H.B. 127 128th General Assembly (As Introduced)

Reps. S. Williams, Brown, Mallory, Letson, Hagan, Harris

BILL SUMMARY

Permits individual boards, commissions, and agencies to adopt rules to determine what criminal offenses are "substantially related" to an applicable profession, the committing of which offenses causes certain licenses, permits, registrations, and certificates to be denied, revoked, suspended, or not renewed.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

Under current law, certain boards, commissions, and agencies have the authority to deny, revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or impose conditions on a license, permit, registration, or certificate if the applicant or holder has committed certain crimes. The bill changes the varying types of those crimes to a "criminal offense that is substantially related" to the applicable profession. The bill defines "criminal offense that is substantially related" to mean that "the nature of the felony or misdemeanor offense for which the person was convicted or to which the person pleaded guilty has a direct bearing on the fitness or ability of the person to perform one or more of the duties or responsibilities necessarily related to a particular occupation, profession, or trade regulated by Title [47] of the Revised Code." The bill affects the professions in the manner described in the chart below. The first column in the chart describes the action that the applicable regulatory board, commission, or agency may take in disciplining a regulated professional. The second column states an offense specified under current law that, when committed by the professional, evokes the regulatory entity's discipline. The third column states the offense, as revised by the bill, that evokes discipline. The second and third columns complete the sentence started in the first column. The chart lists and contrasts only the offenses affected by the bill and does not list all the various offenses for which a regulated professional may be disciplined. (R.C. 4743.06.)
