To amend sections 959.99, 2152.19, 2903.213, 1 2903.214, 2919.26, 3113.31, 4732.141, and 4757.33 2 and to enact section 4731.284 of the Revised Code 3 to revise the penalties and sentencing provisions 4 regarding violations of the cruelty to animals 5 statutes and to include the protection of 6 companion animals in temporary protection orders, 7 domestic violence protection orders, anti-stalking 8 protection orders, and related protection orders. 9

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 959.99, 2152.19, 2903.213, 2903.214, 10
2919.26, 3113.31, 4732.141, and 4757.33 be amended and section 11
4731.284 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 12

Sec. 959.99. (A) Whoever violates section 959.18 or 959.19 of 13
the Revised Code is guilty of a minor misdemeanor. 14

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this division, whoever 15 violates section 959.02 of the Revised Code is guilty of a 16 misdemeanor of the second degree. If the value of the animal 17 killed or the injury done amounts to three hundred dollars or 18 more, whoever violates section 959.02 of the Revised Code is 19 guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree. 20

(C) Whoever violates section 959.03, 959.06, 959.12, 959.15, 21 or 959.17 of the Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the 22 fourth degree. 23

(D) Whoever violates division (A) of section 959.13 of the 24 Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree on a 25 first offense and a misdemeanor of the first degree on each 26 subsequent offense. In addition, the court may order the offender 27 to forfeit the animal or livestock and may provide for its 28 disposition, including, but not limited to, the sale of the animal 29 or livestock. If an animal or livestock is forfeited and sold 30 pursuant to this division, the proceeds from the sale first shall 31 be applied to pay the expenses incurred with regard to the care of 32 the animal from the time it was taken from the custody of the 33 former owner. The balance of the proceeds from the sale, if any, 34 shall be paid to the former owner of the animal. 35

(E)(1)(a) Whoever violates division (B) of section 959.131 of 36
the Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree on 37 a first offense and a felony of the fifth degree on each 38 subsequent offense. In addition to any other sanction imposed for 39 a felony violation of division (B) of section 959.131 of the 40 Revised Code if the offender is not already undergoing counseling 41 pursuant to division (E)(4) of this section, a court shall impose 42 a term of basic probation supervision or a term of intensive 43 probation supervision. 44

(b) As used in division (E)(1)(a) of this section, "basic 45 probation supervision" and "intensive probation supervision" have 46 the same meanings as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code. 47

(2) Whoever violates section 959.01 of the Revised Code or 48 division (C) of section 959.131 of the Revised Code is guilty of a 49 misdemeanor of the second degree on a first offense and a 50 misdemeanor of the first degree on each subsequent offense. 51

(3)(a) A court may order a person who is convicted of or 52 pleads guilty to a violation of section 959.131 of the Revised 53
Code to forfeit to an impounding agency, as defined in section 54 959.132 of the Revised Code, any or all of the companion animals 55 in that person's ownership or care. The court also may prohibit or 56 place limitations on the person's ability to own or care for any 57 companion animals for a specified or indefinite period of time. 58

(b) A court may order a person who is convicted of or pleads 59 guilty to a violation of section 959.131 of the Revised Code to 60 reimburse an impounding agency for the reasonably necessary costs 61 incurred by the agency for the care of a companion animal that the 62 agency impounded as a result of the investigation or prosecution 63 of the violation, provided that the costs were not otherwise paid 64
under section 959.132 of the Revised Code. 65

(4) ~~If (a)~~ Except as otherwise provided in division (E)(4)(b) 66 of this section, if a court has reason to believe that a person 67 who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a violation of section 68 959.131 of the Revised Code suffers from a mental or emotional 69 disorder that contributed to the violation, the court may impose 70 as a community control sanction or as a condition of probation a 71 requirement that the offender undergo psychological evaluation or 72 counseling. The court shall order the offender to pay the costs of 73 the evaluation or counseling. 74

(b) The court shall require a child under eighteen years of 75 age who is adjudicated a delinquent child under Chapter 2152. of 76 the Revised Code for a violation of division (B) of section 77 959.131 of the Revised Code to undergo psychological evaluation 78 and, if the evaluation determines that it is appropriate, to 79 undergo counseling in accordance with division (F) of section 80

2152.19 of the Revised Code.	81
(F) Whoever violates section 959.14 of the Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree on a first offense and a misdemeanor of the first degree on each subsequent offense.	82 83 84
(G) Whoever violates section 959.05 or 959.20 of the Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree.	85 86
(H) Whoever violates section 959.16 of the Revised Code is guilty of a felony of the fourth degree for on a first offense and a felony of the third degree on each subsequent offense.	87 88 89
Sec. 2152.19. (A) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child, the court may make any of the following orders of disposition, in addition to any other disposition authorized or required by this chapter:	90 91 92 93
(1) Any order that is authorized by section 2151.353 of the Revised Code for the care and protection of an abused, neglected, or dependent child;	94 95 96
(3) Place the child in a detention facility or district detention facility operated under section 2152.41 of the Revised Code, for up to ninety days;	105 106 107
(4) Place the child on community control under any sanctions, services, and conditions that the court prescribes. As a condition of community control in every case and in addition to any other	108 109 110 condition that it imposes upon the child, the court shall require 111 the child to abide by the law during the period of community 112 control. As referred to in this division, community control 113 includes, but is not limited to, the following sanctions and 114 conditions: 115

(a) A period of basic probation supervision in which the 116 child is required to maintain contact with a person appointed to 117 supervise the child in accordance with sanctions imposed by the 118
court; 119

(b) A period of intensive probation supervision in which the 120 child is required to maintain frequent contact with a person 121 appointed by the court to supervise the child while the child is 122 seeking or maintaining employment and participating in training, 123 education, and treatment programs as the order of disposition; 124

(c) A period of day reporting in which the child is required 125 each day to report to and leave a center or another approved 126 reporting location at specified times in order to participate in 127 work, education or training, treatment, and other approved 128 programs at the center or outside the center; 129

(d) A period of community service of up to five hundred hours 130 for an act that would be a felony or a misdemeanor of the first 131 degree if committed by an adult, up to two hundred hours for an 132 act that would be a misdemeanor of the second, third, or fourth 133 degree if committed by an adult, or up to thirty hours for an act 134 that would be a minor misdemeanor if committed by an adult; 135

(e) A requirement that the child obtain a high school 136 diploma, a certificate of high school equivalence, vocational 137 training, or employment; 138

(f) A period of drug and alcohol use monitoring; 139

(g) A requirement of alcohol or drug assessment or 140 counseling, or a period in an alcohol or drug treatment program 141 with a level of security for the child as determined necessary by 142 the court; 143

(h) A period in which the court orders the child to observe a 144 curfew that may involve daytime or evening hours; 145

(i) A requirement that the child serve monitored time; 146

(j) A period of house arrest without electronic monitoring or 147 continuous alcohol monitoring; 148

(k) A period of electronic monitoring or continuous alcohol 149 monitoring without house arrest, or house arrest with electronic 150 monitoring or continuous alcohol monitoring or both electronic 151 monitoring and continuous alcohol monitoring, that does not exceed 152 the maximum sentence of imprisonment that could be imposed upon an 153 adult who commits the same act. 154

A period of house arrest with electronic monitoring or 155 continuous alcohol monitoring or both electronic monitoring and 156 continuous alcohol monitoring, imposed under this division shall 157 not extend beyond the child's twenty-first birthday. If a court 158 imposes a period of house arrest with electronic monitoring or 159
continuous alcohol monitoring, upon a child under this division, 161 it shall require the child: to remain in the child's home or other 162 specified premises for the entire period of house arrest with 163 electronic monitoring or continuous alcohol monitoring or both 164 except when the court permits the child to leave those premises to 165 go to school or to other specified premises. Regarding electronic 166 monitoring, the court also shall require the child to be monitored 167 by a central system that can determine the child's location at 168 designated times; to report periodically to a person designated by 169 the court; and to enter into a written contract with the court 170 agreeing to comply with all requirements imposed by the court, 171 agreeing to pay any fee imposed by the court for the costs of the 172 house arrest with electronic monitoring, and agreeing to waive the right to receive credit for any time served on house arrest with electronic monitoring toward the period of any other dispositional order imposed upon the child if the child violates any of the requirements of the dispositional order of house arrest with electronic monitoring. The court also may impose other reasonable requirements upon the child.

Unless ordered by the court, a child shall not receive credit for any time served on house arrest with electronic monitoring or continuous alcohol monitoring or both toward any other dispositional order imposed upon the child for the act for which was imposed the dispositional order of house arrest with electronic monitoring or continuous alcohol monitoring. As used in this division and division (A)(4)~~(i)~~(j) of this section, "continuous alcohol monitoring" has the same meaning as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.

