

H.B. 248

127th General Assembly
(As Introduced)

Rep. Blessing

BILL SUMMARY

- Specifies the requirements for all contracts for a "non-recourse civil litigation advance," defined as a transaction in which a company makes a cash payment to a consumer who has a pending civil claim or action in exchange for the right to receive an amount out of the proceeds of any realized settlement, judgment, award, or verdict the consumer may receive in the civil lawsuit.
- Requires those contracts to contain certain disclosures, including the amounts to be advanced to and repaid by the consumer, the annual percentage rate of return, and an itemization of one-time fees.
- Requires the contract to contain the consumer's right of cancellation and the manner of cancellation, a written acknowledgement by an attorney stating specified information and that the attorney has reviewed the contract, and a provision for the recovery of reasonable attorney's fees and costs upon breach of the contract.
- Specifies conspicuous statements that must appear in the contract and other requirements for the contract.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

Requirements for contracts for a non-recourse civil litigation advance

The bill requires all contracts for a "non-recourse civil litigation advance" between a "consumer" and a "company" to comply with the following requirements (see "Definitions," below, for the definitions of terms in quotation marks) (R.C. 1349.55(B)):

(1) The contract must be completely filled in and contain on the front page appropriately headed and in at least 12-point bold type, the following disclosures: (a) the total dollar amount to be advanced to the "consumer," (b) an itemization of one-time fees, (c) the total dollar amount to be repaid by the consumer, in six-month intervals for 36 months, and including all fees as well as any minimum monthly required payment amount, (d) the annual percentage rate of return, calculated as of the last day of each six-month interval, including frequency of compounding.

(2) The contract must provide that the consumer may cancel the contract within five business days following the consumer's receipt of funds, without penalty or further obligation. The contract must contain the following notice written in a clear and conspicuous manner: "CONSUMER'S RIGHT TO CANCELLATION: YOU MAY CANCEL THIS CONTRACT WITHOUT PENALTY OR FURTHER OBLIGATION WITHIN FIVE BUSINESS DAYS FROM THE DATE YOU RECEIVE FUNDING FROM [insert name of company]." The contract also must specify that in order for the cancellation to be effective, the consumer must either return to the "company" the full amount of disbursed funds by delivering the company's uncashed check to the company's offices in person, within five business days of the disbursement of funds, or mail a notice of cancellation and include in that mailing a return of the full amount of disbursed funds in the form of the company's check, or a registered or certified check or money order, by insured, registered or certified United States mail, postmarked within five business days of receiving funds from the company, at the address specified in the contract for such cancellation.

(3) The contract must contain the following statement in at least 12-point boldface type: "THE COMPANY AGREES THAT IT SHALL HAVE NO RIGHT TO AND WILL NOT MAKE ANY DECISIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE CONDUCT OF THE UNDERLYING CIVIL ACTION OR CLAIM OR ANY SETTLEMENT OR RESOLUTION THEREOF AND THAT THE RIGHT TO MAKE SUCH DECISIONS REMAIN SOLELY WITH THE CONSUMER AND THE CONSUMER'S ATTORNEY."

(4) The contract must contain the initials of the consumer on each page.

(5) The contract must contain the following statement in at least 12-point boldface type located immediately above the place on the contract where the consumer's signature is required: "DO NOT SIGN THIS CONTRACT BEFORE YOU READ IT COMPLETELY OR IF IT CONTAINS ANY BLANK SPACES. BEFORE YOU SIGN THIS CONTRACT YOU SHOULD OBTAIN THE ADVICE OF YOUR ATTORNEY. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A COMPLETELY FILLED IN COPY OF THIS CONTRACT."

(6) The contract must contain a written acknowledgment by an attorney that states all of the following:

(a) The attorney has reviewed the contract and all costs and fees have been disclosed including the annualized rate of return applied to calculate the amount to be paid by the consumer.

(b) The attorney is being paid on a contingency basis per a written fee agreement.

(c) All proceeds of the civil litigation will be disbursed via the attorney's trust account.

(d) The attorney is following the written instructions of the consumer with regard to the non-recourse civil litigation advance.

(7) For English, French, and Spanish speaking consumers, the contract must be written in the same language in which the oral negotiations are conducted between the company and the consumer. For consumers whose primary language is neither English, French, nor Spanish, the principal terms of the contract must be translated in writing into the consumer's native language, the consumer must sign the translated document containing the principal terms and initial each page, and the translator must sign a notarized affirmation confirming that the principal terms have been presented to the consumer in the consumer's native language and acknowledged by the consumer, in writing. Principal terms include all items that must be disclosed under the bill.

(8) To the extent the contract provides for the company to pay the consumer's attorney's fees and costs, in addition to any amount due and owing under the contract, the contract must provide, in the case of a breach of the contract by either party, that reasonable attorney's fees and costs may be recoverable by the other party. Any contractual cap on such attorney's fees and costs apply equally to both parties.

Definitions

The bill defines the following terms (R.C. 1349.55(A)):

"Non-recourse civil litigation advance" means a transaction in which a company makes a cash payment to a consumer who has a pending civil claim or action in exchange for the right to receive an amount out of the proceeds of any realized settlement, judgment, award, or verdict the consumer may receive in the civil lawsuit.
