The temporary emergency license issued under this division is valid for ninety days and may not be renewed. A person who has been issued a temporary emergency license under this division shall not be issued another temporary emergency license unless at least four years has expired since the issuance of the prior temporary emergency license.

(C) A person who holds a temporary emergency license to carry a concealed handgun has the same right to carry a concealed handgun as a person who was issued a license to carry a concealed handgun under section 2923.125 of the Revised Code, and any exceptions to the prohibitions contained in section 1547.69 and sections 2923.12 to 2923.16 of the Revised Code for a licensee under section 2923.125 of the Revised Code apply to a licensee under this section. (D) A sheriff who issues a temporary emergency license to carry a concealed handgun under this section shall not require a person seeking to carry a concealed handgun in accordance with this section to submit a competency certificate as a prerequisite for issuing the license and shall comply with division (H) of section 2923.125 of the Revised Code in regards to the license. The sheriff shall suspend or revoke the license in accordance with section 2923.128 of the Revised Code. In addition to the suspension or revocation procedures set forth in section 2923.128 of the Revised Code, the sheriff may revoke the license upon receiving information, verifiable by public documents, that the person is not eligible to possess a firearm under either the laws of this state or of the United States or that the person committed perjury in obtaining the license; if the sheriff revokes a license under this additional authority, the sheriff shall notify the person, by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the person's last known residence address that the license has been revoked and that the person is required to surrender the license at the sheriff's office within ten days of the date on which the notice was mailed. Division (H) of section 2923.125 of the Revised Code applies regarding any suspension or revocation of a temporary emergency license to carry a concealed handgun.

(E) A sheriff who issues a temporary emergency license to carry a concealed handgun under this section shall retain, for the entire period during which the temporary emergency license is in effect, the evidence of imminent danger that the person submitted to the sheriff and that was the basis for the license, or a copy of that evidence, as appropriate.

(F) If a temporary emergency license to carry a concealed handgun issued under this section is lost or is destroyed, the licensee may obtain from the sheriff who issued that license a duplicate license upon the payment of a fee of fifteen dollars and the submission of an affidavit attesting to the loss or destruction of the license. The sheriff, in accordance with the procedures prescribed in section 109.731 of the Revised Code, shall place on the replacement license a combination of identifying numbers different from the combination on the license that is being replaced.

(G) The Ohio peace officer training commission shall prescribe, and shall make available to sheriffs, a standard form to be used under division (B) of this section by a person who applies for a temporary emergency license to carry a concealed handgun on the basis of imminent danger of a type described in division (A)(1)(a) of this section.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

MESSAGE FROM THE SPEAKER

January 6, 2004

Representative Chris Redfern, Minority Leader
Representative Joyce Beatty, Assistant Minority Leader
Representative Dale Miller, Minority Whip
Members of the OHR Democratic Caucus
Ohio House of Representatives
77 South High Street
Columbus, OH 43215

Dear Colleagues:

As you know, my Air Force Reserves Unit has been activated to support Operation Freedom. While our Caucus knew this was a possibility at the time my colleagues voted for me to be the Assistant Minority Whip for the 125th General Assembly, none of us realized the duration of the war, or that my deployment may be up for one year.

I have been honored to serve with our Leadership Team, and I was proud to have your vote of confidence behind me as demonstrated by our Democratic Caucus last year. However, because I have been called upon to serve another worthy cause, our national security, I reluctantly step down from my Assistant Minority Whip position for the duration of my deployment.

While I am effectively carrying out my duties for my constituents as their State Representative, as other activated members have done in the past, the duties of Assistant Minority Whip, as mandated by statute, are another matter. I cannot fulfill all the aspects of the Assistant Minority Whip from overseas, because it requires political appearances and vote counting.

When I return, it will be my honor and pleasure to work with all of you again - and should all of you so decide - to serve our Caucus again in Leadership. I look forward to that time with more longing than you can ever imagine.

Until then - I remain your friend and colleague,

/s/ JOHN BOCCIERI
John Boccieri
State Representative - District 61

Cc: State Representative Larry Householder, Speaker

This is to acknowledge receipt and acceptance of your letter of resignation as the Assistant Minority Whip. You have served the members of your caucus admirably in your leadership role, and I am confident you will do so providing national security and defending our country.

We look forward to your safe return.

Sincerely,
/s/ LARRY HOUSEHOLDER
