recommendations to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

eighteen years of age and younger and is excluded from Medicare prospective payment in accordance with 42 C.F.R. 412.23(d).

(2) "Medicaid inpatient cost-to-charge ratio" means the historic Medicaid inpatient cost-to-charge ratio applicable to a hospital as described in rules adopted by the Director of Job and Family Services in paragraph (B)(2) of rule 5101:3-2-22 of the Administrative Code.

(B) Notwithstanding paragraph (C)(5) of rule 5101:3-2-07.9 of the Administrative Code and except as provided in division (C) of this section, the Director of Job and Family Services shall pay a children's hospital that meets the criteria in paragraphs (E)(1) and (2) of rule 5101:3-2-07.9 of the Administrative Code, for each cost outlier claim made in fiscal years 2010 and 2011, an amount that is the product of the hospital's allowable charges and the hospital's Medicaid inpatient cost-to-charge ratio.

(C) The Director of Job and Family Services shall cease paying a children's hospital for a cost outlier claim under the methodology in division (B) of this section and revert to paying the hospital for such a claim according to the methodology in paragraph (A)(6) or (C)(5) of rule 5101:3-2-07.9 of the Administrative Code, as applicable, when the difference between the total amount the Director has paid according to the methodology in division (B) of this section for such claims and the total amount the Director would have paid according to the methodology in paragraph (A)(6) or (C)(5) of rule 5101:3-2-07.9 of the Administrative Code for such claims, as the applicable paragraph existed on June 30, 2009, exceeds the amounts available under division (F) of this section.

(D) The Director of Job and Family Services shall make supplemental Medicaid payments to children's hospitals for inpatient services under a program modeled after the program the Department of Job and Family Services was required to create for fiscal years 2006 and 2007 in Section 206.66.79 of Am. Sub. H.B. 66 of the 126th General Assembly if the difference between the total amount the Director has paid according to the methodology in division (B) of this section for cost outlier claims and the total amount the Director would have paid according to the methodology in paragraph (A)(6) or (C)(5) of rule 5101:3-2-07.9 of the Administrative Code for such claims, as the applicable paragraph existed on June 30, 2009, does not require the expenditure of all state and federal funds available under division (F) of this section for the applicable fiscal year. The program may be the same as the program the Director used for making the payments to children's hospitals for fiscal years 2008 and 2009 under Section 309.30.13 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly.

(E) The Director of Job and Family Services shall not adopt, amend, or rescind any rules that would result in decreasing the amount paid to children's hospitals under division (B) of this section for cost outlier claims.

(F) Of the foregoing appropriation item, 600537, Children's Hospital, up to $6 million (state share) in each fiscal year plus the corresponding federal match, if available, shall be used by the Department to pay the amounts described in divisions (B) and (D) of this section. Of the amounts deposited into the Hospital Assessment Fund created under section 5112.45 of the Revised Code, $4.4 million in fiscal year 2010, plus the corresponding federal match, and $4 million in fiscal year 2011, plus the corresponding federal match, also shall be used by the Department to pay the amounts described in divisions (B) and (D) of this section.

SECTION 309.30.17. HOSPITAL INPATIENT AND OUTPATIENT SUPPLEMENTAL UPPER PAYMENT LIMIT PROGRAM

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Assessment program year" has the same meaning as in section
5112.40 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Hospital" has the same meaning as in Section 5112.40 of the Revised Code, except that "hospital" excludes a children's hospital as defined in Section 309.30.15 of this act.

(3) "Hospital Assessment Fund" means the fund created under section
5112.45 of the Revised Code.

(B) The Director of Job and Family Services shall submit a Medicaid state plan amendment to the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services to create the Hospital Inpatient and Outpatient Supplemental Upper Payment Limit Program. If the United States Secretary approves the Medicaid state plan amendment, the program shall, subject to division (D) of this section, make supplemental Medicaid payments to hospitals for medicaid-covered inpatient services and outpatient services with funds made available for the program under division (C) of this section and federal matching funds available for the program.

(C) Of the amounts deposited into the Hospital Assessment Fund for the first assessment program year beginning after the effective date of this section, nine and sixteen hundredths per cent shall be used for the Hospital Inpatient and Outpatient Supplemental Upper Payment Limit Program. Of the amounts deposited into the Hospital Assessment Fund for the second assessment program year beginning after the effective date of this section, ten and twenty-nine hundredths per cent shall be used for the Hospital Inpatient and Outpatient Supplemental Upper Payment Limit Program.

(D) The Director of Job and Family Services shall take all necessary actions to cease implementation of this section if the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services determines that the assessment imposed under section 5112.41 of the Revised Code is an impermissible health care-related tax under 42 U.S.C. 1396b(w).

SECTION 309.30.18. POSTPONEMENT OF RECALIBRATION FOR HOSPITALS

The Director of Job and Family Services shall amend rule 5101:3-2-07.3 of the Administrative Code to postpone to January 1, 2012, the recalibration that otherwise would occur on January 1, 2010, under that rule and to postpone to January 1, 2013, the recalibration that otherwise would occur on January 1, 2011, under that rule.

SECTION 309.30.20. FISCAL YEAR 2010 MEDICAID REIMBURSEMENT SYSTEM FOR NURSING FACILITIES

(A) As used in this section:
"Franchise permit fee," "Medicaid days," "nursing facility," and "provider" have the same meanings as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

"Nursing facility services" means nursing facility services covered by the Medicaid program that a nursing facility provides to a resident of the nursing facility who is a Medicaid recipient eligible for Medicaid-covered nursing facility services.

(B) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the provider of a nursing facility that has a valid Medicaid provider agreement on June 30, 2009, and a valid Medicaid provider agreement during fiscal year 2010 shall be paid, for nursing facility services the nursing facility provides during fiscal year 2010, the rate calculated for the nursing facility under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code with the following adjustments:

(1) The cost per case mix-unit calculated under section 5111.231 of the Revised Code, the rate for ancillary and support costs calculated under section 5111.24 of the Revised Code, the rate for tax costs calculated under section 5111.242 of the Revised Code, and the rate for capital costs calculated under section 5111.25 of the Revised Code shall each be adjusted as follows:

(a) Increase the cost and rates so calculated by two per cent;
(b) Increase the cost and rates determined under division (B)(1)(a) of this section by two per cent;
(c) Increase the cost and rates determined under division (B)(1)(b) of this section by one per cent.

(2) The mean payment used in the calculation of the quality incentive payment made under section 5111.244 of the Revised Code shall be, weighted by Medicaid days, three dollars and three cents per Medicaid day.

(3) The rate, after the adjustments under divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section are made, shall be further adjusted by a percentage that the Department of Job and Family Services shall determine in consultation with the Ohio Health Care Association; Ohio Academy of Nursing Homes; and the Association of Ohio Philanthropic Homes, Housing, and Services for the Aging. The percentage shall be based on expending an amount equal to the amount determined as follows:

(a) Determine how much of the revenue to be generated under section 3721.51 of the Revised Code for fiscal year 2010 reflects the calculations made under divisions (A)(1) to (4) of section 3721.50 of the Revised Code;

(b) From the amount determined under division (B)(3)(a) of this section, subtract the portion of the amount to be expended under division (E) of this section that reflects the part of the calculation made under division (E)(2) of this section.

(C) If the rate determined for a nursing facility under division (B) of this section for nursing facility services provided during fiscal year 2010 is more than one hundred one and seventy-five hundredths per cent of the rate the provider is paid for nursing facility services the nursing facility provides on June 30, 2009, the Department of Job and Family Services shall reduce the nursing facility's rate determined under division (B) of this section for fiscal year 2010 so that the rate is not more than one hundred one and seventy-five hundredths per cent of the nursing facility's rate for June 30, 2009. If the rate determined for a nursing facility under division (B) of this section for nursing facility services provided during fiscal year 2010 is less than ninety-nine per cent of the rate the provider is paid for nursing facility services the nursing facility provides on June 30, 2009, the Department shall increase the nursing facility's rate determined under division (B) of this section for fiscal year 2010 so that the rate is not less than ninety-nine per cent of the nursing facility's rate for June 30, 2009.

(D) After the adjustments under divisions (B) and (C) of this section are made to a nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 rate, the Department of Job and Family Services shall increase the nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 rate by five dollars and seventy cents per Medicaid day. This increase shall be known as the workforce development incentive payment. The total amount of workforce development incentive payments paid to providers of nursing facilities shall be used to improve nursing facilities' employee retention and direct care staffing levels, including by increasing wages paid to nursing facilities' direct care staff. Not later than September 30, 2011, the Department shall submit a report to the Governor and, in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, the General Assembly detailing the impact that the workforce development incentive payments have on nursing facilities' employee retention, direct care staffing levels, and direct care staff wages.

(E) After the adjustment under division (D) of this section is made to a nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 rate, the Department of Job and Family Services shall increase the nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 rate by the consolidated services rate per Medicaid day. The consolidated services rate shall equal the sum of the following:

1. Three dollars and ninety-one cents;
2. The amount calculated under divisions (A)(1) to (4) of section 3721.50 of the Revised Code for fiscal year 2010.

(F) If the fiscal year 2010 rate for a nursing facility as initially determined under division (B) of this section is not subject to an adjustment under division (C) of this section, the nursing facility's rate shall not be subject to an adjustment under that division for the remainder of fiscal year 2010 regardless of any other adjustment made to the nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 rate under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

(G) Not later than October 1, 2009, the Department of Job and Family Services shall determine the rates to be paid providers of nursing facilities under this section. Until the rates are determined, the Department shall continue to pay a provider the rate the provider is paid for nursing facility services the provider's nursing facility provides on June 30, 2009. When the Department determines the rates to be paid under this section, the Department shall pay the rates retroactive to July 1, 2009.

(H) If the United States Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services requires that the franchise permit fee be reduced or eliminated, the Department of Job and Family Services shall reduce the amount it pays providers of nursing facility services under this section as necessary to reflect the loss to the state of the revenue and federal financial participation generated from the franchise permit fee.

(I) The Department of Job and Family Services shall follow this section in determining the rate to be paid to the provider of a nursing facility that has a valid Medicaid provider agreement on June 30, 2009, and a valid Medicaid provider agreement during fiscal year 2010 notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.
SECTION 309.30.25. FISCAL YEAR 2011 MEDICAID REIMBURSEMENT SYSTEM FOR NURSING FACILITIES

(A) As used in this section:
"Fiscal year 2010 partial rate" means the total rate a provider of a nursing facility is paid for nursing facility services the nursing facility provides on June 30, 2010, less the portion of that total rate that equals the sum of the workforce development incentive payment and consolidated services rate included in the total rate pursuant to divisions (D) and (E) of Section 309.30.20 of this act.

"Franchise permit fee," "Medicaid days," "nursing facility," and "provider" have the same meanings as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

"Nursing facility services" means nursing facility services covered by the Medicaid program that a nursing facility provides to a resident of the nursing facility who is a Medicaid recipient eligible for Medicaid-covered nursing facility services.

(B) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the provider of a nursing facility that has a valid Medicaid provider agreement on June 30, 2010, and a valid Medicaid provider agreement during fiscal year 2011 shall be paid, for nursing facility services the nursing facility provides during fiscal year 2011, the rate calculated for the nursing facility under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code with the following adjustments:

(1) The cost per case mix-unit calculated under section 5111.231 of the Revised Code, the rate for ancillary and support costs calculated under section 5111.24 of the Revised Code, the rate for tax costs calculated under section 5111.242 of the Revised Code, and the rate for capital costs calculated under section 5111.25 of the Revised Code shall each be adjusted as follows:
(a) Increase the cost and rates so calculated by two per cent;
(b) Increase the cost and rates determined under division (B)(1)(a) of this section by two per cent;
(c) Increase the cost and rates determined under division (B)(1)(b) of this section by one per cent.

(2) The mean payment used in the calculation of the quality incentive payment made under section 5111.244 of the Revised Code shall be, weighted by Medicaid days, three dollars and three cents per Medicaid day.

(3) The rate, after the adjustments under divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section are made, shall be further adjusted by a percentage that the Department of Job and Family Services shall determine in consultation with the Ohio Health Care Association; Ohio Academy of Nursing Homes; and the Association of Ohio Philanthropic Homes, Housing, and Services for the Aging. The percentage shall be based on expending an amount equal to the amount determined as follows:

(a) Determine how much of the revenue to be generated under section 3721.51 of the Revised Code for fiscal year 2011 reflects the calculations made under divisions (A)(1) to (4) of section 3721.50 of the Revised Code;
(b) From the amount determined under division (B)(3)(a) of this section, subtract the portion of the amount to be expended under division (E) of this section that reflects the part of the calculation made under division (E)(2) of this section.

(C) Except as provided in division (F) of this section, if the rate determined for a nursing facility under division (B) of this section for nursing facility services provided during fiscal year 2011 is more than one hundred two and twenty-five hundredths per cent of the nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 partial rate, the Department of Job and Family Services shall reduce the nursing facility's rate determined under division (B) of this section for fiscal year 2011 so that the rate is not more than one hundred two and twenty-five hundredths per cent of the nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 partial rate. Except as provided in division (F) of this section, if the rate determined for a nursing facility under division (B) of this section for nursing facility services provided during fiscal year 2011 is less than ninety-nine per cent of the nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 partial rate, the Department shall increase the nursing facility's rate determined under division (B) of this section for fiscal year 2011 so that the rate is not less than ninety-nine per cent of the nursing facility's fiscal year 2010 partial rate.

(D) After the adjustments under divisions (B) and (C) of this section are made to a nursing facility's fiscal year 2011 rate, the Department of Job and Family Services shall increase the nursing facility's fiscal year 2011 rate by five dollars and seventy cents per Medicaid day. This increase shall be known as the workforce development incentive payment. The total amount of workforce development incentive payments paid to providers of nursing facilities shall be used to improve nursing facilities' employee retention and direct care staffing levels, including by increasing wages paid to nursing facilities' direct care staff. Not later than September 30, 2012, the Department shall submit a report to the Governor and, in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, the General Assembly detailing the impact that the workforce development incentive payments have on nursing facilities' employee retention, direct care staffing levels, and direct care staff wages.

(E) After the adjustment under division (D) of this section is made to a nursing facility's fiscal year 2011 rate, the Department of Job and Family Services shall increase the nursing facility's fiscal year 2011 rate by the consolidated services rate per Medicaid day. The consolidated services rate shall equal the sum of the following:

1) Three dollars and ninety-one cents;
2) The amount calculated under divisions (A)(1) to (4) of section 3721.50 of the Revised Code for fiscal year 2011.

(F) If the fiscal year 2010 rate for a nursing facility as initially determined under division (B) of section 309.30.20 of this act is not subject to an adjustment under division (C) of that section, the nursing facility's fiscal year 2011 rate as initially determined under division (B) of this section shall not be subject to an adjustment under division (C) of this section regardless of whether the nursing facility's fiscal year 2011 rate as initially determined under division (B) of this section would, if not for this division, be subject to the adjustment.

If the fiscal year 2011 rate for a nursing facility as initially determined under division (B) of this section is not subject to an adjustment under division (C) of this section, the nursing facility's rate shall not be subject to an adjustment under that division for the remainder of fiscal year 2011 regardless of any other adjustment made to the nursing facility's fiscal year 2011 rate under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

(G) Not later than October 1, 2010, the Department of Job and Family Services shall determine the rates to be paid providers of nursing facilities under this section. Until the rates are determined, the Department shall continue to pay a provider the rate the provider is paid for nursing facility services the provider’s nursing facility provides on June 30, 2010. When the Department determines the rates to be paid under this section, the Department shall pay the rates retroactive to July 1, 2010.

(H) If the United States Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services requires that the franchise permit fee be reduced or eliminated, the Department of Job and Family Services shall reduce the amount it pays providers of nursing facility services under this section as necessary to reflect the loss to the state of the revenue and federal financial participation generated from the franchise permit fee.

(I) The Department of Job and Family Services shall follow this section in determining the rate to be paid to the provider of a nursing facility that has a valid Medicaid provider agreement on June 30, 2010, and a valid Medicaid provider agreement during fiscal year 2011 notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

SEC 309.30.30. NURSING FACILITY CAPITAL COSTS STUDY
Not later than December 31, 2010, the Department of Job and Family Services shall submit a report to the Governor and, in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, the General Assembly with recommendations for developing a new system for reimbursing nursing facilities' capital costs under the Medicaid program. The report may include recommendations for changes to other parts of the Medicaid reimbursement system for nursing facilities. The Department shall prepare the report in consultation with the Ohio Academy of Nursing Homes; the Association of Ohio Philanthropic Homes, Housing, and Services for the Aging; and the Ohio Health Care Association. The recommendations regarding the new system for reimbursing nursing facilities for capital costs shall focus on both of the following:

(A) Resulting in a statewide average per diem rate, weighted by Medicaid days, for capital costs for the first fiscal year the system is implemented that is budget neutral compared to the statewide average per diem rate, weighted by Medicaid days, for capital costs under section 5111.25 of the Revised Code;

(B) Appropriately recognizing increased costs incurred by nursing facilities for capital improvements to, and replacement of, existing nursing facilities.

SEC 309.30.60. FISCAL YEAR 2010 MEDICAID REIMBURSEMENT SYSTEM FOR ICFs/MR
(A) As used in this section:
"Change of operator," "entering operator," and "exiting operator" have the same meanings as in section 5111.65 of the Revised Code.
"Franchise permit fee" and "provider" have the same meanings as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.
"ICF/MR" means an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded as defined in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.
"ICF/MR services" means services covered by the Medicaid program that an ICF/MR provides to a Medicaid recipient eligible for the services.
"Medicaid days" means all days during which a resident who is a Medicaid recipient occupies a bed in an ICF/MR that is included in the ICF/MR's Medicaid-certified capacity. Therapeutic or hospital leave days for which payment is made under section 5111.33 of the Revised Code are considered Medicaid days proportionate to the percentage of the ICF/MR’s per resident per day rate paid for those days.

"Per diem rate" means the per diem rate calculated pursuant to sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

(B) This section applies to providers of ICFs/MR to which either of the following applies:

(1) The provider has a valid Medicaid provider agreement for the ICF/MR on June 30, 2009, and a valid Medicaid provider agreement for the ICF/MR during fiscal year 2010.

(2) The ICF/MR undergoes a change of operator effective July 1, 2009, the exiting operator has a valid Medicaid provider agreement for the ICF/MR on June 30, 2009, and the entering operator has a valid Medicaid provider agreement for the ICF/MR during fiscal year 2010.

(C) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the provider of an ICF/MR to which this section applies shall be paid, for ICF/MR services the ICF/MR provides during fiscal year 2010, the rate calculated for the ICF/MR under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

(D) The provider of an ICF/MR to which this section applies shall be paid, for ICF/MR services the ICF/MR provides during the period beginning on the effective date of this section and ending July 31, 2009, the rate the provider was paid for ICF/MR services the ICF/MR provided on June 29, 2009.

(E) If the mean total per diem rate for all ICFs/MR in this state for the period beginning August 1, 2009, and ending June 30, 2010, weighted by May 2009 Medicaid days and calculated as of August 1, 2009, exceeds $278.15, the Department shall reduce, for the period beginning August 1, 2009, and ending June 30, 2010, the total per diem rate for each ICF/MR to which this section applies by a percentage that is equal to the percentage by which the mean total per diem rate exceeds $278.15.

(F) The rate of an ICF/MR set pursuant to this section shall not be subject to any adjustments authorized by sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code, or any rule authorized by those sections, during the remainder of fiscal year 2010.

(G) If the United States Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services requires that the franchise permit fee be reduced or eliminated, the Department of Job and Family Services shall reduce the amount it pays providers of ICF/MR services under this section as necessary to reflect the loss to the state of the revenue and federal financial participation generated from the franchise permit fee.

(H) The Department of Job and Family Services shall follow this section in determining the rate to be paid providers of ICF/MR services subject to this section notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 309.30.70. FISCAL YEAR 2011 MEDICAID REIMBURSEMENT SYSTEM FOR ICFs/MR

(A) As used in this section:

"Change of operator," "entering operator," and "exiting operator" have the same meanings as in section 5111.65 of the Revised Code.

"Franchise permit fee" and "provider" have the same meanings as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

"ICF/MR" means an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded as defined in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

"ICF/MR services" means services covered by the Medicaid program that an ICF/MR provides to a Medicaid recipient eligible for the services.

"Medicaid days" means all days during which a resident who is a Medicaid recipient occupies a bed in an ICF/MR that is included in the ICF/MR’s Medicaid-certified capacity. Therapeutic or hospital leave days for which payment is made under section 5111.33 of the Revised Code are considered Medicaid days proportionate to the percentage of the ICF/MR’s per resident per day rate paid for those days.

"Per diem rate" means the per diem rate calculated pursuant to sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

(B) This section applies to providers of ICFs/MR to which either of the following applies:

1. The provider has a valid Medicaid provider agreement for the ICF/MR on June 30, 2010, and a valid Medicaid provider agreement for the ICF/MR during fiscal year 2011.

2. The ICF/MR undergoes a change of operator effective July 1, 2010, the exiting operator has a valid Medicaid provider agreement for the ICF/MR on June 30, 2010, and the entering operator has a valid Medicaid provider agreement for the ICF/MR during fiscal year 2011.

(C) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the provider of an ICF/MR to which this section applies shall be paid, for ICF/MR services the ICF/MR provides during fiscal year 2011, the rate calculated for the ICF/MR under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

(D) If the mean total per diem rate for all ICFs/MR in this state for fiscal year 2011, weighted by May 2010 Medicaid days and calculated as of July 1, 2010, exceeds $278.15, the Department shall reduce the total per diem rate for each ICF/MR to which this section applies by a percentage that is equal to the percentage by which the mean total per diem rate exceeds $278.15.

(E) The rate of an ICF/MR set pursuant to this section shall not be subject to any adjustments authorized by sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code, or any rule authorized by those sections, during the remainder of fiscal year 2011.

(F) If the United States Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services requires that the franchise permit fee be reduced or eliminated, the Department of Job and Family Services shall reduce the amount it pays providers of ICF/MR services under this section as necessary to reflect the loss to the state of the revenue and federal financial participation generated from the franchise permit fee.

(G) The Department of Job and Family Services shall follow this section in determining the rate to be paid providers of ICF/MR services subject to this section notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 309.30.71. ICF/MR REIMBURSEMENT STUDY COUNCIL

(A) There is hereby created the ICF/MR Reimbursement Study Council consisting of all of the following members:

1) The Director of Job and Family Services;

2) The Deputy Director of the Office of Ohio Health Plans of the Department of Job and Family Services;

3) The Director of Developmental Disabilities;

4) One representative of Medicaid recipients residing in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, appointed by the Governor;

5) Two representatives of each of the following organizations, appointed by their respective governing bodies:
   a) The Ohio Provider Resource Association;
   b) The Ohio Health Care Association;
   c) The Ohio Association of County Boards of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities.

Initial appointments of members described in divisions (A)(4) and (5) of this section shall be made not later than thirty days after the effective date of this section. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments. Members described in those divisions shall serve at the pleasure of the official or governing body making the appointment of the member.

The Director of Job and Family Services shall serve as chairperson of the council. Members of the council shall serve without compensation, except to the extent that serving on the council is part of their regular duties of employment.

(B) The council shall review the system established by sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code for reimbursing intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded under the Medicaid program. Not later than July 1, 2010, the council shall issue a report of its activities, findings, and recommendations to the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the President of the Senate.

(C) In its consideration of the system for reimbursing intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded under division (B) of this section, the council shall use the following principles:

1. The system should appropriately account for differences in acuity and service needs among individuals in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded.

2. The system should support and encourage quality services, including both of the following elements:
   (a) A high level of coverage of direct care costs;
   (b) Pay for performance mechanisms.

3. The system should reflect appropriate recognition that virtually all individuals served in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded are Medicaid recipients.

4. The system should encourage cost-effective service delivery.

5. The system should encourage innovation in service delivery.

6. The system should encourage appropriate maintenance, improvement, and replacement of facilities.

(D) The council shall cease to exist on the submission of a report under division (B) of this section.

SECTION 309.30.73. INCREASE IN MEDICAID RATES FOR HOSPITAL INPATIENT AND OUTPATIENT SERVICES

The Director of Job and Family Services shall amend rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code as necessary to increase, for the period beginning October 1, 2009, and ending June 30, 2011, the Medicaid reimbursement rates for Medicaid-covered hospital inpatient services and hospital outpatient services that are paid under the prospective payment system established in those rules to rates that result in an amount that is five per cent higher than the amount resulting from the rates in effect on September 30, 2009.
SECTION 309.30.75. REDUCTION IN COMMUNITY PROVIDER RATES

The Director of Job and Family Services shall amend rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code as necessary to reduce, effective January 1, 2010, the Medicaid reimbursement rates for the following Medicaid-covered services to rates that result in an amount that is at least three per cent lower than the amount resulting from the rates in effect on December 31, 2009:

(A) Advanced practice nursing services;
(B) Ambulatory surgery center services;
(C) Chiropractic services;
(D) Durable medical equipment;
(E) Home health services;
(F) Ambulance and ambulette services;
(G) Physician services;
(H) Physical therapy services;
(I) Podiatry services;
(J) Private duty nursing services;
(K) Vision services;
(L) Clinic services, other than rural health clinics and federally qualified health centers;
(M) Occupational therapy services;
(N) Dental services;
(O) Services provided under a home and community-based services Medicaid waiver component, as defined in section 5111.85 of the Revised Code, administered by the Department of Job and Family Services;

(P) Other services the Director identifies, other than services for which a statute of this state sets the Medicaid reimbursement rate.

SECTION 309.30.76. DISPENSING FEE FOR NONCOMPOUNDED DRUGS

The Medicaid dispensing fee for each noncompounded drug covered by the Medicaid program shall be $1.80 for the period beginning January 1, 2010, and ending June 30, 2011.

SECTION 309.30.80. RESIDENTIAL STATE SUPPLEMENT TRANSFER

Am. Sub. H. B. No. 1 128th G.A.
2885
The Department of Aging may transfer cash from the foregoing appropriation item 490412, Residential State Supplement, and the PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement Fund (Fund 4J40), to the Home and Community-Based Services for the Aged Fund (Fund 4J50), used by the Department of Job and Family Services to make benefit payments to Residential State Supplement recipients. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

SECTION 309.30.90. MONEY FOLLOWS THE PERSON
The Director of Budget and Management may seek Controlling Board approval to do any of the following in support of any home and community-based services Medicaid waiver component:
(A) Create new funds and appropriation items associated with a unified long-term care budget;
(B) Transfer cash between funds used by affected agencies;
(C) Transfer appropriation between appropriation items within a fund and used by the same state agency.
Any transfers of cash approved by the Controlling Board under this section are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 309.31.10. MONEY FOLLOWS THE PERSON ENHANCED REIMBURSEMENT FUND
The Money Follows the Person Enhanced Reimbursement Fund is hereby created in the state treasury. This is a continuation of the fund created by Section 751.20 of Am. Sub. H.B. 562 of the 127th General Assembly. The federal payments made to the state under subsection (e) of section 6071 of the "Deficit Reduction Act of 2005," Pub. L. No. 109-171, shall be deposited into the fund. The Department of Job and Family Services shall use money deposited into the fund for system reform activities related to the Money Follows the Person demonstration project.

SECTION 309.31.20. MEDICARE PART D
The foregoing appropriation item 600526, Medicare Part D, may be used by the Department of Job and Family Services for the implementation and operation of the Medicare Part D requirements contained in the "Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003," Pub. L. No. 108-173, as amended. Upon the request of the Department of Job and Family Services, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer the state share of appropriations between appropriation item 600525, Health Care/Medicaid, or appropriation item 600526, Medicare Part D. If the state share of appropriation item 600525, Health Care/Medicaid, is adjusted, the Director of Budget and Management shall adjust the federal share accordingly. The Department of Job and Family Services shall provide notification to the Controlling Board of any transfers at the next scheduled Controlling Board meeting.

SECTION 309.31.23. MEDICARE PART D APPROPRIATIONS
If the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services do not reduce the Medicaid grant award in lieu of state payments for Medicare Part D services as planned in state fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the appropriation in appropriation item 600526, Medicare Part D, shall be increased by the amount of the unanticipated GRF Medicaid grant award received. The unanticipated amounts are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 309.31.30. OHIO ACCESS SUCCESS PROJECT AND IDENTIFICATION OF OVERPAYMENTS
Notwithstanding any limitations in sections 3721.51 and 3721.56 of the Revised Code, in each fiscal year, cash from the Home and Community-Based Services for the Aged Fund (Fund 4J50), in excess of the amounts needed for the transfers to the PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement Fund (Fund 4J40) used by the Department of Aging, may be used by the Department of Job and Family Services for the following purposes: (A) up to $3,000,000 in each fiscal year to fund the state share of audits or limited reviews of Medicaid providers; and (B) up to $450,000 in each fiscal year to provide one-time transitional benefits under the Ohio Access Success Project that the Director of Job and Family Services may establish under section 5111.97 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 309.31.40. TRANSFER OF FUNDS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF AGING
The Department of Job and Family Services shall transfer $33,263,984 cash in each fiscal year from the Home and Community-Based Services for the Aged Fund (Fund 4J50) to the PASSPORT/Residential State Supplement Fund (Fund 4J40), used by the Department of Aging. The transfer may occur on a quarterly basis or on a schedule developed and agreed to by both departments. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

SECTION 309.31.50. PROVIDER FRANCHISE FEE OFFSETS
(A) At least quarterly, the Director of Job and Family Services shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management both of the following:
(1) The amount of offsets withheld under section 3721.541 of the Revised Code from payments made from the General Revenue Fund.
(2) The amount of offsets withheld under section 5112.341 of the Revised Code from payments made from the General Revenue Fund.
(B) The Director of Budget and Management may transfer cash from the General Revenue Fund to all of the following:
(1) The Home and Community Based Services for the Aged Fund (Fund 4J50), or the Nursing Facility Stabilization Fund (Fund 5R20), in accordance with sections 3721.56 and 3721.561 of the Revised Code;
(2) The ICF/MR Bed Assessments Fund (Fund 4K10).
(C) Amounts transferred pursuant to this section are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 309.31.55. REPORT ON PROVIDER FRANCHISE PERMIT FEES
If the Department of Job and Family Services conducts a study on the issue of funding the Medicaid program through franchise permit fees on providers of health-care services, the Department shall submit a copy of a report regarding the study to the General Assembly in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 309.31.60. TRANSFER OF FUNDS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES
The Department of Job and Family Services shall transfer $12,000,000 cash in each fiscal year from the ICF/MR Bed Assessments Fund (Fund 4K10) to the Home and Community-Based Services Fund (Fund 4K80), used by the Department of Developmental Disabilities. The transfer may occur on a quarterly basis or on a schedule developed and agreed to by both departments. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

SECTION 309.31.70. FUNDING FOR TRANSITION WAIVER SERVICES
Notwithstanding any limitations contained in sections 5112.31 and 5112.37 of the Revised Code, in each fiscal year, cash from the ICF/MR Bed Assessments Fund (Fund 4K10) in excess of the amounts needed for transfers to the Home and Community-Based Services Fund (Fund 4K80), used by the Department of Developmental Disabilities, may be used by the Department of Job and Family Services to cover costs of care provided to participants in a waiver with an ICF/MR level of care requirement administered by the Department of Job and Family Services.

SECTION 309.31.80. HOSPITAL CARE ASSURANCE MATCH

The foregoing appropriation item 600650, Hospital Care Assurance Match, shall be used by the Department of Job and Family Services solely for distributing funds to hospitals under section 5112.08 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 309.31.90. HEALTH CARE SERVICES ADMINISTRATION FUND

Of the amount received by the Department of Job and Family Services during fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011 from the first installment of assessments paid under section 5112.06 of the Revised Code and intergovernmental transfers made under section 5112.07 of the Revised Code, the Director of Job and Family Services shall deposit $350,000 in each fiscal year into the state treasury to the credit of the Health Care Services Administration Fund (Fund 5U30).

SECTION 309.32.10. MEDICAID PROGRAM SUPPORT FUND - STATE

The foregoing appropriation item 600671, Medicaid Program Support, shall be used by the Department of Job and Family Services to pay for Medicaid services and contracts. The Department may also deposit to Fund 5C90 revenues received from other state agencies for Medicaid services under the terms of interagency agreements between the Department and other state agencies.

SECTION 309.32.20. TRANSFERS OF IMD/DSH CASH TO THE DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH

The Department of Job and Family Services shall transfer cash from the Medicaid Program Support Fund (Fund 5C90), to the Behavioral Health Medicaid Services Fund (Fund 4X50), used by the Department of Mental Health, in accordance with an interagency agreement that delegates authority from the Department of Job and Family Services to the Department of Mental Health to administer specified Medicaid services. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

The Department of Job and Family Services shall transfer $14,700,000 cash, during the FY 2010-FY 2011 biennium, from the Medicaid Program Support Fund (Fund 5C90), to the Sale of Goods and Services Fund (Fund 1490), used by the Department of Mental Health. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

The Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $4,700,000 cash in fiscal year 2010 and $3,200,000 cash in fiscal year 2011 from the Medicaid Program Support Fund (Fund 5C90) to the Nursing Facility Stabilization Fund (Fund 5R20).

SECTION 309.32.30. PRESCRIPTION DRUG REBATE FUND

The foregoing appropriation item 600692, Health Care Services, shall be used by the Department of Job and Family Services to pay for Medicaid services and contracts.

SECTION 309.32.40. FEDERAL MATCH FOR ADAMHS BOARDS' ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

As used in this section, "community behavioral health boards" means boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, community mental health boards, and alcohol and drug addiction services boards.

Not later than October 1, 2009, the Director of Job and Family Services shall seek federal approval to establish a system under which community behavioral health boards obtain federal financial participation for the allowable administrative activities the boards perform in the administration of the Medicaid program. The Director shall implement the system on receipt of federal approval. The Director shall work with the Directors of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services and Mental Health and representatives of community behavioral health boards when implementing this section.

SECTION 309.32.43. FUNDING OF MEDICAID-COVERED COMMUNITY BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES

(A) As used in this section:
"Community behavioral health boards" means boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services; community mental health boards; and alcohol and drug addiction services boards.

"Community mental health facility" has the same meaning as in section 5111.023 of the Revised Code.

(B) Notwithstanding any conflicting provision of sections 5111.912 and 5111.913 of the Revised Code, both of the following apply to community behavioral health boards with respect to payments made under those sections for the nonfederal share of Medicaid payments to providers for services under a Medicaid component, or aspect of a component, the Department of Mental Health or Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services administers:

(1) A community behavioral health board shall use state funds provided to the board for the purpose of funding community mental health services to make the payments.

(2) In addition to the funds used under division (B)(1) of this section, a community behavioral health board may use money available to the board that is raised by a county tax levy to make the payments if using the money for that purpose is consistent with the purpose for which the tax was levied.

(C) Notwithstanding division (C) of section 5111.023 of the Revised Code, the comprehensive annual plan specified in that division may certify the availability of unencumbered community mental health local funds to match federal Medicaid reimbursement funds earned by community mental health facilities.

(D) This section expires on July 1, 2011.

SECTION 309.32.45. MEDICAID NONEMERGENCY MEDICAL TRANSPORTATION MANAGEMENT PILOT PROGRAM

(A) The Department of Job and Family Services shall establish a Medicaid nonemergency medical transportation management pilot program. The pilot program shall be operated for two years.

(B) A county department of job and family services serving a county with a population greater than two hundred thousand persons may participate in the pilot program. A county department participating in the pilot program shall identify which groups of Medicaid recipients residing in the county shall be required to participate in the pilot program. The county department shall also contract with one or more medical transportation management organizations to have the organizations manage nonemergency medical transportation services provided under the Medicaid program to the groups required to participate in the pilot program. To be eligible to contract with a county department, a medical transportation management organization must have experience in coordinating nonemergency medical transportation services.

(C) A medical transportation management organization that contracts with a county department shall report monthly to the county department.
Each report shall contain all of the following information:

(1) A description of the transportation services provided to Medicaid recipients participating in the pilot program, including details on the varying modes of transportation used in providing the services and the frequency at which the services were provided;

(2) The number of times nonemergency medical transportation providers failed to arrive for an appointment to transport a participant in the pilot program;

(3) The number of times nonemergency medical transportation providers were late for an appointment to transport a participant in the pilot program and the lengths of the delays;

(4) The cost of the nonemergency medical transportation services provided to participants in the pilot program;

(5) Other indicators of the quality of nonemergency transportation services provided to participants in the pilot program that the county department requests to be included in the reports.

(D) On conclusion of the pilot program, the Department, with assistance from each county department that participated in the pilot program, shall submit a report regarding the pilot program to the Governor, and in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, the General Assembly.
The report shall specify the amount of savings, if any, the Medicaid program realized as a result of the pilot program.

SECTION 309.32.70. DURABLE MEDICAL EQUIPMENT STUDY

The Department of Job and Family Services shall prepare and submit to the Speaker and Minority Leader of the House of Representatives and the President and Minority Leader of the Senate a report on expenditures for durable medical equipment by the Medicaid program. In preparing the report, the Department shall do all of the following:

(A) Identify the types of durable medical equipment that represent, in total, greater than fifty per cent of the state's total Medicaid expenditures for durable medical equipment;

(B) Consult with durable medical equipment suppliers to identify cost-saving strategies;

(C) Evaluate opportunities for competitive purchasing procedures for durable medical equipment.

The report prepared under this section shall include recommendations on strategies to reduce the Medicaid program's costs for durable medical equipment. The report shall be submitted not later than July 1, 2010.

SECTION 309.40. FAMILY STABILITY

SECTION 309.40.10. FOOD STAMPS TRANSFER
On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer up to $1,000,000 cash from the Food Stamp Program Fund (Fund 3840), to the Food Assistance Fund (Fund 5ES0).

SECTION 309.40.20. NAME OF FOOD STAMP PROGRAM
The Director of Job and Family Services is not required to amend rules regarding the Food Stamp Program to change the name of the program to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program. The Director may refer to the program as the Food Stamp Program or the Food Assistance Program in rules and documents of the Department of Job and Family Services.

