(B)(1) Starting four years after the effective date of ....B. 898
... of the 130th general assembly and every fourth year 899 thereafter, the department shall issue, by rule adopted in 900 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, an updated basic 901 child support schedule. The rule shall be adopted so that its 902 effective date is not later than the first of October of each of 903 those years and shall include a statement of the assumptions used 904 to adjust the schedule. On the effective date of the rule, the 905 updated schedule shall supersede either the basic child support 906 schedule that appears in division (A) of this section or, if the 907 schedule has been previously updated by rule, the most recently 908 updated basic child support schedule, as applicable. An updated 909 schedule shall be used by all courts and child support enforcement 910 agencies when calculating the amount of child support to be paid 911 pursuant to a child support order. 912

(2) The department, in consultation with the child support 913 guidelines advisory council established in section 3119.023 of the 914
Revised Code, shall update the schedule based on the following: 915

(a) Changes in the consumer price index for all urban 916
consumers, midwest urban region, or its successive equivalent, as 917 determined by the United States department of labor, bureau of 918 labor statistics, or its successor in responsibility, for all 919 items, as calculated in accordance with division (C) of this 920 section; 921

(b) Information gathered by the department as part of the 922 review conducted in accordance with section 3119.022 of the 923 Revised Code. 924

(3) The department shall compare the current consumer price   925 index with that determined for the prior period, and shall   926 determine the percentage increase or decrease. The current   927 consumer price index shall be the consumer price index that is in   928 effect as of the first day of October of every fourth year after   929
the effective date of ....B. ... of the 130th general assembly.   930
For the adjustment made four years after the effective date of   931
....B. ... of the 130th general assembly, the prior period   932
consumer price index shall be the consumer price index that is in   933 effect as of January of the year of the effective date of ....B.   934
... of the 130th general assembly. For each subsequent update of   935 the basic child support schedule, the prior period consumer price   936 index shall be the current consumer price index for the most   937 recently updated schedule. The percentage increase or decrease   938 shall be multiplied by each amount in the most recently updated   939 basic child support schedule, and the product shall be added to or 940 subtracted from each amount and rounded to the nearest dollar.   941

   Sec. 3119.022. (A) Starting four years after the effective   942 date of ....B ... of the 130th general assembly and every fourth   943 year thereafter, the department of job and family services shall   944 review the basic child support schedule and adjust the schedule in 945 accordance with division (B) of section 3119.021 of the Revised   946 Code.   947

   (B) The review required under this section shall be conducted   948 to determine whether child support orders issued in accordance   949 with the schedule and worksheet adequately provide for the needs   950 of the children who are the subject of the child support orders.   951

   (C) The department shall prepare a report of its review and   952 submit a copy of the report to both houses of the general assembly 953 on or before the first day of March of 2017 and every fourth year   954 thereafter.   955

Sec. 3119.023. (A) For each review conducted under section 3119.022 of the Revised Code, the department of job and family services shall establish a child support guidelines advisory council to assist the department in the completion of its review and its report required to be prepared under division (C) of section 3119.022 of the Revised Code. The council shall also consult with the department prior to the department's adoption of the rule required under section 3119.021 of the Revised Code.

(B) Each council shall be composed of obligors; obligees; judges of courts of common pleas whose practice includes a significant number of domestic relations cases; representatives of child support enforcement agencies; other persons interested in the welfare of children; three members of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, not more than two of whom are members of the same political party; and three members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house, not more than two of whom are members of the same political party.

(C) The department shall consider input from the council prior to the completion of any report under section 3119.022 of the Revised Code.

(D) The advisory council shall cease to exist at the time that the department adopts the rule required under division (B) of section 3119.021 of the Revised Code.

(E) Any expenses incurred by an advisory council shall be paid by the department.

   Sec. 3119.041. In any action in which a court or a child   1571 support enforcement agency issues or modifies a child support   1572 order, the court or agency shall perform a self-support reserve   1573 test to identify the obligor's financial ability to maintain a   1574

minimum subsistence level and pay the ordered child support   1575 obligation.   1576

   (A) When the obligor's gross income is equal to or less than   1577 obligor's annual child support obligation shall be reduced to the   1587 difference between the obligor's gross income and one hundred per   1588

    Sec. 3119.05. When a court computes the amount of child   1600 support required to be paid under a court child support order or a   1601 child support enforcement agency computes the amount of child   1602 support to be paid pursuant to an administrative child support   1603

    (B) The annual amount of any pre-existing current child   1611 immediate child support determination live with the parent, the   1621 court or agency shall deduct an amount from that parent's gross   1622 income that equals the number of such minor children times   1623 one-half of the federal income tax exemption for such children   1624 ~~less child support received for them for the year, not exceeding~~   1625

    (D) ~~When~~ (1) Subject to division (D)(2) of this section, when 1627 the court or agency calculates the gross income of a parent, it   1628 shall include the lesser of the following as income from overtime time when the person's child support obligation is being computed;

(2)(b) The total overtime, commissions, and bonuses received during the year immediately prior to the time when the person's child support obligation is being computed.