(1) A suspension of the driver's license, probationary driver's license, or temporary instruction permit issued to the child for a period of time prescribed by the court, or a suspension of the registration of all motor vehicles registered in the name of the child for a period of time prescribed by the court. A child whose license or permit is so suspended is ineligible for issuance of a license or permit during the period of suspension. At the end of the period of suspension, the child shall not be reissued a license or permit until the child has paid any applicable reinstatement fee and complied with all requirements governing license reinstatement.

(5) Commit the child to the custody of the court;

(6) Require the child to not be absent without legitimate excuse from the public school the child is supposed to attend for five or more consecutive days, seven or more school days in one school month, or twelve or more school days in a school year;

(7)(a) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for being a chronic truant or a habitual truant who previously has been adjudicated an unruly child for being a habitual truant, do either or both of the following:

(i) Require the child to participate in a truancy prevention mediation program;

(ii) Make any order of disposition as authorized by this section, except that the court shall not commit the child to a facility described in division (A)(2) or (3) of this section unless the court determines that the child violated a lawful court order made pursuant to division (C)(1)(e) of section 2151.354 of the Revised Code or division (A)(6) of this section.

(i) Require the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child to participate in a truancy prevention mediation program;

(ii) Require the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child to participate in any community service program, preferably a community service program that requires the involvement of the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the child in the school attended by the child.

(8) Make any further disposition that the court finds proper, except that the child shall not be placed in any of the following:

(a) A state correctional institution, a county, multicounty, or municipal jail or workhouse, or another place in which an adult convicted of a crime, under arrest, or charged with a crime is 236 held; 237

(b) A community corrections facility, if the child would be 238 covered by the definition of public safety beds for purposes of 239 sections 5139.41 to 5139.43 of the Revised Code if the court 240 exercised its authority to commit the child to the legal custody 241 of the department of youth services for institutionalization or 242 institutionalization in a secure facility pursuant to this 243 chapter. 244

(B) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child, in addition 245 to any order of disposition made under division (A) of this 246 section, the court, in the following situations and for the 247 specified periods of time, shall suspend the child's temporary 248 instruction permit, restricted license, probationary driver's 249 license, or nonresident operating privilege, or suspend the 250 child's ability to obtain such a permit: 251

(1) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for 252 violating section 2923.122 of the Revised Code, impose a class 253 four suspension of the child's license, permit, or privilege from 254 the range specified in division (A)(4) of section 4510.02 of the 255 Revised Code or deny the child the issuance of a license or permit 256 in accordance with division (F)(1) of section 2923.122 of the 257
Revised Code. 258

(2) If the child is adjudicated a delinquent child for 259 committing an act that if committed by an adult would be a drug 260 abuse offense or for violating division (B) of section 2917.11 of 261 the Revised Code, suspend the child's license, permit, or 262 privilege for a period of time prescribed by the court. The court, 263 in its discretion, may terminate the suspension if the child 264 attends and satisfactorily completes a drug abuse or alcohol abuse 265 education, intervention, or treatment program specified by the 266 court. During the time the child is attending a program described 267 in this division, the court shall retain the child's temporary 268 instruction permit, probationary driver's license, or driver's 269 license, and the court shall return the permit or license if it 270 terminates the suspension as described in this division. 271

(C) The court may establish a victim-offender mediation 272 program in which victims and their offenders meet to discuss the 273 offense and suggest possible restitution. If the court obtains the 274 assent of the victim of the delinquent act committed by the child, 275 the court may require the child to participate in the program. 276

(D)(1) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for 277 committing an act that would be a felony if committed by an adult 278 and if the child caused, attempted to cause, threatened to cause, 279 or created a risk of physical harm to the victim of the act, the 280 court, prior to issuing an order of disposition under this 281 section, shall order the preparation of a victim impact statement 282 by the probation department of the county in which the victim of 283 the act resides, by the court's own probation department, or by a 284 victim assistance program that is operated by the state, a county, 285 a municipal corporation, or another governmental entity. The court 286 shall consider the victim impact statement in determining the 287 order of disposition to issue for the child. 288

(2) Each victim impact statement shall identify the victim of 289 the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, 290 itemize any economic loss suffered by the victim as a result of 291 the act, identify any physical injury suffered by the victim as a 292 result of the act and the seriousness and permanence of the 293 injury, identify any change in the victim's personal welfare or 294 familial relationships as a result of the act and any 295 psychological impact experienced by the victim or the victim's 296 family as a result of the act, and contain any other information 297 related to the impact of the act upon the victim that the court 298 requires. 299

(3) A victim impact statement shall be kept confidential and 300 is not a public record. However, the court may furnish copies of 301 the statement to the department of youth services if the 302 delinquent child is committed to the department or to both the 303 adjudicated delinquent child or the adjudicated delinquent child's 304 counsel and the prosecuting attorney. The copy of a victim impact 305 statement furnished by the court to the department pursuant to 306 this section shall be kept confidential and is not a public 307 record. If an officer is preparing pursuant to section 2947.06 or 308 2951.03 of the Revised Code or Criminal Rule 32.2 a presentence 309 investigation report pertaining to a person, the court shall make 310 available to the officer, for use in preparing the report, a copy 311 of any victim impact statement regarding that person. The copies 312 of a victim impact statement that are made available to the 313
adjudicated delinquent child or the adjudicated delinquent child's 314 counsel and the prosecuting attorney pursuant to this division 315 shall be returned to the court by the person to whom they were 316 made available immediately following the imposition of an order of 317 disposition for the child under this chapter. 318

The copy of a victim impact statement that is made available 319 pursuant to this division to an officer preparing a criminal 320 presentence investigation report shall be returned to the court by 321 the officer immediately following its use in preparing the report. 322

(4) The department of youth services shall work with local 323 probation departments and victim assistance programs to develop a 324 standard victim impact statement. 325

(E) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for being a 326 chronic truant or a habitual truant who previously has been 327 adjudicated an unruly child for being a habitual truant and the 328 court determines that the parent, guardian, or other person having 329 care of the child has failed to cause the child's attendance at 330 school in violation of section 3321.38 of the Revised Code, in 331 addition to any order of disposition it makes under this section, 332 the court shall warn the parent, guardian, or other person having 333 care of the child that any subsequent adjudication of the child as 334 an unruly or delinquent child for being a habitual or chronic 335 truant may result in a criminal charge against the parent, 336 guardian, or other person having care of the child for a violation 337 of division (C) of section 2919.21 or section 2919.24 of the 338

Revised Code. 339

(F) If a child under eighteen years of age is adjudicated a 340 delinquent child for a violation of division (B) of section 341 959.131 of the Revised Code, the court, in addition to any other 342 disposition that it makes under this section, shall require the 343 child to undergo a psychological evaluation. The evaluation shall 344 determine if the child needs individual or family counseling and 345 shall make a recommendation as to the frequency and the length of 346 time that the counseling should occur. If individual or family 347 counseling is recommended by the evaluation, the court shall 348 require the counseling to take place and shall establish the 349 frequency and the length of time of the counseling. The court may 350 order the parent, guardian, or other person having care of the 351 child to pay the costs of the evaluation, any counseling, or both. 352

(G)(1) During the period of a delinquent child's community 353 control granted under this section, authorized probation officers 354 who are engaged within the scope of their supervisory duties or 355 responsibilities may search, with or without a warrant, the person 356 of the delinquent child, the place of residence of the delinquent 357 child, and a motor vehicle, another item of tangible or intangible 358 personal property, or other real property in which the delinquent 359 child has a right, title, or interest or for which the delinquent 360 child has the express or implied permission of a person with a 361 right, title, or interest to use, occupy, or possess if the 362 probation officers have reasonable grounds to believe that the 363 delinquent child is not abiding by the law or otherwise is not 364 complying with the conditions of the delinquent child's community 365 control. The court that places a delinquent child on community 366 control under this section shall provide the delinquent child with 367 a written notice that informs the delinquent child that authorized 368 probation officers who are engaged within the scope of their 369 supervisory duties or responsibilities may conduct those types of 370 searches during the period of community control if they have 371 reasonable grounds to believe that the delinquent child is not 372 abiding by the law or otherwise is not complying with the 373 conditions of the delinquent child's community control. The court 374 also shall provide the written notice described in division 375 ~~(E)~~(G)(2) of this section to each parent, guardian, or custodian 376 of the delinquent child who is described in that division. 377

(2) The court that places a child on community control under 378 this section shall provide the child's parent, guardian, or other 379 custodian with a written notice that informs them that authorized 380 probation officers may conduct searches pursuant to division 381 (E)(1) of this section. The notice shall specifically state that a 382 permissible search might extend to a motor vehicle, another item 383 of tangible or intangible personal property, or a place of 384 residence or other real property in which a notified parent, 385 guardian, or custodian has a right, title, or interest and that 386 the parent, guardian, or custodian expressly or impliedly permits 387 the child to use, occupy, or possess. 388

