(1)(a) If the official whose removal is sought is the holder of a statewide office, a petition signed by qualified electors equal in number to at least fifteen per cent of the total votes cast in the state for the office of governor at the most recent election for that office, and demanding the election of a successor to the person sought to be removed, shall be filed. If the official whose removal is sought is the secretary of state, the petition shall be filed with the governor, and the governor shall fulfill all duties of the secretary of state with regard to that petition.

If the date of the next succeeding general election or primary election is one hundred fifty or more days after the petition is filed, a special election shall be held to determine the question of the removal of the official, and for the selection of a successor to the official.

The successor of any person so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of the successor's predecessor.