(2) When the court or agency finds that additional income earned from overtime or additional employment was generated primarily to support a new or additional family member or members, or under other appropriate circumstances, the court or agency may disregard the additional income.

(E) When the court or agency calculates the gross income of a parent, it shall not include any income earned by the spouse of that parent.

(F) The court shall issue a separate medical support order agency finds that the additional income was generated primarily to   1711

(L) If both parents involved in the immediate child support   1714 determination have a prior order for support relative to a minor   1715 child or children born to both parents, the court or agency shall   1716 collect information about the existing order or orders and   1717

Sec. 3119.051. (A) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a court or child support enforcement agency calculating the amount to be paid under a child support order shall reduce the amount of the obligor's annual support obligation by ten per cent of the total combined obligation when a court has issued or is issuing an order designating one parent as the residential parent

(B) At the request of the obligee, a court may conduct a review of a child support order in accordance with rules adopted pursuant to section 3119.76 of the Revised Code and eliminate a previously granted adjustment established under division (A) of this section if the obligor has failed to exercise court-ordered parenting time without just cause.

Sec. 3119.06. Except as otherwise provided in this section, in any action in which a court or a child support enforcement agency issues or modifies a child support order or in any other proceeding in which a court or agency determines the amount of child support to be paid pursuant to a child support order, the court or agency shall issue a minimum child support order requiring the obligor to pay a minimum of fifty dollars a month.
The court, in its discretion and in appropriate circumstances, may issue a minimum child support order requiring the obligor to pay obligation of less than fifty dollars a month or not requiring the obligor to pay an any child support amount for support. The circumstances under which a court may issue such an order include

~~support order and if~~ If the court determines that the ~~amount of~~ 2546

~~support does not adequately meet the~~ medical needs of the child   2547

are not being met because of inadequate health insurance coverage,   2548

the inadequate coverage shall be considered by the court as a   2549 change of circumstance that is substantial enough to require a   2550 modification of the ~~amount of the~~ child support order.   2551

(C) If the court determines that the amount of child support   2552

or cash medical support required to be paid under the child   2553 support order should be changed due to a substantial change of   2554 circumstances that was not contemplated at the time of the   2555 issuance of the original child support order or the last   2556 modification of the child support order, the court shall modify   2557 the amount of child support or cash medical support required to be   2558 paid under the child support order to comply with the schedule and   2559

the ~~applicable~~ worksheet ~~through the line establishing the actual~~   2560 annual obligation, unless the court determines that ~~the amount~~   2561 those amounts calculated pursuant to the basic child support   2562 schedule and pursuant to the ~~applicable~~ worksheet would be unjust   2563 or inappropriate and ~~would~~ therefore not ~~be~~ in the best interest   2564 of the child and enters in the journal the figure, determination,   2565 and findings specified in section 3119.22 of the Revised Code.   2566

    Sec. 3119.89. (A) Upon receipt of a notice pursuant to   2567 section 3119.87 of the Revised Code, the child support enforcement   2568 agency administering a child support order, within twenty days   2569 after receipt of the notice, shall complete an investigation. The   2570 agency administering a child support order may conduct an   2571 investigation upon its own initiative if it otherwise has reason   2572 to believe that there may be a reason for which the order should   2573 terminate. The agency's investigation shall determine the   2574 following: 2575

    (1) Whether any reason exists for which the order should   2576 terminate;   2577

    (2) Whether there are other children subject to the order;   2578

    (3) Whether the obligor owes any arrearages under the order;   2579

    (4) Whether the agency believes it is necessary to continue   2580 withholding or deduction pursuant to a notice or order described   2581 in section 3121.03 of the Revised Code for the other children or   2582 arrearages;   2583

    (5) Whether child support amounts paid pursuant to the order   2584 being investigated should be impounded because continuation of   2585 receipt and disbursement would lead to an overpayment by the   2586 obligor.   2587