~~(G)~~(H) If a juvenile court commits a delinquent child to the 389 custody of any person, organization, or entity pursuant to this 390 section and if the delinquent act for which the child is so 391 committed is a sexually oriented offense or is a child-victim 392 oriented offense, the court in the order of disposition shall do 393 one of the following: 394

(1) Require that the child be provided treatment as described 395 in division (A)(2) of section 5139.13 of the Revised Code; 396

(2) Inform the person, organization, or entity that it is the 397 preferred course of action in this state that the child be 398 provided treatment as described in division (A)(2) of section 399 5139.13 of the Revised Code and encourage the person, 400 organization, or entity to provide that treatment. 401

Sec. 2903.213. (A) Except when the complaint involves a 402 person who is a family or household member as defined in section 403 2919.25 of the Revised Code, upon the filing of a complaint that 404 alleges a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 405 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, a violation of 406 a municipal ordinance substantially similar to section 2903.13, 407 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, or 408 the commission of a sexually oriented offense, the complainant, 409 the alleged victim, or a family or household member of an alleged 410 victim may file a motion that requests the issuance of a 411 protection order as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged 412 offender, in addition to any bail set under Criminal Rule 46. The 413 motion shall be filed with the clerk of the court that has 414 jurisdiction of the case at any time after the filing of the 415 complaint. If the complaint involves a person who is a family or 416 household member, the complainant, the alleged victim, or the 417 family or household member may file a motion for a temporary 418 protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code. 419

(B) A motion for a protection order under this section shall 420 be prepared on a form that is provided by the clerk of the court, 421 and the form shall be substantially as follows: 422

"Motion for Protection Order 423 until the disposition of the criminal proceeding arising out of		449

the attached complaint or until the issuance under section		450
2903.214 of the Revised Code of a protection order arising out of		451
the same activities as those that were the basis of the attached		452 complaint.		453

requests the issuance of a protection order under this section, 459 but not later than the next day that the court is in session after 460 the filing of the motion, the court shall conduct a hearing to 461 determine whether to issue the order. The person who requested the 462 order shall appear before the court and provide the court with the 463 information that it requests concerning the basis of the motion. 464
If the court finds that the safety and protection of the 465 complainant or the alleged victim may be impaired by the continued 466 presence of the alleged offender, the court may issue a protection 467 order under this section, as a pretrial condition of release, that 468 contains terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the 469 complainant or the alleged victim, including a requirement that 470 the alleged offender refrain from entering the residence, school, 471 business, or place of employment of the complainant or the alleged 472 victim. The court may include within the scope of a protection 473 order issued under this section any companion animal that is in 474 the complainant's or alleged victim's residence. 475

(2)(a) If the court issues a protection order under this 476
section that includes a requirement that the alleged offender 477
refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or place of 478 employment of the complainant or the alleged victim, the order 479 shall clearly state that the order cannot be waived or nullified 480 by an invitation to the alleged offender from the complainant, the 481 alleged victim, or a family or household member to enter the 482 residence, school, business, or place of employment or by the 483 alleged offender's entry into one of those places otherwise upon 484 the consent of the complainant, the alleged victim, or a family or 485
household member. 486

(b) Division (C)(2)(a) of this section does not limit any 487

charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 489
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent 490
on an alleged violation of a protection order issued under this 492 section, did not commit the violation or was not in contempt of 493

(D)(1) Except when the complaint involves a person who is a 495 family or household member as defined in section 2919.25 of the 496 Revised Code, upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 497 violation specified in division (A) of this section, the court, 498 upon its own motion, may issue a protection order under this 499 section as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged offender 500 if it finds that the safety and protection of the complainant or 501 the alleged victim may be impaired by the continued presence of 502 the alleged offender. The court may include within the scope of a 503 protection order issued under this section any companion animal 504
that is in the complainant's or alleged victim's residence. 505

(2) If the court issues a protection order under this section 506 as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as possible after 507 the issuance of the order but not later than the next day that the 508 court is in session after its issuance, a hearing to determine 509 whether the order should remain in effect, be modified, or be 510 revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under the standards set 511 forth in division (C) of this section. 512

(3) If a municipal court or a county court issues a 513 protection order under this section and if, subsequent to the 514
issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the subject of 515
prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities as 517
those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 518
based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was issued by a 519
municipal court or county court, the order shall remain in effect, 520

as though it were an order of the court of common pleas, while the 521
charges against the alleged offender are pending in the court of 522 common pleas, for the period of time described in division (E)(2) 523
of this section, and the court of common pleas has exclusive 524 jurisdiction to modify the order issued by the municipal court or 525 county court. This division applies when the alleged offender is 526 bound over to the court of common pleas as a result of the person 527 waiving a preliminary hearing on the felony charge, as a result of 528
the municipal court or county court having determined at a 529
preliminary hearing that there is probable cause to believe that 530
committed it, as a result of the alleged offender having been 532 indicted for the felony, or in any other manner. 533

(E) A protection order that is issued as a pretrial condition 534 of release under this section: 535

(1) Is in addition to, but shall not be construed as a part 536
of, any bail set under Criminal Rule 46; 537

(2) Is effective only until the disposition, by the court 538 that issued the order or, in the circumstances described in 539 division (D)(3) of this section, by the court of common pleas to 540 which the alleged offender is bound over for prosecution, of the 541 criminal proceeding arising out of the complaint upon which the 542 order is based or until the issuance under section 2903.214 of the 543 Revised Code of a protection order arising out of the same 544 activities as those that were the basis of the complaint filed 545 under this section; 546

(3) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged 547 offender committed the alleged offense and shall not be introduced 548 as evidence of the commission of the offense at the trial of the 549 alleged offender on the complaint upon which the order is based. 550

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under Criminal 551

Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that rule, 552 executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as bail, 553 shall not be held in custody pending a hearing before the court on 554
a motion requesting a protection order under this section. 555

(G)(1) A copy of a protection order that is issued under this 556 section shall be issued by the court to the complainant, to the 557 alleged victim, to the person who requested the order, to the 558 defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies that have 559 jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall direct that a 560 copy of the order be delivered to the defendant on the same day 561 that the order is entered. If a municipal court or a county court 562 issues a protection order under this section and if, subsequent to 563 the issuance of the order, the defendant who is the subject of the 564 order is bound over to the court of common pleas for prosecution 565 as described in division (D)(3) of this section, the municipal 566 court or county court shall direct that a copy of the order be 567 delivered to the court of common pleas to which the defendant is 568 bound over. 569

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 570
section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with the 571

"NOTICE 573

If you are convicted of a misdemeanor crime involving 574 violence in which you are or were a spouse, intimate partner, 575 parent, or guardian of the victim or are or were involved in 576 another, similar relationship with the victim, it may be unlawful 577 for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, 578 pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 579 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(9). If you have any questions whether this law 580 makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or 581
ammunition, you should consult an attorney." 582

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain 583

an index for the protection orders delivered to the agencies 584 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section. With respect to each 585 order delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and 586 time of the agency's receipt of the order. 587

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered the 588 protection order in the county in which the officer's agency has 589 jurisdiction, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall 590 enforce a protection order issued pursuant to this section in 591 accordance with the provisions of the order. 592

(H) Upon a violation of a protection order issued pursuant to 593 this section, the court may issue another protection order under 594 this section, as a pretrial condition of release, that modifies 595 the terms of the order that was violated. 596

(I) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary and 597 regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 598
of another state, no court or unit of state or local government 600
shall charge any fee, cost, deposit, or money in connection with 601 the filing of a motion pursuant to this section, in connection 602 with the filing, issuance, registration, or service of a 603 protection order or consent agreement, or for obtaining certified 604 copies of a protection order or consent agreement. 605

(J) As used in this section, ~~"sexually:~~ 606

(1) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in 607
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 608

(2) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 609
959.131 of the Revised Code. 610

Sec. 2903.214. (A) As used in this section: 611

(1) "Court" means the court of common pleas of the county in 612 which the person to be protected by the protection order resides. 613

(2) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support and assistance for a person who files a petition under this section.

(3) "Family or household member" has the same meaning as in section 3113.31 of the Revised Code.

(4) "Protection order issued by a court of another state" has the same meaning as in section 2919.27 of the Revised Code.

(5) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in section 2950.01 of the Revised Code.

(6) "Electronic monitoring" has the same meaning as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.

(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 959.131 of the Revised Code.

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under this section.

