deductible health care plan contributed by the state, for an individual or for an individual and the individual's family, shall not exceed the amount of the premium or cost contributed by the state for a standard deductible health care plan created under division (A) of section 124.82 of the Revised Code.
An individual who has selected a high deductible health care	23 plan option shall establish a health savings account that gualifies under section 223 of the Internal Revenue Code. The state shall monthly deposit cash into the individual's health savings account. The amount so deposited shall be based on the amount of the premium or cost that would be contributed by the state for individual or family coverage. The amount deposited shall equal eighty per cent of the difference between (1) the amount that would be contributed by the state for a standard deductible health care plan created under division (A) of section 124.82 of the Revised code and (2) the amount contributed by the state under a high deductible health care plan created under this section.