SECTION 309.40.30. OHIO ASSOCIATION OF SECOND HARVEST FOOD BANKS
The foregoing appropriation item 600540, Second Harvest Food Banks, shall be used to provide funds to the Ohio Association of Second Harvest Food Banks to purchase and distribute food products.
Notwithstanding section 5101.46 of the Revised Code and any other provision in this bill, in addition to funds designated for the Ohio Association of Second Harvest Food Banks in this section, in fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the Director of Job and Family Services shall provide assistance from eligible funds to the Ohio Association of Second Harvest Food Banks in an amount equal to the assistance provided in state fiscal year 2009.

SECTION 309.40.50. CHILD SUPPORT COLLECTIONS/TANF MOE
The foregoing appropriation item 600658, Child Support Collections, shall be used by the Department of Job and Family Services to meet the TANF maintenance of effort requirements of 42 U.S.C. 609(a)(7). When the state is assured that it will meet the maintenance of effort requirement, the Department of Job and Family Services may use funds from appropriation... item 600658, Child Support Collections, to support public assistance activities.

SECTION 309.40.55. KINSHIP PERMANENCY INCENTIVE PROGRAM

The foregoing appropriation item 600541, Kinship Permanency Incentive Program, shall be used to support the Kinship Permanency Incentive Program created under section 5101.802 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 309.40.60. EARLY LEARNING INITIATIVE

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Title IV-A services" means benefits and services that are allowable under Title IV-A of the "Social Security Act," as specified in 42 U.S.C. 604(a), except that they shall not be benefits and services included in the term "assistance" as defined in 45 C.F.R. 260.31(a) and shall be benefits and services that are excluded from the definition of the term "assistance" under 45 C.F.R. 260.31(b).

(2) "Eligible child" means a child who is at least three years of age but not of compulsory school age or enrolled in kindergarten, is eligible for Title IV-A services, and whose family income at the time of application does not exceed two hundred per cent of the federal poverty guidelines.

(3) "Early learning program" means a program for eligible children that provides Title IV-A services, according to the purposes listed in 45 C.F.R. 260.20(c), that are early learning services, as defined by pursuant to division (D)(1) of this section.

(4) "Early learning provider" means an entity that operates an early learning program.

(5) "Early learning agency" means an early learning provider or an entity that has entered into an agreement with an early learning provider requiring the early learning provider to operate an early learning program on behalf of the entity.

(6) "Federal poverty line" has the same meaning as in section 5104.01 of the Revised Code.

(7) "Of compulsory school age" has the same meaning as in section 3321.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) The Early Learning Initiative is hereby established. The Department of Education and the Department of Job and Family Services shall administer the Initiative in accordance with sections 5101.80 and 5101.801 of the Revised Code. The Initiative shall provide early learning services to eligible children. Early learning services may be provided on a full-day basis, a part-day basis, or both a full-day and part-day basis.

(C) The Department of Job and Family Services shall do both of the following:

(1) Reimburse early learning agencies for services provided to eligible children according to the terms of the contract and the rules adopted under division (C)(2) of this section;

(2) In consultation with the Department of Education, adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement the Early Learning Initiative. The rules shall include all of the following:

(a) Provisions regarding the establishment of co-payments for families of eligible children whose family income is more than one hundred per cent of the federal poverty guidelines but equal to or less than the maximum amount of family income authorized for an eligible child as defined in division (A)(2) of this section;

(b) An exemption from co-payment requirements for families whose family income is equal to or less than one hundred per cent of the federal poverty guideline;

(c) A definition of "enrollment" for the purpose of compensating early learning agencies;

(d) Provisions that establish compensation rates for early learning agencies based on the enrollment of eligible children;

(e) Provisions for the completion of criminal record checks for employees of early learning agencies and early learning providers whereby sections 109.572(A)(8), (A)(9), and (B)(2) of the Revised Code are considered applicable to these employees;

(f) Provisions for the timeline of eligibility determination;

(g) A requirement that early learning programs licensed by the Department of Education under sections 3301.52 to 3301.59 of the Revised Code participate in the quality-rating program established under section 5104.30 of the Revised Code.

(D) The Department of Education shall do all of the following:

(1) Define the early learning services that will be provided to eligible children through the Early Learning Initiative;

(2) In consultation with the Department of Job and Family Services, develop an application form and criteria for the selection of early learning agencies. The criteria shall require an early learning agency, or each early learning provider with which the agency has entered into an agreement for the operation of an early learning program on the agency's behalf, to be licensed by the Department of Education under sections 3301.52 to 3301.59 of the Revised Code or by the Department of Job and Family Services under Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code;

(3) Establish early learning program guidelines for school readiness to assess the operation of early learning programs.

(E) Any entity that seeks to be an early learning agency shall apply to the Department of Education by a deadline established by the Department. The Department of Education shall select entities that meet the criteria established under division (D)(2) of this section to be early learning agencies. Upon selection of an entity to be an early learning agency, the Department of Education shall designate the number of eligible children the agency may enroll. The Department of Education shall notify the Department of Job and Family Services of the number so designated.

(F) The Department of Education and the Department of Job and Family Services shall enter into a contract with each early learning agency selected under division (E) of this section. The requirements of section 127.16 of the Revised Code do not apply to contracts entered into under this section. The contract shall outline the terms and conditions applicable to the provision of Title IV-A services for eligible children and shall include at least the following:

(1) The respective duties of the early learning agency, the Department of Education, and the Department of Job and Family Services;

(2) Requirements applicable to the allowable use of and accountability for compensation paid under the contract;

(3) Reporting requirements, including a requirement that the early learning provider inform the Department of Education when the provider learns that a kindergarten eligible child will not be enrolled in kindergarten;

(4) The compensation schedule payable under the contract;

(5) Audit requirements;

(6) Provisions for suspending, modifying, or terminating the contract.

(G) If an early learning agency, or an early learning provider operating an early learning program on the agency's behalf, substantially fails to meet the early learning program guidelines for school readiness or exhibits substandard performance, as determined by the Department of Education, the agency shall develop and implement a corrective action plan. The Department of Education shall approve the corrective action plan prior to implementation.

(H) If an early learning agency fails to implement a corrective action plan under division (G) of this section, the Department of Education may direct the Department of Job and Family Services to either withhold funding or request that the Department of Job and Family Services suspend or terminate the contract with the agency.

(I) Each early learning program shall do all of the following:

(1) Meet teacher qualification requirements prescribed by section 3301.311 of the Revised Code;

(2) Align curriculum to the early learning content standards;

(3) Meet any assessment requirements prescribed by section 3301.0715 of the Revised Code that apply to the program;

(4) Require teachers, except teachers enrolled and working to obtain a degree pursuant to section 3301.311 of the Revised Code, to attend a minimum of twenty hours per biennium of professional development as prescribed by the Department of Education regarding the implementation of early learning program guidelines for school readiness;

(5) Document and report child progress;

(6) Meet and report compliance with the early learning program guidelines for school success;

(7) Participate in early language and literacy classroom observation evaluation studies.

(J) Each county Department of Job and Family Services shall determine eligibility for Title IV-A services for children seeking to enroll in an early learning program within fifteen days after receipt of a completed application in accordance with rules adopted under this section.

(K) The provision of early learning services in an early learning program shall not prohibit or otherwise prevent an individual from obtaining certificates for payment under division (C) of section 5104.32 of the Revised Code.

(L) Notwithstanding section 126.07 of the Revised Code:

(1) Any fiscal year 2010 contract executed prior to July 1, 2009, between the Departments of Job and Family Services and Education and an early learning agency that was not an early learning agency as of June 30, 2009, shall be deemed to be effective as of July 1, 2009, upon issuance of a state purchase order, even if the purchase order is approved at some later date.

(2) Any fiscal year 2010 contract executed between the Departments of Job and Family Services and Education and an early learning agency that had a valid contract for early learning services on June 30, 2009, shall be deemed to be effective as of July 1, 2009, upon the issuance of a state purchase order, even if the purchase order is approved at some later date.

(3) Any fiscal year 2011 contract executed prior to July 1, 2010, between the Departments of Job and Family Services and Education and an early learning agency that was not an early learning agency as of June 30, 2010, shall be deemed to be effective as of July 1, 2010, upon issuance of a state purchase order, even if the purchase order is approved at some later date.

(4) Any fiscal year 2011 contract executed between the Departments of Job and Family Services and Education and an early learning agency that had a valid contract for early learning services on June 30, 2010, shall be deemed to be effective as of July 1, 2010, upon the issuance of a state purchase order, even if the purchase order is approved at some later date.

(M) The Departments of Job and Family Services and Education shall contract for up to 12,000 enrollment slots for eligible children in each fiscal year through the Early Learning Initiative.

(N) Eligible expenditures for the Early Learning Initiative shall be claimed each fiscal year to help meet the state's TANF maintenance of effort requirement. The Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Director of Job and Family Services shall enter into an interagency agreement to carry out the requirements under this division, which shall include developing reporting guidelines for these expenditures.

SECTION 309.40.70. COMMITTEE TO STUDY PUBLICLY FUNDED CHILD CARE SERVICES

(A) A committee is hereby created to study publicly funded child care services, including the Early Learning Initiative enacted pursuant to this act and pursuant to changes in the administrative rules governing reimbursement and eligibility for publicly funded child day-care. The study shall include the following subjects:

(1) The effects of changing the definitions of full-time and part-time care on the following:
   (a) Children, families, and providers of care, including the effects on the quality of care;
   (b) Number of children served and the availability and accessibility of subsidized care to caregivers with full-time and part-time jobs;
   (c) Availability of full-time and part-time care in areas with a high incidence of poverty;
   (d) Private pay rates;
   (e) Closure of centers and center programs;
   (f) Loss of jobs in the child care industry.
(2) The effects of changes to the Early Learning Initiative on families and children including the following:
   (a) Distribution and use of program slots across the state;
   (b) Effect of mandatory participation in the voluntary child day-care center quality-rating program as described in section 5104.30 of the Revised Code on program quality;
   (c) Outcomes in terms of school readiness and other related factors for children who participate in the program.

   (B) The committee shall consist of the following members:
      (1) Three members of the House of Representatives, two appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and one appointed by the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives;
      (2) Three members of the Senate, two appointed by the President of the Senate and one appointed by the Minority Leader of the Senate;
      (3) One parent of a child receiving publicly funded child care services, appointed by the President of the Senate;
      (4) Two representatives of licensed child care centers serving low-income areas, one appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and one appointed by the President of the Senate;
      (5) One representative from the Ohio Association of Child Care Providers, appointed by the President of the Senate;
      (6) One representative from the Ohio State Alliance of Young Men's Christian Associations, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives;
      (7) One representative from the Department of Job and Family Services, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives;
      (8) One representative from the Department of Education, appointed by the President of the Senate.

   (C) The Department of Education shall provide the committee meeting space and clerical assistance. The committee shall prepare a report of its findings by June 30, 2010, and shall provide a copy of the report to the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the President of the Senate, at which time the committee shall cease to exist.

SECTION 309.45. CHILD WELFARE

SECTION 309.45.10. ALTERNATIVE RESPONSE

The Department of Job and Family Services shall develop, implement, oversee, and evaluate a pilot program based on an "Alternative Response" approach to reports of child abuse, neglect, and dependency. The pilot program shall be implemented in not more than ten counties that are selected by the Department and that agree to participate in the pilot program. The pilot program shall last eighteen months, not including time expended in preparation for the implementation of the pilot program and any post-pilot program evaluation activity. After the eighteen-month period, the ten sites may continue to administer the Alternative Response approach uninterrupted, unless the Department determines otherwise.

The Department shall assure that the Alternative Response pilot program is independently evaluated with respect to outcomes for children and families, costs, worker satisfaction, and any other criteria the Department determines will be useful in the consideration of statewide implementation of an Alternative Response approach to child protection. The measure associated with the eighteen-month pilot program shall, for the purposes of the evaluation, be compared with those same measures in the pilot counties during the eighteen-month period immediately preceding the beginning of the pilot program period. If the independent evaluation of the pilot program recommends statewide implementation of an Alternative Response approach to child protection, the Department may expand the Alternative Response approach statewide through a schedule determined by the Department. Prior to statewide implementation, the Department shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code as necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. Until that time, the Department may adopt rules in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code, as if they were internal management rules, as necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

SECTION 309.45.15. INDEPENDENT LIVING SERVICES

Of the foregoing appropriation item 600523, Children and Families Services, up to $1,500,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to provide independent living services to foster youth and former foster youth between 16 and 21 years of age.

SECTION 309.45.21. CHILD, FAMILY, AND ADULT COMMUNITY AND PROTECTIVE SERVICES

(A) The foregoing appropriation item 600533, Child, Family, and Adult Community & Protective Services, shall be distributed to each county department of job and family services using the formula the Department of Job and Family Services uses when distributing Title XX funds to county departments of job and family services under section 5101.46 of the Revised Code. County departments shall use the funds distributed to them under this section as follows, in accordance with the written plan of cooperation entered into under section 307.983 of the Revised Code:
(1) To assist individuals achieve or maintain self-sufficiency, including by reducing or preventing dependency among individuals with family income not exceeding two hundred per cent of the federal poverty guidelines;

(2) Subject to division (B) of this section, to respond to reports of abuse, neglect, or exploitation of children and adults, including through the alternative approach pilot program developed under Section 309.40.40 of this act;

(3) To provide outreach and referral services regarding home and community-based services to individuals at risk of placement in a group home or institution, regardless of the individuals' family income and without need for a written application;

(4) To provide outreach, referral, application assistance, and other services to assist individuals receive assistance, benefits, or services under Medicaid; Title IV-A programs, as defined in section 5101.80 of the Revised Code; the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program; and other public assistance programs.

(B) Protective services may be provided to a child or adult as part of a response, under division (A)(2) of this section, to a report of abuse, neglect, or exploitation without regard to a child or adult's family income and without need for a written application. The protective services may be provided if the case record documents circumstances of actual or potential abuse, neglect, or exploitation.

SECTION 309.45.25. ADOPTION ASSISTANCE LOAN

Of the foregoing appropriation item 600634, Adoption Assistance Loan, the Department of Job and Family Services may use up to ten per cent for administration of adoption assistance loans pursuant to section 3107.018 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 309.45.90. REALLOCATION OF UNUSED COUNTY ALLOCATIONS

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Income maintenance funds" means funds the Department of Job and Family Services allocates to a county to meet matching fund requirements or reimburse a county for administrative expenditures incurred in the administration of the Disability Financial Assistance Program, Medicaid Program, or Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program.

(2) "TANF funds" means funds the Department of Job and Family Services allocates to a county for Title IV-A programs, as defined in section 5101.80 of the Revised Code.

(3) "TANF Title XX transfer funds" means funds the Department of Job and Family Services allocates to a county for purposes of section 5101.461 of the Revised Code.

(4) "Title XX social services funds" means funds the Department of Job and Family Services allocates to a county department of job and family services for purposes of section 5101.46 of the Revised Code.

(B) If a county informs the Department of Job and Family Services that the county will not use the entire amount of the income maintenance funds, TANF funds, TANF Title XX transfer funds, or Title XX social services funds allocated to the county for fiscal year 2010 or fiscal year 2011 or the Department determines through an annual close out or reconciliation of funds that a county did not use the entire amount of any of those funds allocated to the county for fiscal year 2010 or 2011, the Department shall reallocate the portion of the funds the county will or did not use to other counties for the remainder of the fiscal year in which the funds are reallocated or the next fiscal year. In reallocating the funds, the Department shall do both of the following:

(1) For each of the funds separately, rank each county by the percentage reduction in allocations of the funds from the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year in which the reallocation is made to the fiscal year in which the reallocation is made, with the county that has the greatest reduction percentage placed at the top of the ranking;

(2) Reallocate each of the funds separately to counties in the order in which counties are ranked under division (B)(1) of this section in a manner that provides, to the extent funds are available for reallocation, for each county to be, as a result of the reallocation, allocated the same amount of the funds that the county was allocated the previous fiscal year, other than the counties that will or did not use the full amount of their allocation of the funds.

SECTION 309.50. UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

SECTION 309.50.10. EMPLOYER SURCHARGE

The surcharge and the interest on the surcharge amounts due for calendar years 1988, 1989, and 1990 as required by Am. Sub. H.B. 171 of the 117th General Assembly, Am. Sub. H.B. 111 of the 118th General Assembly, and section 4141.251 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to its repeal by Sub. H.B. 478 of the 122nd General Assembly, again shall be assessed and collected by, accounted for, and made available to the Department of Job and Family Services in the same manner as set forth in section 4141.251 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to its repeal by Sub. H.B. 478 of the 122nd General Assembly, notwithstanding the repeal of the surcharge for calendar years after 1990, pursuant to Sub. H.B. 478 of the 122nd General Assembly, except that amounts received by the Director on or after July 1, 2001, shall be deposited into the Unemployment Compensation Special Administrative Fund (Fund 4A90) established pursuant to section 4141.11 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 309.50.20. FEDERAL UNEMPLOYMENT PROGRAMS

All unexpended funds remaining at the end of fiscal year 2009 that were appropriated and made available to the state under section 903(d) of the Social Security Act, as amended, in the foregoing appropriation item 600678, Federal Unemployment Programs (Fund 3V40), are hereby appropriated to the Department of Job and Family Services. Upon the request of the Director of Job and Family Services, the Director of Budget and Management may increase the appropriation for fiscal year 2010 by the amount remaining unspent from the fiscal year 2009 appropriation and may increase the appropriation for fiscal year 2011 by the amount remaining unspent from the fiscal year 2010 appropriation. The appropriation shall be used under the direction of the Department of Job and Family Services to pay for administrative activities for the Unemployment Insurance Program, employment services, and other allowable expenditures under section 903(d) of the Social Security Act, as amended.

The amounts obligated pursuant to this section shall not exceed at any time the amount by which the aggregate of the amounts transferred to the account of the state under section 903(d) of the Social Security Act, as amended, exceeds the aggregate of the amounts obligated for administration and paid out for benefits and required by law to be charged against the amounts transferred to the account of the state.

SECTION 309.50.30. REMOVAL OF UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBERS

The intent of the General Assembly in the amendments made in this act to section 145.012 is to provide that service as a member of the Unemployment Compensation Advisory Council on or after the effective date of this section shall not be service as a public employee for purposes of Chapter 145. of the Revised Code. The amendments are not intended to prohibit the use of such service for calculation of benefits under Chapter 145. of the Revised Code for service prior to the effective date of this section.

LAW-RELATED EDUCATION

The foregoing appropriation item 005406, Law-Related Education, shall be distributed directly to the Ohio Center for Law-Related Education for the purposes of providing continuing citizenship education activities to primary and secondary students, expanding delinquency prevention programs, increasing activities for at-risk youth, and accessing additional public and private money for new programs.
OHIO COURTS TECHNOLOGY INITIATIVE
The foregoing appropriation item 005409, Ohio Courts Technology Initiative, shall be used to fund an initiative by the Supreme Court to facilitate the exchange of information and warehousing of data by and between Ohio courts and other justice system partners through the creation of an Ohio Courts Network, the delivery of technology services to courts throughout the state, including the provision of hardware, software, and the development and implementation of educational and training programs for judges and court personnel, and operation of the Commission on Technology and the Courts by the Supreme Court for the promulgation of statewide rules, policies, and uniform standards, and to aid in the orderly adoption and comprehensive use of technology in Ohio courts.

CONTINUING JUDICIAL EDUCATION
The Continuing Judicial Education Fund (Fund 6720) shall consist of fees paid by judges and court personnel for attending continuing education courses and other gifts and grants received for the purpose of continuing judicial education. The foregoing appropriation item 005601, Continuing Judicial Education, shall be used to pay expenses for continuing education courses for judges and court personnel. If it is determined by the Administrative Director of the Supreme Court that additional appropriations are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

No money in Fund 6720 shall be transferred to any other fund by the Director of Budget and Management or the Controlling Board. Interest earned on moneys in Fund 6720 shall be credited to the fund.

FEDERAL GRANTS
The Federal Grants Fund (Fund 3J00) shall consist of grants and other moneys awarded to the Supreme Court (The Judiciary) by the United States Government or other entities that receive the moneys directly from the United States Government and distribute those moneys to the Supreme Court (The Judiciary). The foregoing appropriation item 005603, Federal Grants, shall be used in a manner consistent with the purpose of the grant or award. If it is determined by the Administrative Director of the Supreme Court that additional appropriations are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

No money in Fund 3J00 shall be transferred to any other fund by the Director of Budget and Management or the Controlling Board. However, interest earned on moneys in Fund 3J00 shall be credited or transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

ATTORNEY SERVICES
The Attorney Services Fund (Fund 4C80), formerly known as the Attorney Registration Fund, shall consist of moneys received by the Supreme Court (The Judiciary) pursuant to the Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio. In addition to funding other activities considered appropriate by the Supreme Court, the foregoing appropriation item 005605, Attorney Services, may be used to compensate employees and to fund appropriate activities of the following offices established by the Supreme Court: the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline, the Clients' Security Fund, and the Attorney Services Division. If it is determined by the Administrative Director of the Supreme Court that additional appropriations are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

No moneys in Fund 4C80 shall be transferred to any other fund by the Director of Budget and Management or the Controlling Board. Interest earned on moneys in Fund 4C80 shall be credited to the fund.

GRANTS AND AWARDS

The Grants and Awards Fund (Fund 5T80) shall consist of grants and other moneys awarded to the Supreme Court (The Judiciary) by the State Justice Institute, the Division of Criminal Justice Services, or other entities. The foregoing appropriation item 005609, Grants and Awards, shall be used in a manner consistent with the purpose of the grant or award. If it is determined by the Administrative Director of the Supreme Court that additional appropriations are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

No moneys in Fund 5T80 shall be transferred to any other fund by the Director of Budget and Management or the Controlling Board. However, interest earned on moneys in Fund 5T80 shall be credited or transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

SUPREME COURT ADMISSIONS

The foregoing appropriation item 005606, Supreme Court Admissions, shall be used to compensate Supreme Court employees who are primarily responsible for administering the attorney admissions program under the Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio, and to fund any other activities considered appropriate by the court. Moneys shall be deposited into the Supreme Court Admissions Fund (Fund 6A80) under the Supreme Court Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio. If it is determined by the Administrative Director of the Supreme Court that additional appropriations are necessary, the amounts are hereby appropriated.

No moneys in Fund 6A80 shall be transferred to any other fund by the Director of Budget and Management or the Controlling Board. Interest earned on moneys in Fund 6A80 shall be credited to the fund.
SECTION 313.20. SUPREME COURT FILING FEE

OHIOANA RENTAL PAYMENTS
The foregoing appropriation item 350401, Ohioana Rental Payments, shall be used to pay the rental expenses of the Martha Kinney Cooper Ohioana Library Association under section 3375.61 of the Revised Code.

REGIONAL LIBRARY SYSTEMS
The foregoing appropriation item 350502, Regional Library Systems, shall be used to support regional library systems eligible for funding under sections 3375.83 and 3375.90 of the Revised Code.

OHIO PUBLIC LIBRARY INFORMATION NETWORK
(A) The foregoing appropriation item 350604, Ohio Public Library Information Network, shall be used for an information telecommunications network linking public libraries in the state and such others as may participate in the Ohio Public Library Information Network (OPLIN).

The Ohio Public Library Information Network Board of Trustees created under section 3375.65 of the Revised Code may make decisions regarding use of the foregoing appropriation item 350604, Ohio Public Library Information Network.

(B) Of the foregoing appropriation item 350604, Ohio Public Library Information Network, up to $81,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to help local libraries use filters to screen out obscene and illegal internet materials.

The OPLIN Board shall research and assist or advise local libraries with regard to emerging technologies and methods that may be effective means to control access to obscene and illegal materials. The OPLIN Executive Director shall provide biannual written reports to the Governor, the Speaker and Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, and the President and Minority Leader of the Senate on any steps being taken by OPLIN and public libraries in the state to limit and control such improper usage as well as information on technological, legal, and law enforcement trends nationally and internationally affecting this area of public access and service.

(C) The Ohio Public Library Information Network, INFOhio, and OhioLINK shall, to the extent feasible, coordinate and cooperate in their purchase or other acquisition of the use of electronic databases for their respective users and shall contribute funds in an equitable manner to such effort.

LIBRARY FOR THE BLIND
The foregoing appropriation item 350605, Library for the Blind, shall be used for the statewide Talking Book Program to assist the blind and disabled.

TRANSFER TO OPLIN TECHNOLOGY FUND
Notwithstanding sections 5747.03 and 5747.47 of the Revised Code and any other provision of law to the contrary, in accordance with a schedule established by the Director of Budget and Management, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $3,702,150 cash in each fiscal year from the Public Library Fund (Fund 7065) to the OPLIN Technology Fund (Fund 4S40).

TRANSFER TO LIBRARY FOR THE BLIND FUND

Notwithstanding sections 5747.03 and 5747.47 of the Revised Code and any other provision of law to the contrary, in accordance with a schedule established by the Director of Budget and Management, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $1,274,194 cash in each fiscal year from the Public Library Fund (Fund 7065) to the Library for the Blind Fund (Fund 5GB0).

OPERATING EXPENSES

Notwithstanding sections 127.14 and 131.35 of the Revised Code, the Controlling Board may, at the request of the State Lottery Commission, authorize expenditures from the State Lottery Fund in excess of the amounts appropriated, up to a maximum of 15 per cent of anticipated total revenue accruing from the sale of lottery tickets. Upon the approval of the Controlling Board, the additional amounts are hereby appropriated.

DIRECT PRIZE PAYMENTS

Any amounts, in addition to the amounts appropriated in appropriation item 950601, Direct Prize Payments, that the Director of the State Lottery Commission determines to be necessary to fund prizes, bonuses, and commissions are hereby appropriated.

ANNUITY PRIZES

Upon request of the State Lottery Commission, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer cash from the State Lottery Fund (Fund 7044) to the Deferred Prizes Trust Fund (Fund 8710) in an amount sufficient to fund deferred prizes. The Treasurer of State, from time to time, shall credit the Deferred Prizes Trust Fund (Fund 8710) the pro rata share of interest earned by the Treasurer of State on invested balances.

Any amounts, in addition to the amounts appropriated in appropriation item 950602, Annuity Prizes, that the Director of the State Lottery Commission determines to be necessary to fund deferred prizes and interest earnings are hereby appropriated.

TRANSFERS TO THE LOTTERY PROFITS EDUCATION FUND

The Director of Budget and Management shall transfer an amount greater than or equal to $705,000,000 in fiscal year 2010 and $711,000,000 in fiscal year 2011 from the State Lottery Fund to the Lottery Profits Education Fund (Fund 7017). Transfers from the State Lottery Fund to the Lottery Profits Education Fund shall represent the estimated net income from operations for the Commission in fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011. Transfers by the Director of Budget and Management to the Lottery Profits Education Fund shall be administered as the statutes direct.

SECTION 335.10.10. FORENSIC SERVICES

The foregoing appropriation item 332401, Forensic Services, shall be used to provide psychiatric services to courts of common pleas. The appropriation shall be allocated through community mental health boards to certified community agencies and shall be distributed according to the criteria delineated in rule 5122:32-01 of the Administrative Code. These community forensic funds may also be used to provide forensic training to community mental health boards and to forensic psychiatry residency programs in hospitals operated by the Department of Mental Health and to provide evaluations of patients of forensic status in facilities operated by the Department of Mental Health prior to conditional release to the community.

In addition, appropriation item 332401, Forensic Services, may be used to support projects involving mental health or substance abuse, to assist courts and law enforcement to identify and develop appropriate alternatives to incarceration for nonviolent mentally ill offenders, and to provide specialized re-entry services to offenders leaving prisons and jails. Funds may also be used to provide forensic monitoring and tracking in addition to community programs serving persons of forensic status on conditional release or probation.
SECTION 335.20.10. RESIDENCY TRAINEESHIP PROGRAMS
The foregoing appropriation item 333402, Resident Trainees, shall be used to fund training agreements entered into by the Director of Mental Health for the development of curricula and the provision of training programs to support public mental health services.

SECTION 335.20.20. PRE-ADMISSION SCREENING EXPENSES
The foregoing appropriation item 333403, Pre-Admission Screening Expenses, shall be used to ensure that uniform statewide methods for pre-admission screening are in place for persons who have severe mental illness and are referred for long-term Medicaid certified nursing facility placement. Pre-admission screening includes the following activities: pre-admission assessment, consideration of continued stay requests, discharge planning and referral, and adjudication of appeals and grievance procedures.

SECTION 335.20.30. LEASE-RENTAL PAYMENTS
The foregoing appropriation item 333415, Lease-Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, by the Department of Mental Health under leases and agreements made under section 154.20 of the Revised Code. These appropriations are the source of funds pledged for bond service charges on obligations issued pursuant to Chapter 154. of the Revised Code.

SECTION 335.20.40. BEHAVIORAL HEALTH MEDICAID SERVICES
The Department of Mental Health shall administer specified Medicaid services as delegated by the Department of Job and Family Services in an interagency agreement. The foregoing appropriation item 333607, Behavioral Health Medicaid Services, may be used to make payments for free-standing psychiatric hospital inpatient services as defined in an interagency agreement with the Department of Job and Family Services.

SECTION 335.30.10. COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH BOARD RISK FUND
The foregoing appropriation item 334636, Community Mental Health Board Risk Fund, shall be used to make payments under section 5119.62 of SECTION 335.40.10. BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES - CHILDREN

The foregoing appropriation item 335404, Behavioral Health Services-Children, shall be used to provide behavioral health services for children and their families. At least $1,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to provide behavioral health treatment services for children under the age of seven and their families. Behavioral health services include mental health and alcohol and other drug treatment services and other necessary supports.

The foregoing appropriation item 335404, Behavioral Health Services-Children, shall be distributed to boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, including community mental health boards and alcohol and drug addiction boards, based upon a distribution formula approved by the Director of Mental Health, except that the amount earmarked for children under the age of seven shall be distributed to the local boards based on community-need as determined by the Director of Mental Health. These moneys shall be used in accordance with the board's applicable plan or plans developed under sections 340.03 and 340.033 of the Revised Code and in collaboration with the local family and children first council. Collaboration with the local council shall be conducted through a process defined by a system of care guidance as approved by the Ohio Family and Children First Cabinet Council.

SECTION 335.40.20. COMMUNITY MEDICATION SUBSIDY

The foregoing appropriation item 335419, Community Medication Subsidy, shall be used to provide subsidized support for psychotropic medication needs of indigent citizens in the community to reduce unnecessary hospitalization because of lack of medication and to provide subsidized support for methadone costs.

SECTION 335.40.30. LOCAL MENTAL HEALTH SYSTEMS OF CARE

The foregoing appropriation item 335505, Local Mental Health Systems of Care, shall be used for mental health services provided by community mental health boards in accordance with a community mental health plan submitted under section 340.03 of the Revised Code and as approved by the ### Department of Mental Health.

SECTION 337.20.10. LEASE-RENTAL PAYMENTS
The foregoing appropriation item 320415, Lease-Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments at the time they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, by the Department of Developmental Disabilities under leases and agreements made under section 154.20 of the Revised Code. These appropriations are the source of funds pledged for bond service charges or obligations issued pursuant to Chapter 154. of the Revised Code.

SECTION 337.30.10. RESIDENTIAL AND SUPPORT SERVICES
The Department of Developmental Disabilities may designate a portion of appropriation item 322413, Residential and Support Services, for Sermak Class Services used to implement the requirements of the agreement settling the consent decree in Sermak v. Manuel, Case No. c-2-80-220, United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Eastern Division.

SECTION 337.30.20. OTHER RESIDENTIAL AND SUPPORT SERVICE PROGRAMS
The foregoing appropriation item 322413, Residential Support Services, may be used for residential and support service programs, developed by the Department of Developmental Disabilities, that enable persons with mental retardation and developmental disabilities to live in the community.

SECTION 337.30.30. MEDICAID WAIVER - STATE MATCH (GRF)
Except as otherwise provided in section 5123.0416 of the Revised Code, the purposes for which the foregoing appropriation item 322416, Medicaid Waiver - State Match, shall be used include the following:
(B) To pay the nonfederal share of the cost of one or more new intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded certified beds, if the Director of Developmental Disabilities is required by this act to transfer to the Director of Job and Family Services funds to pay such nonfederal share.

SECTION 337.30.40. FISCAL PLAN FOR HOME AND COMMUNITY-BASED WAIVER SERVICES

Not later than December 31, 2009, the Director of Developmental Disabilities shall submit a plan to the Director of Job and Family Services with recommendations for actions to be taken addressing the fiscal sustainability of home and community-based services as defined in section 5123.01 of the Revised Code. The plan may include recommendations for all of the following:

(A) Changing the ranges in the amount the Medicaid program will pay per individual for the home and community-based services;

(B) Establishing one or more maximum amounts that the Medicaid program will pay per individual for the home and community-based services;

(C) Modifying the methodology used in establishing payment rates for providers, including the methodology's component that reflects wages and benefits for persons providing direct care and the component that reflects training and direct supervision of those persons.

SECTION 337.30.50. STATE SUBSIDY TO COUNTY MR/DD BOARDS

Except as otherwise provided in the section of this act titled "Nonfederal Share of New ICF/MR Beds," the Director of Developmental Disabilities, in consultation with the county boards of developmental disabilities, shall develop a formula for allocating the foregoing appropriation item 322501, County Boards Subsidies, to each board. The Department shall distribute this subsidy to county boards in quarterly installments.

Except as otherwise provided in section 5126.0511 of the Revised Code, county boards shall use the subsidy for early childhood services and adult services provided under section 5126.05 of the Revised Code, service and support administration provided under section 5126.15 of the Revised Code, and supported living as defined in section 5126.01 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 337.30.60. COUNTY BOARD SHARE OF WAIVER SERVICES

As used in this section, "home and community-based services" has the same meaning as in section 5123.01 of the Revised Code.

The Director of Developmental Disabilities shall establish a methodology to be used in state fiscal years 2010 and 2011 to estimate the quarterly amount each county board of developmental disabilities is to pay of the nonfederal share of home and community-based services that section 5126.0510 of the Revised Code requires county boards to pay. Each quarter, the Director shall submit to a county board written notice of the amount the county board is to pay for that quarter. The notice shall specify when the payment is due.

If a county board fails to make the full payment by the time it is due, the Director of Developmental Disabilities may withhold the amount the county board fails to pay from one or more of the state subsidies that the Department of Developmental Disabilities would otherwise provide to the county board. Each quarter, the Director may use one or more of the following appropriation items to transfer cash from the General Revenue Fund to the County Board Waiver Match Fund (Fund 5Z10) equal to the amount the county board failed to pay:

(A) Appropriation item 322413, Residential and Support Services;
(B) Appropriation item 322451, Family Support Services;
(C) Appropriation item 322501, County Boards Subsidies;
(D) Appropriation item 322503, Tax Equity.

Transfers shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

SECTION 337.30.70. TAX EQUITY

Notwithstanding section 5126.18 of the Revised Code, if the Director of Developmental Disabilities determines that there is sufficient appropriation available, the foregoing appropriation item 322503, Tax Equity, shall be used to pay each county board of developmental disabilities an amount that is equal to the amount the board received for fiscal year 2009. If the Director determines that there is not sufficient appropriation available for this purpose, the Department shall pay to each county board an amount that is proportionate to the amount the board received for fiscal year 2009. Proportionality shall be determined by dividing the total tax equity payments distributed to county boards for fiscal year 2009 by the tax equity payment a county board received for fiscal year 2009.
SECTION 337.30.80. MEDICAID WAIVER - STATE MATCH (FUND 4K80)

The foregoing appropriation item 322604, Medicaid Waiver - State Match (Fund 4K80), shall be used as state matching funds for home and community-based waivers.

SECTION 337.30.85. ICF/MR CONVERSION

(A) As used in this section, "home and community-based services" has the same meaning as in section 5123.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) For each quarter of the biennium, the Director of Developmental Disabilities shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the estimated amount needed to fund the provision of home and community-based services made available by the slots sought under section 5111.877 of the Revised Code. On receipt of certification, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the estimated amount in cash from the General Revenue Fund to the Home and Community-Based Services Fund (Fund 4K80), used by the Department of Developmental Disabilities. Upon completion of the transfer, appropriation item 600525, Health Care/Medicaid, is hereby reduced by the amount transferred under this section plus the corresponding federal share. The amount transferred to Fund 4K80 is hereby appropriated to appropriation item 322604, Medicaid Waiver - State Match.

(C) If receipts credited to the Medicaid Waiver Fund (Fund 3G60) exceed the amounts appropriated from the fund, the Director of Developmental Disabilities may request the Director of Budget and Management to authorize expenditures from the fund in excess of the amounts appropriated. Upon the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, the additional amounts are hereby appropriated.

(D) If receipts credited to the Interagency Reimbursement Fund (Fund 3G50) exceed the amounts appropriated from the fund, the Director of Job and Family Services may request the Director of Budget and Management to authorize expenditures from the fund in excess of the amounts appropriated. Upon approval of the Director of Budget and Management, the additional amounts are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 337.30.90. TARGETED CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES

County boards of developmental disabilities shall pay the nonfederal portion of targeted case management costs to the Department of Developmental Disabilities. The Director of Developmental Disabilities shall withhold any amount owed to the Department from subsequent payments from any appropriation item or money otherwise due to a nonpaying county.

The Directors of Developmental Disabilities and Job and Family Services may enter into an interagency agreement under which the Department of Developmental Disabilities shall transfer cash to the Department of Job and Family Services equal to the nonfederal portion of the cost of targeted case management services paid by county boards and the Department of Job and Family Services shall pay the total cost of targeted case management claims. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

SECTION 337.31.10. TRANSFER TO PROGRAM FEE FUND
On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Developmental Disabilities shall request that the Director of Budget and Management transfer the cash balance in the Conference/Training Fund (Fund 4B50) to the Program Fee Fund (Fund 5EV0). Upon completion of the transfer, Fund 4B50 is abolished. The Director of Developmental Disabilities shall cancel any existing encumbrances against appropriation item 320640, Training and Service Development, and re-establish them against appropriation item 322627, Program Fees. The re-established encumbrances are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 337.31.20. DEVELOPMENTAL CENTER BILLING FOR SERVICES
Developmental centers of the Department of Developmental Disabilities may provide services to persons with mental retardation or developmental disabilities living in the community or to providers of services to these persons. The Department may develop a method for recovery of all costs associated with the provisions of these services.