(C) A person may seek relief under this section for the person, or any parent or adult household member may seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or household member, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall contain or state all of the following:

(1) An allegation that the respondent engaged in a violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code against the person to be protected by the protection order or committed a sexually oriented offense against the person to be protected by the protection order, including a description of the nature and extent of the violation;

(2) If the petitioner seeks relief in the form of electronic monitoring of the respondent, an allegation that at any time preceding the filing of the petition the respondent engaged in conduct that would cause a reasonable person to believe that the health, welfare, or safety of the person to be protected was at risk, a description of the nature and extent of that conduct, and 644 an allegation that the respondent presents a continuing danger to 645 the person to be protected; 646

(3) A request for relief under this section. 647

(D)(1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 648 section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 649 parte hearing as soon as possible after the petition is filed, but 650 not later than the next day that the court is in session after the 651 petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at the ex parte 652 hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or without bond, 653 that the court finds necessary for the safety and protection of 654 the person to be protected by the order. Immediate and present 655 danger to the person to be protected by the protection order 656 constitutes good cause for purposes of this section. Immediate and 657 present danger includes, but is not limited to, situations in 658 which the respondent has threatened the person to be protected by 659 the protection order with bodily harm or in which the respondent 660 previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation 661 of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code or a sexually oriented 662 offense against the person to be protected by the protection 663 order. 664

(2)(a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues a 665 protection order described in division (E) of this section, the 666 court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is within ten 667 court days after the ex parte hearing. The court shall give the 668 respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be heard at, the full 669
hearing. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date 670 scheduled under this division unless the court grants a 671 continuance of the hearing in accordance with this division. Under 672 any of the following circumstances or for any of the following 673 reasons, the court may grant a continuance of the full hearing to 674
a reasonable time determined by the court: 675

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 676
this division, the respondent has not been served with the 677 petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 678
hearing. 679

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 680

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 681
counsel. 682

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 683

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 684
upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing under 686 division (D)(2)(a) of this section or because the court grants a 687
continuance under that division. 688

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this section 689 does not request an ex parte order, or if a person requests an ex 690 parte order but the court does not issue an ex parte order after 691
an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed as in a normal civil 692 action and grant a full hearing on the matter. 693

(E)(1)(a) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 694 issue any protection order, with or without bond, that contains 695 terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the person 696 to be protected by the protection order, including, but not 697 limited to, a requirement that the respondent refrain from 698 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 699 of the petitioner or family or household member. If the court 700 includes a requirement that the respondent refrain from entering 701 the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 702 petitioner or family or household member in the order, it also 703 shall include in the order provisions of the type described in 704 division (E)(5) of this section. The court may include within the 705 scope of a protection order issued under this section any 706 companion animal that is in the residence of the person to be 707 protected. 708

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a petition 709 that includes an allegation of the type described in division 710 (C)(2) of this section, or the court upon its own motion, finds 711 upon clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner reasonably 712 believed that the respondent's conduct at any time preceding the 713 filing of the petition endangered the health, welfare, or safety 714 of the person to be protected and that the respondent presents a 715 continuing danger to the person to be protected, the court may 716 order that the respondent be electronically monitored for a period 717 of time and under the terms and conditions that the court 718 determines are appropriate. Electronic monitoring shall be in 719 addition to any other relief granted to the petitioner. 720

(2)(a) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 721 shall be valid until a date certain but not later than five years 722 from the date of its issuance. 723

(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section may 724 be renewed in the same manner as the original order was issued. 725

(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires a 726
petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the court 727
division (E)(1) of this section unless all of the following apply: 729

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a protection 730
order in accordance with this section. 731

(b) The petitioner is served with notice of the respondent's 732 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 733 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 734
petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 735

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 736 pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not delay 737

any hearing required by that division beyond the time specified in 738 that division in order to consolidate the hearing with a hearing 739
on the petition filed by the respondent. 740

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 741 evidence in support of the request for a protection order and the 742 petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 743 evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed a 744 violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code against the 745 person to be protected by the protection order issued pursuant to 746 this section, has committed a sexually oriented offense against 747 the person to be protected by the protection order, or has 748 violated a protection order issued pursuant to section 2903.213 of 749 the Revised Code relative to the person to be protected by the 750 protection order issued pursuant to this section. 751

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section shall 752 in any manner affect title to any real property. 753

section that includes a requirement that the alleged offender 755
employment of the petitioner or a family or household member, the 757 order shall clearly state that the order cannot be waived or 758 nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from the 759 complainant to enter the residence, school, business, or place of 760 employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one of those 761 places otherwise upon the consent of the petitioner or family or 762
household member. 763

(b) Division (E)(5)(a) of this section does not limit any 764
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 766
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent 767
to that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 768
on an alleged violation of a protection order issued under this 769

court. 771

(F)(1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any 772 protection order that is issued under this section to the 773 petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement agencies 774 that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall 775 direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the respondent on 776 the same day that the order is entered. 777

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 778

"NOTICE 781

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to 782 possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or 783 revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 784 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether this law makes it 785 illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, 786 you should consult an attorney." 787

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain 788
an index for the protection orders delivered to the agencies 789 pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section. With respect to each 790 order delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and 791 time that it received the order. 792

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered the 793 protection order in the county in which the officer's agency has 794 jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any officer 795 of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a protection order 796 issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state in 797
the respondent from the premises, if appropriate. 799

(G) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted in 800 accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that a 801 protection order may be obtained under this section with or 802 without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an ex 803 parte order, that grants a protection order, or that refuses to 804 grant a protection order, is a final, appealable order. The 805 remedies and procedures provided in this section are in addition 806 to, and not in lieu of, any other available civil or criminal 807 remedies. 808

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 809 excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 810 required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other 811 law. 812

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an alleged 813 violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code or an alleged 814 commission of a sexually oriented offense shall provide 815 information to the victim and the family or household members of 816 the victim regarding the relief available under this section and 817
section 2903.213 of the Revised Code. 818

(J) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary and 819
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 820
the filing of a petition pursuant to this section, in connection 824
protection order or consent agreement, or for obtaining a 826
certified copy of a protection order or consent agreement. 827

(K)(1) A person who violates a protection order issued under 828 this section is subject to the following sanctions: 829

(a) Criminal prosecution for a violation of section 2919.27 830 of the Revised Code, if the violation of the protection order 831 constitutes a violation of that section; 832

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 833

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 834 violation of a protection order issued under this section does not 835 bar criminal prosecution of the person for a violation of section 836 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished for 837 contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment imposed 838 upon conviction of a violation of that section, and a person 839 convicted of a violation of that section shall not subsequently be 840 punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity. 841

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 842 petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 843

(M)(1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order under this 844 section or a protection order under section 2903.213 of the 845 Revised Code may provide notice of the issuance or approval of the 846 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county 847 other than the county in which the order is issued by registering 848 that order in the other county pursuant to division (M)(2) of this 849 section and filing a copy of the registered order with a law 850 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 851 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 852 court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the 853
of this state by registering the order in that county pursuant to 855 section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a copy of the 856 registered order with a law enforcement agency in that county. 857

(2) A petitioner may register a protection order issued 858 pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the Revised Code 859 in a county other than the county in which the court that issued 860 the order is located in the following manner: 861

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the order 862 from the clerk of the court that issued the order and present that 863 certified copy to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the 864 clerk of a municipal court or county court in the county in which 865 the order is to be registered. 866

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for 867 registration, the clerk of the court of common pleas, municipal 868 court, or county court shall place an endorsement of registration 869 on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the order that 870 bears that proof of registration. 871

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal court, 872 or county court shall maintain a registry of certified copies of 873 protection orders that have been issued by courts in other 874 counties pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the 875 Revised Code and that have been registered with the clerk. 876

(N) If the court orders electronic monitoring of the 877 respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 878 sheriff's office or any other appropriate law enforcement agency 879 to install the electronic monitoring device and to monitor the 880 respondent. Unless the court determines that the respondent is 881 indigent, the court shall order the respondent to pay the cost of 882 the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 883 device. If the court determines that the respondent is indigent, 884 the cost of the installation and monitoring of the electronic 885 monitoring device shall be paid out of funds from the reparations 886 fund created pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. 887

Sec. 2919.26. (A)(1) Upon the filing of a complaint that 888 alleges a violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 889 2911.211 of the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the 890 violation was a family or household member at the time of the 891 violation, a violation of a municipal ordinance that is 892 substantially similar to any of those sections if the alleged 893 victim of the violation was a family or household member at the 894 time of the violation, any offense of violence if the alleged 895 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the time 896 of the commission of the offense, or any sexually oriented offense 897 if the alleged victim of the offense was a family or household 898 member at the time of the commission of the offense, the 899 complainant, the alleged victim, or a family or household member 900 of an alleged victim may file, or, if in an emergency the alleged 901 victim is unable to file, a person who made an arrest for the 902 alleged violation or offense under section 2935.03 of the Revised 903 Code may file on behalf of the alleged victim, a motion that 904 requests the issuance of a temporary protection order as a 905 pretrial condition of release of the alleged offender, in addition 906 to any bail set under Criminal Rule 46. The motion shall be filed 907 with the clerk of the court that has jurisdiction of the case at 908 any time after the filing of the complaint. 909

