BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 1701.07, 1702.06, 1703.041, 1705.06,	7
1705.54, 1729.06, 1733.06, 1745.13, 1746.04, 1747.03, 1751.03,	8
1776.07, 1776.86, 1782.04, and 1782.49 of the Revised Code be	9
amended to read as follows:	10

Sec. 1701.07. (A) Every corporation shall have and maintain	11
an agent, sometimes referred to as the "statutory agent," upon	12
whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by	13
statute to be served upon a corporation may be served. The agent	14
may shall be a one of the following:	15

(1) A natural person who is a resident of this state or may	16
be a	17

(2) A domestic corporation or a foreign corporation holding a	18

~~license as such under the laws of this state, that is authorized by its articles of incorporation to act as such agent and, nonprofit corporation, limited liability company, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited partnership association, professional association, business trust, or unincorporated nonprofit association~~ that has a business address in this state. If the agent is an entity other than a domestic corporation, the agent shall meet the requirements of Title XVII of the Revised Code for an entity of the agent's type to transact business or exercise privileges in this state.

(B) The secretary of state shall not accept original articles for filing unless there is filed with the articles a written appointment of an agent that is signed by the incorporators of the corporation or a majority of them and a written acceptance of the appointment that is signed by the agent. In all other cases, the corporation shall appoint the agent and shall file in the office of the secretary of state a written appointment of the agent that is signed by any authorized officer of the corporation and a written acceptance of the appointment that is either the original acceptance signed by the agent or a photocopy, facsimile, or similar reproduction of the original acceptance signed by the agent.

(C) The written appointment of an agent shall set forth the name and address in this state of the agent, including the street and number or other particular description, and shall otherwise be in such form as the secretary of state prescribes. The secretary of state shall keep a record of the names of corporations, and the names and addresses of their respective agents.

(D) If any agent dies, removes from the state, or resigns, the corporation shall forthwith appoint another agent and file with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of the agent.

(E) If the agent changes the agent's address from that	51
appearing upon the record in the office of the secretary of state,	52
the corporation or the agent shall forthwith file with the	53
secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of	54
state, a written statement setting forth the new address.	55
(F) An agent may resign by filing with the secretary of	56
state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written	57
notice to that effect that is signed by the agent and by sending a	58
copy of the notice to the corporation at the current or last known	59 address of its principal office on or prior to the date the notice	60 is filed with the secretary of state. The notice shall set forth	61
the name of the corporation, the name and current address of the	62 agent, the current or last known address, including the street and	63 number or other particular description, of the corporation's	64 principal office, the resignation of the agent, and a statement	65 that a copy of the notice has been sent to the corporation within	66 the time and in the manner prescribed by this division. Upon the	67 expiration of thirty days after the filing, the authority of the	68
agent shall terminate.	69
(G) A corporation may revoke the appointment of an agent by	70
filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the	71 secretary of state, a written appointment of another agent and a	72 statement that the appointment of the former agent is revoked.	73
(H) Any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by	74 statute to be served upon a corporation may be served upon the	75 corporation by delivering a copy of it to its agent, if a natural	76 person, or by delivering a copy of it at the address of its agent	77 in this state, as the address appears upon the record in the	78 office of the secretary of state. If (1) the agent cannot be	79 found, or (2) the agent no longer has that address, or (3) the	80 corporation has failed to maintain an agent as required by this	81
section, and if in any such case the party desiring that the	82 process, notice, or demand be served, or the agent or representative of the party, shall have filed with the secretary of state an affidavit stating that one of the foregoing conditions exists and stating the most recent address of the corporation that the party after diligent search has been able to ascertain, then service of process, notice, or demand upon the secretary of state, as the agent of the corporation, may be initiated by delivering to the secretary of state or at the secretary of state's office quadruplicate copies of such process, notice, or demand and by paying to the secretary of state a fee of five dollars. The secretary of state shall forthwith give notice of the delivery to the corporation at its principal office as shown upon the record in the secretary of state's office and at any different address shown on its last franchise tax report filed in this state, or to the corporation at any different address set forth in the above mentioned affidavit, and shall forward to the corporation at said addresses, by certified mail, with request for return receipt, a copy of the process, notice, or demand; and thereupon service upon the corporation shall be deemed to have been made.	83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100 101