    (B) If the agency, pursuant to the investigation under   2588 division (A) of this section, determines that other children are   2589 subject to the child support order and that it is necessary to   2590 continue withholding or deduction for the other children, the   2591 agency shall divide the child support amount due annually and per   2592 month under the order by the number of children who are the   2593 subject of the order and subtract the amount due for the child for   2594 whom the order should be terminated from the total child support   2595 amount due annually and per month. The resulting annual and per   2596 month child support amount shall be included in the results of the   2597 agency's investigation as the recommended child support amount due   2598 annually and monthly under a revised child support order. If   2599 arrearage amounts are owed, those amounts may be included as part   2600 of the recommended child support amount. The investigation under   2601 division (A) of this section shall not include a review pursuant   2602 to sections 3119.60 to 3119.76 of the Revised Code of any other   2603 children subject to the child support order.   2604

    Sec. 3121.36. The termination of a court support order or   2605 administrative child support order does not abate the power of any   2606 court or child support enforcement agency to collect any overdue   2607 and unpaid support or arrearage owed under the terminated support   2608 order or the power of the court to punish any person for a failure   2609 to comply with, or to pay any support as ordered in, the   2610 terminated support order. The termination does not abate the   2611 authority of the court or agency to issue any notice described in   2612 section 3121.03 of the Revised Code or to issue any applicable   2613 order as described in division (C) or (D) of section 3121.03 of   2614 the Revised Code to collect any overdue and unpaid support or   2615 arrearage owed under the terminated support order. If a notice is   2616 issued pursuant to section 3121.03 of the Revised Code to collect   2617 the overdue and unpaid support or arrearage, the amount withheld   2618 or deducted from the obligor's personal earnings, income, or   2619 accounts shall be rebuttably presumed to be at least equal to the   2620 amount that was withheld or deducted under the terminated child   2621 support order. A court or agency administering the child support   2622 order may consider evidence of household expenditures, income 2623 variables, extraordinary health care issues, and other reasons for 2624 deviation from the presumed amount. 2625

Sec. 3123.14. If a child support order is terminated for any 2626 reason, the obligor under the child support order is or was at any 2627 time in default under the support order and, after the termination 2628 of the order, the obligor owes an arrearage under the order, the 2629 obligee may make application to the child support enforcement 2630 agency that administered the child support order prior to its 2631 termination or had authority to administer the child support order 2632 to maintain any action or proceeding on behalf of the obligee to 2633 obtain a judgment, execution of a judgment through any available 2634 procedure, an order, or other relief. If a withholding or 2635 deduction notice is issued pursuant to section 3121.03 of the 2636 Revised Code to collect an arrearage, the amount withheld or 2637 deducted from the obligor's personal earnings, income, or accounts 2638 shall be rebuttably presumed to be at least equal to the amount 2639 that was withheld or deducted under the terminated child support 2640 order. A court or agency administering the child support order may 2641 consider evidence of household expenditures, income variables, 2642 extraordinary health care issues, and other reasons for deviation 2643 from the presumed amount. 2644

Section 2. That existing sections 3119.01, 3119.02, 3119.021, 2645 and section 3119.024 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 2649

Section 3. That section 3119.021 of the Revised Code as it 2650 results from Section 1 of this act be amended to read as follows: 2651

Sec. 3119.021. (A) Until a new schedule is issued by the   2652 department of job and family services pursuant to division (D) of   2653 this section, the following basic child support schedule shall be   2654 used by all courts and child support enforcement agencies when   2655 calculating the amount of child support to be paid pursuant to a   2656 child support order, unless the combined gross income of the   2657 parents is less than the minimum combined gross income listed on   2658 the schedule or more than the maximum combined gross income listed 2659 on the schedule: 2660

(2)(B) The department, in consultation with the child support   3080

Revised Code, shall update the schedule based on the following: 3082

(a)(1) Changes in the consumer price index for all urban   3083
consumers, midwest urban region, or its successive equivalent, as   3084
determined by the United States department of labor, bureau of   3085

determine the percentage increase or decrease. The current   3094
consumer price index shall be the consumer price index that is in   3095 effect as of the first day of October of every fourth year after   3096
the effective date of ....B. ... of the 130th general assembly.   3097

... of the 130th general assembly. For each subsequent update of   3102

shall be multiplied by each amount in the most recently updated   3106
basic child support schedule, and the product shall be added to or   3107
subtracted from each amount and rounded to the nearest dollar.   3108