SECTION 337.40.10. TRANSFER OF FUNDS FOR DEVELOPMENTAL CENTER PHARMACY PROGRAMS
The Director of Developmental Disabilities shall transfer cash to the Department of Job and Family Services quarterly, in an amount equal to the nonfederal share of Medicaid prescription drug claim costs for all developmental centers paid by the Department of Job and Family Services. The quarterly transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

SECTION 337.40.20. NONFEDERAL MATCH FOR ACTIVE TREATMENT SERVICES

Any county funds received by the Department of Developmental Disabilities from county boards for active treatment shall be deposited in the Developmental Disabilities Operating Fund (Fund 4890).

SECTION 337.40.30. NONFEDERAL SHARE OF NEW ICF/MR BEDS

(A) As used in this section, "intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

(B) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, if one or more new beds obtain certification as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded bed on or after July 1, 2009, the Director of Developmental Disabilities shall transfer cash to the Department of Job and Family Services to pay the nonfederal share of the cost under the Medicaid Program for those beds. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher. Except as otherwise provided in section 5123.0416 of the Revised Code, the Director shall use only the following appropriation items for the transfer:

1. Appropriation item 322416, Medicaid Waiver - State Match;
2. Appropriation item 322501, County Boards Subsidies.

(C) If the beds are located in a county served by a county board of developmental disabilities that initiates or supports the beds' certification, the cash that the Director transfers under division (B) of this section shall be moneys that the Director has allocated to the county board serving the county in which the beds are located unless the amount of the allocation is insufficient to pay the entire nonfederal share of the cost under the Medicaid Program for those beds. If the allocation is insufficient, the Director shall use as much of such moneys allocated to other counties as is needed to make up the difference.

(D) Division (B) of this section shall not apply in the case of beds in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded if, under section 5123.193 or 5123.197 of the Revised Code, a residential facility license was obtained or modified for the facility without obtaining approval of a plan for the proposed residential facility pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 343.20. CENTRAL SUPPORT INDIRECT

With the exception of the Division of Wildlife, whose direct and indirect central support charges shall be paid out of the General Revenue Fund from the foregoing appropriation item 725401, Wildlife-GRF Central Support, the Department of Natural Resources, with approval of the Director of Budget and Management, shall utilize a methodology for determining each division's payments into the Central Support Indirect Fund (Fund 1570). The methodology used shall contain the characteristics of administrative ease and uniform application in compliance with federal grant requirements. It may include direct cost charges for specific services provided. Payments to Fund 1570 shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher.

SECTION 343.20.20. WELL LOG FILING FEES

The Chief of the Division of Water shall deposit fees forwarded to the Division pursuant to section 1521.05 of the Revised Code into the Departmental Services – Intrastate Fund (Fund 1550) for the purposes described in that section.

SECTION 343.30. LEASE RENTAL PAYMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 725413, Lease Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments at the times they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, by the Department of Natural Resources pursuant to leases and agreements made under section 154.22 of the Revised Code. These appropriations are the source of funds pledged for bond service charges or obligations issued pursuant to Chapter 154. of the Revised Code.

CANAL LANDS
The foregoing appropriation item 725456, Canal Lands, shall be used to transfer funds to the Canal Lands Fund (Fund 4300) to provide operating expenses for the State Canal Lands Program. The transfer shall be made using an intrastate transfer voucher and shall be subject to the approval of the Director of Budget and Management.

NATURAL RESOURCES GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 725903, Natural Resources General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs during the period July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, on obligations issued under sections 151.01 and 151.05 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 343.30.10. FOUNTAIN SQUARE

The foregoing appropriation item 725664, Fountain Square Facilities Management, shall be used for payment of repairs, renovation, utilities, property management, and building maintenance expenses for the Fountain Square complex. Cash transferred by intrastate transfer vouchers from various department funds and rental income received by the Department of Natural Resources shall be deposited into the Fountain Square Facilities Management Fund (Fund 6350).

SECTION 343.40. SOIL AND WATER DISTRICTS

In addition to state payments to soil and water conservation districts authorized by section 1515.10 of the Revised Code, the Department of Natural Resources may use appropriation item 725502, Soil and Water Districts, to pay any soil and water conservation district an annual amount not to exceed $30,000, upon receipt of a request and justification from the district and approval by the Ohio Soil and Water Conservation Commission. The county auditor shall credit the payments to the special fund established under section 1515.10 of the Revised Code for the local soil and water conservation district. Moneys received by each district shall be expended for the purposes of the district.

The foregoing appropriation item 725683, Soil and Water Districts, shall be expended for the purposes described above, except that the funding source for this appropriation shall be fees applied on the disposal of construction and demolition debris and municipal solid waste as provided in section 1515.14 of the Revised Code.

OIL AND GAS WELL PLUGGING

The foregoing appropriation item 725677, Oil and Gas Well Plugging, shall be used exclusively for the purposes of plugging wells and to properly restore the land surface of idle and orphan oil and gas wells pursuant to section 1509.071 of the Revised Code. No funds from the appropriation item shall be used for salaries, maintenance, equipment, or other administrative purposes, except for those costs directly attributed to the plugging of an idle or orphan well. This appropriation item shall not be used to transfer cash to any other fund or appropriation item.

LITTER CONTROL AND RECYCLING

Of the foregoing appropriation item 725644, Litter Control and Recycling, up to $1,500,000 may be used in each fiscal year for the administration of the Recycling and Litter Prevention Program.

SECTION 343.40.10. CLEAN OHIO OPERATING EXPENSES

The foregoing appropriation item 725405, Clean Ohio Operating, shall be used by the Department of Natural Resources in administering section 1519.05 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 343.50. WATERCRAFT MARINE PATROL

Of the foregoing appropriation item 739401, Division of Watercraft, up to $200,000 in each fiscal year shall be expended for the purchase of equipment for marine patrols qualifying for funding from the Department of Natural Resources pursuant to section 1547.67 of the Revised Code. Proposals for equipment shall accompany the submission of documentation for receipt of a marine patrol subsidy pursuant to section 1547.67 of the Revised Code and shall be loaned to eligible marine patrols pursuant to a cooperative agreement between the Department of Natural Resources and the eligible marine patrol.

SCENIC RIVERS PROGRAM

On July 1 of each fiscal year or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $500,000 cash from the Waterways Safety Fund (Fund 7086) to the Scenic Rivers Protection Fund (Fund 4U60) for use by the Division of Watercraft in administering the Wild, Scenic, and Recreational Rivers Program pursuant to Chapter 1547. of the Revised Code. The amount transferred is hereby appropriated in appropriation item 725668, Scenic Rivers Protection.

SECTION 343.60. PARKS CAPITAL EXPENSES FUND

The Director of Natural Resources shall submit to the Director of Budget and Management the estimated design, engineering, and planning costs of capital-related work to be done by Department of Natural Resources staff for parks projects. If the Director of Budget and Management approves the estimated costs, the Director may release appropriations from appropriation item C725E6, Project Planning, in the Parks and Recreation Improvement Fund (Fund 7035), for those purposes. Upon release of the appropriations, the Department of Natural Resources shall pay for these expenses from the Parks Capital Expenses Fund (Fund 2270). Expenses paid from Fund 2270 shall be reimbursed by Fund 7035 using an intrastate transfer voucher.

NATUREWORKS CAPITAL EXPENSES FUND

The Department of Natural Resources shall periodically prepare and submit to the Director of Budget and Management the estimated design, planning, and engineering costs of capital-related work to be done by Department of Natural Resources staff for each capital improvement project within the Ohio Parks and Natural Resources Fund (Fund 7031). If the Director of Budget and Management approves the estimated costs, the Director may release appropriations from appropriation item C725E5, Project Planning, in fund 7031, for those purposes. Upon release of the appropriations, the Department of Natural Resources shall pay for these expenses from the Capital Expenses Fund (Fund 4S90). Expenses paid from Fund 4S90 shall be reimbursed by Fund 7031 by using an intrastate transfer voucher.

CONSERVATION GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 150904, Conservation General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs during the period from July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2011, at the times they are required to be made for obligations issued under sections 151.01 and 151.09 of the Revised Code.

STATE CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 150907, State Capital Improvements General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, at the times they are required to be made for obligations issued under sections 151.01 and 151.08 of the Revised Code.

CLEAN OHIO OPERATING EXPENSES
The foregoing appropriation item 150403, Clean Ohio Operating Expenses, shall be used by the Ohio Public Works Commission in administering sections 164.20 to 164.27 of the Revised Code.

REIMBURSEMENT TO THE GENERAL REVENUE FUND
(A) On or before July 15, 2011, the Director of the Public Works Commission shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the following:
(1) The total amount disbursed from appropriation item 700409, Farmland Preservation, during the FY 2010-FY 2011 biennium; and
(2) The amount of interest earnings that have been credited to the Clean Ohio Conservation Fund (Fund 7056) that are in excess of the amount needed for other purposes as calculated by the Director of the Public Works Commission.

(B) If the Director of Budget and Management determines under division (A)(2) of this section that there are excess interest earnings, the Director of Budget and Management shall, on or before July 15, 2011, transfer the excess interest earnings to the General Revenue Fund in an amount equal to the total amount disbursed under division (A)(1) of this section from the Clean Ohio Conservation Fund.

SECTION 371.10.10. LEASE RENTAL PAYMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 235401, Lease Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments at the times they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents under leases and agreements made under section 154.21 of the Revised Code. These appropriations are the source of funds pledged for bond service charges or obligations issued pursuant to Chapter 154 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 371.10.15. SEA GRANTS

The foregoing appropriation item 235402, Sea Grants, shall be disbursed to The Ohio State University and shall be used to conduct research on fish in Lake Erie.

SECTION 371.10.20. ARTICULATION AND TRANSFER

The foregoing appropriation item 235406, Articulation and Transfer, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to maintain and expand the work of the Articulation and Transfer Council to develop a system of transfer policies to ensure that students at state institutions of higher education can transfer and have coursework apply to their majors and degrees at any other state institution of higher education without unnecessary duplication or institutional barriers under sections 3333.16, 3333.161, and 3333.162 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 371.10.30. MIDWEST HIGHER EDUCATION COMPACT

The foregoing appropriation item 235408, Midwest Higher Education Compact, shall be distributed by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents under section 3333.40 of the Revised Code.
SECTION 371.10.40. INFORMATION SYSTEM
The foregoing appropriation item 235409, Information System, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to support the development and implementation of information technology solutions designed to improve the performance and services of the Chancellor of the Board of Regents and the University System of Ohio. Information technology solutions shall be provided by the Ohio Academic Research Network (OARnet).

SECTION 371.10.50. STATE GRANTS AND SCHOLARSHIP ADMINISTRATION
The foregoing appropriation item 235414, State Grants and Scholarship Administration, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to administer the following student financial aid programs: Ohio College Opportunity Grant, Ohio War Orphans' Scholarship, Nurse Education Assistance Loan Program, Ohio Safety Officers College Memorial Fund, and any other student financial aid programs created by the General Assembly. The appropriation item also shall be used to administer the federal Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership (LEAP) program, Special Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership (SLEAP) program, the federal College Access Challenge Grant (CACG), and other student financial aid programs created by Congress and to provide fiscal services for the Ohio National Guard Scholarship Program.

SECTION 371.10.70. OHIO LEARNING NETWORK
The foregoing appropriation item 235417, Ohio Learning Network, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to support the continued implementation of the Ohio Learning Network, a consortium organized under division (U) of section 3333.04 of the Revised Code to expand access to adult and higher education opportunities through technology. The funds shall be used by the Ohio Learning Network to develop and promote learning and assessment through the use of technology, to test and provide advice on emerging learning-directed technologies, and to facilitate cost-effectiveness through shared educational technology investments.

SECTION 371.10.80. APPALACHIAN NEW ECONOMY PARTNERSHIP
The foregoing appropriation item 235428, Appalachian New Economy Partnership, shall be distributed to Ohio University to continue a multi-campus and multi-agency coordinated effort to link Appalachia to the new economy. Ohio University shall use these funds to provide leadership in the development and implementation of initiatives in the areas of entrepreneurship, management, education, and technology.

SECTION 371.10.83. ECONOMIC GROWTH CHALLENGE
The foregoing appropriation item 235433, Economic Growth Challenge, shall be used for administrative expenses of the Research Incentive Program and other economic advancement initiatives undertaken by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

The Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall use any appropriation transfer to the foregoing appropriation item 235433, Economic Growth Challenge, to enhance the basic research capabilities of public colleges and universities and accredited Ohio institutions of higher education holding certificates of authorization issued under section 1713.02 of the Revised Code, in order to strengthen academic research for pursuing Ohio's economic development goals. The Chancellor shall give priority consideration to projects that are eligible to receive federal stimulus funds.

SECTION 371.20.10. CHOOSE OHIO FIRST SCHOLARSHIP
The foregoing appropriation item 235438, Choose Ohio First Scholarship, shall be used to operate the program prescribed in sections 3333.60 to 3333.70 of the Revised Code. Amounts disbursed to institutions shall be paid on a reimbursement basis.

An amount equal to the unexpended, unencumbered portion of the foregoing appropriation item 235438, Choose Ohio First Scholarship, at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated to the Board of Regents for the same purpose for fiscal year 2011.

SECTION 371.20.30. ADULT BASIC AND LITERACY EDUCATION
Except as provided in the Sections of this act entitled "Statewide Workforce Development Initiatives" and "Fiscal Year 2011 Plan for Adult Workforce Training Programs", the foregoing appropriation item 235443, Adult Basic and Literacy Education - State, shall be used to support adult basic and literacy education instructional programs and for the operation of an adult basic and literacy education instructional grant program. The supported programs shall satisfy the state match and maintenance of effort requirements for the state-administered grant program.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235443, Adult Basic and Literacy Education - State, up to $507,558 in fiscal year 2010 shall be used for the support and operation of the State Literacy Resource Center Program.

On or before August 31, 2009, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall submit a funding formula to the Controlling Board for the allocation of the foregoing appropriation item 235443, Adult Basic and Literacy Education - State, in fiscal year 2010.

SECTION 371.20.40. POST-SECONDARY ADULT CAREER-TECHNICAL EDUCATION

Except as provided in the Sections of this act entitled "Statewide Workforce Development Initiatives" and "Fiscal Year 2011 Plan for Adult Workforce Training Programs", the foregoing appropriation item 235444, Post-Secondary Adult Career-Technical Education, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents in each fiscal year to provide post-secondary adult career-technical education under sections 3313.52 and 3313.53 of the Revised Code.

On or before August 31, 2009, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall submit a funding formula to the Controlling Board for the allocation of funds in fiscal year 2010.

SECTION 371.20.50. STATEWIDE WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES

The Chancellor may identify amounts of the foregoing appropriation items 235443, Adult Basic and Literacy Education - State, and 235444, Post-Secondary Adult Career-Technical Education, to be used to support the Ohio Skills Bank Program and the Stackable Certificates Program. The Ohio Skills Bank Program seeks to align the education of Ohio's workforce with industry needs. The Stackable Certificates Program consists of competency-based, low-cost, noncredit and credit-bearing modules and courses in communications, mathematics, information technology, and other fields selected by the Chancellor. The program culminates in a certificate and provides recipients with a foundation for additional post-secondary education.
SECTION 371.20.60. FISCAL YEAR 2011 PLAN FOR ADULT WORKFORCE TRAINING PROGRAMS
Notwithstanding the Sections of this act entitled "Adult Basic and Literacy Education," and "Post-Secondary Adult Career-Technical Education," not later than June 1, 2010, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall submit for approval of the Controlling Board a plan for the integration of funding support for the state's adult workforce training and development programs, beginning in fiscal year 2011. Funding support in the plan shall include appropriation items 235443, Adult Basic and Literacy Education - State, and 235444, Post-Secondary Adult Career-Technical Education.

The plan shall clearly define the formulas, or competitive process, to be used for funding the activities of adult basic and literacy education program providers, state literacy resource centers, post-secondary adult career-technical education providers, and community colleges. The plan may propose the creation of new appropriation items as necessary to support its implementation.

SECTION 371.20.70. AREA HEALTH EDUCATION CENTERS
The foregoing appropriation item 235474, Area Health Education Centers Program Support, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to support the medical school regional area health education centers' educational programs for the continued support of medical and other health professions education and for support of the Area Health Education Center Program.

SECTION 371.20.80. STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FORMULAS
The Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall establish procedures to allocate the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, based on the formulas, enrollment, course completion, degree attainment, and student access factors in the instructional models set out in this section.

The foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction – Federal Stimulus – Education, shall be combined for the purposes of allocating the state share of instruction subsidy.
(A) FULL-TIME EQUIVALENT (FTE) ENROLLMENTS AND COMPLETIONS

(1) As soon as possible during each fiscal year of the biennium ending June 30, 2011, in accordance with instructions of the Board of Regents, each state-assisted institution of higher education shall report its actual enrollment, consistent with the definitions in the Higher Education Information (HEI) system's enrollment files, to the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

(2) In defining the number of full-time equivalent students for state subsidy purposes, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall exclude all undergraduate students who are not residents of Ohio, except those charged in-state fees in accordance with reciprocity agreements made under section 3333.17 of the Revised Code or employer contracts entered into under section 3333.32 of the Revised Code.

(3) In calculating the core subsidy entitlements for university branch and main campuses, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall use the following count of FTE students:

(a) The subsidy eligible enrollments by model shall equal only those FTE students who successfully complete the course as defined and reported through the Higher Education Information (HEI) system course enrollment file;

(b) For those FTE students with successful course completions, identified in division (3)(a) of this section, completions that were achieved by a student that was eligible to receive Ohio need-based financial aid shall have their enrollments weighted by the following:

   (i) Campus-specific course completion rates by discipline area and level; and

   (ii) A statewide average OIG/OCOG course completion weight determined for each discipline area and level. The statewide average OIG/OCOG course completion weight shall be determined by calculating the difference between the percentage of traditional students who complete a course and the percentage of Ohio Instructional Grant and Ohio College Opportunity Grant recipients who complete the same course.

(4) In calculating the core subsidy entitlements for Medical II models only, the Board of Regents shall use the following count of FTE students:

(a) For those medical schools whose current year enrollment, including students repeating terms, is below the base enrollment, the Medical II FTE enrollment shall equal: 65 per cent of the base enrollment plus 35 per cent of the current year enrollment including students repeating terms, where the base enrollment is:
(b) For those medical schools whose current year enrollment, excluding students repeating terms, is equal to or greater than the base enrollment, the Medical II FTE enrollment shall equal the base enrollment plus the FTE for repeating students.

(c) Students repeating terms may be no more than five per cent of current year enrollment.

(5) The state share of instruction to state-supported universities for students enrolled in law schools in fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011 shall be calculated by using the number of subsidy-eligible FTE law school students funded by state subsidy in fiscal year 1995 or the actual number of subsidy-eligible FTE law school students at the institution in the fiscal year, whichever is less.

(B) TOTAL COSTS PER FULL-TIME EQUIVALENT STUDENT

For purposes of calculating state share of instruction allocations, the total instructional costs per full-time equivalent student shall be:

(D) CALCULATION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FORMULA ENTITLEMENTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

(1) Of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, 5 per cent of the appropriation for state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges in fiscal year 2011 shall be allocated to colleges in proportion to their share of college student success factors. In fiscal year 2011, student success factors shall include all measurable student outcomes that contribute to student achievement as determined by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents based on the recommendation of the consultation created in the Section of this act entitled "Studies to Determine Weights for Fiscal Year 2011 State Share of Instruction Formula."

(2) Of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, up to 12.89 per cent of the appropriation for university main campuses in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support of doctoral programs to implement the funding recommendations made by representatives of the universities. The amount so reserved shall be referred to as the doctoral set-aside.

The doctoral set-aside shall be allocated to universities as follows:

(a) 90 per cent of the doctoral set-aside in fiscal year 2010 and 80 per cent of the doctoral set-aside in fiscal year 2011 shall be allocated to universities in proportion to their share of the total number of Doctoral I equivalent FTEs as calculated on an institutional basis using the greater of the two-year or five-year FTEs for the period fiscal year 1994 through fiscal year 1998 with annualized FTEs for fiscal years 1994 through 1997 and all-term FTEs for fiscal year 1998 as adjusted to reflect the effects of doctoral review and subsequent changes in Doctoral I equivalent enrollments. For the purposes of this calculation, Doctoral I equivalent FTEs shall equal the sum of Doctoral I FTEs plus 1.5 times the sum of Doctoral II FTEs.

(b) 5 per cent of the doctoral set-aside in fiscal year 2010 and 10 per cent of the doctoral set-aside in fiscal year 2011 shall be allocated to universities in proportion to each campus's share of the total statewide doctoral degrees, weighted by the cost of the doctoral discipline. In calculating each campus's doctoral degrees the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall use the three-year average doctoral degrees awarded for the three-year period ending in the prior year.

(c) 2.5 per cent of the doctoral set-aside in fiscal year 2010 and 5 per cent of the doctoral set-aside in fiscal year 2011 shall be allocated to universities in proportion to their share of research grant activity, using data collected and published by the National Science Foundation. Grant awards from the National Health Institute shall be weighted at 50 per cent.
(d) 2.5 per cent of the doctoral set-aside in fiscal year 2010 and 5 per cent of the doctoral set-aside in fiscal year 2011 shall be allocated to universities based on other quality measures that contribute to the advancement of the Chancellor's strategic plan. These other quality measures shall be identified by the Chancellor in consultation with universities. If for any reason metrics for distributing the quality component of the doctoral set-aside are not identified prior to the fiscal year allocation process, this portion of the doctoral set-aside funds shall be allocated to universities based on division (D)(2)(a) of this section.

(3) Of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, 6.96 per cent of the appropriation for university main campuses in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support of Medical II FTEs. The amount so reserved shall be referred to as the medical II set-aside.

The medical II set-aside shall be allocated to universities in proportion to their share of the total number of Medical II FTEs as calculated in division (A) of this section, weighted by model cost.

(4) Of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, 1.61 per cent of the appropriation for university main campuses in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support of Medical I FTEs. The amount so reserved shall be referred to as the medical I set-aside.

The medical I set-aside shall be allocated to universities in proportion to their share of the total number of Medical I FTEs as calculated in division (A) of this section.

(5) Of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, 5 per cent of the fiscal year 2010 appropriation for university main campuses and 10 per cent of the fiscal year 2011 appropriation for university main campuses shall be reserved for support of associate, baccalaureate, master's, and professional level degree attainment.

The degree attainment funding shall be allocated to universities in proportion to each campus's share of the total statewide degrees granted, weighted by the cost of the degree programs.

In calculating the subsidy entitlements for degree attainment at university main campuses, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall use the following count of degrees and degree costs:

(a) For those associate degrees awarded by a state-supported university, the subsidy eligible degrees granted are defined as only those earned by students attending a university that received funding under GRF appropriation item 235418, Access Challenge, in fiscal year 2009.

In calculating each campus's count of degrees, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall use the three-year average associate, baccalaureate, master's, and professional degrees awarded for the three-year period ending in the prior year.

Eligible associate degrees defined in division (D)(5)(a) of this section and all bachelor's degrees earned by a student that was eligible to receive Ohio need-based financial aid shall have their associates degree cost weighted by a statewide OIG/OCOG degree completion weight.

The statewide average OIG/OCOG degree completion weight shall be determined by calculating the difference between the percentage of traditional students who earned a degree and the percentage of Ohio Instructional Grant and Ohio College Opportunity Grant recipients who earned a degree during the same time period.

(6) Each campus's state share of instruction base formula earnings shall be determined as follows:

(a) For each campus in each fiscal year, the instructional costs shall be determined by multiplying the amounts listed above in divisions (B) and (C) of this section by (i) average subsidy-eligible FTEs for the two-year period ending in the prior year for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II; and (ii) average subsidy-eligible FTEs for the five-year period ending in the prior year for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II.

(b) The Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall compute the two calculations listed in division (D)(6)(a) of this section and use the greater amount as each campus's instructional costs.

(c) The Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall compute a uniform state share of instructional costs for each sector.

(i) For the state supported community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall compute the uniform state share of institutional costs by dividing the earmark in division (C)(1) of Section 371.20.90 of this act, less the student college success allocation as described in division (D)(1) of this section, by the sum of all eligible campuses' instructional costs as calculated in division (D)(6)(b) of this section.

(ii) For the state supported university branch campuses, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall compute the uniform state share of institutional costs by dividing the earmark in division (C)(2) of Section 371.20.90 of this act by the sum of all campuses' instructional costs as calculated in division (D)(6)(b) of this section.

(iii) For the state supported university main campuses, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall compute the uniform state share of institutional costs by dividing the earmark in division (C)(3) of Section 371.20.90 of this act, less the doctoral set-aside, less the medical I set-aside, less the medical II set-aside, and less the degree attainment funding as calculated in divisions (D)(2) to (5) of this section, by the sum of all campuses' instructional costs as calculated in division (D)(6)(b) of this section.

(d) The formula entitlement for each sector's campuses shall be determined by multiplying the uniform state share of costs calculated in division (D)(6)(c) of this section by the campus's instructional cost determined in division (D)(6)(b) of this section.

(7) In addition to the student success allocation, doctoral set-aside, medical I set-aside, medical II set-aside, and the degree attainment allocation determined in division (D)(1) to (D)(5) of this section and the formula entitlement determined in division (D)(6) of this section, an allocation based on facility-based plant operations and maintenance (POM) subsidy shall be made. For each eligible campus, the amount of the POM allocation in each fiscal year shall be distributed based on what each campus received in the fiscal year 2009 POM allocation.

Any POM allocations required by this division shall be funded by proportionately reducing formula entitlement earnings, including the POM allocations, for all campuses in that sector.

(8) STABILITY IN STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FUNDING

In addition to and after the adjustments noted above, in fiscal year 2010, no campus shall receive a state share of instruction allocation that is less than 99 per cent of the prior year's combined state share of instruction, access challenge, and success challenge amounts. Funds shall be made available to support this allocation by proportionately reducing formula entitlement earnings from those campuses, within each sector, that are not receiving stability funding.

In fiscal year 2011, in addition to and after the adjustments noted above, no campus shall receive a state share of instruction allocation that is less than 98 per cent of the prior year's combined state share of instruction, access challenge, and success challenge amounts. Funds shall be made available to support this allocation by proportionately reducing formula entitlement earnings from those campuses, within each sector, that do not receive stability funding.

(9) CAPITAL COMPONENT DEDUCTION

After all other adjustments have been made, state share of instruction earnings shall be reduced for each campus by the amount, if any, by which debt service charged in Am. H.B. 748 of the 121st General Assembly, Am.

(E) EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Adjustments may be made to the state share of instruction payments and other subsidies distributed by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to state-assisted colleges and universities for exceptional circumstances. No adjustments for exceptional circumstances may be made without the recommendation of the Chancellor and the approval of the Controlling Board.

(F) APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS TO THE STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION

The standard provisions of the state share of instruction calculation as described in the preceding sections of temporary law shall apply to any reductions made to appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, before the Board of Regents has formally approved the final allocation of the state share of instruction funds for any fiscal year.

Any reductions made to appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, after the Board of Regents has formally approved the final allocation of the state share of instruction funds for any fiscal year, shall be uniformly applied to each campus in proportion to its share of the final allocation.

(G) DISTRIBUTION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION

The state share of instruction payments to the institutions shall be in substantially equal monthly amounts during the fiscal year, unless otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and Management pursuant to section 126.09 of the Revised Code. Payments during the first six months of the fiscal year shall be based upon the state share of instruction appropriation estimates made for the various institutions of higher education according to the Chancellor of the Board of Regents enrollment estimates. Payments during the last six months of the fiscal year shall be distributed after approval of the Controlling Board upon the request of the Board of Regents.
SECTION 371.20.90. STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 2010 AND 2011

The boards of trustees of state-assisted institutions of higher education shall restrain increases in in-state undergraduate instructional and general fees. Each state-assisted institution shall not increase its in-state undergraduate instructional and general fees more than 3.5 per cent over what the institution charged for the preceding academic year.

These limitations shall not apply to increases required to comply with institutional covenants related to their obligations or to meet unfunded legal mandates or legally binding obligations incurred or commitments made prior to the effective date of this section with respect to which the institution had identified such fee increases as the source of funds. Any increase required by such covenants and any such mandates, obligations, or commitments shall be reported by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to the Controlling Board. These limitations may also be modified by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, with the approval of the Controlling Board, to respond to exceptional circumstances as identified by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

Of the combined appropriations of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, $60,996,059 in each fiscal year shall be distributed to eligible colleges and universities based on each campus's share of the appropriation item 235418, Access Challenge, in fiscal year 2009.

Of the combined appropriations of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, $10,323,056 in each fiscal year shall be distributed among state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges in an amount equal to the amount each institution received in fiscal year 2009 from the supplemental tuition subsidy earmarked under Section 375.30.25 of H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly.

(C) The remainder of the combined appropriations of appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, shall be distributed according to Section 371.20.80 of this act. Sector allocations shall be determined using the following earmarks in accordance with the tuition policy described in division (A) of this section.

(1) Of the combined appropriations of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction -
Federal Stimulus - Education, $396,965,932 in fiscal year 2010 and $419,030,691 in fiscal year 2011 shall be distributed to state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges.

(2) Of the combined appropriations of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, $125,682,220 in fiscal year 2010 and $129,739,380 in fiscal year 2011 shall be distributed to state-supported university branch campuses.

(3) Of the combined appropriations of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, $1,481,570,810 in each fiscal year shall be distributed to state-supported university main campuses.

(D) The state share of instruction payments to the institutions shall be in substantially equal monthly amounts during the fiscal year, unless otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and Management pursuant to section 126.09 of the Revised Code. Payments during the last six months of the fiscal year shall be distributed after approval of the Controlling Board upon the request of the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

(E)(1) After making the computations required by Sections 371.20.80 and 371.20.90 of this act for fiscal year 2010, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall make reductions totaling $87,955,700 to the amounts computed before determining the amounts actually paid to campuses during fiscal year 2010 from the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction – Federal Stimulus – Education.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in fiscal year 2011, from the combined appropriations of the foregoing appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction – Federal Stimulus – Education, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall first pay to each campus an amount equal to the amount each campus's allocation in fiscal year 2010 was reduced under division (E)(1) of this section.

(3) In addition to the payments made under division (E)(2) of this section, after making the computations required by Sections 371.20.80 and 371.20.90 of this act for fiscal year 2011, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall make reductions totaling $20,000,000 to the amounts computed for state-assisted university branch campuses, community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges. The Chancellor shall then make additional reductions totaling $170,000,000 to the amounts computed for all campuses. Such additional reductions shall be made proportionally to the allocations originally computed for the following three sectors: (1) university main campuses, (2) university branch campuses, and (3) community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges combined. Within each sector, each campus's allocation shall be reduced proportionally, except that the Chancellor, in consultation with representatives of state-assisted institutions of higher education, may establish a percentage below which no campus's allocation is to fall when compared with the campus's payment in the preceding year and proportionally reduce the allocations of all other campuses to support that percentage.

SECTION 371.20.95. STUDIES TO DETERMINE WEIGHTS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2011 STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FORMULA

(A) STUDY ON IDENTIFYING "AT RISK" STUDENTS

In fiscal year 2010, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, in consultation with representatives of state colleges and universities, shall conduct a study to identify the socio-economic, demographic, academic, personal, and other factors that identify a student as being "at-risk" of academic failure, and recommend how these factors may be used to determine allocations of the State Share of Instruction after fiscal year 2010. The study shall be completed by April 15, 2010. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Chancellor may use the results of the study to recommend additional weights to be used in the determination of the fiscal year 2011 State Share of Instruction allocations. The Chancellor shall report any such formula changes to the Controlling Board by August 30, 2010.

(B) STUDY ON FUNDING DOCTORAL PROGRAMS THROUGH THE STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FORMULA

The Chancellor of the Board of Regents, in consultation with representatives of state universities, shall conduct a study on the effectiveness and appropriateness of funding for doctoral programs through the doctoral set-aside as allocated in appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education. The study may examine alternative funding methodologies to improve the alignment between university doctoral programs and the goals of the strategic plan for the University System of Ohio. The study shall be completed by April 15, 2010. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Chancellor may use the results of the study to recommend changes in the determination of the distribution of the doctoral set-aside beginning in fiscal year 2011. The Chancellor shall report any such formula changes to the Controlling Board by August 30, 2010.

(C) STUDY ON THE USE OF SUCCESS POINTS FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGES

The Chancellor of the Board of Regents, in consultation with representatives of state community colleges, shall conduct a study on the use of "success points" in the allocation of appropriations to community colleges in appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction - Federal Stimulus - Education, in fiscal year 2011. The study shall identify success points that occur during the academic career of community college students and recommend a method to fund achievement of the success points beginning in fiscal year 2011. The study shall be completed by April 15, 2010. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Chancellor shall use the results of the study to recommend changes in the determination of the distribution of the community college allocations beginning in fiscal year 2011. The Chancellor shall report any such formula changes to the Controlling Board by August 30, 2010.

SECTION 371.30.10. HIGHER EDUCATION - BOARD OF TRUSTEES

(A) Funds appropriated for instructional subsidies at colleges and universities may be used to provide such branch or other off-campus undergraduate courses of study and such master's degree courses of study as may be approved by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

(B) In providing instructional and other services to students, boards of trustees of state-assisted institutions of higher education shall supplement state subsidies with income from charges to students. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, each board shall establish the fees to be charged to all students, including an instructional fee for educational and associated operational support of the institution and a general fee for noninstructional services, including locally financed student services facilities used for the benefit of enrolled students. The instructional fee and the general fee shall encompass all charges for services assessed uniformly to all enrolled students. Each board may also establish special purpose fees, service charges, and fines as required; such special purpose fees and service charges shall be for services or benefits furnished individual students or specific categories of students and shall not be applied uniformly to all enrolled students. A tuition surcharge shall be paid by all students who are not residents of Ohio.

The board of trustees of a state-assisted institution of higher education shall not authorize a waiver or nonpayment of instructional fees or general fees for any particular student or any class of students other than waivers specifically authorized by law or approved by the Chancellor. This prohibition is not intended to limit the authority of boards of trustees to provide for payments to students for services rendered the institution, nor to prohibit the budgeting of income for staff benefits or for student assistance in the form of payment of such instructional and general fees.

Each state-assisted institution of higher education in its statement of charges to students shall separately identify the instructional fee, the general fee, the tuition charge, and the tuition surcharge. Fee charges to students for instruction shall not be considered to be a price of service but shall be considered to be an integral part of the state government financing program in support of higher educational opportunity for students.

(C) The boards of trustees of state-assisted institutions of higher education shall ensure that faculty members devote a proper and judicious part of their work week to the actual instruction of students. Total class credit hours of production per quarter per full-time faculty member is expected to meet the standards set forth in the budget data submitted by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

(D) The authority of government vested by law in the boards of trustees of state-assisted institutions of higher education shall in fact be exercised by those boards. Boards of trustees may consult extensively with appropriate student and faculty groups. Administrative decisions about the utilization of available resources, about organizational structure, about disciplinary procedure, about the operation and staffing of all auxiliary facilities, and about administrative personnel shall be the exclusive prerogative of boards of trustees. Any delegation of authority by a board of trustees in other areas of responsibility shall be accompanied by appropriate standards of guidance concerning expected objectives in the exercise of such delegated authority and shall be accompanied by periodic review of the exercise of this delegated authority to the end that the public interest, in contrast to any institutional or special interest, shall be served.

SECTION 371.30.20. STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES
The foregoing appropriation item 235502, Student Support Services, shall be distributed by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to Ohio's state-assisted colleges and universities that incur disproportionate costs in the provision of support services to disabled students.

SECTION 371.30.30. WAR ORPHANS SCHOLARSHIPS
The foregoing appropriation item 235504, War Orphans Scholarships, shall be used to reimburse state-assisted institutions of higher education for waivers of instructional fees and general fees provided by them, to provide grants to institutions that have received a certificate of authorization from the Chancellor of the Board of Regents under Chapter 1713. of the Revised Code, in accordance with the provisions of section 5910.04 of the Revised Code, and to fund additional scholarship benefits provided by section 5910.032 of the Revised Code.

An amount equal to the unexpended, unencumbered portion of the foregoing appropriation item 235504, War Orphans Scholarships, at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated to the Board of Regents for the same purpose for fiscal year 2011.

SECTION 371.30.40. OHIOLINK

The foregoing appropriation item 235507, OhioLINK, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to support OhioLINK, a consortium organized under division (U) of section 3333.04 of the Revised Code to serve as the state's electronic library information and retrieval system, which provides access statewide to an extensive set of electronic databases and resources and the library holdings of Ohio's public and participating private nonprofit colleges and universities, and the State Library of Ohio.

SECTION 371.30.50. AIR FORCE INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

The foregoing appropriation item 235508, Air Force Institute of Technology, shall be used to strengthen the research and educational linkages between the Wright Patterson Air Force Base and institutions of higher education in Ohio.

SECTION 371.30.60. OHIO SUPERCOMPUTER CENTER

The foregoing appropriation item 235510, Ohio Supercomputer Center, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to support the operation of the Ohio Supercomputer Center, a consortium organized under division (U) of section 3333.04 of the Revised Code, located at The Ohio State University. The Ohio Supercomputer Center is a statewide resource available to Ohio research universities both public and private. It is also intended that the center be made accessible to private industry as appropriate.

Funds shall be used, in part, to support the Ohio Supercomputer Center's Computational Science Initiative, which includes its industrial outreach program, Blue Collar Computing, and its School of Computational Science. These collaborations between the Ohio Supercomputer Center and Ohio's colleges and universities shall be aimed at making Ohio a leader in using computer modeling to promote economic development.

SECTION 371.30.70. COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE
The foregoing appropriation item 235511, Cooperative Extension Service, shall be disbursed through the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to The Ohio State University in monthly payments, unless otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and Management under section 126.09 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 371.30.80. OHIO UNIVERSITY VOINOVICH SCHOOL
The foregoing appropriation item 235513, Ohio University Voinovich School, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to support the operations of Ohio University's Voinovich School.