(K) Every corporation shall state in each annual report filed by it with the department of taxation the name and address of its statutory agent.	111 112 113
(L) Except when an original appointment of an agent is filed	114

with the original articles, a written appointment of an agent or a	115 written statement filed by a corporation with the secretary of	116 state shall be signed by any authorized officer of the corporation	117 or by the incorporators of the corporation or a majority of them	118
if no directors have been elected.	119
(M) For filing a written appointment of an agent other than	120
one filed with original articles, and for filing a statement of	121 change of address of an agent, the secretary of state shall charge	122 and collect the fee specified in division (R) of section 111.16 of	123
the Revised Code.	124
(N) Upon the failure of a corporation to appoint another	125
agent or to file a statement of change of address of an agent, the	126 secretary of state shall give notice thereof by ordinary or	127 electronic mail to the corporation at the electronic mail address	128 provided to the secretary of state, or at the address set forth in	129
the notice of resignation or on the last franchise tax return	130 filed in this state by the corporation. Unless the default is	131 cured within thirty days after the mailing by the secretary of	132 state of the notice or within any further period of time that the	133 secretary of state grants, upon the expiration of that period of	134 time from the date of the mailing, the articles of the corporation	135 shall be canceled without further notice or action by the	136 secretary of state. The secretary of state shall make a notation	137 of the cancellation on the secretary of state's records.	138
A corporation whose articles have been canceled may be	139 reinstated by filing, on a form prescribed by the secretary of	140 state, an application for reinstatement and the required	141 appointment of agent or required statement, and by paying the	142
filing fee specified in division (Q) of section 111.16 of the	143
Revised Code. The rights, privileges, and franchises of a	144 corporation whose articles have been reinstated are subject to	145 section 1701.922 of the Revised Code. The secretary of state shall	146 furnish the tax commissioner a monthly list of all corporations 147 canceled and reinstated under this division. 148

(O) This section does not apply to banks, trust companies, 149 insurance companies, or any corporation defined under the laws of 150
this state as a public utility for taxation purposes. 151

Sec. 1702.06. (A) Every corporation shall have and maintain 152 an agent, sometimes referred to as the "statutory agent," upon 153 whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by 154 statute to be served upon a corporation may be served. The agent 155
may shall be a one of the following: 156

(1) A natural person who is a resident of this state, ~~or may~~ 157
~~be a~~ 158

(2) A domestic or foreign business corporation holding a 159 license as such under the laws of this state that is authorized by 160 its articles of incorporation to act as such agent, and, nonprofit 161 corporation, limited liability company, partnership, limited 162 partnership, limited liability partnership, limited partnership 163 association, professional association, business trust, or 164 unincorporated nonprofit association that has a business address 165 in this state. If the agent is an entity other than a domestic 166 corporation, the agent shall meet the requirements of Title XVII 167 of the Revised Code for an entity of the agent's type to transact 168 business or exercise privileges in this state. 169

(B) The secretary of state shall not accept original articles 170 for filing unless there is filed with the articles a written 171 appointment of an agent signed by the incorporators of the 172 corporation or a majority of them and a written acceptance of the 173 appointment signed by the agent. In all other cases, the 174 corporation shall appoint the agent and shall file in the office 175 of the secretary of state a written appointment of the agent that 176 is signed by any authorized officer of the corporation and a 177 written acceptance of the appointment that is either the original acceptance signed by the agent or a photocopy, facsimile, or similar reproduction of the original acceptance signed by the agent.	178 179 180 181