(2) For purposes of section 2930.09 of the Revised Code, all 910 stages of a proceeding arising out of a complaint alleging the 911 commission of a violation, offense of violence, or sexually 912 oriented offense described in division (A)(1) of this section, 913 including all proceedings on a motion for a temporary protection 914 order, are critical stages of the case, and a victim may be 915 accompanied by a victim advocate or another person to provide 916 support to the victim as provided in that section. 917

(B) The motion shall be prepared on a form that is provided 918 by the clerk of the court, which form shall be substantially as 919 follows: 920

"MOTION FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTION ORDER 921

Name and address of court 923

State of Ohio 924

v. No. 925

..... 926

Name of Defendant 927

(name of person), moves the court to issue a temporary protection 928 order containing terms designed to ensure the safety and 929 protection of the complainant, alleged victim, ~~and~~ other family or 930 household members, and any companion animal that is in the 931 complainant's or alleged victim's residence, in relation to the 932 named defendant, pursuant to its authority to issue such an order 933

A complaint, a copy of which has been attached to this 935 motion, has been filed in this court charging the named defendant 936 with (name of the specified violation, 937 the offense of violence, or sexually oriented offense charged) in 938 circumstances in which the victim was a family or household member 939 in violation of (section of the Revised Code designating the 940 specified violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 941 offense charged), or charging the named defendant with a violation 942 of a municipal ordinance that is substantially similar to 943
..... (section of the Revised Code designating 944 the specified violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 945 offense charged) involving a family or household member. 946

I understand that I must appear before the court, at a time 947 set by the court within twenty-four hours after the filing of this 948 motion, for a hearing on the motion or that, if I am unable to 949 appear because of hospitalization or a medical condition resulting 950 from the offense alleged in the complaint, a person who can 951 provide information about my need for a temporary protection order 952 must appear before the court in lieu of my appearing in court. I 953 understand that any temporary protection order granted pursuant to 954 this motion is a pretrial condition of release and is effective 955 only until the disposition of the criminal proceeding arising out 956 of the attached complaint, or the issuance of a civil protection 957 order or the approval of a consent agreement, arising out of the	958 same activities as those that were the basis of the complaint,	959

under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code.	960
.....	961
Signature of person	962
(or signature of the arresting officer who filed the motion on	963 behalf of the alleged victim)	964
.....	965
Address of person (or office address of the arresting officer who	966 filed the motion on behalf of the alleged victim)"	967
(C)(1) As soon as possible after the filing of a motion that	968
requests the issuance of a temporary protection order, but not	969
later than twenty-four hours after the filing of the motion, the	970 court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether to issue the	971 order. The person who requested the order shall appear before the	972 court and provide the court with the information that it requests	973 concerning the basis of the motion. If the person who requested	974
the order is unable to appear and if the court finds that the	975 failure to appear is because of the person's hospitalization or	976 medical condition resulting from the offense alleged in the	977 complaint, another person who is able to provide the court with	978
the information it requests may appear in lieu of the person who	979 requested the order. If the court finds that the safety and	980 protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or any other family	981 or household member of the alleged victim may be impaired by the	982 continued presence of the alleged offender, the court may issue a	983 temporary protection order, as a pretrial condition of release,	984 that contains terms designed to ensure the safety and protection	985 of the complainant, alleged victim, or the family or household	986 member, including a requirement that the alleged offender refrain	987 from entering the residence, school, business, or place of	988 employment of the complainant, alleged victim, or the family or 989 household member. The court may include within the scope of a 990 protection order issued under this section any companion animal 991

that is in the complainant's or alleged victim's residence. 992

(2)(a) If the court issues a temporary protection order that 993 includes a requirement that the alleged offender refrain from 994 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 995 of the complainant, the alleged victim, or the family or household 996 member, the order shall state clearly that the order cannot be 997 waived or nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from 998 the complainant, alleged victim, or family or household member to 999 enter the residence, school, business, or place of employment or 1000 by the alleged offender's entry into one of those places otherwise 1001 upon the consent of the complainant, alleged victim, or family or 1002
household member. 1003

(b) Division (C)(2)(a) of this section does not limit any 1004
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 1006
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent 1007
on an alleged violation of a temporary protection order issued 1009 under this section, did not commit the violation or was not in 1010 contempt of court. 1011

(D)(1) Upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 1012 violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 2911.211 of the 1013 Revised Code if the alleged victim of the violation was a family 1014 or household member at the time of the violation, a violation of a 1015 municipal ordinance that is substantially similar to any of those 1016 sections if the alleged victim of the violation was a family or 1017 household member at the time of the violation, any offense of 1018 violence if the alleged victim of the offense was a family or 1019 household member at the time of the commission of the offense, or 1020 any sexually oriented offense if the alleged victim of the offense 1021 was a family or household member at the time of the commission of 1022 the offense, the court, upon its own motion, may issue a temporary 1023 protection order as a pretrial condition of release if it finds 1024 that the safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, 1025 or other family or household member of the alleged offender may be 1026 impaired by the continued presence of the alleged offender. The 1027 court may include within the scope of a protection order issued 1028 under this section any companion animal that is in the 1029 complainant's or alleged victim's residence. 1030

(2) If the court issues a temporary protection order under 1031 this section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as 1032 possible after the issuance of the order, a hearing in the 1033 presence of the alleged offender not later than the next day on 1034 which the court is scheduled to conduct business after the day on 1035 which the alleged offender was arrested or at the time of the 1036 appearance of the alleged offender pursuant to summons to 1037 determine whether the order should remain in effect, be modified, 1038 or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under the standards 1039 set forth in division (C) of this section. 1040

(3) An order issued under this section shall contain only 1041 those terms authorized in orders issued under division (C) of this 1042
section. 1043

(4) If a municipal court or a county court issues a temporary 1044
issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the subject of 1046
prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities as 1048
those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 1049
based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was issued by a 1050
as though it were an order of the court of common pleas, while the 1052

common pleas, for the period of time described in division (E)(2) 1054
of this section, and the court of common pleas has exclusive 1055
county court. This division applies when the alleged offender is 1057
waiving a preliminary hearing on the felony charge, as a result of 1059
the municipal court or county court having determined at a 1060
preliminary hearing that there is probable cause to believe that 1061
committed it, as a result of the alleged offender having been 1063
indicted for the felony, or in any other manner. 1064

(E) A temporary protection order that is issued as a pretrial 1065 condition of release under this section: 1066

(1) Is in addition to, but shall not be construed as a part 1067

(2) Is effective only until the occurrence of either of the 1069 following: 1070

(a) The disposition, by the court that issued the order or, 1071 in the circumstances described in division (D)(4) of this section, 1072 by the court of common pleas to which the alleged offender is 1073 bound over for prosecution, of the criminal proceeding arising out 1074 of the complaint upon which the order is based; 1075

(b) The issuance of a protection order or the approval of a 1076 consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 1077 that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 1078 based, under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code; 1079

(3) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged 1080 offender committed the alleged offense, and shall not be 1081 introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the 1082 trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the 1083 order is based. 1084

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under Criminal 1085
Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that rule, 1086
executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as bail, 1087
a motion requesting a temporary protection order. 1089

(G)(1) A copy of any temporary protection order that is 1090 issued under this section shall be issued by the court to the 1091 complainant, to the alleged victim, to the person who requested 1092 the order, to the defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies 1093 that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall 1094 direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the defendant on 1095 the same day that the order is entered. If a municipal court or a 1096 county court issues a temporary protection order under this 1097 section and if, subsequent to the issuance of the order, the 1098 defendant who is the subject of the order is bound over to the 1099 court of common pleas for prosecution as described in division 1100 (D)(4) of this section, the municipal court or county court shall 1101 direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the court of 1102 common pleas to which the defendant is bound over. 1103

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 1104

If you are convicted of a misdemeanor crime involving 1108
violence in which you are or were a spouse, intimate partner, 1109
parent, or guardian of the victim or are or were involved in 1110
another, similar relationship with the victim, it may be unlawful 1111
pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 1113

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain 1117 an index for the temporary protection orders delivered to the 1118 agencies pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section. With respect 1119 to each order delivered, each agency shall note on the index, the 1120 date and time of the receipt of the order by the agency. 1121