SECTION 371.30.90. CENTRAL STATE SUPPLEMENT
The foregoing appropriation item 235514, Central State Supplement, shall be used by Central State University to keep undergraduate fees below the statewide average, consistent with its mission of service to many first-generation college students from groups historically underrepresented in higher education and from families with limited incomes.

SECTION 371.40.10. CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
The foregoing appropriation item 235515, Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine, shall be disbursed to Case Western Reserve University through the Chancellor of the Board of Regents in accordance with agreements entered into under section 3333.10 of the Revised Code, provided that the state support per full-time medical student shall not exceed that provided to full-time medical students at state universities.

SECTION 371.40.20. FAMILY PRACTICE
The Chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents shall develop plans consistent with existing criteria and guidelines as may be required for the SECTION 371.40.30. SHAWNEE STATE SUPPLEMENT
The foregoing appropriation item 235520, Shawnee State Supplement, shall be used by Shawnee State University as detailed by both of the following:
(A) To allow Shawnee State University to keep its undergraduate fees below the statewide average, consistent with its mission of service to an economically depressed Appalachian region;
(B) To allow Shawnee State University to employ new faculty to develop and teach in new degree programs that meet the needs of Appalachians.

SECTION 371.40.40. OSU JOHN GLENN SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS
The foregoing appropriation item 235521, The Ohio State University John Glenn School of Public Affairs, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to support the operations of The Ohio State University's John Glenn School of Public Affairs.

SECTION 371.40.50. POLICE AND FIRE PROTECTION
The foregoing appropriation item 235524, Police and Fire Protection, shall be used for police and fire services in the municipalities of Kent, Athens, Oxford, Fairborn, Bowling Green, Portsmouth, Xenia Township (Greene County), Rootstown Township, and the City of Nelsonville that may be used to assist these local governments in providing police and fire protection for the central campus of the state-affiliated university located therein.

SECTION 371.40.60. GERIATRIC MEDICINE
The Chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents shall develop plans consistent with existing criteria and guidelines as may be required for the distribution of appropriation item 235525, Geriatric Medicine.

SECTION 371.40.70. PRIMARY CARE RESIDENCIES
The Chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents shall develop plans consistent with existing criteria and guidelines as may be required for the distribution of appropriation item 235526, Primary Care Residencies.

The foregoing appropriation item 235526, Primary Care Residencies, shall be distributed in each fiscal year of the biennium, based on whether or not the institution has submitted and gained approval for a plan. If the institution does not have an approved plan, it shall receive five per cent less funding per student than it would have received from its annual allocation. The remaining funding shall be distributed among those institutions that meet or exceed their targets.

SECTION 371.40.80. OHIO AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CENTER

The foregoing appropriation item 235535, Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center, shall be disbursed through the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to The Ohio State University in monthly payments, unless otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and Management under section 126.09 of the Revised Code. The Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center shall not be required to remit payment to The Ohio State University during the biennium ending June 30, 2011, for cost reallocation assessments. The cost reallocation assessments include, but are not limited to, any assessment on state appropriations to the Center.

The Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center, an entity of the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences of The Ohio State University, shall further its mission of enhancing Ohio's economic development and job creation by continuing to internally allocate on a competitive basis appropriated funding of programs based on demonstrated performance. Academic units, faculty, and faculty-driven programs shall be evaluated and rewarded consistent with agreed-upon performance expectations as called for in the College's Expectations and Criteria for Performance Assessment.

SECTION 371.40.90. STATE UNIVERSITY CLINICAL TEACHING

The foregoing appropriation items 235536, The Ohio State University Clinical Teaching; 235537, University of Cincinnati Clinical Teaching; 235538, University of Toledo Clinical Teaching; 235539, Wright State University Clinical Teaching; 235540, Ohio University Clinical Teaching; and 235541, Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine Clinical Teaching, shall be distributed through the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.
SECTION 371.50.10. CAPITAL COMPONENT
The foregoing appropriation item 235552, Capital Component, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to implement the capital funding policy for state-assisted colleges and universities established in Am. H.B. 748 of the 121st General Assembly. Appropriations from this item shall be distributed to all campuses for which the estimated campus debt service attributable to new qualifying capital projects is less than the campus's formula-determined capital component allocation. Campus allocations shall be determined by subtracting the estimated campus debt service attributable to new qualifying capital projects from the campus's formula-determined capital component allocation. Moneys distributed from this appropriation item shall be restricted to capital-related purposes.

Any campus for which the estimated campus debt service attributable to qualifying capital projects is greater than the campus's formula-determined capital component allocation shall have the difference subtracted from its State Share of Instruction allocation in each fiscal year. Appropriation equal to the sum of all such amounts except that of the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center shall be transferred from appropriation item 235551, State Share of Instruction, to appropriation item 235552, Capital Component. Appropriation equal to any estimated Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center debt service attributable to qualifying capital projects that is greater than the Center's formula-determined capital component allocation shall be transferred from appropriation item 235535, Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center, to appropriation item 235552, Capital Component.

SECTION 371.50.20. LIBRARY DEPOSITORIES
The foregoing appropriation item, 235555, Library Depositories, shall be distributed to the state's five regional depository libraries for the cost-effective storage of and access to lesser-used materials in university library collections. The depositories shall be administrated by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

SECTION 371.50.30. OHIO ACADEMIC RESOURCES NETWORK (OARNET)
The foregoing appropriation item 235556, Ohio Academic Resources Network, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to support the operations of the Ohio Academic Resources Network, a consortium organized under division (U) of section 3333.04 of the Revised Code, which shall include support for Ohio's colleges and universities in maintaining and enhancing network connections, using new network technologies to improve research, education, and economic development programs, and sharing information technology services. The network shall give priority to supporting the Third Frontier Network and allocating bandwidth to programs directly supporting Ohio's economic development.

SECTION 371.50.40. LONG-TERM CARE RESEARCH
The foregoing appropriation item 235558, Long-term Care Research, shall be disbursed to Miami University for long-term care research.

SECTION 371.50.50. OHIO COLLEGE OPPORTUNITY GRANT
(A) Except as provided in division (D) of this section:
Of the foregoing appropriation item 235563, Ohio College Opportunity Grant, $41,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to award need-based financial aid to students enrolled in eligible private nonprofit institutions of higher education.

The remainder of the foregoing appropriation item 235563, Ohio College Opportunity Grant, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to award needs-based financial aid to students enrolled in eligible public institutions of higher education, excluding early college high school and post-secondary enrollment option participants.

An amount equal to the unexpended, unencumbered portion of the foregoing appropriation item 235563, Ohio College Opportunity Grant, at the end of fiscal year 2010 is hereby reappropriated to the Board of Regents for the same purpose for fiscal year 2011.

(B)(1) As used in this section:
(a) "At-risk component" may include, but is not limited to:
   (i) A first-generation college student;
   (ii) A non-traditionally aged adult student;
   (iii) A graduate of a low-achieving high school;
   (iv) Any other factors the Chancellor may determine.
(b) "Eligible institution" means any institution described in divisions (B)(2)(a) to (c) of section 3333.122 of the Revised Code.
(c) "Type of institution" means state college or university, community college, state community college, university branch, technical college, or eligible private nonprofit institution of higher education.
(d) The two "sectors" of institutions of higher education consist of the following:

(i) State colleges and universities, community colleges, state community colleges, university branches, and technical colleges;

(ii) Eligible private nonprofit institutions of higher education.

(2) If the Chancellor determines that the amounts appropriated for support of the Ohio College Opportunity Grant program are inadequate to provide grants to all eligible students as calculated under division (D) of section 3333.122 of the Revised Code, the Chancellor shall create a formula, subject to the approval of the Controlling Board, for the distribution of available funds. This formula shall be complete and established before the start of the 2010-2011 academic year.

The formula shall be based on division (C)(1) of section 3333.122 of the Revised Code, but also include an at-risk component and academic performance component in determining distribution priority. The Chancellor may use the academic performance component to increase an award for credit or course completion or other factors as determined by the Chancellor.

(3) Each eligible institution shall collect at-risk and performance data for each student eligible for a grant and report that information, including a recommendation of eligible students considered most at-risk, to the Chancellor by the deadline set by the Chancellor.

(4) The Chancellor shall determine which at-risk and performance components are most appropriate to use for each type of institution and devise a formula for each type of institution accordingly.

(C) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the Chancellor may require an eligible institution to provide matching funds for students receiving Ohio College Opportunity Grants. The Chancellor shall recommend a required match for each eligible institution, taking into account the capacity of each institution to meet the match. The Chancellor shall include the recommendation as part of the formula submitted to the Controlling Board for approval under division (B)(2) of this section.

(D) Prior to determining the amount of funds available to award under this section and section 3333.122 of the Revised Code, the Chancellor shall use the foregoing appropriation item 235563, Ohio College Opportunity Grant, to pay the prior year's Ohio College Opportunity Grant/Ohio Instructional Grant obligations in fiscal year 2010. The Chancellor may also use the foregoing appropriation item to pay for renewals or partial renewals of scholarships students receive under the Ohio Academic Scholarship Program under sections 3333.21 and 3333.22 of the Revised Code. In paying for prior obligations and scholarships under this division, the Chancellor shall deduct funds from the allocations made under division (A) of this section proportionate to the amounts allocated to each sector from the total appropriation.

In each fiscal year, the Chancellor shall not distribute or obligate or commit to be distributed an amount greater than what is appropriated under the foregoing appropriation item 235563, Ohio College Opportunity Grant.

(E) The Chancellor shall establish, and post on the Ohio Board of Regents' web site, award tables based on the formulas created under division (B) of this section. The Chancellor shall notify students and institutions of any reductions in awards under this section.

On or before August 31, 2009, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall submit award tables to the Controlling Board for the 2009-2010 academic year and allocations of Ohio College Opportunity Grant awards not already specified in section 3333.122 of the Revised Code.

(F) Notwithstanding section 3333.122 of the Revised Code, no student shall be eligible to receive an Ohio College Opportunity Grant for more than ten semesters, fifteen quarters, or the equivalent of five academic years, less the number of semesters or quarters in which the student received an Ohio Instructional Grant.

SECTION 371.50.60. CENTRAL STATE UNIVERSITY SPEED TO SCALE

The foregoing appropriation 235567, Central State University Speed to Scale, shall be used to achieve the goals of the Speed to Scale Plan, which include increasing student enrollment through freshman recruitment and transferred students, increasing the proportion of in-state students to 80 per cent of the total student population, and increasing the student retention rates between the first and second year of college by two per cent each year. The goals shall be accomplished by the targeting of student retention, improved articulation agreements with two-year campuses, increased use of alternative course options, including online coursework and Ohio Learning Network resources, College Tech Prep, Post Secondary Enrollment Options, and other dual-credit programs, and strategic partnerships with research institutions to improve the quality of Central State University's offering of science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and medical instruction. In fiscal year 2010, the disbursement of these funds shall be contingent upon Central State University meeting the annual goals for the student enrollment and retention rate increases.

The Speed to Scale Task Force shall meet not less than quarterly to discuss progress of the plan, including performance on accountability metrics and issues experienced in planned efforts, and to monitor and support the creation of partnerships with other state institutions of higher education. The Task Force shall consist of the president of Central State University or the president's designee, the president of Sinclair Community College or the president's designee, the president of Cincinnati State Technical and Community College or the president's designee, the president of Cuyahoga Community College or the president's designee, the president of The Ohio State University or the president's designee, the president of the University of Cincinnati or the president's designee, the president of Wright State University or the president's designee, one representative from the Board of Regents, one member of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, one member of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate, the Director of Budget and Management or the director's designee, and a representative of the Governor's Office appointed by the Governor.

On the thirtieth day of June of each fiscal year, Central State University and the Speed to Scale Task Force shall jointly submit to the Governor, the Director of Budget and Management, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, and the Board of Regents a report describing the status of their progress on the accountability metrics included in the Speed to Scale Plan.

SECTION 371.50.70. THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLINIC SUPPORT

The foregoing appropriation item 235572, The Ohio State University Clinic Support, shall be distributed through the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to The Ohio State University for support of dental and veterinary medicine clinics.

SECTION 371.50.83. BLISS INSTITUTE

The foregoing appropriation item 235579, Bliss Institute, shall be used to support the Bliss Institute of Applied Politics at the University of Akron.

SECTION 371.50.90. HAZARDOUS MATERIALS PROGRAM

The foregoing appropriation item 235596, Hazardous Materials Program, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to make awards for the establishment or continued development and support of hazardous materials education, studies, or programs at Ohio institutions of higher education.

SECTION 371.60.10. NATIONAL GUARD SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall disburse funds from appropriation item 235599, National Guard Scholarship Program, at the direction of the Adjutant General. During each fiscal year, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, within ten days of cancellation, may certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of canceled prior-year encumbrances in appropriation item 235599, National Guard Scholarship Program. Upon receipt of the certification, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer cash in an amount up to the amount certified from the General Revenue Fund to the National Guard Scholarship Reserve Fund (Fund 5BM0). Upon the request of the Adjutant General, the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall seek Controlling Board approval to authorize additional expenditures for appropriation item 235623, National Guard Scholarship Reserve Fund. Upon approval of the Controlling Board, the additional amounts are hereby appropriated. The Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall disburse funds from appropriation item 235623, National Guard Scholarship Reserve Fund, at the direction of the Adjutant General.

SECTION 371.60.20. PLEDGE OF FEES

Any new pledge of fees, or new agreement for adjustment of fees, made in the biennium ending June 30, 2011, to secure bonds or notes of a state-assisted institution of higher education for a project for which bonds or notes were not outstanding on the effective date of this section shall be effective only after approval by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, unless approved in a previous biennium.

SECTION 371.60.30. HIGHER EDUCATION GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 235909, Higher Education General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs at the times they are required to be made for obligations issued during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, under sections 151.01 and 151.04 of the Revised Code.
SECTION 371.60.40. SALES AND SERVICES
The Chancellor of the Board of Regents is authorized to charge and accept payment for the provision of goods and services. Such charges shall be reasonably related to the cost of producing the goods and services. No charges may be levied for goods or services that are produced as part of the routine responsibilities or duties of the Chancellor. All revenues received by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall be deposited into Fund 4560, and may be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents to pay for the costs of producing the goods and services.

SECTION 371.60.50. HIGHER EDUCATIONAL FACILITY COMMISSION ADMINISTRATION
The foregoing appropriation item 235602, Higher Educational Facility Commission Administration, shall be used by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents for operating expenses related to the Chancellor of the Board of Regents' support of the activities of the Ohio Higher Educational Facility Commission. Upon the request of the Chancellor, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer up to $45,000 cash in fiscal year 2010 and up to $45,000 cash in fiscal year 2011 from the HEFC Operating Expenses Fund (Fund 4610) to the HEFC Administration Fund (Fund 4E80).

SECTION 371.60.60. NURSING LOAN PROGRAM
The foregoing appropriation item 235606, Nursing Loan Program, shall be used to administer the nurse education assistance program. Up to $167,580 in each fiscal year may be used for operating expenses associated with the program. Any additional funds needed for the administration of the program are subject to Controlling Board approval.

SECTION 371.60.70. VETERANS PREFERENCES
The Chancellor of the Board of Regents shall work with the Department of Veterans Services to develop specific veterans preference guidelines for higher education institutions. These guidelines shall ensure that the institutions' hiring practices are in accordance with the intent of Ohio's veterans preference laws.

SECTION 371.60.80. STATE NEED-BASED FINANCIAL AID RECONCILIATION

By the first day of August in each fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount necessary to pay any outstanding prior year obligations to higher education institutions for the state's need-based financial aid programs. The amounts certified are hereby appropriated to appropriation item 235618, State Need-based Financial Aid Reconciliation, from revenues received in the State Need-based Financial Aid Reconciliation Fund (Fund 5Y50).

SECTION 371.60.95. TRANSFER AND ADJUSTMENT OFARRA STATE FISCAL STABILIZATION FUND APPROPRIATIONS

The Director of Budget and Management, with the approval of the Controlling Board, may transfer appropriation between appropriation items 235501, State Share of Instruction, and 235644, State Share of Instruction – Federal Stimulus – Education, in each fiscal year, upon the written request of the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, to meet the maintenance of effort and use of funds provisions of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, including transferring appropriation between fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011.

SECTION 371.70.10. EFFICIENCY SAVINGS

Each state-assisted institution of higher education, as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, shall demonstrate at least a three per cent savings through internal efficiencies in each fiscal year. Institutions shall identify savings to the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, who shall certify the amount of savings of each institution.

SECTION 371.70.20. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Board of trustees" includes the managing authority of a university branch district.

(2) "State institution of higher education" has the same meaning as in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code.

(B) The board of trustees of any state institution of higher education, notwithstanding any rule of the institution to the contrary, may adopt a policy providing for mandatory furloughs of employees, including faculty, to achieve spending reductions necessitated by institutional budget deficits.

Transfer of Operating Appropriations to Implement Criminal Sentencing Reforms

For the purposes of implementing criminal sentencing reforms, and notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Director of Budget and Management, at the request of the Director of Rehabilitation and Correction, shall transfer up to $14,000,000 in appropriations, in each of fiscal years 2010 and 2011, from appropriation item 501321, Institutional Operations, to any combination of appropriation items 501405, Halfway House; 501407, Community Residential Programs; 501408, Community
Misdemeanor Programs; and 501501, Community Residential Programs - CBCF.

OHIO BUILDING AUTHORITY LEASE PAYMENTS
The foregoing appropriation item 501406, Lease Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, under the primary leases and agreements for those buildings made under Chapter 152. of the Revised Code. These appropriations are the source of funds pledged for bond service charges or obligations issued pursuant to Chapter 152. of the Revised Code.

PRISONER COMPENSATION Money from the foregoing appropriation item 501403, Prisoner Compensation, shall be transferred on a quarterly basis by intrastate transfer voucher to the Services and Agricultural Fund (Fund 1480) for the purposes of paying prisoner compensation.

OSU MEDICAL CHARGES
Notwithstanding section 341.192 of the Revised Code, at the request of the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction, The Ohio State University Medical Center, including the James Cancer Hospital and Solove Research Institute and the Richard M. Ross Heart Hospital, shall provide necessary care to persons who are confined in state adult correctional facilities. The provision of necessary care shall be billed to the Department at a rate not to exceed the authorized reimbursement rate for the same service established by the Department of Job and Family Services under the Medical Assistance Program.

SECTION 375.20. PILOT PROJECT FOR THE CONTRACTUAL PROVISION OF INMATE HEALTHCARE
The Department of Rehabilitation and Correction may develop, oversee, and evaluate a pilot project for the provision of comprehensive correctional health care services through private correctional health care contractors to complement the current system for the provision of health care services to inmates of state correctional facilities. If the Department develops a pilot project, private correctional health care contractors shall be selected through a request for proposal process. The department shall determine the method for requesting proposals, the form of the request-for-proposal, and criteria for the provision of comprehensive correctional health care services under the pilot project. Comprehensive correctional health care services are medical, dental, and mental health care services comparable to those provided by the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction to inmates at and outside of state correctional facilities. The department shall determine the award of contracts based upon written criteria prepared by the department.

A pilot project for the provision of comprehensive correctional health care services must include a minimum of 20 per cent of the current inmate population and be designed to include a representative sample of the inmate population in order to promote a realistic comparison of services and costs. The department shall control inmate participation in the pilot project based on current standard operating procedures and the need to maintain the representative sample of the inmate population. The department shall determine the locations for the pilot project and in making that determination shall give consideration to the geographic proximity of medical facilities to promote economies of scale. The locations shall include a representative sample of current facilities, the facilities’ missions, and medical acuity. The mix of facilities shall remain consistent throughout the pilot project in order to promote a realistic comparison of costs and services.

If the Department develops the pilot project, it shall be developed and implemented by January 1, 2010, for a period of two years and shall be conditioned upon a private contractor offering a minimum of 10 per cent savings from the department’s projected costs for comprehensive correctional health care services during the period of the project. The cost comparison shall include all on-site and off-site healthcare costs, including all personnel, benefit, administrative, overhead, and transportation costs.

INDEPENDENT LIVING COUNCIL

The foregoing appropriation item 415402, Independent Living Council, shall be used to fund the operations of the State Independent Living Council and shall be used to support state independent living centers and independent living services under Title VII of the Independent Living Services and Centers for Independent Living of the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1992, 106 Stat. 4344, 29 U.S.C. 796d.

ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY

The foregoing appropriation item 415406, Assistive Technology, shall be provided to Assistive Technology of Ohio and used to provide grants and assistive technology services under the program for people with disabilities in the State of Ohio.

OFFICE FOR PEOPLE WITH BRAIN INJURY

The foregoing appropriation item 415431, Office for People with Brain Injury, shall be used to plan and coordinate head-injury-related services provided by state agencies and other government or private entities, to assess the needs for such services, and to set priorities in this area.

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES
The foregoing appropriation item 415506, Services for People with Disabilities, shall be used as state matching funds to provide vocational rehabilitation services to eligible consumers.

At the request of the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer any unexpended, unencumbered appropriation in fiscal year 2010 or fiscal year 2011 from appropriation item 235502, Student Support Services, to appropriation item 415506, Services for People with Disabilities. Any appropriation so transferred shall be used by the Ohio Rehabilitation Services Commission to obtain additional federal matching funds to serve disabled students.

SERVICES FOR THE DEAF

The foregoing appropriation item 415508, Services for the Deaf, shall be used to provide grants to community centers for the deaf. These funds shall not be provided in lieu of Social Security reimbursement funds.

INDEPENDENT LIVING/VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAMS

The foregoing appropriation item 415617, Independent Living/Vocational Rehabilitation Programs, shall be used to support vocational rehabilitation programs.

SOCIAL SECURITY REIMBURSEMENT FUNDS

Reimbursement funds received from the Social Security Administration, United States Department of Health and Human Services, for the costs of providing services and training to return disability recipients to gainful employment shall be expended from the Social Security Reimbursement Fund (Fund 3L10), to the extent funds are available, as follows:

(A) Appropriation item 415601, Social Security Personal Care Assistance, to provide personal care services in accordance with section 3304.41 of the Revised Code;

(B) Appropriation item 415605, Social Security Community Centers for the Deaf, to provide grants to community centers for the deaf in Ohio for services to individuals with hearing impairments; and

(C) Appropriation item 415608, Social Security Special Programs/Assistance, to provide vocational rehabilitation services to individuals with severe disabilities who are Social Security beneficiaries, to enable them to achieve competitive employment. This appropriation item shall also be used to pay a portion of indirect costs of the Personal Care Assistance Program and the Independent Living Programs as mandated by federal OMB Circular A-87.

PROGRAM MANAGEMENT EXPENSES

The foregoing appropriation item 415606, Program Management Expenses, shall be used to support the administrative functions of the commission related to the provision of vocational rehabilitation, disability determination services, and ancillary programs.

ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATIONS

Appropriation items in this section shall be used for the purpose of administering and distributing the designated revenue distribution funds according to the Revised Code. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

GENERAL REVENUE FUND TRANSFERS

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer from the General Revenue Fund to the Local Government Tangible Property Tax Replacement Fund (Fund 7081) in the Revenue Distribution Fund Group, those amounts necessary to reimburse local taxing units under section 5751.22 of the Revised Code. Also, in fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011, the Director of Budget and Management may make temporary transfers from the General Revenue Fund to ensure sufficient balances in the Local Government Tangible Property Tax Replacement Fund (Fund 7081) and to replenish the General Revenue Fund for such transfers.

On July 1 of each fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $5,000,000 cash from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Library Fund (Fund 7065).

On July 1, 2010, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $11,200,000 cash from the General Revenue Fund to the Local Government Property Tax Replacement-Business Fund (Fund 7081).

SECTION 381.20. PUBLIC LIBRARY FUND ALLOCATION

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, for the period August 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, the monthly allocation made to the Public Library Fund under section 131.51 of the Revised Code shall be one and ninety-seven one hundredths per cent of the total tax revenue credited to the General Revenue Fund in the preceding month. In determining the total tax revenue credited to the General Revenue Fund during the preceding month, the Director of Budget and Management shall include amounts transferred from that fund during the preceding month pursuant to this section and divisions (A) and (B) of section 131.51 of the Revised Code.

Section 385.20. Common Schools General Obligation Debt Service

The foregoing appropriation item 230908, Common Schools General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs at the times they are required to be made for obligations issued during the period from July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2011, under sections 151.01 and 151.03 of the Revised Code.

Operating Expenses

The foregoing appropriation item 230644, Operating Expenses, shall be used by the Ohio School Facilities Commission to carry out its responsibilities under this section and Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

In both fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission shall certify on a quarterly basis to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of cash from interest earnings to be transferred from the School Building Assistance Fund (Fund 7032), the Public School Building Fund (Fund 7021), and the Educational Facilities Trust Fund (Fund N087) to the Ohio School Facilities Commission Fund (Fund 5E30). The amount transferred from the School Building Assistance Fund (Fund 7032) may not exceed investment earnings credited to the fund, less any amount required to be paid for federal
If the Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission determines that transferring cash from interest earnings is insufficient to support operations and carry out its responsibilities under this section and Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, the Commission may, with the approval of the Controlling Board, transfer cash not generated from interest from the Public School Building Fund (Fund 7021) and the Educational Trust Fund (Fund N087) to the Ohio School Facilities Commission Fund (Fund 5E30).

SCHOOL FACILITIES ENCUMBRANCES AND REAPPROPRIATION

At the request of the Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission, the Director of Budget and Management may cancel encumbrances for school district projects from a previous biennium if the district has not raised its local share of project costs within one year of receiving Controlling Board approval under section 3318.05 of the Revised Code. The Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission shall certify the amounts of the canceled encumbrances to the Director of Budget and Management on a quarterly basis. The amounts of the canceled encumbrances are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 385.30. AMENDMENT TO PROJECT AGREEMENT FOR MAINTENANCE LEVY

The Ohio School Facilities Commission shall amend the project agreement between the Commission and a school district that is participating in the Accelerated Urban School Building Assistance Program on the effective date of this section, if the Commission determines that it is necessary to do so in order to comply with division (B)(3)(c) of section 3318.38 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act.

SECTION 385.40. SURVEY OF COMMUNITY SPACE

The Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission shall survey classroom facilities projects financed by the Commission under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code and compile descriptions of how spaces within those facilities are used for activities, services, and programs shared between schools and other public and private entities in their communities. The Executive Director shall identify and describe such spaces included in current or completed projects and shall recommend best practices for enhancing opportunities for including shared community spaces in future projects. The Executive Director shall submit the survey and recommendations to the Commission not later than December 31, 2009.

SECTION 385.50. EXTREME ENVIRONMENTAL CONTAMINATION OF SCHOOL FACILITIES

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Ohio School Facilities Commission may provide assistance under the Exceptional Needs School Facilities Program established in section 3318.37 of the Revised Code to any school district, and not exclusively to a school district in the lowest seventy-five per cent of adjusted valuation per pupil on the current ranking of school districts established under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code, for the purpose of the relocation or replacement of school facilities required as a result of extreme environmental contamination.

The school district's portion of a project to replace a contaminated facility undertaken pursuant to this section shall not exceed fifty per cent of the cost of the project. This paragraph does not affect the district's portion of the cost of subsequent classroom facilities projects the district may undertake under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

The Ohio School Facilities Commission shall contract with an independent environmental consultant to conduct a study and to report to the Commission as to the seriousness of the environmental contamination, whether the contamination violates applicable state and federal standards, and whether the facilities are no longer suitable for use as school facilities. The Commission then shall make a determination regarding funding for the relocation or replacement of the school facilities. If the federal government or other public or private entity provides funds for restitution of costs incurred by the state or school district in the relocation or replacement of the school facilities, the school district shall use such funds in excess of the school district's share to refund the state for the state's contribution to the environmental contamination portion of the project. The school district may apply an amount of such restitution funds up to an amount equal to the school district's portion of the project, as defined by the Commission, toward paying its portion of that project to reduce the amount of bonds the school district otherwise must issue to receive state assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 385.60. CANTON CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT PROJECT

(A) The Ohio School Facilities Commission may commit up to thirty-five million dollars to the Canton City School District for construction of a facility described in this section, in lieu of a high school that would otherwise be authorized under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code. The Commission shall not commit funds under this section unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The District has entered into a cooperative agreement with a state-assisted technical college;

(2) The District has received an irrevocable commitment of additional funding from nonpublic sources; and

(3) The facility is intended to serve both secondary and postsecondary instructional purposes.

(B) The Commission shall enter into an agreement with the District for the construction of the facility authorized under this section that is separate from and in addition to the agreement required for the District's participation in the Classroom Facilities Assistance Program under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding that section and sections 3318.03, 3318.04, and 3318.083 of the Revised Code, the additional agreement shall provide, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The Commission shall not have any oversight responsibilities over the construction of the facility.

(2) The facility need not comply with the specifications for plans and materials for high schools adopted by the Commission.

(3) The Commission may decrease the basic project cost that would otherwise be calculated for a high school under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

(4) The state shall not share in any increases in the basic project cost for the facility above the amount authorized under this section.

All other provisions of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code apply to the approval and construction of a facility authorized under this section.

The state funds committed to the facility authorized by this section shall be part of the total amount the state commits to the Canton City School District under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code. All additional state funds committed to the Canton City School District for classroom facilities assistance shall be subject to all provisions of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

SECTION 385.70. Notwithstanding section 3318.05 of the Revised Code, for each school district whose project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code was conditionally approved by the Ohio School Facilities Commission in July 2008, that conditional approval shall lapse and the amount reserved and encumbered for the project shall be released on December 31, 2009.
SECTION 385.80. Notwithstanding any provision of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code to the contrary, and notwithstanding the agreement between the Cincinnati City School District and the Ohio School Facilities Commission under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code, the Commission shall encumber and pay state funds to the District in the amount of $4,000,000, in addition to the amount prescribed in that agreement, for the purpose of dedicating additional state funding toward the acquisition of the School for the Creative and Performing Arts, as that building is included in the District's project under section 3318.38 of the Revised Code. The District shall use the funds paid under this section solely for that purpose. The School for the Creative and Performing Arts need not comply with the specifications included in the Ohio Design Manual adopted by the Commission to implement classroom facilities projects under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code. This section shall not affect any other building included in the District's project under section 3318.38 of the Revised Code, nor shall it affect the state's portion of funding for the remainder of that project.

The Commission shall use funds appropriated to it for classroom facilities projects to pay the funds required under this section. The Commission shall encumber the funds required under this section in accordance with section 3318.11 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 385.85. In fiscal year 2010, the Ohio School Facilities Commission may approve a project under the Exceptional Needs School Facilities Assistance Program established under that section for any school district that meets the following conditions:

(A) The district initially applied for the Exceptional Needs Program in fiscal year 2008.

(B) The district's position on the rankings certified under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code for fiscal year 2009 is higher than three hundred sixty.

SECTION 385.90. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Basic project cost," "percentile," and "project" have the same meanings as in section 3318.01 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Equity list" means the school district percentile rankings calculated under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code.
(3) A school district's "portion of the basic project cost" means the amount calculated under section 3318.032 of the Revised Code.

(B) Notwithstanding any provision of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code to the contrary, in the case of a school district that received in fiscal year 2008 elector approval for a bond issue for its portion of the basic project cost of a project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code, based on a preliminary estimated equity list projecting rankings of school districts if amendments to section 3318.011 of the Revised Code enacted by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly had been effective for projects in that fiscal year, and which district on the alternate equity list for fiscal year 2009 funding required by Section 733.13 of Am. Sub. H.B. 562 of the 127th General Assembly, retroactively applying those amendments, was ranked one percentile higher than on the preliminary estimated equity list, resulting in the district's calculated portion being one per cent higher than the amount projected at the time of the bond issue election, the Ohio School Facilities Commission shall reduce the district's portion to that projected on the preliminary estimated equity list.

SECTION 385.93. (A) As used in this section, "equity list" means the school district percentile rankings calculated under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code.

(B) Not later than thirty days after the effective date of this section, the Department of Education shall create an alternate equity list for fiscal year 2009, for use in fiscal year 2010, by recalculating each school district's percentile ranking under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code and shall certify the alternate equity list to the Ohio School Facilities Commission. For this purpose, the Department shall recalculate each school district's percentile ranking using the district's "average taxable value" as that term is defined in the version of section 3318.011 of the Revised Code, as it results from the amendments to that section enacted by this act.

(C) The Commission shall use the alternate equity list certified under division (B) of this section to determine the priority for assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code in fiscal year 2010 for each school district that has not previously been offered funding under those sections. However, no district that already has been offered assistance under those sections for fiscal year 2010 prior to the Commission's receipt of the alternate equity list shall be denied the opportunity for assistance under those sections for that fiscal year.

(D) Notwithstanding any provision of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code to the contrary, for each school district that receives the Commission's conditional approval of the district's project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code in fiscal year 2010, the district's portion of the basic project cost shall be the lesser of the following:

(1) The amount required under section 3318.032 of the Revised Code calculated using the percentile in which the district ranks on the alternate equity list certified under division (B) of this section;

(2) The amount required under section 3318.032 of the Revised Code calculated using the percentile in which the district ranks on the original equity list for fiscal year 2009.

PAYMENT OF DEBT FOR STATEHOUSE RESTORATION

There is hereby appropriated from the Public School Building Fund (Fund 7021) in fiscal year 2010 the amount necessary to pay any outstanding debt obligations issued for the restoration of the Ohio Statehouse that was completed in 1996.

The foregoing appropriation item 110901, Property Tax Allocation - Taxation, is hereby appropriated to pay for the state's costs incurred due to the Homestead Exemption, the Manufactured Home Property Tax Rollback, and the Property Tax Rollback. The Tax Commissioner shall distribute these funds directly to the appropriate local taxing districts, except for school districts, notwithstanding the provisions in sections 321.24 and 323.156 of the Revised Code, which provide for payment of the Homestead Exemption, the Manufactured Home Property Tax Rollback, and Property Tax Rollback by the Tax Commissioner to the appropriate county treasurer and the subsequent redistribution of these funds to the appropriate local taxing districts by the county auditor.

Upon receipt of these amounts, each local taxing district shall distribute the amount among the proper funds as if it had been paid as real property taxes. Payments for the costs of administration shall continue to be paid to the county treasurer and county auditor as provided for in sections 319.54, 321.26, and 323.156 of the Revised Code.

Any sums, in addition to the amounts specifically appropriated in appropriation item 110901, Property Tax Allocation - Taxation, for the Homestead Exemption, the Manufactured Home Property Tax Rollback, and the Property Tax Rollback payments, which are determined to be necessary for these purposes, are hereby appropriated.

MUNICIPAL INCOME TAX
The foregoing appropriation item 110995, Municipal Income Tax, shall be used to make payments to municipal corporations under section 5745.05 of the Revised Code. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary to make such payments, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

TAX REFUNDS
The foregoing appropriation item 110635, Tax Refunds, shall be used to pay refunds under section 5703.052 of the Revised Code. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

INTERNATIONAL REGISTRATION PLAN AUDIT
The foregoing appropriation item 110616, International Registration Plan, shall be used under section 5703.12 of the Revised Code for audits of persons with vehicles registered under the International Registration Plan.
TRAVEL EXPENSES FOR THE STREAMLINED SALES TAX PROJECT

Of the foregoing appropriation item 110607, Local Tax Administration, the Tax Commissioner may disburse funds, if available, for the purposes of paying travel expenses incurred by members of Ohio's delegation to the Streamlined Sales Tax Project, as appointed under section 5740.02 of the Revised Code. Any travel expense reimbursement paid for by the Department of Taxation shall be done in accordance with applicable state laws and guidelines.

CENTRALIZED TAX FILING AND PAYMENT FUND

The Director of Budget and Management, under a plan submitted by the Tax Commissioner, or as otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and Management, shall set a schedule to transfer cash from the General Revenue Fund to the credit of the Centralized Tax Filing and Payment Fund (Fund 5W40). The transfers of cash shall not exceed $400,000 in the biennium.

TOBACCO SETTLEMENT ENFORCEMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 110404, Tobacco Settlement Enforcement, shall be used by the Tax Commissioner to pay costs incurred in the enforcement of divisions (F) and (G) of section 5743.03 of the Revised Code.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROPERTY TAX REPLACEMENT - BUSINESS

Notwithstanding section 5751.22(A)(1)(b) of the Revised Code, payments to local taxing units by May 31, 2011, required by section 5751.22(C) of the Revised Code shall be in an amount equal to each of the losses determined under division (D) of section 5751.20 of the Revised Code multiplied by one hundred per cent.

SECTION 399.20. COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY TAX

(A) Any term used in this section has the same meaning as in section 5751.01 of the Revised Code.

(B)(1) A person is not required to pay the annual minimum commercial activity tax due for calendar year 2005 or 2006 under Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code if the person satisfies all of the following:

(a) The person was not subject to the tax for those years because the person did not have nexus with this state or was an excluded person under division (E)(1) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code;

(b) The person erroneously registered for the tax and failed to cancel the registration before May 10, 2006;
(c) The person canceled its commercial activity tax registration before February 10, 2007, and was not required to file the returns and pay the annual minimum tax due February 9, 2007, February 9, 2008, or February 9, 2009.

(2) Notwithstanding division (E) of section 5751.08 of the Revised Code, if a person satisfying divisions (B)(1)(a), (b), and (c) of this section paid the tax due for calendar year 2005 or 2006 after being contacted by the Department of Taxation, the person may request a refund of the amount paid for that year under that section.

(C) The Tax Commissioner shall cancel the registration of each such person for which the registration has not yet been canceled.