(C) The written appointment of an agent shall set forth the name and address in this state of the agent, including the street and number or other particular description, and shall otherwise be in such form as the secretary of state prescribes. The secretary of state shall keep a record of the names of corporations and the names and addresses of their respective agents.	182 183 184 185 186 187
(D) If any agent dies, removes from the state, or resigns, the corporation shall forthwith appoint another agent and file with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of that agent.	188 189 190 191
(E) If the agent changes the agent's address from that appearing upon the record in the office of the secretary of state, the corporation or the agent shall forthwith file with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written statement setting forth the new address.	192 193 194 195 196
(F) An agent may resign by filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written notice to that effect that is signed by the agent and by sending a copy of the notice to the corporation at the current or last known address of its principal office on or prior to the date that notice is filed with the secretary of state. The notice shall set forth the name of the corporation, the name and current address of the agent, the current or last known address, including the street and number or other particular description, of the corporation's principal office, the resignation of the agent, and a statement that a copy of the notice has been sent to the corporation within the time and in the manner prescribed by this division. Upon the expiration of sixty days after such filing, the authority of the	197 198 199 200 201 202 203 204 205 206 207 208 209

(G) A corporation may revoke the appointment of an agent by filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of another agent and a statement that the appointment of the former agent is revoked.	211 212 213 214
(H) Any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by statute to be served upon a corporation may be served upon the corporation by delivering a copy of it to its agent, if a natural person, or by delivering a copy of it at the address of its agent in this state, as such address appears upon the record in the office of the secretary of state. If (1) the agent cannot be found, or (2) the agent no longer has that address, or (3) the corporation has failed to maintain an agent as required by this section, and if in any such case the party desiring that such process, notice, or demand be served, or the agent or representative of the party, shall have filed with the secretary of state an affidavit stating that one of the foregoing conditions exists and stating the most recent address of the corporation that the party after diligent search has been able to ascertain, then service of process, notice, or demand upon the secretary of state, as the agent of the corporation, may be initiated by delivering to the secretary of state or at the secretary of state's office triplicate copies of such process, notice, or demand and by paying to the secretary of state a fee of five dollars. The secretary of state shall forthwith give notice of such delivery to the corporation at its principal office as shown upon the record in the secretary of state's office and also to the corporation at any different address set forth in the above mentioned affidavit, and shall forward to the corporation at each of those addresses, by certified mail, with request for return receipt, a copy of such process, notice, or demand; and thereupon service upon the corporation shall be deemed to have been made.	215 216 217 218 219 220 221 222 223 224 225 226 227 228 229 230 231 232 233 234 235 236 237 238 239 240 241

(I) The secretary of state shall keep a record of each process, notice, and demand delivered to the secretary of state or at the secretary of state's office under this section or any other law of this state that authorizes service upon the secretary of state, and shall record the time of such delivery and the secretary of state's action thereafter with respect thereto.	242 243 244 245 246 247
(K) Except when an original appointment of an agent is filed with the original articles, a written appointment of an agent or a written statement filed by a corporation with the secretary of state shall be signed by any authorized officer of the corporation or by the incorporators of the corporation or a majority of them if no directors have been elected.	251 252 253 254 255 256
(L) For filing a written appointment of an agent other than one filed with original articles, and for filing a statement of change of address of an agent, the secretary of state shall charge and collect the fee specified in division (R) of section 111.16 of the Revised Code.	257 258 259 260 261
(M) Upon the failure of any corporation to appoint another agent or to file a statement of change of address of an agent, the secretary of state shall give notice thereof by certified mail to the corporation at the address set forth in the notice of resignation or on the most recent statement of continued existence filed in this state by the corporation. Unless the failure is cured within thirty days after the mailing by the secretary of state of the notice or within any further period the secretary of state grants, upon the expiration of that period, the articles of the corporation shall be canceled without further notice or action by the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall make a notation of the cancellation on the secretary of state's records.	262 263 264 265 266 267 268 269 270 271 272 273

