A B I L L

To enact sections 2937.223 and 2967.132 of the 1
Revised Code to require the court clerk to 2 promptly give written notice to the county sheriff 3 and chief law enforcement officer of the political 4 subdivision in which a person accused of an 5 offense of violence will reside as a condition of 6 bail if the offense was not committed in that 7 political subdivision and to require the Adult 8 Parole Authority to give similar notice to the 9 chief law enforcement officer of the political 10 subdivision in which an inmate who served a prison 11 term for an offense of violence and is on parole 12 or post-release control establishes a residence if 13 not the political subdivision in which that 14 offense was committed. 15

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 2937.223 and 2967.132 of the Revised 16
Code be enacted to read as follows: 17

Sec. 2937.223. (A) In any case involving an alleged 18 commission of an offense of violence, if a condition of bail set 19 by the court under Criminal Rule 46 requires the accused to reside 20 in a political subdivision other than the political subdivision in 21 which the alleged offense was committed, the clerk of the court in 22 which the case is being heard promptly shall provide the written 23 notice set forth in division (B) of this section to the chief law 24 enforcement officer of that political subdivision if the accused 25 posts bail. 26

(B) The written notice provided by the clerk pursuant to 27 division (A) of this section shall include, but is not limited to, 28 the accused's name, a description of the accused, a list of all 29 criminal charges against the accused in the case, a copy of the 30 criminal complaint, information, or indictment filed in the case, 31 the accused's home address, the address where the accused will be 32 residing pursuant to the condition of bail, and, in cases in which 33 the accused is incarcerated at the time that the court imposes 34 bail, the name of the jail or other residential facility from 35 which the accused was released. The supreme court may adopt a 36 standard notification form to be used by all clerks of court. 37

Sec. 2967.132. (A) If a person serving a prison term for an 38 offense of violence is released from a state correctional 39 institution on parole or under a period of post-release control 40 imposed pursuant to section 2967.28 of the Revised Code and 41 establishes a residence in a political subdivision other than the 42 political subdivision in which the offense of violence was 43 committed or if that person establishes a residence in a political 44 subdivision of that nature at any time during the person's period 45 of parole or post-release control, the adult parole authority 46 promptly shall provide the written notice set forth in division 47
(B) of this section to the chief law enforcement officer of that 48 political subdivision. 49

(B) The written notice provided by the adult parole authority 50 pursuant to division (A) of this section shall include, but is not 51 limited to, the person's name, a description of the person, a list 52 of all criminal offenses for which the person was confined, a copy 53 of the criminal complaint, information, or indictment filed in the 54 case that resulted in the person's confinement, a copy of the 55 court's sentence, the person's residential address, and the name 56 of the state correctional institution from which the person was 57 released. 58
