CONTENT AND OPERATION

State enforcement of immigration laws

The federal Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996 (IIRIRA) authorizes the United States Attorney General to enter into a written agreement with a state or political subdivision of a state that allows a qualified state or political subdivision officer or employee to perform a function of an immigration officer in relation to the investigation, apprehension, or detention of aliens in the United States, including the transportation of aliens across state lines to detention centers, at the expense of the state or political subdivision and to the extent consistent with state and local law (8 U.S.C. 1357(g)(1)). The IIRIRA specifies requirements for an agreement and provisions that must be included in an agreement (8 U.S.C. 1357(g)(2) to (10)) (see COMMENT).

The bill directs the Ohio Attorney General to pursue a memorandum of agreement under the federal IIRIRA between the state of Ohio and the United States Attorney General, or the appropriate federal agency the United States Attorney General designates, to permit the enforcement of federal immigration laws in Ohio, both criminal and civil, including the apprehension, detention, and investigation of illegal aliens in Ohio. (R.C. 109.45(A).) Once a memorandum of agreement is entered into, it must be signed on behalf of Ohio by the Ohio Attorney General or as otherwise required by the memorandum. (R.C. 109.45(B).)

Any memorandum of agreement entered into under the bill would enable designated and specially trained Ohio law enforcement officers to enforce federal immigration laws in Ohio. The bill directs the Ohio Attorney General to designate appropriate law enforcement officers to be trained in the enforcement of the relevant federal immigration laws as specified in the memorandum of agreement. (R.C. 109.45(C)(1).) A law enforcement officer who is certified as trained to enforce the federal immigration laws would enforce those laws while performing within the scope of the officer's authorized duties. (R.C. 109.45(C)(2).) The bill specifies that no law enforcement officer may enforce the federal immigration laws unless that officer has received the requisite training.

(9) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require any State or political subdivision of a State to enter into an agreement with the Attorney General under this subsection.

(10) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require an agreement under this subsection in order for any officer or employee of a State or political subdivision of a State--