A corporation whose articles have been canceled may be reinstated 274 by filing, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, an 275 application for reinstatement and the required appointment of 276 agent or required statement, and by paying the filing fee 277 specified in division (Q) of section 111.16 of the Revised Code. 278
The rights, privileges, and franchises of a corporation whose 279 articles have been reinstated are subject to section 1702.60 of 280 the Revised Code. The secretary of state shall furnish the tax 281 commissioner a monthly list of all corporations canceled and 282 reinstated under this division. 283

(N) This section does not apply to banks, trust companies, 284
insurance companies, or any corporation defined under the laws of 285
this state as a public utility for taxation purposes. 286

Sec. 1703.041. (A) Every foreign corporation for profit that 287 is licensed to transact business in this state, and every foreign 288 nonprofit corporation that is licensed to exercise its ~~corporate~~ 289 privileges in this state, shall have and maintain an agent, 290 sometimes referred to as the "designated agent," upon whom process 291 against the corporation may be served within this state. The agent 292
~~may~~ shall be a one of the following: 293

(1) A natural person who is a resident of this state, ~~or may~~ 294

than a domestic corporation, the agent shall meet the requirements 304

of Title XVII of the Revised Code for an entity of the agent's type to transact business or exercise privileges in this state.	305
	306
(B) The written appointment of a designated agent shall set forth the name and address of the agent, including the street and number or other particular description, and shall otherwise be in such form as the secretary of state prescribes. The secretary of state shall keep a record of the names of such foreign corporations and the names and addresses of their respective agents.	307
	308
	310
	311
	313
(C) If the designated agent dies, removes from the state, or resigns, the foreign corporation shall forthwith appoint another agent and file in the office of the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of the new agent.	314
	315
	317
	318
(D) If the designated agent changes the agent's address from that appearing upon the record in the office of the secretary of state, the foreign corporation or the designated agent in its behalf shall forthwith file with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written statement setting forth the agent's new address.	319
	320
	322
	323
	324
(E) A designated agent may resign by filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a signed statement to that effect. The secretary of state shall forthwith mail a copy of the statement to the foreign corporation at its principal office as shown by the record in the secretary of state's office. Upon the expiration of sixty days after the filing, the authority of the agent shall terminate.	325
	326
	327
	328
	329
	330
	331
(F) A foreign corporation may revoke the appointment of a designated agent by filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of another agent and a statement that the appointment of the former	332
	333
	335

agent is revoked.	336
(G) Process may be served upon a foreign corporation by delivering a copy of it to its designated agent, if a natural person, or by delivering a copy of it at the address of its agent in this state, as the address appears upon the record in the office of the secretary of state.	337 338 339 340 341
(H) This section does not limit or affect the right to serve process upon a foreign corporation in any other manner permitted by law.	342 343 344
(I) Every foreign corporation for profit shall state in each annual report filed by it with the department of taxation the name and address of its designated agent in this state.	345 346 347
Sec. 1705.06. (A) Each limited liability company shall maintain continuously in this state an agent for service of process on the company. The agent shall be an individual one of the following:	348 349 350 351

(B)(1) The secretary of state shall not accept original articles of organization of a limited liability company for filing unless the articles are accompanied by both of the following:	363 364 365

