WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 130th General Assembly of Ohio are pleased to recognize American Red Cross Month, March 2013; and

It also provides contact with deployed loved ones for military families, offers public education in safety, first aid, and communicable diseases, tests to ensure the availability of the safest possible blood and blood products, and disseminates disaster preparedness information, all of which saves untold numbers of lives; and

WHEREAS, The American Red Cross is always there, under the same trusted symbol, serving our communities and touching lives through its lifesaving information and training and its disaster relief services. We encourage all Ohioans to recognize and participate in this important observance; therefore be it