(4) A complainant, alleged victim, or other person who 1122 obtains a temporary protection order under this section may 1123 provide notice of the issuance of the temporary protection order 1124 to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other 1125 than the county in which the order is issued by registering that 1126 order in the other county in accordance with division (N) of 1127
section 3113.31 of the Revised Code and filing a copy of the 1128
registered protection order with a law enforcement agency in the 1129 other county in accordance with that division. 1130

(5) Any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a 1131 temporary protection order issued by any court in this state in 1132
the defendant from the premises, regardless of whether the order 1134 is registered in the county in which the officer's agency has 1135 jurisdiction as authorized by division (G)(4) of this section. 1136

(H) Upon a violation of a temporary protection order, the 1137 court may issue another temporary protection order, as a pretrial 1138 condition of release, that modifies the terms of the order that 1139 was violated. 1140

(I)(1) As used in divisions (I)(1) and (2) of this section, 1141
"defendant" means a person who is alleged in a complaint to have 1142 committed a violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 1143 offense of the type described in division (A) of this section. 1144

(2) If a complaint is filed that alleges that a person 1145 committed a violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 1146

offense of the type described in division (A) of this section, the 1147 court may not issue a temporary protection order under this 1148 section that requires the complainant, the alleged victim, or 1149 another family or household member of the defendant to do or 1150 refrain from doing an act that the court may require the defendant 1151 to do or refrain from doing under a temporary protection order 1152 unless both of the following apply: 1153

(a) The defendant has filed a separate complaint that alleges 1154 that the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household 1155 member in question who would be required under the order to do or 1156 refrain from doing the act committed a violation or offense of 1157 violence of the type described in division (A) of this section. 1158

(b) The court determines that both the complainant, alleged 1159 victim, or other family or household member in question who would 1160 be required under the order to do or refrain from doing the act 1161 and the defendant acted primarily as aggressors, that neither the 1162 complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household member 1163 in question who would be required under the order to do or refrain 1164 from doing the act nor the defendant acted primarily in 1165 self-defense, and, in accordance with the standards and criteria 1166 of this section as applied in relation to the separate complaint 1167 filed by the defendant, that it should issue the order to require 1168 the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household 1169 member in question to do or refrain from doing the act. 1170

(J) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary and 1171
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 1172 agreement is approved by a court of another county or a court of 1173 another state, no court or unit of state or local government shall 1174 charge any fee, cost, deposit, or money in connection with the 1175 filing of a motion pursuant to this section, in connection with 1176 the filing, issuance, registration, or service of a protection 1177 order or consent agreement, or for obtaining a certified copy of a 1178 protection order or consent agreement.	1179

(K) As used in this section:	1180
(1) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 959.131 of the Revised Code.	1181
(2) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in section 2950.01 of the Revised Code.	1182
(2) (3) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support and assistance for a victim of an offense during court proceedings.	1183

Sec. 3113.31. (A) As used in this section:	1188
(1) "Domestic violence" means the occurrence of one or more of the following acts against a family or household member:	1189
(a) Attempting to cause or recklessly causing bodily injury;	1190
(b) Placing another person by the threat of force in fear of imminent serious physical harm or committing a violation of section 2903.211 or 2911.211 of the Revised Code;	1191
(c) Committing any act with respect to a child that would result in the child being an abused child, as defined in section 2151.031 of the Revised Code;	1192
(d) Committing a sexually oriented offense.	1193
(2) "Court" means the domestic relations division of the court of common pleas in counties that have a domestic relations division, and the court of common pleas in counties that do not have a domestic relations division.	1194
(3) "Family or household member" means any of the following:	1195
(a) Any of the following who is residing with or has resided with the respondent:	1196
(i) A spouse, a person living as a spouse, or a former spouse	1197

of the respondent;	1207
(ii) A parent or a child of the respondent, or another person related by consanguinity or affinity to the respondent;	1208 1209
(iii) A parent or a child of a spouse, person living as a spouse, or former spouse of the respondent, or another person related by consanguinity or affinity to a spouse, person living as a spouse, or former spouse of the respondent.	1210 1211 1212 1213
(b) The natural parent of any child of whom the respondent is the other natural parent or is the putative other natural parent.	1214 1215
(4) "Person living as a spouse" means a person who is living or has lived with the respondent in a common law marital relationship, who otherwise is cohabiting with the respondent, or who otherwise has cohabited with the respondent within five years prior to the date of the alleged occurrence of the act in question.	1216 1217 1218 1219 1220 1221
(5) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support and assistance for a person who files a petition under this section.	1222 1223
(6) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in section 2950.01 of the Revised Code.	1224 1225
(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 959.131 of the Revised Code.	1226 1227
(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under this section. The petitioner's right to relief under this section is not affected by the petitioner's leaving the residence or household to avoid further domestic violence.	1228 1229 1230 1231
(C) A person may seek relief under this section on the person's own behalf, or any parent or adult household member may seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or household member, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall contain or state:	1232 1233 1234 1235 1236

(1) An allegation that the respondent engaged in domestic violence against a family or household member of the respondent, including a description of the nature and extent of the domestic violence;

(2) The relationship of the respondent to the petitioner, and to the victim if other than the petitioner;

(3) A request for relief under this section.

(D)(1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex parte hearing on the same day that the petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at the ex parte hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or without bond, including, but not limited to, an order described in division (E)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section, that the court finds necessary to protect the family or household member from domestic violence. Immediate and present danger of domestic violence to the family or household member constitutes good cause for purposes of this section. Immediate and present danger includes, but is not limited to, situations in which the respondent has threatened the family or household member with bodily harm, in which the respondent has threatened the family or household member with a sexually oriented offense, or in which the respondent previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense that constitutes domestic violence against the family or household member.

(2)(a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues an order described in division (E)(1)(b) or (c) of this section, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is within seven court days after the ex parte hearing. If any other type of protection order that is authorized under division (E) of this section is issued by the court after an ex parte hearing, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court shall give the

hearing. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date 1270
scheduled under this division unless the court grants a 1271
a reasonable time determined by the court: 1275

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 1276
this division, the respondent has not been served with the 1277
hearing. 1279

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 1280

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 1281
counsel. 1282

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 1283

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 1284
continuance under that division. 1288

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this section 1289 does not request an ex parte order, or if a person requests an ex 1290
action and grant a full hearing on the matter. 1293

any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any consent 1295 agreement to bring about a cessation of domestic violence against 1296 the family or household members. The order or agreement may: 1297

(a) Direct the respondent to refrain from abusing or from 1298 committing sexually oriented offenses against the family or 1299 household members; 1300

(b) Grant possession of the residence or household to the 1301 petitioner or other family or household member, to the exclusion 1302 of the respondent, by evicting the respondent, when the residence 1303 or household is owned or leased solely by the petitioner or other 1304 family or household member, or by ordering the respondent to 1305 vacate the premises, when the residence or household is jointly 1306 owned or leased by the respondent, and the petitioner or other 1307 family or household member; 1308

(c) When the respondent has a duty to support the petitioner 1309 or other family or household member living in the residence or 1310 household and the respondent is the sole owner or lessee of the 1311 residence or household, grant possession of the residence or 1312 household to the petitioner or other family or household member, 1313 to the exclusion of the respondent, by ordering the respondent to 1314 vacate the premises, or, in the case of a consent agreement, allow 1315
the respondent to provide suitable, alternative housing; 1316

(d) Temporarily allocate parental rights and responsibilities 1317 for the care of, or establish temporary parenting time rights with 1318 regard to, minor children, if no other court has determined, or is 1319 determining, the allocation of parental rights and 1320 responsibilities for the minor children or parenting time rights; 1321

(e) Require the respondent to maintain support, if the 1322 respondent customarily provides for or contributes to the support 1323 of the family or household member, or if the respondent has a duty 1324 to support the petitioner or family or household member; 1325

(f) Require the respondent, petitioner, victim of domestic 1326 violence, or any combination of those persons, to seek counseling; 1327

(g) Require the respondent to refrain from entering the 1328

petitioner or family or household member; 1330

(h) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable and 1331 fair, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent to 1332 permit the use of a motor vehicle by the petitioner or other 1333 family or household member and the apportionment of household and 1334 family personal property. 1335

(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this 1336 section in a prior action involving the respondent and the 1337 petitioner or one or more of the family or household members or 1338 victims, the court may include in a protection order that it 1339 issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to the 1340 residence or household. If it includes a prohibition against the 1341 respondent returning to the residence or household in the order, 1342 it also shall include in the order provisions of the type 1343 described in division (E)(7) of this section. This division does 1344 not preclude the court from including in a protection order or 1345 consent agreement, in circumstances other than those described in 1346 this division, a requirement that the respondent be evicted from 1347 or vacate the residence or household or refrain from entering the 1348 residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 1349
petitioner or a family or household member, and, if the court 1350 includes any requirement of that type in an order or agreement, 1351 the court also shall include in the order provisions of the type 1352 described in division (E)(7) of this section. 1353