(a) A written appointment of an agent as described in division (A) of this section that is signed by an authorized member, manager, or other representative of the limited liability company;	366 367 368 369
(b) A written acceptance of the appointment that is signed by the designated agent on a form prescribed by the secretary of state.	370 371 372
(2) In cases not covered by division (B)(1) of this section, the limited liability company shall appoint the agent described in division (A) of this section and shall file with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of that agent that is signed as described in division (K) of this section and a written acceptance of the appointment that is signed by the designated agent.	373 374 375 376 377 378 379
(3) For purposes of divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section, the filed written acceptance of an agent's appointment shall be a signed original document or a photocopy, facsimile, or similar reproduction of a signed original document.	380 381 382 383
(C) The written appointment of an agent described in division (A) of this section shall set forth the name of the agent and the agent's address in this state, including the street and number or other particular description of that address. It otherwise shall be in the form that the secretary of state prescribes. The secretary of state shall keep a record of the names of limited liability companies and the names and addresses of their agents.	384 385 386 387 388 389 390
(D) If any agent described in division (A) of this section dies, resigns, or moves outside of this state, the limited liability company shall appoint forthwith another agent and file with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of the agent and acceptance of appointment as described in division (B)(2) of this section.	391 392 393 394 395 396

(E) If the agent described in division (A) of this section changes the agent's address from the address stated in the records of the secretary of state, the agent or the limited liability company shall file forthwith with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written statement setting forth the new address.	397 398 399 400 401 402
(F) An agent described in division (A) of this section may resign by filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written notice of resignation that is signed by the agent and by mailing a copy of that notice to the limited liability company at the current or last known address of its principal office. The notice shall be mailed to the company on or prior to the date that the notice is filed with the secretary of state and shall set forth the name of the company, the name and current address of the agent, the current or last known address, including the street and number or other particular description, of the company's principal office, a statement of the resignation of the agent, and a statement that a copy of the notice has been sent to the company within the time and in the manner specified in this division. The authority of the resigning agent terminates thirty days after the filing of the notice with the secretary of state.	403 404 405 406 407 408 409 410 411 412 413 414 415 416 417 418
(G) A limited liability company may revoke the appointment of its agent described in division (A) of this section by filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of another agent and an acceptance of appointment in the manner described in division (B)(2) of this section and a statement indicating that the appointment of the former agent is revoked.	419 420 421 422 423 424 425
(H)(1) Any legal process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a limited liability company may be served upon the company as follows:	426 427 428

(a) If the agent described in division (A) of this section is an individual a natural person , by delivering a copy of the process, notice, or demand to the agent;	429 430 431
(b) If the agent is not a corporation natural person , by delivering a copy of the process, notice, or demand to the address of the agent in this state as contained in the records of the secretary of state.	432 433 434 435
(2) If the agent described in division (A) of this section cannot be found or no longer has the address that is stated in the records of the secretary of state or the limited liability company has failed to maintain an agent as required by this section and if the party or the agent or representative of the party that desires service of the process, notice, or demand files with the secretary of state an affidavit that states that one of those circumstances exists and states the most recent address of the company that the party who desires service has been able to ascertain after a diligent search, then the service of the process, notice, or demand upon the secretary of state as the agent of the company may be initiated by delivering to the secretary of state four copies of the process, notice, or demand accompanied by a fee of five dollars. The secretary of state shall give forthwith notice of that delivery to the company at either its principal office as shown upon the secretary of state's records or at any different address specified in the affidavit of the party desiring service and shall forward to the company at either address by certified mail, return receipt requested, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. Service upon the company is made when the secretary of state gives the notice and forwards the process, notice, or demand as set forth in division (H)(2) of this section.	436 437 438 439 440 441 442 443 444 445 446 447 448 449 450 451 452 453 454 455 456 457
(I) The secretary of state shall keep a record of each process, notice, and demand that pertains to a limited liability company and that is delivered to the secretary of state's office	458 459 460

under this section or another law of this state that authorizes service upon the secretary of state in connection with a limited liability company. In that record, the secretary of state shall record the time of each delivery of that type and the secretary of state's subsequent action with respect to the process, notice, or demand.	461 462 463 464 465 466