SECTION 403.20. OFFICE OF THE SINKING FUND

The foregoing appropriation item 090401, Office of the Sinking Fund, shall be used for costs incurred by or on behalf of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund and the Ohio Public Facilities Commission with respect to State of Ohio general obligation bonds or notes, and the Treasurer of State with respect to State of Ohio general obligation and special obligation bonds or notes, including, but not limited to, printing, advertising, delivery, rating fees and the procurement of ratings, professional publications, membership in professional organizations, and other services referred to in division (D) of section 151.01 of the Revised Code. The General Revenue Fund shall be reimbursed for such costs relating to the issuance and administration of Highway Capital Improvement bonds or notes authorized under Ohio Constitution, Article VIII, Section 2m and Chapter 151. of the Revised Code. That reimbursement shall be made from appropriation item 155902, Highway Capital Improvement Bond Retirement Fund, by intrastate transfer voucher pursuant to a certification by the Office of the Sinking Fund of the actual amounts used. The amounts necessary to make such a reimbursement are hereby appropriated from the Highway Capital Improvement Bond Retirement Fund created in section 151.06 of the Revised Code.

POLICE AND FIRE DEATH BENEFIT FUND

The foregoing appropriation item 090575, Police and Fire Death Benefits, shall be disbursed quarterly by the Treasurer of State at the beginning of each quarter of each fiscal year to the Board of Trustees of the Ohio Police and Fire Pension Fund. The Treasurer of State shall certify such amounts quarterly to the Director of Budget and Management. By the twentieth day of June of each fiscal year, the Board of Trustees of the Ohio Police and Fire Pension Fund shall certify to the Treasurer of State the amount disbursed in the current fiscal year to make the payments required by section 742.63 of the Revised Code and shall return to the Treasurer of State moneys received from this appropriation item but not disbursed.

TAX REFUNDS

The foregoing appropriation item 090635, Tax Refunds, shall be used to pay refunds under section 5703.052 of the Revised Code. If the Director of Budget and Management determines that additional amounts are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

OHIO BUILDING AUTHORITY LEASE PAYMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 470412, Lease Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments to the Ohio Building Authority for the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, under the leases and agreements for facilities made under Chapter 152. of the Revised Code. This appropriation is the source of funds pledged for bond service charges on related obligations issued pursuant to Chapter 152. of the Revised Code.

EDUCATION REIMBURSEMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 470613, Education Reimbursement, shall be used to fund the operating expenses of providing educational services to youth supervised by the Department of Youth Services. Operating expenses include, but are not limited to, teachers' salaries, maintenance costs, and educational equipment. This appropriation item may be used for capital expenses related to the education program.

EMPLOYEE FOOD SERVICE AND EQUIPMENT

Notwithstanding section 125.14 of the Revised Code, the foregoing appropriation item 470609, Employee Food Service, may be used to purchase any food operational items with funds received into the fund from reimbursements for state surplus property.

SECTION 503.10. PERSONAL SERVICE EXPENSES

Unless otherwise prohibited by law, any appropriation from which personal service expenses are paid shall bear the employer's share of public employees' retirement, workers' compensation, disabled workers' relief, and all group insurance programs; the costs of centralized accounting, centralized payroll processing, and related personnel reports and services; the cost of the Office of Collective Bargaining; the cost of the Employee Assistance Program; the cost of the affirmative action and equal employment opportunity programs administered by the Department of Administrative Services; the costs of interagency information management infrastructure; and the cost of administering the state employee merit system as required by section 124.07 of the Revised Code. These costs shall be determined in conformity with the appropriate sections of law and paid in accordance with procedures specified by the Office of Budget and Management. Expenditures from appropriation item 070601, Public Audit
SECTION 503.20. SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENTS AND SETTLEMENTS AGAINST THE STATE

Except as otherwise provided in this section, an appropriation in this act or any other act may be used for the purpose of satisfying judgments, settlements, or administrative awards ordered or approved by the Court of Claims or by any other court of competent jurisdiction in connection with civil actions against the state. This authorization does not apply to appropriations to be applied to or used for payment of guarantees by or on behalf of the state, or for payments under lease agreements relating to, or debt service on, bonds, notes, or other obligations of the state. Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, this authorization includes appropriations from funds into which proceeds of direct obligations of the state are deposited only to the extent that the judgment, settlement, or administrative award is for, or represents, capital costs for which the appropriation may otherwise be used and is consistent with the purpose for which any related obligations were issued or entered into. Nothing contained in this section is intended to subject the state to suit in any forum in which it is not otherwise subject to suit, and is not intended to waive or compromise any defense or right available to the state in any suit against it.

SECTION 503.30. CAPITAL PROJECT SETTLEMENTS

This section specifies an additional and supplemental procedure to provide for payments of judgments and settlements if the Director of Budget and Management determines, pursuant to division (C)(4) of section 2743.19 of the Revised Code, that sufficient unencumbered moneys do not exist in the fund to support a particular appropriation to pay the amount of a final judgment rendered against the state or a state agency, including the settlement of a claim approved by a court, in an action upon and arising out of a contractual obligation for the construction or improvement of a capital facility if the costs under the contract were payable in whole or in part from a state capital projects appropriation. In such a case, the Director may either proceed pursuant to division (C)(4) of section 2743.19 of the Revised Code or apply to the Controlling Board to increase an appropriation or create an appropriation out of any unencumbered moneys in the state treasury to the credit of the capital projects fund from which the initial state appropriation was made. The amount of an increase in appropriation or new appropriation approved by the Controlling Board is hereby appropriated from the applicable capital projects fund and made available for the payment of the judgment or settlement.

If the Director does not make the application authorized by this section or the Controlling Board disapproves the application, and the Director does not make application under division (C)(4) of section 2743.19 of the Revised Code, the Director shall for the purpose of making that payment make a request to the General Assembly as provided for in division (C)(5) of that section.

SECTION 503.40. RE-ISSUANCE OF VOIDED WARRANTS

In order to provide funds for the reissuance of voided warrants under section 126.37 of the Revised Code, there is hereby appropriated, out of moneys in the state treasury from the fund credited as provided in section 126.37 of the Revised Code, that amount sufficient to pay such warrants when approved by the Office of Budget and Management.

SECTION 503.50. REAPPROPRIATION OF UNEXPENDED ENCUMBERED BALANCES OF OPERATING APPROPRIATIONS

(A) An unexpended balance of an operating appropriation or reappropriation that a state agency lawfully encumbered prior to the close of a fiscal year is hereby reappropriated on the first day of July of the following fiscal year from the fund from which it was originally appropriated or reappropriated for the following period and shall remain available only for the purpose of discharging the encumbrance:

(1) For an encumbrance for personal services, maintenance, equipment, or items for resale, other than an encumbrance for an item of special order manufacture not available on term contract or in the open market or for reclamation of land or oil and gas wells, for a period of not more than five months from the end of the fiscal year;

(2) For an encumbrance for an item of special order manufacture not available on term contract or in the open market, for a period of not more than five months from the end of the fiscal year or, with the written approval of the Director of Budget and Management, for a period of not more than twelve months from the end of the fiscal year;

(3) For an encumbrance for reclamation of land or oil and gas wells, for a period ending when the encumbered appropriation is expended or for a period of two years, whichever is less;

(4) For an encumbrance for any other expense, for such period as the Director approves, provided such period does not exceed two years.

(B) Any operating appropriations for which unexpended balances are reappropriated beyond a five-month period from the end of the fiscal year by division (A)(2) of this section shall be reported to the Controlling Board by the Director of Budget and Management by the thirty-first day of December of each year. The report on each such item shall include the item, the cost of the item, and the name of the vendor. The report shall be updated on a quarterly basis for encumbrances remaining open.

(C) Upon the expiration of the reappropriation period set out in division (A) of this section, a reappropriation made by this section lapses, and the Director of Budget and Management shall cancel the encumbrance of the unexpended reappropriation not later than the end of the weekend following the expiration of the reappropriation period.

(D) Notwithstanding division (C) of this section, with the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, an unexpended balance of an encumbrance that was reappropriated on the first day of July by this section for a period specified in division (A)(3) or (4) of this section and that remains encumbered at the close of the fiscal biennium is hereby reappropriated on the first day of July of the following fiscal biennium from the fund from which it was originally appropriated or reappropriated for the applicable period specified in division (A)(3) or (4) of this section and shall remain available only for the purpose of discharging the encumbrance.

(E) The Director of Budget and Management may correct accounting errors committed by the staff of the Office of Budget and Management, such as re-establishing encumbrances or appropriations cancelled in error, during the cancellation of operating encumbrances in November and of nonoperating encumbrances in December.

(F) If the Controlling Board approved a purchase, that approval remains in effect so long as the appropriation used to make that purchase remains encumbered.

Section 503.60. Appropriations Related to Cash Transfers and Re-establishment of Encumbrances

Any cash transferred by the Director of Budget and Management under section 126.15 of the Revised Code is hereby appropriated. Any amounts necessary to re-establish appropriations or encumbrances under section 126.15 of the Revised Code are hereby appropriated.

Section 503.70. Income Tax Distribution to Counties
There are hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund, which are not otherwise appropriated, funds sufficient to make any payment required by division (B)(2) of section 5747.03 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 503.80. EXPENDITURES AND APPROPRIATION INCREASES APPROVED BY THE CONTROLLING BOARD

Any money that the Controlling Board approves for expenditure or any increase in appropriation that the Controlling Board approves under sections 127.14, 131.35, and 131.39 of the Revised Code or any other provision of law is hereby appropriated for the period ending June 30, 2011.

SECTION 503.90. FUNDS RECEIVED FOR USE OF GOVERNOR'S RESIDENCE

If the Governor's Residence Fund (Fund 4H20) receives payment for use of the residence pursuant to section 107.40 of the Revised Code, the amounts so received are hereby appropriated to appropriation item 100604, Governor's Residence Gift.

SECTION 503.95. The Director of Transportation shall permit the construction of a curb cut on State Route 91, near Vine Street, in Lake County.

SECTION 506.10. UTILITY RADIOLOGICAL SAFETY BOARD ASSESSMENTS

Unless the agency and nuclear electric utility mutually agree to a higher amount by contract, the maximum amounts that may be assessed against nuclear electric utilities under division (B)(2) of section 4937.05 of the Revised Code and deposited into the specified funds are as follows:

SECTION 506.20. On July 1, 2009, and on the first day of the month for each month thereafter, the Treasurer of State, before making any of the distributions specified in sections 5735.23, 5735.26, 5735.291, and 5735.30 of the Revised Code, shall deposit the first 2 per cent of the amount of motor fuel tax received for the preceding calendar month to the credit of the Highway Operating Fund (Fund 7002). Upon the written request of the Director of Public Safety, the Director of Budget and Management may make periodic transfers of cash totaling $16,220,000 in each fiscal year from the Highway Operating Fund (Fund 7002) to the State Highway Safety Fund (Fund 7036).

SECTION 509.10. (A) There is hereby created the Budget Planning and Management Commission, consisting of six members. The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three members of the House of Representatives, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party, and the President of the Senate shall appoint three members of the Senate, not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party. The initial appointments shall be made not later than ninety days after the effective date of this section. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointments.

(B) The commission shall complete a study and make recommendations that are designed to provide relief to the state during the current difficult fiscal and economic period. In developing the recommendations, the commission shall develop a strategy for balancing the state budget for fiscal years 2012 and 2013.

(C) The commission shall appoint two of its members to serve as co-chairpersons for the commission. One co-chairperson shall be a member of the majority party of the House of Representatives, and one co-chairperson shall be a member of the majority party of the Senate. Commission meetings shall take place at the call of the co-chairpersons of the commission. The commission shall conduct meetings during the period of July 1, 2009, through November 30, 2010.

(D) Not later than November 30, 2010, the commission shall submit a written report of its recommendations to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, and the Governor. The commission ceases to exist upon submission of its report.
Am. Sub. H. B. No. 1 128th G.A.

3002

(E) The Legislative Service Commission shall provide technical, professional, and clerical support necessary for the Budget Planning and Management Commission to perform its duties.

SECTION 512.10. TRANSFERS TO THE GENERAL REVENUE FUND OF INTEREST EARNED
Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Director of Budget and Management, through June 30, 2011, may transfer interest earned by any state fund to the General Revenue Fund. This section does not apply to funds whose source of revenue is restricted or protected by the Ohio Constitution, federal tax law, or the "Cash Management Improvement Act of 1990," 104 Stat. 1058 (1990), 31 U.S.C. 6501 et seq., as amended.

SECTION 512.30. GRF TRANSFER TO THE OAKS PROJECT IMPLEMENTATION FUND
On July 1 of each fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer an amount not to exceed $2,100,000 cash from the General Revenue Fund to the OAKS Project Implementation Fund (Fund 5N40).

SECTION 512.40. TRANSFERS FROM THE BUDGET STABILIZATION FUND
Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Director of Budget and Management, in either year of the biennium, may transfer cash from the Budget Stabilization Fund to the General Revenue Fund in order to balance General Revenue Fund revenues with General Revenue Fund expenditures. Before any such transfer, the Director shall notify the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, and the Minority Leaders of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the date and amount of the transfer and the cash balance remaining in the Budget Stabilization Fund.

SECTION 512.50. TRANSFERS FROM EDUCATION FACILITIES TRUST AND PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDING FUNDS TO GRF
Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer a total of $250,000,000 cash in either fiscal year 2010 or fiscal year 2011 from the Education Facilities Trust Fund (Fund N087) and the Public School Building Fund (Fund 7021), which are used by the School Facilities Commission, to the General Revenue Fund. Not later than June 30, 2013, $250,000,000 cash shall be deposited into a fund of the Commission, for the purpose of constructing or renovating school facilities pursuant to Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

SECTION 512.60. CASH TRANSFERS TO THE GENERAL REVENUE FUND FROM NON-GRF FUNDS

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, during fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer cash from non-General Revenue Funds that are not constitutionally restricted to the General Revenue Fund in order to ensure that available General Revenue Fund receipts and balances are sufficient to support General Revenue Fund appropriations in each fiscal year.

Before September 1 of each fiscal year, the Director of Budget and Management shall prepare quarterly estimates identifying funds in the state treasury from which cash transfers are to be made and the anticipated amount of these cash transfers. Beginning with the quarter ending September 30, 2009, and on a quarterly basis thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall prepare a summary comparing the estimated and actual amounts of these cash transfers by fund. This quarterly summary shall be included in the report required under section 126.05 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 512.80. GRF TRANSFER TO THE PUBLIC AUDIT EXPENSE INTRA-STATE FUND

On July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $400,900 cash from the General Revenue Fund to the Public Audit Expense Intra-State Fund (Fund 1090). The amounts transferred are hereby appropriated to help pay for expenses incurred in the Auditor of State's role relating to fiscal caution, fiscal watch, and fiscal emergency activities as defined in Chapter 3316. of the Revised Code and for performance audits for school districts in fiscal distress.

SECTION 512.85. TRANSFER AND ADJUSTMENT OF ARRA STATE FISCAL STABILIZATION FUND APPROPRIATIONS

The Director of Budget and Management, with the approval of Controlling Board, may transfer appropriation between GRF appropriation items within the budgets and between the budgets of agencies receiving funding from the State Fiscal Stabilization Fund – Government Services in each fiscal year upon the written request of the relevant agency, including transferring appropriation between fiscal year 2010 and fiscal year 2011, if necessary to meet the maintenance of effort and use of funds provisions in the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

SECTION 512.90. CASH TRANSFERS FROM THE TOBACCO USE PREVENTION AND CONTROL FOUNDATION ENDOWMENT FUND

The Director of Budget and Management may request the Treasurer of State to transfer $258,622,890 cash from moneys in the custody of the Treasurer of State that were formerly to the credit of the Tobacco Use Prevention and Control Foundation Endowment Fund, to the General Health and Human Service Pass-Through Fund (Fund 5HC0). If any cash is transferred to the General Health and Human Service Pass-Through Fund (Fund 5HC0) the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the cash as follows:

(A) Up to $46,000,000 cash in each fiscal year to the Child and Adult Protective Services Fund (Fund 5GV0), used by the Department of Job and Family Services, to support child and adult protective services under Title XX of the "Social Security Act," 88 Stat. 2337 (1974), 42 U.S.C. 1397, as amended. The amount transferred is hereby appropriated.

(B) Up to $31,808,863 cash in fiscal year 2010 to the Health Care Services – Other Fund (Fund 5HA0), used by the Department of Job and Family Services and up to $129,814,027 cash in fiscal year 2011 to Fund 5HA0, to support health care services under the state Medicaid plan. The amount transferred is hereby appropriated.

(C) Up to $2,500,000 cash in each fiscal year to the Breast and Cervical Cancer Fund (Fund 5HB0), used by the Department of Health, to support breast and cervical cancer screenings. The amount transferred is hereby appropriated.

SECTION 515.10. On and after the effective date of section 3354.24 of the Revised Code as enacted by Sub. H.B. 1 of the 128th General Assembly:

(A) The board of trustees of the Eastern Gateway Community College District (the District) shall have the powers and duties formerly prescribed as powers and duties of the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District and any additional powers and duties granted or imposed by law.

(B) The board of trustees of the District assumes the obligations of, and is the successor to and continuation of, the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District.

(C) Any business commenced but not completed by the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District shall be completed by the board of trustees of the District in the same manner, and with the same effect, as if completed by the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District. No validation, cure, right, privilege, remedy, obligation, or liability is lost or impaired by reason of the enactment by this act of this section and section 3354.24 of the Revised Code.

(D) Rules of the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District shall continue as rules for the board of trustees of the District until amended or rescinded by the board of trustees of the District.

(E) Any reference in statute, rule, contract, grant, or other document to the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District shall be construed to refer to the board of trustees of the District.

(F) No judicial, administrative, or other proceeding to which the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District is a party and that is pending on the effective date of this section shall be affected by the enactment by this act of this section and section 3354.24 of the Revised Code. Upon application to the court or other tribunal, the board of trustees of the District shall be substituted for the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District as a party to the action or proceeding, and the action shall be prosecuted or defended in the name of the board of trustees of the District.

(G) All books, records, documents, files, transcripts, equipment, furniture, supplies, and other materials assigned to or possessed by the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District shall be transferred to the board of trustees of the District.

(H) The employees of the board of trustees of the Jefferson County Community College District shall be employees of the board of trustees of the District.

SECTION 515.20. On the effective date of this section, the duties, responsibilities, and functions of the Ohio Board of Regents under sections 4741.41, 4741.44, 4741.45, and 4741.46 of the Revised Code and its assets and liabilities under those sections are transferred to the State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board. The State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board assumes the obligations and authority of the Ohio Board of Regents with regard to sections 4741.41, 4741.44, 4741.45, and 4741.46 of the Revised Code.
Code. No right, privilege, or remedy, and no duty, liability, or obligation, accrued by the Ohio Board of Regents under sections 4741.41, 4741.44, 4741.45, and 4741.46 of the Revised Code is impaired or lost by reason of the transfer and shall be recognized, administered, performed, or enforced by the State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board.

Business commenced but not completed by the Ohio Board of Regents with regard to sections 4741.41, 4741.44, 4741.45, and 4741.46 of the Revised Code shall be completed by the State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board in the same manner, and with the same effect, as if completed by the Ohio Board of Regents.

All determinations of the Ohio Board of Regents that are made pursuant to sections 4741.41, 4741.44, 4741.45, and 4741.46 of the Revised Code continue in effect as determinations of the State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board until modified or rescinded by the State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board.

Whenever the Ohio Board of Regents is referred to in statute, contract, or other instrument for the purposes of sections 4741.41, 4741.44, 4741.45, and 4741.46 of the Revised Code, the reference is deemed to refer to the State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board.

No pending action or proceeding being prosecuted or defended in court or before any agency by the Ohio Board of Regents for the purposes of sections 4741.41, 4741.44, 4741.45, and 4741.46 of the Revised Code is affected by the transfer and shall be prosecuted or defended in the name of the State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board. Upon application to the court or agency, the State Veterinary Medical Licensing Board shall be substituted as a party.

SECTION 515.30. On the effective date of this section, the Division of Soil and Water Conservation in the Department of Natural Resources is renamed the Division of Soil and Water Resources. The Division of Soil and Water Conservation's functions, and its assets and liabilities, are transferred to the Division of Soil and Water Resources. The Division of Soil and Water Resources is successor to, assumes the obligations and authority of, and otherwise continues the Division of Soil and Water Conservation. No right, privilege, or remedy, and no duty, liability, or obligation, accrued under the Division of Soil and Water Conservation is impaired or lost by reason of the renaming and shall be recognized, administered, performed, or enforced by the Division of Soil and Water Resources.
Business commenced but not completed by the Division of Soil and Water Conservation or by the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Conservation shall be completed by the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Resources in the same manner, and with the same effect, as if completed by the Division of Soil and Water Conservation or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Conservation.

All of the Division of Soil and Water Conservation's rules, orders, and determinations continue in effect as rules, orders, and determinations of the Division of Soil and Water Resources until modified or rescinded by the Division of Soil and Water Resources.

Subject to the layoff provisions of sections 124.321 to 124.382 of the Revised Code, all employees of the Division of Soil and Water Conservation continue with the Division of Soil and Water Resources and retain their positions and all benefits accruing thereto.

The Director of Budget and Management shall determine the amount of unexpended balances in the appropriation accounts that pertain to the Division of Soil and Water Conservation and shall recommend to the Controlling Board their transfer to the appropriation accounts that pertain to the Division of Soil and Water Resources. The Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Conservation shall provide full and timely information to the Controlling Board to facilitate the transfer.

Whenever the Division of Soil and Water Conservation or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Conservation is referred to in a statute, contract, or other instrument, the reference is deemed to refer to the Division of Soil and Water Resources or to the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Resources, whichever is appropriate in context.

No pending action or proceeding being prosecuted or defended in court or before an agency by the Division of Soil and Water Conservation or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Conservation is affected by the renaming and shall be prosecuted or defended in the name of the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Resources, whichever is appropriate. Upon application to the court or agency, the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Resources shall be substituted.

Section 515.40. On the effective date of this section, the Division of Water in the Department of Natural Resources is abolished and its functions, and its assets and liabilities, are transferred to the Division of Soil and Water Resources and the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable, in the Department of Natural Resources. The Division of Soil and Water Resources and the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable, are successors to, assume the obligations and authority of, and otherwise continue the Division of Water. No right, privilege, or remedy, and no duty, liability, or obligation, accrued under the Division of Water is impaired or lost by reason of the abolishment and shall be recognized, administered, performed, or enforced by the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is applicable.

Business commenced but not completed by the Division of Water or by the Chief of the Division of Water shall be completed by the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Resources or by the Division of Parks and Recreation or the Chief of the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is applicable, in the same manner, and with the same effect, as if completed by the Division of Water or the Chief of the Division of Water.

All of the Division of Water's rules, orders, and determinations continue in effect as rules, orders, and determinations of the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is applicable, until modified or rescinded by the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable. If necessary to ensure the integrity of the numbering of the Administrative Code, the Director of the Legislative Service Commission shall renumber the Division of Water's rules to reflect their transfer to the Division of Soil and Water Resources or to the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable.

Subject to the layoff provisions of sections 124.321 to 124.382 of the Revised Code, all employees of the Division of Water are transferred to the Division of Soil and Water Resources or to the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable, and retain their positions and all benefits accruing thereto.

The Director of Budget and Management shall determine the amount of unexpended balances in the appropriation accounts that pertain to the Division of Water and shall recommend to the Controlling Board their transfer to the appropriation accounts that pertain to the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable. The Chief of the Division of Water shall provide full and timely information to the Controlling Board to facilitate the transfer.

Whenever the Division of Water or the Chief of the Division of Water is referred to in a statute, contract, or other instrument, the reference is deemed to refer to the Division of Soil and Water Resources or to the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Resources or to the Division of Parks and Recreation or to the Chief of the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is appropriate in context.

No pending action or proceeding being prosecuted or defended in court or before an agency by the Division of Water or the Chief of the Division of Water is affected by the abolishment and shall be prosecuted or defended in the name of the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Resources or of the Division of Parks and Recreation or the Chief of the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is appropriate. Upon application to the court or agency, the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Chief of the Division of Soil and Water Resources or the Division of Parks and Recreation or the Chief of the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is applicable, shall be substituted.

SECTION 515.50. On the effective date of this section, the Division of Real Estate and Land Management in the Department of Natural Resources is abolished and its functions, and its assets and liabilities, are transferred to the Director of Natural Resources, to the Division of Engineering, and to the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable, in the Department of Natural Resources. The Director of Natural Resources, the Division of Engineering, and the Division of Parks and Recreation are successors to, assume the obligations and authority of, and otherwise continue the Division of Real Estate and Land Management. No right, privilege, or remedy, and no duty, liability, or obligation, accrued under the Division of Real Estate and Land Management is impaired or lost by reason of the abolishment and shall be recognized, administered, performed, or enforced by the Director of Natural Resources, the Division of Engineering, and the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is applicable.

Business commenced but not completed by the Division of Real Estate and Land Management or by the Chief of the Division of Real Estate and Land Management shall be completed by the Director of Natural Resources, by the Division of Engineering or the Chief Engineer, or by the Division of Parks and Recreation or the Chief of the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is applicable, in the same manner, and with the same effect, as if completed by the Division of Real Estate and Land Management or the Chief of the Division of Real Estate and Land Management.

All of the Division of Real Estate and Land Management's rules, orders, and determinations continue in effect as rules, orders, and determinations of the Director of Natural Resources, the Division of Engineering, or the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is applicable, until modified or rescinded by the Director of Natural Resources, the Division of Engineering, or the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable. If necessary to ensure the integrity of the numbering of the Administrative Code, the Director of the Legislative Service Commission shall renumber the Division of Real Estate and Land Management's rules to reflect their transfer to the Director of Natural Resources, to the Division of Engineering, or to the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable.

Subject to the layoff provisions of sections 124.321 to 124.382 of the Revised Code, all employees of the Division of Real Estate and Land Management are transferred to the office of the Director of Natural Resources, the Division of Engineering, or the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable, and retain their positions and all benefits accruing thereto.

The Director of Budget and Management shall determine the amount of unexpended balances in the appropriation accounts that pertain to the Division of Real Estate and Land Management and shall recommend to the Controlling Board their transfer to the appropriation accounts that pertain to the Director of Natural Resources, the Division of Engineering, or the Division of Parks and Recreation, as applicable. The Chief of the Division of Real Estate and Land Management shall provide full and timely information to the Controlling Board to facilitate the transfer.

Whenever the Division of Real Estate and Land Management or the Chief of the Division of Real Estate and Land Management is referred to in a statute, contract, or other instrument, the reference is deemed to refer to the Director of Natural Resources, to the Division of Engineering or the Chief Engineer, or to the Division of Parks and Recreation or the Chief of the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is appropriate in context.

No pending action or proceeding being prosecuted or defended in court or before an agency by the Division of Real Estate and Land Management or the Chief of the Division of Real Estate and Land Management is affected by the abolishment and shall be prosecuted or defended in the name of the Department of Natural Resources or the Director of Natural Resources, of the Division of Engineering or the Chief Engineer, or of the Division of Parks and Recreation or the Chief of the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is appropriate. Upon application to the court or agency, the Department of Natural Resources or the Director of Natural Resources, the Division of Engineering or the Chief Engineer, or the Division of Parks and Recreation or the Chief of the Division of Parks and Recreation, whichever is applicable, shall be substituted.

SECTION 515.70. The Division of Labor and Worker Safety in the Department of Commerce and the Division of Industrial Compliance in the Department of Commerce are hereby abolished on the effective date of section 121.04 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act. The Division of Labor shall supersede the Division of Labor and Worker Safety and Division of Industrial Compliance, and the Superintendent of Labor shall supersede the Superintendent of Labor and Worker Safety and the Superintendent of Industrial Compliance. The Superintendent of Labor or Division of Labor, as applicable, shall succeed to and have and perform all the duties, powers, and obligations pertaining to the duties, powers, and obligations of the Superintendent and Division of Labor and Worker Safety and the Superintendent and Division of Industrial Compliance. For the purpose of the institution, conduct, and completion of matters relating to its succession, the Superintendent of Labor or the Division of Labor, as applicable, is deemed to be the continuation of and successor under law to the Superintendent and Division of Labor and Worker Safety or the Superintendent and Division of Industrial Compliance, as applicable. All rules, actions, determinations, commitments, resolutions, decisions, and agreements pertaining to those duties, powers, obligations, functions, and rights in force or in effect on the effective date of section 121.04 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, shall continue in force and effect subject to any further lawful action thereon by the Superintendent or Division of Labor. Wherever the Superintendent of Labor and Worker Safety, Division of Labor and Worker Safety, Superintendent of Industrial Compliance, or Division of Industrial Compliance are referred to in any provision of law, or in any agreement or document that pertains to those duties, powers, obligations, functions, and rights, the reference is to the Superintendent of Labor or Division of Labor, as appropriate.

All authorized obligations and supplements thereto of the Superintendent and Division of Labor and Worker Safety and the Superintendent and Division of Industrial Compliance pertaining to the duties, powers, and obligations transferred are binding on the Superintendent or Division of Labor, as applicable, and nothing in this act impairs the obligations or rights thereunder or under any contract. The abolition of the Division of Labor and Worker Safety and the Division of Industrial Compliance and the transfer of the duties, powers, and obligations of the Superintendent and Division of Labor and Worker Safety and the Superintendent and Division of Industrial Compliance do not affect the validity of agreements or obligations made by those superintendents or divisions pursuant to Chapters 121., 3703., 3781., 3791., 4104., 4105., and 4740. of the Revised Code or any other provisions of law.

In connection with the transfer of duties, powers, obligations, functions, and rights and abolition of the Division of Labor and Worker Safety and the Division of Industrial Compliance, all real property and interest therein, documents, books, money, papers, records, machinery, furnishings, office equipment, furniture, and all other property over which the Superintendent and Division of Labor and Worker Safety or the Superintendent and Division of Industrial Compliance has control pertaining to the duties, powers, and obligations transferred and the rights of the Superintendent and Division of Labor and Worker Safety and the Superintendent and Division of Industrial Compliance to enforce or receive any of the aforesaid is automatically transferred to the Superintendent and Division of Labor without necessity for further action on the part of the Superintendent, Division of Labor, or the Director of Commerce. Additionally, all appropriations or reappropriations made to the Superintendent and Division of Labor and Worker Safety and the Superintendent and Division of Industrial Compliance for the purposes of the performance of their duties, powers, and obligations, are transferred to the Superintendent and Division of Labor to the extent of the remaining unexpended or unencumbered balance thereof, whether allocated or unallocated, and whether obligated or unobligated.

SECTION 518.10. GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE PAYMENTS

Certain appropriations are in this act for the purpose of paying debt service and financing costs on general obligation bonds or notes of the state issued pursuant to the Ohio Constitution and acts of the General Assembly. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 518.20. LEASE PAYMENTS TO OPFC, OBA, AND TREASURER OF STATE

Certain appropriations are in this act for the purpose of making lease rental payments pursuant to leases and agreements relating to bonds or notes issued by the Ohio Building Authority or the Treasurer of State or, previously, by the Ohio Public Facilities Commission, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution and acts of the General Assembly. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 518.30. AUTHORIZATION FOR TREASURER OF STATE AND OBM TO EFFECTUATE CERTAIN DEBT SERVICE PAYMENTS
The Office of Budget and Management shall process payments from general obligation and lease rental payment appropriation items during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, relating to bonds or notes issued under Sections 2i, 2k, 2l, 2m, 2n, 2o, 2p, 2q, and 15 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and Chapters 151. and 154. of the Revised Code. Payments shall be made upon certification by the Treasurer of State, Office of the Sinking Fund, of the dates and the amounts due on those dates.

SECTION 518.40. AUTHORIZATION FOR OHIO BUILDING AUTHORITY AND OBM TO EFFECTUATE CERTAIN LEASE RENTAL PAYMENTS
The Office of Budget and Management shall process payments from lease rental payment appropriation items during the period from July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, pursuant to the lease agreements entered into relating to bonds or notes issued under Section 2i of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and Chapter 152. of the Revised Code. Payments shall be made upon certification by the Ohio Building Authority of the dates and the amounts due on those dates.

SECTION 521.10. STATE AND LOCAL REBATE AUTHORIZATION
There is hereby appropriated, from those funds designated by or pursuant to the applicable proceedings authorizing the issuance of state obligations, amounts computed at the time to represent the portion of investment income to be rebated or amounts in lieu of or in addition to any rebate amount to be paid to the federal government in order to maintain the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes of interest on those state obligations under section 148(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.
Rebate payments shall be approved and vouchered by the Office of Budget and Management.

SECTION 521.20. STATEWIDE INDIRECT COST RECOVERY
Whenever the Director of Budget and Management determines that an appropriation made to a state agency from a fund of the state is insufficient to provide for the recovery of statewide indirect costs under section 126.12 of the Revised Code, the amount required for such purpose is hereby appropriated from the available receipts of such fund.

SECTION 521.30. GRF TRANSFERS ON BEHALF OF THE STATEWIDE INDIRECT COST ALLOCATION PLAN

The total transfers made from the General Revenue Fund by the Director of Budget and Management under this section shall not exceed the amounts transferred into the General Revenue Fund under section 126.12 of the Revised Code.

The director of an agency may certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of expenses not allowed to be included in the Statewide Indirect Cost Allocation Plan under federal regulations, from any fund included in the Statewide Indirect Cost Allocation Plan, prepared as required by section 126.12 of the Revised Code.

Upon determining that no alternative source of funding is available to pay for such expenses, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer from the General Revenue Fund into the fund for which the certification is made, up to the amount of the certification. The director of the agency receiving such funds shall include, as part of the next budget submission prepared under section 126.02 of the Revised Code, a request for funding for such activities from an alternative source such that further federal disallowances would not be required.

SECTION 521.40. FISCAL YEAR 2009 GENERAL REVENUE FUND ENDING BALANCE

Notwithstanding divisions (B) and (C) of section 131.44 of the Revised Code, all fiscal year 2009 surplus revenue in excess of the amount required under division (A)(3) of section 131.44 of the Revised Code shall remain in the General Revenue Fund.

SECTION 521.50. FEDERAL GOVERNMENT INTEREST REQUIREMENTS

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, on or before the first day of September of each fiscal year, the Director of Budget and Management, in order to reduce the payment of adjustments to the federal government, as determined by the plan prepared under division (A) of section 126.12 of the Revised Code, may designate such funds as the Director considers necessary to retain their own interest earnings.

SECTION 521.60. FEDERAL CASH MANAGEMENT IMPROVEMENT ACT

Pursuant to the plan for compliance with the Federal Cash Management Improvement Act required by section 131.36 of the Revised Code, the Director of Budget and Management may cancel and re-establish all or part of encumbrances in like amounts within the funds identified by the plan. The amounts necessary to re-establish all or part of encumbrances are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 521.70. FISCAL STABILIZATION AND RECOVERY

(A) To ensure the level of accountability and transparency required by federal law, the Director of Budget and Management may issue guidelines to any agency applying for federal money made available to this state for fiscal stabilization and recovery purposes, and may prescribe the process by which agencies are to comply with any reporting requirements established by the federal government.

(B) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, federal money received by or on behalf of this state for fiscal stabilization in support of elementary, secondary, and higher education, public safety, and any other government service shall be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund. The federal money shall not be used as a match for the state's share of Medicaid.

(C) Federal money received by or on behalf of the state for fiscal stabilization and recovery purposes in fiscal years 2010 and 2011 shall not be used for purposes of the computation of debt service under division (D) of Section 17 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and division (E) of section 126.16 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 521.80. OVERSIGHT OF FEDERAL STIMULUS FUNDS

(A) The Office of Internal Auditing within the Office of Budget and Management shall, in connection with its duties under sections 126.45 to 126.48 of the Revised Code, monitor and measure the effectiveness of funds allocated to the state as part of the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. As such, the Office of Internal Auditing shall review how funds allocated to each state agency are spent. For purposes of this section, "state agency" has the same meaning as in division (A) of section 126.45 of the Revised Code.

In addition to the reports required under section 126.47 of the Revised Code, the Office of Internal Auditing shall submit a report of its findings to the President of the Senate, Minority Leader of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, and the Chairs of the committees in the Senate and House of Representatives handling finance and appropriations. The report shall be submitted every six months at the following intervals:

1. For the six-month period ending December 31, 2009, not later than February 1, 2010;
2. For the six-month period ending June 30, 2010, not later than August 1, 2010;
3. For the six-month period ending December 31, 2010, not later than February 1, 2011;
4. For the six-month period ending June 30, 2011, not later than August 1, 2011.

(B) When, as part of its compliance with the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 requirements to monitor and measure the effectiveness of funds for which the state of Ohio is the prime recipient, and for which reporting authority has not been delegated to a sub-recipient, the Office of Budget and Management submits quarterly reports to the federal government, the Office of Budget and Management shall also submit those reports to the President of the Senate, Minority Leader of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, and Chairs and ranking members of the committees in the Senate and House of Representatives handling finance and appropriations.

The Office of Budget and Management shall continue to submit quarterly reports to the legislature for the duration of the period in which the state of Ohio is required to make reports to the federal government concerning Ohio's use of the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 funds.

SECTION 521.90. FEDERAL FUNDS FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION LOAN GUARANTEE

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Approved historic rehabilitation project" means a rehabilitation of a historic building that the Director of Development has approved for a rehabilitation tax credit under section 149.311 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Federal funds" means federal money available to states under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 or any other source of federal money available to the states, that may lawfully be used for the purposes of this section.

(3) "Owner" and "qualified rehabilitation expenditures" have the same meanings as in section 149.311 of the Revised Code.

(B) There is hereby created in the state treasury the Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit Fund. The fund shall consist of money obtained by the Director of Development under division (C) of this section. Money in the fund shall be used to secure and pay guarantees of loans for approved historic rehabilitation projects as provided in this section.

(C) The Director of Development may undertake to secure $75,000,000 of federal funds for crediting to the Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit Fund. If the Director secures such funds, the Director, for the purpose of creating new jobs or preserving existing jobs and employment opportunities and improving the economic welfare of the people of this state, shall enter into loan guarantee contracts under section 166.06 of the Revised Code in connection with approved historic rehabilitation projects, except that the guarantees shall be secured solely by and be payable solely from the Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit Fund. Money deposited into the Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit Fund shall be prioritized by providing loan guarantees for approved historic rehabilitation projects from the first funding round of the Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit Program before being used to provide loan guarantees for approved historic rehabilitation projects approved in subsequent funding rounds. The amount of a loan guarantee provided under this section shall not exceed the amount of the credit to be awarded for the approved historic rehabilitation project. References to the loan guarantee fund in divisions (C) and (F) of section 166.06 of the Revised Code shall be construed as references to the Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit Fund for the purposes of loan guarantees authorized by this section, except that no transfer shall be made to the Ohio Historic Preservation Tax Credit Fund from the facilities establishment fund as may otherwise be required by that section.