(3)(a) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 1354 approved under this section shall be valid until a date certain, 1355 but not later than five years from the date of its issuance or 1356 approval unless modified or terminated as provided in division 1357

(b) Subject to the limitation on the duration of an order or 1359 agreement set forth in division (E)(3)(a) of this section, any 1360 order under division (E)(1)(d) of this section shall terminate on 1361

marriage, or legal separation brought by the petitioner or 1363 respondent issues an order allocating parental rights and 1364 responsibilities for the care of children or on the date that a 1365 juvenile court in an action brought by the petitioner or 1366 respondent issues an order awarding legal custody of minor 1367 children. Subject to the limitation on the duration of an order or 1368 agreement set forth in division (E)(3)(a) of this section, any 1369 order under division (E)(1)(e) of this section shall terminate on 1370
the date that a court in an action for divorce, dissolution of 1371
marriage, or legal separation brought by the petitioner or 1372
respondent issues a support order or on the date that a juvenile 1373 court in an action brought by the petitioner or respondent issues 1374 a support order. 1375

(c) Any protection order issued or consent agreement approved 1376 pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same manner as the 1377 original order or agreement was issued or approved. 1378

(4) A court may not issue a protection order that requires a 1379
petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the court 1380
may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing under 1381 division (E)(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), or (h) of this 1382 section unless all of the following apply: 1383

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a protection 1384
order in accordance with this section. 1385

(b) The petitioner is served notice of the respondent's 1386 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 1387
petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 1389

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 1390
pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not delay 1391
any hearing required by that division beyond the time specified in 1392

that division in order to consolidate the hearing with a hearing 1393
on the petition filed by the respondent. 1394

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 1395
evidence in support of the request for a protection order and the 1396
petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 1397 evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed 1398 an act of domestic violence or has violated a temporary protection 1399 order issued pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code, that 1400 both the petitioner and the respondent acted primarily as 1401 aggressors, and that neither the petitioner nor the respondent 1402 acted primarily in self-defense. 1403

(5) No protection order issued or consent agreement approved 1404 under this section shall in any manner affect title to any real 1405 property. 1406

(6)(a) If a petitioner, or the child of a petitioner, who 1407 obtains a protection order or consent agreement pursuant to 1408 division (E)(1) of this section or a temporary protection order 1409 pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code and is the subject 1410 of a parenting time order issued pursuant to section 3109.051 or 1411 3109.12 of the Revised Code or a visitation or companionship order 1412 issued pursuant to section 3109.051, 3109.11, or 3109.12 of the 1413 Revised Code or division (E)(1)(d) of this section granting 1414 parenting time rights to the respondent, the court may require the 1415 public children services agency of the county in which the court 1416 is located to provide supervision of the respondent's exercise of 1417 parenting time or visitation or companionship rights with respect 1418 to the child for a period not to exceed nine months, if the court 1419 makes the following findings of fact: 1420

(i) The child is in danger from the respondent; 1421

(ii) No other person or agency is available to provide the 1422 supervision. 1423

(b) A court that requires an agency to provide supervision 1424 pursuant to division (E)(6)(a) of this section shall order the 1425 respondent to reimburse the agency for the cost of providing the 1426 supervision, if it determines that the respondent has sufficient 1427 income or resources to pay that cost. 1428

(7)(a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 1429 approved under this section includes a requirement that the 1430 respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household or 1431 refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or place of 1432
employment of the petitioner or a family or household member, the 1433 order or agreement shall state clearly that the order or agreement 1434 cannot be waived or nullified by an invitation to the respondent 1435 from the petitioner or other family or household member to enter 1436 the residence, school, business, or place of employment or by the 1437 respondent's entry into one of those places otherwise upon the 1438 consent of the petitioner or other family or household member. 1439

(b) Division (E)(7)(a) of this section does not limit any 1440 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent charged with 1441 a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, with a 1442 violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to 1443 that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based on 1444 an alleged violation of a protection order issued or consent 1445 agreement approved under this section, did not commit the 1446 violation or was not in contempt of court. 1447

(8)(a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 1448 division (E)(8) of this section a protection order or consent 1449 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this section. 1450
The court that issued the protection order or approved the consent 1451 agreement shall hear a motion for modification or termination of 1452 the protection order or consent agreement pursuant to division 1453
(E)(8) of this section. 1454

(b) Either the petitioner or the respondent of the original 1455 protection order or consent agreement may bring a motion for 1456 modification or termination of a protection order or consent 1457 agreement that was issued or approved after a full hearing. The 1458 court shall require notice of the motion to be made as provided by 1459 the Rules of Civil Procedure. If the petitioner for the original 1460 protection order or consent agreement has requested that the 1461 petitioner's address be kept confidential, the court shall not 1462 disclose the address to the respondent of the original protection 1463 order or consent agreement or any other person, except as 1464 otherwise required by law. The moving party has the burden of 1465 proof to show, by a preponderance of the evidence, that 1466 modification or termination of the protection order or consent 1467 agreement is appropriate because either the protection order or 1468 consent agreement is no longer needed or because the terms of the 1469 original protection order or consent agreement are no longer 1470 appropriate. 1471

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a 1472 protection order or consent agreement issued or approved under 1473 this section, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 1474 including, but not limited to, the following: 1475

(i) Whether the petitioner consents to modification or 1476 termination of the protection order or consent agreement; 1477

(ii) Whether the petitioner fears the respondent; 1478

(iii) The current nature of the relationship between the 1479 petitioner and the respondent; 1480

(iv) The circumstances of the petitioner and respondent, 1481 including the relative proximity of the petitioner's and 1482 respondent's workplaces and residences and whether the petitioner 1483 and respondent have minor children together; 1484

(v) Whether the respondent has complied with the terms and 1485 conditions of the original protection order or consent agreement; 1486

(vi) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement with illegal drugs or alcohol;	1487 1488
(vii) Whether the respondent has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense of violence since the issuance of the protection order or approval of the consent agreement;	1489 1490 1491
(viii) Whether any other protection orders, consent agreements, restraining orders, or no contact orders have been issued against the respondent pursuant to this section, section 2919.26 of the Revised Code, any other provision of state law, or the law of any other state;	1492 1493 1494 1495 1496
(ix) Whether the respondent has participated in any domestic violence treatment, intervention program, or other counseling addressing domestic violence and whether the respondent has completed the treatment, program, or counseling;	1497 1498 1499 1500
(x) The time that has elapsed since the protection order was issued or since the consent agreement was approved;	1501 1502
(xi) The age and health of the respondent;	1503
(xii) When the last incident of abuse, threat of harm, or commission of a sexually oriented offense occurred or other relevant information concerning the safety and protection of the petitioner or other protected parties.	1504 1505 1506 1507
(d) If a protection order or consent agreement is modified or terminated as provided in division (E)(8) of this section, the court shall issue copies of the modified or terminated order or agreement as provided in division (F) of this section. A petitioner may also provide notice of the modification or termination to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other than the county in which the order or agreement is modified or terminated as provided in division (N) of this section.	1508 1509 1510 1511 1512 1513 1514 1515 1516

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or termination of a protection order or consent agreement pursuant to this section, the court may assess costs against the respondent for the filing of the motion.

(9) The court may include in a protection order issued or consent agreement approved under this section any companion animal that is in the petitioner's residence.

(F)(1) A copy of any protection order, or consent agreement, that is issued, approved, modified, or terminated under this section shall be issued by the court to the petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order or agreement. The court shall direct that a copy of an order be delivered to the respondent on the same day that the order is entered.

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court shall provide the parties to the order or agreement with the following notice orally or by form:

As a result of this order or consent agreement, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, you should consult an attorney."

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain an index for the protection orders and the approved consent agreements delivered to the agencies pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section. With respect to each order and consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and time that it received the order or consent agreement.

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered the order or agreement in the county in which the officer's agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (N) of this section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a protection order issued or consent agreement approved by any court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the order or agreement, including removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate.

(G) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that an order under this section may be obtained with or without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, that grants a protection order or approves a consent agreement, that refuses to grant a protection order or approve a consent agreement that modifies or terminates a protection order or consent agreement, or that refuses to modify or terminate a protection order or consent agreement, is a final, appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other available civil or criminal remedies.

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other law. When a petition under this section alleges domestic violence against minor children, the court shall report the fact, or cause reports to be made, to a county, township, or municipal peace officer under section 2151.421 of the Revised Code.