(E) An agent may resign by filing a written and signed notice of resignation with the secretary of state on a form the secretary prescribes and mailing a copy of that notice to the partnership. The agent shall mail the copy of the notice to the partnership at the current or last known address of its principal office on or prior to the date that the agent files the notice with the secretary of state. The notice shall include the name of the partnership, the name and current address of the agent, the current or last known address, including the street and number or other particular description, of the partnership's principal office, a statement of the resignation of the agent, and a	939 statement that a copy of the notice was provided to the 950 partnership within the time and in the manner specified in this 951 division. The resigning agent's authority terminates thirty days 952 after filing the notice with the secretary of state. 953

(F) A partnership may revoke the appointment of its agent by 954 filing with the secretary of state an amendment to its statement 955 of partnership authority indicating that the appointment of the 956 former agent is revoked and that a new agent is appointed. A 957 written acceptance signed by the new designated agent shall 958 accompany the filing. 959

(G)(1) Any legal process, notice, or demand required or 960 permitted by law to be served upon a partnership with an effective 961 statement of partnership authority may be served upon the 962 partnership as follows: 963

(a) If its agent is an individual a natural person, by 964 delivering a copy of the process, notice, or demand to the agent; 965

(b) If its agent is not a corporation natural person, by 966 delivering a copy of the process, notice, or demand to the address 967 of the agent in this state as contained in the records of the 968 secretary of state. 969

(2)(a) If its agent cannot be found or no longer has the 970 address stated in the records of the secretary of state or the 971 partnership has failed to maintain an agent as this section 972 requires, and the party, agent, or representative that desires 973 service files with the secretary of state an affidavit stating 974 that one of those circumstances exists and the most recent address 975 of the partnership ascertained after a diligent search, then 976 service upon the secretary of state as the agent of the 977 partnership may be initiated by delivering to the secretary of 978 state four copies of the process, notice, or demand accompanied by 979 a fee of not less than five and not more than seven dollars, as 980 determined by the secretary of state.	981

(b) The secretary of state forthwith shall give notice of that delivery to the partnership at either its principal office as shown upon the secretary of state's records or at any different address specified in the affidavit of the party desiring service and shall forward to the partnership at either address by certified mail, return receipt requested, a copy of the process, notice, or demand.	982 983 984 985 986 987 988
(c) Service upon the partnership is made when the secretary of state gives the notice and forwards the process, notice, or demand as set forth in division (G)(2) of this section.	989 990 991
(H) The secretary of state shall keep a record of each process, notice, and demand that pertains to a partnership and that is delivered to the secretary of state's office under this section or another law of this state that authorizes service upon the secretary of state in connection with a partnership. In that record, the secretary shall record the time of each delivery of that type and the secretary's subsequent action with respect to the process, notice, or demand.	992 993 994 995 996 997 998 999
(I) Nothing in this section limits or affects the right to serve process in any other manner now or hereafter provided by law. This section is an extension of, and not a limitation upon, the right otherwise existing of service of legal process.	1000 1001 1002 1003
Sec. 1776.86. (A) A foreign limited liability partnership shall file a statement of foreign qualification with the secretary of state prior to transacting any business in this state. The statement shall contain all of the following:	1004 1005 1006 1007
(1) The name of the foreign limited liability partnership. The name shall satisfy the requirements of the state or other jurisdiction under whose law it is formed and shall end with	1008 1009 1010

(2) The street address of the partnership's chief executive office and, if the partnership's chief executive office is not in this state, the street address of any partnership office in this state;	1013 1014 1015 1016
(3) If there is no office of the partnership in this state, the name and street address of the partnership's agent for service of process;	1017 1018 1019
(4) Any deferred effective date;	1020
(5) Evidence of existence in its jurisdiction of origin.	1021
(B) The agent of a foreign limited liability partnership for service of process shall be an individual one of the following:	1022 1023
(1) A natural person who is a resident of this state or another person authorized to do;	1024 1025
(2) A domestic or foreign corporation, nonprofit corporation, limited liability company, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited partnership association, professional association, business trust, or unincorporated nonprofit association that has a business address in this state. If the agent is an entity other than a domestic corporation, the agent shall meet the requirements of Title XVII of the Revised Code for an entity of the agent's type to transact business or exercise privileges in this state.	1026 1027 1028 1029 1030 1031 1032 1033 1034
(C) The status of a partnership as a foreign limited liability partnership is effective on the later of the filing of the statement of foreign qualification or a date specified in the statement. The status remains effective, regardless of changes in the partnership, until it is canceled pursuant to division (D) of section 1776.05 of the Revised Code or revoked pursuant to section	1035 1036 1037 1038 1039 1040