(D) Nothing in this section is a determination by the General Assembly that federal funds are currently available for the purposes of this section. Rather, this section evidences a determination by the General Assembly that public purposes will be advanced by the use of current or future federal funds for the purposes of this section.

SECTION 523.10. ADVANCED ENERGY RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

(A) All items set forth in this division are hereby appropriated, for fiscal years 2011 and 2012, the biennium ending on June 30, 2012, out of any moneys in the state treasury to the credit of the Advanced Energy Research and Development Taxable Fund (Fund 7004) derived from the proceeds of obligations heretofore authorized under section 166.11 of the Revised Code:

AIR QUALITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY
C89800 Advanced Energy Research and Development Taxable $ 9,000,000
TOTAL Advanced Energy Research and Development Taxable Fund $ 9,000,000
TOTAL AIR QUALITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY $ 9,000,000

(B) All items set forth in this division are hereby appropriated, for fiscal years 2011 and 2012, the biennium ending on June 30, 2012, out of any moneys in the state treasury to the credit of the Advanced Energy Research and Development Fund (Fund 7005) derived from the proceeds of obligations heretofore authorized under section 166.11 of the Revised Code:

AIR QUALITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY
C89801 Advanced Energy Research and Development $ 19,000,000
TOTAL Advanced Energy Research and Development Fund $ 19,000,000
TOTAL AIR QUALITY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY $ 19,000,000

(C) The appropriation items C89800, Advanced Energy Research and Development Taxable, and C89801, Advanced Energy Research and Development, shall be used for advanced energy projects as provided in sections 3706.25 to 3706.30 of the Revised Code. The Executive Director of the Air Quality Development Authority may certify to the Director of Budget and Management that a need exists to fund additional advanced energy projects. If the Director of Budget and Management determines that investment earnings of the Advanced Energy Research and Development Taxable Fund (Fund 7004) and the Advanced Energy Research and Development Fund (Fund 7005) are available to fund additional projects, the Director may authorize additional expenditures from Fund 7004 or Fund 7005, subject to the approval of the Controlling Board. If approved by the Controlling Board, such amounts are hereby appropriated.

(D) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, upon the request of the Executive Director of the Air Quality Development Authority, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer cash between Funds 7004 and 7005. Any such transfers shall be requested from and approved by the Controlling Board. Amounts transferred are hereby appropriated.

(E) Expenditures from appropriations contained in this section may be accounted for as though made in the main capital appropriations act for the fiscal year 2011-2012 biennium enacted by the 128th General Assembly.
The Air Quality Development Authority shall not expend any of the appropriations made in this section until after July 1, 2010.
Section 525.10. Interim Budget Reconciliation
All amounts expended or encumbered from interim budget appropriations made in Am. Sub. H.B. 16 of the 128th General Assembly, H.B. 245 of the 128th General Assembly, or any successive act providing such interim budget appropriations shall be deducted from the appropriate line item appropriations made in this act. The Director of Budget and Management shall make any necessary adjustments to the appropriate line item appropriations to carry out this section.

Section 601.10. That Sections 205.10, 309.10, 317.10, 321.10, 325.20, and 327.10 of Am. Sub. H.B. 2 of the 128th General Assembly be amended to read as follows:

MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION

The Registrar of Motor Vehicles may deposit revenues to meet the cash needs of the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles Fund (Fund 4W40) established in section 4501.25 of the Revised Code, obtained under sections 4503.02 and 4504.02 of the Revised Code, less all other available cash. Revenue deposited pursuant to this paragraph shall support, in part, appropriations for operating expenses and defray the cost of manufacturing and distributing... license plates and license plate stickers and enforcing the law relative to the operation and registration of motor vehicles. Notwithstanding section 4501.03 of the Revised Code, the revenues shall be paid into Fund 4W40 before any revenues obtained pursuant to sections 4503.02 and 4504.02 of the Revised Code are paid into any other fund. The deposit of revenues to meet the aforementioned cash needs shall be in approximately equal amounts on a monthly basis or as otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and Management pursuant to a plan submitted by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles.

CASH TRANSFERS FROM THE STATE BUREAU OF MOTOR VEHICLES FUND
Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, on July 1, 2009, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer, from the Bureau of Motor Vehicles Fund (Fund 4W40), cash in the amounts of up to $635,293 to the Justice Program Services Fund (Fund 4P60), up to $3,284,464 to the EMA Service and Reimbursement Fund (Fund 4V30), and up to $879,060 to the Investigations Fund (Fund 5FL0).

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, the Director of Budget and Management may make additional cash transfers in fiscal years 2010 and 2011 from the Bureau of Motor Vehicles Fund (Fund 4W40) to any of the following five funds if the Director of Public Safety determines that the cash balance is insufficient in those funds and requests the Director to make the transfer: the Justice Program Services Fund (Fund 4P60), the EMA Service and Reimbursement Fund (Fund 4V30), the Investigations Fund (Fund 5FL0), the Homeland Security Fund (Fund 5DS0), and the Trauma and Emergency Medical Services Fund (Fund 83M0).

CAPITAL PROJECTS
The Registrar of Motor Vehicles may transfer cash from the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles Fund (Fund 4W40) to the State Highway Safety Fund (Fund 7036) to meet its obligations for capital projects CIR-047, Department of Public Safety Office Building and CIR-049, Warehouse Facility.

OBA BOND AUTHORITY/LEASE RENTAL PAYMENTS
The foregoing appropriation item 761401, Lease Rental Payments, shall be used for payments to the Ohio Building Authority for the period July 1, 2009, to June 30, 2011, under the primary leases and agreements for public safety related buildings financed by obligations issued under Chapter 152. of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding section 152.24 of the Revised Code, the Ohio Building Authority may, with approval of the Director of Budget and Management, lease capital facilities to the Department of Public Safety.

HILLTOP TRANSFER

The Director of Public Safety shall determine, per an agreement with the Director of Transportation, the share of each debt service payment made out of appropriation item 761401, Lease Rental Payments, that relates to the Department of Transportation's portion of the Hilltop Building Project, and shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amounts of this share. The Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the amounts of such shares from the Highway Operating Fund (Fund 7002) to the State Highway Safety Fund (Fund 7036).

CASH TRANSFERS OF SEAT BELT FINE REVENUES

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Controlling Board, upon request of the Director of Public Safety, may approve the transfer of cash between the following four funds that receive fine revenues from enforcement of the mandatory seat belt law: the Trauma and Emergency Medical Services Fund (Fund 83M0), the Elementary School Program Fund (Fund 83N0), the Trauma and Emergency Medical Services Grants Fund (Fund 83P0), and the Seat Belt Education Fund (Fund 8440).

STATE DISASTER RELIEF

The State Disaster Relief Fund (Fund 5330) may accept transfers of cash and appropriations from Controlling Board appropriation items for Ohio Emergency Management Agency disaster response costs and disaster program management costs, and may also be used for the following purposes:

(A) To accept transfers of cash and appropriations from Controlling Board appropriation items for Ohio Emergency Management Agency public assistance and mitigation program match costs to reimburse eligible local governments and private nonprofit organizations for costs related to disasters;

(B) To accept and transfer cash to reimburse the costs associated with Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC) deployments;

(C) To accept disaster related reimbursement from federal, state, and local governments. The Director of Budget and Management may transfer cash from reimbursements received by this fund to other funds of the state from which transfers were originally approved by the Controlling Board.

(D) To accept transfers of cash and appropriations from Controlling Board appropriation items to fund the State Disaster Relief Program, for disasters that have been declared by the Governor, and the State Individual Assistance Program for disasters that have been declared by the Governor and the federal Small Business Administration. The Ohio Emergency Management Agency shall publish and make available application packets outlining procedures for the State Disaster Relief Program and the State Individual Assistance Program.

JUSTICE ASSISTANCE GRANT FUND

The federal payments made to the state for the Byrne Justice Assistance Grants Program under Title II of Division A of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 shall be deposited to the credit of the Justice Assistance Grant Fund (Fund 3DE0), which is hereby created in the state treasury. All investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the fund.

JUSTICE ASSISTANCE GRANTS

The foregoing appropriation items 768612, Federal Stimulus - Justice Assistance Grants, and 768613, Federal Stimulus - Justice Programs, shall be used to support activities to prevent and control crime and to improve the criminal justice system.

FAMILY VIOLENCE PREVENTION FUND

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in each of fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the first $750,000 received to the credit of the Family Violence Prevention Fund (Fund 5BK0) in each of those fiscal years shall be appropriated to appropriation item 768689, Family Violence Shelter Programs, and the next $400,000 received to the credit of Fund 5BK0 in each of those fiscal years shall be appropriated to appropriation item 768687, Criminal Justice Services - Operating. Any moneys received to the credit of Fund 5BK0 in excess of the aforementioned appropriated amounts in each fiscal year shall, upon the approval of the Controlling Board, be used to provide grants to family violence shelters in Ohio.

SARA TITLE III HAZMAT PLANNING

The SARA Title III HAZMAT Planning Fund (Fund 6810) is entitled to receive grant funds from the Emergency Response Commission to implement the Emergency Management Agency's responsibilities under Chapter 3750. of the Revised Code.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING INCREASES

Notwithstanding division (D) of section 127.14 and division (B) of section 131.35 of the Revised Code, except for the General Revenue Fund, the Controlling Board may, upon the request of either the Director of Budget and Management, or the Department of Public Safety with the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, increase appropriations for any fund, as necessary for the Department of Public Safety, to assist in paying the costs of increases in employee compensation that have occurred pursuant to collective bargaining agreements under Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code and, for exempt employees, under section 124.152 of the Revised Code.

CASH BALANCE FUND REVIEW
Not later than the first day of April in each fiscal year of the biennium, the Director of Budget and Management shall review the cash balances for each fund, except the State Highway Safety Fund (Fund 7036) and the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles Fund (Fund 4W40), in the State Highway Safety Fund Group, and shall recommend to the Controlling Board an amount to be transferred to the credit of Fund 7036 or Fund 4W40, as appropriate.

Sec. 301.10.50. THIRD FRONTIER PROJECT

The foregoing appropriation item C23506, Third Frontier Project, shall be used to acquire, renovate, or construct facilities and purchase equipment for research programs, technology development, product development, and commercialization programs at or involving state-supported and state-assisted institutions of higher education. The funds shall be used to make grants awarded on a competitive basis, and shall be administered by the Third Frontier Commission. Expenditure of these funds shall comply with Section 2n of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and sections 151.01 and 151.04 of the Revised Code for the period beginning July 1, 2008, and ending June 30, 2010.

Of the foregoing appropriation item C23506, Third Frontier Project, a portion of the unexpended, unencumbered portion at the end of fiscal year 2008 that was allocated for the implementation of the NextGen Network, and is necessary for the continuation of the implementation of the Connect Ohio contract, shall be used for the same purpose in fiscal year 2009 and fiscal year 2010.

The Third Frontier Commission shall develop guidelines relative to the application for and selection of projects funded from appropriation item C23506, Third Frontier Project. The commission may develop these guidelines in consultation with other interested parties. The Board of Regents and all state-assisted and state-supported institutions of higher education shall take all actions necessary to implement grants awarded by the Third Frontier Commission.

The foregoing appropriation item C23506, Third Frontier Project, for which an appropriation is made from the Higher Education Improvement Fund (Fund 7034), is determined to consist of capital improvements and capital facilities for state-supported and state-assisted institutions of higher education, and is designated for the capital facilities to which proceeds of obligations in the Higher Education Improvement Fund (Fund 7034) are to be applied.

Sec. 701.20. (A) The Ohio Commission on Local Government Reform and Collaboration shall develop recommendations on ways to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of local government operations, to achieve cost savings for taxpayers, and to facilitate economic development in this state. In developing the recommendations, the commission shall consider, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Restructuring and streamlining local government offices to achieve efficiencies and cost savings for taxpayers and to facilitate local economic development;

2. Restructuring and streamlining special taxing districts and local government authorities authorized by the constitution or the laws of this state to levy a tax of any kind or to have a tax of any kind levied on its behalf, and of local government units, including schools and libraries, to reduce overhead and administrative expenses;

(3) Restructuring, streamlining, and finding ways to collaborate on the delivery of services, functions, or authorities of local government to achieve cost savings for taxpayers;

(4) Examining the relationship of services provided by the state to services provided by local government and the possible realignment of state and local services to increase efficiency and improve accountability; and

(5) Ways of reforming or restructuring constitutional, statutory, and administrative laws to facilitate collaboration for local economic development, to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of local government operations, to identify duplication of services, and to achieve costs savings for taxpayers;

(6) Making annual financial reporting across local governments consistent for ease of comparison; and

(7) Aligning regional planning units across state agencies.

(B)(1) There is hereby created the Ohio Commission on Local Government Reform and Collaboration, consisting of fifteen voting members. The President of the Senate shall appoint three members, one of whom may be a person who is recommended by the Minority Leader of the Senate. The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three members, one of whom may be a person who is recommended by the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives. The Governor shall appoint three members. One member shall be appointed by, and shall represent, each of the following organizations: the Ohio Municipal League, the Ohio Township Association, the Ohio School Boards Association, the County Commissioners' Association of Ohio, the Ohio Library Council, and the Ohio Association of Regional Councils. The initial appointments shall be made not later than ninety days after the effective date of this section. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointments. Members are not entitled to compensation for their services.

(2) The initial meeting of the commission shall be called by the Governor within forty-five days after the initial appointments to the commission are complete. The commission shall elect two of its members to serve as co-chairpersons of the commission.

(C) The commission may create an advisory council consisting of interested parties representing taxing authorities and political subdivisions that are not taxing authorities. The appointment of members to the advisory council is a matter of the commission's discretion. The commission may direct the advisory council to provide relevant information to the commission. Advisory council members are not members of the commission, and may not vote on commission business.

(D) The commission may consult with and obtain assistance from state institutions of higher education (as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code) and from business organizations for research and data gathering related to its mission. State institutions of higher education and business organizations shall cooperate with the commission.

(E) The commission shall issue a report of its findings and recommendations to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Governor not later than July 1, 2010. The commission ceases to exist upon submitting its report.

SECTION 610.31. That existing Sections 233.30.20, 233.30.50, 233.40.30, 235.10, and 701.20 of Am. Sub. H.B. 562 of the 127th General Assembly are hereby repealed.

SECTION 610.40. That Section 231.20.30 of Am. Sub. H.B. 562 of the 127th General Assembly, as amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 420 of the 127th General Assembly, be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 610.61. That Section 217.11 of Am. Sub. H.B. 562 of the 127th General Assembly, as amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 2 of the 128th General Assembly, be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 217.11. CLEAN OHIO REVITALIZATION
The Treasurer of State is hereby authorized to issue and sell, in accordance with Section 2o and 2q of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and pursuant to sections 151.01 and 151.40 of the Revised Code, original obligations in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $100,000,000 in addition to the original issuance of obligations heretofore authorized by prior acts of the General Assembly. These authorized obligations shall be issued and sold from time to time, subject to applicable constitutional and statutory limitations, as needed to ensure sufficient moneys to the credit of the Clean Ohio Revitalization Fund (Fund 7003) to pay costs of revitalization projects.

CLEAN OHIO PROJECT SAVINGS REALLOCATION
Notwithstanding division (A) of section 122.658 of the Revised Code, the Director of Development may reallocate moneys for the purposes of section 122.653 or 122.656 of the Revised Code if the Department of Development realizes Clean Ohio Fund project savings attributable to any of the following instances:

(A) The completion of any project for less than the amount of grant funds awarded, subject to the local matching funds participation requirement;

(B) The cancellation of grant awards in which Clean Ohio Fund moneys have been encumbered for a project but not disbursed, including those for which a grantee has decided not to proceed with a project or for which the project term has expired without substantial project progress; or

(C) Any recapture of Clean Ohio Fund moneys due to a grantee's default or failure to perform the conditions of the grant agreement.
SECTION 610.62. That existing Section 217.11 of Am. Sub. H.B. 562 of the 127th General Assembly, as amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 2 of the 128th General Assembly, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 620.10. That Section 831.06 of Am. Sub. H.B. 530 of the 126th General Assembly be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 831.06. The amendments by this act of the first paragraph of division (F) of section 5751.01, of division (F)(2)(w) of section 5751.01, of the first paragraph of section 5751.032, and of divisions (A)(7) and (A)(8)(c) of section 5751.032 of the Revised Code are nonsubstantive corrections of errors in Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code.

SECTION 620.11. That existing Section 831.06 of Am. Sub. H.B. 530 of the 126th General Assembly is hereby repealed.

SECTION 630.10. That Section 4 of Am. Sub. H.B. 516 of the 125th General Assembly, as most recently amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 100 of the 127th General Assembly, be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. The following agencies shall be retained pursuant to division (D) of section 101.83 of the Revised Code and shall expire on December 31, 2010:

SECTION 630.11. That existing Section 4 of Am. Sub. H.B. 516 of the 125th General Assembly, as most recently amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 100 of the 127th General Assembly, is hereby repealed.
SECTIO

640.10. That Section 153 of Am. Sub. H.B. 117 of the 121st General Assembly, as most recently amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly, be amended to read as follows:
Sec. 153. (A) Sections 5112.01, 5112.03, 5112.04, 5112.05, 5112.06, 5112.07, 5112.08, 5112.09, 5112.10, 5112.11, 5112.18, 5112.19, 5112.21, and 5112.99 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed, effective October 16, 2009 2011.
(B) Any money remaining in the Legislative Budget Services Fund on October 16, 2009 2011, the date that section 5112.19 of the Revised Code is repealed by division (A) of this section, shall be used solely for the purposes stated in then former section 5112.19 of the Revised Code. When all money in the Legislative Budget Services Fund has been spent after then former section 5112.19 of the Revised Code is repealed under division (A) of this section, the fund shall cease to exist.

SECTIO

640.11. That existing Section 153 of Am. Sub. H.B. 117 of the 121st General Assembly, as most recently amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly, is hereby repealed.

SECTIO

640.20. That Sections 120.01 and 120.02 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly be amended to read as follows:
Sec. 120.01. During the period beginning July 1, 2007, and expiring
July January 1, 2009 2010, the operation of sections 3718.02, 3718.05, 3718.06, 3718.07, 3718.08, 3718.09, 3718.10, 3718.99, and 6111.441 of the Revised Code is suspended. On July January 1, 2009 2010, sections 3718.02, 3718.05, 3718.06, 3718.07, 3718.08, 3718.09, 3718.10, 3718.99, and 6111.441 of the Revised Code, in either their present form or as they are later amended, again become operational.
Sec. 120.02. (A)(1) Effective July 2, 2007, the rules adopted by the Public Health Council under section 3718.02 of the Revised Code that took effect on January 1, 2007, are not valid. Not later than July 2, 2007, the Director of Health shall adopt rules that are identical to the rules adopted by the Public Health Council that were in effect prior to January 1, 2007, and were codified in Chapter 3701-29 of the Administrative Code, except the rules in that chapter that established requirements for separation distances from a water table and soil absorption requirements.
At the same time that the Public Health Council adopts the rules required under division (A)(2) of this section, the Director shall rescind the rules adopted under this division.

The adoption and rescission of rules under this division are not subject to section 119.03 of the Revised Code. However, the Director shall file the adoption and rescission of the rules in accordance with section 119.04 of the Revised Code. Upon that filing, the adoption and rescission of the rules take immediate effect.

(2) Not later than thirty days after the effective date of this section as enacted by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly and notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the Public Health Council shall rescind rules adopted by the Council under section 3718.02 of the Revised Code, that took effect on January 1, 2007. At the same time as those rules are rescinded, the Council shall adopt rules that are identical to the rules adopted by the Council that were in effect prior to January 1, 2007, and were codified in Chapter 3701-29 of the Administrative Code, except the rules in that Chapter that established requirements for separation distances from a water table and soil absorption requirements. Instead, a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health shall adopt standards establishing requirements for separation distances from a water table and soil absorption requirements based on the water table and soils in the applicable health district for purposes of the installation and operation of household sewage treatment systems and small flow on-site sewage treatment systems in the applicable health district.

The rescission and adoption of rules under this division are not subject to section 119.03 of the Revised Code. However, the Public Health Council shall file the rules in accordance with section 119.04 of the Revised Code.
Upon that filing, the rules take immediate effect.

(B) A local board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health may adopt standards for use in the health district that are more stringent than the rules adopted under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section, provided that the board of health or authority having the duties of a board of health in adopting such standards considers the economic impact of those standards on property owners, the state of available technology, and the nature and economics of the available alternatives. If a board of health or authority having the duties of a board of health adopts standards that are more stringent than the rules adopted under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section, the board or authority shall send a copy of the standards to the Department of Health.

(C)(1) A board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health shall approve or deny the use of household sewage treatment systems and small flow on-site sewage treatment systems in the applicable health district. In approving or denying a household sewage treatment system or a small flow on-site sewage treatment system for use in the health district, the board or authority shall consider the economic impact of the system on property owners, the state of available technology, and the nature and economics of the available alternatives, ensure that a system will not create a public health nuisance, and require a system to comply with the requirements established in divisions (C)(2) and (3) of this section.

(2) Notwithstanding any rule adopted by the Director of Health or the Public Health Council or standard adopted by a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health governing the installation and operation of sewage treatment systems, a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health shall ensure that the design and installation of a soil absorption system prevents public health nuisances. To the extent determined necessary by a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health, a sewage treatment system that is installed after the effective date of this section as enacted by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly shall not discharge to a ditch, stream, pond, lake, natural or artificial waterway, drain tile, other surface water, or the surface of the ground unless authorized by a national pollutant discharge elimination system (NPDES) permit issued under Chapter 6111. of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it. In addition, a sewage treatment system shall not discharge to an abandoned well, a drainage well, a dry well or cesspool, a sinkhole, or another connection to ground water. As a condition to the issuance of a permit to operate a system, a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health shall require a service contract for any sewage treatment system that is subject to an NPDES permit to the extent required by the Environmental Protection Agency. If classified as a class V injection well, a household sewage treatment system serving a two- or three-family dwelling or a small flow on-site sewage treatment system shall comply with 40 C.F.R. 144, as published in the July 1, 2005, Code of Federal Regulations and with the registration requirements established in rule 3745-34-13 of the Administrative Code.

(3) Notwithstanding any rule adopted by the Director of Health or the Public Health Council or standard adopted by a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health governing the installation and operation of household sewage treatment systems, all septic tanks, other disposal component tanks, dosing tanks, pump vaults, household sewage disposal system holding tanks and privy vaults, or other applicable sewage disposal system components manufactured after the effective date of this section as enacted by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly and used in this state shall be watertight and structurally sound.

(4) For purposes of division (C) of this section, "economic impact" means all of the following with respect to the approval or denial of a household sewage treatment system or small flow on-site sewage treatment system, as applicable:

(a) The cost of a proposed system;

(b) The cost of an alternative system that will not create a public health nuisance;

(c) A comparison of the costs of repairing a system as opposed to replacing the system with a new system;

(d) The value of the dwelling or facility, as applicable, that the system services as indicated in the most recent tax duplicate.

(D)(1) Notwithstanding any rule adopted by the Director of Health or the Public Health Council governing the installation and operation of household sewage treatment systems, a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health may establish and collect fees for the purposes of this section.

(2) In addition to the fees that are authorized to be established under division (D)(1) of this section, there is hereby levied an application fee of twenty-five dollars for a sewage treatment system installation permit. A board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health shall collect the fee on behalf of the Department of Health and forward the fee to the Department to be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the Sewage Treatment System Innovation Fund, which is hereby created. Not more than seventy-five per cent of the money in the Fund shall be used by the Department to administer the sewage treatment system program, and not less than twenty-five per cent of the money in the Fund shall be used to establish a grant program in cooperation with boards of health to fund the installation and evaluation of new technology pilot projects. In the selection of the pilot projects, the Director of Health shall consult with the Sewage Treatment System Technical Advisory Committee created in section 3718.03 of the Revised Code.

(E) Not later than one year after the installation of a household sewage treatment system, a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health shall inspect the system to ensure that it is not a public health nuisance.

(F) The Department of Health may file an injunctive action against a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health that allows a household sewage treatment system or small flow on-site sewage treatment system to cause a public health nuisance, provided that the Department provides reasonable notice to the board or authority and allows for the opportunity to abate the nuisance prior to the action.

(G) The Environmental Protection Agency shall not require a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health to enter into a memorandum of understanding or any other agreement with the Agency regarding the issuance of NPDES permits for off-lot sewage treatment systems. Instead, a representative of a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health may meet with a person who intends to install such a system to determine the feasibility of the system and refer the person to the Agency to secure an NPDES permit for the system if needed. The Environmental Protection Agency, within ninety days or as quickly as possible after the effective date of this section as enacted by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly, shall seek a revision to the general NPDES permit, issued pursuant to the federal Water Pollution Control Act as defined in section 6111.01 of the Revised Code, in order not to require a memorandum of understanding with a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health and that allows a property owner to seek coverage under the general NPDES permit for purposes of this division. A board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health voluntarily may enter into a memorandum of understanding with the Environmental Protection Agency to implement the general NPDES permit. In the interim, the Agency shall work with boards of health or authorities having the duties of boards of health and with property owners in order to facilitate the owners' securing an NPDES permit in counties without a memorandum of understanding.

(H) Notwithstanding any rule adopted by the Director of Health or the Public Health Council governing the installation and operation of household sewage treatment systems, a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health that, prior to the effective date of this section, has obtained authority from the Department of Health and the Environmental Protection Agency to regulate small flow on-site sewage treatment systems may continue to regulate such systems on and after the effective date of this section as enacted by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly. A board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health that has not obtained such authority may request the authority from the Department of Health and the Environmental Protection Agency in the manner provided by law.

(I) Because the rules adopted by the Public Health Council under section 3718.02 of the Revised Code that were effective on January 1, 2007, have been rescinded by operation of this section, the references to those rules in section 3718.021 of the Revised Code are not operable. Instead, notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the Director of Health or the Public Health Council, as applicable, shall provide for the implementation of section 3718.021 of the Revised Code in the rules that are required to be adopted under division (A) of this section.

(J) The Department of Health in cooperation with a board of health or the authority having the duties of a board of health shall assess the familiarity of the board's or authority's staff with the best practices in the use of sewage treatment systems and conduct appropriate training to educate the board's or authority's staff in those best practices and in the use of any new sewage treatment system technology that is recommended for use by the Sewage Treatment System Technical Advisory Committee created in section 3718.03 of the Revised Code.

(K)(1) As used in this section, "household sewage treatment system," "small flow on-site sewage treatment system," and "sewage treatment system" have the same meanings as in section 3718.01 of the Revised Code.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "household sewage treatment system" is deemed to mean "household sewage disposal system" as necessary for the operation of this section.

(3) For purposes of this section, a public health nuisance shall be deemed to exist when an inspection conducted by a board of health documents odor, color, or other visual manifestations of raw or poorly treated sewage and either of the following applies:

(a) Water samples exceed five thousand fecal coliform counts per one hundred milliliters (either MPN or MF) in two or more samples when five or fewer samples are collected or in more than twenty per cent of the samples when more than five samples are taken.

(b) Water samples exceed five hundred seventy-six E. Coli counts per one hundred milliliters in two or more samples when five or fewer samples are collected or in more than twenty per cent of the samples when more than five samples are taken.

(L) Neither the Director of Health or the Public Health Council shall adopt rules prior to July 1, 2009, that modify or change the requirements established by this section.

(M) This section expires on the effective date of the rules that are to be adopted under section 3718.02 of the Revised Code when that section becomes operational on July 1, 2010, pursuant to Section 120.01 of this act Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly.
SECTION 640.21. That existing Sections 120.01 and 120.02 of Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th General Assembly are hereby repealed.

SECTION 640.22. That sections 711.001, 711.05, 711.10, 711.131, 4736.01, 6111.04, and 6111.44 of the Revised Code be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 711.001. As used in this chapter:
(A) "Plat" means a map of a tract or parcel of land.
(B) "Subdivision" means either of the following:
(1) The division of any parcel of land shown as a unit or as contiguous units on the last preceding general tax list and duplicate of real and public utility property, into two or more parcels, sites, or lots, any one of which is less than five acres for the purpose, whether immediate or future, of transfer of ownership, provided, however, that the following are exempt:
   (a) A division or partition of land into parcels of more than five acres not involving any new streets or easements of access;
   (b) The sale or exchange of parcels between adjoining lot owners, where that sale or exchange does not create additional building sites;
   (c) If the planning authority adopts a rule in accordance with section 711.133 of the Revised Code that exempts from division (B)(1) of this section any parcel of land that is four acres or more, parcels in the size range delineated in that rule.
(2) The improvement of one or more parcels of land for residential, commercial, or industrial structures or groups of structures involving the division or allocation of land for the opening, widening, or extension of any public or private street or streets, except private streets serving industrial structures, or involving the division or allocation of land as open spaces for common use by owners, occupants, or leaseholders or as easements for the extension and maintenance of public or private sewer, water, storm drainage, or other similar facilities.
(C) "Household sewage treatment system" has the same meaning as in section 3709.091 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 711.05. (A) Upon the submission of a plat for approval, in accordance with section 711.041 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners shall certify on it the date of the submission. Within five days of submission of the plat, the board shall schedule a meeting to consider the plat and send a written notice by regular mail to the fiscal officer of the board of township trustees of the township in which the plat is located and the board of health of the health district in which the plat is located. The notice shall inform the trustees and the board of health of the submission of the plat and of the date, time, and location of any meeting at which the board of county commissioners will consider or act upon the proposed plat. The meeting shall take place within thirty days of submission of the plat, and no meeting shall be held until at least seven days have passed from the date the notice was sent by the board of county commissioners. The approval of the board required by section 711.041 of the Revised Code or the refusal to approve shall take place within thirty days from the date of submission or such further time as the applying party may agree to in writing; otherwise, the plat is deemed approved and may be recorded as if bearing such approval.

(B) The board may adopt general rules governing plats and subdivisions of land falling within its jurisdiction, to secure and provide for the coordination of the streets within the subdivision with existing streets and roads or with existing county highways, for the proper amount of open spaces for traffic, circulation, and utilities, and for the avoidance of future congestion of population detrimental to the public health, safety, or welfare, but shall not impose a greater minimum lot area than forty-eight hundred square feet. Before the board may amend or adopt rules, it shall notify all the townships in the county of the proposed amendments or rules by regular mail at least thirty days before the public meeting at which the proposed amendments or rules are to be considered.

The rules may require the board of health to review and comment on a plat before the board of county commissioners acts upon it and may also require proof of compliance with any applicable zoning resolutions, and with rules adopted under section 3718.02 of the Revised Code, as a basis for approval of a plat. Where under section 711.101 of the Revised Code the board of county commissioners has set up standards and specifications for the construction of streets, utilities, and other improvements for common use, the general rules may require the submission of appropriate plans and specifications for approval. The board shall not require the person submitting the plat to alter the plat or any part of it as a condition for approval, as long as the plat is in accordance with general rules governing plats and subdivisions of land, adopted by the board as provided in this section, in effect at the time the plat was submitted and the plat is in accordance with any standards and specifications set up under section 711.101 of the Revised Code, in effect at the time the plat was submitted.

(C) The ground of refusal to approve any plat, submitted in accordance with section 711.041 of the Revised Code, shall be stated upon the record of the board, and, within sixty days thereafter, the person submitting any plat that the board refuses to approve may file a petition in the court of common pleas of the county in which the land described in the plat is situated to review the action of the board. A board of township trustees is not entitled to appeal a decision of the board of county commissioners under this section.

Sec. 711.10. (A) Whenever a county planning commission or a regional planning commission adopts a plan for the major streets or highways of the county or region, no plat of a subdivision of land within the county or region, other than land within a municipal corporation or land within three miles of a city or one and one-half miles of a village as provided in section 711.09 of the Revised Code, shall be recorded until it is approved by the county or regional planning commission under division (C) of this section and the approval is endorsed in writing on the plat.

(B) A county or regional planning commission may require the submission of a preliminary plan for each plat sought to be recorded. If the commission requires this submission, it shall provide for a review process for the preliminary plan. Under this review process, the planning commission shall give its approval, its approval with conditions, or its disapproval of each preliminary plan. The commission's decision shall be in writing, shall be under the signature of the secretary of the commission, and shall be issued within thirty-five business days after the submission of the preliminary plan to the commission. The disapproval of a preliminary plan shall state the reasons for the disapproval. A decision of the commission under this division is preliminary to and separate from the commission's decision to approve, conditionally approve, or refuse to approve a plat under division (C) of this section.

(C) Within five calendar days after the submission of a plat for approval under this division, the county or regional planning commission shall schedule a meeting to consider the plat and send a notice by regular mail or by electronic mail to the fiscal officer of the board of township trustees of the township in which the plat is located and the board of health of the health district in which the plat is located. The notice shall inform the trustees and the board of health of the submission of the plat and of the date, time, and location of any meeting at which the county or regional planning commission will consider or act upon the plat. The meeting shall take place within thirty calendar days after submission of the plat, and no meeting shall be held until at least seven calendar days have passed from the date the planning commission sent the notice.

The approval of the county or regional planning commission, the commission's conditional approval as described in this division, or the refusal of the commission to approve shall be endorsed on the plat within thirty calendar days after the submission of the plat for approval under this division or within such further time as the applying party may agree to in writing; otherwise that plat is deemed approved, and the certificate of the commission as to the date of the submission of the plat for approval under this division and the failure to take action on it within that time shall be sufficient in lieu of the written endorsement or evidence of approval required by this division.

A county or regional planning commission may grant conditional approval under this division to a plat by requiring a person submitting the plat to alter the plat or any part of it, within a specified period after the end of the thirty calendar days, as a condition for final approval under this division. Once all the conditions have been met within the specified period, the commission shall cause its final approval under this division to be endorsed on the plat. No plat shall be recorded until it is endorsed with the commission's final or unconditional approval under this division.

The ground of refusal of approval of any plat submitted under this division, including citation of or reference to the rule violated by the plat, shall be stated upon the record of the county or regional planning commission. Within sixty calendar days after the refusal under this division, the person submitting any plat that the commission refuses to approve under this division may file a petition in the court of common pleas of the proper county, and the proceedings on the petition shall be governed by section 711.09 of the Revised Code as in the case of the refusal of a planning authority to approve a plat. A board of township trustees is not entitled to appeal a decision of the commission under this division.

A county or regional planning commission shall adopt general rules, of uniform application, governing plats and subdivisions of land falling within its jurisdiction, to secure and provide for the proper arrangement of streets or other highways in relation to existing or planned streets or highways or to the county or regional plan, for adequate and convenient open spaces for traffic, utilities, access of firefighting apparatus, recreation, light, and air, and for the avoidance of congestion of population. The rules may provide for their modification by the commission in specific cases where unusual topographical and other exceptional conditions require the modification. The rules may require the board of health to review and comment on a plat before the commission acts upon it and also may require proof of compliance with any applicable zoning resolutions, and with rules governing household sewage treatment systems rules adopted under section Before adoption of its rules or amendment of its rules, the commission shall hold a public hearing on the adoption or amendment. Notice of the public hearing shall be sent to all townships in the county or region by regular mail or electronic mail at least thirty business days before the hearing. No county or regional planning commission shall adopt any rules requiring actual construction of streets or other improvements or facilities or assurance of that construction as a condition precedent to the approval of a plat of a subdivision unless the requirements have first been adopted by the board of county commissioners after a public hearing. A copy of the rules shall be certified by the planning commission to the county recorders of the appropriate counties.

After a county or regional street or highway plan has been adopted as provided in this section, the approval of plats and subdivisions provided for in this section shall be in lieu of any approvals provided for in other sections of the Revised Code, insofar as the territory within the approving jurisdiction of the county or regional planning commission, as provided in this section, is concerned. Approval of a plat shall not be an acceptance by the public of the dedication of any street, highway, or other way or open space shown upon the plat.

No county or regional planning commission shall require a person submitting a plat to alter the plat or any part of it as long as the plat is in accordance with the general rules governing plats and subdivisions of land, adopted by the commission as provided in this section, in effect at the time the plat is submitted.

A county or regional planning commission and a city or village planning commission, or platting commissioner or legislative authority of a village, with subdivision regulation jurisdiction over unincorporated territory within the county or region may cooperate and agree by written agreement that the approval of a plat by the city or village planning commission, or platting commissioner or legislative authority of a village, as provided in section 711.09 of the Revised Code, shall be conditioned upon receiving advice from or approval by the county or regional planning commission.

(D) As used in this section, "business day" means a day of the week excluding Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday as defined in section 1.14 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 711.131. (A) Notwithstanding sections 711.001 to 711.13 of the Revised Code and except as provided in division (C) of this section, unless the rules adopted under section 711.05, 711.09, or 711.10 of the Revised Code are amended pursuant to division (B) of this section, a proposed division of a parcel of land along an existing public street, not involving the opening, widening, or extension of any street or road, and involving no more than five lots after the original tract has been completely subdivided, may be submitted to the planning authority having approving jurisdiction of plats under section 711.05, 711.09, or 711.10 of the Revised Code for approval without plat. If the authority acting through a properly designated representative finds that a proposed division is not contrary to applicable platting, subdividing, zoning, health, sanitary, or access management regulations or regulations adopted under division (B)(3) of section 307.37 of the Revised Code regarding existing surface or subsurface drainage, or rules governing household sewage treatment systems rules adopted under section 3718.02 of the Revised Code, it shall approve the proposed division within seven business days after its submission and, on presentation of a conveyance of the parcel, shall stamp the conveyance "approved by (planning authority); no plat required" and have it signed by its clerk, secretary, or other official as may be designated by it. The planning authority may require the submission of a sketch and other information that is pertinent to its determination under this division.

(B) For a period of up to two years after April 15, 2005 the effective date of this amendment, the rules adopted under section 711.05, 711.09, or 711.10 of the Revised Code may be amended within that period to authorize the planning authority involved to approve proposed divisions of parcels of land without plat under this division. If an authority so amends its rules, it may approve no more than five lots without a plat from an original tract as that original tract exists on the effective date of the amendment to the rules.
The authority shall make the findings and approve a proposed division in the time and manner specified in division (A) of this section.