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a domestic dispute shall provide information to the family or household members involved regarding the relief available under this section and section 2919.26 of the Revised Code.

(J) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary and

another state, no court or unit of state or local government shall 1582
charge any fee, cost, deposit, or money in connection with the 1583 filing of a petition pursuant to this section or in connection 1584 with the filing, issuance, registration, or service of a 1585
protection order or consent agreement, or for obtaining a 1586
certified copy of a protection order or consent agreement. 1587

(K)(1) The court shall comply with Chapters 3119., 3121., 1588 3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code when it makes or modifies an 1589 order for child support under this section. 1590

(2) If any person required to pay child support under an 1591 order made under this section on or after April 15, 1985, or 1592 modified under this section on or after December 31, 1986, is 1593 found in contempt of court for failure to make support payments 1594 under the order, the court that makes the finding, in addition to 1595 any other penalty or remedy imposed, shall assess all court costs 1596 arising out of the contempt proceeding against the person and 1597 require the person to pay any reasonable attorney's fees of any 1598 adverse party, as determined by the court, that arose in relation 1599 to the act of contempt. 1600

(L)(1) A person who violates a protection order issued or a 1601 consent agreement approved under this section is subject to the 1602 following sanctions: 1603

(a) Criminal prosecution for a violation of section 2919.27 1604 of the Revised Code, if the violation of the protection order or 1605 consent agreement constitutes a violation of that section; 1606

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 1607

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 1608 violation of a protection order issued or a consent agreement 1609 approved under this section does not bar criminal prosecution of 1610

the person for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 1611 However, a person punished for contempt of court is entitled to 1612 credit for the punishment imposed upon conviction of a violation 1613 of that section, and a person convicted of a violation of that 1614 section shall not subsequently be punished for contempt of court 1615 arising out of the same activity. 1616

(M) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 1617
petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 1618

(N)(1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or consent 1619 agreement under this section or a temporary protection order under 1620 section 2919.26 of the Revised Code may provide notice of the 1621 issuance or approval of the order or agreement to the judicial and 1622 law enforcement officials in any county other than the county in 1623 which the order is issued or the agreement is approved by 1624 registering that order or agreement in the other county pursuant 1625 to division (N)(2) of this section and filing a copy of the 1626 registered order or registered agreement with a law enforcement 1627 agency in the other county in accordance with that division. A 1628 person who obtains a protection order issued by a court of another 1629 state may provide notice of the issuance of the order to the 1630 judicial and law enforcement officials in any county of this state 1631 by registering the order in that county pursuant to section 1632 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a copy of the registered 1633 order with a law enforcement agency in that county. 1634

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection order, 1635 protection order, or consent agreement in a county other than the 1636 county in which the court that issued the order or approved the 1637 agreement is located in the following manner: 1638

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the order 1639 or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the order or 1640 approved the agreement and present that certified copy to the 1641 clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a municipal 1642 court or county court in the county in which the order or 1643 agreement is to be registered. 1644

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or 1645 agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 1646 pleas, municipal court, or county court shall place an endorsement 1647 of registration on the order or agreement and give the petitioner 1648 a copy of the order or agreement that bears that proof of 1649 registration. 1650

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of 1651 each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall 1652 maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection 1653 orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been 1654 issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have been 1655 registered with the clerk. 1656

Sec. 4731.284. The state medical board shall approve one or 1657 more continuing medical education courses of study included within 1658 the programs certified by the Ohio state medical association and 1659 the Ohio osteopathic association pursuant to section 4731.281 of 1660 the Revised Code with regard to the counseling of individuals who 1661 abuse animals. 1662

Sec. 4732.141. (A)(1) On or before the thirty-first day of 1663
August of each even-numbered year beginning in 1998 and until the 1664 requirement set forth in division (A)(2) of this section applies, 1665 each person licensed under this chapter by the state board of 1666 psychology shall have completed, in the preceding two-year period, 1667 not less than twenty hours of continuing education in psychology 1668 or the number of hours determined under division (D) of this 1669
section. 1670

(2) On or before the thirty-first day of August of each 1671 even-numbered year after the biennium in which this amendment 1672 takes effect, each person licensed under this chapter by the state board of psychology shall have completed, in the preceding two-year period, not less than twenty-three hours of continuing education in psychology, including not less than three hours of continuing education in professional conduct and ethics, or the number of hours determined under division (D) of this section.

(3) Each person subject to division (A)(1) or (2) of this section shall certify to the board, at the time of biennial registration pursuant to section 4732.14 of the Revised Code and on the registration form prescribed by the board under that section, that in the preceding two years the person has completed continuing psychology education in compliance with this section. The board shall adopt rules establishing the procedure for a person to certify to the board and for properly recording with the Ohio psychological association or the state board of education completion of the continuing education.

(B) Continuing psychology education may be applied to meet the requirement of division (A) of this section if both of the following requirements are met:

(1) It is obtained through a program or course approved by the state board of psychology, the Ohio psychological association, the Ohio association of black psychologists, or the American psychological association or, in the case of a licensed school psychologist or a licensed psychologist with a school psychology specialty, by the state board of education, the Ohio school psychologists association, or the national association of school psychologists;

(2) Completion of the program or course is recorded with the Ohio psychological association or the state board of education in accordance with rules adopted by the state board of psychology in accordance with division (A) of this section.

The state board of psychology may disapprove any program or course that has been approved by the Ohio psychological association, Ohio association of black psychologists, American psychological association, state board of education, Ohio school psychologists association, or national association of school psychologists. Such program or course may not be applied to meet the requirement of division (A) of this section.

(C) Each person licensed under this chapter shall be given a sufficient choice of continuing education programs or courses in psychology, including programs or courses on professional conduct and ethics when required under division (A)(2) of this section, to ensure that the person has had a reasonable opportunity to participate in programs or courses that are relevant to the person's practice in terms of subject matter and level.

(D) The board shall adopt rules providing for reductions of the hours of continuing psychology education required by this section for persons in their first registration period.

(E) Each person licensed under this chapter shall retain in the person's records for at least three years the receipts, vouchers, or certificates necessary to document completion of continuing psychology education. Proof of continuing psychology education recorded with the Ohio psychological association or the state board of education in accordance with the procedures established pursuant to division (A) of this section shall serve as sufficient documentation of completion. With cause, the board may request the documentation from the person. The board also may request the documentation from persons licensed under this chapter selected at random, without cause. The board may review any continuing psychology education records recorded by the Ohio psychological association or the state board of education.

(F) The board may excuse persons licensed under this chapter, as a group or as individuals, from all or any part of the

emergency, or special hardship. 1737

(G) The state board of psychology shall approve one or more 1738 continuing education courses of study that assist psychologists 1739 and school psychologists in recognizing the signs of domestic 1740 violence and its relationship to child abuse. Psychologists and 1741 school psychologists are not required to take the courses. 1742

(H) The state board of psychology shall approve one or more 1743 continuing education courses of study with regard to the 1744 counseling of individuals who abuse animals. 1745

Sec. 4757.33. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this 1746 section, each person who holds a license or certificate of 1747 registration issued under this chapter shall complete during the 1748 period that the license or certificate is in effect not less than 1749 thirty clock hours of continuing professional education as a 1750 condition of receiving a renewed license or certificate. To have a 1751 lapsed license or certificate of registration restored, a person 1752 shall complete the number of hours of continuing education 1753 specified by the counselor, social worker, and marriage and family 1754 therapist board in rules it shall adopt in accordance with Chapter 1755
119. of the Revised Code. 1756

The professional standards committees of the counselor, 1757 social worker, and marriage and family therapist board shall adopt 1758 rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 1759 establishing standards and procedures to be followed by the 1760 committees in conducting the continuing education approval 1761 process. 1762

(B) The board may waive the continuing education requirements 1763 established under this section for persons who are unable to 1764 fulfill them because of military service, illness, residence 1765 abroad, or any other reason the committee considers acceptable. 1766

In the case of a social worker licensed by virtue of 1767 receiving, prior to October 10, 1992, a baccalaureate degree in a 1768 program closely related to social work, as a condition of the 1769 first renewal of the license, the social worker ~~must~~ shall 1770 complete at an accredited educational institution a minimum of 1771 five semester hours of social work graduate or undergraduate 1772 credit, or their equivalent, that is acceptable to the committee 1773 and includes a course in social work theory and a course in social 1774 work methods. 1775

(C) The professional standards committees of the counselor, 1776 social worker, and marriage and family therapist board shall 1777 approve one or more continuing education courses of study with 1778 regard to the counseling of individuals who abuse animals. 1779

Section 2. That existing sections 959.99, 2152.19, 2903.213, 1780 2903.214, 2919.26, 3113.31, 4732.141, and 4757.33 of the Revised 1781
Code are hereby repealed. 1782
