Detailed Fiscal Analysis

The bill designates a portion of State Route 59 within Cuyahoga Falls in Summit County as the "Sergeant Bryan W. Large Memorial Highway" and designates another portion of State Route 59 within Cuyahoga Falls as the "Sergeant Justin T. Walsh Memorial Highway."

The Ohio Department of Transportation (ODOT) may incur minimal costs to install suitable plaques or signs along the designated portions of State Route 59. When a highway or bridge is designated as a memorial, the Department's policy is to first install a memorial plaque in a rest area, scenic overlook, recreational area, or other appropriate location.¹ If this is not practical, a marker is installed along the highway or near the bridge instead. Two plaques or two markers are usually installed, one in either direction at each location. Current costs to manufacture, install, and maintain a single set of memorial plaques or markers at one location are estimated to be a few hundred dollars, depending on the size of the marker(s), equipment and materials needed to install them, and the frequency of maintenance.

More often than not, ODOT erects markers for memorial highways named through legislation. However, if ODOT chooses not to, the municipality of Cuyahoga Falls in Summit County may install such markers along the designated portions of State Route 59 within municipal boundaries and would incur the expense for doing so.