(C) This section does not apply to parcels subject to section 711.133 of the Revised Code.

(D) As used in this section, "business day" means a day of the week excluding Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday as defined in section 1.14 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4736.01. As used in this chapter:

(A) "Environmental health science" means the aspect of public health science that includes, but is not limited to, the following bodies of knowledge: air quality, food quality and protection, hazardous and toxic substances, consumer product safety, housing, institutional health and safety, community noise control, radiation protection, recreational facilities, solid and liquid waste management, vector control, drinking water quality, milk sanitation, and rabies control.
(B) "Sanitarian" means a person who performs for compensation educational, investigational, technical, or administrative duties requiring specialized knowledge and skills in the field of environmental health science.

(C) "Registered sanitarian" means a person who is registered as a sanitarian in accordance with this chapter.

(D) "Sanitarian-in-training" means a person who is registered as a sanitarian-in-training in accordance with this chapter.

(E) "Practice of environmental health" means consultation, instruction, investigation, inspection, or evaluation by an employee of a city health district, a general health district, the environmental protection agency, the department of health, or the department of agriculture requiring specialized knowledge, training, and experience in the field of environmental health science, with the primary purpose of improving or conducting administration or enforcement under any of the following:

1. Chapter 911., 913., 917., 3717., 3721., 3729., or 3733. of the Revised Code;
2. Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code as it pertains to solid waste;
3. Section 955.26, 3701.344, 3707.01, or 3707.03, sections 3707.38 to 3707.99, or section 3715.21 of the Revised Code;
4. Rules adopted under section 3701.34 of the Revised Code pertaining to home sewage, rabies control, or swimming pools;

"Practice of environmental health" does not include sampling, testing, controlling of vectors, reporting of observations, or other duties that do not require application of specialized knowledge and skills in environmental health science performed under the supervision of a registered sanitarian.

The state board of sanitarian registration may further define environmental health science in relation to specific functions in the practice of environmental health through rules adopted by the board under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

Sec. 6111.04. (A) Both of the following apply except as otherwise provided in division (A) or (F) of this section:

1. No person shall cause pollution or place or cause to be placed any sewage, sludge, sludge materials, industrial waste, or other wastes in a location where they cause pollution of any waters of the state.
2. Such an action prohibited under division (A)(1) of this section is hereby declared to be a public nuisance.
Divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section do not apply if the person causing pollution or placing or causing to be placed wastes in a location in which they cause pollution of any waters of the state holds a valid, unexpired permit, or renewal of a permit, governing the causing or placement as provided in sections 6111.01 to 6111.08 of the Revised Code or if the person's application for renewal of such a permit is pending.

(B) If the director of environmental protection administers a sludge management program pursuant to division (S) of section 6111.03 of the Revised Code, both of the following apply except as otherwise provided in division (B) or (F) of this section:

(1) No person, in the course of sludge management, shall place on land located in the state or release into the air of the state any sludge or sludge materials.

(2) An action prohibited under division (B)(1) of this section is hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

Divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section do not apply if the person placing or releasing the sludge or sludge materials holds a valid, unexpired permit, or renewal of a permit, governing the placement or release as provided in sections 6111.01 to 6111.08 of the Revised Code or if the person's application for renewal of such a permit is pending.

(C) No person to whom a permit has been issued shall place or discharge, or cause to be placed or discharged, in any waters of the state any sewage, sludge, sludge materials, industrial waste, or other wastes in excess of the permissive discharges specified under an existing permit without first receiving a permit from the director to do so.

(D) No person to whom a sludge management permit has been issued shall place on the land or release into the air of the state any sludge or sludge materials in excess of the permissive amounts specified under the existing sludge management permit without first receiving a modification of the existing sludge management permit or a new sludge management permit to do so from the director.

(E) The director may require the submission of plans, specifications, and other information that the director considers relevant in connection with the issuance of permits.

(F) This section does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Waters used in washing sand, gravel, other aggregates, or mineral products when the washing and the ultimate disposal of the water used in the washing, including any sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes contained in the waters, are entirely confined to the land under the control of the person engaged in the recovery and processing of the sand, gravel, other aggregates, or mineral products and do not result in the pollution of waters of the state;

(2) Water, gas, or other material injected into a well to facilitate, or that is incidental to, the production of oil, gas, artificial brine, or water derived in association with oil or gas production and disposed of in a well, in compliance with a permit issued under Chapter 1509. of the Revised Code, or sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes injected into a well in compliance with an injection well operating permit. Division (F)(2) of this section does not authorize, without a permit, any discharge that is prohibited by, or for which a permit is required by, regulation of the United States environmental protection agency.

(3) Application of any materials to land for agricultural purposes or runoff of the materials from that application or pollution by animal waste or soil sediment, including attached substances, resulting from farming, silvicultural, or earthmoving activities regulated by Chapter 307. or 1511. of the Revised Code. Division (F)(3) of this section does not authorize, without a permit, any discharge that is prohibited by, or for which a permit is required by, the Federal Water Pollution Control Act or regulations adopted under it.

(4) The excrement of domestic and farm animals defecated on land or runoff therefrom into any waters of the state. Division (F)(4) of this section does not authorize, without a permit, any discharge that is prohibited by, or for which a permit is required by, the Federal Water Pollution Control Act or regulations adopted under it.

(5) On and after the date on which the United States environmental protection agency approves the NPDES program submitted by the director of agriculture under section 903.08 of the Revised Code, any discharge that is within the scope of the approved NPDES program submitted by the director of agriculture;

(6) The discharge of sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes into a sewerage system tributary to a treatment works. Division (F)(6) of this section does not authorize any discharge into a publicly owned treatment works in violation of a pretreatment program applicable to the publicly owned treatment works.

(7) Septic tanks or other disposal systems for the disposal or treatment of sewage from single family, two family, or three family dwellings. A household sewage treatment system or a small flow on-site sewage treatment system, as applicable, as defined in section 3718.01 of the Revised Code that is installed in compliance with the sanitary code and section 3707.01, Chapter 3718, of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it.
Division (F)(7) of this section does not authorize, without a permit, any discharge that is prohibited by, or for which a permit is required by, regulation of the United States environmental protection agency.

(8) Exceptional quality sludge generated outside of this state and contained in bags or other containers not greater than one hundred pounds in capacity. As used in division (F)(8) of this section, "exceptional quality sludge" has the same meaning as in division (Y) of section 3745.11 of the Revised Code.

(G) The holder of a permit issued under section 402 (a) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act need not obtain a permit for a discharge authorized by the permit until its expiration date. Except as otherwise provided in this division, the director of environmental protection shall administer and enforce those permits within this state and may modify their terms and conditions in accordance with division (J) of section 6111.03 of the Revised Code. On and after the date on which the United States environmental protection agency approves the NPDES program submitted by the director of agriculture under section 903.08 of the Revised Code, the director of agriculture shall administer and enforce those permits within this state that are issued for any discharge that is within the scope of the approved NPDES program submitted by the director of agriculture.

Sec. 6111.44. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, in section 6111.14 of the Revised Code, or in rules adopted under division (G) of section 6111.03 of the Revised Code, no municipal corporation, county, public institution, corporation, or officer or employee thereof or other person shall provide or install sewerage or treatment works for sewage, sludge, or sludge materials disposal or treatment or make a change in any sewerage or treatment works until the plans therefor have been submitted to and approved by the director of environmental protection. Sections 6111.44 to 6111.46 of the Revised Code apply to sewerage and treatment works of a municipal corporation or part thereof, an unincorporated community, a county sewer district, or other land outside of a municipal corporation or any publicly or privately owned building or group of buildings or place, used for the assemblage, entertainment, recreation, education, correction, hospitalization, housing, or employment of persons.

In granting an approval, the director may stipulate modifications, conditions, and rules that the public health and prevention of pollution may require. Any action taken by the director shall be a matter of public record and shall be entered in the director's journal. Each period of thirty days that a violation of this section continues, after a conviction for the violation, constitutes a separate offense.

(B) Sections 6111.45 and 6111.46 of the Revised Code and division (A) of this section do not apply to any of the following:

(1) Sewerage or treatment works for sewage installed or to be installed for the use of a private residence or dwelling;

(2) Sewerage systems, treatment works, or disposal systems for storm water from an animal feeding facility or manure, as "animal feeding facility" and "manure" are defined in section 903.01 of the Revised Code;

(3) Animal waste treatment or disposal works and related management and conservation practices that are subject to rules adopted under division (E)(2) of section 1511.02 of the Revised Code;

(4) Sewerage or treatment works for the on-lot disposal or treatment of sewage from a small flow on-site sewage treatment system, as defined in section 3718.01 of the Revised Code, if the board of health of a city or general health district has notified the director of health and the director of environmental protection under section 3718.021 of the Revised Code that the board has chosen to regulate the system, provided that the board remains in compliance with the rules adopted under division (A)(13) of section 3718.02 of the Revised Code.

The exclusions established in divisions (B)(2) and (3) of this section do not apply to the construction or installation of disposal systems, as defined in section 6111.01 of the Revised Code, that are located at an animal feeding facility and that store, treat, or discharge wastewaters that do not include storm water or manure or that discharge to a publicly owned treatment works.

SECTION 640.23. That existing sections 711.001, 711.05, 711.10, 711.131, 4736.01, 6111.04, and 6111.44 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed.

SECTION 690.10. That Section 3 of Am. Sub. H.B. 203 of the 126th General Assembly and Section 325.05 of Am. Sub. H.B. 2 of the 128th General Assembly are hereby repealed.

SECTION 701.05. (A) There is hereby created the Ohio Legislative Commission on the Education and Preservation of State History consisting of the following members:

1. Three members of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate, one of whom shall be from the minority party and be recommended by the Minority Leader of the Senate;

2. Three members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, one of whom shall be from the minority party and be recommended by the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives;

3. Three members appointed by the Governor who shall have specific knowledge regarding museum or archive management.

The Commission may appoint nonvoting members to the Commission who represent state agencies, educational institutions, or private organizations and who have expertise in museum or archive management.

(B)(1) Appointments shall be made to the Commission not later than thirty days after the effective date of this section. A member of the Senate appointed by and so designated by the President of the Senate shall be the chairperson of the Commission. A member of the House of Representatives appointed by and so designated by the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be the vice-chairperson of the Commission. The Commission shall meet as often as necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities. Members of the Commission shall serve without compensation.

(2) The Legislative Service Commission shall provide professional and technical support that is necessary for the Ohio Legislative Commission on the Education and Preservation of State History to perform its duties.

(C) The Ohio Legislative Commission on the Education and Preservation of State History shall do all of the following:

1. Review the overall delivery of services and instruction on Ohio's history by organizations that have individually received in the previous two bienniums a total of at least one million dollars in funding through legislative appropriation for their operations. The review shall include a needs assessment with regard to each organization for all of the following:

   a. Historic sites owned or managed by the organization;
   b. Archives owned or maintained by the organization;
   c. Programs offered by the organization;
   d. The governance structure of the organization;
   e. A comparison of the organization's operations with the operations of organizations that are located inside and outside the state and that have similar functions.

(2) Following the review, make recommendations on all of the following:
   (a) Improving the efficiency of the organizations;
   (b) Alternative methods for the performance or discharge of state-mandated functions and other functions by the organizations;
   (c) Best practices regarding governance structures for the organizations;
   (d) Any other recommendations that the Commission determines to be necessary.

(3) Identify alternative public and private funding sources to support the organizations.

(D) The Commission shall issue a report of its findings and recommendations to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Governor not later than July 1, 2010. Upon submission of the report, the Commission shall cease to exist.

SECTION 701.10. EXEMPT EMPLOYEE CONSENT TO CERTAIN DUTIES

(A) As used in this section, "appointing authority" has the same meaning as in section 124.01 of the Revised Code, and "exempt employee" has the same meaning as in section 124.152 of the Revised Code.

(B) Notwithstanding section 124.181 of the Revised Code, both of the following apply:
   (1) In cases where no vacancy exists, an appointing authority may, with the written consent of an exempt employee, assign duties of a higher classification to that exempt employee for a period of time not to exceed two years, and that exempt employee shall receive compensation at a rate commensurate with the duties of the higher classification.
   (2) If necessary, exempt employees who are assigned to duties within their agency to maintain operations during the Ohio Administrative Knowledge System (OAKS) implementation may agree to a temporary assignment that exceeds the two-year limit.

SECTION 701.20. FINANCIAL PLANNING AND SUPERVISION COMMISSIONS

For any Financial Planning and Supervision Commission established prior to the effective date of the amendment of section 118.05 of the Revised Code by the Main Operating Appropriations Act of the 128th General Assembly, four members constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of a majority of the members is necessary for any action taken by vote of the commission.

SECTION 701.30. SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY COLLABORATION

The Department of Development, the Board of Regents, the Air Quality Development Authority, the Department of Agriculture, and the Third Frontier Commission shall collaborate in relation to appropriation items and programs referred to as Technology-based Economic Development Programs in this section, and other technology-related appropriations and programs in the Department of Development, Air Quality Development Authority, Department of Agriculture, and the Board of Regents as these agencies may designate, to ensure implementation of a coherent state science and technology strategy.

To the extent permitted by law, the Air Quality Development Authority shall assure that coal research and development programs, proposals, and projects consider or incorporate collaborations with Third Frontier Project programs and grantees and with Technology-based Economic Development Programs and grantees.

"Technology-based Economic Development Programs" means appropriation items 195401, Thomas Edison Program; 898402, Coal Development Office; 898604, Coal Research and Development Fund; 235508, Air Force Institute of Technology; 235510, Ohio Supercomputer Center; 235535, Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center; 235556, Ohio Academic Resources Network; 195435, Biomedical Research and Technology Transfer; 195687, Third Frontier Research & Development Projects; C23506, Third Frontier Project; 195692, Research & Development Taxable Bond Projects; 195694, Jobs Fund Bioproducts; 195695, Jobs Fund Biomedical; Technology Action grants provided in 195615, Facilities Establishment; and tax credits supporting the Ohio Venture Capital Authority and Technology Investment Tax Credit programs.

Technology-based Economic Development Programs shall be managed and administered in accordance with the following objectives: (1) to build on existing competitive research strengths; (2) to encourage new and emerging discoveries and commercialization of products and ideas that will benefit the Ohio economy; and (3) to assure improved collaboration among programs administered by the Third Frontier Commission and with other state programs that are intended to improve economic growth and job creation. As directed by the Third Frontier Commission, Technology-based Economic Development Program managers shall report to the Commission or the Third Frontier Advisory Board regarding the contributions of their programs to achieving these objectives.

Each Technology-based Economic Development Program shall be reviewed annually by the Third Frontier Commission with respect to its development of complementary relationships within a combined state science and technology investment portfolio, and with respect to its overall contribution to the state's science and technology strategy, including the adoption of appropriately consistent criteria for: (1) the scientific and technical merit and relationship to Ohio's research strengths of activities supported by the program; (2) the relevance of the program's activities to commercial opportunities in the private sector; (3) the private sector's involvement in a process that continually evaluates commercial opportunities to use the work supported by the program; and (4) the ability of the program and recipients of grant funding from the program to engage in activities that are collaborative, complementary, and efficient in the expenditure of state funds. Each Technology-based Economic Development Program shall provide an annual report to the Third Frontier Commission that discusses existing, planned, or possible collaborations between programs and between recipients of grant funding related to technology, development, commercialization, and the support of Ohio's economic development. The annual review conducted by the Third Frontier Commission shall be a comprehensive review of the entire state science and technology program portfolio rather than a review of individual programs.

Applicants for Third Frontier and Technology-based Economic Development Programs funding shall identify their requirements for high-performance computing facilities and services, including both hardware and software, in all proposals. If an applicant's requirements exceed approximately $100,000 for a proposal, the Ohio Supercomputer Center shall convene a panel of experts. The panel shall review the proposal to determine whether the proposal's requirements can be met through Ohio Supercomputer Center facilities or through other means and report such information to the Third Frontier Commission.

To ensure that the state receives the maximum benefit from its investment in the Third Frontier Project and the NextGen Network, organizations receiving Third Frontier awards and Technology-based Economic Development Programs awards shall, as appropriate, be expected to have a connection to the NextGen Network that enables them and their collaborators to achieve award objectives through the NextGen Network.

SECTION 701.40. The General Assembly intends that all funds appropriated or otherwise made available by the state for fiscal stabilization or recovery purposes, or by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, shall be used, to the extent possible, in accordance with the preferences established in section 125.09 of the Revised Code to purchase products made and services performed in the United States and in this state. The General Assembly further recognizes that a preference for buying goods and materials that are produced, and services that are performed, in the United States for projects is important for maximizing the creation of American jobs and restoring economic growth and opportunity.

If any person requests or obtains a waiver of the preferences referred to in the first paragraph of this section, the Director of Administrative Services shall publish information identifying the person and the product or service with regard to which the waiver was requested or obtained. The purpose of publishing this identifying information is to enhance opportunities for producers, service providers, and workers to identify and provide products made and services performed in the United States and this state, and thereby to maximize the success of the fiscal stabilization and economic recovery program. The director shall publish the identifying information on an internet web site maintained by the Department of Administrative Services.

SECTION 701.50. (A) Each state agency shall appoint an Equal Employment Opportunity Officer who shall be responsible for monitoring the agency's compliance with sections 123.151, 123.152, and 125.081 of the Revised Code and for reporting the level of the agency's compliance to the Deputy Director of the Equal Opportunity Division of the Department of Administrative Services. The Equal Employment Opportunity Officer for each state agency shall also do all of the following:

(1) Analyze spending on goods, services, and construction projects for the officer's agency and determine any missed opportunities for the inclusion of certified minority business enterprise and EDGE business vendors;

(2) Analyze the spending of the officer's agency with EDGE business enterprise vendors, as well as EDGE business enterprise vendor availability by regions of this state, and communicate the analysis to the Department of Administrative Services so that the department may determine the appropriate EDGE business enterprise goal for each contract;

(3) Report minority business enterprise or EDGE business enterprise enrollment for all contracts issued by the officer's agency to the Deputy Director of the Equal Opportunity Division;

(4) Implement a scorecard system that tracks compliance with minority business enterprise and EDGE business enterprise program requirements for the officer's agency;

(5) Implement the outreach and training plan to ensure compliance by the officer's agency with minority business enterprise and EDGE business enterprise requirements;

(6) Attend the semiannual training conducted by the Deputy Director of the Equal Opportunity Division on minority business enterprise and EDGE business enterprise requirements; and

(7) Participate in the annual compliance review conducted by the Deputy Director of the Equal Employment Opportunity Division and implement recommendations made by the Deputy Director as a result of the review process.

The Deputy Director of the Equal Opportunity Division shall develop the scorecard system and the outreach and training plan, shall conduct semiannual training on minority business enterprise and EDGE business enterprise requirements for Equal Employment Opportunity Officers, shall conduct an annual review of each state agency’s compliance with minority business enterprise and EDGE business enterprise requirements, and shall make recommendations for improved compliance as a result of each review.

(B) Each state agency shall ensure that all contracts the agency enters into for the purchase of goods and services contain provisions that do all of the following:

(1) Prohibit contractors and subcontractors from engaging in discriminatory employment practices;

(2) Certify that contractors and subcontractors are in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws and rules that govern fair labor and employment practices; and

(3) Encourage contractors and subcontractors to purchase goods and services from certified minority business enterprise and EDGE business enterprise vendors.

(C)(1) A state agency shall not issue an EDGE business enterprise waiver without doing all of the following:

(a) Having all waivers reviewed by the agency's Procurement Officer, in collaboration with the agency's Equal Employment Opportunity Officer, who shall certify that each waiver the agency issues complies with criteria for granting the waiver;

(b) Submitting quarterly reports to the Equal Opportunity Division that lists each waiver the agency grants;
(c) Permitting the Equal Opportunity Division to complete its review of the agency's quarterly report and to conduct periodic audits of the agency's administration of the waiver process.

The Deputy Director of the Equal Opportunity Division shall review each quarterly report of EDGE business enterprise waivers and shall conduct periodic audits of each agency's administration of the waiver process.

(2) If the Deputy Director of the Equal Opportunity Division determines that a state agency has not properly administered the issuance of EDGE business enterprise waivers, subsequent waivers shall not be issued by that state agency without the authorization and approval of the Deputy Director. The Deputy Director may release a state agency from the approval process when the Deputy Director has determined that the agency has the ability to consistently administer the waiver process.

(D) On the first day of October of each year, the Deputy Director of the Equal Opportunity Division shall submit a written report to the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, and the Minority Leaders of the House of Representatives and Senate that describe the progress of state agencies in advancing the minority business enterprise and EDGE business enterprise programs, as well as any initiatives that have been implemented to increase the number of certified minority business enterprise and EDGE business enterprise vendors doing business with this state.

SECTION 701.51. (A) The Ohio Housing Finance Agency, the Third Frontier Commission, and the Clean Ohio Council shall comply with agency procurement for contracting with EDGE business enterprises established under section 123.152 of the Revised Code.

(B) To the extent that a state university as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, the Ohio Housing Finance Agency, the Third Frontier Commission, the Clean Ohio Council, or the Ohio School Facilities Commission is authorized to make purchases, it shall comply with the minority business set aside requirements in division (B) of section 125.081 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 701.52. If a state agency, including a state university as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code and the Ohio Housing Finance Agency, the Third Frontier Commission, the Clean Ohio Council, and the Ohio School Facilities Commission, has failed to comply with the set-aside requirement in division (B) of section 125.081 of the Revised Code, or to comply with the procurement goals specified under division (B)(2) or (14) of section 123.152 of the Revised Code, the state agency shall establish, not later than December 31, 2009, a long-term plan for complying with those provisions.

SECTION 701.70. The Department of Administrative Services shall conduct a pilot project involving propane-powered state vehicles. During the period commencing October 1, 2009, and ending September 30, 2010, the Department of Administrative Services shall convert or cause to be converted to a propane fuel system five per cent of the gasoline-powered passenger cars, sport utility vehicles, and light-duty pickup trucks that are owned by the state and are used by the Department of Natural Resources, five per cent of such vehicles that are used by the Department of Public Safety, and five per cent of such vehicles that are used by the Department of Transportation. During the period commencing October 1, 2010, and ending December 31, 2010, the Department shall convert or cause to be converted to a propane fuel system an additional five per cent of the gasoline-powered motor vehicles that are described in this section and are used by the Department of Natural Resources, an additional five per cent of such vehicles that are used by the Department of Public Safety, and an additional five per cent of such vehicles that are used by the Department of Transportation. Only propane fuel systems that have been approved by the United States Environmental Protection Agency shall be installed in state vehicles pursuant to this section.

During the period commencing October 1, 2009, and ending September 30, 2011, the Department shall keep detailed records of the propane-powered vehicles, including fuel mileage and maintenance costs. After September 30, 2011, the Department shall conduct a study of the pilot project to assess all aspects of the use by the state of the propane-powered vehicles during the pilot project. The study shall include all relevant findings and recommendations, if any, regarding future use of propane gas in state vehicles, and shall be compiled into a final report.

Not later than December 31, 2011, the Department shall submit copies of the final report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives.
SECTION 701.80. The Director of Budget and Management shall prepare, beginning on October 1, 2009, and on the first day of each calendar quarter thereafter, a list of all employees paid by warrant of the Director who work primarily for one state agency while being paid from appropriations made to another state agency. The Director shall provide a copy of the list to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Minority Leaders of the Senate and House of Representatives.

SECTION 701.90. (A) To facilitate the implementation of the motion picture production tax credit authorized in section 122.85 of the Revised Code, the Director of Development may develop, publish, accept, and review applications for certification of motion pictures as tax credit-eligible productions and may indicate preliminary certification before the effective date of that section. A motion picture for which the director has issued a preliminary certification becomes a motion picture certified as a tax credit-eligible production on the effective date of section 122.85 of the Revised Code.

(B) In adopting the rules required under division (K) of section 122.85 of the Revised Code, as enacted by this act, the Director of Development shall file the notice and text of the proposed rules as required by division (B) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code not later than two hundred five days after the effective date of this section.

(C) Not later than eighty days after the effective date of this section, the Director of Development shall adopt initial rules to effect the same purposes of the rules required under division (K) of section 122.85 of the Revised Code, as enacted by this act. The initial rules shall be adopted pursuant to section 111.15 of the Revised Code, but division (D) of that section does not apply to the adoption of the initial rules. The initial rules shall be effective until the final rules adopted pursuant to division (B) of this section and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code take effect.

SECTION 703.10. (A) The board of county commissioners of a county with a population of not less than 800,000 and not more than 900,000 as determined by the most recent federal decennial census shall conduct a pilot project authorizing commercial advertising on county web sites in accordance with this section.

(B) The board of county commissioners, by resolution adopted by a majority of the board's members, shall authorize commercial advertising on a county web site under this section. The resolution shall include all of the following:

1) A statement authorizing county officials to place commercial advertisements on web sites of county offices under those county officials;
2) Requirements and procedures for making requests for proposals under this section;
3) Any other requirements or limitations necessary to authorize under this section commercial advertising on county web sites.

(C) The board of county commissioners shall send a copy of the resolution to each county official. After receiving the resolution, the county official shall determine if the official intends to implement the resolution. The county official may make requests for proposals in the manner specified by the resolution for the purpose of identifying advertisers who, and whose advertisements will, meet any criteria specified in the request for proposals and any requirements and limitations specified in the resolution. The county official may enter into a contract with such an advertiser whereby the advertiser places an advertisement on the office's web site and pays a fee in consideration to the county general fund. Any contract entered into under this section shall be concluded not later than December 31, 2011.

(D) A county web site on which commercial advertising is placed under this section shall be used exclusively to provide information from a county office to the public, and shall not be used as a public forum.

(E) The pilot project conducted under this section shall conclude on December 31, 2011. Not later than 30 days after the conclusion of the pilot project, the board of county commissioners shall submit a report to the Governor, the Speaker and Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, and the President and Minority Leader of the Senate regarding the operation of the pilot project. The report shall include the board's recommendations on whether commercial advertising on county web sites should be continued and expanded to other counties.

(F) As used in this section:
1) "Advertising" means internet advertising, including banners and icons that may contain links to commercial internet web sites. "Advertising" does not include "spyware," "malware," or any viruses or programs considered to be malicious.
2) "County official" includes the county auditor, county treasurer, county engineer, county recorder, county prosecuting attorney, county sheriff, county coroner, board of county commissioners, clerk of the probate court, clerk of the juvenile court, clerk of court for all divisions of the court of common pleas, clerk of a county-operated municipal court, and clerk of a county court.

(3) "County web site" means any web site, internet page, or web page of a county office, with respective internet addresses or subdomains, that are intended to provide to the public information about services offered by the county office, including relevant forms and searchable data.

SECTION 709.10. (A) There is hereby created in the Department of Agriculture the Ohio Beekeepers Task Force consisting of the following members:

(1) Two members of the standing committee of the House of Representatives that is primarily responsible for considering agricultural matters appointed by the Governor, each from a different political party;

(2) Two members of the standing committee of the Senate that is primarily responsible for considering agricultural matters appointed by the Governor, each from a different political party;

(3) The Chief of the Division of Plant Industry in the Department of Agriculture or the Chief's designee;

(4) The Director of Natural Resources or the Director's designee;

(5) Two representatives of the Ohio State Beekeepers Association appointed by the Association;

(6) The Director of The Ohio State University Extension or the Director's designee;

(7) An apiculture specialist of The Ohio State University Extension appointed by the Director of The Ohio State University Extension;

(8) The Chair of The Ohio State University Department of Entomology or the Chair's designee;

(9) A representative of the Ohio Produce Growers and Marketing Association appointed by the Association;

(10) A representative of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation Bee and Honey Committee appointed by the Federation;

(11) A representative of the Ohio Farmers Union appointed by the Union;

(12) A representative of the County Commissioners Association of Ohio appointed by the Association.

(B) The members shall be appointed not later than sixty days after the effective date of this section. The Task Force shall hold its first meeting not later than ninety days after the effective date of this section.

(C) The Governor shall select a chairperson and vice-chairperson from among the members of the Task Force. The chairperson may appoint a secretary.

(D) The members of the Task Force shall receive no compensation for their services.

(E) Not later than ten months after the effective date of this section, the Ohio Beekeepers Task Force shall submit a report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Ohio State Beekeepers Association. The report shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide an overview of the characteristics of the honeybee crisis in Ohio;

(2) Examine and provide an overview of and conclusions regarding whether pollinator shortages are affecting crop pollination in Ohio;

(3) Review and provide an overview of the Ohio Honeybee Emergency Action Plan;

(4) Review and provide a summary of the federal initiatives regarding Ohio's bee population and of all of the Department of Agriculture's and the Ohio State Beekeepers Association's programs concerning Ohio's bee population;

(5) Provide an overview of the five-year goals of the Department of Agriculture concerning honeybees, including recommendations for the restoration of Ohio's bee population;

(6) Examine and describe the funding that is available for honeybee programs and issues affecting honeybees;

(7) Any other issues that the Task Force considers appropriate.

(F) Not later than ninety days following the submission of the report, the Task Force shall meet and respond to any question from a person who received the report. The Task Force shall cease to exist upon submitting its response to all questions from persons who received the report.

SECTION 715.10. A wild, scenic, or recreational river area that was declared as such by the Director of Natural Resources under Chapter 1517. of the Revised Code prior to the effective date of this section shall retain its declaration as a wild, scenic, or recreational river area for purposes of sections 1547.81 to 1547.87 of the Revised Code, as amended or enacted by this act. In addition, an advisory council for a wild, scenic, or recreational river area that was appointed by the Director under Chapter 1517. of the Revised Code prior to the effective date of this section shall continue to be the advisory council for the applicable wild, scenic, or recreational river area for purposes of sections 1547.81 to 1547.87 of the Revised Code, as amended or enacted by this act.
SECTION 721.10. (A) In Lorain County, all proceedings that are within the jurisdiction of the Probate Court under Chapter 2101. and other provisions of the Revised Code that are pending before a judge of the Domestic Relations Division of the Lorain County Court of Common Pleas on the effective date of this act shall remain with that judge of the Domestic Relations Division of the Lorain County Court of Common Pleas. All proceedings that are within the jurisdiction of the Domestic Relations Division of the Lorain County Court of Common Pleas under Chapter 2301. and other provisions of the Revised Code that are pending before the probate judge of the Lorain County Probate Court on September 29, 2009, shall remain with that probate judge of the Lorain County Probate Court.

(B) The successors to the judge of the Lorain County Court of Common Pleas who was elected pursuant to section 2301.02 of the Revised Code in 2008 for a term that began on February 9, 2009, shall be elected in 2014 and thereafter pursuant to section 2101.02 of the Revised Code as judges of the probate division of the Lorain County Court of Common Pleas.

SECTION 733.10. A member of the Ohio Tuition Trust Authority created in section 3334.03 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to the amendment of that section by this act continues to serve as a member of the Ohio Tuition Trust Authority Board created in that section as amended by this act until the member’s term expires as provided in that section.

SECTION 733.20. If a board of education acquired or acquires a parcel of real property between January 1, 2008, and December 31, 2010, and if the board, by vote of a majority of its members, determines that a portion of the parcel, or a portion of the improvements located on or to be constructed on the parcel, is not required for school use, the board may convey a leasehold interest in that excess property for a term not to exceed ninety-nine years, without reserving any right to cancel or terminate the lease other than breach of the lease by the lessee. The board may convey the leasehold interest as a single leasehold interest pursuant to one lease or as separate leasehold interests pursuant to two or more leases.

The board shall convey the leasehold interest at public auction or by sealed bid to the highest bidder. If the board proceeds by sealed bid, the board shall prescribe the form of the bid, and shall require that each bid contain the name of the person submitting the bid.
The board shall publish notice of the time and place of the auction or bid opening in a newspaper of general circulation in the school district or by posting notices in five of the most public places in the school district. The notice shall state that the terms and conditions of the lease are available in the office of the treasurer of the school district for review by prospective bidders. If the board proceeds by sealed bid, the notice shall include instructions for making a bid.

The board, from and after the day the notice is published, shall make all the terms and conditions of the lease available in the office of the treasurer of the school district for review by prospective bidders.

The base rent payable under the lease shall not be part of the terms and conditions of the lease. Rather, the highest bid shall establish the base rent payable under the lease. The base rent may be in addition to other payments and nonmonetary obligations of the lessee under the lease.

If the board proceeds by auction, the board shall conduct the auction at the time and place stated in the notice. If the board proceeds by sealed bid, the board shall open and tabulate bids at the time and place stated in the notice. The board may reject all bids, but only if the rejection occurs within sixty days following the auction or the opening of bids. Upon rejection of all bids, the board may again proceed by public auction or sealed bid to convey the leasehold interest in the manner prescribed by this section.

The president and treasurer of the board of education shall execute and deliver the lease agreement and any other agreements, documents, or instruments that are necessary to complete conveyance of the leasehold interest.

Section 735.10. It is the intent of the General Assembly to address political contribution issues by the end of the 128th General Assembly.

Section 737.10. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary in Chapter 3769. of the Revised Code, for a period of two years after the effective date of this section, any person holding a permit under the provisions of that chapter to conduct live horse-racing meetings at a facility owned by a political subdivision may apply for, and the State Racing Commission may grant, a permit to conduct horse-racing meetings at a location at which such meetings have not previously been conducted, if the permit application is accompanied by a resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners of the county of the proposed location, and of the local legislative authority, whether a municipal corporation or township, of the proposed location, requesting that the Commission grant the permit. The Commission may only grant such an application if the proposed location is in the same or a contiguous county and is within fifty miles of the current location associated with the permit, but is not in the same county as another location at which live horse-racing meetings are conducted.

SECTION 739.10. The Department of Insurance shall not designate any entities, which have not been designated prior to the effective date of this section, to provide investment options under alternative retirement plans established by public institutions of higher education in accordance with Chapter 3305. of the Revised Code pursuant to section 3305.03 of the Revised Code until July 1, 2010. However the Superintendent may approve additions, deletions, substitutions, or other changes to one or more of the investment options offered by an entity already designated by the Superintendent to provide investment options under alternative retirement plans prior to the effective date of this section.

SECTION 741.01. For purposes of Sections 741.01, 741.02, 741.03, 741.04, 741.05, 741.06, and 741.07 of this act:

(A) "Appropriate unit" means independent child care providers or independent home care providers, whichever is the subject of the bargaining activity.

(B) "Independent child care provider" means a child care provider categorized under the Revised Code as either a Type A licensed provider who does not meet the definition of employee under the National Labor Relations Act, or a Type B certified or licensed provider or an in-home aide who is not a county or state employee. The terms in this division have the same meanings as the terms defined in Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code.

(C)(1) "Independent home care provider" means any person who meets either of the following criteria:

(a) The person provides home services under a medicaid waiver component as described in section 5111.851 or 5111.87 of the Revised Code.

(b) The person provides home services through a state medicaid plan amendment as described in 42 U.S.C. 1396n(i).

(2) "Independent home care provider" does not include any person employed by a private agency for purposes of performing the activities described in division (C)(1) of this section.

(D) "Provider" means an independent child care provider or an independent home care provider.

(E) "Recipient" means any person receiving the services of an independent child care provider or an independent home care provider, or that person's parent or legal guardian.

(F) "Representative organization" means any employee organization as defined in division (D) of section 4117.01 of the Revised Code or any labor or bona fide organization in which providers participate and that exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with the state concerning grievances, wages, hours, terms, and other conditions of employment of providers that are within the control of the state.

SECTION 741.02. Providers may do all of the following:

(A) Form, join, assist, or participate in, or refrain from forming, joining, assisting, or participating in, except as otherwise provided in sections 741.01 to 741.06 of this act, any representative organization of their own choosing;

(B) Engage in concerted activities, other than those described in division (A) of this section, for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid and protection;

(C) Be represented by a representative organization;

(D) Bargain collectively with the state to determine wages, hours, terms, other conditions of employment that are within the control of the state, the continuation, modification, or deletion of an existing provision of a collective bargaining agreement, and enter into a collective bargaining agreement.

(E) Present grievances and have them adjusted, without the intervention of the representative organization, so long as the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of any collective bargaining agreement then in effect and the representative organization has the opportunity to be present at the adjustment.

SECTION 741.03. (A) A representative organization shall become the exclusive representative of all the providers in an appropriate unit for the purpose of collective bargaining by satisfying either of the following criteria:

(1) Being certified by an impartial election monitor as described in the governor's executive order 2008-02S for independent child care providers or the governor's executive order 2007-23S for independent home care providers.
providers;

(2) Filing a request with the state for recognition as an exclusive representative, as described in division (B) of this section, a copy of which shall be sent to the state employment relations board.

(B)(1) In the request for recognition, the representative organization shall do all of the following:
   (a) Describe the bargaining unit;
   (b) Alleging that a majority of the providers in the bargaining unit wish to be represented by the representative organization;
   (c) Support the request with substantial evidence based on, and in accordance with, rules prescribed by the state employment relations board demonstrating that a majority of the providers in the bargaining unit wish to be represented by the representative organization.

(2) Immediately upon receipt of the request described in divisions (A)(2) and (B)(1) of this section, the state shall request an election in accordance with the same requirements as provided in division (A)(2) of section 4117.07 of the Revised Code.

(C) Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the state to recognize, or the state employment relations board to certify, a representative organization as an exclusive representative if there is in effect a lawful written agreement, contract, or memorandum of understanding between the state and another representative organization that, on the effective date of this section, has been recognized by the state as the exclusive representative of the providers in an appropriate unit or that by tradition, custom, practice, election, or negotiation has been the only representative organization representing all providers in the unit. This division does not apply to any agreement that has been in effect in excess of three years. For purposes of this section, extensions of an agreement do not affect the expiration of the original agreement.

SECTION 741.04. (A) All matters pertaining to wages, hours, terms and other conditions of employment that are within the control of the state, the continuation, modification, or deletion of an existing provision of a collective bargaining agreement shall be subject to collective bargaining between the state and the exclusive representative as described in Section 741.03 of this act, except as otherwise specified in this section.

