"Sec. 3721.011. (A) In addition to providing accommodations, supervision, and personal care services to its residents, a residential care facility may provide skilled nursing care to its residents as follows:

- (1) Supervision of special diets;
- (2) Application of dressings, in accordance with rules adopted under section 3721.04 of the Revised Code;
- (3) ~~Providing for the~~ Subject to division (B)(1) of this section, administration of medication ~~to residents, to the extent authorized under division~~

~~(B)(1) of this section;~~

(4) ~~Other~~ Subject to division (C) of this section, other skilled nursing care provided on a part-time, intermittent basis ~~pursuant to division (C) of this section~~ for not more than a total of one hundred twenty days in a twelve-month period;

(5) Subject to division (D) of this section, skilled nursing care provided for more than one hundred twenty days in a twelve-month period to a hospice patient, as defined in section 3712.01 of the Revised Code.

A residential care facility may not admit or retain an individual requiring skilled nursing care that is not authorized by this section. A residential care facility may not provide skilled nursing care beyond the limits established by this section.

(B)(1) A residential care facility may admit or retain an individual requiring medication, including biologicals, only if the individual's personal physician has determined in writing that the individual is capable of self-administering the medication or the facility provides for the medication to be administered to the individual by a home health agency certified under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 4979 Stat. 620 (~~4935~~1965), 42 U.S.C.A. ~~301~~1395, as amended; a hospice care program licensed under Chapter 3712. of the Revised Code; or a member of the staff of the residential care facility who is qualified to perform medication administration. Medication may be administered in a residential care facility only by the following persons authorized by law to administer medication:

(a) A registered nurse licensed under Chapter 4723. of the Revised Code;

(b) A licensed practical nurse licensed under Chapter 4723. of the Revised Code who holds proof of successful completion of a course in medication administration approved by the board of nursing and who administers the medication only at the direction of a registered nurse or a physician authorized under Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code to practice medicine and surgery or osteopathic medicine and surgery;

(c) A medication aide certified under Chapter 4723. of the Revised Code;

(d) A physician authorized under Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code to practice medicine and surgery or osteopathic medicine and surgery.

(2) In assisting a resident with self-administration of medication, any member of the staff of a residential care facility may do the following:

(a) Remind a resident when to take medication and watch to ensure that the resident follows the directions on the container;

(b) Assist a resident by taking the medication from the locked area where it is stored, in accordance with rules adopted pursuant to section 3721.04 of the Revised Code, and handing it to the resident. If the resident is physically unable to open the container, a staff member may open the container for the resident.

(c) Assist a physically impaired but mentally alert resident, such as a resident with arthritis, cerebral palsy, or Parkinson's disease, in removing oral or topical medication from containers and in consuming or applying the medication, upon request by or with the consent of the resident. If a resident is physically unable to place a dose of medicine to the resident's mouth without spilling it, a staff member may place the dose in a container and place the container to the mouth of the resident.

(C) A residential care facility may admit or retain individuals who require skilled nursing care beyond the supervision of special diets, application of dressings, or administration of medication, only if the care will be provided on a part-time, intermittent basis for not more than a total of one hundred twenty days in any twelve-month period. In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the public health council shall adopt rules specifying what constitutes the need for skilled nursing care on a part-time, intermittent basis. The council shall adopt rules that are consistent with rules pertaining to home health care adopted by the director of job and family services for the medical assistance program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code. Skilled nursing care provided pursuant to this division may be provided by a home health agency certified under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," ~~49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended,~~ a hospice care program licensed under Chapter 3712. of the Revised Code, or a member of the staff of a residential care facility who is qualified to perform skilled nursing care.

A residential care facility that provides skilled nursing care pursuant to this division shall do both of the following:

(1) Evaluate each resident receiving the skilled nursing care at least once every seven days to determine whether the resident should be transferred to a nursing home;

(2) Meet the skilled nursing care needs of each resident receiving the care.

(D) A residential care facility may admit or retain a hospice patient who requires skilled nursing care for more than one hundred twenty days in any twelve-month period only if the facility has entered into a written agreement with a hospice care program licensed under Chapter 3712. of the Revised Code. The agreement between the residential care facility and hospice program shall include all of the following provisions:

(1) That the hospice patient will be provided skilled nursing care in the facility only if a determination has been made that the patient's needs can be met at the facility;

(2) That the hospice patient will be retained in the facility only if periodic redeterminations are made that the patient's needs are being met at the facility;

(3) That the redeterminations will be made according to a schedule specified in the agreement;

(4) That the hospice patient has been given an opportunity to choose the hospice care program that best meets the patient's needs.

(E) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a residential care facility in which residents receive skilled nursing care pursuant to this section is not a nursing home."

(1) The PASSPORT program created under section 173.40 of the Revised Code;

(2) The medicaid waiver component called the choices program that the department of aging administers;

(3) A medicaid waiver component that the department of job and family services administers.

(B) The director of job and family services shall submit a request to the United States secretary of health and human services for a waiver of federal medicaid requirements that would be otherwise violated in the creation of a pilot program under which not more than two hundred individuals who meet the pilot program's eligibility requirements specified in division (D) of this section receive a spending authorization to pay for the cost of medically necessary ~~health care~~home and community-basedservices that the pilot program covers. The spending authorization shall be in an amount not exceeding seventy per cent of the average cost under the medicaid program for providing nursing facility services to an individual. An individual participating in the pilot program shall also receive necessary support services, including fiscal intermediary and other case management services, that the pilot program covers.

(C) If the United States secretary of health and human services approves the waiver submitted under division (B) of this section, the department of job and family services shall enter into a contract with the department of aging under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code that provides for the department of aging to administer the pilot program that the waiver authorizes.

(D) To be eligible to participate in the pilot program created under division (B) of this section, an individual must meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Need an intermediate level of care as determined under rule 5101:3-3-06 of the Administrative Code or a skilled level of care as determined under rule 5101:3-3-05 of the Administrative Code;

(2) At the time the individual applies to participate in the pilot program, be one of the following:

(a) A nursing facility resident ~~who is seeking to move to a residential care facility or county or district home and~~ who would remain in a nursing facility if not for the pilot program;

(b) A participant of any long-term care medicaid waiver component who would move to a nursing facility if not for the pilot program.

(3) Meet all other eligibility requirements for the pilot program established in rules adopted under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code.

(E) The director of job and family services may adopt rules under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code as the director considers necessary to implement the pilot program created under division (B) of this section. The director of aging may adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code as the director considers necessary for the pilot program's implementation. The rules may establish a list of medicaid-covered services not covered by the pilot program that an individual participating in the pilot program may not receive if the individual also receives medicaid-covered services outside of the pilot program."
