Stewart, Strahorn, Sykes, Taylor, Trakas, Ujvagi, Wagner, Walcher, Webster, White, Widener, Widowfield, Willamowski, Williams, Wilson, Wolpert, Woodard, Yates, Young.

In memory of Frances McGovern.

WHEREAS, The members of the House of Representatives of the 125th General Assembly of Ohio were deeply saddened to learn of the death of Frances McGovern and extend our heartfelt condolences to her family and friends; and

WHEREAS, Frances McGovern left an indelible impression on the people whose lives she touched, and she will be remembered as a spirited individual who contributed immeasurably to the world around her. A member of the Ohio House of Representatives for three terms in the 1950s, she later became the first woman to chair the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, and she was an attorney for Motz, Morris, Wilson, and Quine and for the Ohio Edison Company, from which she retired in 1989. In addition, she was an author and an active participant with the Summit County Charter Commission, the United Way of Summit County, and the boards of the Ohio Historical Society and Progress Through Preservation, and she received the 1960 Ohio Democratic Woman of the Year Award and a 1998 Woman of the Year Award from the Women's History Project of Summit County; and

WHEREAS, Frances McGovern's regard for improving the quality of life in our society was clearly evident in her personal sacrifices of time and effort to her family, friends, and community, and she will be remembered for her generosity, talents, and seemingly inexhaustible energy. She displayed exceptional concern and insight in all of her endeavors, and her absence will be keenly felt; and

WHEREAS, Frances McGovern always used her talents to the benefit of others, and the warmth and understanding she readily extended to those around her will stand as a testament to her personal character. Although the void her death has created can never be filled, the legacy of care and commitment she established will surely live on; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the House of Representatives of the 125th General Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, express a profound sense of loss and sincere regret at the death of Frances McGovern and, in so doing, pay tribute to the memory of a truly unique individual; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a duly authenticated copy of this Resolution to the family of Frances McGovern.

The resolution was adopted.

Representative Cates moves that H.R. No. 174 - Speaker Householder, Representative Redfern, be brought up for immediate adoption, read by title only and spread upon the pages of the journal.

Sub. H. B. No. 350-Representatives Gibbs, Wagner, Setzer, Seitz, Husted, Williams, Hollister, Young, C. Evans, Webster, Hagan, Martin, Aslanides, McGregor, Collier, Allen, Raussen, Faber, Schaffer, Seaver, Widener, Latta, Core, Willamowski, Book.

To amend sections 1533.18 and 2323.51 and to enact sections 901.52, 1519.07, and 2305.36 of the Revised Code to provide qualified immunity from civil damages for food manufacturers, sellers, and trade associations for claims resulting from a person's cumulative consumption, obesity, or weight gain or any health condition related to cumulative consumption, obesity, or weight gain; to prohibit imputing any assurances or assumption of liability regarding public access to premises used for growing agricultural produce; to preclude assumption of liability regarding the use of recreational trails; and to modify the provisions on frivolous conduct in filing civil actions, was taken up for consideration the third time.

The question being, "Shall the bill pass?"

Representative Skindell moved to amend as follows:

In line 16, delete "and"; after "2305.36" insert ", and 3717.53"

Between lines 308 and 309, insert:

"Sec. 3717.53. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Chain restaurant" means a food service operation that is one of at least ten food service operations in the United States and at least five food service operations in this state that do business as food service operations under common ownership or under the same trade name and that offer predominantly the same types of meals or food and predominantly the same types of menus.

(2) "Food service operation" has the same meaning as in section 3717.01 of the Revised Code. "Food service operation" does not include a catering food service operation, food delivery sales operation, mobile food service operation, seasonal food service operation, temporary food service operation, or vending machine location, as those terms are defined in section 3717.01 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Nutritional information" means the total number of calories, total grams of saturated fat, total grams of trans fat, total grams of carbohydrates, and total milligrams of sodium per serving of a food or beverage item.

(B)(1) No person that owns or operates a chain restaurant shall fail to disclose in a clear and conspicuous manner, as provided in division (B)(1) of this section, the nutritional information per serving of each food or beverage item as usually prepared and offered for sale in the restaurant. The nutritional information shall be located adjacent to each food or beverage item listed on the standard printed menu of the chain restaurant. If the chain restaurant uses only menu boards or similar signs listing each food or beverage item that is offered for sale, the nutritional information shall be located adjacent to each food or beverage item listed on the menu board or similar sign.

(2) The disclosure of nutritional information pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section may include a disclaimer that acknowledges that there may be minimal variations in nutritional content across servings of the food or beverage item, based on slight variations in overall size and quantities of the ingredients of the food or beverage item, or based on a customer's special order regarding the preparation of the food or beverage item other than its usual preparation.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits any owner or operator of a chain restaurant from providing any other information regarding nutritional content, in addition to the nutritional information provided in division (B)(1) of this section, pertaining to any food or beverage item that is offered for sale in the restaurant.

(C) Division (B)(1) of this section does not apply to any food or beverage item that is offered for sale at a chain restaurant and the preparation of which, at the request of a customer, is modified from the restaurant's usual preparation of the food or beverage.

(D) Any owner or operator of a chain restaurant that violates any provision of this section is subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars for each violation.

(E) The director of the department of health shall promulgate rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement the provisions of this section."

In line 2 of the title, delete "and"; after "2305.36" insert ", and 3717.53"

In line 13 of the title, delete "and"

In line 14 of the title, after "actions" insert "; and to require chain restaurants to disclose the nutritional information of each food or beverage item prepared and offered for sale in the restaurant"