(B) This section shall not alter the unique relations between providers and recipients of care. The recipient retains the absolute right to choose providers and to control the hiring, termination, and supervision of providers.
(C) This section shall not affect the ability of the state to take appropriate action when a provider is no longer eligible to provide care under state or federal law, or any rules or regulations adopted thereunder.

SECTION 741.05. The parties to any collective bargaining agreement entered into pursuant to sections 741.01, 741.02, 741.03, and 741.04 of this act shall record that agreement in writing, which is to be executed by all of the parties to the agreement. The agreement shall contain the same provisions as described in divisions (B), (C), and (E) of section 4117.09 of the Revised Code. Such provisions shall apply to the state, its agents or representatives, any representative organization, its agents or representatives, and to providers in the same manner as the same provisions apply to public employers, public employees, and employee organizations as described in Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code.

SECTION 741.06. The state employment relations board has the same authority as described in sections 4117.12 and 4117.13 of the Revised Code to investigate, hold hearings, make determinations, and issue complaints regarding unfair labor practices, insofar as that authority does not conflict with sections 741.01, 741.02, 741.03, 741.04, 741.05, and 741.06 of this act. For purposes of this section, "unfair labor practice" has the same meaning as in section 4117.11 of the Revised Code, except any provisions applying to public employers shall apply to the state, any provisions applying to employee organizations shall apply to representative organizations, and any provisions applying to public employees shall apply to providers.

SECTION 741.07. Sections 741.01 to 741.06 of this act shall remain in effect until the end of the current governor's time in office as governor.

SECTION 741.10. PAYROLL REDUCTION STRATEGIES

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Office of Collective Bargaining of the Department of Administrative Services is authorized to negotiate with the respective state collective bargaining units various payroll reduction strategies through the collective bargaining process prior to July 1, 2009, including, but not limited to, reductions in pay for fiscal years 2010 and 2011 and an increase in each state employee's share of dental, vision, and life insurance benefits for those fiscal years. If the Office successfully negotiates or reaches alternative payroll reduction strategies through the collective bargaining process, those payroll reduction strategies shall be implemented. The total amount of state employee payroll reduction strategy savings to be negotiated or implemented for each of those fiscal years shall be between $170,000,000 and $200,000,000, unless otherwise agreed to by the Office of Collective Bargaining and the Director of Budget and Management. The Director of Budget and Management is authorized to transfer cash from non-General Revenue Fund funds to the General Revenue Fund to carry out this section.

SECTION 743.10. If a petition seeks the holding of an election on Sunday liquor sales on or after the effective date of this section under question (B)(1), (2), or (3) of section 4301.351 or 4301.354 of the Revised Code, under question (B)(2) of section 4301.355 of the Revised Code, or under section 4301.356 of the Revised Code and the petition contains signatures that were placed on it before the effective date of this section, the petition is not invalid merely because the question or questions sought to be submitted to the electors and contained in the petition state that Sunday liquor sales may commence beginning at 1 p.m. rather than 11 a.m.

SECTION 743.11. (A) Notwithstanding division (A)(3) of section 4303.182 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, the electors in a precinct in which the first hour of sale on Sunday was changed from one p.m. to eleven a.m. by operation of that division may petition to hold an election to revert that first hour of sale to one p.m. That election shall be held under the following conditions:

1. At the first general election that occurs after the effective date of this section unless that general election will be held less than one hundred thirty-five days after that date, in which case the election shall be held at the immediately following general election;

2. Under division (B)(1), (2), or (3) of section 4301.351 or 4301.354 of the Revised Code, under division (B)(2) of section 4301.355 of the Revised Code, or under section 4301.356 of the Revised Code, as applicable, except that the starting time for sales under the question shall be one p.m. rather than eleven a.m.;

3. In accordance with the applicable requirements and provisions governing elections that are held under those divisions or that section and that are established under Chapter 4301. of the Revised Code.

(B) Not later than forty-five days after the effective date of this section, the Superintendent of Liquor Control shall publish notice of the provisions of division (A) of this section in a newspaper of general circulation in each county of the state.

SECTION 745.10. For the time period beginning on the effective date of this section and ending June 30, 2010:

(A) For purposes of Chapter 4505. of the Revised Code, "manufactured housing broker" includes a manufactured home broker.

(B) Notwithstanding division (N) of section 4517.01 of the Revised Code, "salesperson" shall include any person employed by a manufactured home broker to sell, display, and offer for sale, or deal in manufactured homes or mobile homes for a commission, compensation, or other valuable consideration, but does not include any public officer performing official duties.

(C)(1) For purposes of section 4517.03 of the Revised Code, if a licensed new or used motor vehicle dealer also is a licensed manufactured home park operator, all of the following apply:

(a) An established place of business that is located in the operator's manufactured home park and that is used for selling, leasing, and renting manufactured homes and mobile homes in that manufactured home park shall be considered as used exclusively for that purpose even though rent and other activities related to the operation of the manufactured home park take place at the same location or office.

(b) The dealer's established place of business in the manufactured home park shall be staffed by someone licensed and regulated under Chapter 4517. of the Revised Code who could reasonably assist any retail customer with or without an appointment, but such established place of business shall not be required to satisfy office size, display lot size, and physical barrier requirements applicable to other used motor vehicle dealers.

(c) The manufactured and mobile homes being offered for sale, lease, or rental by the dealer may be located on individual rental lots inside the operator's manufactured home park.

(2) For purposes of section 4517.03 of the Revised Code, a place of business used for the brokering or sale of manufactured homes or mobile homes shall be considered as used exclusively for brokering, selling, displaying, offering for sale, or dealing in motor vehicles even though industrialized units, as defined by section 3781.06 of the Revised Code, are brokered, sold, displayed, offered for sale, or dealt at the same place of business.

(D) Notwithstanding division (B) of section 4517.22 of the Revised Code, contracts may be signed, deposits taken, and sales consummated at a motor vehicle show at which the motor vehicles being displayed are new manufactured homes, as defined in division (C)(4) of section 3781.06 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 745.20. Notwithstanding section 4781.16 of the Revised Code, any person licensed as a new motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, manufactured homes broker, or salesperson under Chapter 4517. of the Revised Code on June 30, 2010, may continue to engage in the business of displaying, selling at retail, or brokering manufactured homes or mobile homes under the authority of such license until the license expires or until the manufactured homes commission issues or denies the person a manufactured housing dealer's license, manufactured housing broker's license, or manufactured housing salesperson's license under Chapter 4781. of the Revised Code, whichever occurs earlier.

SECTION 745.30. Effective July 1, 2010, the manufactured homes commission may suspend or revoke any existing new motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, manufactured homes broker, or salesperson license issued to a person engaged in the business of displaying, selling at retail, or brokering manufactured homes or mobile homes, and such action may be appealed under section 4781.25 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 745.40. Effective July 1, 2010, nothing in sections 4517.01 to 4517.99 of the Revised Code shall be construed to apply to any of the following:
(A) Manufactured homes as defined in division (C)(4) of section 3781.06 of the Revised Code;
(B) Mobile homes as defined in division (O) of section 4501.01 of the Revised Code; or
(C) Dealers, brokers or salespersons of manufactured homes or mobile homes.

SECTION 745.50. The amendment of sections 4582.07, 4582.08, 4582.32, and 4582.33 of the Revised Code is intended to eliminate certain unintended effects that resulted from the enactment of those sections, in that, as enacted, those sections unintentionally burdened the process by which Ohio port authorities promote their authorized purposes, including activities that enhance, foster, aid, provide, or promote transportation, economic development, housing, recreation, education, governmental operation, culture, or research, and the creation and preservation of jobs and employment opportunities, within this state, and therefore the amendments apply to work commenced or to be commenced, as well as proceedings occurring, after the effective date of the amendments, and insofar as the provisions of the amendments are applicable to, support, or facilitate any financing proceedings that are pending, in progress, or completed on such effective date, also apply to those financing proceedings and to any securities authorized or issued pursuant to those financing proceedings, and any such financing proceedings pending, in progress, or completed and any securities authorized, sold, issued, delivered, or validated pursuant to those financing proceedings, shall be deemed to have been taken, and authorized, sold, issued, delivered, and validated in conformity herewith and with sections 4582.07, 4582.08, 4582.32, and 4582.33 of the Revised Code, if and as applicable.

SECTION 745.60. (A) Sections 1321.20, 1321.51, 1321.52, 1321.521, 1321.522, 1321.53, 1321.531, 1321.532, 1321.533, 1321.534, 1321.535, 1321.536, 1321.54, 1321.55, 1321.551, 1321.552, 1321.57, 1321.59, 1321.591, 1321.592, 1321.593, 1321.594, 1321.60, 1321.99, 1322.01, 1322.02, 1322.022, 1322.023, 1322.024, 1322.025, 1322.03, 1322.031, 1322.04, 1322.041, 1322.05, 1322.051, 1322.052, 1322.06, 1322.061, 1322.062, 1322.063, 1322.064, 1322.065, 1322.07, 1322.071, 1322.072, 1322.074, 1322.075, 1322.08, 1322.081, 1322.09, 1322.10, 1322.11, 1322.99, 1343.011, 1345.01, 1345.05, 1345.09, 1349.31, 1349.43, 1733.252, and 1733.26 of the Revised Code, as amended or enacted by this act, shall apply on and after January 1, 2010.

(B) The Division of Financial Institutions shall begin accepting applications for a mortgage loan originator license, and applications for an exemption from registration under sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 or 1322.01 to 1322.12 of the Revised Code, on the effective date of this section.

(C) Individuals holding a valid mortgage lender certificate of registration, mortgage broker certificate of registration, or loan officer license as of January 1, 2010, shall not be required to be in compliance with the sections described in division (A) of this section until the first renewal of that certificate or license after that date.
SECTION 747.10. The Governor shall appoint the members, who are general contractors who have recognized ability and experience in the construction of residential buildings and persons with recognized ability and experience in the use of advanced and renewable energy and the use of energy conservation in the construction of commercial and residential buildings, added to the Board of Building Standards by section 3781.07 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, within sixty days after the effective date of section 3781.07 of the Revised Code as amended by this act. The terms of the members who are general contractors who have recognized ability and experience in the construction of residential buildings appointed pursuant to this section shall expire on October 13, 2012. The term of the member who has recognized ability and experience in the use of advanced and renewable energy in the construction of commercial and residential buildings appointed pursuant to this section shall expire on October 13, 2011. The term of the member who has recognized ability and experience in the use of energy conservation in the construction of commercial and residential buildings appointed pursuant to this section shall expire on October 13, 2010. Upon the expiration of the appointments to the Board made by this section, all successive appointments shall be made as provided in section 3781.07 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, and all successive terms shall last for the period of time provided in that section.

SECTION 751.13. STUDY REGARDING AMOUNT, DURATION, AND SCOPE OF COMMUNITY BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES

(A) The Directors of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services, Mental Health, and Job and Family Services shall convene a group consisting of representatives of all of the following:

1. Their departments;
2. Boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services; community mental health boards; and alcohol and drug addiction services boards;
3. Providers of community behavioral health services;
4. Consumers of community behavioral health services and advocates of such consumers.

(B) Members of the group convened under this section shall serve without compensation, except to the extent that serving on the group is considered part of their regular employment duties.
The group shall develop recommendations regarding the amount, duration, and scope of publicly funded community behavioral health services that should be available through Ohio's community behavioral health system, including recommendations regarding the conditions under which the services should be available. The group shall prepare a report with its recommendations. The group shall submit the report to the Governor and, in accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, the General Assembly not later than June 30, 2011. The group shall cease to exist on submission of the report.

SECTION 751.20. SERVICE COORDINATION WORKGROUP
(A) There is hereby created the Service Coordination Workgroup. The Workgroup shall consist of a representative of each of the following:
(1) The Office of the Governor, appointed by the Governor;
(2) The Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services, appointed by the Director of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services;
(3) The Department of Education, appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction;
(4) The Department of Health, appointed by the Director of Health;
(5) The Department of Job and Family Services, appointed by the Director of Job and Family Services;
(6) The Department of Mental Health, appointed by the Director of Mental Health;
(7) The Department of Developmental Disabilities, appointed by the Director of Developmental Disabilities;
(8) The Department of Youth Services, appointed by the Director of Youth Services;
(9) The Office of Budget and Management, appointed by the Director of Budget and Management;
(10) The Family and Children First Cabinet Council, appointed by the chairperson of the Council.
(B) The representative of the Office of the Governor shall serve as chairperson of the Workgroup.
(C) Members of the Workgroup shall serve without compensation, except to the extent that serving on the Workgroup is considered part of their regular employment duties.
(D) The Workgroup shall develop procedures for coordinating services that the entities represented on the Workgroup provide to individuals under age twenty-one and the families of those individuals. In developing the procedures, the Workgroup shall focus on maximizing resources, reducing unnecessary costs, removing barriers to effective and efficient service coordination, eliminating duplicate services, prioritizing high risk populations, and any other matters the Workgroup considers relevant to service coordination. Not later than July 31, 2009, the Workgroup shall submit a report to the Governor with recommendations for implementing the procedures.

(E) The Workgroup shall cease to exist June 30, 2011.

SECTION 751.30. PROMPT PAYMENT POLICY WORKGROUP

(A) There is hereby created the Prompt Payment Policy Workgroup. The Workgroup shall consist of the following members:

1. One representative of the Office of Budget and Management, appointed by the Director of Budget and Management;
2. Three representatives of the Department of Insurance, appointed by the Superintendent of Insurance;
3. Four representatives of the Office of Ohio Health Plans in the Department of Job and Family Services, appointed by the Director of Job and Family Services;
4. Two representatives of Ohio's Medicaid managed care plans, appointed by the Executive Director of Ohio's Care Coordination Plans;
5. Two representatives from the community of provider associations, one appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and one appointed by the President of the Senate;
6. Two members of the Ohio House of Representatives, one appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and one appointed by the Minority Leader;
7. Two members of the Ohio Senate, one appointed by the President of the Senate and one appointed by the Minority Leader.

(B) The Director of the Department of Job and Family Services, or the Director's designee, shall serve as chairperson of the Workgroup.

(C) Members of the Workgroup shall serve without compensation, except to the extent that serving on the Workgroup is considered part of the members' regular employment duties.

(D) The Workgroup shall do all of the following:

1. Recommend one set of regulations to govern prompt payment policies for Medicaid managed care plans;
2. Research and analyze prompt payment policies related to aged medical claims within the health insurance industry and the Medicaid program;
3. Review general payment rules, payment policies related to electronic and paper claims, definitions of clean and unclean claims, late payment penalties, auditing requirements, and any other issues related to Medicaid prompt payment policy identified by the Workgroup;
(4) Review statistical data on the compliance rates of current policies.
(E) Not later than February 1, 2010, the Workgroup shall submit a report to the Governor and the majority and minority leadership in both Houses of the Ohio General Assembly. The report shall contain prompt payment policy recommendations for Ohio's Medicaid program.
(F) The Workgroup shall cease to exist February 28, 2010.

SECTION 751.40. The Director of Natural Resources shall enter into a memorandum of understanding with Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry. The memorandum shall prescribe a method by which, during the period from July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2011, Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry may donate venison to Ohio's food banks. The memorandum also shall prescribe methods that encourage private persons to make matching donations in money or food to Ohio's food banks that are equal or greater in value to the venison that is donated by the Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry.

SECTION 753.10. (A) The Director of Natural Resources shall enter into a memorandum of understanding with the Southeastern Ohio Port Authority to develop the future use of the property that formerly comprised the Marietta State Nursery. The memorandum shall provide for all of the following:
(1) Sale of the property for highest and best use;
(2) Sale and usage of the property that is compatible with neighboring properties;
(3) Maximum financial return for the Department of Natural Resources;
(4) Expeditious sale of parcels of the property.
(B) The memorandum shall require contracted professional engineering services to provide both of the following:
(1) A phase 1 environmental site assessment;
(2) A master plan for property development, including all of the following:
(a) An inventory of site features and assets;
(b) Collection of public input through a meeting and comment period;
(c) Identification of site usage areas such as commercial, light industrial, residential, recreational use, or green space use;
(d) Lot lines and parcel sizes in concept;
(e) Means of ingress and egress from State Route 7 and interior site access that are delineated in concept, including possible eastern access to the site with a rough calculation of cut and fill required for the construction of roads;
(f) Identification of utility services, locations, and capacities;
(g) Plans for compliance with subdivision regulations;
(h) Recommendations for possible deed restrictions;
(i) An evaluation of permits that must be obtained and other regulatory requirements that must be satisfied for purposes of the development of the property;
(j) Any necessary maps.

(C) The memorandum shall require the Southeastern Ohio Port Authority to do all of the following:
1. Manage the formulation of the master plan;
2. Create a master plan brochure and sales brochures;
3. Market the property by mail, signage, and the web sites www.pioneerspirit.us and www.Ohiosites.com;
4. Respond to sales leads;
5. Screen inquiries regarding the property;
6. Negotiate sales based on pricing guidelines established by the Department of Natural Resources;
7. Present qualified purchase offers to the Department.

(D) The memorandum shall specify that the Department of Natural Resources owns the property, that it may sell the property in lots to the Port Authority, and that the Port Authority then may sell the lots to individual private buyers.

(E) The memorandum shall specify that the Department of Natural Resources is responsible for paying for the environmental, engineering, graphic design, signage, and printing costs as invoices for those costs are received. The Department and the Port Authority shall agree to a cap for each of those invoices. In addition, the memorandum shall specify that as parcels of the property are transferred to private buyers, the Port Authority retains five per cent of the sale price of each parcel as a fee for services provided by the Port Authority.

SECTION 753.40. (A) The Governor is hereby authorized to execute a deed in the name of the state conveying to Fairfield Village Realty, LLC, ("grantee"), an Ohio limited liability company, and its successors and assigns, all of the state's right, title, and interest in the following described

WOOLPERT, INC., Paul W. Feie, Ohio Registered Surveyor No. 6723
This legal description may be modified to a final form if modifications are needed to meet recordation standards in Butler County, Ohio.

(B)(1) Consideration for conveyance of the real estate described in division (A) of this section is $450,000. The consideration shall be paid by the grantee to the state at the closing according to an executed offer to purchase real estate agreement reached between the state, through the Department of Administrative Services, and the grantee.

(2) As additional consideration for conveyance of the real estate described in division (A) of this section, grantee and Empowering People, Inc., ("EPI"), an Ohio corporation and the licensed operator of the facility on the real estate, have executed and delivered to the Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities (now the Department of Developmental Disabilities), a "Cognovit Promissory Purchase Note," dated June 30, 2008, for $5,000,000. The grantee and EPI shall be entitled to credits against the "Cognovit Promissory Purchase Note" for certain completed improvements and development obligations defined as the "Improvement Plan" in the "Definitive Agreement" dated June 30, 2008, and signed by the grantee and EPI. The balance of the "Cognovit Promissory Purchase Note" shall be forgiven if the grantee and EPI complete all development obligations set forth in the "Definitive Agreement," the "Improvement Plan," and the "Cognovit Promissory Purchase Note."

(C) The real estate described in division (A) of this section shall be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels through a Governor's Deed. Any personal property or chattels located on the real estate shall be transferred to the grantee through a bill of sale.

(D) The Governor's Deed shall contain deed restrictions that prohibit, within five years from the date of closing, the grantee from transferring the real estate described in division (A) of this section to a third party or assigning its interest in the real estate to a third party without the prior written approval of the Department of Developmental Disabilities. Prior written approval shall not be required if the transfer or assignment is due to the death or disability of the grantee's owner. If a transfer or assignment of the real estate involves the termination or reduction in the level of services provided to individuals with mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the Department shall not approve the transfer or assignment unless the termination or reduction is otherwise required by law, including a judicial proceeding that is not caused by any act or omission of the grantee.

(E) Before the execution of the Governor's Deed as described in division (F) of this section, possession of the real estate described in division (A) of this section shall be governed by an existing interim lease between the Department of Administrative Services and the grantee, an operating license between the Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities and EPI, and the "Definitive Agreement" between the grantee, EPI, and the Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities.

(F) The Auditor of State, with the assistance of the Attorney General, shall prepare a Governor's Deed to the real estate described in division (A) of this section. The Governor's Deed shall state the consideration and the deed restrictions contained in division (D) of this section. The deed shall be executed by the Governor in the name of the State, countersigned by the Secretary of State, sealed with the Great Seal of the State, presented in the Office of the Auditor of State for recording, and delivered to the grantee. The grantee shall present the Governor's Deed for recording in the Office of the Butler County Recorder.

(G) The grantee shall pay the costs of the conveyance of the real estate described in division (A) of this section, including recordation costs of the Governor's Deed.

(H) This section expires two years after its effective date.

(B)(1) Consideration for conveyance of the real estate described in division (A) of this section is the transfer to the state at no cost of 8.9874 acres adjacent to the remaining Twin Valley Behavioral Healthcare/Dayton Campus, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Within one hundred eighty days after conveyance of the real estate described in division (A) of this section, grantee at its own cost shall complete construction of a new western extension off of Mapleview Avenue to provide a new entrance roadway to the remaining Twin Valley Behavioral Healthcare/Dayton Campus and provide an easement to the state for full utilization of the roadway for the benefit of the remaining Twin Valley Behavioral Healthcare/Dayton Campus until the property described in division (B)(1) of this section is transferred to the state.

(b) Within three hundred forty days after the occupancy of the New Belmont High School, grantee shall demolish and environmentally restore the 8.9874 acres being transferred to the state.

(2) In lieu of the transfer of the 8.9874 acres, if the Director of Mental Health determines that the grantee has insufficiently performed its construction, demolition, and environmental restoration obligations specified in division (B)(1) of this section, the grantee, as consideration, shall pay a purchase price of $1,175,000.00 to the state, which is the appraised value of the 45.3599 acres described in division (A) of the section less the cost of demolition, site, and utility work.

(C) The real estate described in division (A) of this section shall be conveyed as an entire tract and not in parcels.

(D) Upon transfer of the 8.9874 acres to the state or payment of the purchase price, the Auditor of State, with the assistance of the Attorney General, shall prepare a deed to the real estate described in division (A) of this section. The deed shall state the consideration and shall be executed by the Governor in the name of the state, countersigned by the Secretary of State, sealed with the Great Seal of the State, presented in the Office of the Auditor of State for recording, and delivered to the grantee. The grantee shall present the deed for recording in the Office of the Montgomery County Recorder.

(E) The grantee shall pay all costs associated with conveyance of the real estate described in division (A) of this section, including recordation costs of the deed.

(F) If the payment of $1,175,000.00 is made in lieu of the transfer of the 8.9874 acres to the state, the proceeds of the conveyance of the real estate described in division (A) of this section shall be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the Department of Mental Health Trust Fund created by section 5119.18 of the Revised Code and the easement described in division (B)(1)(a) of this section shall become a permanent easement.

(G) The grantee shall not, during any period that any bonds issued by the state to finance or refinance all or a portion of the real estate described in division (A) of this section are outstanding, use any portion of the real estate for a private business use without the prior written consent of the state.

As used in this division:

"Private business use" means use, directly or indirectly, in a trade or business carried on by any private person other than use as a member of, and on the same basis as, the general public. Any activity carried on by a private person who is not a natural person shall be presumed to be a trade or business.

"Private person" means any natural person or any artificial person, including a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust, or other entity and including the United States or any agency or instrumentality of the United States, but excluding any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision thereof that is referred to as a "State or local governmental unit" in Treasury Regulation § 1.103-1(a) and any person that is acting solely and directly as an officer or employee of or on behalf of any such governmental unit.

(H) This section expires two years after its effective date.

The real estate described in this section shall be sold as an entire tract and not in parcels.
Upon payment of the purchase price, the Auditor of State, with the assistance of the Attorney General, shall prepare a Governor's Deed to the real estate described in this section. The Governor's Deed shall state the consideration and the condition. The deed shall be executed by the Governor in the name of the State, countersigned by the Secretary of State, sealed with the Great Seal of the State, presented in the Office of the Auditor of State for recording, and delivered to the grantee. The grantee shall present the deed for recording in the Office of the Hamilton County Recorder.
The grantee shall pay all costs associated with the purchase and conveyance of the real estate described in this section, including deed recordation costs.
The net proceeds of the sale of the real estate described in this section shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Department of Mental Health Trust Fund under section 5119.18 of the Revised Code.
This section expires two years after its effective date.
SECTION 757.10. (A) This section is intended as remedial legislation authorizing the exemption of airport property for which a port authority applied for tax exemption, but was denied because the applicant was a lessee and not the owner of the property, as required under section 5715.27 of the Revised Code as that section existed before its amendment by Sub. H.B. 160 of the 127th General Assembly.

(B) As used in this section:

(1) "Eligible year" means any year for which taxes, penalties, and interest could have been remitted or abated, and the property placed on the exempt tax list, under a previous application for exemption if the application had not been dismissed as provided under division (A) of this section.

(2) "Qualified property" means real property owned by a subdivision of this state, leased to a port authority created under Chapter 4582. of the Revised Code, and used as an airport, and that currently qualifies for exemption from taxation under any section of the Revised Code, but for which the application for exemption for an eligible year was dismissed by the Tax Commissioner as provided in division (A) of this section.

(3) "Subdivision," "taxing authority," and "taxing unit" have the same meanings as in section 5705.01 of the Revised Code.

(C) Notwithstanding section 5713.081 of the Revised Code, if an application for exemption from and abatement or remission of property taxes for qualified property was dismissed because of failure to comply with Chapter 5713., or section 5715.27 of the Revised Code as that section existed before its amendment by Sub. H.B. 160 of the 127th General Assembly, the current owner of qualified property, on or before January 1, 2010, may file with the Tax Commissioner an application requesting that the property be placed on the exempt tax list and that all paid or unpaid taxes, penalties, and interest on the property be abated or remitted, as appropriate, for each eligible year. The application shall be filed on the form prescribed by the Commissioner under section 5715.27 of the Revised Code. The owner shall include with the application a copy of the Commissioner's final determination dismissing the previous application and the certificate issued by the county treasurer under division (F) of this section. Failure to include the Commissioner's final determination that dismissed the previous application for exemption or the treasurer's certificate shall result in dismissal of the application filed under this section.

(D) Upon receiving an application under this section, the Tax Commissioner shall determine if the applicant and the applicant's property satisfy the requirements for exemption, abatement, and remission under this section. If the requirements are satisfied, the Commissioner shall issue an order directing the auditor to place the property on the exempt tax list of the county and ordering that all paid or unpaid taxes, penalties, and interest be abated or remitted for every eligible year the property was qualified property. If the Commissioner determines that the property does not satisfy the requirements for exemption for one or more years, the Commissioner shall deny the application for those years and certify the finding to the county treasurer of the county in which the property is located for collection of all taxes, penalties, and interest and distribution thereof to the appropriate subdivisions. Tax payments for eligible years shall not be considered unpaid taxes for purposes of establishing jurisdiction to consider an application under this section.

(E) The county auditor shall notify the county treasurer that any tax payments for eligible years that have not been distributed shall be held in a special fund pending a decision by the Tax Commissioner on an application filed under this section. No subdivision or other taxing unit is entitled to advance payment of such amounts under section 321.34 of the Revised Code. After the Commissioner issues a decision, the county auditor shall either remit the taxes, penalties, and interest to the applicant if the application is approved or distribute the taxes, penalties, and interest to the proper taxing authorities if the application for exemption is denied.

(F) Upon request by the applicant, the county treasurer shall determine whether all taxes, penalties, and interest that were levied for all tax years that are not eligible years and whether all special assessments charged against the property have been paid in full. If so, the treasurer shall issue a certificate to the applicant stating that all such amounts have been paid, or, if not, the certificate shall list the tax years for which such taxes, penalties, interest, and special assessments remain unpaid.

SECTION 759.10. Notwithstanding division (B)(1) of section 5919.34 of the Revised Code, the number of participants in the Ohio National Guard Scholarship Program for the summer term occurring in the year 2009 shall be limited to the equivalent of one thousand two hundred full-time participants.

SECTION 803.10. Section 1751.14 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, shall apply only to policies, contracts, and agreements that are delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 2010; section 3923.24 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, shall apply only to policies of sickness and accident insurance and plans of health coverage that are established or modified in this state on or after July 1, 2010; and section 3923.241, as enacted by this act, shall apply only to public employee health plans established or modified in this state on or after July 1, 2010.

SECTION 803.20. Sections 718.04 and 5747.01 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, first apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2010.

The amendment by this act of sections 5733.47 and 5747.76 of the Revised Code applies to credits claimed with respect to certificates issued in taxable years ending on or after the effective date of this amendment.

SECTION 803.30. In anticipation of the amendments to section 124.134 of the Revised Code taking effect on August 30, 2009, the Director of Administrative Services shall determine an additional, prorated amount of vacation leave for employees who are in their fourth, ninth, fourteenth, nineteenth, or twenty-fourth year of service to receive as a result of the transition occurring on that date. The additional, prorated amount shall be such that the affected employees are not harmed as a result of the transition, and shall be added to the vacation leave balances of the affected employees on August 30, 2009.

SECTION 803.50. The amendment by this act of section 5727.811 of the Revised Code applies to the measurement period that includes the effective date of that section and ensuing measurement periods.

SECTION 803.60. The amendment of section 105.41 of the Revised Code by this act does not abrogate any collective bargaining agreement, for the duration of the agreement, that applies to employees of the Capitol Square Review and Advisory Board and that was entered into under Chapter 4117 of the Revised Code before the effective date of that amendment.
SECTION 803.70. The amendment by this act of division (B) of section 5751.02 of the Revised Code is to clarify the General Assembly's intent of that section when it was enacted by Am. Sub. H.B. 66 of the 126th General Assembly.

SECTION 806.10. The items of law contained in this act, and their applications, are severable. If any item of law contained in this act, or if any application of any item of law contained in this act, is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other items of law contained in this act and their applications that can be given effect without the invalid item of law or application.

SECTION 809.10. An item of law, other than an amending, enacting, or repealing clause, that composes the whole or part of an uncodified section contained in this act has no effect after June 30, 2011, unless its context clearly indicates otherwise.

SECTION 812.10. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the amendment, enactment, or repeal by this act of a section is subject to the referendum under Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 1c and therefore takes effect on the ninety-first day after this act is filed with the Secretary of State or, if a later effective date is specified below, on that date.

The amendments by this act to section 3901.381 of the Revised Code take effect twelve months after the effective date specified in the first paragraph of this section.

The amendments by this act to sections 3733.02 and 4781.06 of the Revised Code take effect January 1, 2010.

The amendment, enactment, or repeal by this act of sections 4505.20, 4517.01, 4517.02, 4517.03, 4517.052, 4517.27, 4517.30, 4517.33, 4517.43, 4781.02, 4781.04, 4781.05, 4781.16, 4781.17, 4781.18, 4781.19, 4781.20, 4781.21, 4781.22, 4781.23, 4781.24, 4781.25, 4781.99 of the Revised Code takes effect July 1, 2010.

The amendment of sections 1739.05, 1751.14, 3923.24, 3923.241, 5743.15, 5743.61, and 5747.01 of the Revised Code takes effect January 1, 2010.

The enactment of section 3903.77 of the Revised Code takes effect one year after the effective date specified in the first paragraph of this section.

Sections 803.10 and 803.20 of this act take effect January 1, 2010.

The amendments by this act to sections 3319.391 and 3327.10 of the Revised Code take effect January 1, 2010.

SECTION 812.20. The amendment, enactment, or repeal by this act of the sections listed below is exempt from the referendum because it is or relates to an appropriation for current expenses within the meaning of Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 1d and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, or defines a tax levy within the meaning of Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 1d, and therefore takes effect immediately when this act becomes law or, if a later effective date is specified below, on that date.

Sections 103.24, 121.40, 121.401, 121.402, 122.011, 124.03, 124.152, 124.181, 124.183, 124.27, 124.34, 124.381, 124.382, 124.385, 124.386, 124.392, 124.393, 124.821, 124.822, 124.86, 126.05, 131.33, 133.02, 133.022, 145.298, 152.12, 166.02, 166.08, 166.11, 166.25, 166.28, 173.70, 173.71, 173.72, 173.721, 173.722, 173.723, 173.724, 173.725, 173.73, 173.731, 173.732, 173.74, 173.741, 173.742, 173.75, 173.751, 173.752, 173.753, 173.76, 173.77, 173.771, 173.772, 173.773, 173.78, 173.79, 173.791, 173.80, 173.801, 173.802, 173.803, 173.81, 173.811, 173.812, 173.813, 173.814, 173.815, 173.82, 173.83, 173.831, 173.832, 173.833, 173.84, 173.85, 173.86, 173.861, 173.87, 173.871, 173.872, 173.873, 173.874, 173.875, 173.876, 173.88, 173.89, 173.891, 173.892, 173.90, 173.91, 173.99, 303.213, 307.79, 319.301, 319.302, 319.54, 321.24, 323.156, 504.21, 505.82, 901.20, 901.43, 901.91, 903.082, 903.11, 903.25, 905.32, 905.33, 905.331, 905.36, 905.38, 905.381, 905.50, 905.51, 905.52, 905.56, 905.66, 907.13, 907.14, 907.16, 907.30, 907.31, 921.02, 921.06, 921.09, 921.11, 921.13, 921.16, 921.22, 921.27, 921.29, 923.44, 923.46, 927.51, 927.52, 927.53, 927.54, 927.56, 927.69, 927.70, 927.701, 927.71, 927.74, 927.75, 942.01, 942.02, 942.06, 942.13, 943.01, 943.02, 943.031, 943.04, 943.05, 943.06, 943.07, 943.13, 943.14, 943.16, 953.21, 953.22, 953.23, 1501.01, 1501.05, 1501.07, 1501.30, 1504.01, 1504.02, 1504.03, 1504.04, 1506.01, 1507.01, 1511.01, 1511.02, 1511.021, 1511.022, 1511.03, 1511.04, 1511.05, 1511.06, 1511.07, 1511.071, 1511.08, 1514.08, 1514.10, 1514.13, 1515.08, 1515.183, 1517.10, 1517.11, 1517.14 (1547.81), 1517.15, 1517.16 (1547.82), 1517.17 (1547.83), 1517.18 (1547.84), 1519.03, 1520.02, 1520.03, 1521.02, 1521.03, 1521.031, 1521.04, 1521.06, 1521.061, 1521.062, 1521.064, 1521.07, 1521.10, 1521.11, 1521.12, 1521.13, 1521.14, 1521.15, 1521.16, 1521.18, 1521.19, 1523.01, 1523.02, 1523.03, 1523.04,
The amendment by this act of sections 711.001, 711.05, 711.10, 711.131, 4736.01, 6111.04, and 6111.044 of the Revised Code as amended by Sections 101.01 and 101.02 takes effect immediately when this act becomes law.

The repeal and reenactment of section 5112.371 of the Revised Code.

The amendment by this act to division (A) of section 124.134 of the Revised Code.
Revised Code takes effect on August 30, 2009, and the remainder of that section takes effect immediately when this act becomes law.

The amendment, enactment, or repeal of sections 122.85, 3721.02, 3721.50, 3721.51, 3721.511, 3721.512, 3721.513, 3721.53, 3721.55, 3721.56, 4301.43, 4503.182, 4507.23, 5111.20, 5111.231, 5111.24, 5111.243, 5111.25, 5111.262, and 5111.263 of the Revised Code takes effect July 1, 2009.

Section 812.50. (A) The amendments by this act to sections 109.57, 109.572, and 3319.291 of the Revised Code are subject to the referendum. Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, the amendments take effect on the ninety-first day after this act is filed with the Secretary of State.

(B) The following amendments take effect January 1, 2010:

(1) The amendment creating division (F)(2)(c) of section 109.57 of the Revised Code and the amendment to division (F)(4) of that section;

(2) The amendment to division (B)(2) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code;

(3) All of the amendments to section 3319.291 of the Revised Code except the amendments to divisions (A)(3) and (4) of that section.

Section 815.10. The General Assembly, applying the principle stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments are to be harmonized if reasonably capable of simultaneous operation, finds that the following sections, presented in this act as composites of the sections as amended by the acts indicated, are the resulting versions of the sections in effect prior to the effective date of the sections as presented in this act:

Section 121.37 of the Revised Code as amended by both Sub. H.B. 289 and Am. Sub. H.B. 530 of the 126th General Assembly.
Section 122.075 of the Revised Code as amended by Sub. H.B. 245 and Sub. H.B. 251, both of the 126th General Assembly.
Section 149.43 of the Revised Code as amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 214 and Am. Sub. S.B. 248, both of the 127th General Assembly.
Section 1511.01 of the Revised Code as amended by Am. Sub. S.B. 73 and Am. Sub. S.B. 182, both of the 120th General Assembly.
Section 1520.02 of the Revised Code as amended by Sub. H.B. 443 and Am. Sub. H.B. 699, both of the 126th General Assembly.
Section 2921.51 of the Revised Code as amended by Sub. H.B. 259 and Sub. S.B. 281, both of the 126th General Assembly.
Section 2923.16 of the Revised Code as amended by Sub. S.B. 184 and Sub. S.B. 209, both of the 127th General Assembly.
Section 3313.64 of the Revised Code as amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 and Am. Sub. H.B. 214, both of the 127th General Assembly.
Section 3733.02 of the Revised Code as amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 368 and Sub. S.B. 102, both of the 125th General Assembly.
Section 4169.02 of the Revised Code as amended by both Am. Sub. S.B. 293 and Sub. H.B. 535 of the 121st General Assembly.
Section 4169.04 of the Revised Code as amended by both Am. Sub. S.B. 293 and Sub. H.B. 535 of the 121st General Assembly.
Section 4507.03 of the Revised Code as amended by Sub. S.B. 96 of the 120th General Assembly and Sub. H.B. 9 of the 127th General Assembly.
Section 4763.05 of the Revised Code as amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 699 and Am. Sub. S.B. 223, both of the 126th General Assembly.
Section 4767.08 of the Revised Code as amended by Am. Sub. H.B. 138 and Sub. H.B. 531, both of the 123rd General Assembly.

SECTION 815.20. The amendment of sections 5112.03 and 5112.08 of the Revised Code is not intended to supersede the earlier repeal, with delayed effective date, of that section.