1776.83 of the Revised Code.	1041
(D) An amendment or cancellation of a statement of foreign qualification is effective when it is filed or on a deferred effective date specified in the amendment or cancellation.	1042 1043 1044
Sec. 1782.04. (A) Each limited partnership shall maintain continuously in this state an agent for service of process on the limited partnership. The agent shall be a one of the following:	1045 1046 1047
(1) A natural person who is a resident of this state,  a;	1048

(B) The secretary of state shall not accept a certificate of limited partnership for filing unless there is filed with the certificate a written appointment of an agent that is signed by the general partners of the limited partnership and a written acceptance of the appointment that is signed by the agent, or unless there is filed a written appointment of an agent that is signed by any authorized officer of the limited partnership and a written acceptance of the appointment that is either the original acceptance signed by the agent or a photocopy, facsimile, or similar reproduction of the original acceptance signed by the agent.	1059 1060 1061 1062 1063 1064 1065 1066 1067 1068 1069
In the discretion of the secretary of state, an original	1070

appointment of statutory agent may be submitted on the same form	1071 as the certificate of limited partnership but shall not be	1072 considered a part of the certificate.	1073
(C) The written appointment of an agent shall set forth the	1074 name and address in this state of the agent, including the street	1075 and number or other particular description, and shall otherwise be	1076 in the form the secretary of state prescribes. The secretary of	1077 state shall keep a record of the names of limited partnerships,	1078 and the names and addresses of their respective agents.	1079
(D) If any agent dies, removes from the state, or resigns,	1080
the limited partnership shall forthwith appoint another agent and	1081 file with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the	1082 secretary of state, a written appointment of the new agent.	1083
(E) If the agent changes the agent's address from that	1084
appearing upon the record in the office of the secretary of state,	1085
the limited partnership or the agent forthwith shall file with the	1086
secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of	1087
state, a written statement setting forth the new address.	1088
(F) An agent may resign by filing with the secretary of	1089
state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written	1090
notice to that effect that is signed by the agent and by sending a	1091
copy of the notice to the limited partnership at its current or	1092
last known address or its principal office on or prior to the date	1093
the notice is filed with the secretary of state. The notice shall	1094 set forth the name of the limited partnership, the name and	1095 current address of the agent, the current or last known address,	1096
including the street and number or other particular description,	1097 of the limited partnership's principal office, the resignation of	1098
the agent, and a statement that a copy of the notice has been sent	1099 to the limited partnership within the time and in the manner	1100 prescribed by this division. Upon the expiration of thirty days	1101 after the filing, the authority of the agent shall terminate.	1102

(G) A limited partnership may revoke the appointment of an agent by filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written appointment of another agent and a statement that the appointment of the former agent is revoked.	1103 1104 1105 1106 1107
(H) Except when an original appointment of an agent is filed with the certificate of limited partnership, a written appointment of an agent or a written statement filed by a limited partnership with the secretary of state shall be signed by any authorized officer of the limited partnership, or the general partners of the limited partnership, or a majority of them.	1108 1109 1110 1111 1112 1113
Sec. 1782.49. Before transacting business in this state, a foreign limited partnership shall register with the secretary of state. In order to register, a foreign limited partnership shall submit to the secretary of state an application for registration as a foreign limited partnership. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, shall be signed by a general partner, and shall set forth all of the following:	1114 1115 1116 1117 1118 1119 1120
